WHEREAS, the requested relocation will also provide fire hydrant services to the existing structure(s) as well as the Company's new hangar; and

WHEREAS, section 125.045, Florida Statutes and Article III of Hernando County Code Chapter 11.5 authorizes the Board of County Commissioners to enter into contracts with business entities providing for grant funding and other measures in support of economic development.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Recitals. The above recitals are true and correct and are incorporated herein by reference.

2. The Company Shall:

5. Term. The term of this agreement shall commence upon full execution by both parties (“effective date”) and remain in effect for one (1) year from the effective date, unless terminated earlier as provided in this agreement.

- (a) Should the Applicant fail to start the hydrant relocation within the time period specified above, this agreement will be considered terminated by expiration and the County shall have the right to deny reimbursement of any cost expended by the Company.

6. Reimbursement. The Company shall be eligible for reimbursement in accordance with this agreement and its attachments, following acceptance and approval of the fire hydrant relocation by the County. The Company’s reimbursement shall not exceed the amount indicated in this agreement and attachments. The County shall as follow:

- (d) The County shall process reimbursement in accordance with this agreement and section 218.70-218-74, Florida Statutes (Local Government Prompt Payment Act), after hydrant approval and receipt of Company’s invoice.
- (e) The County shall not reimburse the Applicant for any expenditures not related to, consistent with, or otherwise incurred in connection with this agreement and attachments.

  - i. Charge an interest rate as determined by the State of Florida, Chief Financial Officer, pursuant to Chapter 55, Florida Statutes, on the outstanding balance thereof. Interest shall accrue from the date of the Company's initial receipt of notice for recapture of funds up to the date of reimbursement.

8. County's Remedies. If the County waives any right or remedy in this agreement or fails to insist on strict performance by the Company, it will not affect, extend or waive any other right or remedy of the County, or affect the later exercise of the same right or remedy by the County for any other default by the Company.

9. Record Keeping and Public Records. The Company shall do the following:

- (a) The Company shall prepare and maintain complete and accurate books of accounts and records as to all cost related to this agreement and maintain public records as required by the County.
