Re: NOTICE OF REVOCATION OF
BUILDING PERMIT EXEMPTION #1443578

Dear Ms. Moglia-Tilwick:

On June 30, 2022, you submitted to the Hernando County Building Department (“the Department”) an application for an exemption from the Florida Building Code. Your application included your sworn affidavit that you intended to build a 30’ x 50’ non-residential farm building on your property located at 15367 Peach Bloom Road, Brooksville, FL 34614 (“the Structure”). You acknowledged in your affidavit that any change in the use of the Structure could change the exempt status. The Department has reasonable proof that the Structure is being used as a dwelling rather than a non-residential farm building. As such, the Department hereby revokes your building permit exemption #1443578, which revocation shall take effect on June 3, 2024.

Respectfully,

Dennis O’Keefe, CBO
