Executive Summary of PIW

Product Description/Objective

This is going to be an upscale RV resort converted from an Auto Body & Paint shop and County & State vehicle impound.

Target Audience

This RV resort is intended to accommodate those vacationers that prefer to travel the country while staying in their own logging throughout their trip rather than Hotel to Hotel.

Competition

There currently is no other short-term RV Park within 6 miles of our location and we are ideally positioned for our guests so they can easily have walking access to restaurants, bars & grills, live music, boat rentals, offshore charter fishing & diving, beaches, and shopping.

Risk/Opportunity

1. The rezoning would benefit everyone in the surrounding community by replacing what is now a business that no longer is a complementary fit in this rapidly growing area which has become mainly a beautiful and inviting setting for family, friends, and outside visitors.
2. We are confident that this conversion of land use will positively encourage the surrounding businesses to make their own improvements to keep with the beautification of Hernando Beach, AKA The Adventure Coast.

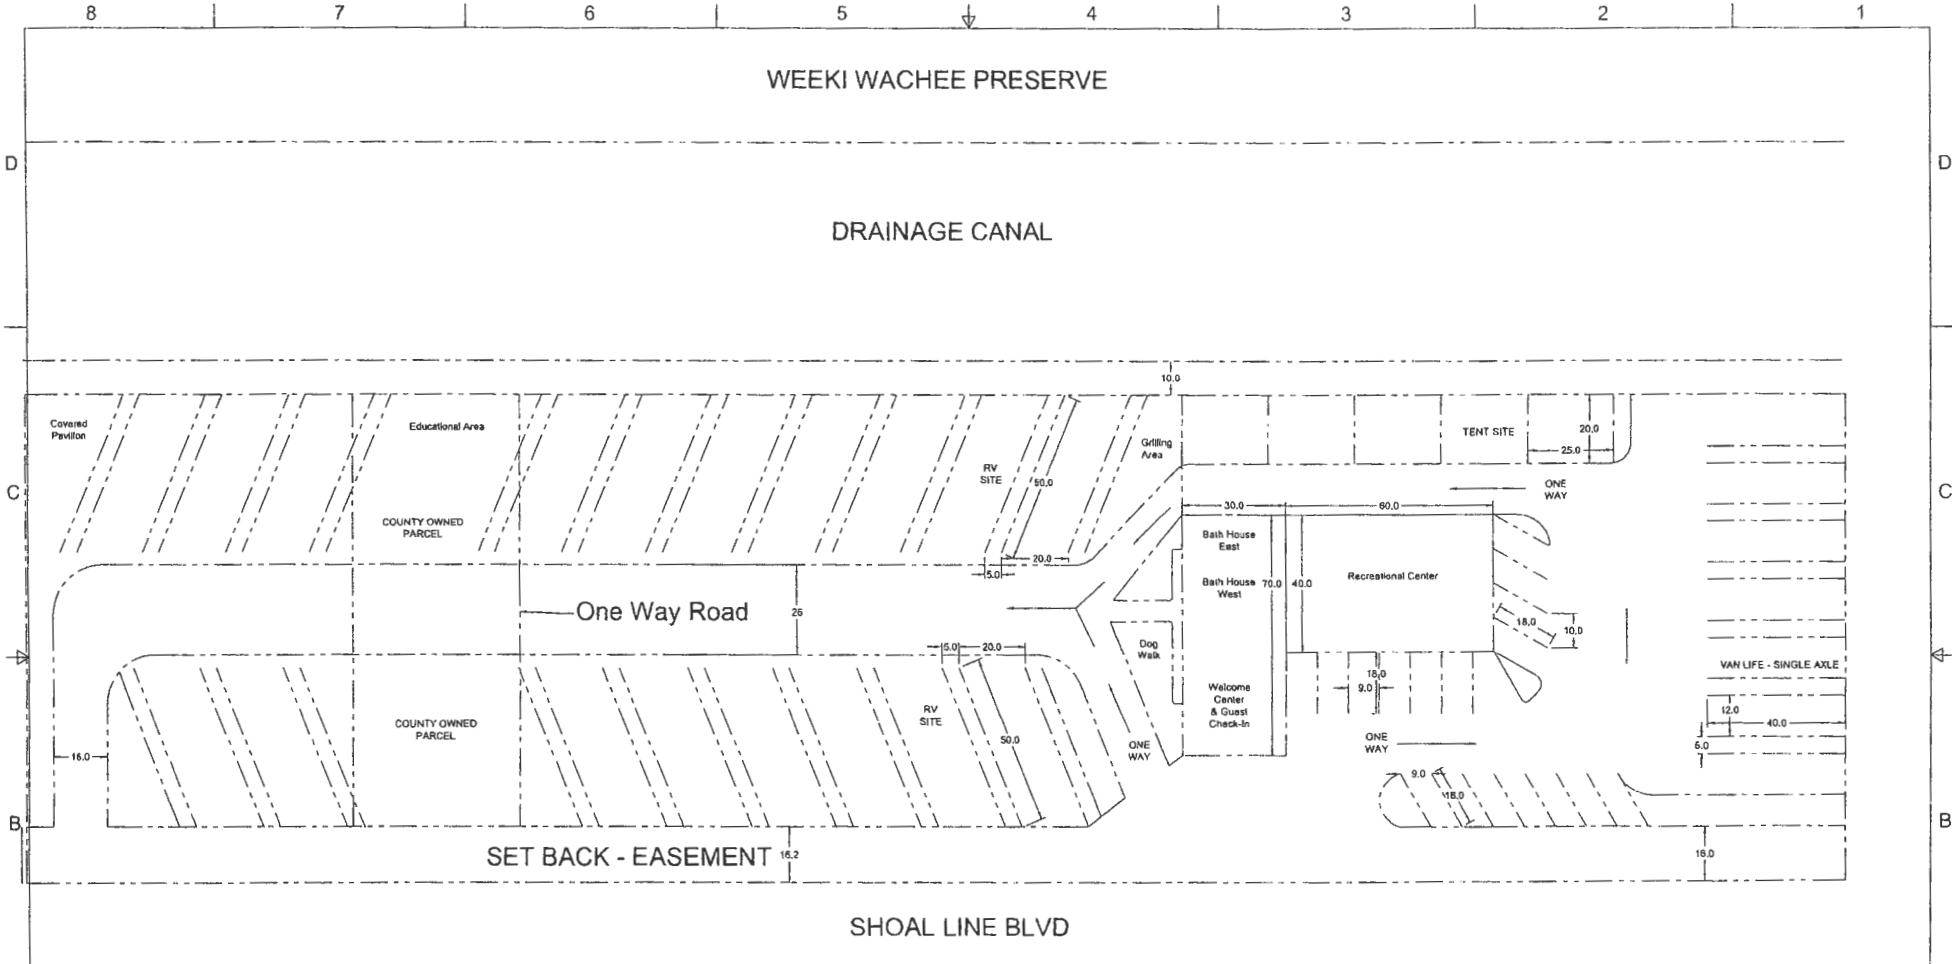

Questions Asked

1. Max & Min amount of time a RV can stay.
2. How will the waste be removed?
3. Will RV's have a safe place to park while checking in?
4. Will it have evening security gates?
5. Will there be a gift shop and/or Dinning?
6. Will there be a bath house for guests?
7. What is primitive camping?
8. Can people live in the park?
9. Why is there going to be a bridge going into the preserves?
10. Is there land contaminated from the prior names business on the property?
11. Will the county be collecting a bed tax?
12. Will there be BBQ & fire pits on the property?
