Dear Katie Madison:

The Hernando County Board of County Commissioners wishes to recognize youth who have merited such recognition by their outstanding achievements. As a result of hard work, dedication, loyalty, and devotion to scouting, you have received the highest award in Girl Scouting, the Girls Scout Gold Award.

The Gold Award represents extraordinary leadership, refreshing creativity, and a commitment to making a lasting impact—in other words, it represents you. The skills and values you have developed through Girl Scouting are clearly helping you make the world a better place. Please accept my best wishes and highest confidence in your continued success.

Again, congratulations on this prestigious and well-deserved honor. As always, I am deeply proud of the outstanding young people of Hernando County, Florida, yourself among them, and I commend you for your incredible accomplishment.

With admiration,

Brian Hawkins
Chairman

Hernando County Board of County Commissioners
