As councilman I merged Board of Education offices into the new City Hall complex to reduce education costs and improve interdepartmental relations. Converted an unused school into a nursing home, and enabled the community college to expand into the elementary school across the street.

I helped to redesign Veterans Memorial Park with more and better ball fields, protected conservation lands from development, funded the separation of stormwater systems from wastewater systems, helped with the planning of a regional waste-to-energy plant and the planning of one of the first Enterprise Zones in the nation.
