The seal of Hernando County, Florida, is a circular emblem. The outer ring is light blue with the words "HERNANDO COUNTY" at the top and "FLORIDA" at the bottom, separated by small diamond shapes. The inner circle features a landscape illustration with a blue sky, green hills, a body of water, and a small boat with a person. The text "NATURAL RESOURCES DEPARTMENT" is overlaid in the center of the seal.

A sea turtle is swimming gracefully through a dense, green field of seagrass. The turtle's body is angled towards the left, with its head and front flippers visible. The water is a clear, pale green, and the seagrass blades are thin and numerous, creating a textured background.
