To whom it may concern:

I am officially requesting an appeal to the denial of my Class C subdivision application (1440319). My intent is to deed the lots being created to my children so they may build a home on what is at this time, my property. Therefore, i am petitioning for relief from family hardship.

Please accept this appeal as my heartfelt request to be able to give my children the opportunity to build a home nearby where I can watch generations of family grow and live. As it is, they are not able to mortgage the construction of a home without an assigned parcel number.

Many thanks for your consideration,
