- For years, the Library Advisory Committee did not open meetings with the Pledge of Allegiance. I raised this issue, and Board Member Monty Floyd worked with the committee to have it restored.
- There was also no opening prayer at meetings. I brought this forward as well, and Board Member Monty Floyd helped ensure it was reinstated.
- These issues showed me the committee had drifted away from basic civic traditions valued by much of our community.
- I believe the library system has significant work ahead to rebuild trust, accountability, and transparency.
- I want to help ensure the Library Advisory Committee reflects the values of Hernando County residents, especially parents and families.
- The board should not be filled with anti trump democrats who hold "8647" signs
- My goal is to refocus the committee on education, literacy, and age appropriate materials.
- I am committed to respectful dialogue, community engagement, and serving taxpayers responsibly.

-Louis "LJ" Johns
