Re: Employee Appreciation

Dear Mark:

I recently received a complimentary email from the Building Department. You were commended for the excellent services that you provide to them and their vehicles. It is always gratifying to receive such emails and share this as your hard work, dedication and excellent job knowledge does not go unnoticed. Thank you for your excellent work ethics and setting a great example to the team.

This was a great example of the interdepartmental teamwork that helps improve morale and efficiency in County services.

Sincerely,
