I hate do this but I do unfortunately need to pull out of the council for the time being. Have had a lot of personal family things going on. Traveling Art Parties has also become extremely time consuming which is a great problem but leaves very little room for personal time. I would love to still volunteer my time and help out when I can. I love what you guys do and appreciate all of the guys and hope to be apart of the council in the future. Thank you all for the opportunity!
