TITLE

Notice From Supervisor of Elections Office of Senate District 11 2025 Special Primary and General Elections and Associated Budget Amendment

BRIEF OVERVIEW

The attached letter was received from Supervisor of Elections Denise LaVancher notifying of a 2025 Special Election for District 11, as issued by Governor DeSantis via Executive Order 25-148, including estimated special election costs. This special election is a countywide election for Senate District 11, which is currently vacant due to the recent appointment of Senator Blaise Ingoglia as Florida's Chief Financial Officer. Election dates are scheduled for September 30, 2025 (Special Primary), and December 9, 2025 (Special General).

At this time, there is not enough funding in the Supervisor of Elections budget to conduct two special elections. The cost estimate of the elections has been forwarded to the office of the Secretary of State. Following the election, a request for reimbursement from the State will be sent with the actual cost incurred in accordance with Section 100.102, Florida Statutes, that the State reimburse a county for actual costs incurred to conduct a special primary and/or special general election, as ordered pursuant to Section 100.101, Florida Statutes.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

The financial impact associated with the special elections will be the short-term cash flow coverage by the County to cover the special elections, until reimbursement is received.

The attached Budget Amendment (BA2025-163) updates the Supervisor of Election's budget by the amount requested for FY25 in the amount of $516,103. The special primary election is on September 30, 2025, the last day of the fiscal year; hence, those costs are budgeted in FY25, upon approving the attached BA2025-163. The applicable departments are:

Fund: 0011 - General Fund, Department: 01981 - Supervisor of Elections, Account: 5909189 - Fees & Costs - Sup of Elect in the amount of $516,103

Fund: 0011 - General Fund, Department: 05981 - Contingencies Reserves, Account: 5909999 - Budg Res/Cash Forward in the amount of $(516,103)

The special general election, set for December 9, 2025, would put those expenditures in FY26; hence, the FY26 budget would be updated by the requested amount of $516,193, upon approval. A summary of those proposed changes is attached and it will be added to the post-budget workshop changes, upon approval.

When reimbursement is received by the State of Florida, those amounts will be returned to the General Fund reserves to make it whole, and the budget will get updated accordingly.

LEGAL NOTE

The Board is authorized to act on this matter pursuant to Chapters 125 and 129, Florida Statutes.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board approve the attached FY 25 budget amendment in order to conduct the Special Primary Election on September 30, 2025. It is further recommended that the costs of conducting the Special General Election on December 9, 2025, be incorporated into the Supervisor of Elections proposed FY 26 budget at the Board's first public hearing for next year's budget on September 11, 2025, at 5:01 p.m. Following both elections, reimbursement of actual costs incurred will be sought from the State of Florida.

Hernando County Board of County Commissioners

Brooksville, FL 34604

Dear Commissioners:

Governor DeSantis recently issued Executive Order 25-148 ordering Special Elections to be held in Senate District 11 due to the recent appointment of Senator Blaise Ingoglia. This is a countywide election for Senate District 11. There are approximately 132,000 registered voters who will be eligible to vote, and 32 precincts open on election day. The law requires early voting to be held at a minimum of 8 days for each election.

The election dates are as follows:

September 30, 2025	Special Primary Election
December 9, 2025	Special General Election

Section 100.102, Florida Statutes, requires the State to reimburse a county for actual costs incurred to conduct a special primary and/or special (general) election as ordered pursuant to section 100.101, Florida Statues.

At this time, I do not have funds available in my budget to conduct two special elections. A cost estimate has been made by my office to conduct the Special Elections of approximately $1,032,296 (Special Primary $516,103, Special General $516,193). The cost estimate is attached for your information. This cost estimate has also been provided to the office of the Secretary of State. Following the elections, this office will immediately request reimbursement from the State for the actual cost incurred. Any unused funds will be returned to the county.

I respectfully request your assistance in procuring the needed funds for my office to conduct the Special Elections. Thank you in advance for your assistance, and please call me if you need further information.

Respectfully,

Denise LaVancher
Supervisor of Elections

TITLE
Ratification of Member and Appointment of Alternate Member to Canvassing Board

BRIEF OVERVIEW
Supervisor of Elections Denise LaVancher is requesting appointments from the Board of County Commissioners to the Canvassing Board for the 2025 District 11 Special Primary and Special General Elections.

At its November 19, 2024, meeting, the Board designated Commissioner Ryan Amsler to serve on the Canvassing Board for 2025 should any special elections be called.

FINANCIAL IMPACT
N/A

LEGAL NOTE
102.141 County canvassing board; duties:

(1) The county canvassing board shall be composed of the supervisor of elections; a county court judge, who shall act as chair; and the chair of the board of county commissioners. Alternate canvassing board members must be appointed pursuant to paragraph (e). In the event any member of the county canvassing board is unable to serve, is a candidate who has opposition in the election being canvassed, or is an active participant in the campaign or candidacy of any candidate who has opposition in the election being canvassed, such member shall be replaced as follows:

(a) If no county court judge is able to serve or if all are disqualified, the chief judge of the judicial circuit in which the county is located shall appoint as a substitute member a qualified elector of the county who is not a candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed and who is not an active participant in the campaign or candidacy of any candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed. In such event, the members of the county canvassing board shall meet and elect a chair.

(b) If the supervisor of elections is unable to serve or is disqualified, the chair of the board of county commissioners shall appoint as a substitute member a member of the board of county commissioners who is not a candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed and who is not an active participant in the campaign or candidacy of any candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed. The supervisor, however, shall act in an advisory capacity to the canvassing board.

(c) If the chair of the board of county commissioners is unable to serve or is disqualified, the board of county commissioners shall appoint as a substitute member one of its members who is not a candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed and who is not an active participant in the campaign or candidacy of any candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed.

(d) If a substitute member or alternate member cannot be appointed as provided elsewhere in this subsection, or in the event of a vacancy in such office, the chief judge of the judicial circuit in which the county is located shall appoint as a substitute member or alternate member a qualified elector of the county who is not a candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed and who is not an active participant in the campaign or candidacy of any candidate with opposition in the election being canvassed.

(e) 1. The chief judge of the judicial circuit in which the county is located shall appoint a county court judge as an alternate member of the county canvassing board or, if each county court judge is unable to serve or is disqualified, shall appoint an alternate member who is qualified to serve as a substitute member under paragraph (a).

2. The chair of the board of county commissioners shall appoint a member of the board of county commissioners as an alternate member of the county canvassing board or, if each member of the board of county commissioners is unable to serve or is disqualified, shall appoint an alternate member who is qualified to serve as a substitute member under paragraph (d).

3. If a member of the county canvassing board is unable to participate in a meeting of the board, the chair of the county canvassing board or his or her designee shall designate which alternate member will serve as a member of the board in the place of the member who is unable to participate at that meeting.

4. If not serving as one of the three members of the county canvassing board, an alternate member may be present, observe, and communicate with the three members constituting the county canvassing board, but may not vote in the board's decisions or determinations.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board ratify the appointment of Commissioner Ryan Amsler as the Board member representative and appoint an alternate to the Canvassing Board for the 2025 District 11 Special Primary and Special General Elections.

TITLE

Acceptance of FY 2024-25 State Department of Health Emergency Medical Services Grant Funds and Memorandum of Agreement With State Department of Health for Improvement of Pre-Hospital Emergency Medical Services and Associated Budget Resolution

BRIEF OVERVIEW

The Florida Department of Health (FDOH) provides an opportunity of funding for the improvement of prehospital emergency medical services. FDOH has awarded Hernando County Fire and Emergency Services $29,754.00 for the purchase of one stretcher and associated accessories. This grant requires matching funds of 25% which would calculate to $9,918.00. Those amounts combine to equal $39,672.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

A budget resolution is attached for approval. The required local match is $9,918.00.

Funds for the grant match will come from:

Fund: 1691 - HC Fire Rescue Department: 02491 - HC Fire Rescue, Account: 5606401 - Equipment >$5K in the amount of $(9,918)

Funds for the match are available in:

Fund: 1691 - HC Fire Rescue, Department: 02491 - HC Fire Rescue, Account: 5999078 - Trnsf-Grant Match in the amount of $9,918.

The operating expenses for the grant, upon approval, would be:

Fund: 1691 - HC Fire Rescue Department: 32201 - HCFR-EMS Match GRT 64.003, Account: 5305201 - Operating Supplies in the amount of $2,196.

Fund: 1691 - HC Fire Rescue Department: 32201 - HCFR-EMS Match GRT 64.003, Account: 5606401 - Equipment >$5K in the amount of $37,476.

LEGAL NOTE

The Board has authority to act on this matter pursuant to Chapter 125, Florida Statutes.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board approve and authorize the Chairman's signature on the attached Memorandum of Agreement with the Florida Department of Health for improvement of prehospital emergency medical services.

It is further recommended that the Board approve and authorize the Chairman's signature on the associated budget resolution.

Mr. Brian Hawkins, Chairman
Hernando County
15470 Flight Path Drive
Brooksville, FL 34604

Dear Mr. Hawkins:

The Florida Department of Health (Department), Division of Emergency Preparedness and Community Support is pleased to award the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Matching Grant, M2520, in the amount of $29,754.00 to Hernando County. This award is subject to appropriation and availability of funds.

The purpose of this grant is to provide funds for the expansion and/or improvement of prehospital EMS by assisting your organization with the purchase of Stretchers and Stretcher Batteries. Section 401.113(2)(b), Florida Statutes (F.S.), provides authority to dispense funds annually from the EMS Trust Fund; no federal funding was utilized for this grant.

The grant cycle begins on the date the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) associated with this award is executed and ends one calendar year from the date of execution. Your required local cash match is $9,918.00 with a total budget of $39,672.00. Pursuant to section 401.113(2)(b), F.S., and in compliance with the Florida Catalog of State Financial Assistance Number 64.003, agencies are required to report grant activities and purchases to the Department. Grant reports are due within 30 days of the end of each fiscal quarter.

You will receive the MOA for your review and signature at a later date. Funds will not be released until after the agreement is fully executed. A copy of the executed MOA, with my signature, will be provided for your records.

Thank you for your participation in the Florida Department of Health, Bureau of Emergency Medical Oversight's EMS Matching Grant program. If you need assistance, please contact our staff at EMSGrants@FLHealth.gov.

Sincerely,

Douglas H. Woodlief
Division Director
Emergency Preparedness and Community Support

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN The FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
And Hernando County

This Memorandum of Agreement "Agreement" for the Emergency Medical Services Matching Grant, is entered into between the Florida Department of Health "Department", and Hernando County "Grantee", each a "Party" and jointly referred to as the "Parties". In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

SECTION I: DEFINITIONS

A. Definition of Terms:

1) Quarter: A three-month period of the executed agreement. The quarters for this Agreement are July through September (Quarter One); October through December (Quarter Two); January through March (Quarter Three); and April through June (Quarter Four).

38) Emergency Medical Services (EMS): A system that responds to emergencies in need of highly skilled pre-hospital clinicians.

39) Emergency Medical Services Matching Grant: Grant funds available to local agencies, municipalities, emergency medical services organizations, and youth athletic organizations for the purpose of conducting research, increasing existing levels of emergency medical services, evaluation, community education, injury prevention programs, and training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other lifesaving and first aid techniques that are contingent upon the recipient providing a matching cash sum.

40) Grantee: A local agency, municipality, EMS organization, or youth athletic organization for which the Department has approved an application for an Emergency Medical Services Matching Grant.

SECTION II: GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A. General Statement: The Grantee will receive $29,754.00, the grantee will be required to match at either 10% or 25%, $9,918.00, for a total project amount of $39,672.00 from General Appropriation 515 of the 2024-2025 Appropriations Act Laws of Florida," Grants and Aids – Emergency Medical Services Matching Grants from Emergency Medical Services Trust Fund."

B. Legal Authority: This Agreement is made pursuant to the Specific Appropriation Line item 515, 2024-2025 Appropriations Act and Section 401.111, Florida Statutes.

C. Entire Agreement: This Agreement embodies the entire Agreement and understanding between the Parties, on the subject hereof.

D. Term: The term of this Agreement is upon completion of the approved Project, or one calendar year from the date of execution, whichever is earlier.

SECTION III: PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

A. Property and equipment are defined as non-expendable, tangible property having a useful life of more than one year with a cost of $5,000.00 or more.

1. All property and equipment purchased with Emergency Medical Services Matching Grant funds must be:

a. Necessary to carry out the approved project;

b. Justified and pre-approved by the Department;

c. Inventoried and tracked throughout the grant period; and

d. Protected with sufficient insurance and security safeguards.

B. All approved property and equipment must be purchased and received prior to the last three months of the grant period unless prior written approval from the Department has been obtained.

C. All equipment purchased with grant funds is the property of the grantee, and is subject to Chapter 273, Florida Statutes, dealing with state-owned tangible personal property and the disposition thereof. For research institutions not covered under Chapter 1000, Florida Statutes, equipment no longer deemed to be useful will remain state property and must be transferred or donated to a state agency or public university for redistribution or disposition.

SECTION IV: SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED

A. Task List: Grantee will perform the following tasks:

1) Ensure the following tasks are performed as needed:

a. Grantee must complete the project as specified in the Department approved Emergency Medical Services Matching Grant Program application (Attachment A hereinafter referred to as the "Project").

b. Grantee will obtain all supplies, services, and labor for use in the performance of this MOA at the lowest practicable cost and by means of competitive bidding wherever practicable or required by Florida law.

c. Provide a quarterly report to the Department outlining all items that were purchased during the quarter, as well as any remaining items to be purchased during the contract term.

SECTION V: DELIVERABLES AND METHOD OF PAYMENT

A. Deliverables: Grantee must complete and submit the following deliverable in the time and manner specified:

1) Quarterly: The Grantee must provide a quarterly report, reflecting all purchases made in accordance with the approved Attachment A, to the Department demonstrating progress toward completion of the Project as specified in the Department approved Attachment A.

B. Method of Payment:

1) Payment: This is a 100% advance payment.

2) Reporting Requirements: Grantee must submit a properly completed quarterly report to the Agreement Manager within 15 days of the end of each quarter. At a minimum, each report must be submitted on Grantee's letterhead, provide the invoice date, and all activities completed during the invoice period. On a separate page, the Grantee must provide the following:

a) Beginning budget amount;

b) Amount spent year to date;

c) Amount remaining in budget;

d) Statement certifying the accuracy of the invoice; and

e) Signature of an individual with the authority to bind the Grantee.

C. Special Provisions:

1) Allowable Costs: The Grantee may expend funds only for allowable costs resulting from obligations incurred during the Agreement term. Allowable costs are those that are related to the approved Attachment A.

2) Return of Funds: Any balance of unobligated funds advanced or paid, or funds that were not expended in accordance with the Attachment A, must be refunded to the Department within three months of the grant end date.

3) Monitoring: The Grantee must permit persons duly authorized by the Department to inspect any records, papers, documents, facilities, or goods and services of the Grantee that are relevant to this grant, and interview any clients, sub-contractors, and employees of the Grantee to assure the Department of satisfactory performance of the Terms and Conditions of this grant. Monitoring may take place at any time during the grant period or records retention period, with reasonable advance notice, during normal business hours. Following such evaluation, the Department may deliver to Grantee a written report of its findings and may include written recommendations with regard to Grantee's performance of the Terms and Conditions of this grant. Grantee will correct all noted deficiencies identified by the Department within the specified period of time set forth in the recommendations. Grantee's failure to correct noted deficiencies may, at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Department, result in any one or a combination of the following: 1) Grantee being deemed in breach or default of this Agreement; 2) the termination of this grant.

4) Duties of Designated Grant Manager: The Grant Manager designated by the Department shall reconcile and verify all funds received against all funds expended during the term of this Agreement period and produce a final reconciliation report. The final report for this project must identify any funds paid in excess of the expenditures incurred by the Grantee or Sub-recipient.

5) Sovereign Immunity: Pursuant to section 768.28, Florida Statutes, the Department is immune from civil or criminal liability resulting from acts or omissions of the Grantee and the Grantee's agents, employees, or assigns.

6) Governing Law and Venue: This Agreement is executed and entered into in the State of Florida and will be construed and performed under the laws, rules, and regulations of the State of Florida. Venue must be in Leon County, Florida to the exclusion of all other jurisdictions.

7) Indemnification: Grantee will be liable for, and indemnify, defend, and hold the Department harmless from and against all claims, demands, suits, judgments, or damages, including, but not limited to, court costs and attorneys' fees and damages resulting from personal injury, including death or damage to property, arising out of the negligence, intentional or unintentional acts or omissions of the Grantee, and the Grantee's agents, assignees, sub-contractors, and employees, that may arise during the course of the operation of this Agreement, or that arise out of or relating to the subject property, the Project, or the use of grant money.

8) Modification: This Agreement may only be amended in writing and upon mutual agreement by the Parties.

9) Termination:

a) Termination Because of Lack of Funds: It is agreed that in the event funds to finance this Agreement, or part of this Agreement, become unavailable, the obligations of each Party, hereunder may be terminated upon no less than 24 hours' notice in writing to the other Party. Said notice will be delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in person with proof of delivery. The Department will be the final authority as to the availability of state funds, and how any remaining funds will be allocated among Grantees.

b) Termination for Breach: Unless the Grantee's breach is excused by the Department, the Department may provide written notice to the Grantee specifically setting forth the breach and allow a 30-calendar day period whereby the Grantee may cure any such breach. The Department may terminate any part or the whole of this Agreement in any of the following circumstances:

i. If Grantee fails to provide services called for by this Agreement within the time specified herein or any extension thereof.

ii. If Grantee fails to perform any of the other provisions of this Agreement.

iii. Except as set forth above, termination will be upon no less than 24 hours' notice in writing delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in person with proof of delivery.

c) All provisions of this Agreement that were not terminated, amended, or modified will remain in full effect and Grantee will continue performance under any remaining provisions.

d) After receipt of a notice of termination, and except as otherwise directed in writing, the Grantee will:

i. Stop work under this Agreement on the date and to the extent specified in the notice of termination and take any other actions as directed in writing from the Department.

ii. Place no further orders or contracts for materials, services, or facilities except as may be necessary for completion of such portion of work under the Agreement as is not terminated.

iii. Terminate all outstanding orders and contracts to the extent that they relate to the performance of work under this Agreement.

iv. Prepare all necessary reports and documents required under the terms of this Agreement. Documents must be prepared up to the date of termination and include the final report due upon completion of this Agreement. The Department will provide no additional funds for administrative fees or for the completion of final reports after the date of termination.

v. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, upon termination of this Agreement, the Grantee may continue work on the Project that is the subject of this MOA so long as such work is funded by sources other than the Department.

10) Notice: Any notices given by either party to the other party under this Agreement will be in writing and sent either: via email to the designated email address, by overnight courier, with a verified receipt; or by registered or certified United States Mail, postage prepaid. Either party's specified point of contacts may be changed by notifying the other party a minimum of one week prior to such change. Notice will be deemed sufficiently given upon receipt at the following addresses:

Grantee: Brian Hawkins, Chairman
15470 Flight Path Drive
Brooksville, FL 34604
bhawkins@co.hernando.fl.us

11) Cooperation with Inspectors General: To the extent applicable, the Parties will cooperate with the inspector general in any investigation, audit, inspection, review, or hearing pursuant to section 20.055(5), Florida Statutes.

12) Public Records: The Grantee must keep and maintain public records, as defined in Chapter 119, Florida Statutes that are required by the Department to perform the services required by the grant. Questions regarding the application of Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, and its duty to provide public records relating to this Agreement, contact the custodian of public records at (850) 245-4005, PublicRecordsRequest@flhealth.gov or 4052 Bald Cypress Way, Bin A02, Tallahassee, FL 32399.

13) Prohibition on Use of Funds for DEI: Prohibition on Use of Funds for DEI: No state funding under this Agreement may be used for promoting, advocating for, or providing training or education on "Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion" ("DEI"). DEI is any program, activity, or policy that classifies individuals on the basis of race, color, sex, national origin, gender identity, or sexual orientation and promotes differential or preferential treatment of individuals on the basis of such classification or promotes the position that a group or an individual's action is inherently, unconsciously, or implicitly biased on the basis of such classification.

AUDIT REQUIREMENTS FOR AWARDS OF STATE AND FEDERAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The administration of resources awarded by the Department of Health to recipient organization may be federal or state financial assistance as defined by 2 CFR § 200.40 and/or section 215.97, Florida Statutes, and may be subject to audits and/or monitoring by the Department of Health, as described in this section. For this agreement, the Department of Health has determined the following relationship exist:

1. _____ Vendor/Contractor (215.97(z), F.S.) and (2 CFR § 200.23). Funds used for goods and services for the Department of Health's own use and creates a procurement relationship with Recipient which is not subject to single audit act compliance requirements for the Federal/State program as a result of this contract agreement.

   A vendor/contractor agreement may also be used with an established Service Organization (SO) that is serving as a Third-Party Administrator and in this case, is subject to SSAE18 audit reporting requirements (see Part III. Other Audit Requirements).

2. ___X___ Recipient/Subrecipient of state financial assistance (215.97(o)(y), F.S.). Funds may be expended only for allowable costs resulting from obligations incurred during the specified contract period. In addition, any balance of unobligated funds which has been advanced or paid must be refunded to the Department of Health as the state awarding agency. As well as funds paid in excess of the amount to which the recipient/subrecipient is entitled under the terms and conditions of the contract must be refunded to the Department of Health.

3. _____ Recipient/Subrecipient of federal financial assistance (2 CFR § 200.40) . Funds paid in excess of the amount to which the recipient/subrecipient is entitled under the terms and conditions of the contract must be refunded to the Department of Health as the Pass-Through state awarding agency. In addition, the recipient/subrecipient may not earn or keep any profit resulting from Federal financial assistance, unless explicitly authorized by the terms and conditions of the Federal award or this agreement.

Note: A vendor/contractor vs. recipient/subrecipient determination must conclude with the completion of Exhibit 2 to identify the recipient's audit's relationship with the department.

MONITORING

In addition to reviews of audits conducted in accordance with 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F (formerly A-133) - Audit Requirements, and section 215.97, Florida Statutes (F.S.), as revised (see AUDITS below), monitoring procedures may include, but not be limited to, on-site visits by Department of Health staff, limited scope audits as defined by 2 CFR §200.425, or other procedures. By entering into this agreement, the recipient agrees to comply and cooperate with any monitoring procedures or processes deemed appropriate by the Department of Health. In the event the Department of Health determines that a limited scope audit of the recipient is appropriate, the recipient agrees to comply with any additional instructions provided by Department of Health staff to the recipient regarding such audit. The recipient further agrees to comply and cooperate with any inspections, reviews, investigations, or audits deemed necessary by the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) or Auditor General.

AUDIT GUIDANCE

PART I: FEDERALLY FUNDED

This part is applicable if Recipient is a State or local government or a non-profit organization as defined in 2 CFR §200.90, §200.64, and §200.70.

1. If a recipient expends $1,000,000 or more in Federal awards during its fiscal year, the recipient must have a single or program-specific audit conducted in accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements. EXHIBIT 1 to this form lists the federal resources awarded through the Department of Health by this agreement. In determining the federal awards expended in its fiscal year, the recipient shall consider all sources of federal awards, including federal resources received from the Department of Health. The determination of amounts of federal awards expended should be in accordance with the guidelines established in 2 CFR §§200.502-503. An audit of the recipient conducted by the Auditor General in accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR §200.514 will meet the requirements of this Part.

2. In connection with the audit requirements addressed in Part I, paragraph 1, Recipient shall fulfill the requirements relative to auditee responsibilities as provided in 2 CFR §§ 200.508-.512.

3. If a recipient expends less than $1,000,000 in Federal awards in its fiscal year, the recipient is not required to have an audit conducted in accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements. If the recipient expends less than $1,000,000 in federal awards in its fiscal year and elects to have an audit conducted in accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, the cost of the audit must be paid from non-federal resources (i.e., the cost of such an audit must be paid from recipient resources obtained from other than federal entities).

Note: Audits conducted in accordance with this part shall cover the entire organization for the organization's fiscal year. Compliance findings related to contracts with the Department of Health shall be based on the contract agreement's requirements, including any rules, regulations, or statutes referenced in the contract. The financial statements shall disclose whether the matching requirement was met for each applicable contract. All questioned costs and liabilities due to the Department of Health shall be fully disclosed in the audit report with reference to the Department of Health contract involved. If not otherwise disclosed as required by 2 CFR § 200.510, the schedule of expenditures of Federal awards shall identify expenditures by funding source and contract number for each contract with the Department of Health in effect during the audit period.

Financial reporting packages required under this part must be submitted within the earlier of 30 days after receipt of the audit report or 9 months after the end of Recipient's fiscal year end.

PART II: STATE FUNDED

This part is applicable if the recipient is a nonstate entity as defined by section 215.97(1)(n), Florida Statutes.

1. If a recipient expends a total amount of state financial assistance equal to or in excess of $750,000 in any fiscal year of such recipient (for fiscal years ending June 30, 2017 or thereafter), recipient must have a State single or project-specific audit for such fiscal year in accordance with section 215.97, Florida Statutes; applicable rules of the Department of Financial Services; Chapter 10.550 (local governmental entities) or Chapter 10.650 (nonprofit and for-profit organizations), Rules of the Auditor General. EXHIBIT I to this contract indicates state financial assistance awarded through the Department of Health by this contract. In determining the state financial assistance expended in its fiscal year, recipient shall consider all sources of state financial assistance, including state financial assistance received from the Department of Health, other state agencies, and other nonstate entities. State financial assistance does not include Federal direct or pass-through awards and resources received by a nonstate entity for Federal program matching requirements.

2. In connection with the audit requirements addressed in Part II, paragraph 1, recipient shall ensure that the audit complies with the requirements of section 215.97(8), Florida Statutes. This includes submission of a financial reporting package as defined by section 215.97(2), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 10.550 (local governmental entities) or Chapter 10.650 (nonprofit and for-profit organizations), Rules of the Auditor General.

3. If a recipient expends less than $750,000 in state financial assistance in its fiscal year (for fiscal years ending June 30, ,2017 or thereafter), an audit conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 215.97, Florida Statutes, is not required. In the event that a recipient expends less than $750,000 in state financial assistance in its fiscal year and elects to have an audit conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 215.97, Florida Statutes, the cost of the audit must be paid from the nonstate entity's resources (i.e., the cost of such an audit must be paid from recipient resources obtained from other than state funds).

Note: An audit conducted in accordance with this part shall cover the entire organization for the organization's fiscal year. Compliance findings related to contracts with the Department of Health shall be based on the contract's requirements, including any applicable rules, regulations, or statutes. The financial statements shall disclose whether the matching requirement was met for each applicable contract. All questioned costs and liabilities due to the Department of Health shall be fully disclosed in the audit report with reference to the Department of Health contract involved. If not otherwise disclosed as required by Florida Administrative Code Rule 69I-5.003, the schedule of expenditures of state financial assistance shall identify expenditures by contract number for each contract with the Department of Health in effect during the audit period.

Financial reporting packages required under this part must be submitted within 45 days after delivery of the audit report, but no later than 9 months after recipient's fiscal year end for local governmental entities. Non-profit or for-profit organizations are required to be submitted within 45 days after delivery of the audit report, but no later than 9 months after recipient's fiscal year end. Notwithstanding the applicability of this portion, the Department of Health retains all right and obligation to monitor and oversee the performance of this contract as outlined throughout this document and pursuant to law.

PART III: OTHER AUDIT REQUIREMENTS

This part is applicable to a contractor, vendor and/or provider organization serving as a third-party administrator on behalf of FDOH programs and is classified or determined in the FDOH contract agreement to be a Service Organization (SO).

If the contracted entity is determined to be a Service Organization (SO), the entity must perform an attestation to the System Organization Controls (SOC) and submit to FDOH a "Statement on Standards for Attestation Engagements (SSAE18) audit report within the assigned timeframe as agreed upon in the SO's contract agreement. The hired Auditor must make an evaluation consistent with the FDOH contract terms and conditions to determine which SSAE18 report types to perform for the required SOC types. Below are the options available for the SSAE18 reports;

TYPES:

1. SOC 1 – A report on controls over financial reporting.

   - Type 1 Report - Report on the fairness of the presentation of management's description of the service organization's system and the suitability of the design of the controls to achieve the related control objectives included in the description as of a specified date.

   - Type 2 Report - Report on the fairness of the presentation of management's description of the service organization's system and the suitability of the design and operating effectiveness of the controls to achieve the related control objectives included in the description throughout a specified period. (Auditor conducts testing)

2. SOC 2 – A report on controls that may be relevant to security, availability, processing Integrity, confidentiality or privacy. These reports are intended to meet the needs of a broad range of users that need detailed information and assurance about the controls at a service organization relevant to security, availability, and processing integrity of the systems the service organization uses to process users' data and the confidentiality and privacy of the information processed by these systems. These reports can play an important role in:

   - Oversight of the organization
   - Vendor management programs
   - Internal corporate governance and risk management processes
   - Regulatory oversight

   - Type 1 Report - Report on the fairness of the presentation of management's description of the service organization's system and the suitability of the design of the controls to achieve the related control objectives included in the description as of a specified date.

   - Type 2 Report - Report on the fairness of the presentation of management's description of the service organization's system and the suitability of the design and operating effectiveness of the controls to achieve the related control objectives included in the description throughout a specified period. (Auditor conducts testing)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION OF SINGLE AUDIT REPORTS

Part I: Submission to FDOH

Single Audit reporting packages ("SARP") must be submitted to the Department in an electronic format. This change will eliminate the need to submit multiple copies of the reporting package to the Contract Managers and various sections within the Department and will result in efficiencies and cost savings to recipient and the Department. Upon receipt, the SARP's will be posted to a secure server and accessible to Department staff.

The electronic copy of the SARP should:

- Be in a Portable Document Format (PDF).
- Include the appropriate letterhead and signatures in the reports and management letters.

  Be a single document. However, if the financial audit is issued separately from the Single Audit reports, the financial audit reporting package may be submitted as a single document and the Single Audit reports may be submitted electronically as a single document to the FDOH SAC website address: fdohsac.azurewebsites.net
- Be an exact copy of the final, signed SARP provided by the Independent Audit firm.
- Not have security settings applied to the electronic file.
- Be named using the following convention under the CPA's issued license number: [fiscal year] [name of the audited entity exactly as stated within the audit report].pdf. For example, if the SARP is for the 2016-17 fiscal year for the City of Gainesville, the document should be entitled 2016 City of Gainesville.pdf.
- Be accompanied by the attached "Single Audit Data Collection Form." This document is necessary to ensure that communications related to SARP issues are directed to the appropriate individual(s) and that compliance with Single Audit requirements is properly captured.

Questions regarding electronic submissions may be submitted via e-mail to SingleAudits@flhealth.gov or by telephone to the Single Audit Review Section at (850) 245-4520.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through your DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) Express user account. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. For such copies, as long as you are an authorized user of the DocuSign system you will have the ability to download and print any documents we send to you through your DocuSign user account for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of your DocuSign account. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use your DocuSign Express user account to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through your DocuSign user account all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.

How to contact Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health:
You may contact us to let us know of your changes as to how we may contact you electronically, to request paper copies of certain information from us, and to withdraw your prior consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically as follows:
To contact us by email send messages to: antonio.dawkins@flhealth.gov

To advise Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health of your new e-mail address
To let us know of a change in your e-mail address where we should send notices and disclosures electronically to you, you must send an email message to us at antonio.dawkins@flhealth.gov and in the body of such request you must state: your previous e-mail address, your new e-mail address. We do not require any other information from you to change your email address..
In addition, you must notify DocuSign, Inc to arrange for your new email address to be reflected in your DocuSign account by following the process for changing e-mail in DocuSign.
To request paper copies from Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health
To request delivery from us of paper copies of the notices and disclosures previously provided by us to you electronically, you must send us an e-mail to antonio.dawkins@flhealth.gov and in the body of such request you must state your e-mail address, full name, US Postal address, and telephone number. We will bill you for any fees at that time, if any.
To withdraw your consent with Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health
To inform us that you no longer want to receive future notices and disclosures in electronic format you may:

i. decline to sign a document from within your DocuSign account, and on the subsequent page, select the check-box indicating you wish to withdraw your consent, or you may;
ii. send us an e-mail to antonio.dawkins@flhealth.gov and in the body of such request you must state your e-mail, full name, IS Postal Address, telephone number, and account number. We do not need any other information from you to withdraw consent.. The consequences of your withdrawing consent for online documents will be that transactions may take a longer time to process..

Required hardware and software

 These minimum requirements are subject to change. If these requirements change, we will provide you with an email message at the email address we have on file for you at that time providing you with the revised hardware and software requirements, at which time you will have the right to withdraw your consent.

Acknowledging your access and consent to receive materials electronically
To confirm to us that you can access this information electronically, which will be similar to other electronic notices and disclosures that we will provide to you, please verify that you were able to read this electronic disclosure and that you also were able to print on paper or electronically save this page for your future reference and access or that you were able to e-mail this disclosure and consent to an address where you will be able to print on paper or save it for your future reference and access. Further, if you consent to receiving notices and disclosures exclusively in electronic format on the terms and conditions described above, please let us know by clicking the 'I agree' button below.
By checking the 'I Agree' box, I confirm that:

- I can access and read this Electronic CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC RECEIPT OF ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURES document; and

- I can print on paper the disclosure or save or send the disclosure to a place where I can print it, for future reference and access; and

- Until or unless I notify Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health as described above, I consent to receive from exclusively through electronic means all notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to me by Carahsoft OBO Florida Department of Health during the course of my relationship with you.

TITLE

Authorization for County Attorney to Execute Settlement Participation Agreements for Mediated Settlements With Nine Manufacturers of Generic Opioid Products Regarding Opioid Litigation

BRIEF OVERVIEW

I. The Litigation

On January 29, 2019, the Board of County Commissioners selected a litigation team consisting of numerous nationally renowned law firms including Podhurst Orseck, P.A.; Levin, Papantonio, Thomas, Mitchell, Rafferty & Proctor, PA; Baron & Budd, PC; Greene, Ketchum, Farrell, Bailey & Tweet, LLP; McHugh Fuller Law Group, PLLC; Hill, Peterson, Carper, Bee & Dietzler, PLLC; Powell & Majestro, PLLC., and the Law Office of Lucas Magazine (collectively, “Levin”) as outside counsel to represent the County with regard to opioid litigation.

On June 6, 2019, the County Attorney's Office and Levin filed a federal lawsuit for damages on Hernando County’s behalf against several participants in the opioid industry. The County filed its suit in the Middle District of Florida, but it was subsequently transferred to become part of the multi-district litigation (“MDL”) case pending in the Northern District of Ohio.

(An MDL is a federal legal procedure that is designed to consolidate complex cases that involve similar legal issues before one court for all discovery and pretrial proceedings. The goal of an MDL is to expedite proceedings, conserve resources, and foster consistent court rulings across different lawsuits. The Opioid MDL is the largest such proceeding in U.S. history, and it has been described as the most complex civil litigation in U.S. history. Although the case is currently in the Northern District of Ohio, if it does not settle it will be tried in the Middle District of Florida.)

Amongst the defendants that Hernando County sued were nine manufacturers of generic opioid products: Alvogen, Inc., Amneal Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Apotex, Inc., Hikma Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., Indivior, Inc., Mylan Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Sun Pharmaceutical Industries, Inc., Zydus Pharmaceuticals, Inc., and Sandoz, Inc. (collectively, the “Generic Providers”).

II. The Proposed Settlements

A committee of plaintiffs recently reached two mediated settlements with the Generic Providers: one with the first eight listed Generic Providers and one with Sandoz, Inc.

These settlements will provide payments totaling $844,000,000 in cash and $355,000,000 in life-saving opioid addiction and overdose treatment drugs. The product components also are convertible to a maximum of $87,000,000 in cash for product that is not utilized by the States or Subdivisions. A chart of the proposed settlements is attached hereto.

Thus, the total value of these deals for cash and product is $1,199,000,000, and the maximum cash value of these deals is $931,000,000. Six of the nine deals will be paid out in the first year, with the remaining three (Amneal, Indivior and Mylan) over a period of years. The settlements will be administered by BrownGreer and Rubris in a manner similar to the prior settlements. The settlement payments will be coordinated so Hernando County will receive one combined annual payment for all nine settlements until all payment years are completed.

The exact schedule of payments that Hernando County will receive if it approves the settlements is not yet known.

III. Recommendation

Hernando County's counsel recommends that it participate in the above-described settlements.

IV. Authorization for County Attorney to E-Sign Participation Agreements

To participate in the settlements, Hernando County must e-sign the applicable participation forms. This agenda item asks the Board of County Commissioners to authorize the County Attorney to e-sign the participation forms.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

Participating in the settlements includes the cost to participate in the applicable process, both actual costs not recovered as part of the process and the opportunity cost associated with any time spent on the settlement by the County Attorney's office; however, those costs also bring the potential for settlement funds to provide additional resources to Hernando County to offer programs and services to assist those that have been negatively impacted by Opioid Products. The dollar amounts above are substantial and the County Attorney's office recommends joining the settlement.

LEGAL NOTE

The Board has the authority to approve this Agenda Item pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 125.01.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended by the Hernando County's counsel that the Board approve this agenda item.

TITLE

Authorization for County Attorney to Vote for Approval of Thirteenth Joint Bankruptcy Plan for Purdue Pharma, L.P., and to Electronically Sign Governmental Entity Settlement Agreement a/k/a GESA Sackler Release Regarding Opioid Litigation

BRIEF OVERVIEW

I. The Litigation

On January 29, 2019, the Board of County Commissioners selected a litigation team consisting of numerous nationally renowned law firms including Podhurst Orseck, P.A.; Levin, Papantonio, Thomas, Mitchell, Rafferty & Proctor, PA; Baron & Budd, PC; Greene, Ketchum, Farrell, Bailey & Tweet, LLP; McHugh Fuller Law Group, PLLC; Hill, Peterson, Carper, Bee & Dietzler, PLLC; Powell & Majestro, PLLC., and the Law Office of Lucas Magazine (collectively, "Levin") as outside counsel to represent the County with regard to opioid litigation.

On June 6, 2019, the County Attorney's Office and Levin filed a federal lawsuit for damages on Hernando County's behalf against several participants in the opioid industry, including Purdue Pharma, L.P ("Purdue"). The County filed its suit in the Middle District of Florida, but it was subsequently transferred to become part of the multi-district litigation ("MDL") case pending in the Northern District of Ohio.

(An MDL is a federal legal procedure that is designed to consolidate complex cases that involve similar legal issues before one court for all discovery and pretrial proceedings. The goal of an MDL is to expedite proceedings, conserve resources, and foster consistent court rulings across different lawsuits. The Opioid MDL is the largest such proceeding in U.S. history, and it has been described as the most complex civil litigation in U.S. history. Although the case is currently in the Northern District of Ohio, if it does not settle it will be tried in the Middle District of Florida.)

II. Purdue Bankruptcy Plan

Purdue, the company which developed and marketed Oxycontin, and its affiliates, petitioned for bankruptcy on September 15, 2019, after being named as a defendant in thousands of civil lawsuits seeking damages for asserted opioid-related injuries to state, local, and tribal governments, hospitals, individuals, and insurers, among others. Many such cases were consolidated in the Opioid MDL. Specifically, Purdue filed its petition for bankruptcy under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (In re Purdue Pharma LP, et al., Case No. 19-23649 (RDD)).

Please note that on or about June 30, 2021, the County voted to approve a prior bankruptcy plan that Purdue had submitted to the bankruptcy court. The Supreme Court, however, overturned that plan in Harrington v. Purdue Pharm. L.P., 603 U.S. 204 (2024), on the grounds that the Plan also indemnified members of the Sackler Family, Purdue's owners, who had not filed for bankruptcy protection themselves.

After the Supreme Court's ruling, Purdue and the Plaintiffs went to mediation, the result of which is the Thirteenth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Purdue Pharma L.P. and its Affiliated Debtors (the "Plan"). Since the County filed a proof of claim in said case, it is eligible to vote on the approval of the Plan as one of Purdue's creditors.

The Plan basically preserves the settlement contained in the Twelfth Amended Plan, which the County previously approved in 2021. The aggregate payment by the Sackler Family to settle claims against it has been increased from $5.5 billion over eighteen years to up to $7 billion over fifteen years, with up to $1.5 billion of that total due on the Effective Date of the Plan (and more than 40% of the $6.5 billion total due in the first three years).

Under the Plan and various settlements with the members of the Sackler Family, billions of dollars will flow into trusts established for the benefit of claimants harmed by the opioid crisis, including local governments such as the County. Creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases will have the opportunity to elect whether to settle their direct claims against the Sacklers in exchange for enhanced recoveries under the Plan. In the aggregate, as much as $8 billion in value could be available for creditors under the Plan.

If the creditors approve the Plan, Purdue Pharma will be dissolved, and its ongoing businesses will be transferred to a newly created company, Knoa Pharma LLC ("NewCo"), which will be wholly owned by a tax-exempt entity intended to be treated as an exempt organization under IRC section 501(c)(4) (the "Foundation"). No federal, state, or local governmental entity will own the equity of NewCo or the Foundation. NewCo will be a private company, will be required to operate in a responsible manner, and will be subject to the same laws and regulations as any other U.S. pharmaceutical company. NewCo will, however, be historic and unique because it will be governed by a charter that will require that it deploy all of its profits to address the opioid crisis. NewCo's profits will fund the payments to state and local governments.

III. Plan Payments

As discussed above, the combined assets of the Purdue bankruptcy estate will be used to pay various groups of private creditors-insurers, hospitals, individual personal injury plaintiffs-and the residual amount, which may be approximately $8 billion will be allocated among state, local, and tribal governments with a mission to fund abatement of the opioid crisis.

As also noted above, the National Opioid Abatement Trust (NOAT) will distribute the funding to states and local governments that have been detrimentally impacted by the opioid epidemic. The NOAT will have a trust distribution procedure which will determine the distribution of funds for approved abatement uses, such as measures to diminish or eradicate opioid misuse or abuse. All recoveries by state and local governments (including Hernando County) from the proceeds from the Plan, with limited exceptions, will go through the NOAT.

As Florida has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with its local governments on a process for sharing and allocating opioid recoveries, that MOU will control the allocation of funds from the NOAT. (Hernando County entered into the MOU when it adopted Resolution No. 2021-101 on July 13, 2021.)

The ultimate value of the bankruptcy estate is unknown because it depends in part on NewCo's future profitability and on the revenues that are ultimately realized from the sale of Purdue's corporate assets. Thus, it is not technically possible to calculate or monetize the County's possible recovery from Purdue at this time. The United States Department of Justice, however, has opined that the Plan should produce sufficient revenue to fully fund the claims of states and local governments.

IV. Conclusion

Levin recommends that the Board approve the Plan. Additionally, the following entities have recommended that the Board approve the Plan: the United States Justice Department, the Florida Attorney General's Office, States' Attorneys General Negotiating Group, the Ad Hoc Committee of Governmental and Other Contingent Litigation Claimants, the Multi-State Governmental Entity Group, the Native American Tribes Group, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the ER Physicians, the Third-Party Payor Group, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants, the NAS Committee, and the Public School District Claimants.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

The financial impact is dependent on the settlement that ends up being approved and applicable resources included in that deal.

LEGAL NOTE

The Board has the authority to approve this Agenda Item pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 125.01.

RECOMMENDATION

As noted above, Levin recommends that the Board vote to approve the Plan. If approved, it is recommended that the County Attorney be authorized to execute the Governmental Entity Settlement Agreement ("GESA") Sackler Release.

GOVERNMENTAL ENTITY & SHAREHOLDER SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement, dated as of [●], 2025 (the "Agreement"), sets forth the terms of settlement between and among the Settling States, the MDT, solely as of the Effective Date, with respect to Article 4, or otherwise as expressly set forth herein, the Participating Subdivisions, and the Payment Parties (as those terms are defined below). Upon the Effective Date and satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article 2 and Article 8, this Agreement will be binding on the Settling States, Participating Subdivisions and the Payment Parties. This Agreement will then be filed as part of a Consent Judgment in the respective courts of each of the Settling States, pursuant to the terms set forth in Article 8.

This Agreement addresses and resolves the Settling State and Participating Subdivision alleged direct claims against the Shareholder Released Parties and claims against the Released Parties. However, it is only one part of a set of agreements addressed through the Plan. Party obligations and agreement terms are also addressed in the Plan and its related documents, including the Master Settlement Agreement and the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement; provided, that (i) in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall govern; (ii) in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Master Settlement Agreement, relating to payment determinations pursuant to this Agreement, enforcement, and/or release terms set forth herein, the terms of this Agreement shall govern, (iii) in the event of any other conflict between this Agreement and the Master Settlement Agreement, the terms of the Master Settlement Agreement shall govern, and (iv) in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Plan or Confirmation Order (a) with respect to any matter affecting, or a dispute involving, a party that is not a Party or otherwise bound by this Agreement, the Plan or Confirmation Order shall govern, as applicable, and (b) with respect to all other matters, this Agreement shall govern. This Agreement shall not be enforced against any Person not party to or otherwise bound by this Agreement. The determination of whether there is any inconsistency between this Agreement and the Plan or Confirmation Order shall be made by the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE 1.
DEFINITIONS; INTERPRETATION PROVISIONS

Section 1.01 Unless otherwise specified, the following definitions apply:

"A-Side Payment Party" has the meaning set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement.

"Accelerated Payment States" means certain States that qualify for an accelerated payment schedule with Annual Remediation Payments being made over nine or ten Payment Dates. If they become Settling States, Connecticut and Oregon are scheduled to receive payments through Payment Date 9; and Kentucky, Maine, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Utah, West Virginia and the Oklahoma Subdivisions (to the extent they are Participating Subdivisions) are scheduled to receive payments through Payment Date 10.

"Advisory Committee" has the meaning set forth in Section 5.05(b)(iv).

"Agreement" means this agreement, as set forth above. For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement is inclusive of all exhibits.

"Alleged Harms" means the alleged past, present, and future financial, societal, public nuisance, and other harms, as well as any expenditures related to the foregoing, arising out of the conduct, omission, or liability of the Debtors and relating to Covered Conduct, including the alleged use, misuse, and abuse of Products, non-exclusive examples of which are described in the documents listed on Exhibit A, that have allegedly arisen as a result of the physical and bodily injuries sustained by individuals suffering from opioid-related addiction, abuse, death, and other related diseases and disorders, and that have allegedly been caused by Shareholder Released Parties.

"Allocation Statute" means a state law that governs allocation, distribution, and/or use of some or all of the Settlement Fund amounts allocated to that Settling State and/or its Subdivisions. An Allocation Statute may, without limitation, contain a Statutory Trust, further restrict expenditures of funds, form an advisory committee, establish oversight and reporting requirements, or address other default provisions and other matters related to the funds. An Allocation Statute is not required to address all three (3) types of funds comprising the Settlement Fund or all default provisions.

"Annual Fees Payment" means the amounts payable by the Payment Groups on each Payment Date comprised of the State Direct Expenses payment and the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund payment as determined pursuant to this Agreement, and not including the Annual Remediation Payment. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Fees Payment does not include amounts designated pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Plan as attorneys' fees and costs based on Estate Distributions.

"Annual Remediation Payment" means the amounts owing pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement by the Payment Groups on each Payment Date as determined pursuant to this Agreement and comprised of the Base Payments and Incentive Payments. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Remediation Payment does not include amounts owning pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement for Estate Distributions.

"Appropriate Official" has the meaning set forth in Section 13.06(c).

"Authorized Action" has the meaning set forth in Section 13.25(c).

"B-Side Payment Party" has the meaning set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement.

"Bankruptcy Cases" has the meaning set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement.

"Bankruptcy Code" has the meaning set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement.

"Bar" means either: (1) a law barring or having the effect of barring Subdivisions in a Settling State from maintaining Shareholder Released Claims against Shareholder Released Parties (either through a direct bar or through a grant of authority to release claims and the exercise of such authority in full) or (2) a ruling by the highest court of the Settling State (or, in a Settling State with a single intermediate court of appeals, the intermediate court of appeals) when setting forth the general principle that Subdivisions in the Settling State may not maintain any Shareholder Released Claims against Shareholder Released Parties, whether on the ground of this Agreement (or the release in it) or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, a law or ruling that is conditioned or predicated upon payment by a Shareholder Released Party (apart from the Annual Remediation Payments by any Payment Group under this Agreement) shall not constitute a Bar.

"Base Payment" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.05.

"Business Day" means a day, other than Saturday, Sunday or a federal holiday.

"Case-Specific Resolution" means either: (1) a law barring or having the effect of barring the Subdivision at issue from maintaining any Shareholder Released Claims against any Shareholder Released Parties (either through a direct bar or through a grant of authority to release claims and the exercise of such authority in full); or (2) a ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction over the Subdivision at issue that the Subdivision may not maintain any Shareholder Released Claims at issue against any Shareholder Released Parties, whether on the ground of this Agreement (or the release in it) or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, a law or ruling that is conditioned or predicated upon payment by a Shareholder Released Party (apart from the annual payments by any Payment Group under this Agreement) shall not constitute a Case-Specific Resolution.

"Cause of Action" means any Claim, action, class action, claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, third-party claim, cause of action, controversy, dispute, demand, right, Lien, indemnity, contribution, rights of subrogation, reimbursement, guaranty, suit, obligation, liability, debt, damage, judgment, loss, cost, attorneys' fees and expenses, account, defense, remedy, offset, power, privilege, license or franchise, in each case, of any kind, character or nature whatsoever, asserted or unasserted, accrued or unaccrued, known or unknown, contingent or non-contingent, matured or unmatured, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, disputed or undisputed, foreseen or unforeseen, direct or indirect, choate or inchoate, secured or unsecured, allowable or disallowable, Allowed or Disallowed, assertible directly or derivatively (including, without limitation, under alter-ego theories), in rem, quasi in rem, in personam or otherwise, whether arising before, on or after the Petition Date, arising under federal or state statutory or common law, or any other applicable international, foreign or domestic law, rule, statute, regulation, treaty, right, duty, requirement or otherwise, in contract or in tort, at law, in equity or pursuant to any other theory or principle of law, including fraud, negligence, gross negligence, recklessness, reckless disregard, deliberate ignorance, public or private nuisance, breach of fiduciary duty, avoidance, willful misconduct, veil piercing, alter ego, unjust enrichment, disgorgement, restitution, contribution, indemnification, rights of subrogation and joint liability, regardless of where in the world accrued or arising. "Settlement Class Resolution" means a class action resolution in a court of competent jurisdiction in a Settling State (that is not successfully removed to federal court) with respect to a class of Subdivisions in that Settling State that (1) conforms with that Settling State's statutes, case law, and rules of procedure regarding class actions; (2) is approved and entered as an order of a court of competent jurisdiction in that Settling State and such order has become a final order; (3) is binding on all Non-Participating Subdivisions in that Settling State (other than opt outs as permitted under the next sentence); (4) provides that all such Non-Participating Subdivisions may not bring any Shareholder Released Claims against any Shareholder Released Parties, whether on the ground of this Agreement (or the releases herein) or otherwise; and (5) does not impose any costs or obligations on a Payment Party or Shareholder Released Party other than those provided for in this Agreement, or contain any provision inconsistent with any provision of this Agreement. If applicable state law requires that opt-out rights be afforded to members of the class, a class action resolution otherwise meeting the foregoing requirements shall qualify as a Settlement Class Resolution unless Subdivisions collectively representing more than one percent (1%) of the total population of that Settling State opt out. In seeking certification of any Settlement Class Resolution, the applicable Settling State and Participating Subdivisions shall make clear that certification is sought solely for settlement purposes and shall have no applicability beyond approval of the settlement for which certification is sought. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an admission by any Party that class certification would be appropriate for litigation purposes in any case or for purposes unrelated to this Agreement.

"Settlement Administrator" means BrownGreer PLC, or such other entity as may be engaged, prior to the Effective Date, pursuant to the Fee Reimbursement Order, or by the MDT from and after the Effective Date (in each case, subject to the reasonable consent of the Sackler Parties' Representative), as a representative of the Governmental Remediation Trust (as defined in the Plan) that annually determines the Annual Remediation Payment (including calculating offset or reduction Incentive Payments pursuant to Article 4 and any amounts subject to offset or reduction pursuant to Article 12), administers the Settlement Fund, and distributes amounts into the Remediation Accounts Fund, State Fund, Subdivision Fund, and the State Direct Expenses fund pursuant to this Agreement. References herein to the Settlement Administrator shall refer to the Settlement Administrator in its capacities as the representative of the Governmental Remediation Trust, the MDT or both, as context requires.

"Settlement Fund" means the interest-bearing fund established pursuant to the [Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement] into which Annual Remediation Payments and Estate Distributions received by the MDT that are ultimately payable to the Governmental Remediation Trust. The Settlement Fund may be held and administered by the Settlement Administrator so long as it meets the foregoing requirements.

"Settlement Payment Dispute Notice" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.04(c)(i).

"Settling Co-Defendants" has the meaning set forth in the Plan.

"Settling State" means an Eligible State that has entered into this Agreement and delivers executed releases in accordance with Section 8.01.

"Shareholder Released Claims" has the meaning set forth in the Release.

"Shareholder Released Party" or "Shareholder Released Parties" has the meaning set forth in the Plan.

"Special District" means formal and legally recognized sub-entities of a State recognized by the U.S. Census Bureau[7] that are not General Purpose Governments. "Special Districts" shall include Fire Districts, Health Districts, Hospital Districts, and Library Districts. For the avoidance of doubt, "Special District" does not include entities that include any of the following words or phrases in its name: mosquito, pest, insect, spray, vector, animal, air quality, air pollution, clean air, coastal water, tuberculosis, and sanitary.

"Special Operating Reserve" has the meaning set forth in the Plan.

"State" means any state of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Additionally, the use of non-capitalized "state" to describe something (e.g., "state court") shall also be read to include parallel entities in commonwealths, territories, and the District of Columbia (e.g., "territorial court").

"State Direct Expenses" means the amount payable by the Payment Groups on each Payment Date to the Settling States for their litigation expenses (including attorneys' fees) as determined pursuant to Section 9.02, Exhibit M-X, and Exhibit S of this Agreement. The maximum amount of State Direct Expenses is $136,550,050.39 and is subject to reductions described herein and prepayments. For the avoidance of doubt, the State Direct Expenses do not include amounts designated pursuant to Section 5.9(b) of the Plan for the payment of expenses of the Settling States based on Estate Distributions.

"State Expenses Fund" has the meaning set forth in the Plan.

"State Fund" means the component of the Settlement Fund described in Article 5.

"State Participation Initial Deadline" has the meaning set forth in Section 2.01(b).

"State Participation Notice" means the written notice given to the Sackler Parties' Representative by the Attorneys General of each of the Eligible States pursuant to which such Eligible State elects to proceed with this Agreement and becomes a Settling State.

"State Releasors" means (1) each Settling State; (2) without limitation and to the maximum extent of the power of each Settling State's Attorney General to release Causes of Action, (a) the Settling State's departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, Subdivisions, districts, instrumentalities of any kind and attorneys, including its Attorney General, and any person in his or her official capacity whether elected or appointed to serve any of the foregoing and any agency, person, or other entity claiming by or through any of the foregoing, (b) any public entities, public instrumentalities, public educational institutions, unincorporated districts, fire districts, irrigation districts, and other Special Districts in a Settling State, and (c) any person or entity acting in a parens patriae, sovereign, quasi-sovereign, private attorney general, qui tam, taxpayer, or other capacity seeking relief on behalf of or generally applicable to the general public with respect to a Settling State or Subdivision in a Settling State, whether or not any of them participate in this Agreement; (3) all past and present executive departments, state agencies, divisions, boards, commissions and instrumentalities with the regulatory authority to enforce state and federal controlled substances acts within a Settling State; and (4) any of the Settling State's past and present executive departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, and instrumentalities that have the authority to bring Shareholder Released Claims or Released Claims, whether or not any of them participate in the Agreement (for the purposes of this clause (4), executive departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, and instrumentalities are those that are under the executive authority or direct control of the Settling State's Governor).

"State Review Deadline" has the meaning set forth in Section 2.01(a).

"State-Subdivision Agreement" means an agreement that a Settling State reaches with the Subdivisions in that Settling State regarding the allocation, distribution, and/or use of funds allocated to that Settling State and to its Subdivisions. A State-Subdivision Agreement shall be effective if approved pursuant to the provisions of Exhibit O or if adopted by statute. Preexisting agreements addressing funds other than those allocated pursuant to this Agreement shall qualify if the approval requirements of Exhibit O are met. A Settling State and its Subdivisions may revise a State-Subdivision Agreement if approved pursuant to the provisions of Exhibit O, or if such revision is adopted by statute.

"States AG Negotiating Group" means the negotiating committee of State Attorneys General comprised of: California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, and West Virginia, but excluding any State that (i) does not become a Settling State by the Preliminary Agreement Date or (ii) ceases to be a Settling State at any point after the Preliminary Agreement Date.

"Statewide Payment Amount" means the amount from an Annual Remediation Payment to be paid to a Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G.

"Statutory Trust" means a trust fund established by state law to receive funds allocated to a Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund and restrict any expenditures made using funds from the Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund to Opioid Remediation, subject to reasonable administrative expenses. A Settling State may give a Statutory Trust authority to allocate one (1) or more of the three (3) types of funds comprising such Settling State's Settlement Fund, but this is not required.

"Subdivision" means any (1) General Purpose Government or Special District within a Settling State, and (2) any other subdivision, subdivision official (acting in an official capacity on behalf of the subdivision) or sub-entity of or located within a Settling State (whether political, geographical or otherwise, whether functioning or non-functioning, regardless of population overlap, and including, but not limited to, public institutions) that has filed a lawsuit (a) against any of the Debtors or that includes a Shareholder Released Claim against a Shareholder Released Party in a direct, parens patriae, or any other capacity or (b) against any other person or entity released pursuant to any of the Prior National Settlements in connection with a "Released Claim" as such term (or equivalent terminology) is defined in those settlements; provided, however, "Subdivision" shall not include: (i) any Non-Federal Acute Care Hospitals,

(ii) School Districts, (iii) Health Districts that have filed Proofs of Claim as Third-Party Payors, or (iv) any hospitals listed on Exhibit A of the Hospital Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.

"Subdivision Allocation Percentage" means the portion of a Settling State's Subdivision Fund set forth in Exhibit G that a Subdivision will receive pursuant to Article 5 if it becomes a Participating Subdivision. The aggregate Subdivision Allocation Percentage of all Subdivisions receiving a Subdivision Allocation Percentage in each Settling State shall equal one hundred percent (100%). Immediately upon the effectiveness of any State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, Statutory Trust, or voluntary redistribution allowed by Section 5.04(c) (or upon the effectiveness of an amendment to any State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, Statutory Trust, or voluntary redistribution allowed by Section 5.04(c)) that addresses allocation from the Subdivision Fund, whether before or after the Initial Subdivision Participation Date, Exhibit G will automatically be amended to reflect the allocation from the Subdivision Fund pursuant to the State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, Statutory Trust, or voluntary redistribution allowed by Section 5.04(c). The Subdivision Allocation Percentages contained in Exhibit G may not change once notice is distributed pursuant to Section 7.01, except upon the effectiveness of any State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, Statutory Trust, or voluntary redistribution allowed by Section 5.04(c) (or upon the effectiveness of an amendment to any State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, Statutory Trust, or voluntary redistribution allowed by Section 5.04(c)) that addresses allocation from the Subdivision Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, no Subdivision not listed on Exhibit G shall receive an allocation from the Subdivision Fund and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to create such an entitlement.

"Subdivision Fund" means the component of the Settlement Fund described in Section 5.01.

"Subdivision Participation Threshold Notice" means a notice from the States' AG Negotiating Group to the Sackler Parties' Representative, the MSA PEC and the MSGE Group stating whether or not the States elect to proceed with the Agreement and, if proceeding, listing all Settling States.

"Subdivision Releasors" means with respect to Shareholder Released Claims and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release, (1) each Participating Subdivision, (2) without limitation and to the maximum extent of the power of a Participating Subdivision to release Causes of Action, (a) the Participating Subdivision's departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, Subdivisions, districts, instrumentalities of any kind and attorneys, and any person in his or her official capacity whether elected or appointed to serve any of the foregoing and any agency, person, or other entity claiming by or through any of the foregoing, (b) any public entities, public instrumentalities, public educational institutions, unincorporated districts, fire districts, irrigation districts, and other Special Districts, and (c) any person or entity acting in a parens patriae, sovereign, quasi-sovereign, private attorney general, qui tam, taxpayer, or other capacity seeking relief on behalf of or generally applicable to the general public with respect to a Participating Subdivision.[8] The inclusion of a specific reference to a type of entity in this definition shall not be construed as meaning that the entity is not a Subdivision.

"Subdivision Settlement Participation Form" means the form attached as Exhibit K that Participating Subdivisions must execute and return to the Implementation Administrator or Settlement Administrator, and which shall (1) make such Participating Subdivisions signatories to this Agreement, (2) include a full and complete release of any and of such Subdivision's claims, and (3) require the dismissal with prejudice of any Shareholder Released Claims and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release that have been filed by any such Participating Subdivision, but subject in all cases to the exercise by the [8] In addition to being a Releasor as provided herein, a Participating Subdivision shall also provide the Subdivision Settlement Participation Form as set forth in Exhibit K providing for a release to the fullest extent of the Subdivision's authority.

MDT of a Release Remedy (as defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) pursuant to and in accordance with Master Settlement Agreement Section 9.02(a)(ii)(B) with respect to a Payment Party.

"Tax Matters" has the meaning set forth in Section 13.06.

"Third-Party Payors" has the meaning set forth in the Plan.

"Threshold Motion" means a motion to dismiss or equivalent dispositive motion made at the outset of litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties for Covered Conduct under applicable procedure.

"Total Direct Settlement Amount" means the sum of Annual Remediation Payments and Annual Fee Payments.

"Total Maximum Direct Settlement Amount" means the sum of the Total Maximum Remediation Payment and the total maximum amount of Annual Fee Payments to be paid under the Master Settlement Agreement as determined by this Agreement. The Total Maximum Direct Settlement Amount is $3,485,264,791.64.

"Total Maximum Remediation Payment" means the sum of all Maximum Annual Remediation Payments of all Payment Dates and Payment Groups, as set forth in Exhibit M-2. The Total Maximum Remediation Payment is $3,090,786,868.28, subject to an increase pursuant to Article 9.

Section 1.02 Interpretation Provision.

(a) "The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of like import used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement.

(b) The captions herein are included for convenience of reference only and shall be ignored in the construction or interpretation hereof. References to Articles, Sections, Annexes and Exhibits are to the Articles, Sections, Annexes and Exhibits of this Agreement unless otherwise specified.

(c) All Exhibits and Annexes annexed hereto or referred to herein are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein. Any capitalized terms used in any Exhibit or Annex but not otherwise defined therein shall have the meaning as defined in this Agreement.

(d) Any singular term in this Agreement shall be deemed to include the plural, and any plural term the singular, and words denoting either gender shall include both genders as the context requires. Where a word or phrase is defined herein, each of its other grammatical forms shall have a corresponding meaning.

(e) Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation," whether or not they are in fact followed by those words or words of like import.

(f) The word "will" shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word "shall."

(g) The word "party" shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed to mean a party to this Agreement. Any reference to a party to this Agreement or any other agreement or document contemplated hereby shall include such party's estate, legal and personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns.

(h) Any reference in this Agreement to an estate of a deceased individual or trust as a person or party shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed to be or include, as the context may require, the personal representatives and trustees thereof, respectively, acting in their capacity as such personal representatives and trustees.

(i) Any reference in this Agreement to the rights and obligations of the estate of a deceased individual or a trust that does not have a separate legal personality under applicable law shall be construed as a reference to the rights and obligations of the personal representatives of such estate and the trustees of those trusts, respectively, in their capacity as such.

(j) All references to "$" and dollars shall be deemed to refer to United States currency unless otherwise specifically provided.

(k) All references to a day or days shall be deemed to refer to a calendar day or calendar days, as applicable, unless otherwise specifically provided.

(l) Any reference to any contract shall be a reference to such agreement or contract, as amended, amended and restated, modified, supplemented or waived.

(m) A reference to any legislation or to any provision of any legislation shall include any modification, amendment, re-enactment thereof, any legislative provision substituted therefor and all rules, regulations and statutory instruments issued or related to such legislation.

(n) Any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not be applied in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. No prior draft of this Agreement nor any course of performance or course of dealing shall be used in the interpretation or construction of this Agreement. No parol evidence shall be introduced in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement unless the ambiguity or uncertainty in issue is plainly discernable from a reading of this Agreement without consideration of any extrinsic evidence. Although the same or similar subject matters may be addressed in different provisions of this Agreement, the Parties intend that, except as reasonably apparent on the face of the Agreement or as expressly provided in this Agreement, each such provision shall be read separately, be given independent significance and not be construed as limiting any other provision of this Agreement (whether or not more general or more specific in scope, substance or content).

(o) Any reference in this Agreement, including in any exhibit or schedule, to a "maximum" scheduled amount refers to the highest (gross) theoretical amount before applying any reductions, credits, offsets, or limitations under this Agreement or any related document.

ARTICLE 2.
PARTICIPATION BY ELIGIBLE STATES AND CONDITION TO PRELIMINARY AGREEMENT

Section 2.01 Notice to Eligible States; States Participation Initial Deadline. By [●], 2025, this Agreement shall be distributed to all Eligible States.

(a) The Eligible States shall have thirty (30) calendar days from the date this Agreement is distributed to Eligible States (the "State Review Deadline") to review this Agreement. The Attorney General of any Eligible State may elect to cause the State to become a Settling State by providing its State Participation Notice to the States AG Negotiating Group and shall commit to obtaining any necessary additional state releases prior to the Effective Date. On or prior to the State Review Deadline, the States AG Negotiating Group shall provide a list of the Eligible States that elect to become Settling States and their State Participation Notices to the Sackler Parties' Representative.

(b) On or prior to the third (3rd) Business Day following the State Review Deadline (the "State Participation Initial Deadline"), unless every Eligible State has delivered a State Participation Notice on or prior to the State Participation Initial Deadline and thereby becomes a Settling State, the Settling States may elect, in their sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement by having the States AG Negotiating Group deliver a written termination notice to the Sackler Parties' Representative. If the Settling States elect not to proceed, this Agreement will have no further effect and other commitments or obligations contained herein will be void. The State Participation Initial Deadline may be extended by written agreement of the Sackler Parties' Representative and the States AG Negotiating Group.

Section 2.02 Condition to Preliminary Agreement. On or prior to the seventh (7th) day following the State Participation Initial Deadline (the "Sackler (States) Participation Initial Deadline"), unless every Eligible State has delivered a State Participation Notice on or prior to the State Participation Initial Deadline and thereby becomes a Settling State, the Sackler Parties' Representative may elect, in its sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement by delivering a written termination notice to the States AG Negotiating Group. If the Sackler Parties' Representative delivers a termination notice on or prior to the Sackler (States) Participation Initial Deadline in compliance with the immediately preceding sentence, then this Agreement shall terminate and will have no further effect with respect to the Payment Parties and all releases and other commitments or obligations contained herein will be void. If the Sackler Parties' Representative determines that every Eligible State has delivered a State Participation Notice on or prior to the State Participation Initial Deadline and thereby becomes a Settling State, or otherwise elects not to terminate this Agreement, then the Sackler Parties' Representative shall so notify the States AG Negotiating Group, which notice shall include an instruction to the Implementation Administrator to proceed with the Subdivision solicitation contemplated by Article 7 (a "Sackler (States) Participation Notice"). The date, if any, on which the Sackler Parties' Representative delivers a Sackler (States) Participation Notice is referred to as the "Preliminary Agreement Date".

Section 2.03 Later Joinder by Eligible States. After the Preliminary Agreement Date, an Eligible State may only become a Settling State with the consent of the Sackler Parties' Representative and the States AG Negotiating Group. If an Eligible State becomes a Settling State more than sixty (60) calendar days after the Preliminary Agreement Date, but on or before the Effective Date, the Subdivisions in that Eligible State that become Participating Subdivisions within ninety (90) calendar days of the Eligible State becoming a Settling State shall be considered Initial Participating Subdivisions. An Eligible State may not become a Settling State after the Effective Date without written approval by the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council.

Section 2.04 Litigation Activity. Following the Preliminary Agreement Date, Eligible States that elected to become Settling States shall cease litigation activity against the Shareholder Released Parties and the Released Parties, including by jointly seeking stays or, where appropriate, severance of claims against the Shareholder Released Parties or Released Parties, where feasible, and otherwise to minimize such activity by means of agreed deadline extensions and agreed postponement of depositions, document productions, and motion practice if a motion to stay or sever is not feasible or is denied, provided, however, that nothing herein shall require any Settling State to take any action in connection with this Section 2.04 or otherwise that would prejudice such State's ability to recommence or continue such litigation in the event the Effective Date does not occur or, if with respect to a particular Payment Party and pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement, the MDT pursues the Release Remedy (as defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) under Master Settlement Agreement Section 9.02(a)(ii)(B) with respect to such Payment Party.

ARTICLE 3.
INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Section 3.01 Injunctive Relief. As part of the Consent Judgment, the Parties agree to enter into the injunctive relief terms set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement.

Section 3.02 State Enforcement. In addition to all of the rights, remedies, and enforcement provisions in the Master Settlement Agreement, a Settling State may enforce MSA Section 8.05 (Naming Rights) and MSA Section 8.08 (Opioid Business) in the state or other court that enters the Settling State's Consent Judgment for alleged violations that occur in such state.

ARTICLE 4.
SETTLEMENT FUND PAYMENTS[9]

Section 4.01 General Provisions and Payment Overview

(a) Master Settlement Agreement. The payment obligations addressed in this Agreement are a subset of the Payment Group obligations set out in the Master Settlement Agreement. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that (i) the liability of each Payment Group with respect to the obligations of each other Payment Group are limited in the manner contemplated by this Agreement and the Master Settlement Agreement, and (ii) payment in full to the MDT by or on behalf of a Payment Group of its payment obligations under the Master Settlement Agreement shall satisfy in full all of such Payment Group's payment obligations hereunder.

(b) Annual Remediation Payments. The aggregate amount of the Annual Remediation Payments required to be made by the Payment Groups pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement shall be determined pursuant to this Article 4; provided that (1) each Payment Group's responsibility for an Annual Remediation Payment shall be computed Pro Rata to the Payment Groups and (2) all payments determined under this Article 4 shall be made to the MDT in the manner contemplated by the Master Settlement Agreement. The MDT shall make corresponding payments into the Settlement Fund or the MDT Segregated Account, as required by this Agreement. The Settlement Administrator shall in turn direct the payments from the Settlement Fund and the MDT Segregated Account, as applicable, to the Settling States in the manner contemplated hereby.

(c) Offset Provisions. In addition to payment calculation provisions in this Article 4, there are potential adjustments to Annual Remediation Payments as set out in Article 12.

(d) State Payment Schedules. Certain Settling States shall be paid over fewer than 16 Payment Dates. Emergence Payment States will be paid on Payment Date 1 and Accelerated Payment States will be paid through Payment Dates 9 or 10. All other Settling States are scheduled to be paid over all 16 Payment Dates. The payment schedule for each Eligible State is set forth in Exhibit M-5.

[9] [Oklahoma Subdivisions are eligible to participate in this Agreement pursuant to Exhibit H and subject to the amounts scheduled in Exhibit M-5.]

(e) Fees and Costs. Attorneys' fees and costs are addressed separately from Annual Remediation Payments. The Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund payment and State Direct Expenses payment are addressed in Article 9.

(f) Payment Charts. The Payment Groups' maximum scheduled payment amounts to be made pursuant to this Agreement and the allocation of those payments across Annual Remediation Payments and Annual Fee Payments are set forth in Exhibit M. In showing "maximum" payments, Exhibit M sets forth amounts before the application of any reductions or adjustments required by this Agreement, including those related to Non-Settling States and before accounting for any prepayments. The amounts in the Exhibit M charts have been adjusted to reflect the Samantha Hunt payment terms. Each Payment Group's share of each Payment Date's payment obligations under this Agreement shall be calculated pursuant to Exhibit M-X and are subject to the prepayment provisions set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement. Exhibit M to this Agreement will be updated from time to time to reflect any changes made to Exhibit M of the Master Settlement Agreement (e.g., to account for prepayments), to the extent applicable.

(i) Exhibit M-1: Payment Schedule – sets out the Maximum Annual Remediation Payment, the maximum Annual Fees Payment and the total maximum payment by Payment Date.

(ii) Exhibit M-2: Schedule of Maximum Payments – for each Payment Date, Exhibit M-2 sets forth the maximum amounts for Base Payment, Incentive Payment A, Incentive Payment B, Incentive Payment C, Incentive Payment D, Annual Remediation Payment, Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund and State Direct Expenses.

(iii) Exhibit M-3: Annual Fees Payment Schedule – breaks down the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund payment and the State Direct Expenses payment by Payment Date, without considering any reductions described in Article 9.

(iv) Exhibit M-4: Maximum Remediation Payments by Payment Group – sets forth the Maximum Annual Remediation Payments by Payment Group by Payment Date.

(v) Exhibit M-5: States Maximum Payments Schedule – for each Eligible State, Exhibit M-5 sets forth the maximum amounts for Base Payment, Incentive Payment A, Incentive Payment B, Incentive Payment C, and Incentive Payment D.

Section 4.02 Annual Remediation Payments. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Master Settlement Agreement, the Payment Groups shall make sixteen (16) Annual Remediation Payments, each comprised of Base Payments and Incentive Payments as provided in this Article 4 and as determined by the Settlement Administrator pursuant to this Agreement (including the offsets in Article 12 and permitted prepayments).

Section 4.03 Annual Remediation Payment Distributions

(a) Each Payment Date shall occur as and when required by the Master Settlement Agreement. The Annual Remediation Payments for each Payment Date shall be determined as set forth in Article 4 and made to the MDT pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement.

(b) The MDT shall pay the Annual Remediation Payments and the Annual Fee Payment for each Payment Date to the Settlement Fund. Payments shall be disbursed by the Settlement Administrator promptly after each payment to the Settlement Fund by the MDT to each Settling State and to its Initial Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G; provided, however, that for any Settling State where the Consent Judgment has not been entered as of the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator shall not disburse funds allocable to that Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G until ten (10) calendar days after the entry of the Consent Judgment in that Settling State. The Settlement Administrator shall notify the Sackler Parties' Representative of the entry of a Consent Judgment for each State prior to disbursing funds to such State. Neither the Payment Parties nor the Sackler Parties' Representative shall have any obligation or liability with respect to the obligations of the MDT or the Settlement Fund, including under this Section 4.03(b) and Section 4.04(d).

Section 4.04 Payment Determination Process

(a) To determine each Annual Remediation Payment the Settlement Administrator shall use the necessary data to compute amounts under this Agreement as of ninety (90) calendar days prior to the applicable Payment Date, unless another provision of the Agreement specifies a different date.

(b) The Settlement Administrator shall determine the Statewide Payment Amount for each Settling State, and the amount owed by each Payment Group for the Annual Remediation Payment, the State Direct Expenses, and the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund payments for such Payment Date, consistent with the provisions in Exhibit M-X. As part of this determination, the Settlement Administrator shall:

(i) determine the Statewide Payment Amount for each Settling State by calculating the amount of Base Payments and Incentive Payments to which the Settling State is entitled by applying the criteria under Section 4.05, Section 4.06, and Article 9;

(ii) apply any offsets or reductions as specified under this Article 4 and Article 12 and reflecting all prepayments permitted pursuant to this Agreement and the Master Settlement Agreement; and

(iii) determine the amount owed by each Payment Group, to the MDT, and the amount owed by the MDT to the Settlement Fund or the MDT Segregated Account, as applicable, which shall be directed to the Settling States.

(c) Not later than fifty (50) calendar days prior to the applicable Payment Date, the Settlement Administrator shall give notice to the Sackler Parties' Representative, any Settling State, and the MDT Advisory Council of the amounts determined pursuant to Section 4.04(b) (such notice, a "Preliminary Payment Determination") and the following timeline shall apply:

(i) Within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the Preliminary Payment Determination provided by the Settlement Administrator, the Sackler Parties' Representative, any Settling State or the MDT Advisory Council may dispute, in writing, the amounts provided by the Settlement Administrator. Such disputing party must provide a written notice of dispute to the Settlement Administrator, the MDT Advisory Council, any affected Settling State, and the Sackler Parties' Representative identifying the nature of the dispute, the amount of money that is disputed, and the Settling State(s) and Payment Group(s) affected (a "Settlement Payment Dispute Notice"). If no Settlement Payment Dispute Notice is timely provided, then the Preliminary Payment Determination is deemed accepted for all purposes. Only matters included in a timely Settlement Payment Dispute Notice will be allowed to be the subject of any dispute regarding the Annual Remediation Amount payable on a given Payment Date.

(ii) Any party that received a Settlement Payment Dispute Notice may submit a response, in writing, to the Settlement Administrator, the MDT Advisory Council, any affected Settling State, and the Sackler Parties' Representative identifying the basis for disagreement with the Payment Dispute Notice (a "Final Dispute Response Notice") within fourteen (14) calendar days that either:

(A) Agrees to one or more proposals in the Settlement Payment Dispute Notice; or

(B) Rejects one or more proposals in the Settlement Payment Dispute Notice and identifies the basis for disagreement. Any item within the Settlement Payment Dispute Notice that is rejected in the Final Dispute Response Notice will be deemed disputed

(iii) If no party timely delivers a Final Dispute Response Notice, then the Settlement Payment Dispute Notice is accepted for all purposes, and the Settlement Administrator shall adjust amounts determined pursuant to Section 4.04(b) consistent with the Payment Dispute Notice.

(iv) If a Final Dispute Response Notice is timely provided to the Settlement Administrator, the Settlement Administrator shall notify the Sackler Parties' Representative of the preliminary amount to be paid, in the aggregate and for each Payment Group, which shall be the greater of (i) the amount originally calculated by the Settlement Administrator or (ii) the amount that would be consistent with the Payment Dispute Notice, provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the preliminary amount determined for a Payment Group for a Payment Date be higher than the Maximum Annual Remediation Payment for that Payment Group for a Payment Date. For the avoidance of doubt, a transfer of payments from the MDT Segregated Account for other Payment Dates does not count toward determining whether the amount determined is higher than the Maximum Annual Remediation Payment.

(v) The Settlement Administrator shall place any disputed amount of the preliminary amount paid by the Payment Groups in accordance with the Master Settlement Agreement into the MDT Segregated Account[10] and shall disburse all undisputed amounts to each Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G pursuant to Section 4.04(d). Upon resolution of a dispute after the Payment Date, amounts in the MDT Segregated Account related to that Payment Date shall be disbursed as follows: (i) to the Settlement Fund if determined to be required payments or (ii) to the applicable Payment Party (or Parties), as designated by the Sackler Parties' Representative, if determined not to be required payments.

(d) The Settlement Administrator shall allocate the Settling State's amount received into the Settlement Fund (including both the Statewide Payment Amount and its portion of the Estate Distributions) for each Payment Date pursuant to Article 5, among the separate types of funds for the Settling State (if applicable), and among its Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G using the following procedures:

(i) As soon as possible but not later than ten (10) calendar days following the determination described in Section 4.04(b) and Section 4.04(c) and the determination of a Settling State's portion of the Estate Distributions for the relevant Payment Date, the Settlement Administrator shall give notice to each Settling State and their Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G of the amount to be received by such Settling State, the amount to be received by the separate types of funds for such Settling State (if applicable), and the amount to be received by each Participating Subdivision listed on Exhibit G for such Settling State.

[10] Note to Draft: There needs to be accounting for 12.4% in attorneys' fees (either elsewhere or in the Plan) that the Plan will say should be disbursed to the fee funds if some or all of this money is paid to Settlement Fund.

(ii) Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the notice provided by the Settlement Administrator, any Settling State or Participating Subdivision listed on Exhibit G may dispute, in writing, the calculation of the amount to be received by the relevant Settling State and/or its Participating Subdivision listed on Exhibit G. A dispute will be deemed invalid and disregarded if it challenges the allocations adopted by a State-Subdivision Agreement approved pursuant to the provisions of Exhibit O or by statute. Such disputing party must provide a written notice of dispute to the Settlement Administrator, any affected Settling State, and any affected Participating Subdivision identifying the nature of the dispute, the amount of money that is disputed, and the Settling State(s) affected.

(iii) Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the sending of a written notice of dispute, any affected Settling State or any affected Participating Subdivision may submit a response, in writing, to the Settlement Administrator, any affected Settling State and any affected Participating Subdivision identifying the basis for disagreement with the notice of dispute.

(iv) If no response is filed, the Settlement Administrator shall adjust the amount calculated consistent with the written notice of dispute.

(v) The Settlement Administrator shall not release any disputed amount to the Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions eligible for payment until such dispute has been resolved.

(vi) For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Payment Parties nor the Sackler Parties' Representative shall be liable for any breach of this Section 4.04(d) by any party.

(e) Disputes described in this Section 4.04 shall be resolved in accordance with the terms of Section 6.06.

(f) For the avoidance of doubt, a Subdivision not listed on Exhibit G shall not receive an allocation from the Subdivision Fund and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to create such an entitlement.

Section 4.05 Base Payments. Subject to the offset and reduction provisions set forth in this Agreement, the obligation of the Payment Groups to make payments to the MDT pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement shall include "Base Payments" in a maximum total amount equal to $818,286,868.28, subject to an increase pursuant to Article 9. The Base Payments shall be due in installments consistent with Exhibit M-2 over the sixteen (16) Payment Dates starting with Payment Date 1. The Base Payment portion of an Annual Remediation Payment of a Payment Group shall be Pro Rata.

Section 4.06 Incentive Payments.

(a) Subject to the offset and reduction provisions set forth in Article 4 and Article 12, the obligation of the Payment Groups to make payments to the MDT pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement shall include potential additional Incentive Payments totaling up to a maximum of $2,272,500,000, with the Incentive Payment amount depending on whether and the extent to which the criteria set forth in Section 4.06(d) to (g) are met in each Settling State. The Incentive Payment portion of an Annual Remediation Payment of a Payment Group shall be Pro Rata.

(b) A Settling State qualifies to receive Incentive Payments in addition to Base Payments if it meets the incentive eligibility requirements as set forth in Section 4.06(d) to (g). The maximum total Incentive Payment for any Settling State for a given Payment Date shall be no more than the maximum total for Incentive Payments listed for that Settling State and Payment Date as set forth in Exhibit M-5. Incentive Payments are state-specific, with the actual amount depending on whether and the extent to which the criteria set forth in Section 4.06(d) to (g) are met in such Settling State.

(c) Incentive Payments shall be available from four (4) categories, referred to as Incentive Payment A, Incentive Payment B, Incentive Payment C, and Incentive Payment D and shall be determined with respect to a specific Settling State based on its eligibility for that Payment Date under the criteria set forth in Section 4.06(d) to (g). Eligibility for Incentive Payment A, Incentive Payment B, Incentive Payment C, and Incentive Payment D shall be determined on a Settling State-by-Settling State basis and for each Payment Date as set forth in Section 4.06(d) to (g). Except to the limited extent provided for in Section 4.06(d) with respect to Incentive Payment A, a Settling State may not earn and shall not be paid on any later Payment Date an annual incentive payment for a prior Payment Date, or any portion thereof, that it failed to qualify for that Payment Date. Incentive Payment A, Incentive Payment B, and Incentive Payment C will be due in installments over the sixteen (16) Payment Dates beginning with Payment Date 1, and except for the Emergence Payment States, Incentive Payment D will be due in installments beginning with Payment Date 7, as described in Section 4.06(g). Each Payment Group shall only be responsible for its Pro Rata share of each Incentive Payment. The total amount of Incentive Payments in an Annual Remediation Payment shall be the sum of the Incentive Payments for which individual Settling States are eligible for that Payment Date under the criteria set forth in Section 4.06(d) to (g).

(d) Incentive Payment A.

(i) Incentive Payment A is mutually exclusive with Incentive Payments B and C; if a Settling State receives Incentive Payment A, such Settling State is not eligible for Incentive Payments B or C.

(ii) The total potential maximum amount for Incentive Payment A is $2,083,125,000, assuming all Eligible States qualify for Incentive Payment A on all Payment Dates and ignoring all offsets and reductions (including prepayments) contemplated or permitted by this Agreement. Each Settling State that qualifies for Incentive Payment A for a Payment Date shall be entitled to receive the amount set forth on Exhibit M-5 for such Settling State and Payment Date, subject to this Agreement and the Master Settlement Agreement.

(iii) Qualification for Incentive Payment A is as follows: A Settling State qualifies for Incentive Payment A if, as of Payment Date 3:

(A) there is a Bar in that Settling State in full force and effect;

(B) there is a Settlement Class Resolution in that Settling State in full force and effect;

(C) there is a ruling from the State's highest court barring all Subdivisions from bringing or maintaining Shareholder Released Claims;

(D) the Shareholder Released Claims of all of the following entities are released through the execution of Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms, or there is a Case-Specific Resolution against such entities:

(i) all Litigating Subdivisions (including Special Districts that are Litigating Subdivisions);

(ii) all Primary Subdivisions that are not also Litigating Subdivisions;

(iii) all Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions that are not captured by Section 4.06(d)(iii)(D)(i)-(ii);

(iv) all Subdivisions that are Hospital Districts that have at least one hundred twenty-five (125) hospital beds in one or more hospitals rendering services in that district; and

(v) all Primary Fire Districts; or

(E) a combination of the actions in clauses (A) to (D) above has achieved the same level of resolution of a Cause of Action (e.g., a Bar against future litigation combined with full joinder by Litigating Subdivisions, Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions and Primary Fire Districts). For the avoidance of doubt, this clause (E) cannot be satisfied unless all Litigating Subdivisions, Primary Subdivisions, Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions, relevant Hospital Districts and Primary Fire Districts are Participating Subdivisions or there is a Case-Specific Resolution against any such Subdivisions that are not Participating Subdivisions.

(iv) A Settling State that does not qualify for Incentive Payment A as of ninety (90) days prior to Payment Date 3 shall not be eligible for Incentive Payment A for that Payment Date or any subsequent Payment Dates.

(v) If a Settling State does not qualify for Incentive Payment A for Payment Date 1, and becomes eligible for Incentive Payment A for Payment Date 2, it shall receive the payment that it would have received for Incentive Payment A for Payment Date 1 (the "Incentive Payment A Catch-up Payment") on Payment Date 2. If a Settling State does not qualify for Incentive Payment A for Payment Dates 1 or 2, and becomes eligible for Incentive Payment A for Payment Date 3, it shall receive Incentive Payment A Catch-up Payment for both Payment Dates 1 and 2 on Payment Date 3. The Incentive Payment A Catch-up Payments shall be reduced by any amounts paid to the Settling State under Incentives Payments B or C prior to the Settling State's eligibility for Incentive Payment A.

(vi) Each Payment Group's share of Incentive Payment A shall be computed on a Pro Rata basis.

(vii) On or prior to the thirtieth (30^{th}) calendar day immediately preceding the Initial Subdivision Participation Date, the Settling States shall provide the Sackler Parties' Representative with a list of Settling States with existing laws or rulings that they consider sufficient to qualify as a Bar. Settling States with putative Bars shall make their representatives and advisers reasonably available to the Sackler Parties' Representative and its advisers for investigating the sufficiency of each Bar. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify the Settling States and the Implementation Administrator whether such existing laws or rulings are sufficient to qualify as a Bar no later than the Initial Subdivision Participation Date (such response not to be unreasonably withheld, denied or delayed).

(e) Incentive Payment B.

(i) Incentive Payment B shall be available to Settling States that are not eligible for Incentive Payment A for the applicable Payment Date. Settling States may be eligible for both Incentive Payment B and Incentive Payment C.

(ii) The total potential maximum amount for Incentive Payment B for all Settling States combined is $1,230,937,500, assuming all Eligible States qualify for the maximum Incentive Payment B on all Payment Dates and ignoring all offsets and reductions (including prepayments) contemplated or permitted by this Agreement.

(iii) Eligibility for Incentive Payment B is determined as follows:

(A) A Settling State's eligibility for Incentive Payment B for a Payment Date shall be determined as of ninety (90) calendar days prior to the Payment Date; provided that the percentage of Incentive Payment B for which a Settling State is eligible as of the Incentive Payment Final Eligibility Date shall cap its eligibility for that Payment Date and all subsequent Payment Dates.

(B) Each Settling State's maximum Incentive Payment B for a Payment Date is set forth in Exhibit M-5. The amount of Incentive Payment B for which a Settling State is eligible for a Payment Date shall be a percentage of that State's maximum Incentive Payment B based on the extent to which (x) Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in the State are Participating Subdivisions or (y) there is a Case-Specific Resolution against Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in the State, collectively, "Incentive B Eligible Subdivisions." The percentage of the State's maximum share of Incentive Payment B that the State is eligible for a Payment Date shall be determined according to the table below:

Percentage of Litigating Subdivision and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision Population that is Incentive B Eligible Subdivision Population[11]	Incentive Payment B Eligibility Percentage

[11] The "Percentage of Litigating Subdivision and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision Population that is Incentive B Eligible Subdivision Population" shall be determined by the aggregate population of the Settling State's Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions that are Incentive B Eligible Subdivisions divided by the aggregate population of the Settling State's Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions. In calculating the Settling State's population that resides in Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions, (a) the population of the Settling State's Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions shall be the sum of the population of all Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in the Settling State, notwithstanding that persons may be included within the population of more than one Litigating Subdivision and/or Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision, and (b) the population that resides in Incentive B Eligible Subdivisions shall be the sum of the population of the Incentive B Eligible Subdivisions, notwithstanding that persons may be included within the population of more than one Incentive B Eligible Subdivision. An individual Litigating Subdivision or Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision shall not be included more than once in the numerator, and shall not be included more than once in the denominator, of the calculation regardless of whether it (or any of its officials) is named as multiple plaintiffs in the same lawsuit; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, no Litigating Subdivision or Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision will be excluded from the numerator or denominator under this sentence unless a Litigating Subdivision or Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision otherwise counted in the denominator has the authority to release the Claims of the Litigating Subdivision or Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision to be excluded. For the avoidance of doubt, a Settling State in which the population that resides

Less than 85%	0%
85% or more but less than 86%	30%
86% or more but less than 91%	40%
91% or more but less than 95%	50%
95% or more but less than 97%	60%
97% or more but less than 99%	75%
99% or more but less than 100%	95%
100%	100%

(iv) For each Payment Date, the Settlement Administrator shall: (i) identify all Settling States that are eligible for Incentive Payment B pursuant to this Section 4.06(e); (ii) determine the Incentive Payment B eligibility percentage for each such Settling State; (iii) multiply the Incentive Payment B eligibility percentage for each such Settling State by its maximum Incentive Payment B for that Payment Date as set forth in Exhibit M-5. If all Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in a Settling State are Participating Subdivisions, and that Settling State is otherwise eligible for Incentive Payment B, that Settling State will receive its full allocable share of Incentive Payment B consistent with the foregoing calculations.

(v) Each Payment Group's share of Incentive Payment B shall be computed on a Pro Rata basis.

(f) Incentive Payment C.

(i) Incentive Payment C shall be available to Settling States that are not eligible for Incentive Payment A for the applicable Payment Date. Settling States may be eligible for both Incentive Payment B and Incentive Payment C.

(ii) The total potential maximum amount for Incentive Payment C for all Settling States combined is $852,187,500, assuming all Eligible States qualify for the maximum Incentive Payment C on all Payment Dates and ignoring all offsets and reductions (including prepayments) contemplated or permitted by this Agreement.

(iii) Eligibility for Incentive Payment C is determined as follows:

(A) A Settling State's eligibility for Incentive Payment C for a Payment Date shall be determined as of ninety (90) calendar days prior to the Payment Date; provided that the percentage of Incentive Payment C for which a Settling State is eligible as of the Incentive Payment Final Eligibility Date shall cap its eligibility for that Payment Date and all subsequent Payment Dates.

in Incentive B Eligible Subdivisions is less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the population of Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions shall not be eligible for any portion of Incentive Payment B.

(B) Each Settling State's maximum Incentive Payment C for a Payment Date is set forth in Exhibit M-5. The amount of Incentive Payment C for which a Settling State is eligible for a Payment Date shall be a percentage of that State's maximum Incentive Payment C based on the extent to which (i) Non-Litigating Subdivisions that are Primary Subdivisions with a population over 30,000, Litigating Subdivisions, and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in the Settling State are Participating Subdivisions or (ii) there is a Case-Specific Resolution against Non-Litigating Subdivisions that are Primary Subdivisions with a population over 30,000, Litigating Subdivisions, and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in the Settling State, collectively, "Incentive C Eligible Subdivisions." The percentage of the State's maximum share of Incentive Payment C that the State is eligible for a Payment Date shall be determined according to the table below:

Percentage of Relevant Subdivision Population that is Incentive C Eligible Population [12]	Incentive Payment C Eligibility Percentage
Less than 60%	0%
60% or more but less than 70%	25%
70% or more but less than 75%	35%
75% or more but less than 80%	40%
80% or more but less than 85%	45%
85% or more but less than 90%	55%
90% or more but less than 93%	60%
93% or more but less than 94%	65%
94% or more but less than 95%	75%
95% or more but less than 98%	90%

[12] The "Percentage of Relevant Subdivision Population that is Incentive C Eligible Population" shall be determined by the aggregate population of the Settling State's Incentive C Eligible Subdivisions divided by the aggregate population of the Settling State's Non-Litigating Primary Subdivisions with a population over 30,000, Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions ("Incentive Payment C Subdivisions"). None of the population figures shall include Prior Litigating Subdivisions. In calculating the Settling State's population that resides in Incentive Payment C Subdivisions, (a) the population shall be the sum of the population of all Incentive Payment C Subdivisions in the Settling State, notwithstanding that persons may be included within the population of more than one Incentive Payment C Subdivision, and (b) the population that resides in Incentive C Eligible Subdivisions shall be the sum of the population of the Incentive C Eligible Subdivisions, notwithstanding that persons may be included within the population of more than one Incentive C Eligible Subdivision. An individual Incentive Payment C Subdivision shall not be included more than once in the numerator, and shall not be included more than once in the denominator, of the calculation regardless if it (or any of its officials) is named as multiple plaintiffs in the same lawsuit. For the avoidance of doubt, a Settling State in which the population that resides in Incentive C Eligible Subdivisions is less than sixty percent (60%) of the population of Incentive Payment C Subdivisions shall not be eligible for any portion of Incentive Payment C.

100%	100%

(iv) For each Payment Date, the Settlement Administrator shall: (i) identify all Settling States that are eligible for Incentive Payment C pursuant to this Section 4.06(f); (ii) determine the Incentive Payment C eligibility percentage for each such Settling State; (iii) multiply the Incentive Payment C eligibility percentage for each such Settling State by its maximum Incentive Payment C for that Payment Date as set forth in Exhibit M-5. If all Non-Litigating Subdivisions that are Primary Subdivisions with a population of more than 30,000, Litigating Subdivisions and Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in a Settling State are Participating Subdivisions, and that Settling State is otherwise eligible for Incentive Payment C, that Settling State will receive its full allocable share of Incentive Payment C consistent with the foregoing calculations.

(v) Each Payment Group's share of Incentive Payment C shall be computed on a Pro Rata basis.

(g) Incentive Payment D.

(i) Incentive Payment D shall be available to Settling States that meet the criteria described in this Section 4.06(g). However, for so long as any Settling State qualifies for Incentive A, that State automatically qualifies for Incentive Payment D. Incentive Payment D shall be paid starting on the Payment Date 7, except for the Emergence Payment States that shall be eligible to receive the Incentive Payment D on Payment Date 1, provided that, such Emergence Payment State also qualifies for Incentive Payment A for Payment Date 1.

(ii) The total potential maximum amount for Incentive Payment D is $189,375,000 for all Settling States, assuming all Eligible States qualify for the maximum Incentive Payment D on all Payment Dates and ignoring all offsets and reductions (including prepayments) contemplated or permitted by this Agreement. Each eligible Settling State's Incentive Payment D on a given Payment Date shall equal its maximum Incentive Payment D for such Payment Date as set forth in Exhibit M-5, subject to reduction as described below.

(iii) Each Payment Group's share of Incentive Payment D shall be computed on a Pro Rata basis.

(iv) A Settling State qualifies for a Payment Group's Incentive Payment D on any Payment Date if, by the applicable Incentive Payment D Lookback Date (as defined below) and subject to Section 4.06(g)(vi) and (vii), no Later Litigating Subdivision (as limited below) in that Settling State has filed a lawsuit against a Shareholder Released Party in that Payment Group after the Initial Subdivision Participation Date that has survived a Threshold Motion. Incentive Payment D is the only Incentive Payment that shall be determined on an individual Payment Group basis as different Payment Groups may experience different litigation by Later Litigating Subdivisions.

For purposes of Incentive Payment D, a Later Litigating Subdivision is limited to (i) a Subdivision that is a General Purpose Government and (ii) a Primary Fire District.

Except with respect to Emergence Payment States, Settling State's qualification for Incentive Payment D shall be determined as of sixty (60) calendar days prior to that date (the "Incentive Payment D Lookback Date").

(v) The Settlement Administrator shall determine a Settling State's eligibility for Incentive Payment D as of the applicable Incentive Payment D Lookback Date. Prior to the Incentive Payment D Lookback Date for each Payment Date, the Sackler Parties' Representative may provide the Settlement Administrator and the MDT Advisory Council with notice identifying any Settling State(s) it believes do not qualify for Incentive Payment D and information supporting its belief.

(vi) If a relevant Later Litigating Subdivision's lawsuit in that Settling State survives a Threshold Motion, the Settling State shall lose all eligibility for Incentive Payment D, subject to Section 4.06(g)(vii). However, a Settling State can become re-eligible for future payments of Incentive Payment D if the lawsuit that survived a Threshold Motion is dismissed pursuant to a later motion on grounds included in the Threshold Motion by the relevant Incentive Payment D Lookback Date, in which case the Settling State shall be eligible for Incentive Payment D less any litigation fees and expenses incurred or paid by or on behalf of Shareholder Released Parties in the interim for the relevant litigation, except that if the dismissal motion occurs after the completion of opening statements in such action, the Settling State shall not be eligible for Incentive Payment D.

(vii) For so long as any Settling State qualifies for Incentive Payment A, that State automatically qualifies for Incentive Payment D. However, if a Later Litigating Subdivision in that Settling State has filed a lawsuit against a Shareholder Released Party after the Initial Subdivision Participation Date that has survived a Threshold Motion, then payments in respect of Incentive Payment D from the Payment Group of which such Shareholder Released Party is a member to such Settling State shall be reduced by any litigation fees and expenses incurred or paid by or on behalf of the Shareholder Released Parties in the interim for the relevant litigation.

Section 4.07 Reserved.

Section 4.08 Pre-payment Option

(a) Each Payment Group shall have the right to prepay all or any portion of its unpaid share of the Annual Remediation Payment and the Annual Fees Payments, as adjusted pursuant to this Agreement, subject to and in accordance with Section 2.02 of the MSA, including any limitations set forth therein.

(b) Each Payment Group shall have the right make advance payments of all or any portion of its unpaid share of the Annual Remediation Payment and the Annual Fees Payments, as adjusted pursuant to this Agreement, subject to and in accordance with Section 2.03 of the MSA or as otherwise permitted by the MSA, including any limitations set forth therein.

ARTICLE 5.
ALLOCATION AND USE OF SETTLEMENT PAYMENTS

Section 5.01 Components of Settlement Fund. The Settlement Fund shall be funded by the Annual Remediation Payments and Estate Distributions made to the MDT that are ultimately payable to the Governmental Remediation Trust and shall be comprised of a Remediation Accounts Fund, a State Fund, and a Subdivision Fund for each Settling State. The payments made under Article 4 by the MDT into the Settlement Fund shall be initially allocated among those three (3) sub-funds and distributed and used as provided below. Payments placed into the Settlement Fund do not revert back to the Payment Groups.

Section 5.02 Use of Settlement Payments.

(a) It is the intent of the Parties that the payments disbursed from the Settlement Fund to Settling States and Participating Subdivisions be for Opioid Remediation, subject to exceptions that must be documented in accordance with Section 5.02(b). In no event may less than ninety-five (95%) of the Payment Groups' amount of Annual Remediation Payments made pursuant to Article 4 over the entirety of all Annual Remediation Payments (but not for any single Payment Date) be spent on Opioid Remediation.

(b) While disfavored by the Parties, a Settling State or a Participating Subdivision set forth on Exhibit G may use monies from the Settlement Fund (that have not been restricted by this Agreement solely to future Opioid Remediation) for purposes that do not qualify as Opioid Remediation. If, at any time, a Settling State or a Participating Subdivision set forth on Exhibit G uses any monies from the Settlement Fund for a purpose that does not qualify as Opioid Remediation, such Settling State or Participating Subdivision set forth on Exhibit G shall identify such amounts and report to the Settlement Administrator and the Sackler Parties' Representative how such funds were used, including if used to pay attorneys' fees, investigation costs, litigation costs, or costs related to the operation and enforcement of this Agreement, respectively. It is the intent of the Parties that the reporting under this Section 5.02(b) shall be available to the public. Such reporting shall be made to the Settlement Administrator with respect to each six-month period ending on June 30 or December 31 of any year in which funds are received from the Settlement Fund. Settling States and Participating Subdivisions shall make each such report within ninety (90) days of the end of the applicable six-month period. The Settlement Administrator shall set up a system to receive and preserve reports from Settling States and Participating Subdivisions that have used monies from the Settlement Fund for purposes that do not qualify as Opioid Remediation. The Settlement Administrator will not require Settling States and Participating Subdivisions without any such uses of money to submit a report, and the Settlement Administrator may treat the failure to submit a report as confirmation that a Settling State or Participating Subdivision had no such uses of money. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) any Annual Remediation Payment amounts not identified under this Section 5.02(b) as used to pay attorneys' fees, investigation costs, or litigation costs shall be included in the Compensatory Restitution Amount for purposes of Section 5.06 and (ii) Participating Subdivisions not listed on Exhibit G may only use monies from the Settlement Fund for purposes that qualify as Opioid Remediation.

Section 5.03 Allocation of Settlement Fund. The allocation of the Settlement Fund allows for different approaches to be taken in different states, such as through a State-Subdivision Agreement. Given the uniqueness of Settling States and their Subdivisions, Settling States and their Subdivisions are encouraged to enter into State-Subdivision Agreements in order to direct the allocation of their portion of the Settlement Fund. As set out below, the Settlement Administrator will make an initial allocation to three (3) state-level sub-funds. The Settlement Administrator will then, for each Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions, apply the terms of this Agreement and any relevant State-Subdivision Agreement, Statutory Trust, Allocation Statute, or voluntary redistribution of funds as set out below before disbursing the funds.

(a) Base Payments. The Settlement Administrator will allocate Base Payments under Section 4.05 among the Settling States on a state-specific basis pursuant to Section 4.05. Base Payments for each Settling State will then be allocated fifteen percent (15%) to its State Fund, seventy percent (70%) to its Remediation Accounts Fund, and fifteen percent (15%) to its Subdivision Fund. Amounts may be reallocated and will be distributed as provided in Section 5.04.

(b) Incentive Payments. The Settlement Administrator will treat Incentive Payments under Section 4.06 on a state-specific basis. Incentive Payments for which a Settling State is eligible under Section 4.06 will be allocated fifteen percent (15%) to its State Fund, seventy percent (70%) to its Remediation Accounts Fund, and fifteen percent (15%) to its Subdivision Fund. Amounts may be reallocated and will be distributed as provided in Section 5.04.

(c) Application of Adjustments. If an offset or reduction under Article 12 applies with respect to a Settling State, the offset or reduction shall be applied proportionally to all amounts that would otherwise be apportioned and distributed to the State Fund, the Remediation Accounts Fund, and the Subdivision Fund for that Settling State.

(d) Estate Distributions. The Settlement Administrator will treat Estate Distributions on a state-specific basis as specified in the [Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement]. Estate Distributions directed to a Settling State will be allocated fifteen percent (15%) to its State Fund, seventy percent (70%) to its Remediation Accounts Fund, and fifteen percent (15%) to its Subdivision Fund. Amounts may be reallocated and will be distributed as provided in Section 5.04.

(e) Settlement Administrator. Prior to the Effective Date, the Sackler Parties' Representative and the States' AG Negotiating Group, the MDL PEC, and the MSGE Group will agree to a detailed mechanism consistent with the foregoing for the Settlement Administrator to follow in allocating, apportioning, and distributing payments.

Section 5.04 Settlement Fund Reallocation and Distribution. As set forth below, within a particular Settling State's account, amounts contained in the Settlement Fund sub-funds may be reallocated and distributed per a State-Subdivision Agreement or other means. If the apportionment of amounts is not addressed and controlled under Section 5.04(a) and Section 5.04(b), then the default provisions of Section 5.04(d) apply. It is not necessary that a State-Subdivision Agreement or other means of allocating funds pursuant to Section 5.04(a) and Section 5.04(b) address all of the Settlement Fund sub-funds. For example, a Statutory Trust might only address disbursements from a Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund.

(a) Distribution by State-Subdivision Agreement. If a Settling State has a State-Subdivision Agreement, amounts apportioned to that Settling State's State Fund, Remediation Accounts Fund, and Subdivision Fund under Section 5.03 shall be reallocated and distributed as provided by that agreement. Any State-Subdivision Agreement entered into after the Preliminary Agreement Date shall be applied only if it requires: (a) that all amounts be used for Opioid Remediation, except as allowed by Section 5.02(b), and (b) that at least seventy percent (70%) of amounts be used solely for future Opioid Remediation.[13] For a State-Subdivision Agreement to be applied to the relevant portion of an Annual Remediation Payment, notice must be provided to the Sackler Parties' Representative and the Settlement Administrator at least sixty (60) calendar days prior to the Payment Date.

(b) Distribution by Allocation Statute. If a Settling State has an Allocation Statute and/or a Statutory Trust that addresses allocation or distribution of amounts apportioned to such Settling State's State Fund, Remediation Accounts Fund, and/or Subdivision Fund and that, to the extent any or all such sub-funds are addressed, requires (1) all amounts to be used for Opioid Remediation, except as allowed by Section 5.02(b), and (2) at least seventy percent (70%) of all amounts to be used solely for future Opioid Remediation then, to the extent allocation or distribution is addressed, the amounts apportioned to that Settling State's State Fund, Remediation Accounts Fund, and Subdivision Fund under Section 5.03 shall be allocated and distributed as addressed and provided by the applicable Allocation Statute or Statutory Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, an Allocation Statute or Statutory Trust need not address all three (3) sub-funds that comprise the Settlement Fund, and if the applicable Allocation Statute or [13] Future Opioid Remediation includes amounts paid to satisfy any future demand by another governmental entity to make a required reimbursement in connection with the past care and treatment of a person related to the Alleged Harms.

Statutory Trust does not address distribution of all or some of these three (3) sub-funds, the applicable Allocation Statute or Statutory Trust does not replace the default provisions described in this Article 5 of any such unaddressed fund. For example, if an Allocation Statute or Statutory Trust that meets the requirements of this Section 5.04(b) only addresses funds restricted to remediation, then the default provisions of this Agreement concerning allocation among the three (3) sub-funds comprising the Settlement Fund and the distribution of the State Fund and Subdivision Fund for that Settling State would still apply, while the distribution of the applicable State's Remediation Accounts Fund would be governed by the qualifying Allocation Statute or Statutory Trust.

(c) Voluntary Redistribution. A Settling State may choose to reallocate all or a portion of its State Fund to its Remediation Accounts Fund. A Participating Subdivision included on Exhibit G may choose to reallocate all or a portion of its allocation from the Subdivision Fund to the Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund or to another Participating Subdivision. The Settlement Administrator is not required to honor a voluntary redistribution for which notice is provided to it less than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the applicable Payment Date.

(d) Distribution in the Absence of a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust. If Section 5.04(a) and Section 5.04(b) do not apply, amounts apportioned to that Settling State's State Fund, Remediation Accounts Fund, and Subdivision Fund under Section 5.03 shall be distributed as follows:

(i) Amounts apportioned to that Settling State's State Fund shall be distributed to that Settling State.

(ii) Amounts apportioned to that Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund shall be distributed consistent with Section 5.05. Each Settling State shall submit to the Settlement Administrator a designation of a lead state agency or other entity to serve as the single point of contact for that Settling State's funding requests from the Remediation Accounts Fund and other communications with the Settlement Administrator. The designation of an individual entity is for administrative purposes only and such designation shall not limit funding to such entity or even require that such entity receive funds from this Agreement. The designated entity shall be the only entity authorized to request funds from the Settlement Administrator to be disbursed from that Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund. If a Settling State has established a Statutory Trust then that Settling State's single point of contact may direct the Settlement Administrator to release the Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund to the Statutory Trust.

(iii) Amounts apportioned to that Settling State's Subdivision Fund shall be distributed to Participating Subdivisions in that Settling State included on Exhibit G per the Subdivision Allocation Percentage listed in Exhibit G. Section 7.10 shall govern amounts that would otherwise be distributed to Non-Participating Subdivisions listed in Exhibit G. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, no Non-Participating Subdivision will directly receive any amount from the Settlement Fund, regardless of whether such Subdivision is included on Exhibit G.

(iv) Special Districts shall not be allocated funds from the Subdivision Fund, except through a voluntary redistribution allowed by Section 5.04(c) to Special Districts that are Participating Subdivisions. A Settling State may allocate funds from its State Fund or Remediation Accounts Fund for Special Districts that are Participating Subdivisions.

(e) Restrictions on Distribution. No amounts may be distributed from the Subdivision Fund contrary to Article 7, i.e., no amounts may be distributed directly to Non-Participating Subdivisions or to Later Participating Subdivisions to the extent such a distribution would violate Section 7.05 through Section 7.09. Amounts allocated to the Subdivision Fund that cannot be distributed by virtue of the preceding sentence shall be distributed into the sub-account in the Remediation Accounts Fund for the Settling State in which the Subdivision is located, unless those payments are redirected elsewhere by a State-Subdivision Agreement described in Section 5.04(a) or by an Allocation Statute or a Statutory Trust described in Section 5.04(b).

Section 5.05 Provisions Regarding the Remediation Accounts Fund.

(a) State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, and Statutory Trust Fund Provisions. A State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust may govern the operation and use of amounts in that Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund so long as it complies with the requirements of Section 5.04(a) or Section 5.04(b), as applicable, and all direct payments to Subdivisions comply with Section 7.05 through Section 7.09.

(b) Absence of a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust. In the absence of a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust that addresses distribution, the Remediation Accounts Fund will be used solely for future Opioid Remediation and the following shall apply with respect to a Settling State:

(i) Regional Remediation.

(A) At least fifty percent (50%) of distributions for remediation from a Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund shall be annually allocated and tracked to the regional level. A Settling State may allow the Advisory Committee established pursuant to Section 5.05(b)(iv) to define its regions and assign regional allocations percentages. Otherwise, the Settling State shall (x) define its initial regions, which shall consist of one (1) or more General Purpose Governments and which shall be designated by the state agency with primary responsibility for substance abuse disorder services employing, to the maximum extent practical, existing regions established in that Settling State for opioid abuse treatment or other public health purposes; (y) assign initial regional allocation percentages to the regions based on the Subdivision Allocation Percentages in Exhibit G and an assumption that all Subdivisions included on Exhibit G will become Participating Subdivisions.

(B) This minimum regional expenditure percentage is calculated on the Settling State's initial Remediation Accounts Fund allocation and does not include any additional amounts a Settling State has directed to its Remediation Accounts Fund from its State Fund, or any other amounts directed to the fund. A Settling State may dedicate more than fifty percent (50%) of its Remediation Accounts Fund to the regional expenditure and may annually adjust the percentage of its Remediation Accounts Fund dedicated to regional expenditures as long as the percentage remains above the minimum amount.

(C) The Settling State (x) has the authority to adjust the definition of the regions, and (y) may annually revise the percentages allocated to each region to reflect the number of General Purpose Governments in each region that are Non-Participating Subdivisions.

(ii) Subdivision Block Grants. Certain Subdivisions shall be eligible to receive regional allocation funds in the form of a block grant for future Opioid Remediation. A Participating Subdivision eligible for block grants is a county or parish (or in the case of Settling States that do not have counties or parishes that function as political subdivisions, a city) that (1) does not contain a Litigating Subdivision or a Later Litigating Subdivision for which it has the authority to end the litigation through a release, bar or other action, (2) either (i) has a population of 400,000 or more or (ii) in the case of California has a population of 750,000 or more and (3) has funded or otherwise managed an established health care or treatment infrastructure (e.g., health department or similar agency). Each Subdivision eligible to receive block grants shall be assigned its own region.

(iii) Small Settling States. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5.05(b)(i), Settling States with populations under four (4) million that do not have existing regions described in Section 5.05(b)(i) shall not be required to establish regions. However, such a Settling State that contains one (1) or more Subdivisions eligible for block grants under Section 5.05(b)(ii) shall be divided regionally so that each block-grant eligible Subdivision is a region and the remainder of the state is a region.

(iv) Advisory Committee. The Settling State shall designate an Opioid Settlement Remediation Advisory Committee (the "Advisory Committee") to provide input and recommendations regarding remediation spending from that Settling State's Remediation Accounts Fund. A Settling State may elect to use an existing advisory committee or similar entity (created outside of a State-Subdivision Agreement or Allocation Statute); provided, however, the Advisory Committee or similar entity shall meet the following requirements:

(A) Written guidelines that establish the formation and composition of the Advisory Committee, terms of service for members, contingency for removal or resignation of members, a schedule of meetings, and any other administrative details;

(B) Composition that includes at least an equal number of local representatives as state representatives;

(C) A process for receiving input from Subdivisions and other communities regarding how the opioid crisis is affecting their communities, their remediation needs, and proposals for remediation strategies and responses; and

(D) A process by which Advisory Committee recommendations for expenditures for Opioid Remediation will be made to and considered by the appropriate state agencies.

Section 5.06 Nature of Payment. The Payment Parties, the Settling States and the Participating Subdivisions each acknowledge and agree that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the scope of the Shareholder Released Claims and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release:

(a) They have entered into this Agreement to avoid the delay, expense, inconvenience, and uncertainty of further litigation;

(b) (i) The Settling States and Participating Subdivisions sought compensatory restitution and remediation for alleged damage or harm caused by the potential violation of a law (within the meaning of 26 U.S.C. § 162(f)(2)(A) and 26 C.F.R. § 1.162-21(e)(4)(i)) as damages for the Alleged Harms allegedly suffered by the Settling States and Participating Subdivisions; (ii) the Compensatory Restitution Amount is less than or equal to the amount, in the aggregate, of the Alleged Harms allegedly suffered by the Settling States and Participating Subdivisions; and (iii) the portion of the Compensatory Restitution

Amount received by each Settling State or Participating Subdivision is less than or equal to the amount of the Alleged Harms allegedly suffered by such Settling State or Participating Subdivision;

(c) The payment of the Compensatory Restitution Amount by or on behalf of the Payment Groups constitutes, and is paid for, compensatory restitution and remediation for alleged damage or harm caused by the potential violation of a law (within the meaning of 26 U.S.C. § 162(f)(2)(A) and 26 C.F.R. § 1.162-21(e)(4)(i)) in order to restore, in whole or in part, the Settling States, Participating Subdivisions, and persons to the same position or condition that they would be in had the Settling States, Participating Subdivisions, and persons not suffered the Alleged Harms, and constitutes compensatory restitution and remediation for alleged damage or harm allegedly caused by the potential violation of a law; and

(d) For the avoidance of doubt: (i) the entire Compensatory Restitution Amount is properly characterized as described in this Section 5.06, (ii) no portion of the Compensatory Restitution Amount represents reimbursement to any Settling State, Participating Subdivision, or other person or entity for the fees or costs of any investigation or litigation, including without limitation attorneys' fees, (iii) no portion of the Total Direct Settlement Amount constitutes the disgorgement of any allegedly ill-gotten gains, and (iv) no portion of the Total Direct Settlement Amount is paid for, is in place of, or is properly characterized as the payment of any fine, penalty, punitive damages, or other punitive assessments.

ARTICLE 6.
ENFORCEMENT.

Section 6.01 Enforceability.

(a) Except as provided in Sections 6.01(b) and 6.01(c), this Agreement is enforceable only by the Settling States and the Payment Parties and/or Sackler Parties' Representative and only to the extent set forth herein; Settling States and Participating Subdivisions shall not have enforcement rights against any Payment Party or Shareholder Released Party with respect to either the terms of this Agreement that apply only to or in other Settling States or any Consent Judgment entered into by another Settling State. Except as provided in Section 6.01(b), Participating Subdivisions shall not have enforcement rights against any Payment Party or Shareholder Released Party with respect to this Agreement or any Consent Judgment; provided, however, that each Settling State shall allow Participating Subdivisions in such Settling State to notify it of any perceived violations of this Agreement or the applicable Consent Judgment.

(b) Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G have enforcement rights as to payment allocations and other matters addressed in Section 6.03(a)(ii) and (iii) and Section 6.04.

(c) Shareholder Released Parties or Released Parties may enforce Article 10 but, for the avoidance of doubt, Released Parties shall not be entitled to enforce Sections 10.02(a), (b) and (d).

(d) The obligations of the Payment Parties to make Settlement Payments are set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement and are enforceable by the MDT pursuant to the terms of the Master Settlement Agreement.

Section 6.02 Jurisdiction. Each Payment Party and Settling State consents to the jurisdiction of (i) the National Arbitration Panel with respect to any National Dispute matter, as defined in Section 6.06(b), and (ii) for disputes addressed pursuant to Section 6.06(a), the court which enters each Settling State's Consent Judgment or, if no such Consent Judgment was entered, a state or territorial court with jurisdiction located wherever the seat of the relevant state government is located. For the avoidance of doubt, no Payment Party or Shareholder Released Party consents to the jurisdiction of any state or court pursuant to subsection (ii) of this Section for any purpose other than for the resolution of disputes addressed pursuant to Section 6.06(a).

Section 6.03 Specific Terms Dispute Resolution.

(a) Payment and Allocation Disputes

(i) The failure of a Payment Group to make full and complete payments of amounts determined pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be enforced by the MDT pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement.

(ii) A dispute concerning amounts to be paid on a Payment Date to a Settling State or the Participating Subdivisions listed on a Settling State's Exhibit G shall be addressed pursuant to Section 6.06. Such disputes include, but are not limited to, the earning of Incentive Payments.

(iii) A dispute concerning the application of intrastate allocation and other provisions in Sections 5.03, 5.04 and 5.05 shall be addressed in state court pursuant to Section 6.06(a).

(b) Disputes Addressed in Master Settlement Agreement. Except for matters addressed this Article 6, any dispute that is addressed by the provisions set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement shall be resolved as provided for therein. Whether a dispute is addressed by the provisions set forth in the Master Settlement Agreement shall be resolved as provided therein.

(c) In the event that the Sackler Parties' Representative believes that the ninety-five percent (95%) threshold established in Section 5.02(a) is not being satisfied, any Party may request that the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council meet and confer regarding the use of funds to implement Section 5.02(a). The completion of such meet-and-confer process is a precondition to further action regarding any such dispute. The Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council shall each use reasonable efforts to complete such meet-and-confer process in a timely manner. Further action concerning Section 5.02(a) shall: (i) be limited to Payment Groups seeking to reduce their Annual Remediation Payments by no more than five percent (5%) of the difference between the actual amount of Opioid Remediation and the ninety-five percent (95%) threshold established in Section 5.02(a); (ii) only reduce Annual Remediation Payments to those Settling States and their Participating Subdivision(s) that are below the ninety-five percent (95%) threshold established in Section 5.02(a); and (iii) not reduce Annual Remediation Payments restricted to future Opioid Remediation.

Section 6.04 State-Subdivision Enforcement.

(a) A Subdivision shall not have enforcement rights against a Settling State in which it is located with respect to this Agreement or any Consent Judgment except that a Participating Subdivision listed on Exhibit G shall have enforcement rights (a) as provided for in a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust with respect to intrastate allocation or (b) in the absence of a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust, to assert allegations that (i) the Settling State's use of Remediation Accounts Fund monies were not used for purposes similar to or in the nature of those uses contained in Exhibit E; or (ii) a Settling State failed to pay funds directly from the Remediation Accounts Fund to a Participating Subdivision eligible to receive a block grant pursuant to Section 5.05(b)(ii).

(b) A Settling State shall have enforcement rights against a Participating Subdivision located in its territory (a) as provided for in a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust; or (b) in the absence of a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, or Statutory Trust, to assert allegations that the Participating Subdivisions' uses of Remediation Accounts Fund monies were not used for purposes similar to or in the nature of those uses contained in Exhibit E.

(c) As between the Settling States and Participating Subdivisions, the above rights are contractual in nature and nothing herein is intended to limit, restrict, change or alter any other existing rights under law.

Section 6.05 [Reserved].

Section 6.06 Other Terms Regarding Dispute Resolution.

(a) Except to the extent provided by Section 6.03 or Section 6.06(b), all disputes shall be resolved by either the court that entered the relevant Consent Judgment or, if no such Consent Judgment was entered, a state or territorial court with jurisdiction located wherever the seat of the relevant state government is located.

(i) State court proceedings shall be governed by the rules and procedures of the relevant forum.

(ii) For the avoidance of doubt, disputes to be resolved in state court consist of the following:

(A) disputes concerning whether expenditures qualify as Opioid Remediation;

(B) disputes between a Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions as provided by Section 6.04, except to the extent a State-Subdivision Agreement provides for other dispute resolution mechanisms. For the avoidance of doubt, disputes between a Settling State and any Participating Subdivision shall not be considered National Disputes;

(C) whether this Agreement and relevant Consent Judgment are binding under state law;

(D) the extent of the Attorney General's or other participating entity's authority under state law, including the extent of the authority to release claims;

(E) whether the definition of a Bar, a Case-Specific Resolution, lead state agency as described in Section 5.04(d)(ii), Later Litigating Subdivision, Litigating Subdivision, or Threshold Motion have been met; and

(F) enforcement of the injunctive relief terms in Article 3.

(iii) Any Party may request that the National Arbitration Panel provide an interpretation of any provision of this Agreement that is relevant to the state court determination, and the National Arbitration Panel shall make reasonable best efforts to supply such interpretation within the earlier of thirty (30) calendar days or the time period required by the state court proceedings. Any Party may submit that interpretation to the state court to the extent permitted by, and for such weight provided by, the state court's rules and procedures. If requested by a Party, the National Arbitration Panel shall request that its interpretation be accepted in the form of an amicus curiae brief, and any attorneys' fees and costs for preparing any such filing shall be paid for by the requesting Party.

(b) National Disputes involving a Settling State and/or a Payment Party or Shareholder Released Party or Released Party (in the case of a Released Party, solely with respect to issues relating to the Release of such Released Party) shall be resolved by the National Arbitration Panel.

(i) "National Disputes" are disputes that are not addressed in Section 6.03, and which are exceptions to Section 6.06(a)'s presumption of resolution in state courts because they involve issues of interpretation of the provisions in Article 10 and the Release. For the avoidance of doubt, disputes between a Settling State and any Participating Subdivision shall not be considered National Disputes. National Disputes include, but are not limited to, the following:

(A) the amount of offset attributable to Non-Settling States;

(B) defined terms relating to Article 10 and the Release;

(C) the interpretation and application of any most-favored nation provision in Section 13.04;

(D) questions regarding the performance and/or removal of the Settlement Administrator;

(E) disputes that require a determination of the sufficiency of participation in order to qualify for Incentive Payment A, Incentive Payment B, Incentive Payment C or Incentive Payment D;

(F) disputes involving a Releasor's compliance with, and the appropriate remedy under, Section 10.02(d)(iii);

(G) disputes requiring the interpretation of Agreement terms that are national in scope or impact, which shall mean disputes requiring the interpretation of Agreement terms that (i) concretely affect four (4) or more Settling States; and (ii) do not turn on unique definitions and interpretations under state law; and

(H) any dispute subject to resolution under Section 6.06(a) but for which all parties to the dispute agree to arbitration before the National Arbitration Panel under the provisions of this Section 6.06(b).

(ii) The National Arbitration Panel shall be comprised of three (3) arbitrators. One (1) arbitrator shall be chosen by the Sackler Parties' Representative, one (1) arbitrator shall be chosen by the MDT Advisory Council with due input from Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G, and the third arbitrator shall be agreed upon by the first two (2) arbitrators. The membership of the National Arbitration Panel is intended to remain constant throughout the term of this Agreement, but in the event that replacements are required, the retiring arbitrator shall be replaced by the party(s) that selected him/her.

(iii) Each arbitrator shall be impartial and independent regarding any dispute. If any party disputes the independence or impartiality of any arbitrator on the National Arbitration Panel, the party may request the National Arbitration Panel to replace such arbitrator. The National Arbitration Panel shall have the authority to remove an arbitrator on these grounds. The membership of the National Arbitration Panel is intended to remain constant throughout the term of this Agreement, but in the event that an arbitrator removal occurs, the removed arbitrator shall be replaced by the party(s) that selected him/her.

(iv) The National Arbitration Panel shall make reasonable best efforts to decide all matters within one hundred eighty (180) calendar days of filing, and in no event shall it take longer than one (1) year. The National Arbitration shall make reasonable efforts to decide all contractual interpretation issues that may arise in connection with this agreement within sixty (60) calendar days of filing, and in no event shall it take longer than one hundred eighty (180) calendar days of filing.

(v) The National Arbitration Panel shall conduct all proceedings in a reasonably streamlined process consistent with an opportunity for the parties to be heard. Issues shall be resolved without the need for live witnesses where feasible and with a presumption in favor of remote participation to minimize the burdens on the parties.

(vi) The seat of arbitration shall be New York, New York.

(vii) To the extent allowed under state law, a Settling State, a Participating Subdivision that has enforcement rights pursuant to Section 6.01, and (at any party's request) the National Arbitration Panel may certify to an appropriate state court any question of state law. The National Arbitration Panel shall be bound by a final state court determination of such a certified question. The time period for the arbitration shall be tolled during the course of the certification process.

(viii) The arbitrators shall be guided by any authoritative interpretation of state law, including any declaratory judgment or similar relief obtained by a Settling State, a Participating Subdivision that has enforcement rights pursuant to Section 6.01, or a Payment Party, Shareholder Released Party, or Released Party on a state law issue.

(ix) The decisions of the National Arbitration Panel shall be binding on Settling States, Participating Subdivisions, Payment Parties, the Sackler Parties' Representative, the Settlement Administrator, and, as applicable, Released Parties. In any proceeding before the National Arbitration Panel involving a dispute between a Settling State and Payment Party or the Sackler Parties' Representative whose resolution could prejudice the rights of a Participating Subdivision(s) in that Settling State, such Participating Subdivision(s) shall be allowed to file a statement of view in the proceeding.

(x) Nothing herein shall be construed so as to limit or otherwise restrict a Settling State from seeking injunctive or other equitable relief in state court to protect the health, safety, or welfare of its citizens.

(xi) Each party shall bear its own costs in any arbitration or court proceeding arising under this Article 6. The costs for the arbitrators on the National Arbitration Panel shall be divided and paid equally by the disputing sides for each individual dispute, e.g., a dispute between Payment Groups and/or the Sackler Parties' Representative and Settling States/Participating Subdivisions shall be split fifty percent (50%) by the relevant Payment Parties and fifty percent (50%) by the Settling States/Participating Subdivisions that are parties to the dispute; a dispute between a Settling State and a Participating Subdivision shall be split fifty percent (50%) by the Settling State that is party to the dispute and fifty percent (50%) by any Participating Subdivisions that are parties to the dispute.

(c) Prior to initiating an action to enforce pursuant to this Section 6.06, the complaining party must:

(i) Provide written notice to the MDT Advisory Council and/or the Sackler Parties' Representative of its complaint, including the provision of the Consent Judgment and/or Agreement that the practice appears to violate, as well as the basis for its interpretation of the disputed provision. The MDT Advisory Council shall establish a reasonable process and timeline for obtaining additional information from the involved parties; provided, however, that the date the MDT Advisory Council establishes for obtaining additional information from the parties shall not be more than forty-five (45) calendar days following the notice. The MDT Advisory Council may advise the involved parties of its views on the complaint and/or seek to resolve the complaint informally.

(ii) Wait to commence any enforcement action until thirty (30) calendar days after the date that the MDT Advisory Council establishes for obtaining additional information from the involved parties.

(iii) If the parties to a dispute cannot agree on the proper forum for resolution of the dispute under the provisions of Section 6.06(a) or Section 6.06(b), the MDT Advisory Council will determine the forum where the dispute will be initiated within twenty-eight (28) calendar days of receiving notification of the dispute relating to the proper forum. The forum identified by such committee shall be the sole forum for litigating the issue of which forum will hear the substantive dispute, and the MDT Advisory Council's identification of such forum in the first instance shall not be entitled to deference by the forum selected.

Section 6.07 Consent to Be Bound by MSA Arbitration Clauses. Subject to the introductory language in this Agreement relating to enforcement and conflict(s) between this Agreement, the Master Settlement Agreement, the Plan and/or the Confirmation Order, the Parties and each of the Participating Subdivisions acknowledge and agree that the terms and subject matter set forth in Section 11.13 of the MSA shall be binding upon and enforceable against each such Settling States and Participating Subdivisions.

ARTICLE 7.
PARTICIPATION BY SUBDIVISIONS.

Section 7.01 Notice. No later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the Preliminary Agreement Date, the Implementation Administrator shall send individual written notice (which may be delivered via e-mail or other electronic means and may be combined with distribution of the Subdivision Settlement Participation Form) of the opportunity to participate in this Agreement and the requirements of participation to all Subdivisions in the Settling States that are (1) Litigating Subdivisions or (2) Non-Litigating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G.[14] To the extent a Special District is entitled to an allocation for a direct payment through its inclusion in Exhibit G pursuant to a State-Subdivision Agreement, Allocation Statute, Statutory Trust, or voluntary redistribution, the Implementation Administrator, with the cooperation of the Settling States shall also send individual written notice (which may be delivered via e-mail or other electronic means) of the opportunity to participate in this Agreement and the requirements of participation to such Special Districts. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties (which includes the update requirements in the definitions of "Litigating Subdivision" and "Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivision"), the version of Exhibit G used for notice shall be the one in place as of the Preliminary Agreement Date. Notice (which may be delivered via e-mail or other electronic means) shall also be provided simultaneously to counsel of record for Litigating Subdivisions and known counsel for Non-Litigating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G.

[14] Because the Shareholder Released Parties have settled with Oklahoma, but not with Oklahoma Subdivisions, the Implementation Administrator shall send individual written notice of the opportunity to participate in this Agreement and the requirements of participation to all Oklahoma Subdivisions. For purposes of this Section 7, references to a "Subdivision in a Settling State" shall include Subdivisions in Oklahoma.

The Settling States, with the cooperation of the Sackler Parties' Representative, may also provide general notice reasonably calculated to alert Non-Litigating Subdivisions in the Settling States to this Agreement, the opportunity to participate in it, and the requirements for participation. Such notice may include publication and other standard forms of notification, as well as notice to state and county organizations such as the National Association of Counties and the National League of Cities. The notice will include that the deadline for becoming an Initial Participating Subdivision is the Initial Subdivision Participation Date. Nothing contained herein shall preclude a Settling State from providing further notice to or otherwise contacting any of its Subdivisions about becoming a Participating Subdivision, including beginning any of the activities described in this paragraph prior to the Preliminary Agreement Date. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall have reasonable access to the Implementation Administrator and any of its records and analyses regarding the progress of the Subdivision solicitation as such records and analyses are produced.

Section 7.02 Requirements for Becoming a Participating Subdivision—Non-Litigating Subdivisions. A Non-Litigating Subdivision in a Settling State may become a Participating Subdivision by returning an executed Subdivision Settlement Participation Form to the Implementation Administrator or Settlement Administrator (which may be executed and returned by electronic means established by the Implementation Administrator or Settlement Administrator) specifying (1) that the Subdivision agrees to the terms of this Agreement pertaining to Subdivisions, (2) that the Subdivision releases all Shareholder Released Claims against all Shareholder Released Parties and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release against Released Parties, subject to the terms of this Agreement and provided that any such dismissal may be subject to the pursuit by the MDT of a Release Remedy (as defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) under Master Settlement Agreement Section 9.02(a)(ii)(B) with respect to a Payment Party, (3) that the Subdivision agrees to use monies it receives, if any, from the Settlement Fund pursuant to the applicable requirements of Article 5; provided, however, that Non-Litigating Subdivisions may only use monies originating from the Settlement Fund for purposes that qualify as Opioid Remediation, and (4) that the Subdivision submits to the jurisdiction of the court where the applicable Consent Judgment is filed for purposes limited to that court's role under this Agreement.[15] The required Subdivision Settlement Participation Form is attached as Exhibit K.

Section 7.03 Requirements for Becoming a Participating Subdivision—Litigating Subdivisions/Later Litigating Subdivisions. A Litigating Subdivision or Later Litigating Subdivision in a Settling State may become a Participating Subdivision by returning an executed Subdivision Settlement Participation Form to the Implementation Administrator or Settlement Administrator (which may be executed and returned by electronic means established by the Implementation Administrator or Settlement Administrator) and upon dismissal with prejudice of its lawsuit following the Effective Date, provided that any such dismissal may be subject to the pursuit by the MDT of a Release Remedy (as defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) under Master Settlement Agreement Section 9.02(a)(ii)(B) with respect to a Payment Party. The required Subdivision Settlement Participation Form is attached as Exhibit K. A Settling State may require each Litigating Subdivision in that Settling State to specify on the Subdivision Settlement Participation Form whether its counsel has waived any contingency fee contract with that Participating Subdivision and whether, if eligible, it intends to seek fees pursuant to Exhibit R. The Settlement Administrator shall provide quarterly reports of this information to the parties to this Agreement, with such report being organized by Settling State.

Section 7.04 Initial Participating Subdivisions. A Subdivision qualifies as an Initial Participating Subdivision if it meets the applicable requirements for becoming a Participating Subdivision set forth in Section 7.02 or Section 7.03 by the Initial Subdivision Participation Date. All Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms shall be held in escrow by the Implementation Administrator until the [15] Note to Draft: The form of Subdivision Settlement Participation Form attached as Exhibit K to include all of the foregoing items.

Effective Date. If, for any reason, the Agreement does not become effective, all obligations created by such forms and releases in them shall be void ab initio and all Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms shall be returned to counsel for Litigating Subdivisions or to the Subdivisions not represented by counsel or destroyed to the extent that such destruction is not prohibited by then existing document preservation obligation. The holding of Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms in escrow shall only be for the purpose of addressing the contingency that the Agreement does not become effective and the forms shall not be held in escrow by the Implementation Administrator for any other purpose.

Section 7.05 Later Participating Subdivisions. A Subdivision that is not an Initial Participating Subdivision may become a Later Participating Subdivision by meeting the applicable requirements for becoming a Participating Subdivision set forth in Section 7.02 or Section 7.03 after the Initial Subdivision Participation Date and by agreeing to be subject to the terms of a State-Subdivision Agreement (if any) or any other structure adopted or applicable pursuant to Section 5.04 or Section 5.05. The following provisions govern what a Later Participating Subdivision can receive (but do not apply to Initial Participating Subdivisions):

(a) A Later Participating Subdivision shall not receive any share of any Annual Remediation Payment due before it became a Participating Subdivision.

(b) A Later Participating Subdivision that becomes a Participating Subdivision more than six months after the Effective Date, shall receive seventy-five percent (75%) of the share of future Base Payments or Incentive Payments that it would have received had it become a Later Participating Subdivision prior to that date (unless the Later Participating Subdivision is subject to Section 7.05(c) or Section 7.05(d)).

(c) A Later Participating Subdivision that, after the Initial Subdivision Participation Date, maintains a lawsuit for a Shareholder Released Claim(s) against a Shareholder Released Party and has judgment entered against it on every such Shareholder Released Claim before it became a Participating Subdivision (other than a consensual dismissal with prejudice) shall receive fifty percent (50%) of the share of future Base Payments or Incentive Payments that it would have received had it become a Later Participating Subdivision prior to such judgment; provided, however, that if the Subdivision appeals the judgment and the judgment is affirmed with finality before the Subdivision becomes a Participating Subdivision, the Subdivision shall not receive any share of any Base Payment or Incentive Payments.

(d) A Later Participating Subdivision that becomes a Participating Subdivision while a Bar has been in effect for thirty (30) days or more shall receive twenty-five percent (25%) of the share of future Base Payments or Incentive Payments that it would have received had it become a Later Participating Subdivision without such Bar being in effect.

(e) The reductions set out in Section 7.05(a)-(d) may be waived by agreement between the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council.

Section 7.06 Prior Settling Subdivisions. A Prior Settling Subdivision cannot be a Participating Subdivision. However, subject to approval by the Subdivision's Settling State, the MDT Advisory Council and the Sackler Parties' Representative, a Prior Settling Subdivision can become a Participating Subdivision or a Later Participating Subdivision if the payments it receives for Opioid Remediation from the separate agreement do not exceed amounts it would have received in Annual Remediation Payments if it had been an Initial Participating Subdivision.

Section 7.07 No Increase in Payments. Except for any effect on Incentive Payments, amounts to be received by Later Participating Subdivisions shall not increase the payments due from the Payment Parties.

Section 7.08 Ineligible Subdivisions. Prior Litigating Subdivisions whose claims against the Shareholder Released Parties have already been fully resolved and dismissed with prejudice cannot be Participating Subdivisions, unless the Sackler Parties' Representative consents to their participation. Subdivisions located in Non-Settling States cannot be Participating Subdivisions.

Section 7.09 Non-Participating Subdivisions. Non-Participating Subdivisions shall not directly receive any portion of any Annual Remediation Payment, including from the State Fund and direct distributions from the Remediation Accounts Fund; however, a Settling State may choose to fund future Opioid Remediation that indirectly benefits Non-Participating Subdivisions.

Section 7.10 Unpaid Allocations to Later Participating Subdivisions and Non-Participating Subdivisions. Any Base Payment and Incentive Payments allocated pursuant to Section 5.04 to a Later Participating Subdivision or Non-Participating Subdivision that cannot be paid pursuant to this Article 7, including the amounts that remain unpaid after the reductions required by Section 7.05(b) through Section 7.05(d), will be allocated to the Remediation Accounts Fund for the Settling State in which the Subdivision is located, unless those payments are redirected elsewhere by a State-Subdivision Agreement or by a Statutory Trust.

ARTICLE 8.
CONDITION TO EFFECTIVENESS OF AGREEMENT AND FILING OF CONSENT JUDGMENT

Section 8.01 Determination to Proceed with Settlement – Settling States. No later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the Initial Subdivision Participation Date, the Settling States, acting through the States' AG Negotiating Group, shall deliver a Subdivision Participation Threshold Notice to the Sackler Parties' Representative, the MSA PEC and the MSGE Group stating whether or not they elect to proceed with the Agreement and, if proceeding, listing all Settling States. If the Settling States elect not to proceed, this Agreement will have no further effect, and all releases (including those contained in Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms) and other commitments or obligations contained herein or in Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms will be void. Within seven (7) calendar days of the Settling States informing the Sackler Parties' Representative that there is sufficient participation to proceed pursuant to this Section 8.01, the Settling States will deliver all signatures and Releases required by the Agreement to be provided by the Settling States to the Sackler Parties' Representative.

Section 8.02 Determination to Proceed with Settlement – Sackler Parties' Representative. If the Settling States elect to proceed, the Sackler Parties' Representative will then have fifteen (15) calendar days to determine whether there is sufficient Eligible State participation, sufficient Subdivision participation, and sufficient resolution of the Cause of Action of the Litigating Subdivisions and the Non-Litigating Threshold Subdivisions in the Settling States (through participation under Article 7, Case-Specific Resolution(s) and Bar(s)) to proceed with this Agreement. The determination shall be communicated by the delivery of the Sackler (Subdivision) Participation Notice to the States' AG Negotiating Group, the MDL PEC, and the MSGE Group, which determination and communication shall be made, subject to any other agreements with any mediator parties, in the sole discretion of the Sackler Parties' Representative and may be based on any criteria or factors deemed relevant by the Sackler Parties' Representative.

Section 8.03 Reference Date. If the Sackler (Subdivision) Participation Notice communicates the Sackler Parties' Representative's decision to proceed, the Reference Date shall occur on the date of such communication and subject to Section 8.05, the obligations in the Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms will be effective and binding as of the Effective Date subject to the terms of this Agreement. If the Sackler (Subdivision) Participation Notice communicates the Sackler Parties' Representative's decision to not proceed, this Agreement will have no further effect and all releases (including those contained in Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms) and other commitments or obligations contained herein or in Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms will be void. Following the Reference Date, Subdivisions that elected to become Participating Subdivisions shall cease litigation activity against the Shareholder Released Parties and Released Parties, including by jointly seeking stays or, where appropriate, severance of claim against the Shareholder Released Parties or Released Parties, where feasible, and otherwise to minimize such activity by means of agreed deadline extensions and agreed postponement of depositions, document productions, and motion practice if a motion to stay or sever is not feasible or is denied, provided, however, that nothing herein shall require any Participating Subdivision to take any action in connection with this Section 8.03 or otherwise that would prejudice such Subdivision's ability to recommence or continue such litigation in the event the Effective Date does not occur or, if with respect to a particular Payment Party and pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement, the MDT pursues the Release Remedy (as defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) under Master Settlement Agreement Section 9.02(a)(ii)(B) with respect to such Payment Party.

Section 8.04 Consent Judgments. The Settling States will proceed to file the Consent Judgments after the Effective Date.

Section 8.05 Condition to Effectiveness of this Agreement. The Parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement shall not become effective unless the conditions in Article 10 of the Master Settlement Agreement have been satisfied or waived by the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT in accordance with the terms of the Master Settlement Agreement (with the consent of the parties referenced therein, to the extent required to give effect to such satisfaction or waiver). If the conditions in Article 10 of the Master Settlement Agreement are not satisfied or waived by the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT (with the consent of the parties referenced therein, to the extent required to give effect to such satisfaction or waiver) pursuant to the terms of the Master Settlement Agreement on the Settlement Effective Date, or the Master Settlement Agreement is terminated, this Agreement will have no further effect and all releases (including the Releases and those contained in Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms) and other commitments or obligations contained herein or in Subdivision Settlement Participation Forms will be void.

ARTICLE 9.
ANNUAL FEE PAYMENTS

Section 9.01 Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund[16]. The agreed terms concerning the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund incurred on behalf of Participating Subdivisions are set forth in Exhibit R and incorporated herein by reference. The schedule for the maximum amounts allocable to the Payment Groups on each Payment Date for Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund payments pursuant to this Agreement is set forth in Exhibit M-3 before accounting for any prepayments.[17] Each Payment Group's share of each Payment Date's Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be calculated pursuant to Exhibit M-X. For the avoidance of doubt, the payments to the Local Government

[16] NTD: States discussing moving "Exhibit R" out of GESA and into MSA or Plan.

[17] Note to Draft: Sacklers must sign off on Exhibit R before this Agreement can be finalized.

Costs and Expenses Fund provided by this Section 9.01 do not include amounts designated pursuant to Section 5.9(a) of the Plan as attorneys' fees and costs based on Estate Distributions.

Section 9.02 State Direct Expenses. The agreed terms concerning allocation of the State Direct Expenses are set forth in Exhibit S and are incorporated herein by reference. State Direct Expenses shall not be paid to Non-Settling States. The schedule for the maximum amounts allocable to the Payment Groups on each Payment Date for State Direct Expenses payments is set forth in Exhibit M-3 before accounting for any prepayments. A Payment Group's payment obligation on any Payment Date shall be reduced by the portion of State Direct Expenses attributable to any Non-Settling State for that Payment Date as set out in Exhibit M-X. Each Payment Group's share of each Payment Date's State Direct Expenses shall also be calculated pursuant to Exhibit M-X.

Section 9.03 Payment and Disbursement. The Annual Fee Payment for each Payment Date shall be calculated by the Settlement Administrator pursuant to this Article 9 and made to the MDT pursuant to the Master Settlement Agreement. Disbursements for Subdivision and State attorneys' fees and expenses are made pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, except as provided in Section 9.04, the terms in this agreement concerning the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund and the State Direct Expenses concern payment obligations and do not address the process for the disbursement of those funds, which is covered by the Plan. To the extent Annual Fee Payment obligations are greater than the fee disbursements required by the Plan on any Payment Date, any such excess shall be allocated ratably as additional Base Payment funds to States with scheduled Base Payments for that Payment Date.

Section 9.04 Excess Annual Fee Payment Amounts.

(a) Pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Plan, there is a cap on disbursements for the Local Government Cost and Expense Fund and a cap on disbursements for the State Expenses Fund. Should the cap for the Local Government Cost and Expense Fund be reached prior to the completion of the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund payment obligations pursuant to Section 9.01 of this Agreement, the remaining Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund obligations pursuant to Section 9.01 of this Agreement shall be directed by the MDT to the Settlement Fund and be allocated ratably as additional Base Payment funds to States with scheduled Base Payments for that Payment Date. Similarly, should the cap for the State Expenses Fund be reached prior to the completion of the State Direct Expenses payment obligations pursuant to Section 9.02 of this Agreement, the remaining State Direct Expenses payments shall be directed by the MDT to the Settlement Fund and be allocated as additional Base Payment funds for that Payment Date. The Settlement Administrator shall keep the Settling States and the Sackler Parties' Representative reasonably informed about when the caps described in this Section 9.04 will be met.

ARTICLE 10.
RELEASE

Section 10.01 Delivery of Release. Each Settling State and Participating Subdivision shall, on behalf of itself and its applicable Releasors, deliver a Release, pursuant to this Agreement, which Releases shall be effective upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, provided that such Releases may be subject to the pursuit by the MDT of a Release Remedy (as defined in the Master Settlement Agreement) under Master Settlement Agreement Section 9.02(a)(ii)(B) with respect to a Payment Party. For the avoidance of doubt, the delivery of the Consent Judgments following the Effective Date shall have no impact on the effectiveness of the Releases.

Section 10.02 Claim-Over and Non-Party Settlement.

(a) It is the intent of the Parties that:

(i) Shareholder Released Parties and Released Parties should not seek contribution or indemnification (other than pursuant to an insurance contract) from other parties for their payment obligations under this Agreement;

(ii) the payments made under the Master Settlement Agreement shall be the sole payments made by the Shareholder Released Parties to the Releasors involving, arising out of, or related to Shareholder Released Claims (or conduct that would give rise to a Shareholder Released Claim if engaged in by a Shareholder Released Party);

(iii) A Cause of Action by Releasors against non-Parties should not result in additional payments by Shareholder Released Parties, whether through contribution, indemnification or any other means; and

(iv) the Agreement meets the requirements of the Uniform Contribution Among Joint Tortfeasors Act and any similar state law or doctrine that reduces or discharges a Shareholder Released Party's liability to any other parties.

The provisions of this Section 10.02 are intended to be implemented consistent with these principles. This Agreement and the releases and dismissals provided for herein are made in good faith.

(b) No Shareholder Released Party shall seek to recover for amounts paid under this Agreement based on indemnification, contribution, or any other theory from a manufacturer, pharmacy, hospital, pharmacy benefit manager, health insurer, third-party vendor, trade association, distributor, health care practitioner; provided that a Shareholder Released Party shall be relieved of this prohibition with respect to any entity that asserts a Claim-Over against it. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall prohibit a Shareholder Released Party or Released Party from recovering amounts owed pursuant to insurance contracts.

(c) To the extent that, on or after the Effective Date, any Releasor negotiates and enters into a Non-Party Settlement, including in any bankruptcy case or through any plan of reorganization (whether individually or as a class of creditors), the Releasor will include (or in the case of a Non-Party Settlement made in connection with a bankruptcy case, will cause the debtor to include), unless prohibited from doing so under applicable law, in the Non-Party Settlement a prohibition on contribution or indemnity of any kind against the Shareholder Released Parties and Released Parties substantially equivalent to that required from the Shareholder Released Parties in Section 10.02(b), or a release from such Non-Shareholder Released Party in favor of the Shareholder Released Parties and Released Parties (in a form equivalent to the releases contained in this Agreement, including the Release) of any Claim-Over. Each Releasor acknowledges and agrees that it shall take reasonable steps to enforce such agreement related to indemnification and contribution, and any other agreement related to indemnification and contribution from a prior opioid settlement, in each case as applicable, for the benefit of the Shareholder Released Parties and the Released Parties. Such agreement is a material term of this Agreement.

(d) In the event that any Releasor obtains a judgment with respect to Non-Party Covered Conduct against a Non-Shareholder Released Party that does not contain a prohibition like that described in Section 10.02(c) or any Releasor files a Non-Party Covered Conduct Claim against a Non-Shareholder Released Party in bankruptcy or a Releasor is prevented for any reason from obtaining a prohibition/release in a Non-Party Settlement as provided in Section 10.02(c), and such Non-Shareholder Released Party asserts a Claim-Over against a Shareholder Released Party, the Shareholder Released Party shall be relieved of the prohibition in Section 10.02(b) with respect to that Non-Shareholder

Released Party and that Releasor and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall take the following actions to ensure that the Shareholder Released Parties do not pay more with respect to Covered Conduct to Releasors or to Non-Shareholder Released Parties than the amounts owed under this Settlement Agreement by Payment Groups:

(i) The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify that Releasor of the Claim-Over within sixty (60) calendar days of when it becomes aware of the assertion of the Claim-Over or sixty (60) calendar days of the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement, whichever is later;

(ii) The Sackler Parties' Representative and that Releasor shall meet and confer concerning the means to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless and ensure that they are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by the Payment Groups under this Agreement;

(iii) That Releasor and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall take steps sufficient and permissible under the law of the state of the Releasor to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over and ensure Shareholder Released Parties are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by the Payment Groups under this Agreement. Such steps may include, where permissible:

(A) Filing of motions to dismiss or such other appropriate motion by the Sackler Parties' Representative or Shareholder Released Parties and supported by Releasors, in response to any claim filed in litigation or arbitration;

(B) Reduction of that Releasors' Claim and any judgment it has obtained or may obtain against such Non-Shareholder Released Party by whatever amount or percentage is necessary to extinguish such Claim-Over under applicable law, up to the amount that Releasor has obtained, may obtain, or has authority to control from such Non-Shareholder Released Party;

(C) Placement into escrow of funds paid by the Non-Shareholder Released Parties such that those funds are available to satisfy the Claim-Over;

(D) Return of monies paid by Payment Groups to that Releasor under this Settlement Agreement to permit satisfaction of a judgment against or settlement with the Non-Shareholder Released Party to satisfy the Claim-Over;

(E) Payment of monies to Shareholder Released Parties by that Releasor to ensure they are held harmless from such Claim-Over, up to the amount that Releasor has obtained, may obtain, or has authority to control from such Non-Shareholder Released Party;

(F) Credits to Payment Groups under this Agreement to reduce the overall amounts to be paid under the Agreement such that they are held harmless from the Claim-Over; and

(G) Such other actions as that Releasor and Payment Parties, the Sackler Parties' Representative may devise to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over.

(iv) The actions taken pursuant to paragraph (iii) must, in combination, ensure that Payment Groups are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by them under this Agreement.

(v) In the event of any dispute over the sufficiency of the actions taken pursuant to paragraph (iii), that Releasor and the Sackler Parties' Representative may seek review by the National Arbitration Panel, provided that, if the parties agree, such dispute may be heard by the state court where the relevant Consent Judgment was filed.

(vi) The National Arbitration Panel shall have authority to require Releasors to implement a remedy that includes one or more of the actions specified in paragraph ((iii)) sufficient to hold Shareholder Released Parties fully harmless in accordance with this Section 10.02. In the event that the Panel's actions do not result in Shareholder Released Parties being held fully harmless in accordance with this Section 10.02, the Shareholder Released Parties shall have a claim for breach of this Agreement by Releasors, with the remedy being payment of sufficient funds to hold the Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over. For the avoidance of doubt, the prior sentence does not limit or eliminate any other remedy that the Shareholder Released Parties or Payment Parties may have.

(e) To the extent that the Claim-Over is based on a contractual indemnity, the obligations under Section 10.02(d) shall extend solely to a Non-Party Covered Conduct Claim against a clinic, hospital or other purchaser, distributor or dispenser of Products, a manufacturer that sold Products, a consultant, and/or a pharmacy benefit manager or other third-party payor. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify the Settling States, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the event that any of these types of Non-Shareholder Released Party asserts a Claim-Over arising out of contractual indemnity against it.

Section 10.03 General Release. In connection with the releases provided for in this Agreement (including the Release), each Settling State (for itself and its Releasors) and Participating Subdivision (for itself and its Releasors) expressly waives, releases, and forever discharges any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States or other jurisdiction, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to § 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

> A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO A CAUSE OF ACTION THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

A Releasor may hereafter discover facts other than or different from those which it knows, believes, or assumes to be true with respect to the Shareholder Released Claims and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release, but each Settling State (for itself and its Releasors) and Participating Subdivision hereby expressly waives and fully, finally, and forever settles, releases and discharges, upon the Effective Date, any and all Shareholder Released Claims and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release that may exist as of such date but which Releasors do not know or suspect to exist, whether through ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or through no fault whatsoever, and which, if known, would materially affect the Settling States' decision to enter into this Agreement or the Participating Subdivisions' decision to participate in this Agreement.

Section 10.04 Assigned Interest Waiver. To the extent that any Settling State has any direct or indirect interest in any rights of a third-party that is a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code as a result of a claim arising out of Covered Conduct by way of assignment or otherwise, including as a result of being the beneficiary of a trust or other distribution entity, to assert claims against a Shareholder Released Party or Released Party (whether derivatively or otherwise), under any legal or equitable theory, including for indemnification, contribution, or subrogation, the Settling State waives the right to assert any such claim, or to receive a distribution or any benefit on account of such claim and such claim, distribution, or benefit shall be deemed assigned to such Shareholder Released Party or Released Party, as applicable.

Section 10.05 Res Judicata. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to reduce the scope of the res judicata or claim preclusive effect of this Agreement, and/or any Consent Judgment or other judgment entered on this Agreement, gives rise to under applicable law.

Section 10.06 Representation and Warranty. The signatories hereto on behalf of their respective Settling States expressly represent and warrant that they have (or have obtained, or will obtain no later than the date set forth in Section 8.01) the authority to settle and release, to the maximum extent of the Settling State's power, all Shareholder Released Claims and such other Claims released pursuant to the Release of (1) their respective Settling States, (2) all past and present executive departments, state agencies, divisions, boards, commissions and instrumentalities with the regulatory authority to enforce state and federal controlled substances acts, and (3) any of their respective Settling State's past and present executive departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, and instrumentalities that have the authority to bring a Shareholder Released Claim or Released Claim. For the purposes of clause (3) above, executive departments, agencies, divisions, boards, commissions, and instrumentalities are those that are under the executive authority or direct control of the Settling State's Governor. Also for the purposes of clause (3) of this Section 10.06, a release from a Settling State's Governor as set forth in Exhibit V is sufficient to demonstrate that the appropriate releases have been obtained.

Section 10.07 Effectiveness. The releases set forth in this Agreement (including the Release) shall not be impacted in any way by any dispute that exists, has existed, or may later exist between or among the Releasors. Nor shall such releases be impacted in any way by any current or future law, regulation, ordinance, or court or agency order limiting, seizing, or controlling the distribution or use of the Settlement Fund or any portion thereof, or by the enactment of future laws, or by any seizure of the Settlement Fund or any portion thereof.

Section 10.08 Cooperation. Releasors (1) will not encourage any person or entity to bring or maintain any Shareholder Released Claim against any Shareholder Released Party or any other Claims released pursuant to the Release against any Released Parties and (2) will reasonably cooperate with and not oppose any effort by a Shareholder Released Party or Released Party, as applicable, to secure the prompt dismissal of any and all Shareholder Released Claims or any other Claims released pursuant to the Release against any Release Parties, including suits brought by non-Releasors based on Shareholder Released Claims or any other Claims released pursuant to the Release against any Released Parties. Applicable Releasors will meet and confer and make reasonable efforts to resolve any action that is filed by a Subdivision against a Shareholder Released Party or Released Party on or after the date the Preliminary Agreement Date. This provision shall not require a Settling State to make any monetary payment or adjustment to allocation or incur other obligation.

Section 10.09 Non-Released Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything herein or in any definition of Released Claims to the contrary (either in this Agreement or in the Plan), neither this Agreement nor the Release shall waive, release or limit any Excluded Claims.

ARTICLE 11.
LATER LITIGATING SUBDIVISIONS

Section 11.01 Shareholder Released Claims against Shareholder Released Parties. If a Later Litigating Subdivision in a Settling State maintains a lawsuit for a Shareholder Released Claim against a Shareholder Released Party after the Effective Date the Shareholder Released Party shall take ordinary and reasonable measures to defend the action, including filing a Threshold Motion with respect to the Shareholder Released Claim. The Shareholder Released Party shall further notify the Settling State and Settlement Administrator immediately upon notice of a Later Litigating Subdivision bringing a lawsuit for a Shareholder Released Claim and shall not oppose a Settling State's submission in support of the Threshold Motion. The Shareholder Released Parties shall give the relevant Settling State a reasonable opportunity to extinguish the Shareholder Released Claims without any payment or any other obligations being imposed upon any Shareholder Released Parties (apart from the Total Direct Settlement Amount payable by the Payment Groups under the Agreement or the Injunctive Relief Terms incurred by it). The relevant Settling State and Shareholder Released Party shall confer and use reasonable efforts to promptly resolve the lawsuit so that it is dismissed with prejudice. Nothing in this subsection creates an obligation for a Settling State to make a monetary payment or incur any other obligation to an entity filing a lawsuit.

Section 11.02 No Support for Litigating Subdivisions. The Settling States will not encourage, facilitate, or assist in any manner whatsoever Subdivision litigation for Covered Conduct against any Shareholder Released Party or Released Party in any State, regardless of whether those claims were filed against the Shareholder Released Party or Released Party, as applicable, prior to, on, or after the Effective Date.

ARTICLE 12.
OTHER REDUCTIONS/OFFSETS.

Section 12.01 Settlement Class Resolution Opt Outs. If a Settling State is eligible for Incentive Payment A on the basis of a Settlement Class Resolution, and a Primary Subdivision that opted out of the Settlement Class Resolution maintains a lawsuit asserting a Shareholder Released Claim against a Shareholder Released Party, the following shall apply. If the lawsuit asserting a Shareholder Released Claim either survives a Threshold Motion or has an unresolved Threshold Motion fewer than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the scheduled start of a trial involving a Shareholder Released Claim, and is resolved with finality on terms requiring payment by the Shareholder Released Party, each Payment Group shall receive a dollar-for-dollar offset for the amount it paid against its obligation to make remaining Incentive Payment A payments that would be apportioned to that Settling State and to its Subdivisions.

Section 12.02 Revoked Bar, Settlement Class Resolution, or Case-Specific Resolution.

(a) If a Payment Group made any Annual Remediation Payments that included any Incentive Payments earned as a result of the existence of a Bar, Settlement Class Resolution, or Case-Specific Resolution in a Settling State, and there is subsequently a Revocation Event with respect to that Bar, Settlement Class Resolution, or Case-Specific Resolution after the determination of the amount of such Annual Remediation Payment, the Payment Parties shall receive a dollar-for-dollar offset against the portion of their remaining Annual Remediation Payments that would be allocated to that Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions. This offset will be calculated for each Payment Group as the dollar amount difference between (1) the total amount of Incentive Payments paid by the Payment Group by virtue of the Bar, Settlement Class Resolution, or Case-Specific Resolution subject to the Revocation Event and (2) the total amount of Incentive Payments that would have been due from the Payment Group during that time had the Bar, Settlement Class Resolution, or Case-Specific Resolution subject to the Revocation Event not been in effect. The amount of incentive payments that would have been due, referenced in clause (2) above, will be calculated one hundred eighty (180) calendar days after the Revocation Event and the offset will be applied to the next payment that would be allocated to that Settling State and its Participating Subdivisions; for purposes of calculating the amount of Incentive Payments that would have been due, any relevant Subdivision shall be included as a Participating Subdivision if: (x) its Shareholder Released Claims are extinguished by any subsequent Bar, Settlement Class Resolution, or Case-Specific Resolution in effect as of the date of such calculation, or (y) it becomes a Participating Subdivision (in addition to all other Participating Subdivisions) prior to the date of such calculation.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, if a Payment Group made a payment under Incentive Payment A solely on the basis of a Bar or Settlement Class Resolution in a Settling State and that Bar or Settlement Class Resolution is subsequently subject to a Revocation Event or that Settling State shall not be eligible for Incentive Payment A thereafter, unless the Settling State requalifies for Incentive Payment A through any method pursuant to Article 4, in which case the Settling State shall be eligible for Incentive Payment A less any litigation fees and costs incurred by the Payment Group in the interim as a result of the Revocation Event, except that, if the re-imposition occurs after the completion of opening statements in a trial involving a Shareholder Released Claim, the Settling State shall not be eligible for Incentive Payment A (unless this exception is waived by the Sackler Parties' Representative).

ARTICLE 13.
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 13.01 Population of General Purpose Governments. The population figures for General Purpose Governments shall be the published U.S. Census Bureau's population estimates for July 1, 2019, released May 2020. These population figures shall remain unchanged during the term of this Agreement.

Section 13.02 Population of Special Districts. For any purpose in this Agreement in which the population of a Special District is used other than Section 4.06(d) and Section 4.06(g): (a) Health Districts' and Hospital Districts' population will be measured at twenty-five percent (25%) of discharges; and (b) all other Special Districts' (including Fire Districts' and Library Districts') population will be measured at ten percent (10%) of the population served.[18] For the avoidance of doubt, this means that California healthcare districts will be measured at ten percent (10%) of their membership. The Sackler Parties' Representative and the States' AG Negotiating Group shall meet and confer in order to agree on data sources for purposes of this Section prior to the Preliminary Agreement Date.

Section 13.03 Population Associated with Sheriffs. For any purpose in this Agreement in which the population associated with a lawsuit by a sheriff is used, the population will be measured at twenty percent (20%) of the capacity of the jail(s) operated by the sheriff.

Section 13.04 Most-Favored Nation Provisions

(a) No Settling State or Participating Subdivision shall enter into a side settlement or other agreement with one or more Shareholder Released Parties concerning a Cause of Action addressed in this Agreement that provides compensation or other terms that are in addition to what the Settling State or Participating Subdivision receives pursuant to this Agreement and the Master Settlement Agreement.

[18] The estimates for counties and parishes were accessed at https://www.census.gov/data/datasets/time-series/demo/popest/2010s-counties-total.html. The estimates for cities and towns can currently be found at https://www.census.gov/data/datasets/time-series/demo/popest/2010s-total-cities-and-towns.html.

(b) For so long as funds remain in the Special Operating Reserve that can be used by a settling Payment Group, all proposed settlement agreements between that Payment Group and non-federal governmental entities or the private claimants, or decisions not to appeal an appealable judgment, must be submitted to the MDT Advisory Council for consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), as set forth below:

(i) For settlements involving a State or private party settlements, at least five (5) of the members of the MDT Advisory Council are required to consent;

(ii) For settlement involving a Subdivision, the Settling State in which the Subdivision is located shall participate in the MDT Advisory Council's discussions and shall have a vote on whether to approve the settlement as if it were a member of the MDT Advisory Council.

(iii) Upon approval, such settlement payments shall be deemed Litigation Costs.

(c) The MDT Advisory Council may consider any and all factors that it determines are relevant when providing its consent, including the amount of Litigation Costs (including defense costs). spent on litigation by the Payment Parties prior to any proposed settlement. This section shall not prohibit the Sackler Parties from taking the position in any arbitration (or any other proceeding) that the consideration of any particular factor by the MDT Advisory Council is unreasonable, and nothing shall prohibit the MDT Advisory Council from taking the position in any arbitration (or any other proceeding) that the consideration of any particular factor is reasonable.

(d) If a Payment Party or Payment Parties within a Payment Group (a "Separately Settling Payment Group") enters into a settlement agreement with any Non-Settling State that resolves a Cause of Action similar in scope to those released by a Settling State under this Agreement on overall payment terms that are more favorable to the Non-Settling State on a net present value basis (calculated with a 7.5% discount rate, discounted back to the date of the first payment) than the overall payment terms the Non-Settling State would have received under this Agreement based on the same level of participation, the Settling States, individually or collectively, may seek review, pursuant to this Section 13.04(d), of the overall payment terms of this Agreement solely concerning that Separately Settling Payment Group and the Non-Settling State agreement. This review and potential revision of payment terms allows such Settling State(s) to obtain overall payment terms at least as favorable as those secured by the Non-Settling State, solely with respect to the Separately Settling Payment Group. "Overall payment terms" refers to the consideration of, among other things, all payment terms of the Separately Settling Payment Group under the two agreements, taken together, including but not limited to the amount of payments, the timing of payments, the amount of payments that are being made to counsel of the Non-Settling State (as opposed to the Non-Settling State itself) and conditions or contingencies on payments. Any changes to a Separately Settling Payment Group's overall payment terms shall not adversely affect any other Payment Group.

(i) For any settlement involving Shareholder Released Claims entered into with a Non-Settling State, the Separately Settling Payment Group shall provide the MDT Advisory Council (with a copy to the Sackler Parties' Representative) with the settlement agreement or relevant consent judgment within thirty (30) calendar days of the settlement's consummation. The MDT Advisory Council shall promptly distribute a copy to all Settling States.

(ii) In the event that one or more Settling State(s) believes that the overall payment terms of an agreement by a Separately Settling Payment Group with a Non-Settling State are more favorable to the Non-Settling State as set forth in Section 13.04(d), the Settling State(s) and the Separately Settling Payment Group shall engage in the following process:

(A) Within sixty (60) calendar days of the date on which the MDT Advisory Council provides a settlement agreement or consent judgment to Settling States, the Settling State(s) shall provide notice to the Separately Settling Payment Group (with a copy to the Sackler Parties' Representative) of its intent to seek revision of this Agreement to provide payment terms that are, on an overall basis, as favorable as those obtained by the Non-Settling State as described above. To the extent allowed by law, such notice shall be confidential and not disclosed publicly and shall provide, in detail, the basis for the Settling State(s)'s belief that it is entitled to a revision of the Agreement.

(B) The Separately Settling Payment Group shall, within thirty (30) calendar days, provide a response to the Settling State(s) (with a copy to the Sackler Parties' Representative), explaining its position, in detail, as to whether the Settling State(s) are entitled to more favorable overall payment terms than those provided for in this Agreement.

(C) In the event the Settling State(s) and the Separately Settling Payment Group do not reach agreement as to the application of this Section 13.04(d), the Settling State(s) may, at the sole cost of the Settling State(s) and the Separately Settling Payment Group, petition the National Arbitration Panel to seek a ruling from the Panel as to the applicability of this Section 13.04(d), provided that the Settling State(s) may seek such review only if at least five (5) Settling States co-sign the petition. The Panel shall consider submissions and argument by the parties pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 6.06(b).

(D) The Settling State and the Separately Settling Payment Group shall be bound by the determination of the National Arbitration Panel of the overall payment terms of this Agreement and the Non-Settling State agreement so that such Settling State(s) may obtain, with respect to the Separately Settling Payment Group, overall payment terms at least as favorable as those obtained by such Non-Settling State. A copy of the Panel's decision shall be promptly shared with the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council.

(E) In the event that the National Arbitration Panel determines that, following a settlement between a Separately Settling Payment Group and a Non-Settling State, the Separately Settling Payment Group delivered overall payment terms more favorable to the Non-Settling State than the Settling States, and the Separately Settling Payment Group fails to deliver consideration to the Settling States at least as favorable as the overall payment terms delivered to the Non-Settling State (as determined by the National Arbitration Panel) within thirty (30) calendar days of the National Arbitration Panels determination on this issue, the Settling States shall be permitted to exercise all remedies against the Separately Settling Payment Group, and the failure of the Separately Settling Payment Group to deliver such consideration to the Settling States shall be considered a "Specified Breach" under the MSA.

(F) In the event that the MDT Advisory Council does not consent to a particular settlement between a Separately Settling Payment Group and a Non-Settling State pursuant to Section 13.04(b), and the National Arbitration Panel determines that the MDT Advisory Council's withholding of consent was reasonable, and the Separately Settling Payment Group nevertheless consummates such settlement, such action by the Separately Settling Payment Group shall be considered a "Specified Breach" under the MSA and the Settling States shall be permitted to exercise all remedies against the Separately Settling Payment Group.

(e) If a Separately Settling Payment Group enters into a settlement agreement with any Non-Participating Subdivision in a Settling State that resolves a Cause of Action similar in scope to those released by a that State's Participating Subdivisions under this Agreement on overall payment terms that are more favorable to the Non-Participating Subdivision on a net present value basis (calculated with a 7.5% discount rate, discounted back to the date of the first payment) than the overall payment terms the Non-Participating Subdivision would have received under this Agreement (without adjusting for any difference in Incentive Payments that would have occurred if it had been a Participating Subdivision), the Settling State in which such Subdivision is located, on behalf of its Participating Subdivisions, may seek review, pursuant to this Section 13.04(e), of the overall payment terms of this Agreement solely concerning that Separately Settling Payment Group and the Non-Participating Subdivision agreement. This review and potential revision of payment terms allows such Settling State to obtain overall payment terms for its Participating Subdivisions that are at least as favorable as those secured by the Non-Participating Subdivision, solely with respect to the Separately Settling Payment Group. "Overall payment terms" refers to the consideration of, among other things, all payment terms of the Separately Settling Payment Group under the two agreements, taken together, including but not limited to the amount of payments, the timing of payments, the amount of payments that are being made to counsel of the Non-Participating Subdivision (as opposed to amounts being made to fee funds available to counsel of Participating Subdivisions) and conditions or contingencies on payments. Any changes to a Separately Settling Payment Group's overall payment terms shall not adversely affect any other Payment Group or affect the payment terms of Participating Subdivisions in any other Settling State.

(i) For any settlement involving Shareholder Released Claims entered into with a Non-Participating Subdivision, the Separately Settling Payment Group shall provide the MDT Advisory Council and the Setting State in which the Subdivision is located (with a copy to the Sackler Parties' Representative) with the settlement agreement or relevant consent judgment within thirty (30) calendar days of the settlement's consummation.

(ii) In the event that Setting State in which the Subdivision is located believes that the overall payment terms of an agreement by a Separately Settling Payment Group with the Non-Participating Subdivision are more favorable to the Non-Participating Subdivision as set forth in Section 13.04(e), the Settling State and the Separately Settling Payment Group shall engage in the following process:

(A) Within sixty (60) calendar days of the date on which the Setting State in which the Subdivision is located is provided the settlement agreement or consent judgment, the Settling State shall provide notice to the Separately Settling Payment Group (with a copy to the Sackler Parties' Representative) of its intent to seek revision of this Agreement to provide payment terms that are, on an overall basis, as favorable to its Participating Subdivisions as those obtained by the Non-Participating Subdivision as described above. To the extent allowed by law, such notice shall be confidential and not disclosed publicly and shall provide, in detail, the basis for the Settling State's belief that it is entitled to a revision of the Agreement.

(B) The Separately Settling Payment Group shall, within thirty (30) calendar days, provide a response to the Settling State (with a copy to the Sackler Parties' Representative), explaining its position, in detail, as to whether the Settling State's Participating Subdivisions are entitled to more favorable overall payment terms than those provided for in this Agreement.

(C) In the event the Settling State and the Separately Settling Payment Group do not reach agreement as to the application of this Section 13.04(e), the Settling State(s) may, at the sole cost of the Settling State and the Separately Settling Payment Group, petition the National Arbitration Panel to seek a ruling from the Panel as to the applicability of this Section 13.04(e). The Panel shall consider submissions and argument by the parties pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 6.06(b).

(D) The Settling State (including its Participating Subdivisions) and the Separately Settling Payment Group shall be bound by the determination of the National Arbitration Panel of the overall payment terms of this Agreement and the Non-Participating Subdivision agreement so that such Settling State's Participating Subdivisions may obtain, with respect to the Separately Settling Payment Group, overall payment terms at least as favorable as those obtained by such Non-Settling State. A copy of the Panel's decision shall be promptly shared with the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council.

(E) In the event that the National Arbitration Panel determines that, following a settlement between a Separately Settling Payment Group and a Non-Participating Subdivision that was not the subject of a waiver by the MDT Advisory Council of this Section 13.04, the Separately Settling Payment Group delivered overall payment terms more favorable to the Non-Participating Subdivision than the Participating Subdivisions and Settling States, as applicable, and the Separately Settling Payment Group fails to deliver consideration to the Participating Subdivisions and Settling States, as applicable, at least as favorable as the overall payment terms delivered to the Non-Participating Subdivision (as determined by the National Arbitration Panel) within thirty (30) calendar days of the National Arbitration Panels determination on this issue, the Settling States and Participating Subdivisions shall be permitted to exercise all remedies against the Separately Settling Payment Group, and the failure of the Separately Settling Payment Group to deliver such consideration to the Settling States and Participating Subdivisions shall be considered a "Specified Breach" under the MSA.

(F) In the event that the MDT Advisory Council does not consent to a particular settlement between a Separately Settling Payment Group and a Non-Participating Subdivision pursuant to Section 13.04(b), and the National Arbitration Panel determines that the MDT Advisory Council's withholding of consent was reasonable, and the Separately Settling Payment Group nevertheless consummates such settlement, such action by the Separately Settling Payment Group shall be considered a "Specified Breach" under the MSA and the Settling State where the Non-Participating Subdivision is located shall be permitted to exercise all remedies against the Separately Settling Payment Group.

(f) Exceptions.

(i) Section 13.04(d) through Section 13.04(e) do not apply to, and there is no ability of any Settling State or Participating Subdivision to seek or obtain revision of this Agreement based on, any agreement with a Shareholder Released Party (a) that is entered into with a Non-Settling State or Non-Participating Subdivision after the earlier of (i) the close of expert discovery or (ii) a date ninety (90) calendar days prior to the scheduled start date of a trial (including an administrative proceeding) between the Shareholder Released Party and the Non-Settling State (or Non-Participating Subdivision), provided that, where, in order to complete a settlement, the Non-Settling State (or Non-Participating Subdivision) and the Shareholder Released Party jointly request an adjournment of the scheduled start date of a trial within ninety (90) days of that date, this exception will apply as if the trial date had not been adjourned; or (b) that is entered into with a Non-Settling State (or Non-Participating Subdivision) that has obtained any court order or judicial determination that grants judgment (in whole or in part) against any Shareholder Released Party in the Non-Settling State's (or Non-Participating Subdivision's) case following an adjudication where (x) the relevant Shareholder Released Party did not consent to the entry of such order or judgment; and (y) the relevant Shareholder Released Party contested to the granting of such award and the entry of such order. The National Arbitration Panel shall have no power to review agreements that satisfy any of the conditions described in this paragraph.

(ii) This Section 13.04 does not apply to, and there is no ability of any Settling State or Participating Subdivision to seek or obtain revision of this Agreement based on, any agreement between a Shareholder Released Party and federally recognized tribes.

(iii) Sections 13.04(d) and (e) will not apply to any agreement entered into more than eighteen (18) months after the Effective Date.

(iv) This Section 13.04 may be waived by the MDT Advisory Council, with a vote to do so by at least five (5) of the MDT Advisory Council members. For waivers concerning an agreement with a Non-Participating Subdivision, the Setting State in which the Subdivision is located shall participate in the MDT Advisory Council's discussions and shall have a vote on whether to approve the waiver.

Section 13.05 No Admission. No Payment Party, other Shareholder Released Party, or Released Party admits liability or wrongdoing. Neither this Agreement nor the Consent Judgments shall be considered, construed or represented to be (1) an admission, concession or evidence of liability or wrongdoing or (2) a waiver or any limitation of any defense otherwise available to any Shareholder Released Party or Released Party.

Section 13.06 Tax Cooperation and Reporting

(a) Subject to the limitations set forth herein, upon the reasonable written request by the Sackler Parties' Representative or PRA LP to the Designated State, the Designated State agrees to cooperate in good faith with the Sackler Party Representative or PRA LP, as the case may be, to timely provide such further information and documents in its possession or reasonably available to it or to the Settling States, and use reasonable efforts to timely execute and deliver such further documents in its possession or in the possession of the Settling States as may be reasonably necessary for Payment Parties or PRA LP to establish the statements set forth in Section 5.06 to the reasonable satisfaction of their tax advisors and their independent financial auditors, including as contemplated by Section 162(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and 26 C.F.R § 1.162-21(b)(3)(ii) and any subsequently proposed or finalized relevant regulations or administrative guidance, or that are reasonably necessary with respect to any tax claim, dispute, investigation, audit, examination, contest, litigation, or other proceeding with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority relating to such matters ("Tax Matters"). All requests must reasonably detail the purpose for requesting the documents or other information at that time.

(b) The Settling States agree to timely and reasonably cooperate with the Designated State in connection with any reasonable requests made hereunder. Such cooperation shall be limited to (x) the retention and provision (upon reasonable written request by the Sackler Parties' Representative or PRA LP) of records and information which are reasonably relevant to any such Tax Matters, and which are in the possession of the Settling States or reasonably available to them, and (y) making employees and other personnel reasonably available on a mutually convenient basis to timely provide additional information reasonably requested and explain any material provided hereunder to the extent such cooperation does not materially and adversely affect the cooperating party. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall use reasonable efforts to make requests under this Section 13.06 no more frequently than quarterly, other than in connection with circumstances in which a more timely response is required to respond to a request from a taxing authority.

(c) Nothing in this Section 13.06 shall require the Designated State, any Settling State or any Participating Subdivision to (i) provide any information or document that has been filed with the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise made publicly available by the public posting of such information or document; (ii) retain information or records other than in accordance with any applicable retention policy except with respect to reasonable written requests by the Sackler Parties' Representative made to the Designated State; (iii) provide information or documents that have been previously provided to the Sackler Parties' Representative; (iv) search and/or produce e-mail or physical records, except to the extent reasonably necessary to identify information or documents relevant to any reasonable request made hereunder; (v) provide information or documents that would result in a violation of applicable law; (vi) provide information or documents that are privileged; (vii) bear any out-of-pocket costs or expenses; or (viii) provide information or documents that would result in a breach of a confidentiality agreement or obligation. In each such case where the Designated State, a Settling State or a Participating Subdivision does not provide a document or other information solely pursuant to the preceding sentence, the Designated State, Settling State or Participating Subdivision shall inform the Sackler Parties' Representative, to the extent legally permissible, of the basis on which information was not provided. Other than with respect to Section 5.02(b), and notwithstanding anything else herein to the contrary, the Settling States and Participating Subdivisions shall have no obligation to trace funds received pursuant to this Agreement or the Master Settlement Agreement; and no Settling State or Participating Subdivision shall have any obligation or responsibility for any other Settling State or Participating Subdivision under this Section 13.06.

(d) Pursuant to 26 C.F.R. § 1.6050X-1(a) and (b), the Designated State, on behalf of all Settling States and Participating Subdivisions shall designate one of its officers or employees to act as the "appropriate official" within the meaning of 26 C.F.R. § 1.6050X- 1(f)(1)(ii)(B) (the "Appropriate Official"). The Designated State shall use reasonable best efforts to direct and ensure that the Appropriate Official timely (a) files (i) at the time this Agreement becomes binding on the Parties, an IRS Form 1098-F in the form attached as Exhibit U with respect to PRA LP and the Payment Parties and (ii) any legally required forms, returns or amended returns with any applicable governmental authority, or any returns reasonably requested by PRA LP or a Payment Party, and (b) provides the Sackler Parties' Representative a copy of (i) the IRS Form 1098-F filed with respect to PRA LP or such Payment Party and (ii) any legally required written statement pursuant to any applicable law and any other document referred to in clause (a)(ii) above. Any such forms, returns, or statements shall be prepared and filed in a manner fully consistent with Section 5.06 and as set forth in Section 13.06(e).

(e) Any form, return, amended return, or written statement filed or provided pursuant to Section 13.06(d), and any similar document, shall be prepared and filed in a manner consistent with reporting on IRS Form 1098-F. If the Designated State or Appropriate Official shall be required to file any form, return, amended return, or written statement contemplated by this Section 13.06 other than an IRS Form 1098-F in the form attached as Exhibit U, the Designated State shall use reasonable best efforts to direct and ensure that the Appropriate Official provides to the Sackler Parties' Representative a draft of such form, return, amended return, or written statement in respect of the Payment Parties or PRA LP no later than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the due date thereof, and shall accept and reflect any reasonable revisions from or on behalf of the Sackler Parties' Representative on the return, amended return, or written statement in respect of the Payment Parties or PRA LP.

(f) For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Payment Parties, the Designated State, nor the Settling States make any warranty or representation to any Payment Party, Settling State, or Releasor as to the tax consequences of the payment of the Compensatory Restitution Amount (or any portion thereof), and nothing in this Agreement shall impose on the Settling States any liability with respect to any tax or related obligation of the Shareholder Released Parties, or obligation to indemnify, defend, or otherwise hold harmless any Shareholder Released Party for any tax or other obligations.

Section 13.07 Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement or the Master Settlement Agreement, no portion of this Agreement shall provide any rights to, or be enforceable by, any person or entity that is not the MDT, a Participating Subdivision (to the extent expressly set forth herein), a Settling State, the Sackler Parties' Representative, Shareholder Released Party, or a Released Party. The Settling States may not assign or otherwise convey any right to enforce any provision of this Agreement.

Section 13.08 Calculation. Any figure or percentage referred to in this Agreement shall be carried to seven decimal places.

Section 13.09 Construction. None of the Parties and no Participating Subdivision shall be considered to be the drafter of this Agreement or of any of its provisions for the purpose of any statute, case law, or rule of interpretation or construction that would or might cause any provision to be construed against the drafter of this Agreement. The headings of the provisions of this Agreement are not binding and are for reference only and do not limit, expand, or otherwise affect the contents or meaning of this Agreement.

Section 13.10 Cooperation and Best Efforts. Each Party and each Participating Subdivision agrees to use its best efforts and to cooperate with the other Parties and Participating Subdivisions to cause this Agreement and the Consent Judgments to become effective, to obtain all necessary approvals, consents, and authorizations, if any, and to execute all documents and to take such other action as may be appropriate in connection herewith. Consistent with the foregoing, each Party and each Participating Subdivision agrees that it will not, directly or indirectly, assist or encourage any challenge to this Agreement or any Consent Judgment by any other person, and will support the integrity and enforcement of the terms of this Agreement, the Master Settlement Agreement and the Consent Judgments. Each Party and each Participating Subdivision further agrees to use its good faith efforts and to cooperate with the other Parties and Participating Subdivisions to meet the deadlines set forth in this Agreement in a timely manner and without requiring extensions.

Section 13.11 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including its exhibits and any other attachments, and together with the Master Settlement Agreement, embodies the entire agreement and understanding between and among the Parties and Participating Subdivisions relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes (1) all prior agreements and understandings relating to such subject matter, whether written or oral and (2) all purportedly contemporaneous oral agreements and understandings relating to such subject matter.

Section 13.12 Execution. The Consent Judgments may be executed in counterparts and by different signatories on separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall together be one and the same Consent Judgment. One or more counterparts of the Consent Judgments may be delivered by facsimile or electronic transmission with the intent that it or they shall constitute an original counterpart thereof. One or more counterparts of the Consent Judgments may be signed by electronic signature. The Payment Parties and MDT may execute their counterpart signature pages to this Agreement in a similar manner (e.g., on separate counterparts and by means of .pdf electronic transmission).

Section 13.13 Good Faith and Voluntary Entry. Each Party warrants and represents that it negotiated the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Each of the Parties and Participating Subdivisions warrants and represents that it freely and voluntarily entered into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion. The Parties and Participating Subdivisions state that no promise of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than the written terms of this Agreement and the other Agreements listed or referenced in Section 13.11) was made to them to induce them to enter into this Agreement.

Section 13.14 Legal Obligations. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as relieving Payment Parties of the obligation to comply with all state and federal laws, regulations or rules, nor shall any of the provisions herein be deemed to be permission to engage in any acts or practices prohibited by such laws, regulations, or rules. Except with respect to the Injunctive Relief Terms, in the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any requirement or requirements of federal, state, or local laws, such that a Payment Party cannot comply with this Agreement without violating such a requirement or requirements, the Payment Party shall document such conflicts and notify the Attorney(s) General of the relevant Settling State(s) that it intends to comply with the requirement or requirements to the extent necessary to eliminate the conflict. With respect to the Injunctive Relief Terms, in the event of such a conflict, the procedures set forth in the Injunctive Relief Terms will be followed.

Section 13.15 No Prevailing Party. The Parties and Participating Subdivisions each agree that they are not the prevailing party in this action, for purposes of any claim for fees, costs, or expenses as prevailing parties arising under common law or under the terms of any statute, because the Parties and Participating Subdivisions have reached a good faith settlement.

Section 13.16 Waive Challenge. The Parties and Participating Subdivisions each further waive any right to challenge or contest the validity of this Agreement on any ground, including, without limitation, that any term is unconstitutional or is preempted by, or in conflict with, any current or future law. Nothing in the previous sentence shall modify, or be construed to conflict with, Section 13.14.

Section 13.17 Non-Admissibility. The settlement negotiations resulting in this Agreement have been undertaken by the Parties and by certain representatives of the Participating Subdivisions in good faith and for settlement purposes only, and no evidence of negotiations or discussions underlying this Agreement shall be offered or received in evidence in any action or proceeding for any purpose. This Agreement shall not be offered or received in evidence in any action or proceeding for any purpose other than in an action or proceeding arising under or relating to this Agreement.

Section 13.18 Notices. All notices or other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing (including, but not limited to, electronic communications) and shall be given to the recipients indicated in Exhibit B.

Any Party, the MDL PEC, or the MSGE Group may change or add the contact information of the persons designated to receive notice on its behalf by notice given (effective upon the giving of such notice) as provided in this Section 13.18.

Section 13.19 No Waiver. The waiver of any rights conferred hereunder shall be effective only if made by written instrument executed by the waiving Party or Parties. The waiver by any Party of any breach of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be or construed as a waiver of any other breach, whether prior, subsequent, or contemporaneous, nor shall such waiver be deemed to be or construed as a waiver by any other Party.

Section 13.20 Preservation of Privilege. Nothing contained in this Agreement or any Consent Judgment, and no act required to be performed pursuant to this Agreement or any Consent Judgment, is intended to constitute, cause, or effect any waiver (in whole or in part) of any attorney-client privilege, work product protection, or common interest/joint defense privilege, and each Party and Participating Subdivision agrees that it shall not make or cause to be made in any forum any assertion to the contrary.

Section 13.21 Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the Payment Parties and their respective successors and assigns. To the extent a party to the Master Settlement Agreement may assign rights or obligations thereunder, or may be added or removed as a party thereto, such party may assign rights or obligations, or may be added or removed as a party, to this Agreement.[19]

Section 13.22 Modification, Amendment, Alteration. Between [●][20]and the Effective Date, in the event the States' AG Negotiating Group, MDL PEC, the MSGE Group, or the Sackler Parties' Representative concludes that corrections are required to this Agreement, the States' AG Negotiating Group, MDL PEC, the MSGE Group, and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall meet and confer and make such amendments as they agree are appropriate. After the Effective Date, any modification, amendment, or alteration of this Agreement by the Parties shall be binding only if evidenced in writing signed by the Sackler Parties' Representative, along with the signature of at least two-thirds of those then serving as Attorney General of the Settling States along with a representation from each Attorney General that either: (1) the advisory committee or similar entity established or recognized by that Settling State (either pursuant to Section 5.05(b)(iv), by a State-Subdivision Agreement, or by statute) voted in favor of the modification, amendment or alteration of this Agreement including at least one member appointed by the Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G; or (2) in Settling States without any advisory committee, that 50.1% (by population) of the Participating Subdivisions listed on Exhibit G expressed approval of the modification, amendment, or alteration of this Agreement in a writing.

Section 13.23 Termination.

(a) Unless otherwise agreed to by each of the Sackler Parties' Representative and the Settling States, this Agreement and all of its terms (except Section 13.17) and any other non-admissibility provisions, which shall continue in full force and effect) shall be canceled and terminated, and the Agreement and all orders issued by the courts in the Settling States pursuant to the Agreement shall become null and void and of no effect if the Master Settlement Agreement terminates.

(b) Unless the Sackler Parties' Representative and the MDT Advisory Council agree otherwise, this Agreement, with the exception of the Injunctive Relief Terms that have their own provisions on duration as set forth in Article 8 of the MSA, shall terminate as to all Parties as of Payment Date 16, provided that the Payment Parties have performed their respective payment obligations under the Agreement as of that date. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Section 13.23(b) or in this Agreement, all releases under this Agreement, including under the Release, will remain effective despite any termination under this Section 13.23(b).

(c) Nothing in this Section 13.23 shall affect the rights of the parties to terminate this Agreement on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth elsewhere in this Agreement or under the Master Settlement Agreement.

Section 13.24 Governing Law. Except as (1) otherwise provided in this Agreement or (2) as necessary, in the sole judgment of the National Arbitration Panel, to promote uniformity of interpretation for matters within the scope of the National Arbitration Panel's authority, this Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the respective laws of the Settling State, without regard to the conflict of law rules of such Settling State, that is seeking to enforce the Agreement against the Payment Parties or against which a Payment Party of the Sackler Parties' Representative is seeking enforcement.

[20] NTD: This will be the date referenced in the introductory language of Section 2.01.

Section 13.25 [Reserved]

Section 13.26 Sackler Parties' Representative.

(a) Designation. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 13.26, the Sackler Parties' Representative is hereby designated as the representative of the Payment Parties with respect to the matters set forth in this Agreement, and solely to the extent set forth therein, and the other documents or agreements contemplated hereby or thereby to be performed by the Payment Parties.

(b) Authority. By the approval of this Agreement, each of the Payment Parties hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Sackler Parties' Representative as the representative, agent, proxy and attorney-in-fact for each of the Payment Parties for all purposes authorized under this Agreement, including the full power and authority on behalf of the Payment Parties to (i) take all other actions to be taken by or on behalf of each Payment Party (or the Payment Parties collectively) in connection herewith and (ii) do each and every act and exercise any and all rights which each Payment Party (or the Payment Parties collectively) is permitted or required to do or exercise under this Agreement or any other agreement contemplated hereby. Each of the Payment Parties agrees that such agency and proxy are coupled with an interest, are therefore irrevocable without the written consent of the Sackler Parties' Representative and shall survive the bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation, death or incapacity of any Payment Party. All decisions and actions by the Sackler Parties' Representative (to the extent authorized by this Agreement) shall be binding upon each of the Payment Parties, and no Payment Party shall have the right to object, dissent, protest or otherwise contest the same.

(c) Reliance. Each Payment Party agrees that the other Parties shall be entitled to rely on any action taken by the Sackler Parties' Representative on behalf of such Payment Party and its Payment Group (an "Authorized Action"), and that each Authorized Action shall be binding on each Payment Party and Payment Group as fully as if such Payment Party and Payment Group had taken such Authorized Action.

(d) Limitation of Liability. Each Sackler Party (including but not limited to each Payment Party) acknowledges and agrees that the Sackler Parties' Representative shall have no liability to, and shall not be responsible for any costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities of, any Party or to or of any of their respective officers, directors, employees, affiliates and/or agents in connection with any actions taken or omitted to be taken by the Sackler Parties' Representative under or in respect of this Agreement, except to the extent resulting from fraud or willful misconduct by the Sackler Parties' Representative.

(e) Survival. All of the immunities and powers granted to the Sackler Parties' Representative hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Exhibit M-X

Payment Calculations[21]

For each Payment Date, the following procedure will be used to calculate the Base Payments, Incentive Payments, Local Government Costs and Expenses and State Direct Expenses for each Payment Group other than A-Side Payment Group 8.

(a) For a given Payment Date and Payment Group, the following calculations shall be made to determine such Payment Group's Annual Remediation Payment:

(i) Base Payments. The Base Payment is determined by computing

(A) the sum of Base Payment Amounts, as set forth in Exhibit M-5, of all Settling States; multiplied by

(B) the Base Payment Amount of the Payment Group, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; divided by

(C) the sum of the Base Payment Amounts of all Payment Groups, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; less

(D) solely in the case of an A-Side Payment Group, an amount equal to 1/7th of the difference between (x) the Base Payment Amount for A-Side Payment Group 8, as set forth in Exhibit M-2, and (y) the amount determined by applying steps (A) – (C) for Base Payments to A-Side Payment Group 8.[22]

(ii) Incentive Payment A. The Incentive Payment A is determined by computing

(A) the sum of amounts, determined for each Settling State eligible to receive Incentive Payment A, equal to (1) the Incentive Payment A Amount for each such Settling State, as set forth in Exhibit M-5, plus (2) the Incentive Payment A Catch-up Payment, if any, of such Settling State; multiplied by

(B) the Incentive Payment A Amount of the Payment Group, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; divided by

(C) the sum of the Incentive Payment A Amounts of all Payment Groups, as set forth in Exhibit M-2, less

[21] Oklahoma shall be considered a Settling State solely for the purposes of calculations made under this Exhibit M-X and for no other purpose.

[22] For the avoidance of doubt, any reduction from step (D) shall count as Retained Payments for the applicable A-Side Payment Group.

(D) any applicable state-specific offset or reduction for such Settling State and such Payment Group as determined pursuant to Section 12.01 or Section 12.02(b).

(iii) Incentive Payment B: Incentive Payment B is determined by computing

(A) the sum of amounts, determined for each Settling State eligible to receive Incentive Payment B, equal to (1) the Incentive Payment B Amount for each such Settling State, as set forth in Exhibit M-5, multiplied by (2) the applicable Incentive Payment B eligibility percentage for such Settling State pursuant to Section 4.06(e), less (3) any applicable state-specific offset or reduction for such Settling State as determined pursuant to Section 12.02(a); multiplied by

(B) the Incentive Payment B Amount of the Payment Group, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; divided by

(C) the sum of the Incentive Payment B Amounts of all Payment Group, as set forth in Exhibit M-2.

(iv) Incentive Payment C: Incentive Payment C is determined by computing

(A) the sum of amounts, determined for each Settling State eligible to receive Incentive Payment C, equal to (1) the Incentive Payment C Amount for such Settling State, as set forth in Exhibit M-5, multiplied by (2) the applicable Incentive Payment C eligibility percentage for such Settling State pursuant to Section 4.06(f), less (3) any applicable state-specific offset or reduction of such Settling State as determined by Section 12.02(a); multiplied by

(B) the Incentive Payment C Amount of the Payment Group, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; divided by

(C) the sum of the Incentive Payment C Amounts of all Payment Groups, as set forth in Exhibit M-2.

(v) Incentive Payment D. Incentive Payment D is determined by computing the sum of amounts, determined for each Settling State eligible for Incentive Payment D with respect to such Payment Group, equal to

(A) the Incentive Payment D Amount for such Settling State, as set forth in Exhibit M-5; multiplied by

(B) the Incentive Payment D Amount of the Payment Group, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; divided by

(C) the sum of the Incentive Payment D Amounts of all Payment Groups for the given Payment Date, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; less

(D) any deductions from Incentive Payment D described in Section 4.06(g) applicable to the Payment Group and such Settling State not previously applied.

(b) For a given Payment Date (starting with Payment Date 2) and Payment Group, the following calculations shall be made:

(i) Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund. Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund obligation is determined by computing

(A) the Payment Group's maximum Local Government Costs and Expenses payment, as set forth in Exhibit M-2*; multiplied by*

(B) the sum of the maximum Annual Remediation Payment amounts for all Settling States as set forth on Exhibit M-5 on such Payment Date; divided by

(C) the sum of the maximum Annual Remediation Payment amounts for all Settling States and Non-Settling States, if any, as set forth on Exhibit M-5 on such Payment Date*; less*

(D) solely in the case of an A-Side Payment Group, an amount equal to 1/7th of the difference between (x) the Local Government Costs and Expenses Payment for A-Side Payment Group 8, as set forth in Exhibit M-2, and (y) the amount determined by applying steps (A) – (C) for Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund to A-Side Payment Group 8;[23] provided that

(E) once the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund has received, from all sources (other than as explicitly set forth in the Plan), $370 million in the aggregate, any portion of this amount in excess of this limit shall be allocated ratably as additional Base Payment funds to States with scheduled Base Payments for that Payment Date.

(ii) State Direct Expenses. The State Direct Expenses obligation is determined by computing

(A) the Payment Group's maximum State Direct Expenses, as set forth in Exhibit M-2; multiplied by

(B) the sum of the maximum Annual Remediation Payment amounts for all Settling States as set forth on Exhibit M-5 on such Payment Date; divided by

(C) the sum of the maximum Annual Remediation Payment amounts for all Settling States and Non-Settling States, if any, as set forth on Exhibit M-5 on such Payment Date; less

[23] For the avoidance of doubt, any reduction from step (D) shall count as Retained Payments for the applicable A-Side Payment Group.

(D) solely in the case of an A-Side Payment Group, an amount equal to 1/7th of the difference between (x) the State Direct Expenses for A-Side Payment Group 8, as set forth in Exhibit M-2, and (y) the amount determined by applying steps (A) – (C) for State Direct Expenses to A-Side Payment Group 8;[24] provided that

(E) once the State Direct Expenses has received, from all sources (other than as explicitly set forth in the Plan), $200 million in the aggregate, any portion of this amount in excess of this limit shall be allocated ratably as additional Base Payment funds to States with scheduled Base Payments for that Payment Date.

(iii) Any amounts paid to the Annual Fees Payment which would cause the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund to receive more than 8.5% of the Total Direct Settlement Amount, or cause the State Direct Expenses Fund to receive more than 4.5% of the Total Direct Settlement shall be allocated ratably as additional Base Payment funds to States with scheduled Base Payments for that Payment Date.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, no Annual Remediation Payments or other amounts shall be paid to (or on account of) Non-Settling States. The Annual Remediation Payment for a Payment Date shall not include any payment in respect of the Annual Remediation Payment for any Non-Settling State.

For A-Side Payment Group 8, the Base Payments, Local Government Costs and Expenses and State Direct Expenses will be determined by reference to that Payment Group's maximum scheduled amounts in Exhibit M-2 and without any reduction. A-Side Payment Group 8 has no portion of the Incentive Payments, as reflected in Exhibit M-2. For the avoidance of doubt, any Local Government Costs and Expenses and State Direct Expenses payable by A-Side Payment Group 8 will count towards the caps on disbursement pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Plan.

The following defined terms are used in this Exhibit M-X:

"Base Payment Amount" means either (as the context requires): (i) the amount of the Base Payment for a Settling State and Payment Date, as set forth in Exhibit M-5 or (ii) the amount of the Base Payment for a Payment Group and Payment Date, as set forth in Exhibit M-2.

"Incentive Payment A Amount" means either (as the context requires): (i) the amount of the Incentive Payment A for a Settling State and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-5 or (ii) the amount of the Incentive Payment A for a Payment Group and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-2.

"Incentive Payment B Amount" means either (as the context requires): (i) the amount of the Incentive Payment B for a Settling State and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-5 or

[24] For the avoidance of doubt, any reduction from step (D) shall count as Retained Payments for the applicable A-Side Payment Group.

(ii) the amount of the Incentive Payment B for a Payment Group and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-2.

"Incentive Payment C Amount" means either (as the context requires): (i) the amount of the Incentive Payment C for a Settling State and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-5 or (ii) the amount of the Incentive Payment C for a Payment Group and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-2.

"Incentive Payment D Amount" means either (as the context requires): (i) the amount of the Incentive Payment D for a Settling State and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-5 or (ii) the amount of the Incentive Payment D for a Payment Group and Payment Date, as set forth on Exhibit M-2.

INTRODUCTION

A. Purpose of the Disclosure Statement

On September 15, 2019 (the "Petition Date"), each of Purdue Pharma L.P. ("Purdue Pharma" or "PPLP"), its general partner Purdue Pharma Inc. ("PPI"), and Purdue Pharma's wholly owned direct and indirect subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The Debtors' chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered under the caption In re Purdue Pharma L.P., Case No. 19-23649 (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). The Debtors have continued in possession of their property and have continued to operate and manage their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors submit this disclosure statement (including all exhibits and schedules attached thereto, and as may be amended, altered, modified, revised, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement") in connection with the solicitation of votes on the Thirteenth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Purdue Pharma L.P. and Its Affiliated Debtors, dated May 16, 2025 (the "Plan"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A.[2]

The Debtors submit this Disclosure Statement pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code to holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors in connection with (i) the solicitation of acceptances of the Plan and (ii) a hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan.

The purpose of this Disclosure Statement is to describe the Plan and its provisions and to provide adequate information, as required under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, to inform holders of Claims against the Debtors who, as applicable, have the right to vote on the Plan so they can make informed decisions in doing so. Holders entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan will receive a Ballot together with this Disclosure Statement to enable them to vote on the Plan.

This Disclosure Statement includes, among other things, information pertaining to the Debtors' prepetition business operations and financial history, and the events leading up to the Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, this Disclosure Statement includes an overview of the Plan (which overview sets forth certain terms and provisions of the Plan), the effects of confirmation of the Plan, certain risk factors associated with the Plan, and the manner in which distributions will be made under the Plan. This Disclosure Statement also discusses the confirmation process and the procedures for voting, which procedures must be followed by the holders of Claims entitled to vote under the Plan in order for their votes to be counted.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement; provided, that capitalized terms used herein that are not defined herein or in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement, but are defined in title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") or the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules, as applicable.

B. Executive Summary

On the very first day of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors committed to turn over all of their assets for the benefit of their claimants and the American public. The Debtors' proposed Plan delivers on this commitment.

Under the Plan and various settlements with the Sackler Parties, billions of dollars will flow into trusts established for the benefit of claimants harmed by the opioid crisis including states and localities, Native American Tribes, hospitals, public schools, emergency room physicians and qualified personal injury claimants (including children born with Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome). Creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases will have the opportunity to elect whether to settle their direct claims against the Sackler Parties in exchange for enhanced recoveries under the Plan. In the aggregate, as much as $8 billion in value could be available for creditors under the Plan.

Under the terms of the Shareholder Settlements, the Sackler Parties will be required to pay up to approximately $7 billion over fifteen years in settlement of both the Debtors' claims against the Sackler Parties and direct claims against the Sackler Parties held by creditors that elect to settle those claims. These payments (assuming that all creditors elect to grant the Third-Party Releases) would exceed the amount of the Sackler Families' commitments under the settlement set forth in the Debtors' prior plan of reorganization. The principal consideration to be granted to the Sackler Parties in exchange for such payments is the release and injunction provisions with respect to specified parties associated with the Sackler Parties provided for under the Plan and in the various Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements. The terms of the Shareholder Settlements are discussed in greater detail herein.

The Plan also incorporates a number of updates and changes to the previous 12th amended plan to comply with the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Harrington v. Purdue Pharm. L.P., 603 U.S. 204 (2024) that the Bankruptcy Code does not authorize non-consensual releases of claims held by non-debtors against other non-debtors (i.e., third-party releases). The Third-Party Releases in the Plan will only bind those creditors who elect to grant them. Those creditors will receive additional distributions in exchange for their release of direct claims against the Sackler Parties and other released parties. The Plan does not release or compromise any direct claims against the Sackler Parties or any other non-Debtors held by creditors that elect not to grant third-party releases.

On or immediately after the Effective Date, Purdue Pharma will be dissolved and cease to exist. The Debtors' businesses will be transferred to a newly created company, Knoa Pharma LLC ("NewCo"), which will be wholly owned by an independent entity intended to be treated as an exempt organization under IRC section 501(c)(4) (the "Foundation"). No federal, state, or local governmental entity will own the equity of NewCo or the Foundation. NewCo will be a private company, will be required to operate in a responsible manner (i.e., as the Debtors have been required to since the Petition Date), and will be subject to the same laws and regulations as any other U.S. pharmaceutical company. NewCo will, however, be historic and unique because it will be governed by a charter that will require that it deploy its assets to address the opioid crisis.

This remarkable accomplishment has been reached through tireless effort and negotiations undertaken by many parties—parties that often held radically divergent views on fundamental issues that had to be, and to an exceptional degree have been, painstakingly reconciled over time. The result of these unparalleled efforts is a Plan and a number of non-bankruptcy settlements that the Debtors expect will be almost entirely consensual and will deliver significant value to many of those in need. The proposed global settlement represents the best possible outcome for the creditors, and the Plan, if confirmed, will fairly and expeditiously resolve these complex bankruptcy cases.

[The Plan is supported by nearly all of the Debtors' creditor constituencies, including the States AG Negotiating Group, the Ad Hoc Committee of Governmental and Other Contingent Litigation Claimants (the "AHC" or "Ad Hoc Committee"), the Multi-State Governmental Entity Group (the "MSGE Group"), the Native American Tribes Group, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the ER Physicians, the Third-Party Payor Group, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants, the NAS Committee, and the Public School District Claimants.] [A statement from the Creditors' Committee regarding its support for the Plan will be included in the Solicitation Package and can also be found at www.kccllc.net/PurdueCreditors.] [3] The negotiations leading up to the proposal of this widely supported Plan and the key terms of the Plan are summarized below.

Events Following Confirmation of the 12th Amended Plan: Following entry of the Twelfth Amended Plan Confirmation Order, the United States Trustee, eight states and the District of Columbia (collectively, "the Nine"), certain Canadian municipalities and indigenous tribes, the City of Seattle, as well as certain individual claimants appealed the Twelfth Amended Plan Confirmation Order to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Southern District of New York"). In December 2021, the Southern District of New York vacated the Twelfth Amended Plan Confirmation Order, holding that the nonconsensual third-party releases under the Plan were not authorized by the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Purdue Pharma, L.P., 635 B.R. 26 (S.D.N.Y. 2021). The Debtors and others appealed this decision to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, which appeal resulted in the fourth phase of the Mediation, leading to further improvements of the settlement terms embodied in the Twelfth Amended Plan that resolved the appeal by the Nine.

The settlement terms as of the conclusion of the fourth phase of the Mediation included the following (many of which were also part of the Plan that was confirmed in September 2021): (i) NewCo, a new company, would be created, among other things, to develop and distribute opioid addiction treatment and overdose reversal and other medicines, continue serving patients and consumers who use Purdue Pharma's existing medicines and products, (ii) the Sackler Families would pay an aggregate $5.5 billion over the course of 18 years, in addition to the $225 million already paid directly to the DOJ to satisfy their Civil Settlement outside of the Plan (as defined below), (iii) the Sackler Families would engage in a sale process over a seven-year period to divest their ex-U.S. pharmaceutical companies and contribute up to an additional $500 million from such net sale proceeds, and (iv) key members of the Sackler Families would exit their investments and involvement in opioid businesses in perpetuity and other family members would not hold a controlling interest or serve in an executive role in an opioid business until all payment obligations of the Sackler Families under the Twelfth Amended Plan were satisfied in full. In addition, in exchange for the contributions by the Sackler Families, they and other related parties would receive narrowly tailored releases from potential liability in connection with the Debtors' business operations.

On May 30, 2023, the Second Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the Southern District of New York and affirmed the Twelfth Amended Plan Confirmation Order (the "Second Circuit Decision"). See In re Purdue Pharma L.P., 69 F.4th 45 (2d Cir. 2023). Although virtually every single economically interested party had agreed to support (or not object to) the Twelfth Amended Plan, the United States Trustee sought, and was granted, certiorari before the Supreme Court of the United States (the "Supreme Court"). On June 27, 2024, the Supreme Court reversed, in a 5-4 vote, the Second Circuit Decision, holding that the Bankruptcy Code does not authorize the non-consensual release of claims held by a non-debtor against another non-debtor as contemplated by Section 10.7 of the Twelfth Amended Plan, and remanded the case for further proceedings consistent with its opinion (the "Harrington Decision"). Harrington v. Purdue Pharm. L.P., 603 U.S. 204, 1 (2024).

Events Since the Harrington Decision: Following the Harrington Decision, the parties engaged in the fifth phase of the Mediation to modify the settlement with the Sackler Families and portions of the Twelfth Amended Plan in a manner consistent with the ruling of the Supreme Court. Multiple months of further Mediation yielded a further revised global settlement, adapted to comply with the new legal landscape. See Article III.CC.2 for a further description of the Mediation process and outcome.

The Plan incorporates the global settlement reached during this latest phase of the Mediation. As set forth herein, the settlement contained in the Twelfth Amended Plan was largely preserved, with enhancements and changes described below. The aggregate payment by the Sackler Parties to settle both estate and direct claims against them has been increased from $5.5 billion over eighteen years to up to $7 billion over fifteen years, with up to $1.5 billion of that total due on the Effective Date of the Plan (and more than 40% of the $6.5 billion total due in the first three years).

The Plan provides for the settlement of the Debtors' claims against the Sackler Parties (the "Estate Causes of Action") and allocates the proceeds of such settlement among the Debtors' creditors (the "Estate Claims Settlement"). Further, and consistent with the ruling of the United States Supreme Court, the Plan also provides for the voluntary settlement of direct claims held by creditors ("Direct Claims Settlements") against the Sackler Parties, who will provide cash distributions to public and private claimants who elect to participate in the Direct Claims Settlements and grant releases of their direct claims (as described in the Plan in more detail) (the "Third-Party Releases"). A claimant's vote on the Plan is independent of whether that claimant elects to grant the Third-Party Releases in exchange for an increased recovery. The Settlement provides for an election mechanism for Holders of Claims to grant consensual releases of any actual or potential direct claims or causes of action against the Shareholder Released Parties relating to the Debtors (including claims in connection with Opioid-Related Activities) and an associated channeling injunction. The election mechanism differs among classes of Claims. Specifically, holders of personal injury claims and third-party payor claims will be able to grant the consensual releases through the ballot for Plan voting; governmental entities other than the federal government will be able to grant the consensual releases through direct settlement agreements; hospitals, emergency room physicians and public schools will be able to grant the consensual releases through to-be-filed opt-out class action settlements. If the Plan is consummated, the Holders of Claims that grant Third-Party Releases pursuant to the applicable mechanism will conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever release the Shareholder Released Parties from actual or potential claims or causes of action relating to the Debtors (including claims relating to OxyContin and other opioid medications) held by such Holders, subject to the conditions set forth in the Plan, including Sections 10.7(a), (b) and (c) of the Plan. Following the Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, the Third-Party Releases granted by the Holders of Claims pursuant to the Plan do not apply to any Shareholder Release Snapback Party, as set forth in Section 10.7 of the Plan.

The payments to be made by the Sackler Parties will be divided between the Estate Claims Settlement and the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements.[4] Those creditors that elect to grant the Third-Party Releases will receive their pro-rata share of distributions on account of both the Estate Claims Settlement and the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements, while the creditors that do not elect to grant the Third-Party Releases will only receive their pro-rata share of distributions from the Estate Claims Settlement and other estate value once their claims are Allowed. The claims of those creditors that do not elect to grant the Third-Party Releases ("Non-Participating Claims") will not automatically be Allowed and may be subject to objections (which must be lodged by a certain time, as set forth in the next paragraph) by the Debtors, the Master Disbursement Trust, other applicable creditor representatives, or the Shareholder Released Parties in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan (and such objections must be lodged within a certain period of time after the Effective Date, or else such claims will be Allowed). For the avoidance of doubt, a creditor that does not elect to grant the Third-Party Release will be able to pursue litigation of any direct claims against the Shareholder Released Parties, subject to any limitations set forth in the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

Non-Participating Claims will not receive any distribution on the Effective Date. Rather, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will fund disputed claims reserves established under the Plan (the "Non-Participating Claims Reserve") corresponding to each Class of Channeled Claims in amounts equal to the aggregate amount of estate distributions to which Holders of Non-

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, all parties have agreed that this "allocation" of settlement amounts on account of Estate Releases, on the one hand, and the Direct Release, on the other, is part of an overall compromise and settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 between the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, all creditor groups that are Mediation Parties, and the Sackler Parties, and, upon confirmation of the Plan will be deemed to be a settlement between the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, all creditor groups that are Mediation Parties, and the Sackler Parties in which, among other things, the Sackler Parties are providing the Settlement Payments in consideration over fifteen (15) years. The "allocation" is intended by the Sackler Parties and the other Mediation Parties, among other things, to facilitate the distribution of proceeds for opioid abatement, victim compensation, and other permitted uses under the Plan and otherwise. All parties, including the public side claimants and the Sackler Parties (as well as the Shareholder Released Parties), agree that neither the amount of the Settlement Payments nor the "allocation" (including any allocation between the Sackler Parties of the payment responsibility) reflects any concession or agreement by any party as to the strength, validity, merits, collectability, amount, or otherwise, of the Estate Released Claims or of the Direct Released Claims or any defenses to the Estate Released Claims or the Direct Released Claims, and that if for whatever reason the agreement in principle is not consummated, neither the amount of the Settlement Payments nor the "allocation" shall be cited or used by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, all creditor groups that are Mediation Parties, or the Sackler Parties (or the Shareholder Released Parties) – or any party hereto – for any purpose whatsoever in any pleading or proceeding wherever or whenever.

Participating Claims in such class would be entitled pursuant to the applicable Trust Distribution Procedures ("TDP") if all such Non-Participating Claims are ultimately Allowed. If a Non-Participating Claim (other than a Non-Participating Claim that is a PI Claim) has not been the subject of a claims objection within [two years] of the Effective Date, such Non-Participating Claim shall automatically become an Allowed claim and receive its treatment in accordance with the Plan (but shall not receive any distribution from any Direct Claims Settlement). If a Non-Participating Claim that is a PI Claim has not been the subject of a claims objection within [one-year] months of the Effective Date, such Non-Participating Claim shall become an Allowed claim and will receive its treatment in accordance with the Plan (but shall not receive any distribution from any Direct Claims Settlement).

A claimant shall be entitled to the amount reserved for such claim, as calculated in accordance with the mechanics of the Non-Participating Claims Reserve and the applicable TDPs, if the claimant proves that it has a valid, compensable claim against the Debtors, i.e., a legal theory upon which it can recover. Upon the disallowance of any Non-Participating Claim, any amounts held in the applicable Non-Participating Claims Reserve for such claimant shall be released to the applicable Released Claims Reserve and any future distribution from the Estate that would have been funded to the Non-Participating Claims Reserve for that Claimant shall be funded directly to the Released Claims Reserve. Funds in the Released Claims Reserves may ultimately be made available for creditor distributions if certain criteria are met.

The principal consideration for the payments to be made by the Sackler Parties are the release and injunction provisions with respect to specified parties associated with the Sackler Parties provided for under the Plan and in the various Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements. See Article III.Y below and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement setting forth the principal terms of the agreement with the Sackler Parties, which Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement is part of the Plan Supplement, for a more detailed description of the terms of this settlement. The release and injunction provisions are described in detail in Articles I.E-F below.

As a condition to the Sackler Parties' increased settlement contributions without the assurance of broad third-party releases, the Plan, the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and the various Direct Claims Settlements also provide that certain qualifying litigation costs and expenses (including, for the avoidance of doubt, settlements and judgments, and collectively, "Litigation Costs")[5] incurred by the Sackler Parties related to creditor claims (including their treatment) that do not participate in the Direct Claims Settlement will reduce the Sackler Parties' settlement payment obligations. As described in more detail in Section III.Y.1, those Litigation Costs incurred by the Sackler Parties will be first payable from the applicable Shareholder Payment Parties' Retained Payment Amounts and Released Claims Reserves. If these funds are insufficient (or unavailable at the time because, for example, any litigation regarding the allowance of Non-Participating Claims is still on-going), such Litigation Costs shall be payable from the Special Operating Reserve. The Special Operating Reserve will initially be funded in an aggregate amount of $200 million by withholding Effective Date estate distributions in the amount of (i) $20 million allowable to Private Creditor Trusts and (ii) $180 million allowable to Public Creditor Trusts. If,

[5] For the avoidance of doubt, Litigation Costs shall not include any costs to object to the allowance of Claims if the underlying Claim holder has not commenced litigation against the Shareholder Released Parties, or any costs arising from litigation following a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback.

on any Sackler Parties' settlement payment date, the Special Operating Reserve balance is less than $300 million, then the Sackler Parties' settlement payments due on that date on account of Estate Causes of Action will first be used to return the balance of the Special Operating Reserve to $300 million, until the aggregate amount of all contributions to the Special Operating Reserve total $800 million.[6]

As noted above, substantially all of the Debtors' non-cash assets (other than certain causes of action and insurance rights), including direct or indirect interests in PPLP's subsidiaries as separate legal entities except as otherwise provided by or permitted in the Plan, and approximately $135 million of cash will be transferred directly or indirectly to NewCo. Up to 5% of the unrestricted cash of NewCo (net of costs, expenses, fees, taxes, disbursements, debts or obligations) (the "NewCo Distributable Cash"), which shall not exceed $5 million per annum, will be distributed annually to the Foundation, which the Foundation may utilize to make grants for evidence-based strategies to abate the opioid crisis. NewCo shall pay the remaining NewCo Distributable Cash not distributed to the Foundation to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust.

NewCo will be required to be operated in a responsible manner, balancing: (i) the interests of its stakeholders to fund and provide abatement of the opioid crisis; (ii) effective deployment of its assets to address the opioid crisis; and (iii) the interests of those materially affected by its conduct. As a result, NewCo will operate in an accountable manner with nearly all of the net value that it generates ultimately being used to abate the opioid crisis. NewCo will be wholly owned by the Foundation, an independent newly created New York corporation intended to be treated as a an exempt organization under IRC section 501(c)(4) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. There will be no creditor ownership of[, or involvement in the governance, or operations of,] the Foundation or NewCo. The managers of NewCo (the "NewCo Managers")—who will effectively function as a board of directors for the new company—and the trustees of the Foundation (the "Foundation Trustees") will initially be selected by the Settling States with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors, and the DOJ will have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The initial NewCo Managers and the Foundation Trustees must all be disinterested and independent. Neither any member of the Sackler, who have had no role in managing the Debtors since 2018, nor any related entity, will have any role in the selection of the NewCo Managers, Foundation Trustees or in any other aspect of NewCo's or the Foundation's governance or operations. The NewCo and Foundation organizational documents and the identities of the initial NewCo Managers and initial Foundation Trustees will be included in the Plan Supplement.

[6] Amounts in the Special Operating Reserve will be returned to creditors who granted Third-Party Releases to the Shareholder Released Parties after the passage of a certain amount of time so long as there is no then-existing litigation against the Shareholder Released Parties, all as set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, dated as of [•], 2025 by and among the Master Disbursement Trust, the parties listed on Exhibit A thereto, the parties listed on Exhibit B thereto, the Sackler Parties' Representative, and PRA L.P. (the "Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement"), as filed with the Plan Supplement.

Under the Plan, funds created for the benefit of each group of Private Claimants[7] will receive fixed cash distributions over time,[8] with varying values and time periods for each such group.

Private Claimants/Public Schools. Approximately $[263,507,000] will be distributed to the Hospital Trust, comprised of $[89,291,679.18] from the Estate and $[174,215,320.82] from the Sackler Parties, approximately $[394,929,850] will be distributed to the TPP Trust, comprised of [$133,825,475.09] from the Estate and $[261,104,374.91] from the Sackler Parties, approximately $[5,811,440] will be distributed to the ERP Trust, comprised of $[1,969,257.88] from the Estate and $[3,842,182.12] from the Sackler Parties, and $[40,500,000] will be distributed to the Public School Trust, comprised of $[13,723,783.45] from the Estate and $[26,776,216.55] from the Sackler Parties. Further, $[865,851,710] will be distributed to a trust be established for personal injury victims (of which $[114,066,710], comprised of $[88,928,644.75] from the Estate and $[25,138,065.25] from the Sackler Parties, shall be provided to NAS victims, and $[751,785,000], comprised of $[598,606,333.70] from the Estate and $[153,178,666.30] from the Sackler Parties, shall be provided to non-NAS PI victims). A detailed description of each of the trusts, how they will be funded, which types of creditors may qualify for distributions from each trust and how distributions will be made is set forth in Article III.CC.3. Copies of the final trust distribution procedures (the "Trust Distribution Procedures") for each such trust (and the PI Trust, as defined below) will be included in the Plan Supplement by no later than the [●] deadline to file the final Plan Supplement.

The chart below sets forth the projected distributions to each of the Private Claimant trusts and the Public School Trust:

Trust	Effective Date Distributions	SOR Holdback Amounts[9]	Post-Emergence Distributions	Total Distributions
PI Trust	$[815,851,710]	$[11,171,710]	$[50,000,000]	$[865,851,710]
Non-NAS PI Portion	[701,785,000]	[9,357,000]	[50,000,000]	[751,785,000]
NAS PI Portion	[114,066,710]	[1,814,710]	0	[114,066,710]
TPP Trust	[394,929,850]	[5,989,850]	0	[394,929,850]
Hospital Trust	[263,507,000]	[2,697,000]	0	[263,507,000]
Public School Trust	[25,500,000]	[●][10]	[15,000,000]	[40,500,000]
ERP Trust	[5,811,440]	[141,440]	0	[5,811,440]

[7] The Private Claimants consist of (i) personal injury claimants, including guardian claimants asserting claims on behalf of minors with NAS due to exposure to opioids in utero, (ii) hospitals, (iii) private health insurance carrier plaintiffs and third-party payors and (iv) emergency room physicians.

[8] In the event that the Ratepayer Mediation Participants Stipulation has been entered into on or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors will also pay attorneys' fees of the Ratepayer Mediation Participants on the Effective Date in an amount not to exceed $1.4 million.

Public Creditor Trusts. In addition to the Private Creditor Trusts and the Public School Trust described above, the settlement provides for the establishment of two public creditor trusts, which will receive the remainder of the distributable value. Specifically, all remaining value from the Debtors after satisfying other obligations under the Plan will be distributed through the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust,[11] on account of the Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims and Tribe Claims, respectively.

The Public Creditor Trust Distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust and/or the Tribe Trust will be allocated between the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust as follows, in each case, as calculated before accounting for any amounts payable pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Plan: (I) with respect to the Estate Distributions, (X) 96.7% to the Governmental Remediation Trust and (Y) 3.3% to the Tribe Trust; and (II) with respect to the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion, (X) 96.7% of the Maximum Governmental Direct Settlement Amount on the payment dates indicated therein to the Governmental Remediation Trust, subject to, and payable in accordance with, the terms of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, and (Y) 3.3% of the Maximum Governmental Direct Settlement Amount on the payment dates indicated therein to the Tribe Trust, subject to, and payable in accordance with, the terms of the Tribe Trust Agreement.

Settlement with the DOJ: Following commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors also reached a settlement with the United States. On November 18, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court approved PPLP entering into (i) a plea agreement (the "Plea Agreement") by and among PPLP and the United States,[12] and (ii) a civil settlement agreement by and between PPLP and the United States (the "Civil Settlement," and together with the Plea Agreement, the "DOJ Resolution"). On November 24, 2020, in accordance with the terms of the DOJ Resolution, PPLP pled guilty in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey (the "New Jersey District Court") to an information charging it with three felony offenses: one count charging a dual-object conspiracy to defraud the United States and to violate the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, and two counts charging conspiracy to violate the Federal Anti-Kickback Statute. Consistent with the terms of the Plea Agreement, the New Jersey District Court's consideration of the Plea Agreement has been deferred to the sentencing hearing, which will occur following confirmation of the Debtors' Plan. If the Plea Agreement is accepted by the New Jersey District Court at the sentencing hearing, the DOJ Resolution will fully resolve the United States' civil and criminal investigations into the Debtors' past practices related to the production, sale, marketing and distribution of opioid products. Pursuant to the Plea Agreement, among other things, the Debtors and the United States agreed to a criminal forfeiture judgment in the amount of $2 billion (the "Forfeiture Judgment") that will be entered after confirmation of the Chapter 11 Plan and upon the New Jersey District Court's acceptance of the Plea Agreement, and will be deemed to have the status of an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against PPLP.

Critically, the United States further agreed to provide a credit offsetting the Forfeiture Judgment (the "Forfeiture Judgment Credit") of up to $1.775 billion for value distributed or otherwise conferred by Purdue Pharma under the Plan in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities, provided that the Plan provides for the emergence of a public benefit company (or entity with a similar mission) and certain other terms and conditions as described in more detail in the Plea Agreement. The Forfeiture Judgment Credit therefore helps maximize the amount of value that can be dedicated to abatement purposes. Distribution of the value from the Debtors' Estates to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust will satisfy the first primary requirement to realize the Forfeiture Judgment Credit. The transfer of the Debtors' business to NewCo, which is described in more detail below, will satisfy the second primary requirement. Accordingly, the Plan contemplates that the Debtors will be able to utilize the full amount of the Forfeiture Judgment Credit. See Article III.U for a further description of the DOJ Resolution.

In sum, the cornerstone of the Plan is the recognition by most of the core stakeholder groups that (a) all of the Debtors' assets should be distributed to their creditors, and almost all of such value should be provided to opioid claimants, and (b) the Settlement Agreements reflect the best available alternative for claimants. [The Plan enjoys broad support from most of the Debtors' significant creditor groups.][13] This level of consensus is extraordinary, given the nature of the litigation against the Defendant Debtors and the Shareholder Released Parties and the heterogeneous views on fundamental settlement and allocation issues held over time by the various supporting stakeholders.

[THE DEBTORS, THE CREDITORS' COMMITTEE, THE STATES AG NEGOTIATING GROUP, THE AD HOC COMMITTEE, THE MSGE GROUP, THE NATIVE AMERICAN TRIBES GROUP, THE AD HOC GROUP OF INDIVIDUAL VICTIMS, THE AD HOC GROUP OF HOSPITALS, THE ER PHYSICIANS, THE THIRD-PARTY PAYOR GROUP, THE RATEPAYER MEDIATION PARTICIPANTS, THE NAS COMMITTEE, AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT CLAIMANTS (COLLECTIVELY, THE "SUPPORTING CLAIMANTS") SUPPORT CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN AND URGE ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN TO VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN. THE SUPPORTING CLAIMANTS BELIEVE THAT THE PLAN PROVIDES THE HIGHEST AND BEST RECOVERY FOR ALL CREDITORS AND IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF STAKEHOLDERS OF THE DEBTORS.][14]

[DOJ Statement Regarding Confirmation of the Plan

The Department of Justice has confirmed that, subject to agreement on acceptable operating principles and covenants for NewCo, the Plan (i) is consistent with the civil settlement agreement by and between PPLP and the United States and the plea agreement by and among PPLP and the United States that collectively constitute the DOJ Resolution and (ii) satisfies the two conditions precedent to the realization of the full $1.775 billion Forfeiture Judgment Credit—because the Plan provides for (a) the emergence of a public benefit company (or entity with a similar mission), and (b) at least $1.775 billion of value to be distributed or otherwise conferred by Purdue Pharma under the Plan in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities.]

Creditors' Committee Statement Regarding Confirmation of the Plan

[The Debtors have agreed to include in the Solicitation Package a letter from the Creditors' Committee supporting the Plan and providing greater detail regarding the Creditors' Committee's position with respect to the Plan. The views expressed in such letter are those of the Creditors' Committee. The Debtors appreciate the support of the Creditors' Committee, although they do not endorse or agree with all of the statements made in this letter.][15]

C. Summary of Classification and Treatment of Claims and Interests in the Debtors

The Plan is being proposed as a joint plan of reorganization of the Debtors for administrative purposes only, and constitutes a separate chapter 11 plan of reorganization for each Debtor. The Plan groups the Debtors together solely for purposes of describing treatment under the Plan, confirmation of the Plan and making distributions ("Plan Distributions") in respect of Claims against and/or Interests in the Debtors under the Plan. Such groupings shall not affect any Debtor's status as a separate legal entity, change the organizational structure of the Debtors' business enterprise, constitute a change of control of any Debtor for any purpose, cause a merger or consolidation of any legal entities, nor cause the transfer of any assets or the assumption of any liabilities; and, except as otherwise provided by or permitted in the Plan, all Debtors shall continue to exist as separate legal entities.

Over 614,000 Proofs of Claim were filed in these Chapter 11 Cases by the July 30, 2020 General Bar Date. More than 550,000 of those Proofs of Claim, approximately 90% of the total, did not state a claim amount. The approximately 10% of the Proofs of Claim that did state an amount asserted, in the aggregate, claims of over $140 trillion. Even if the single proof of claim asserting $100 trillion in damages is excluded, the approximately 10% of Proofs of Claim that state claim amounts assert, in the aggregate, claims of over $40 trillion. For comparison, the gross domestic product of the United States for 2023 is estimated at approximately $27.36 trillion,[16] and the gross domestic product of the entire world for 2023 is estimated at approximately $106.17 trillion.[17]

The vast majority of the filed Proofs of Claim assert unsecured opioid litigation claims, including the claims in the following classes: Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims (Class

[16] Gross Domestic Product, Fourth Quarter and Year 2023 (Second Estimate), BEA 24-05, U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Economic Analysis (Feb. 28, 2023).

4); Tribe Claims (Class 5); Public School Claims (Class 6); Hospital Claims (Class 7); Third-Party Payor Claims (Class 8); ER Physician Claims (Class 9); and PI Claims (Classes 10(a) and 10(b)). Many of the opioid litigation claims against the Debtors are based upon novel or untested legal theories. In addition to the legal uncertainties, the value of any opioid litigation claim will depend greatly on the facts and circumstances of the claim, and a number of highly particularized judgments about the quantum of economic and non-economic damages that the claimant has incurred and that are compensable under applicable law. The information necessary to determine these amounts is also generally not available from the Proofs of Claim, and, in litigation, would be learned through fact and expert discovery. Any estimate of the aggregate value of opioid litigation claims, and any estimate of the aggregate percentage recovery of a class of opioid litigation claims, would be so uncertain as not to provide claimants with information useful to make judgments about the proposed Plan.

The categories of Claims and Interests listed below classify Claims and Interests for all purposes, including voting, confirmation, and distribution pursuant to the Plan and pursuant to sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. For a summary of the treatment of each Class of Claims and Interests, see the description below and "Summary of the Plan" in Article IV.

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Impairment	Entitled to Vote
Class 1	Secured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 3	Federal Government Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 4	Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 5	Tribe Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 6	Public School Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 7	Hospital Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 8	Third-Party Payor Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 9	ER Physician Claims	Impaired	Yes

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Impairment	Entitled to Vote
Class 10(a)	NAS PI Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 10(b)	Non-NAS PI Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 11(a)	Avrio General Unsecured Claims	Unimpaired[18]	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 11(b)	Adlon General Unsecured Claims	Unimpaired[19]	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 11(c)	Other General Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 12	Intercompany Claims	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)
Class 13	Shareholder Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 14	Co-Defendant Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 15	Other Subordinated Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 16	PPLP Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 17	PPI Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)

[18] As discussed in the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors believe that the Holders of Avrio General Unsecured Claims would be paid in full in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation. Accordingly, the Plan provides that Holders of Avrio General Unsecured Claims will be paid in full under the Plan and are unimpaired.

[19] As discussed in the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors believe that the Holders of Adlon General Unsecured Claims would be paid in full in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation. Accordingly, the Plan provides that Holders of Adlon General Unsecured Claims will be paid in full under the Plan and are unimpaired.

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Impairment	Entitled to Vote
Class 18	Intercompany Interests	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)

If a controversy arises regarding whether any Claim is properly classified under the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court shall, upon proper motion and notice, determine such controversy at the Confirmation Hearing. If the Bankruptcy Court finds that the classification of any Claim is improper, then such Claim shall be reclassified and the Ballot previously cast by the Holder of such Claim shall be counted in, and the Claim shall receive the treatment prescribed in, the Class in which the Bankruptcy Court determines such Claim should have been classified, without the necessity of resoliciting any votes on the Plan.

For the reasons described above, a traditional recovery percentage for each impaired Class is not provided. The number of claims in and aggregate treatment provided to such Classes is summarized below. This summary does not take into account the timing of such Distributions or other important factors and does not describe procedures for making Distributions to individual claimants, which are discussed elsewhere in this Disclosure Statement.

With respect to the treatment of Other General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(c)), the Debtors estimate that, following completion of Claims litigation and related matters, the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash, which is reserved for distribution to Holders of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims exclusively, will likely exceed the aggregate amount of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims. This estimate is based on certain assumptions based on a variety of factors. Should these underlying assumptions prove incorrect, the actual Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims may differ from the Debtors' estimates, and such differences could be material. Because distributions to Holders of Other General Unsecured Claims are linked to the value of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims, any material increase in the amount of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims in excess of the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash would materially reduce the recovery to Holders of Other General Unsecured Claims under the Plan.

This summary is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed description provided in the "Summary of the Plan" in Article IV, which sets forth in detail the treatment for certain Classes and the procedures by which the aggregate value provided for a certain Class will be distributed on account of claims in that Class.

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Approximate Number of Timely Filed Proofs of Claim	Aggregate Treatment
Class 3	Federal Government Unsecured Claims	6	The United States shall receive (i) the Initial Federal Government Distribution and (ii) the MDT Federal Government Claim, which collectively total $50 million in payment obligations.
Class 4	Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims	6,937	The Governmental Remediation Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Governmental Remediation Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Governmental Remediation Trust Interest and (iii) the right to receive 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.
Class 5	Tribe Claims	400	The Tribe Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Tribe Interest and (iii) the right to receive 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.
Class 6	Public School Claims	701	The Public School Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Public Schools Distribution (less any required payments to the Common Benefit Fund and/or in respect of attorneys' fees and expenses of the Public School District Claimants in accordance with Section 5.9(c) and (h) of the Plan) and (ii) the MDT Public School District claim, subject to certain conditions set forth in Section 4.6 of the Plan.

Class 7	Hospital Claims	[1,207]	The Hospital Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Hospital Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT Hospital Claim, subject to certain conditions set forth in Section 4.7 of the Plan.
Class 8	Third-Party Payor Claims	467,152	The TPP Trust shall receive (i) the Initial TPP Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT TPP Claim, subject to certain conditions set forth in Section 4.8 of the Plan.
Class 9	ER Physician Claims	1	The ERP Trust shall receive (i) the Initial ERP Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT ERP Claim, subject to certain conditions set forth in Section 4.9 of the Plan.
Class 10(a)	NAS PI Claims	6,605	The PI Trust NAS Fund shall receive the NAS PI Portion. Distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims in accordance with the NAS PI TDP.
Class 10(b)	Non-NAS PI Claims	131,746	The PI Trust Non-NAS Fund shall receive the Non-NAS PI Portion. Distributions in respect of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims in accordance with the Non-NAS PI TDP.

Class 11(c)	Other General Unsecured Claims	777	$15 million in aggregate Other General Unsecured Claim Cash.

D. The DOJ Resolution, Settlements with the Private Claimant Groups and Shareholder Contribution Are Interdependent and Vastly Superior to Potential Alternatives

The Debtors and their key stakeholders have spent more than five years, at significant expense, to reach the point of proposing a highly negotiated Plan that will make the Debtors' assets and up to $7.0 billion from the Sackler Parties available to creditors. The extraordinary benefits of the proposed Plan are further highlighted by the immensely value-destructive nature of the alternatives to the Plan, which are described below.

Absent the DOJ Resolution, the Debtors would face enormous and potentially catastrophic litigation, prosecution, and possible exclusion from healthcare programs administered by the federal government. If the United States were to prevail in a criminal prosecution of the Debtors, it is likely that any convicted party would be excluded from participating in federal healthcare programs. Additionally, the consequences of the United States prevailing could potentially include a $6.2 billion or more non-dischargeable criminal fine and/or a criminal forfeiture judgment of $3.5 billion. The DOJ also asserted a substantial claim for civil liability, which the DOJ asserted was non-dischargeable, totaling $2.8 billion or more in damages, which could be trebled to $8.4 billion, plus penalties, as well as claims for civil forfeiture. Accordingly, the DOJ's claims and the likely massive costs associated with litigation against the DOJ had the potential to wipe out all of the value of the Debtors' Estates—and still do if the conditions to the DOJ Resolution are not met. Preserving the DOJ Resolution should therefore be of paramount importance to all stakeholders.

The resolution with the Non-Federal Public Claimants embodied in the Plan is critical to preserving and realizing the full benefit of the DOJ Resolution. As explained above, if less than $1.775 billion of value is provided under the Plan in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities, then there is a dollar-for-dollar increase in the amount of the $2 billion Forfeiture Judgment that must be satisfied in cash rather than through the Forfeiture Judgment Credit, leaving less available for distribution to other creditors. In addition, the Forfeiture Judgment Credit is conditioned on confirmation of a plan of reorganization that provides for the emergence of a public benefit company or entity with a similar mission. Accordingly, under the terms of the Plea Agreement, any alternative structure that does not provide for emergence of a public benefit company or entity with a similar mission would reduce the amount available for distribution to other creditors by at least $1.775 billion.

Preserving the resolutions reached with the Private Claimants in the Pre-Confirmation Mediation and as supplemented by the Post-SCOTUS Decision Mediation (the "Private-Side Resolutions") is likewise critical. If the Debtors were to become unable to satisfy the terms of the Private-Side Resolutions, these Chapter 11 Cases would likely devolve into an unmitigated and value-destructive tempest, with the various Private Claimants vigorously disputing the claims of the Non-Federal Public Claimants, the United States, and other Private Claimants, and each of those groups compelled to respond in kind against each of the other groups. The litigation of the complex issues presented by the claims of the Non-Federal Public Claimants and each of the Private Claimants, particularly in light of the large number of parties in interest who would be expected to participate with varying goals, would be protracted and incredibly costly. There can be no assurance that the claims of the Non-Federal Public Claimants would ultimately be allowed in a particular amount or at all at the eventual conclusion of such litigation. Accordingly, if the Private-Side Resolutions are not preserved, then confirmation of the Plan would be at the very least materially delayed, and, if the outcome of the litigation with the Private Claimants were to preclude providing at least $1.775 billion in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities or emergence of a public benefit company or entity with a similar mission, then the Forfeiture Judgment Credit would be reduced or entirely unavailable, requiring the Debtors to satisfy the $2 billion Forfeiture Judgment in cash. That is a judgment that the Debtors could not satisfy in full, and other creditors would be at risk of receiving no recovery.

The Debtors' Plan, by contrast, facilitates a fair and equitable distribution of funds with certainty regarding the timing of payments. The up to $7.0 billion expected to be paid by Purdue Pharma's shareholders under the settlement embodied in the Plan and their settlement with the DOJ ensures that there will be sufficient funds to meet the terms of the various public and private settlements. As explained above, the DOJ Resolution will require the Debtors to make $2.0 billion in distributions in respect of the Forfeiture Judgment in one form or another (given that the total amount of the Forfeiture Judgment must be either paid to the DOJ Asset Forfeiture Fund or conferred on the Non-Federal Claimants in a manner that allows the Debtors to realize the Forfeiture Judgment Credit) before any payments can be made to holders of unsecured claims, while the Private-Side Resolutions will require the Debtors to make a total of up to $1.48 billion in distributions. There would be substantial execution risk associated with any structure intended to allow the Debtors to satisfy the Private-Side Resolutions, the DOJ Resolution and the resolution with the Non-Federal Public Claimants without the funding provided under the settlement with Purdue Pharma's shareholders. Accordingly, the contribution required under such settlement ensures that these Chapter 11 Cases will not collapse into the quagmire of expensive litigation and years of delay that would result if the Debtors cannot meet the terms of the Private-Side Resolutions, the DOJ Resolution, or the resolution with the Non-Federal Public Claimants, which are all embodied in the Plan.

The Debtors carefully considered emergence alternatives to raise funds, including asset sales or a sale of the entire company. While a limited portion of the Debtors' assets could potentially be marketed if necessary and value-maximizing,[20] the Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, including PJT Partners LP ("PJT"), determined that a sale of the Debtors' business on the terms available would not be value maximizing or otherwise optimal at this time.

[20] During the Chapter 11 Cases the Debtors sold several assets for value as outlined in Article III.L. and Article II.B.1.

As described in more detail in Article III.M. below, the Debtors were approached by a number of potential purchasers that expressed an interest in acquiring some or all of the Debtors' business, but despite diligent and extensive engagement, the Debtors never received any actionable proposals. Moreover, the Debtors, with the assistance of PJT, assessed the prospects for selling the Debtors' business and concluded that multiple factors weighed against pursuing a sale during the Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, the fact that: (i) the revenue streams associated with the Debtors' opioid businesses were likely to be heavily discounted by potential purchasers, (ii) the Debtors' pipeline of investments has not yet reached the stage at which they would traditionally be marketed by a typical pharmaceutical company and therefore are unlikely to be adequately valued by a purchaser, (iii) any sale contemplated by such proposals would have resulted in the unavailability of the $1.775 billion Forfeiture Judgment Credit and required PPLP to satisfy the entire Forfeiture Judgment in cash, and (iv) the proposals did not maximize the value of the Debtors' Estates for the benefit of creditors and other stakeholders. Transferring the Debtors' business to NewCo is therefore both value maximizing with respect to the business itself and with respect to best realizing the Forfeiture Judgment Credit by making the residual value of the business available to the Non-Federal Public Claimants to fund certain programs. Additionally, the capabilities of NewCo in advancing and executing on its Public Health Initiatives will generate significant additional value for creditors.

Accordingly, each of the major compromises embodied in the Plan is necessary for a successful resolution of these Chapter 11 Cases, while a failure of the Plan is likely to result in a scenario that is, or is not materially better than, the outcome described in the Liquidation Analysis, involving years of delay, billions of dollars less in available value for creditors. The Debtors, like the Supporting Claimants, therefore strongly urge all eligible holders of impaired Claims to vote to accept the Plan.

E. Channeling Injunction[21]

In order to supplement the injunctive effect of the Plan Injunction, the Estate Releases and the Shareholder Releases set forth in Sections 10.5, 10.6 and 10.7 of the Plan, the Plan provides for the Channeling Injunction to take effect as of the Effective Date to permanently channel all Channeled Claims against any Protected Party to the Creditor Trusts, which will forever stay, restrain, and enjoin all Persons that have held or asserted, that hold or assert or that may in the future hold or assert, any Channeled Claims from taking any action to directly or indirectly collect, recover, or receive payment, satisfaction, or recovery from any Protected Party with respect to any Channeled Claim. All Channeled Claims will be released and the Channeling Injunction will bar recovery or any action against any Protected Party for or in respect of all Channeled Claims. In other words, all Channeled Claims may be asserted only and exclusively against the Creditor Trusts and only to the extent of the right to treatment therefrom afforded under the Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

Accordingly, the Channeling Injunction provides for a resolution process administered pursuant to the Plan in an attempt to provide final, fair, and efficient resolution of Channeled Claims against the Debtors and Released Claims. The Channeling Injunction would eliminate the need for prolonged and extremely expensive court involvement. The Plan provides for payment to holders of PI Claims that qualify for payment pursuant to the PI Trust Documents and for treatment of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, Tribe Claims, Public School Claims, Hospital Claims, Third-Party Payor Claims, and ER Physician Claims by means of Distributions made by the respective Creditor Trusts in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

"Channeled Claims" means, collectively, all Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims, Tribe Channeled Claims, Public School Channeled Claims, Hospital Channeled Claims, Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims, ER Physician Channeled Claims, and PI Channeled Claims.

"Protected Parties" means, collectively, (i) the Debtors, (ii) each of the Debtors' Related Parties, (iii) NewCo, (iv) the Foundation, (v) the Plan Administration Trust, (vi) the Master Disbursement Trust, except, solely to the extent provided in the Master TDP and the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents, with respect to the Channeled Claims channeled to the Master Disbursement Trust, (vii) each Creditor Trust, except, solely to the extent provided in the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, with respect to the Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust and (viii) the Shareholder Released Parties, subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan with respect to the Shareholder Release Snapback Parties.

F. Releases

As noted in the Executive Summary, a key element of the Plan is the settlement with the Sackler Parties, pursuant to which members of the Sackler Parties and Sackler Entities will pay up to $7.0 billion in cash to the Master Disbursement Trust over fifteen years in exchange for a release of potential claims of the Debtors' Estates and of third parties against the Sackler Parties, the Sackler Entities and certain other persons.

The release and injunction provisions in the Plan are described in detail in this section. The Special Committee's careful consideration of the Debtors' and third parties' potential claims against the Sackler Entities and the Special Committee's evaluation of such settlement, including agreeing to provide for such releases and injunctions in the Plan, are described in detail in Article III.Y.

All releases provided for in the Plan specifically exclude from the scope thereof any criminal action or criminal proceeding arising under a criminal provision of any statute instituted (i) by a Domestic Governmental Entity that has authority to bring such a criminal action or criminal proceeding, and (ii) to adjudicate a person's guilt or to set a convicted person's punishment. In addition, Section 10.20 of the Plan provides that the discharge, release, and injunction provisions contained in the Plan and Confirmation Order are not intended and shall not be construed to bar the United States from, subsequent to the Confirmation Order, pursuing any police or regulatory action, or any criminal action.

The releases include releases that are deemed to be granted by certain Persons, described herein, that consent to grant such releases.

The definitions of certain important terms that are used in the descriptions of the release are set forth below. The definitions of all defined terms used in the Plan (and which apply with respect to this Disclosure Statement as well) are set forth in Section 1.1 of the Plan, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A hereto, in alphabetical order.

"Releasing Parties" means, collectively, (i) the Supporting Claimants, solely in their respective capacities as such, (ii) the Opt-In Settling Creditors, (iii) the Settling Co-Defendants and (iv) with respect to each of the Persons in the foregoing clauses (i) through (iii), each of their Related Parties, to the extent the applicable Releasing Party has the authority under applicable law to grant such release on their behalf, in each case, other than any Shareholder Released Party.

"Released Parties" means, collectively, (i) the Debtors, (ii) each of the Debtors' Related Parties, solely in their respective capacities as such, and (iii) solely for purposes of the releases by the Debtors in Section 10.6(a) of the Plan, (A) the Supporting Claimants, the Creditors' Committee and the Creditors' Committee's members and each of their respective professionals, in each case solely in their respective capacities as such and (B) the Settling Co-Defendants and each of their Related Parties, in each case solely in their respective capacities as such; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in the Plan to the contrary, no Excluded Party or Shareholder Release Snapback Party shall be a Released Party in any capacity or respect. For purposes of this definition of "Released Parties," the phrase "solely in their respective capacities as such" means, with respect to a Person, solely to the extent a claim against such Person (x) arises from such Person's conduct or actions taken in such capacity, or from such Person's identified capacity in relation to another specified Released Party and not, in either case, from such Person's conduct or actions independent of such capacity, and (y) to the extent such Person's liability depends on or derives from the liability of such other Released Party, such claim would be released if asserted against such other Released Party.

"Shareholder Released Parties" means, collectively, (i) the Shareholder Payment Parties; (ii) the Designated Shareholder Released Parties and the Persons identified on Exhibit X to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement; (iii) all Persons directly or indirectly owning an equity interest in any Debtor on the date on which such Debtor commenced its Chapter 11 Case; (iv) Sackler Family Members; (v) all trusts for the benefit of any of the Persons identified in the foregoing clause (iv) and the past, present and future trustees (including, without limitation, officers, directors and employees of any such trustees that are corporate or limited liability company trustees and members and managers of trustees that are limited liability company trustees), protectors and beneficiaries thereof, solely in their respective capacities as such; (vi) all Persons (other than the Debtors) to which property or funds of the Persons identified in any of the foregoing clauses (i) through (v) have been or are directly or indirectly transferred (including for charitable or philanthropic purposes), solely in such Persons' capacities as transferees and solely to the extent of any property or funds transferred to them; and (vii) with respect to each Person in the foregoing clauses (i) through (v), such Person's (A) predecessors, successors, permitted assigns, subsidiaries (other than the Debtors), controlled affiliates, spouses, heirs, executors, estates and nominees, in each case solely in their respective capacities as such, (B) current and former officers and directors, principals, members and employees, in each case, solely in their respective capacities as such, (C) financial advisors, attorneys (including, without limitation, attorneys retained by any director, in his or her capacity as such), accountants, investment bankers (including, without limitation, investment bankers retained by any director, in his or her capacity as such), consultants, experts and other professionals, in each case, solely in their respective capacities as such, and (D) property possessed or owned at any time or the proceeds therefrom; provided that notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, the Debtors and the Excluded Parties identified on the Schedule of Excluded Parties shall not be Shareholder Released Parties. For purposes of this definition of "Shareholder Released Parties," the phrase "solely in their respective capacities as such" means, with respect to a Person, solely to the extent a claim against such Person (x) arises from such Person's conduct or actions taken in such capacity, or from such Person's identified capacity in relation to another specified Shareholder Released Party and not, in either case, from such Person's conduct or actions independent of such capacity, and (y) to the extent such Person's liability depends on or derives from the liability of such other Shareholder Released Party, such claim would be released if asserted against such other Shareholder Released Party. For the avoidance of doubt, any Person that fits within multiple categories above shall be a Shareholder Released Party in all such categories and failure to include any Person that fits within any category above on Exhibit X to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement shall not mean that such Person is not a Shareholder Released Party.

"Related Parties" means, with respect to a Person, (i) such Person's predecessors, successors, assigns, Subsidiaries, affiliates, managed accounts or funds, past, present and future officers, board members, directors, principals, agents, servants, independent contractors, co-promoters, third-party sales representatives, medical liaisons, members, partners (general or limited), managers, employees, subcontractors, agents, advisory board members, financial advisors, attorneys and legal representatives, accountants, investment bankers, consultants, representatives, management companies, fund advisors and other professionals and advisors, trusts (including trusts established for the benefit of such Person), trustees, protectors, beneficiaries, direct or indirect owners and/or equityholders, parents, transferees, heirs, executors, estates, nominees, administrators, and legatees, in each case in their respective capacities as such; (ii) the Related Parties of each of the foregoing, in each case in their respective capacities as such; and (iii) solely with respect to the Settling Co-Defendants, any insurer of any Settling Co-Defendant solely in its capacity as such (and specifically excluding certain insurers of the Debtors that have issued, are responsible for, or have liability on account of insurance rights arising out of or in connection with Opioid-Related Activities, solely in such insurers capacities as such). For the avoidance of doubt, the citizens and residents of a State shall not be deemed to be Related Parties of such State solely as a result of being citizens or residents of such State; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall an Excluded Party be a Related Party.

"Excluded Claim" means (i) any criminal action or criminal proceeding arising under a criminal provision of any statute instituted (A) by a Domestic Governmental Entity that has authority to bring such a criminal action or criminal proceeding, and (B) to adjudicate a person's guilt or to set a convicted person's punishment; (ii) any Cause of Action against a non-Debtor Person by any federal, state or local authority with respect to taxes (other than tax laws targeting Covered Conduct) imposed on such non-Debtor Person; (iii) any Estate Cause of Action or any Cause of Action held by a Releasing Party against an Excluded Party; (iv) any Cause of Action against any Person to the extent based on the actual conduct of such Person after the Effective Date; (v) any Cause of Action against persons or entities who are not Released Parties or Shareholder Released Parties; or (vi) any claim arising under the Plan for enforcement of the Plan.

To clarify, unless a Person qualifies as a Related Party of the Debtors under clause (i) of the definition of "Related Parties," such Person is generally released only for claims that both arise from actions or omissions that such Person took in its capacity as a Related Party and that are released against the Person through which the Related Party qualifies as related.

1. Releases by Debtors

The releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates to the Released Parties is a key component of the Plan. Such releases are provided for in Section 10.6(a) of the Plan.

Specifically, the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, including, without limitation, the service of the Released Parties before and during the Chapter 11 Cases to facilitate the reorganization of the Debtors and the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted or assertible by or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates and including any claims that any Debtor or any of their Estates, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Debtor or any of their Estates, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts, NewCo, the Foundation and any other newly-formed Persons that shall be continuing the Debtors' businesses after the Effective Date shall be bound, to the same extent the Debtors are bound, by the Releases set forth in Section 10.6(a) of the Plan.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim and (y) nothing in Section 10.6(a) of the Plan shall (A) release any contractual Estate Cause of Action or any Estate Cause of Action that is commercial in nature and, in each case, unrelated to either the Chapter 11 Cases or the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions; provided that, with respect to the Settling Co-Defendants, only Estate Surviving Pre-Effective Date Claims shall be retained and not released, (B) release any Estate Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim against a Debtor, to the extent such Estate Cause of Action is necessary for the administration and resolution of such Claim solely in accordance with the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim solely with respect to such Co-Defendant Claim, (C) be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, or (D) release any Claim or right to disgorge, recoup or recover compensation under the orders authorizing the Key Employee Plans or the orders with respect to the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing (I) Debtors to (A) Pay Pre-Petition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefits Programs and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, (II) Employees and Retirees to Proceed with Outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims and (III) Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers [D.I. 6].

2. Releases by Releasing Parties[22]

In addition to ordinary and customary Debtor releases and exculpations, the Plan provides for certain releases to be deemed granted by the Releasing Parties, including Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, in favor of the Released Parties. Such release is provided for in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan.[23]

Specifically, the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, including, without limitation, the service of the Released Parties before and during the Chapter 11 Cases to facilitate the reorganization of the Debtors and the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the Releasing Parties from any and all Causes of Action, including, without limitation, any Estate Cause of Action and any claims that any Releasing Party, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Releasing Party, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Releasing Party or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, (A) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (ii) the Estates, (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (iv) Covered Conduct and (B) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor.

Without limiting the foregoing: (A) the foregoing releases include any Cause of Action of a Releasing Party that has been or may be asserted against any Released Party, by such Releasing Party (whether or not such party has brought such action or proceeding) in any federal, state, or local action or proceeding (whether judicial, arbitral, or administrative) (x) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (I) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (II) the Estates, (III) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (IV) Covered Conduct and (y) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor; and (B) the parties intend that these releases (including the term "Released Claims") be broad and [22] For the avoidance of doubt, only Holders of Claims that are Opt-in Settling Creditors may be Releasing Parties.

[23] The NAS Committee has requested that the Disclosure Statement specifically state that such releases in favor of the Debtors include, among other things, a release of any causes of action that allege that the Debtors were aware that (i) Oxycodone Hydrochloride must not be used during pregnancy and (ii) fetal exposure to opioids is an injury without a known cure.

interpreted so as to give the Released Parties the broadest possible release of any liability relating in any way to the Released Claims.

For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the releases set forth in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan, and all referenced to "Releasing Parties" as used in the Plan, shall not apply to (i) Holders of Claims who do not opt-in to the releases through their applicable ballots, (ii) Holders of Claims whose releases will be governed solely and exclusively by a Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (iii) Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, whose releases shall be governed solely and exclusively by the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.[24] For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, none of the releases, injunctions, or other terms contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall expand, limit, alter, or otherwise affect any releases, waivers, or disclaimers of liability or other terms contained in any of the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

[To the extent that, on or after the Effective Date, any Releasing Party negotiates and enters into a Non-Party Settlement, including in any bankruptcy case or through any plan of reorganization (whether individually or as a class of creditors), the Releasing Party will include (or in the case of a Non-Party Settlement made in connection with a bankruptcy case, will cause the debtor to include), unless prohibited from doing so under applicable law, in the Non-Party Settlement a prohibition on contribution or indemnity of any kind against the Released Parties substantially equivalent to that required from the Shareholder Released Parties in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(A) of the Plan, or a release from such Non-Released Party in favor of the Released Parties (in a form equivalent to Section 10.6(b)) of the Plan of any Claim-Over. Each Releasing Party acknowledges and agrees that it shall take reasonable steps to enforce such agreement related to indemnification and contribution, and any other agreement related to indemnification and contribution from a prior opioid settlement, in each case as applicable, for the benefit of the and the Released Parties.][25]

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim; (y) Co-Defendants (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Settling Co-Defendants) shall not be Released Parties for purposes of Section 10.6(b) of the Plan; and (z) nothing in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan shall (A) release any Non-Opioid Excluded Claims, (B) release any Estate Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim against a Debtor, to the extent such Estate Cause of Action is necessary for the administration and resolution of such Claim solely in accordance with the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim solely with respect to such Co-Defendant Claim, or (C) be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person

[24] The Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, remain subject to ongoing negotiations. The releases in the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, may differ from those provided for in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan. The rights of all parties to the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, are fully reserved.

under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, but subject to the MDT Insurer Injunction and the Settling MDT Insurer Injunction, the Debtors shall not be released from liability for any Claim (other than any Co-Defendant Claim) that is or may be covered by any Purdue Insurance Policy; provided that recovery for any such Claim, including by way of settlement or judgment, shall be limited to the available proceeds of such Purdue Insurance Policy (and any extra-contractual liability of the Insurance Companies with respect to the Purdue Insurance Policies), and no Person or party shall execute, garnish or otherwise attempt to collect any such recovery from any assets other than the available proceeds of the Purdue Insurance Policies. The Debtors shall be released automatically from a Claim described in this paragraph upon the earlier of (x) the abandonment of such Claim and (y) such a release being given as part of a settlement or resolution of such Claim, and shall be released automatically from all Claims described in this paragraph upon the exhaustion of the available proceeds of the Purdue Insurance Policies (notwithstanding the nonoccurrence of either event described in the foregoing clauses (x) and (y)).

3. Releases by Debtors of Holders of Claims

The Plan also provides for releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates in favor of certain Holders of Claims. Such release is provided for in Section 10.6(c) of the Plan.

Specifically, the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, all Holders of Channeled Claims (excluding, in all respects, any Excluded Party, Shareholder Release Snapback Party or MDT Insurer) are hereby released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action for any Claim in connection with, or arising out of, (i) the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the Restructuring Transactions, the Plan, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts (including the trust distribution procedures and the other Creditor Trust Documents) and the solicitation of votes with respect to, and confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration of the Plan and the property to be distributed under the Plan; and the wind-up and dissolution of the Liquidating Debtors and the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing or (ii) such Holder's participation in the Pending Opioid Actions. The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts, NewCo, the Foundation and any other newly-formed Persons that shall be continuing the Debtors' businesses after the Effective Date shall be bound, to the same extent the Debtors are bound, by the Releases set forth in Section 10.6(c) of the Plan.

As of the Effective Date, all Holders of PI Channeled Claims (excluding, in all respects, any Excluded Party, Shareholder Release Snapback Party or MDT Insurer) are hereby released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action for any Claim in connection with, or arising out of, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases, including, in each case, without limitation, any act, conduct, omission, event, transaction, occurrence, injury, damage, or continuing condition in any way relating to the foregoing.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim and (y) nothing in Section 10.6(c) of the Plan shall (A) release any contractual Estate Cause of Action or any Estate Cause of Action that is commercial in nature and, in each case, unrelated to either the Chapter 11 Cases or the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, provided that, with respect to the Settling Co-Defendants, only Estate Surviving Pre-Effective Date Claims shall be retained and not released, (B) release any Estate Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim against a Debtor, to the extent such Estate Cause of Action is necessary for the administration and resolution of such Claim solely in accordance with the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim solely with respect to such Co-Defendant Claim, (C) release any claim or right arising in the ordinary course of the Debtors' or NewCo's business, including, without limitation, any such claim with respect to taxes or (D) be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

4. Shareholder Releases: Releases by Debtors

The Plan also provides for releases granted by the Debtors and their Estates in favor of the Shareholder Released Parties. Such release is provided for in Section 10.7(a) of the Plan.

Specifically, the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released, subject to clause (z) of the last paragraph of Section 10.7(a) of the Plan, by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action, including any Estate Causes of Action asserted or assertible by or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates and including any claims that any Debtor or any of their Estates, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Debtor or any of their Estates, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts, NewCo, the Foundation and any other newly-formed Persons that shall be continuing the Debtors' businesses after the Effective Date shall be bound, to the same extent the Debtors are bound, by the Shareholder Releases set forth in Section 10.7(a) of the Plan.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim; (y) nothing in Section 10.7(a) of the Plan shall be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and the Separation Agreements; and (z) upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, (A) the Shareholder Releases set forth in Section 10.7(a) o the Plan shall be entirely null and void, revoked and invalidated, as of the Effective Date, with respect to all members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties, (B) the status quo ante shall be restored in all respects for the Debtors and the Master Disbursement Trust with respect to the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties, and (C) the Master Disbursement Trust shall be deemed to have received and accepted all of the rights with respect to any member of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties, in each case, that the Debtors and their Estates had prior to the Effective Date and that the Master Disbursement Trust would have pursuant to the transfer of the MDT Shareholder Rights to the Master Disbursement Trust if the Shareholder Releases of Section 10.7(a) of the Plan had never been granted, which rights the Debtors and their Estates shall be deemed to have irrevocably transferred, granted and assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the nullification, voiding, revocation and invalidation pursuant to the foregoing clause (A), the Shareholder Releases shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Shareholder Released Parties other than the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties.

5. Shareholder Releases: Releases by Releasing Parties[26]

The Plan also provides for certain releases to be deemed granted by the Releasing Parties and all other Persons, including Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, in favor of the Shareholder Released Parties. Such release is provided for in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan.

Specifically, the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released, subject to clause (y) of the last paragraph of Section 10.7(b) of the Plan, by the Releasing Parties from any and all Causes of Action, including, without limitation, any Estate Cause of Action and any claims that any Releasing Party, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Releasing Party, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Releasing Party or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, (A) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (ii) the Estates, (iii) the [26] For the avoidance of doubt, only Holders of Claims that are Opt-in Settling Creditors may be Releasing Parties.

Chapter 11 Cases, or (iv) Covered Conduct and (B) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor.

Without limiting the foregoing: (A) the foregoing releases include any Cause of Action of a Releasing Party that has been or may be asserted against any Shareholder Released Party, by such Releasing Party (whether or not such party has brought such action or proceeding) in any federal, state, or local action or proceeding (whether judicial, arbitral, or administrative) (x) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (I) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (II) the Estates, (III) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (IV) Covered Conduct and (y) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor; and (B) the parties intend that these releases (including the term "Shareholder Released Claims") be broad and interpreted so as to give the Shareholder Released Parties the broadest possible release of any liability relating in any way to the Shareholder Released Claims.

For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the releases set forth in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan, and all referenced to "Releasing Parties" as used in the Plan, shall not apply to (i) Holders of Claims who do not opt-in to the releases through their applicable ballots, (ii) Holders of Claims whose releases will be governed solely and exclusively by a Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (iii) Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, whose releases shall be governed solely and exclusively by the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.[27] For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, none of the releases, injunctions, or other terms contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall expand, limit, alter, or otherwise affect any releases, waivers, or disclaimers of liability or other terms contained in any of the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

(ii) [In addition to granting the foregoing release, any Releasing Party represented by counsel agrees not to waive any conflict of interest that may arise for any such counsel by virtue of the clients of such counsel participating in any Shareholder Settlement.][28]

[(iii) (A) No Shareholder Released Party shall seek to recover for amounts paid under Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and the Plan based on indemnification, contribution, or any other theory from a manufacturer, pharmacy, hospital, pharmacy benefit manager, health insurer, third-party vendor, trade association, distributor, health care practitioner; provided that a Shareholder Released Party shall be relieved of this prohibition with respect to any entity that asserts a Claim-Over against it.

[27] The Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, remain subject to ongoing negotiations. The releases in the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, may differ from those provided for in Section 10.7 of the Plan. The rights of all parties to the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, are fully reserved.

[28] [NTD: subject to ongoing review.]]

(B) To the extent that, on or after the Effective Date, any Releasing Party negotiates and enters into a Non-Party Settlement, including in any bankruptcy case or through any plan of reorganization (whether individually or as a class of creditors), the Releasing Party will include (or in the case of a Non-Party Settlement made in connection with a bankruptcy case, will cause the debtor to include), unless prohibited from doing so under applicable law, in the Non-Party Settlement a prohibition on contribution or indemnity of any kind against the Shareholder Released Parties substantially equivalent to that required from the Shareholder Released Parties in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(A) of the Plan, or a release from such Non-Released Party in favor of the Shareholder Released Parties (in a form equivalent to Section 10.7(b) of the Plan) of any Claim-Over. Each Releasing Party acknowledges and agrees that it shall take reasonable steps to enforce such agreement related to indemnification and contribution, and any other agreement related to indemnification and contribution from a prior opioid settlement, in each case as applicable, for the benefit of the Shareholder Released Parties.

(C) In the event that any Releasing Party obtains a judgment with respect to Non-Party Covered Conduct against a Non-Released Party that does not contain a prohibition like that described in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(B) of the Plan or any Releasing Party files a Non-Party Covered Conduct Claim against a Non-Released Party in bankruptcy or a Releasing Party is prevented for any reason from obtaining a prohibition/release in a Non-Party Settlement as provided in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(B) of the Plan, and such Non-Released Party asserts a Claim-Over against a Shareholder Released Party, the Shareholder Released Party shall be relieved of the prohibition in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(B) of the Plan with respect to that Non-Released Party and that Releasing Party and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall take the following actions to ensure that the Shareholder Released Parties do not pay more with respect to Covered Conduct to Releasing Parties or to Non-Released Parties than the amounts owed under the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement by Shareholder Payment Groups:

(I) The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify that Releasing Party of the Claim-Over within sixty (60) calendar days of when it becomes aware of the assertion of the Claim-Over or sixty (60) calendar days of the Effective Date, whichever is later;

(II) The Sackler Parties' Representative and that Releasing Party shall meet and confer concerning the means to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless and ensure that they are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by the Shareholder Payment Groups under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement;

(III) That Releasing Party and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall take steps sufficient and permissible under the law of the state of the Releasing Party to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over and ensure Shareholder Released Parties are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by the Shareholder Payment Groups under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. Such steps may include, where permissible:

Filing of motions to dismiss or such other appropriate motion by the Sackler Parties' Representative or Shareholder Released Parties and supported by that Releasing Party, in response to any claim filed in litigation or arbitration;

(1) Reduction of that Releasing Party's Claim and any judgment it has obtained or may obtain against such Non-Released Party by whatever amount or percentage is necessary to extinguish such Claim-Over under applicable law, up to the amount that Releasing Party has obtained, may obtain, or has authority to control from such Non-Released Party;

(2) Placement into escrow of funds paid by the Non-Released Parties such that those funds are available to satisfy the Claim-Over;

(3) Return of monies paid by Shareholder Payment Groups to that Releasing Party under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement to permit satisfaction of a judgment against or settlement with the Non-Released Party to satisfy the Claim-Over;

(4) Payment of monies to Shareholder Released Parties by that Releasing Party to ensure they are held harmless from such Claim-Over, up to the amount that Releasing Party has obtained, may obtain, or has authority to control from such Non-Released Party;

(5) Credits to Shareholder Payment Groups under the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement to reduce the overall amounts to be paid under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement such that they are held harmless from the Claim-Over; and

(6) Such other actions as that Releasing Party and Shareholder Payment Parties, the Sackler Parties' Representative may devise to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over.

(IV) The actions taken pursuant to paragraph (III) must, in combination, ensure that Shareholder Payment Groups are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by them to such Releasing Party under the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(D) To the extent that the Claim-Over is based on a contractual indemnity, the obligations under Section 10.7(b)(iii)(C) of the Plan shall extend solely to a Non-Party Covered Conduct Claim against a clinic, hospital or other purchaser, distributor or dispenser of Products, a manufacturer that sold Products, a consultant, and/or a pharmacy benefit manager or other third-party payor. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify the Settling States, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the event that any of these types of Non- Released Party asserts a Claim-Over arising out of contractual indemnity against it.][29]

(iv) Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan shall (A) release any Excluded Claims or (B) be construed to impair in any way the rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and (y) upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, (A) the Shareholder Releases set forth in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan shall be entirely null and void, revoked and invalidated, as of the Effective Date, with respect to all members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties and (B) the status quo ante shall be restored in all respects for the Releasing Parties with respect to the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the nullification, voiding, revocation and invalidation pursuant to the foregoing clause (A), the Shareholder Releases shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Shareholder Released Parties other than the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties.

6. Releases by Shareholder Released Parties

The Plan also provides for the Shareholder Releasing Parties to provide reciprocal releases in favor of the Reciprocal Releasees. Such release is provided for in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan.

Specifically, the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Reciprocal Releasees shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released, subject to clause (z) of the last paragraph of Section 10.7(c) of the Plan, by the Shareholder Released Parties from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted or assertible by or on behalf of the Debtors or their Estates and including any claims that any Shareholder Released Party, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Shareholder Released Party, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Shareholder Released Party or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim; (y) nothing in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan shall be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, and the Separation Agreement, and including the rights of any Shareholder Released Party that is a current or former director, officer or employee of the Debtors but is not a Sackler Family Member relating to plan treatment of any Claims held by such party; and (z) upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback and the commencement or continuation of any action or proceeding against a member of a Breaching Shareholder Family Group or a Designated Shareholder Released Party by any Reciprocal Releasee, (A) the releases set forth in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan of any Reciprocal Releasee that has commenced or continued any such action shall be entirely null and void, revoked and invalidated, as of the Effective Date, with respect to the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties and (B) the status quo ante shall be restored in all respects for the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties with respect to any Reciprocal Releasee that has commenced or continued any such litigation; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the nullification, voiding, revocation and invalidation pursuant to the foregoing clause (A), the releases set forth in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Reciprocal Releasees, and shall be binding on, and enforceable against, all other Shareholder Released Parties, including any members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group with respect to any Reciprocal Releasee that has not commenced any such litigation.

G. Confirmation of the Plan

1. Requirements

The requirements for confirmation of the Plan are set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The requirements for approval of the Disclosure Statement are set forth in section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Approval of the Plan and Confirmation Hearing

To confirm the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court must hold a hearing to determine whether the Plan meets the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Treatment and Classification of Claims and Interests

A Claim or Interest is placed in a particular Class for all purposes, including voting, confirmation and Distributions under the Plan and under sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. A Claim or Interest is classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving Distributions pursuant to the Plan only to the extent such Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of that Class and is classified in other Classes to the extent any portion of the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of such other Classes; provided that, to the extent any Claim satisfies the definition of a Shareholder Claim, a Co-Defendant Claim or an Other Subordinated Claim, such Claim shall be classified as such, notwithstanding that such Claim may satisfy the definition of another type of Claim. A Claim or Interest is also classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving Distributions under the Plan only to the extent such Claim or Interest is an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in that Class and such Claim or Interest has not been satisfied, released or otherwise settled prior to the Effective Date. In no event shall any Holder of an Allowed Claim be entitled to receive payments under the Plan that, in the aggregate, exceed the Allowed amount of such Holder's Claim.

4. Only Impaired Classes Vote

Pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, only classes of claims or interests that are "impaired" (as defined in section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code) under a plan may vote to accept or reject such plan. Generally, a claim or interest is impaired under a plan if the applicable holder's legal, equitable, or contractual rights are modified under such plan. In addition, if the holders of claims or interests in an impaired class do not receive or retain any property under a plan on account of such claims or interests, such impaired class is deemed to have rejected such plan under section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code and, therefore, such holders are not entitled to vote on such plan.

Under the Plan, holders of Claims in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) and 11(c) are impaired and are entitled to vote on the Plan.

Under the Plan, holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 1, 2, 11(a) and 11(b) are unimpaired and, therefore, deemed to accept the Plan.

Under the Plan, holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 are impaired and will not receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests in such classes and, therefore, are (i) not entitled to vote on the Plan and (ii) deemed to reject the Plan.

Under the Plan, holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 12 and 18 are either conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan or are deemed to have rejected the Plan. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

ACCORDINGLY, A BALLOT FOR ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE PLAN IS BEING PROVIDED ONLY TO HOLDERS OF CLAIMS IN CLASSES 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) AND 11(c).

H. Solicitation Process, Voting Procedures and Voting Deadline

1. Solicitation Process

Accompanying the Disclosure Statement is a package of materials called the "Solicitation Package." The Solicitation Package contains copies of, among other things:

- the Bankruptcy Court order approving the Disclosure Statement and procedures for soliciting and tabulating votes on the Plan the ("Solicitation Order") which, among other things, approves the Disclosure Statement as containing adequate procedures for distributing the Solicitation Packages to the holders of claims against the Debtors that are entitled to vote on the Plan, establishes the procedures for tabulating Ballots used in voting on the Plan and sets the deadline for objecting to confirmation of the Plan;

- the notice of the hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan; and

- a ballot (the "Ballot") for voting to accept or reject the Plan if you are the record holder of a claim in a class entitled to vote on the Plan (each, a "Voting Class").

2. Voting Procedures and Voting Deadline

If you are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, a Ballot is enclosed for the purpose of voting on the Plan. To ensure your vote is counted, you must complete, date, sign, and promptly mail the Ballot enclosed with the notice or complete your Ballot using the online portal maintained by the solicitation agent (the "Solicitation Agent"), in each case indicating your decision to accept or reject the Plan in the boxes provided.

TO BE COUNTED, YOUR BALLOT INDICATING YOUR ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE PLAN MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE SOLICITATION AGENT NO LATER THAN [SEPTEMBER 12, 2025, AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME)] (THE "VOTING DEADLINE").

In order for the Plan to be accepted by an impaired Class of Claims, a majority in number and two-thirds in dollar amount of the Claims voting in such Class must vote to accept the Plan. At least one Voting Class, excluding the votes of insiders, must actually vote to accept the Plan.

Pursuant to the Solicitation Procedures, and subject to the parties' rights to seek allowance of a claim in different amount under the Solicitation Procedures, each Claim in Class 4 (Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims), Class 5 (Tribe Claims), Class 6 (Public School Claims), Class 7 (Hospital Claims), Class 8 (Third-Party Payor Claims), Class 9 (ER Physician Claims), Class 10(a) (NAS PI Claims), and Class 10(b) (Non-NAS PI Claims) shall be accorded one (1) vote and valued at one United States dollar ($1.00) for voting purposes only, and not for purposes of allowance or distribution. Accordingly, a vote of two-thirds in number will effectively be required in order for the Plan to be accepted in the case of each of these Classes of Claims.

The Debtors will argue to the Bankruptcy Court that if no Holders of Claims in a particular Class that is entitled to vote on the Plan vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to accept the Plan.

You may have previously received a Ballot for voting to accept or reject the Fifth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Purdue Pharma L.P. and its Affiliated Debtors (the "Original Purdue Plan") [D.I. 2967], which was proposed by the Debtors. Ballots that were distributed in connection with the Original Purdue Plan are no longer valid. If you cast a vote to accept or reject the Original Purdue Plan, that vote will not be counted as a vote to accept or reject the Plan – a new Ballot must be cast to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLETE, DATE, SIGN, AND PROMPTLY MAIL THE BALLOT ENCLOSED WITH THE NOTICE OR COMPLETE YOUR BALLOT USING THE ONLINE PORTAL MAINTAINED BY THE SOLICITATION AGENT. PLEASE BE SURE TO COMPLETE THE BALLOT PROPERLY AND LEGIBLY AND TO IDENTIFY THE EXACT AMOUNT OF YOUR CLAIM AND THE NAME OF THE HOLDER. IF YOU ARE A HOLDER OF A CLAIM ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN AND YOU DID NOT RECEIVE A BALLOT, YOU RECEIVED A DAMAGED BALLOT, OR YOU LOST YOUR BALLOT, OR

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, THE PLAN, OR PROCEDURES FOR VOTING ON THE PLAN, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR ATTORNEY OR THE SOLICITATION AGENT AT (844) 217-0912 (U.S./CANADA, TOLL-FREE) OR +1 (347) 859-8093 (INTERNATIONAL, TOLL) OR AT PURDUEPHARMAINFO@KROLL.COM (WITH A REFERENCE TO "PURDUE PHARMA SOLICITATION INQUIRY" IN THE SUBJECT LINE). THE SOLICITATION AGENT IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO PROVIDE LEGAL ADVICE AND WILL NOT PROVIDE ANY SUCH ADVICE.

I. Confirmation Hearing

The Bankruptcy Court has scheduled a hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Hearing"). The Confirmation Hearing will take place on [October 27, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time)]. Parties in interest will have the opportunity to object to the confirmation of the Plan at the Confirmation Hearing.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE DEBTORS

A. The Debtors' Businesses, Structure, Management, and Employees

1. Overview

The Debtors operate two main business segments through a number of operating subsidiaries: a branded prescription medication business and a generic prescription medication business. The branded prescription medications business consists of both opioid and non-opioid medications, including investment in a robust and diversified pipeline of non-opioid investigative candidates that have the potential to address many serious medical conditions, as described in more detail below. In addition, as part of their commitment to advancing meaningful solutions to the opioid crisis, the Debtors continue to develop, and plan to have NewCo develop and distribute opioid overdose reversal and addiction treatment medications (the "Public Health Initiative").

Purdue Pharma L.P., a Delaware limited partnership headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut, is the Debtors' main operating entity. Purdue Pharma's general partner is Purdue Pharma Inc. Purdue Pharma also owns, directly or indirectly, 22 operating and nonoperating subsidiaries in the United States and the British Virgin Islands ("Purdue Subsidiaries"). An organizational chart setting forth this corporate structure is provided in Appendix B. Purdue Pharma and its direct and indirect subsidiaries other than the Rhodes Debtors (the "Purdue Debtors") primarily operate a branded pharmaceuticals business, while Debtor Rhodes Associates L.P. and its direct and indirect subsidiaries (the "Rhodes Debtors") primarily develop and distribute generic pharmaceutical products. While a handful of the Debtors are managed by their own boards of directors, most of the Debtors are managed by a single board of directors and are wholly owned by the same ultimate owners: various trusts for the benefit of the descendants of Mortimer and Raymond Sackler.

(i) Branded Prescription Medication Business

The Debtors' branded prescription pharmaceutical business, operated by the Purdue Debtors, consists of both opioid and non-opioid medications. The Debtors' three principal branded opioid medications are OxyContin®, Hysingla ER®, and Butrans®:

- OxyContin Extended-Release Tablets: OxyContin is a Schedule II extended-release, long-acting opioid analgesic. Its active pharmaceutical ingredient ("API") is oxycodone.[30] OxyContin received United States Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") approval in 1995 and was launched in 1996. In 2010, the FDA approved, and the Purdue Debtors began selling, a new abuse-deterrent formulation of OxyContin formulated with physical and chemical properties intended to make abuse by injection difficult and to reduce abuse via the intranasal route.

- Hysingla ER Extended-Release Tablets: Hysingla ER is a Schedule II extended-release, long-acting, abuse-deterrent opioid analgesic formulated with physical and chemical properties intended to make abuse by injection difficult and to reduce abuse via the intranasal route. Its API is hydrocodone. Hysingla ER was approved by the FDA in 2014 and was launched in 2015.

- Butrans Transdermal System: Butrans is a Schedule III,[31] seven-day, transdermal patch pain medication. Its API is buprenorphine.[32] Butrans was approved by the FDA in 2010 and launched in 2011.

The Purdue Debtors manufacture OxyContin and Hysingla for themselves and, in relatively limited amounts, manufacture OxyContin for certain foreign independent associated companies ultimately owned by the Sackler Families ("IACs"). Purdue Pharma also receives royalties from foreign IACs for sales of OxyContin outside the United States. Butrans is manufactured by a third party, LTS Lohmann Therapie-Systeme AG.

The FDA continues to strike a careful balance between the necessity of OxyContin and other opioid pain medications and the associated risks of misuse, abuse, and addiction.[33] While ("[T]he FDA remains focused on striking the right balance between reducing the rate of new addiction by decreasing exposure to opioids and rationalizing prescribing, while still enabling appropriate access to those patients who have legitimate medical need for these medicines.").

OxyContin is approved for the management of pain severe enough to require daily, around-the-clock, long-term opioid treatment and for which alternative treatment options are inadequate, it is required to carry a label with a type of warning—commonly referred to as a black box warning—that is designed to call attention to serious or life-threatening risks. OxyContin carries the following black box warning:

WARNING: ADDICTION, ABUSE AND MISUSE; LIFE-THREATENING RESPIRATORY DEPRESSION; ACCIDENTAL INGESTION; NEONATAL OPIOID WITHDRAWAL SYNDROME; and CYTOCHROME P450 3A4 INTERACTION
See full prescribing information for complete boxed warning.

- OXYCONTIN exposes users to risks of addictions, abuse and misuse, which can lead to overdose and death. Assess each patient's risk before prescribing and monitor regularly for development of these behaviors and conditions. (5.1)
- Serious, life-threatening, or fatal respiratory depression may occur. Monitor closely, especially upon initiation or following a dose increase. Instruct patients to swallow OXYCONTIN tablets whole to avoid exposure to a potentially fatal dose of oxycodone. (5.2)
- Accidental ingestion of OXYCONTIN, especially in children, can result in a fatal overdose of oxycodone. (5.2)
- Prolonged use of OXYCONTIN during pregnancy can result in neonatal opioid withdrawal syndrome, which may be life-threatening if not recognized and treated. If opioid use is required for a prolonged period in a pregnant woman, advise the patient of the risk of neonatal opioid withdrawal syndrome and ensure that appropriate treatment will be available. (5.3)
- Initiation of CYP3A4 inhibitors (or discontinuation of CYP3A4 inducers) can result in a fatal overdose of oxycodone from OXYCONTIN. (5.14)

Purdue Pharma has also invested—and continues to invest—substantial resources in its pipeline of non-opioid investigative candidates that have the potential to address many serious medication conditions, including difficult-to-treat blood cancers, solid cancers, and central nervous system cancers, overactive bladder, chronic low back pain and insomnia associated with alcohol cessation. For example, Tinostamustine, a potentially first-in-class alkylating deacetylase inhibiting molecule in development for the treatment of certain cancers, is in phase 2 trials; IMB-115, an internally discovered compound with a novel mechanism of action in clinical development for the treatment of insomnia associated with alcohol cessation has recently completed a phase 2 proof of concept study which has demonstrated that the drug is efficacious, and is now being progressed to larger phase 3 studies, as well as commencing phase 1 studies in indications for overactive bladder and interstitial cystitis.

(ii) Generic Prescription Medication Business / API Business

(A) Rhodes Pharmaceuticals L.P.

The Debtors' generic prescription pharmaceutical business is operated by Purdue Pharma subsidiary Rhodes Pharmaceuticals L.P. ("Rhodes Pharma"), a Delaware limited partnership created in 2008. Rhodes Pharma, which until May 2019 was separately managed from Purdue, see Article II.A.1.(ii).c, infra, primarily sells a variety of generic prescription medications, including opioid (principally immediate-release) pain relievers.[34] Rhodes Pharma does not have—and never has had—sales representatives promote or market its opioid drugs to prescribers or patients.

Rhodes Pharma also sells non-opioid medications, such as medications to treat attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, high cholesterol, depression disorder, and pain management. A Purdue Pharma subsidiary and other non-Debtor entities manufacture finished dosage forms for Rhodes Pharma.

(B) Rhodes Technologies

Rhodes Technologies ("Rhodes Tech"), a Delaware general partnership, also became a Purdue Pharma subsidiary (as of May 2019) and a Debtor in the Chapter 11 Cases. Prior to December 31, 2020, Rhodes Tech manufactured APIs that Purdue Pharma used to manufacture its branded finished products and some of Rhodes Pharma's generic finished products.

As further described in Article III.L, on October 1, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the sale of assets of Rhodes Tech to Noramco Coventry LLC and approving the Debtors' entry into a supply agreement (the "Supply Agreement") with Noramco LLC. The Supply Agreement secures provision of APIs to the Debtors for a minimum of seven years, with two two-year renewal options. Noramco LLC is an experienced API manufacturer with the capability to ensure high-quality supply at a cost substantially lower than previously incurred through the vertically integrated structure. The sale transaction closed and the parties entered into the Supply Agreement on December 31, 2020.

(C) The Rhodes Entities Were Managed Separately Prior to May 2019

Prior to 2008, Rhodes Tech (or its predecessor) was a subsidiary of Purdue Pharma. On or around January 1, 2008, Rhodes Tech was moved to a different Sackler Families ownership chain (through Purdue Pharma's distribution of its interest in Rhodes Tech's parent to an affiliate) though with the same ultimate owners. Rhodes Tech then came under common ownership with newly created Rhodes Pharma. Until May 2019, Rhodes Pharma and Rhodes Tech were separately managed by different boards of directors from that of Purdue Pharma.[35] The ultimate owners of [34] Starting in 2017, Purdue Pharma authorized Rhodes Pharma to sell an authorized generic of Butrans (opioid transdermal patch) in exchange for a profit share. Rhodes Pharma's authorized generic Butrans has been sold as a generic product and never promoted to prescribers or patients. Moreover, although Rhodes Pharma's portfolio of products is composed mostly of generic products, in 2015, Rhodes Pharma expanded into a branded prescription product, Aptensio XR, a once-daily extended-release central nervous system stimulant (methylphenidate) indicated for the treatment of attention deficit hyperactivity disorder. Additionally, since 2017, Rhodes Pharma has sold MS Contin and Dilaudid branded opioid pain medications, which were contributed to Rhodes Pharma by Purdue. Rhodes Pharma has never promoted any Dilaudid or MS Contin product to prescribers or patients.

[35] Prior to May 2019, some Rhodes Pharma and Rhodes Tech directors served as directors or officers of Purdue Pharma.

these Rhodes entities, however, have always been the same as Purdue Pharma's—various trusts for benefit of the Sackler Families.

In May 2019, Rhodes Pharma and Rhodes Tech were contributed to Purdue Pharma, becoming subsidiaries of PPLP. Thus, from and after that date, PPI effectively managed Rhodes Pharma and Rhodes Tech. This reorganization was undertaken, among other reasons, to achieve cost and operational efficiencies and so that a single board and management team would be at the helm of the U.S. pharmaceutical businesses in order to, among other things, help facilitate a complex settlement process, including one that potentially could be implemented through chapter 11.

(iii) Over-the-Counter Health and Wellness Business

Avrio Health L.P. ("Avrio"), now known as Purdue Products, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership and also a Purdue Pharma subsidiary, operated the Debtors' over-the-counter ("OTC") business. OTC products are FDA-regulated but do not require prescriptions. Avrio's primary products were Betadine (an antiseptic), Senokot and Colace (laxatives), and SlowMag (a supplement). Avrio had no role in the Debtors' branded or generic prescription medication business.

As further described in Article III.BB, on May 30, 2023, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the sale of substantially all of the assets of Avrio to Atlantis Consumer Healthcare Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Arcadia Consumer Healthcare, Inc. The sale transaction closed on June 1, 2023.

(iv) Public Health Initiatives: Opioid Overdose Reversal and Addiction Treatment Medications

As part of their commitment to advance meaningful solutions to the opioid crisis, the Debtors are pursuing three initiatives: developing and distributing at low or no cost two medications to treat opioid overdoses and a medication to treat opioid addiction. Leading public health officials have encouraged the development of certain of these types of medications, and the Debtors have offered to develop and distribute millions of doses of each for no profit to communities throughout the country. During the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have made substantial progress on these initiatives, and the Bankruptcy Court—with creditor support—has authorized certain steps that have facilitated that progress.

First, the Debtors have developed emergency opioid overdose treatments containing the opioid antagonist nalmefene.[36] Emergency opioid overdose rescue drugs, when timely administered, can quickly restore normal respiration to a person whose breathing has slowed or stopped as a result of overdosing with a prescription or illicit opioid.[37] Synthetic opioids, such as illicit fentanyl and its analogues, are a principal driver of today's epidemic of opioid overdose deaths.[38] Doses of existing opioid overdose reversal medications that could reverse prescription opioid or heroin overdoses may not be sufficiently strong or long-lasting to reverse the effects of fentanyl (which is 50 times more potent than heroin).[39] For this reason, the Directors of the National Institutes of Health and the National Institute on Drug Abuse have called for the development of "stronger, longer-acting formulations of antagonists."[40]

In response to that need, the Debtors have developed and are making available an opioid overdose reversal medication containing nalmefene,[41] a strong, long-acting opioid antagonist, in two different injectable forms: (1) a single-dose vial for use in a hospital setting by certain first responders and (2) an autoinjector ("Zurnai"), an easy-to-use EpiPen®-like device, for use by friends, family, and caregivers without medical training. The debtors reintroduced the single-dose vial application 2023 which is on formulary in 82 hospitals across the country, with many more expected to come online. In August 2024, the FDA approved the Zurnai auto-injector, and preparations for commercial introduction are ongoing.

On February 21, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court authorized an important element of the Debtors' nalmefene development program when it approved the Debtors' entry into an agreement with a technology partner to develop the nalmefene autoinjecetor. See Order (I) Shortening Notice with Respect to Debtors' Motion for Authorization to Enter into Development Agreement and (II) Authorizing Entry into Development Agreement [D.I. 868].

The Debtors believe that a settlement that enables them to continue to develop and distribute millions of doses of both forms of injectable nalmefene, at no or low cost, to communities and individuals throughout the country would provide great benefit to the public health, saving the lives of individuals in instances where other reversal medicines do not work.

Second, the Debtors have aided the development of a low-cost, non-prescription OTC naloxone nasal spray to reverse known or suspected opioid overdose. Although intranasal naloxone has been available to consumers under the brand name Narcan® for a number of years, access was limited because of (i) Narcan's relatively high cost to consumers and first responders, and (ii) the requirement that consumers, when obtaining Narcan from a pharmacy, obtain this prescription medication from a pharmacist.

Consistent with the FDA's encouragement, the Debtors worked with Harm Reduction Therapeutics ("HRT"), an independent nonprofit pharmaceutical company, to develop a low-cost OTC naloxone nasal spray ("RiVive"). By reducing the cost to consumers and first responders, and enabling consumers to acquire the medication over the counter and without the shame or fear of needing to procure a prescription or speak with a pharmacist, the Debtors and HRT have greatly improved access to this needed medication. To facilitate bringing this low-cost OTC medication to market, the Debtors have paid for HRT's development costs. On June 25, 2020, the Court entered the Order Authorizing Debtors to Enter into Funding Agreement [D.I. 1301], which authorized the Debtors to continue funding certain of those costs. The Debtors' use of funding was approved on March 23, 2022, when the Court entered the Order Authorizing Debtors to Enter Into Amended and Restated Funding Agreement [D.I. 4588], and again on March 30, 2023, the Court entered the third Order Authorizing Debtors to Enter Into Funding Agreement [D.I. 5513]. To provide further assistance, the Debtors also licensed to HRT valuable technical know-how and data and provided regulatory and drug development advice.

RiVive received FDA approval for OTC distribution in July 2023. RiVive is now available in 36 states, with over 300,000 twin packs sold at cost. HRT has also donated approximately 23,000 twin packs to various harm reduction organizations across the United States. One month after OTC RiVive was approved, generic OTC Narcan (Padagis) and branded OTC Narcan were both launched. In April and May of 2024, two formulations of generic OTC Narcan were also approved by the FDA. RiVive's presence in the market drives significant downward pressure on the cost of naloxone nasal sprays, working to keep the life-saving medication affordable and ensuring expanded access as a result. Not so long ago, a twin pack of Narcan cost approximately $140 USD.[42] As a result of Rivive's approval by the FDA in August 2023, the price of the generic retail version of Narcan was introduced at $45 USD per pack and later reduced to approximately $34 USD per pack, and $24 USD for the generic version available in California (Cal Rx). The benefits of the introduction of ReVive cannot be overstated.

Third, the Debtors, through Rhodes Pharma, have already developed, obtained FDA approval, and manufactured a generic version of Suboxone®[43] tablets, a leading opioid addiction treatment consisting of a combination of buprenorphine and naloxone. Despite evidence that medication-assisted treatment can help many people recover from opioid addiction, these medications remain underutilized, and the cost of treatment is one of the barriers to access.[44] To help ensure broader access, the FDA has facilitated the entry of generic versions of these medicines,[45] and, in March of 2020, approved the Debtors' generic version of Suboxone tablets. To increase access to these treatments, the Debtors are distributing millions of doses of their buprenorphine/naloxone tablets at low or no cost. In January 2024, the Debtors signed an agreement with the Minnesota Multistate Contracting Alliance for Pharmacy ("MMCAP") to provide 1.25 million tabs of generic suboxone at $0.01/tablet to State correctional facilities, which was increased to two million tablets in September 2024. As of October 2024, over one million tablets have been provided to 21 correctional facilities in 10 States. The Debtors are further expanding the program in 2025 to enable more tablets to be available to correctional facilities. In 2025, the Debtors plan to grow the program by at least 50 percent over 2024 levels with aspirations to exceed distribution of 2.5 million tablets this year.

(v) Purdue Pharma Inc.

PPI is the general partner of Purdue Pharma, and the board of directors of PPI ("Board") effectively manages the Debtors.[46]

2. Management

The Debtors' current management team is composed of highly capable and experienced professionals. Information regarding the Debtors' senior management is as follows:

Name	Position
Craig Landau	President and Chief Executive Officer
Marc L. Kesselman	Executive Vice President, General Counsel

(i) Craig Landau

Craig Landau, M.D., is a pharmaceutical industry veteran with over 25 years of R&D and general management experience. After overseeing the development and approval by FDA of multiple commercial products, he was President and CEO of Purdue Pharma Canada from July 2013 to June 2017. Since June 2017, he has been President and CEO of Purdue Pharma LP, headquartered in Stamford, CT. Dr. Landau demonstrates visionary leadership as he navigates a company at the center of one of the greatest challenges in public health: the opioid crisis.

Purdue develops and manufactures prescription medications—including opioid analgesic medicines. Dr. Landau is a bold leader in the service of the public good. Upon becoming CEO of Purdue, he assembled a new management team, renewed the company's focus on R&D, and prioritized the advancement of public health initiatives – namely, medicines intended to treat opioid overdoses and opioid use disorder offered at no profit to the company. He also ended the company's promotion of opioids by sales representatives to prescribers, eliminated its opioid sales force, established an Office of Corporate Social Responsibility and a vibrant grant-giving program. Dr. Landau directs the company to leverage its unique capabilities and expertise to develop a portfolio of investigational medicines to address important medical needs in multiple therapeutic areas including oncology and central nervous system disorders. Additionally, since 2022, Dr. Landau has overseen a vertically integrated generic medicine business, Rhodes Pharma, which has successfully introduced 6 generic new medicines since that time, in an effort to keep costs lower for patients and improve patient access.

As CEO, Dr. Landau is laser-focused on maintaining the engagement and retention of the company's many talented, dedicated employees. Notwithstanding the strong market for talent in the pharma sector, and despite the challenges of bankruptcy, truly extraordinary people choose Purdue as their employer because they believe in its future vision. Dr. Landau initiated an Advisory Committee on DEI to ensure employees experience a strong sense of inclusion and belonging. He increased the percentage of women on the Executive Committee to more than 60% since 2022, and he champions HR programming that prioritizes wellbeing and fosters a positive company culture. Employee surveys demonstrate his success, as 93% of employee respondents say they feel connected to their colleagues, engaged in the company's future purpose, and inspired to contribute actively.

Dr. Landau earned his B.S. in physiology and anatomy from Cornell University and his M.D. from Mount Sinai School of Medicine. He completed his Anesthesiology residency at Yale University with specialty training in chronic pain management, obstetric and peripheral vascular anesthesia. He is also a U.S. Army veteran, with 14 years of distinguished service as an officer throughout Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. He has advised and served on multiple boards for foundations and nonprofit organizations focusing on rare diseases such as Friedreich Ataxia, Adrenoleukodystrophy, and Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.

(ii) Marc L. Kesselman

Marc L. Kesselman was appointed General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Purdue Pharma in July 2018, with responsibility for Purdue's legal strategy, corporate governance, compliance and government affairs.

Prior to joining Purdue Pharma, Mr. Kesselman worked for YUM! Brands, Inc. where he served as Chief Legal Officer, Corporate Secretary & Chief Public Policy Officer. In that role, he oversaw all aspects of legal, compliance, regulatory, government affairs, and sustainability agendas for one of the world's largest restaurant companies, with more than 45,000 restaurants in 135 countries and territories. Mr. Kesselman joined YUM! from Dean Foods where he held a similar role. Previously, he was Senior Vice President & General Counsel at PepsiCo Americas Foods where he oversaw a wide variety of complex commercial, transactional, litigation, regulatory and government affairs issues relating to PepsiCo's food businesses in North and South America.

From 2006 through 2008, Mr. Kesselman served as General Counsel of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (the "USDA"), where he advised the Secretary of Agriculture and directed all legal activity for the USDA. From 2003 to 2006 he served as Deputy General Counsel in the White House Office of Management and Budget, where he handled a variety of regulatory, budgetary and legal policy matters. Mr. Kesselman also worked at the U.S. Department of Justice as Senior Counsel in the Office of Legal Policy and as a Trial Attorney in its Civil Division. His work there earned him the John Marshall Award, the Attorney General's highest recognition for trial of litigation.

Mr. Kesselman currently serves on the Board of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Litigation Center and the Penn Law Alumni Board of Managers. He also recently served as a public member of the Administrative Conference of the United States and a member of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity. He has previously served on the Board of the Dallas Symphony, on the Campaign Cabinet of the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas, and as Chair of the D.C. Bar Administrative Law Section. Mr. Kesselman holds a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, and a B.S. in government from Cornell University.

3. The Debtors' Employees

The Debtors maintain a workforce of dedicated employees that has enabled them to continue to achieve their high standards of performance, productivity, and safety. The Debtors employ approximately 439 people in active status,[47] which represents an approximately 40% reduction since the Petition Date and an approximately 76% reduction since 2017. These employees work in both full-time and part-time positions, including executives, business and operational managers, sales and marketing personnel, medical affairs personnel, research and development personnel, manufacturing technology operations personnel, human resource professionals, information technology specialists, administrative support staff and other personnel ("Employees").

B. Debtors' Organizational Structure

Purdue Pharma L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, is the Debtors' main operating entity. Purdue Pharma's general partner is PPI. Purdue Pharma also owns, directly or indirectly, 22 operating and nonoperating subsidiaries in the United States and the British Virgin Islands. A chart showing the organizational structure of the Debtors is attached hereto as Appendix B.

C. The Debtors' Prepetition Capital Structure

Unlike most debtors, the Debtors have no funded debt, no material past-due trade obligations, and no judgment creditors.

D. Summary of Events Leading to the Chapter 11 Filings

As noted above in Article I.B, the marketing and sale of OxyContin, Purdue Pharma's most prominent pain medication, and certain other opioid pain medications have been the target of the Pending Actions, which name the Defendant Debtors among other parties. These Pending Actions generally allege that the Defendant Debtors falsely and deceptively marketed OxyContin and other opioid pain medications. Many of the Pending Actions further allege that Defendant Debtors and certain related parties are liable for the national opioid crisis.

A common set of factual allegations forms the core of these actions: that the Defendant Debtors acted improperly in the marketing and sale of prescription opioid medications, including, principally, OxyContin. The specific causes of action asserted against the Defendant Debtors in the Pending Actions are predicated on both federal and state laws—with variations among the laws of each state. They include: (i) state and federal false claims acts; (ii) state consumer protection laws; (iii) statutory and common law public nuisance; (iv) fraud, fraudulent concealment, deceit, and other willful misconduct; (v) negligence, including negligent misrepresentation, negligence per se, and gross negligence; (vi) unjust enrichment; (vii) federal and state civil RICO laws, as well as civil conspiracy; (viii) state-controlled substances acts; (ix) intentional and constructive fraudulent conveyance or transfer; (x) strict products liability; and (xi) wrongful deaths and loss of consortium.

As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were party to approximately 2,600 Pending Actions, of which 2,200 were consolidated in a multidistrict litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. There were also hundreds of actions pending against the Debtors in state and territorial courts throughout the country. The state court actions included those asserted by Attorneys General of 46 states (which are not part of the Ohio MDL). Certain of the Defendant Debtors were also named in 13 actions in Canada (the "Canadian Actions"). The Canadian Actions were brought on behalf of both private individuals and governmental entities and raised claims predicated on similar allegations and causes of action as the Pending Actions in the United States.

In addition to the Pending Actions, as of the Petition Date, Purdue Pharma was responding to subpoenas and civil investigative demands issued by various components of the DOJ in connection with criminal and civil investigations of Purdue Pharma. The Debtors had been subject to investigation by the DOJ since at least June 2016. Specifically, PPLP received a subpoena from a United States Attorney's Office in the summer of 2016 seeking documents and information relating to the marketing of OxyContin and, beginning in December 2017, received additional subpoenas and other requests for documents and information from several other United States Attorney's Offices and components of the DOJ seeking various documents and other information related to topics including but not limited to PPLP's opioid medications, the Debtors' monitoring programs, payments to professionals, marketing practices, and other matters. In response to the various DOJ requests, to date PPLP has produced to the DOJ more than 13 million documents (totaling over 100 million pages), including more than 2.7 million documents (totaling more than 17 million pages) produced in direct response to the DOJ's requests and millions of additional documents previously produced in civil litigation, state government investigations or Purdue's bankruptcy proceeding and reproduced to the DOJ. PPLP also provided numerous presentations and submissions to the DOJ in cooperation with its investigations and in the course of plea and settlement negotiations.

The sheer number and scale of the Pending Actions were possibly without precedent. Purdue is a mid-sized pharmaceutical company that had approximately 700 employees as of the Petition Date. The lawsuits were spread among courts across the country, involve thousands of plaintiffs with differing interests, include scores of legal claims and theories of damages under multiple states' laws, and were at various procedural stages.

The onslaught of litigation posed a grave threat to the Debtors' continued viability. Litigation of thousands of Pending Actions to judgment and through appeals in the civil court system would have resulted only in the financial and operational destruction of the Debtors and the immense value they could otherwise provide, and the squandering of hundreds of millions of dollars on legal and other professional fees. Pre-bankruptcy, professionals' fees relating to litigation and government investigations were accruing at an average rate of over $2 million per week, and that was before a single trial against Purdue had commenced.

Moreover, the case-by-case mass tort litigation of the type the Defendant Debtors faced prior to the Petition Date in the civil tort system was neither an efficient nor an equitable way to resolve the asserted liability. Such litigation incentivized a multiplicity of "races to the courthouse" as various plaintiffs vied to be the first to trial. For example, several plaintiffs commenced administrative proceedings seeking dozens of trial days to bypass the normal court process and expedite the time by months or years to a final determination of their claims. This kaleidoscope of piecemeal litigation was all but guaranteed to continue to result in inconsistent outcomes and inequitable treatment, as well as unsustainable cost. Any judgments or settlements extracted in the process would, at best, potentially have benefited only those select few plaintiffs who happened to have been positioned at the beginning of the trial and judgment queue. And it would not have benefited even them, because defending approximately 2,600 lawsuits to conclusion would almost certainly have forced the Defendant Debtors to file for chapter 11 protection even had they suffered only a small number of significant adverse judgments at the trial level.

The Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases because chapter 11 was the only way to halt the destruction of value and runaway costs associated with the Pending Actions; centralize all of the claims against the Defendant Debtors; address the claims asserted against them efficiently; resolve the litigation rationally; and consummate a global resolution of the Pending Actions—all while conserving the assets of the Debtors' estates so that billions of dollars in value could be preserved for creditors.

E. Independence of Company from Sacklers

1. Independent Board

No member of the Sackler Families is currently a member of the Board or employed by the Debtors. The last member of the Sackler Families to serve on the Board resigned in January 2019. The current Board is composed of the following six directors (the "Directors") (a majority of whom have no prior connection to the Sackler Families):

(i) Robert S. "Steve" Miller (Chairman of the Board, appointed in July 2018)

Mr. Miller has a storied, nearly 50-year career in corporate restructuring, including the successful restructurings of Chrysler (during which he served as Vice Chairman and CFO), Delphi Corp. (during which he served as the Chairman and CEO), and American International Group, Inc., where he was Non-Executive Chairman. He authored the 2008 book, The Turnaround Kid. He has served on more than a dozen corporate boards including U.S. Bank, United Airlines and Dow DuPont.

(ii) Kenneth Buckfire (At-Large Director, appointed in May 2019)

Kenneth A. Buckfire is President of Miller Buckfire & Co., LLC and a Vice-Chairman of Stifel Financial Corporation's Institutional Banking Group. He specializes in the restructuring and refinancing of highly leveraged companies in the energy, telecommunications, consumer products, technology and information services industries. He has won many awards for leading major restructurings such as the City of Detroit, Calpine and General Growth Properties, and for his innovations in the restructuring field. Prior to co-founding Miller Buckfire in 2002, he was a Managing Director and Co-Head of the Financial Restructuring Group of Wasserstein Perella & Co. He has been a director and co-founder of many public and private companies, and has served as a trustee of several philanthropic and education institutions. He is a Visiting Professor at the Columbia Business School.

Mr. Buckfire received his Bachelor's degree in economics and philosophy from the University of Michigan (1980) and his MBA from Columbia University (1987).

(iii) John S. Dubel (At-Large Director, appointed in July 2019)

John S. Dubel is the Chief Executive Officer of Dubel & Associates, LLC, a provider of restructuring and turnaround services to underperforming companies, which he founded in 1999. He has over 40 years of experience in Board representation, turnaround management, crisis management, operational restructurings and divestments with respect to distressed companies. Over the course of his career, John has served as an independent board member for numerous companies. In addition, he has served as the Chief Executive Officer of SunEdison, a renewable energy development company, Chief Executive Officer of Financial Guaranty Insurance Company (FGIC), a monoline insurance company, among others, and as a partner in Gradient Partners, L.P., a single-strategy distressed hedge fund.

Mr. Dubel is a member of the Turnaround Management Association and the American Bankruptcy Institute. Mr. Dubel received a Bachelor in Business Administration degree from the College of William and Mary.

(iv) Michael Cola (Class A Director, appointed in February 2019; At-Large Director, appointed in July 2019)

Michael Cola is the former CEO of Avalo Therapeutics Inc (formerly Cerecor). He was appointed CEO in February 2020 in connection with the merger of Cerecor Inc. with Aevi Genomic Medicine, where he served as the President and CEO since September 2013. Prior to joining Aevi Genomic Medicine, Mr. Cola served as President of Specialty Pharmaceuticals at Shire plc, a global specialty pharmaceutical company, from 2007 until April 2012. He joined Shire in 2005 as EVP of Global Therapeutic Business Units and Portfolio Management. Prior to joining Shire, he was with Safeguard Scientifics, Inc., a growth capital provider to life sciences and technology companies, where he served as President of the Life Sciences Group. While at Safeguard, Mr. Cola served as Chairman and CEO of Clarient, Inc., a cancer diagnostics company subsequently acquired by GE Healthcare, and as Chairman of Laureate Pharma, Inc. Prior to Safeguard Scientifics, Mr. Cola held senior positions in product development and commercialization at Merck, Astra Merck, a pharmaceutical company, and at Astra Zeneca, a global biopharmaceutical company. Mr. Cola received a B.A. in biology and physics from Ursinus College and an M.S. in biomedical science from Drexel University. He serves on the Board of Directors of Sage Therapeutics and Phathom Pharmaceuticals, and currently serves as vice Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia.

(v) Anthony Roncalli (Class B Director, appointed in December 2018)

Anthony Roncalli is an attorney and former partner at Norton Rose Fulbright LLP. Mr. Roncalli has extensive experience advising the Debtors, IACs, and other pharmaceutical and other companies on corporate governance matters and complex tax and structure planning. Mr. Roncalli also has extensive pharmaceutical transaction experience including licensing, asset acquisition and divestiture transactions and complex pharmaceutical research, development and collaboration transactions. Mr. Roncalli received his Bachelor's degree from Georgetown University and his J.D. from Boston College Law School.

(vi) Cecil Pickett, Ph.D. (Class A Director, appointed in January 2010)

Dr. Cecil B. Pickett served as the President of Research and Development at Biogen and a member of the Board of Directors until his retirement in 2009. Dr. Pickett earned his B.S. in biology from California State University at Hayward and his Ph.D. in cell biology from University of California, Los Angeles. He previously served as Senior Vice President and President of Schering-Plough Research Institute, the pharmaceutical research arm of Schering-Plough Corporation. Dr. Pickett came to Schering-Plough Research Institute from Merck Research Laboratories, Montreal, Canada, and West Point, Pa., where he served as Senior Vice President of Basic Research. During his 15 years at Merck & Co., Dr. Pickett held various positions of increasing responsibility, including Research Fellow, Biochemical Regulation; Associate Director, Department of Molecular Pharmacology and Biochemistry; Director, Department of Molecular Pharmacology and Biochemistry; Executive Director of Research at the Merck Frosst Center for Therapeutic Research, Montreal; and Vice President of the center. Dr. Pickett also served as a member of the Zimmer Biomet Board of Directors from 2008 through 2018. Dr. Pickett previously served as a member of the Board of Directors of Yumanity Therapeutics, Inc. until 2020.

Dr. Pickett is an expert in drug discovery and development. During his career, he has overseen all aspects of the internal research and collaboration with partners aimed at developing advanced drug therapies and has played an integral role in bringing several large and small molecule candidates into clinical development.

Dr. Pickett has published extensively in leading research journals and has been a frequent speaker at scientific symposia and conferences. He has received several major academic awards, appointments and fellowships and has served on a number of scientific committees and editorial boards of research journals and organizations. His awards and honors include the UCLA Alumni Association Award for Scholarly Achievement and Academic Distinction; the first Robert A. Scala Award and Lectureship in Toxicology of Rutgers University and the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey; and the CIIT Centers for Health Research Founders' Award. Dr. Pickett served as a member of the FDA Science Board, the Advisory Committee to the Director of the National Institutes of Health and the National Cancer Policy Board of the Institute of Medicine. He was elected to the National Academy of Medicine in 1993 and has been a member of the American Society for Cell Biology, American Society of Biochemistry & Molecular Biology, American Association for Cancer Research, and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dr. Pickett previously served on the Boards of the following IACs: MNP Consulting Limited (Delaware); Mundipharma Verwaltungsgesellschaft mbH (Germany); and Napp Pharmaceutical Holdings Ltd. (United Kingdom). He resigned from each of these positions on or prior to August 9, 2018.

2. Formation of the Special Committee

Purdue Pharma's governance documents irrevocably granted an independent Special Committee of the Board of Directors exclusive authority over the prosecution, defense, and settlement of any causes of action Purdue Pharma may assert against its shareholders as well as members of the Sackler Families and their affiliates.

On May 14, 2019, PPI's shareholders adopted an Amended and Restated Shareholders' Agreement (the "Shareholders' Agreement") which, among things, established a "Transaction Committee," and on the same date, PPI filed a corresponding Restated Certificate of Incorporation ("Restated Certificate of Incorporation"). The Restated Certificate of Incorporation provided that the Transaction Committee would be composed of the independent Chairman of the Board, who would chair the committee, and such other Directors appointed by a majority of the Board, none of whom could be a member of the Sackler Families. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation gave the Transaction Committee exclusive authority over "all dividends by the Corporation to its Shareholders and all distributions by PPLP to its general and/or limited partners." The Restated Certificate of Incorporation also gave the Transaction Committee authority over any "Affiliate Transaction," defined as including transactions between PPI, PPLP, or PPLP's subsidiaries, on the one hand, and any Class A Shareholder, any Class B Shareholder, any person specified by the Class A or B Shareholders, and any affiliate (other than PPI, PPLP or PPLP's subsidiaries), on the other hand.

On September 3, 2019, PPI's shareholders agreed to an amendment of the Shareholders' Agreement that, among other things, renamed the Transaction Committee the "Special Committee," and on the same date, PPI filed a Certificate of Amendment to its Restated Certificate of Incorporation ("A&R Certificate of Incorporation"). The A&R Certificate of Incorporation gave the Special Committee the same authorities as had been granted to the Transaction Committee and, in addition, authority over "Affiliate Litigation," defined as "the prosecution, defense or settlement of any claim or litigation" between the Debtors and the Sackler Families, trusts established by or for the benefit of members of the Sackler Families, and other Sackler-related entities, including the IACs (collectively, the "Sackler Entities"). The A&R Certificate of Incorporation made clear that "no dividend, distribution, Affiliate Transaction or Affiliate Litigation shall take place without the approval of the Special Committee." The A&R Certificate of Incorporation did not modify the composition of the Special Committee, except to allow any

At-Large Director to serve as chair of the Special Committee, and still prohibited any member of the Sackler Families from serving on it.[48]

Chairman Miller and At-Large Directors Buckfire, Cola and Dubel are the members of the Special Committee. Mr. Dubel serves as Chairman of the Committee. Each member of the Special Committee has decades of restructuring and/or corporate governance expertise, including, in the case of Mr. Cola, in the pharmaceutical and life sciences industries. Their resumes can be found above, see supra Article II.E. None of the Directors serving on the Special Committee has any prior relationship with either of the Sackler Families.

To further safeguard their independence, the members of the Special Committee are protected against removal by the shareholders. A letter agreement executed by PPI's shareholders, dated November 6, 2019 ("2019 Letter Agreement"), irrevocably delegated to the General Counsel of PPI, as proxy for PPI's shareholders, several of the shareholders' rights, including the ability to appoint and remove the Chairman of the Board and the At-Large Directors, all of whom serve on the Special Committee. The 2019 Letter Agreement directs the General Counsel of PPI to act in accordance with the vote of two-thirds of the Directors in Office of PPI and, in the case of any decision to remove any Director from the Board, to disregard the vote of any affected Director.

3. Other Governance Improvements

In addition to adding the independent Directors to the Board and forming the Special Committee (as described above), the Debtors made other significant changes with the goal of allowing the Debtors to operate independently before commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases. All general partnership relationships between Debtor and non-Debtor entities were terminated prior to the Petition Date. In particular, PPI was removed from its role as the general partner of certain non-Debtor entities and replaced certain non-Debtor entities as the general partner of Debtor entities Purdue Pharmaceutical Products L.P. (formerly known as Avrio Health L.P.) and Purdue Neuroscience Company. As a result, all of PPLP's subsidiaries were directly or indirectly effectively managed by PPI as of the Petition Date and during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. Officers or employees of PPLP that were simultaneously directors, officers or employees of IACs resigned from such roles at either such IACs or PPLP. As a result, no current officer or employee of PPLP was director, officer or employee of any IAC on the Petition Date or during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, under the supervision of the Special Committee, the Debtors reviewed agreements between the Debtors and the IACs and terminated, amended or documented such agreements as appropriate.

4. Cessation of Cash Distributions

All cash distributions to the Sackler Families ceased in 2017. In 2017, Purdue Pharma lent $313 million to its parent, Pharmaceutical Research Associates L.P. ("PRA"), which was repaid prior to the Petition Date. A loan of $1.7 million by Purdue Pharma to an IAC was also repaid in [48] As defined in the A&R Certificate of Incorporation, At-Large Directors are those elected jointly by the Class A Shareholders and the Class B Shareholders. Class A Directors are those elected by the Class A Shareholders and Class B Directors are those elected by the Class B Shareholders.

2018. There are no remaining outstanding loans from Purdue Pharma to any of the IACs. Reimbursement of the officer/director legal fees owed to members of the Sackler Families ceased as of March 1, 2019, and certain expenses of members of the Sackler Families over the last 10 years have been repaid.

At the direction of the Special Committee and Davis Polk, AlixPartners LLP ("AlixPartners") (with the support of Davis Polk and Bates White LLC ("Bates White")) prepared (i) a 355-page report (the "Cash Transfers of Value Report") setting forth the results of a comprehensive cash transfers of value analysis, based on the identification and quantification of transfers of value on or after January 1, 2008 made as cash distributions, compensation, legal expenses and benefits provided to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families; and (ii) a 400-page report (the "Intercompany and Non-Cash Transfers Analysis") setting forth the results of a comprehensive intercompany and non-cash transfer analysis based on the identification and quantification of significant transfers of value on or after January 1, 2008 made as non-cash transfers and cash payments for goods, services, and other consideration among Purdue, PRA, the IACs, and Rhodes. The Cash Transfers of Value Report exhaustively details the $10.4 billion of cash distributions made to or for the benefit for the shareholders from January 1, 2008 to September 30, 2019 (in particular, $4.1 billion in U.S. partner cash distributions, $1.5 billion in distributions for the benefit of ex-US IACs, and $4.7 billion in tax distributions). The Intercompany and Non-Cash Transfers Analysis identifies and describes 27 categories of dealings between Debtor entities and the IACs, including terms of licenses for various drugs sold by the Debtor entities and IACs, shared R&D, manufacturing and administrative services, and purchases of finished products and active pharmaceutical ingredients, and details 10 non-cash distributions of assets from Purdue Pharma to PRA, which include distributions of equity interests in other IACs and third-party pharmaceutical companies and of certain intellectual property rights.

Together, these two massively detailed reports provide a complete and total catalog of the financial and contractual connections between the Debtors and the Sackler Families dating back more than a decade. These two reports exemplify the Debtors' extraordinary transparency and commitment to providing creditors and other parties-in-interest with the information necessary to evaluate potential claims and progress towards a settlement.

On December 16, 2019, the Debtors filed the Cash Transfers of Value Report with the Bankruptcy Court [D.I. 654]. On May 29, 2020, the Debtors filed the Intercompany and Non-Cash Transfers Analysis with the Bankruptcy Court [D.I. 1194].

ARTICLE III

THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

On the Petition Date, each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Chapter 11 Cases are being jointly administered under the caption In re Purdue Pharma L.P., Case No. 19-23649. The Debtors have continued in possession of their property and have continued to operate and manage their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

A. First-Day Motions

On the Petition Date, the Debtors filed a number of "first-day" motions and applications seeking various relief from the Bankruptcy Court and authorizing the Debtors to maintain their operations in the ordinary course (collectively, the "First-Day Motions"). This relief was designed to ensure a seamless transition between the Debtors' prepetition and postpetition business operations, facilitate a smooth transition into chapter 11, maximize the value of the Debtors' Estate, and minimize the effects of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. A description of the First-Day Motions is set forth in the Declaration of Jon Lowne in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [D.I. 3].

B. Appointment of Statutory Committee

On September 27, 2019, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). The Creditors' Committee, as originally constituted, comprised the following entities and persons: (i) Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association; (ii) CVS Caremark Part D Services, L.L.C. and CaremarkPCS Health, L.L.C.; (iii) Ryan Hampton; (iv) Cheryl Juaire; (v) LTS Lohmann Therapy Systems, Corporation; (vi) Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation; (vii) Walter Lee Salmons; (viii) Kara Trainor; and (ix) West Boca Medical Center. See Notice of Appointment of Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [D.I. 131].

On October 21, 2019, the Creditors' Committee granted a request by the MSGE[49] to join the Creditors' Committee in an ex officio capacity, and the MSGE designated Cameron County, Texas to act as an ex officio member.

On October 9, 2019, the Native American Tribes filed a motion requesting entry of an order directing the U.S. Trustee to appoint an official committee of Native American affiliated creditors comprising Native American tribes, tribal members and/or support organizations, health organizations or clinics that serve Native American communities. See Motion Seeking Appointment of an Official Committee of Native American and Native American Affiliated Creditors [D.I. 276]. On November 4, 2019, the Creditors' Committee invited the Native American Tribes to serve as an ex officio member of the Creditors' Committee. On November 6, 2019, the Native American tribes appointed the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes to serve as an ex officio member of the Creditors' Committee and agreed to withdraw their motion.

On June 18, 2020, the Creditors' Committee invited certain public school districts (the "Public School Districts") to serve as an ex officio member of the Creditors' Committee. The Public School Districts accepted this invitation on June 19, 2020 and appointed Thornton Township High School District 205 to serve as an ex officio member of the Creditors' Committee.

C. Filing of Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs

On September 16, 2019, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for an Order Extending the Time to File Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, Schedules of Current Income and Expenditures, [49] The Rule 2019 Statement describing the composition of the MSGE is filed at D.I. 1794.

Schedules of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, and Statements of Financial Affairs [D.I. 13] (the "Extension Motion"). On September 18, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Extension Motion [D.I. 69]. On October 29, 2019, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs [D.I. 357–405].

D. Professional Advisors

The Debtors' primary professional advisors include the following:

- On September 16, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application for an Order Appointing Prime Clerk LLC as Claims and Noticing Agent for the Debtors [D.I. 4] (the "Prime Clerk 156(c) Retention Application"). On September 18, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Prime Clerk 156(c) Retention Application [D.I. 60]. On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed Debtors' Application for an Order Authorizing Employment and Retention of Prime Clerk LLC as Administrative Advisor Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 433] (the "Prime Clerk Retention Application"). On November 21, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Prime Clerk Retention Application [D.I. 531].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Employ and Retain Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP as Attorneys for the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 419] (the "Davis Polk Retention Application"). On November 25, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Davis Polk Retention Application [D.I. 542].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Employ Dechert LLP as Special Counsel for the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 424] (the "Dechert Retention Application"). On November 21, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Dechert Retention Application [D.I. 525].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ King & Spalding LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 427] (the "King & Spalding Retention Application"). On November 25, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the King & Spalding Retention Application [D.I. 543].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 428] (the "WilmerHale Retention Application"). On November 25, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the WilmerHale Retention Application [D.I. 544].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Application an Order Authorizing the Debtors to Retain and Employ AlixPartners, LLP as Financial Advisor Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 429] (the "AlixPartners Retention Application"). On November 21, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the AlixPartners Retention Application [D.I. 528].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Application to Employ PJT Partners LP as Investment Banker Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 430] (the "PJT Retention Application"). On December 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Supplemental Declaration of Timothy Coleman in Support of the Debtors' Application to Employ PJT Partners LP as Investment Banker Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 590]. On January 9, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the PJT Retention Application [D.I. 728].

- On November 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Application to Employ Ernst & Young as its Auditor, Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 432] (the "EY Retention Application"). On December 23, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the EY Retention Application [D.I. 698]. On August 21, 2020, the Debtors filed the Notice of Expansion of Scope of Services to be Provided Pursuant to the Ernst & Young Retention Order [D.I. 1598]. On September 22, 2020, the Debtors filed the Second Notice of Expansion of Scope of Services to be Provided Pursuant to the Ernst & Young Retention Order [D.I. 1713]. On November 25, 2020, the Debtors filed the Third Notice of Expansion of Scope of Services to be Provided Pursuant to the Ernst & Young Retention Order [D.I. 2035].

- On November 6, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 438] (the "Skadden Retention Application"). On November 25, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Skadden Retention Application [D.I. 545].

- On December 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of the Debtors for an Order Authorizing Them to Retain and Employ Jones Day as Special Counsel, Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 592] (the "Jones Day Retention Application"). On December 20, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Jones Day Retention Application [D.I. 690].

- On December 5, 2019, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [D.I. 593] (the "Arnold & Porter Retention Application"). On December 20, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Arnold & Porter Retention Application [D.I. 691].

- On February 7, 2020, the Debtors filed the Application for Order Authorizing Employment and Retention of KPMG LLP as Tax Consultants to the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Nunc Pro Tunc to December 23, 2019 [D.I. 815] (the "KPMG Retention Application"). On February 24, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the KPMG Retention Application [D.I. 867].

- On May 13, 2020, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ Cornerstone Research as Consultants to the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to January 14, 2020 [D.I. 1150] (the "Cornerstone Retention Application"). On June 11, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Cornerstone Retention Application [D.I. 1255].

- On April 13, 2021, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ Grant Thornton LLP as Tax Structuring Consultants to the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to January 20, 2021 [D.I. 2636] (the "Grant Thornton Retention Application"). On April 28, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Grant Thornton Retention Application [D.I. 2760]. The Bankruptcy Court approved procedures for the Debtors to retain and employ certain professionals utilized by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order entered on November 26, 2019 [D.I. 548].

- On August 13, 2021, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Application for an Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327(a) and 328 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014(a) Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Sullivan & Worcester LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession [D.I. 3561] (the "Sullivan & Worcester Retention Application"). On September 2, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Sullivan & Worcester Retention Application [D.I. 3728].

- On April 1, 2022, the Debtors filed the Application of Debtors for Authority to Retain and Employ Latham & Watkins LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors Effective as of January 13, 2022 [D.I. 4627] (the "Latham & Watkins Retention Application"). On April 18, 2022, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Latham & Watkins Retention Application [D.I. 4670].

- On April 19, 2022, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Application for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Section 327(e) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code Authorizing the Retention and Employment of Reed Smith LLP as Special Insurance Counsel, Nunc Pro Tunc to March 1, 2022 [D.I. 4674] (the "Reed Smith Retention Application"). On May 18, 2022, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Reed Smith Retention Application [D.I. 4850].

- On April 3, 2024, the Debtors filed the Application of the Debtors to Retain and Employ BDO USA, P.C. as Accountant to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession Pursuant to Sections 327(a), 328(a), and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016, and Local Rules 2014-1 and 2016-1, Effective as of March 13, 2024 [D.I. 6290] (the "BDO Retention Application"). On April 24, 2024, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the BDO Retention Application [D.I. 6324].

On April 29, 2021, the United States Trustee filed the Motion of United States Trustee Pursuant to sections 105(a), 327, 328, and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for Entry of an Order Approving (1) Settlement Agreement with Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP, Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP, and Dechert LLP and (2) Certain Releases by the Debtors [D.I. 2763] (the "Settlement Motion"). As set forth in the Settlement Motion, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP; Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP; and Dechert LLP (collectively, the "Firms") did not disclose a written joint defense and common interest agreement that they each entered into prepetition on behalf of the Debtors with various other parties, including members of the Sackler families, as a "connection" at the time of filing of their respective retention applications. The United States Trustee and the Firms disagree about whether the common interest agreement is a "connection" that is required to be disclosed. The Motion seeks approval of a settlement agreement between the United States Trustee and the Firms under which the Firms agree to supplement their retention applications to reflect any common interest or joint defense agreement that the Firms entered into on behalf of Debtors with any party in interest identified in the most recent list provided by Debtors' bankruptcy counsel and the Firms will collectively reduce their pending or future fee applications or monthly fee statements, as applicable, by $1.0 million in the aggregate. The United States Trustee and the Debtors and their estates will release the Firms from all claims relating to alleged disclosure failures concerning common interest agreements. On May 20, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Settlement Motion [D.I. 2890].

E. CCAA Proceedings

On September 19, 2019, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada (the "Canadian Court") entered the Initial Recognition Order (Foreign Main Proceeding) pursuant to Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended, that, among other things, recognized the Chapter 11 Cases as foreign main proceedings (Court File No. CV-19-627656-00CL) (the "CCAA Proceedings").

The orders issued by the Canadian Court, among other things, (i) recognized the Chapter 11 Cases as "foreign main proceedings" under the CCAA; (ii) stayed all proceedings in Canada currently under way against or in respect of any of the Debtors or affecting their business or property (the "Stay"); (iii) appointed Ernst & Young Inc. as information officer to report to the Canadian Court, creditors and other stakeholders in Canada on the status of the Chapter 11 Proceedings; and (iv) recognized certain orders entered in the Chapter 11 Cases to permit the Chapter 11 Debtors to continue operating their respective businesses during the course of the Chapter 11 Proceedings.

On December 30, 2019, the Canadian Court entered the Related Party Stay Order in the CCAA Proceedings (the "Related Party Stay") which recognized the Injunction Order in Canada and stayed all opioid-related proceedings against certain related persons, US affiliated entities, and Canadian affiliated entities of the Debtors, including Purdue Pharma Inc., Purdue Frederick Inc., and Purdue Pharma (collectively, "Purdue Canada").[50]

On December 1, 2021, PPLP filed a motion seeking recognition of the September 2021 Confirmation Order in the CCAA Proceedings following issuance by the Bankruptcy Court. The recognition motion was adjourned pending the appeal of the September 2021 Confirmation Order to the District Court and subsequently abandoned following the Harrington Decision.

[50] As used in this sentence, "Purdue Pharma Inc." and "Purdue Pharma" refer to Canadian entities that are IACs and not the Debtor entities PPI or PPLP. Purdue Canada generally consists of IACs which are non-debtor entities.

The Stay and Related Party Stay in the CCAA Proceedings has been lifted for certain limited purposes as follows:

- On September 21, 2021, the Canadian Court, with the consent of PPLP, (i) lifted the Related Party Stay to permit a private claimant plaintiff in a putative class action before the Superior Court of Quebec to proceed with an application for authorization and/or certification as against Purdue Canada; and (ii) lifted the Stay and Related Party Stay to permit the plaintiff in a Saskatchewan patient class action to continue its application for settlement approval of the Canadian Patient Class Action Settlement (defined below) before the Court of King's Bench of Saskatchewan;

- On June 1, 2022, the Canadian Court, with the consent of PPLP, lifted the Related Party Stay against Purdue Canada to permit a private claimant plaintiff in a putative class action before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice to proceed with a motion for certification against Purdue Canada;

- On November 15, 2022, the Canadian Court, with the consent of PPLP, lifted the Related Party Stay to allow an application for approval of the Canadian Government Settlement (defined below) to proceed before the British Columbia Supreme Court; and

- On January 6, 2023, the Canadian Court, with the consent of PPLP, lifted the Related Party Stay to permit certain first nations and municipalities as plaintiffs in putative class actions to (i) proceed with motions for certification against Purdue Canada before the Court of King's Bench of Saskatchewan and the Court of King's Bench of Alberta; and (ii) issue claims against certain affiliates of PPLP's owners in respect of claims related to opioid-related activities.

1. The Canadian Settlements

(i) The Canadian Patient Class Action Settlement

Pursuant to a settlement agreement dated March 8, 2017, PPLP, certain other US affiliates, and Purdue Canada agreed to settle ten class actions commenced in nine Canadian provinces in exchange for an all-inclusive settlement amount of CAD $19 million (later increased to CAD $20 million) (the "Canadian Patient Class Action Settlement"). The class actions were collectively brought on behalf of proposed classes of Canadians who were prescribed and had used OxyContin or OxyNeo since 1995, and who allegedly became addicted or otherwise suffered damages as a result of an alleged conspiracy by the defendants to market OxyContin and OxyNeo as less addictive than known to the defendants, and for a wider range of patients than approved by Health Canada.

The Canadian Patient Class Action Settlement was conditional on settlement approval orders being issued by the Ontario, Nova Scotia, Quebec and Saskatchewan courts. The Canadian Patient Class Action Settlement was approved by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on July 20, 2017, the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia on August 2, 2017, and the Superior Court of Quebec on August 21, 2017. The Canadian Patient Class Action Settlement was approved by the Court of King's Bench of Saskatchewan on September 23, 2022 and the class actions were subsequently dismissed on consent pursuant to the terms of the Settlement.

(ii) The Canadian Government Settlement

On May 17, 2022, Purdue Canada and 14 federal, provincial, and territorial governments in Canada (collectively, the "Canadian Governments") entered into an agreement to settle a proposed class action commenced in British Columbia against Purdue Canada and numerous manufacturers and distributors of opioids (including PPLP and the Purdue Frederick Company Inc.) seeking recovery of healthcare costs allegedly resulting from wrongful conduct in relation to the opioid crisis (the "Canadian Government Settlement"). Pursuant to the Canadian Government Settlement, Purdue Canada will pay CAD $150 million over seven years, protected by Purdue Canada's agreement to grant the class a security interest over its personal and real property.

The application for settlement approval was heard on December 15 and 16, 2022 before the British Columbia Supreme Court. Lac La Ronge Indian Band and another non-party applied for leave to intervene and sought to oppose the Canadian Government Settlement, claiming, among other things, that the Canadian Government Settlement, and the security interest proposed, was unfair and unreasonable and that there was a "legitimate concern as to whether any funds would remain" for other Canadian unsecured creditors of Purdue Canada following implementation of the Settlement.

The British Columbia Supreme Court denied the applications to intervene, noting that they were not creditors of Purdue Canada, and approved the Canadian Government Settlement. Lac La Ronge appealed the Court's orders to the British Columbia Court of Appeal and the Canadian Governments brought a motion to quash the appeals, which motion was granted on February 22, 2024.

The Peter Ballantyne Cree Nation, Lac La Ronge Indian Band, the City of Grand Prairie and the Corporation of the City of Brantford (collectively, the "Objecting Canadian First Nations and Municipalities") subsequently filed a motion in the CCAA Proceedings seeking to stay the implementation of the Canadian Government Settlement until Purdue Canada demonstrated that it was not insolvent and that the implementation of the Canadian Government Settlement was not unlawful, preferential or an abuse of process.

In reasons for decision dated June 6, 2024, the Canadian Court dismissed the Objecting Canadian First Nations and Municipalities' motion finding that "Purdue Canada is solvent and the Settlement was structured with the objective of Purdue Canada remaining a going concern." The Objecting Canadian First Nations and Municipalities subsequently filed a Notice of Motion for Leave to Appeal the decision of the Canadian Court to the Court of Appeal for Ontario. On October 1, 2024, the Notice of Motion for Leave to Appeal was dismissed for delay.

The Canadian Government Settlement became effective as of May 22, 2024 and Purdue Canada made the initial payment under the agreement on June 21, 2024.

F. Preliminary Injunction and Voluntary Injunction

On September 18, 2019, the Debtors filed the Motion for a Preliminary Injunction [Adv. Proc. No. 19-08289, D.I. 2, 3] (the "Preliminary Injunction Motion") for a preliminary injunction (the "Preliminary Injunction") to stay active litigation against the Debtors, as well as against their current and former owners (including any trusts and their respective trustees and beneficiaries), officers, directors, employees, and associated entities, arising out of the Debtors' manufacture, distribution, and sale of prescription opioid medications.

The Preliminary Injunction Motion also sought entry of a voluntary injunction against the Debtors, enjoining the Debtors from, among other things, promoting opioid Products and providing financial support to third parties for the purpose of promoting opioids or opioid Products, subject to enforcement by the Bankruptcy Court (the "Voluntary Injunction"). The Debtors requested that the unprecedented Voluntary Injunction be entered to subject themselves to the coercive power of the Court with respect to the commitments set forth therein, to make clear that they are not in any way using chapter 11 as an improper shield for conduct challenged in the Pending Actions, and to demonstrate that they are committed to safely and responsibly maintaining the continuity of supply of the Debtors' FDA-approved medications and fully complying with all federal and state laws and regulations governing pharmaceutical companies.

On October 11, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court held an evidentiary hearing on the Debtors' Preliminary Injunction Motion. The Preliminary Injunction Motion was supported by certain estate stakeholders, including the Creditors' Committee and Ad Hoc Committee, and was opposed by the NCSG and other objectors. On October 11, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court issued an oral ruling entering the Preliminary Injunction, including the Voluntary Injunction, on an interim basis through and including November 6, 2019. See Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) Granting, in part, Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, Purdue Pharma L.P. v. Commonw. of Mass., Adv. Pro. No. 19-08289 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 11, 2019) [D.I. 82]. On November 6, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court granted the Preliminary Injunction, including the Voluntary Injunction, through April 8, 2020, again over the objection of the NCSG and other objectors, including certain Tennessee plaintiffs (the "Tennessee Plaintiffs"). See Second Amended Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) Granting Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, *Purdue Pharma L.P. v. The Voluntary Injunction, the terms of which reflect extensive discussions with and input from parties-in-interest including the NCSG, enjoins the Debtors from, among other things: (i) engaging in the promotion of opioids or opioid Products to prescribers and patients, including through (a) employing sales representatives to promote opioids or opioid Products, or (b) supporting (financially, in kind or by distributing) any advertising that promotes opioid or opioid Products, whether print or online; (ii) compensating (x) sales or marketing employees through agreements or packages tied to sales volume, sales goals, or sales quotas for opioid Products, or (y) any person for the prescribing, sale, use, or distribution of opioid Products (except through rebates, chargebacks, and/or savings cards); and (iii) sponsoring or supporting (financially or in kind) any medical society or patient advocacy group for the purpose of promoting opioid Products. There are exceptions in the Voluntary Injunction to permit Debtors, among other things, to maintain a corporate website and to continue to provide information required by law, scientific and medical information, and information on the FDA-approved labeling.

G. Appointment of Monitor

At the Bankruptcy Court's suggestion, the Debtors agreed to retain a monitor, selected in consultation with the Creditors' Committee, the NCSG, and the Ad Hoc Committee, to report on the Debtors' compliance with the terms of the Voluntary Injunction every 90 days. On February [52] Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, the NCSG (as listed on the October 11, 2019 Verified Statement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 filed under Docket No. 296 of Case No. 19-23649), the AHC and each of its members (as listed on the October 10, 2019 Verified Statement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 filed under Docket No. 279 of Case No. 19-23649), and the MSGE and each of its members (as listed on the October 30, 2019 Verified Statement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 filed under Docket No. 409 of Case No. 19-23649) (collectively, the "Voluntarily Bound Parties") have each consented and agreed to continue to abide by the terms of the Seventeenth Amended Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) Granting Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, without the need to have any order entered against them.

21, 2020, the Debtors retained Secretary Thomas J. Vilsack, former United States Secretary of Agriculture and former Governor of Iowa, to serve as the monitor ("Monitor").

On May 20, 2020, the Monitor filed the Initial Monitor Report [D.I. 1175] (the "Initial Monitor Report") with the Bankruptcy Court, describing actions taken by the Monitor to date to determine compliance with the terms and conditions of the Voluntary Injunction and providing a set of recommendations. On August 18, 2020, the Monitor filed the Second Monitor Report [D.I. 1584] (the "Second Monitor Report") with the Bankruptcy Court, describing the steps taken since the Initial Monitor Report to determine compliance with the terms and conditions of the Voluntary Injunction, including retention of expert services, and providing a set of further recommendations. On November 16, 2020, the Monitor filed the Third Monitor Report [D.I. 1956] (the "Third Monitor Report") with the Bankruptcy Court, describing the steps taken since the Second Monitor Report to determine compliance with the terms and conditions of the Voluntary Injunction and providing a set of further recommendations. On February 3, 2021, the Monitor filed the Fourth and Final Monitor Report [D.I. 2350] (the "Fourth Monitor Report") describing the steps taken since the Third Monitor Report to determine compliance with the terms and conditions of the Voluntary Injunction and providing a set of further recommendations. In each of these four reports, the Monitor stated that the Debtors had been "responsive and cooperative" with the Monitor and that they had made "good faith efforts to comply with the terms and conditions of the Voluntary Injunction."

On February 3, 2021, pursuant to the Fourth Monitor Report, Secretary Vilsack formally requested in the Fourth Monitor Report to be discharged of his duties as Monitor. On February 18, 2021, the Debtors retained Stephen Bullock, former Montana Governor and former Montana Attorney General, to replace Secretary Vilsack as Monitor.

On May 20, 2021, the Monitor (now Stephen Bullock) filed the Fifth Monitor Report [D.I. 2891]. On August 19, 2021, the Monitor filed the Sixth Monitor's Report [D.I. 3613]. On November 22, 2021, the Monitor filed the Seventh Monitor's Report [D.I. 4166]. On February 22, 2022, the Monitor filed the Eighth Monitor Report [D.I. 4380]. On May 20, 2022, the Monitor filed the Ninth Monitor Report [D.I. 4856]. On June 29, 2022, the Monitor filed the Tenth Monitor Report [D.I. 4928]. On August 22, 2022, the Monitor filed the Eleventh Monitor Report [D.I. 5031]. On November 14, 2022, the Monitor filed the Twelfth Monitor Report [D.I. 5235]. On February 20, 2023, the Monitor filed the Thirteenth Monitor Report [D.I. 5454]. On May 22, 2023, the Monitor filed the Fourteenth Monitor Report [D.I. 5624]. On August 18, 2023, the Monitor filed the Fifteenth Monitor Report [D.I. 5823]. On November 20, 2023, the Monitor filed the Sixteenth Monitor Report [D.I. 6023]. On February 20, 2024, the Monitor filed the Seventeenth Monitor Report [D.I. 6221]. On May 17, 2024, the Monitor filed the Eighteenth Monitor Report [D.I. 6362]. On August 16, 2024, the Monitor filed the Nineteenth Monitor Report [D.I. 6621]. On November 15, 2024, the Monitor filed the Twentieth Monitor Report [D.I. 6922]. On February 13, 2025, the Monitor filed the Twenty-First Monitor Report [D.I. 7202]. In each of these reports, the Monitor stated that the Debtors had been "responsive" with the Monitor and "appear to be making a good-faith effort to comply with the terms and conditions of the Injunction."

H. Appointment of Fee Examiner

On April 8, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing Appointment of Independent Fee Examiner Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) and Modifying Interim Compensation Procedures for Certain Professionals Employed Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327 [D.I. 1023], appointing David M. Klauder as the fee examiner in these Chapter 11 Cases.

I. Emergency Relief Fund Negotiations

Soon after the Petition Date, negotiations began between the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the AHC, the NCSG, the MSGE and various other stakeholders regarding a proposal to dedicate approximately $200 million of the Debtors' cash on hand to establish an emergency relief fund (the "ERF" or the "Emergency Relief Fund") during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases to provide emergency relief and assistance to respond to the opioid crisis. The Debtors supported the proposal to establish the ERF and believed that the ERF should be distributed as quickly and efficiently as practicable, with the goal of putting the Debtors' assets to work funding worthy causes on the front lines of the opioid crisis rather than sitting on the Debtors' balance sheet.

After high-level negotiations among the parties regarding the nature of the ERF during the initial months of the Chapter 11 Cases, both the Creditors' Committee and AHC began developing detailed proposals for the structure of the ERF. While the AHC worked extensively with governmental constituencies to develop their proposal, the Debtors in parallel worked with the Creditors' Committee to refine the Creditors' Committee's initial proposal. During this time, the parties also continued to engage with each other regarding their high-level goals and priorities in structuring the ERF. On January 22, 2020, the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee provided a working draft proposed structure of the ERF to the AHC, and the AHC provided a draft proposal for the structure of the ERF that had the support of their group and reflected extensive input from the NCSG (although not their formal endorsement). The Debtors then worked extensively with the Creditors' Committee and AHC to understand the goals underlying their respective proposals as well as engaged with the NCSG and the MSGE to understand their specific viewpoints. On February 27, 2020, the Debtors hosted dozens of representatives of major creditor constituencies and interested governmental organizations at a summit in an attempt to negotiate the terms of a unified proposal for an ERF. The Debtors also attempted to craft a proposal that incorporated concepts from the proposals of both the Creditors' Committee and AHC in order to reach a compromise.

These extensive and good-faith negotiations, however, failed to yield full consensus among the parties regarding the proposed structure and governance of the ERF. While the parties were able to reach agreement on the total size of the ERF, the geographic distribution of the funds, and the process of developing initial state/territory-level grant funding proposals, the parties were unable to reach agreement on, among other things, (i) the composition of an ERF review board that would oversee grant allocation decisions and the level of oversight to be provided by such board and (ii) the types of programs that should be eligible for grants, including the degree to which grants should be allocated to newly developed programs relative to existing programs.

Nevertheless, while the parties were not able to reach agreement on an ERF structure that was fully supported by all major case constituencies, the Plan maximizes the value of the Debtors' Estates for the benefit of their stakeholders.

J. Bar Date

On January 3, 2020, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Establishing Deadlines for Filing Proofs of Claim and Procedures Relating Thereto, (II) Approving the Proof of Claim Forms, and (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [D.I. 717] (the "Bar Date Motion"). On February 3, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Bar Date Motion [D.I. 800] (the "Bar Date Order"), establishing 5:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on June 30, 2020 (the "Initial General Bar Date") as the deadline for all persons and entities (including, without limitation, individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures, trusts, governmental units and Native American Tribes), holding a prepetition claim, as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code (a "Claim"), against the Debtors which arose on or prior to the Petition Date, to file a proof of claim. On May 20, 2020, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 501 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 and 3003(c)(3) for Entry of an Order (I) Extending the General Bar Date for a Limited Period and (II) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [D.I. 1178] (the "Bar Date Extension Motion"). On June 3, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Bar Date Extension Motion [D.I. 1221] (the "Bar Date Extension Order"), extending the Initial General Bar Date to July 30, 2020 at 5:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) (the "General Bar Date").

Specifically, the Bar Date Extension Order established the following deadlines for filing proofs of claim:

- General Bar Date: 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on July 30, 2020, as the deadline for each person (as defined in section 101(41) of the Bankruptcy Code), governmental unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code), and Native American Tribe to file a proof of claim (as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) against the Debtors which arose on or prior to September 15, 2019.

- Rejection Damages Bar Date: the later of: (i) the General Bar Date; and (ii) thirty (30) days after entry of any order authorizing the rejection of such executory contract or unexpired lease of the Debtors as the deadline by which claimants asserting claims resulting from the Debtors' rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease must file proofs of claim for damages arising from such rejection.

- Amended Schedules Bar Date: the later of: (i) the General Bar Date; and (ii) thirty (30) days after such holders of affected claims are served with notice that the Debtors amended their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and/or Statements of Financial Affairs (collectively, the "Schedules") to identify, reduce, delete, or change the amount, priority, classification, or other status of such a claim as the deadline by which claimants holding claims affected by such amendment or supplement must file proofs of claim with respect to such claim.

The Debtors' notice program provided actual notice of the Bar Dates to known claimants, and included a supplemental notice plan (the "Supplemental Notice Plan") to provide an extraordinarily broad array of forms of publication notice to unknown claimants.

The Bar Date form of notice (the "Bar Date Notice") (i) notified claimants of the Bar Dates: (a) who must file a proof of claim, (b) the procedures for filing a proof of claim, and (c) the consequences of failing to timely file a proof of claim; and (ii) stated that for a claim to be validly and properly filed, a signed original of the proof of claim form, together with any accompanying documentation, must be filed with Kroll, LLC or the Bankruptcy Court on or before the appropriate Bar Date. The Debtors provided actual notice of the Bar Dates to all known claimants by serving them with the following: (x) the Bar Date Notice and (y) the appropriate proof of claim form(s) and instructions.

The Supplemental Notice Plan employed six additional primary methods of providing notice: (i) paid media (e.g., television, radio, magazine, and newspaper); (ii) online displays across multiple devices and videos (e.g., YouTube); (iii) social media campaigns (e.g., Facebook, Twitter); (iv) out-of-home advertising (e.g., billboards); (v) earned media (e.g., press releases, blogs); and (vi) community outreach.

The Supplemental Notice Plan provided publication notice to areas where claims have arisen or where potential claimants may now be located, including the United States and the U.S. Territories of Guam, U.S. Virgin Islands, Mariana Islands, American Samoa, and Puerto Rico, using the following: (i) broadcast and cable television, radio (terrestrial and streaming), and traditional print media such as magazines and newspapers; (ii) various online displays and videos on websites such as YouTube and Google; (iii) social media, networking and engaging influencers on websites such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and LinkedIn; (iv) static and digital billboards located in high-traffic areas; (v) press releases; and (vi) community outreach via a one-page notice to (a) all prescribers of Purdue brand name medications, (b) U.S. pharmacies and institutions that received certain brand name and generic opioid medications, and (c) third-party organizations such as tribal leaders, veterans communities, treatment and addiction centers, mobile health teams, mining communities, religious leaders, homeless and women's shelters, and government agencies. The Supplemental Notice Plan provided publication notice in both French and English in Canada using the following: (i) traditional print media such as magazines and newspapers; (ii) online and social media, including Google, Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube; and (iii) press releases.

Additionally, the Debtors published the notice of the Bar Dates across several print publications in the United States and Canada. In the United States, the Debtors published the full Bar Date Notice in three (3) nationally circulated newspapers and published a summary notice of the Bar Dates in eight (8) consumer magazines, fourteen (14) industry-specific trade magazines, and seventy-nine (79) local newspapers in eleven (11) states. In Canada, the Debtors published a summary notice of the Bar Dates in nine (9) nationally distributed magazines and three (3) nationally circulated newspapers.

The Supplemental Notice Plan cost over $20 million and included a total of over 1.5 billion impressions across social media, display and search platforms. The nearly unprecedented reach and cost of the Supplemental Notice Plan, which the Debtors developed while engaging extensively with key creditor constituencies, was carefully tailored to the circumstances of potential claims and provided publication notice far beyond what is customary in typical chapter 11 cases. The Bankruptcy Court included in the Bar Date Order its finding that the noticing procedures outlined therein constituted good, sufficient and due notice of the Bar Dates and the procedures for filing proofs of claim in these Chapter 11 Cases.

K. Entry into Stipulation in Respect of Certain Canadian Patient Litigation

Prior to the Petition Date, the lead plaintiffs (collectively, the "Patient Plaintiffs") in ten class actions (the "Canadian Patient Class Actions") that were commenced in each province of Canada (except Manitoba) between May 11, 2007 and June 22, 2012, on one hand, and the defendants in the Canadian Patient Class Actions, on the other hand, entered into a conditional national class action settlement agreement (the "Patient Settlement Agreement"). Pursuant to its own terms and Canadian class action legislation, the Patient Settlement Agreement must be approved by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, the Superior Court of Quebec, the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia and the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench in order to become effective. The Patient Settlement Agreement has yet to receive the approval of the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench (the "Saskatchewan Court"). Proceedings in respect of the Canadian Patient Class Actions are currently stayed and suspended pursuant to the Order Re: Related Party Stay entered in the CCAA Proceedings on December 30, 2019.

The Debtors and the Patient Plaintiffs are party to the Amended and Restated Stipulation and Order Permitting the Filing of a Class Proof of Claim Solely for Administrative Convenience in Order to Effectuate a Potential Settlement in Respect of Certain Canadian Patient Litigation (the "Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation"). The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation on July 24, 2020 [D.I. 1515]. The purpose of the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation is to permit the Patient Plaintiffs to file a Proof of Claim on their own behalf, and on behalf of the Patient Class (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation) in the Canadian Patient Class Actions solely for protecting their claims pursuant to the terms of the Patient Settlement Agreement and not for any other purpose.

On July 30, 2020, Class Counsel (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation) filed a Proof of Claim [Claim No. 146518] (the "Patient Class Proof of Claim") in accordance with the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation.

Prior to the Petition Date, non-Debtor Purdue Pharma (Canada), an independent associated company beneficially owned by the Debtors' shareholders, settled a trust for CAD $20 million (the "Settlement Trust"), which is the full amount of the Settlement Payment (as defined in the Patient Settlement Agreement). The funds in the Settlement Trust are held in trust and are sufficient to make payment of the Settled Patient Claims (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation). The funds will only be distributed in accordance with the Patient Settlement Agreement after the occurrence of the Effective Date (as defined in the Patient Settlement Agreement). The Effective Date is the date on which the requisite orders contemplated by the Patient Settlement Agreement have become final orders from which no appeal lies or in respect of which any right of appeal has expired without the initiation of proceedings in respect of that appeal, or proposed appeal such as the delivery of a notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal.

As set forth in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation, if the Patient Settlement Agreement is approved by the Saskatchewan Court and the funds held in the Settlement Trust are released for benefit of Holders of Settled Patient Claims (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation), (i) the Patient Settlement Agreement and Patient Class Proof of Claim will be the exclusive remedy for all Settled Patient Claims in the Chapter 11 Cases; (ii) the Patient Settlement Agreement and Patient Class Proof of Claim will supersede and replace any other Proof of Claim or portion thereof filed by any of the Patient Plaintiffs, Settlement Patient Claimants (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation), or counsel to any of the foregoing, in the Chapter 11 Cases in respect of Settled Patient Claims; and (iii) upon the Effective Date (as defined in the Patient Settlement Agreement), the Debtors will be deemed to have been completely and unconditionally released, forever discharged, and acquitted from any and all Settled Patient Claims against the Debtors and from any other Proof of Claim or portion thereof in respect of any Settled Patient Claim filed against any Debtor. If the Patient Settlement Agreement is approved by the Saskatchewan Court and the funds in the Settlement Trust are released for the benefit of Holders of Settled Patient Claims (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation): (i) no Settlement Patient Claimant that filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases shall receive a recovery in respect of a Settled Patient Claim from any source other than the Settlement Payment made from the Settlement Trust; and (ii) any Settlement Patient Claimant that filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases shall have the burden of proving that such Proof of Claim is not in respect of a Settled Patient Claim that was released and discharged pursuant to the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation.

No Distributions will be made on account of any Claims that may constitute Settled Patient Claims unless and until (x) the Saskatchewan Court approves the Patient Settlement Agreement and all funds in the Settlement Trust have been distributed to Holders of Settled Patient Claims (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation) in accordance with the Patient Settlement Agreement or (y) the Saskatchewan Court denies the Patient Settlement Agreement. In the event the Saskatchewan Court does not approve the Patient Settlement Agreement, the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation will be deemed withdrawn and the Patient Class Proof of Claim will be rescinded and deemed null and void.

The Patient Class Proof of Claim does not otherwise prejudice any proof of claim filed in respect of (a) claims against the Debtors arising on or before the Petition Date other than Settled Patient Claims or any other claims of the Settlement Patient Claimants; (b) Settled Patient Claims or any other claims of the Settlement Patient Claimants in the event the Patient Settlement Agreement is not approved by the Saskatchewan Court or the Effective Date does not otherwise occur under the Patient Settlement Agreement; or (c) any claims of Canadian provincial health insurers, whether direct or subrogated to claims of the Patient Plaintiffs and other members of the Patient Class (as defined in the Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation) (the "Contingent Claims"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Contingent Claims are subject to the General Bar Date and any Contingent Claim filed after the General Bar Date will be considered untimely.

L. Sale of Rhodes Technologies Manufacturing Facility and Entry into Supply Agreement

In April 2020, the Debtors made the decision to explore strategic alternatives with respect to Rhodes Tech's API manufacturing business. The Debtors determined that a transition away from the API manufacturing facility located in Coventry, Rhode Island (the "Coventry Facility") would have the effect of unburdening the Debtors from the facility's extensive annual fixed operating costs, creating a variable cost structure as volumes decrease. The Debtors could not, however, transition away from the Coventry Facility without securing an alternative source of APIs from a credible, high-quality supplier with experience in the API manufacturing industry, and doing so at a lower cost than was then incurred by manufacturing APIs "in house." Following an extensive marketing and negotiation process, on September 14, 2020, Debtor Rhodes Technologies, Noramco Coventry LLC (the "Purchaser"), and Noramco LLC ("Normaco"), as guarantor of Purchaser's obligations, executed an asset purchase agreement (the "Rhodes APA") in contemplation of a sale of the Coventry Facility and related assets to the Purchaser and agreed to enter into the Supply Agreement under which Noramco would supply the Debtors with all products then manufactured at the Coventry Facility for a minimum term of seven years, with two two-year renewals available at the Debtors' option (collectively, the "Coventry Transactions"). The Rhodes APA also contemplated additional ancillary documents, including a transition services agreement to effectuate the transfer of the Coventry Facility operations from the Debtors to the Purchaser. On October 1, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Approving Sale of Debtors' Coventry Facility and Related Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Interests and Encumbrances, (II) Approving Debtors' Entry into a Long-Term API Supply Agreement, (III) Authorizing Assumption and Assignment, or Assignment, as Applicable, of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and (IV) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 1765]. The sale of the Coventry Facility closed and the parties entered into the Supply Agreement on December 31, 2020.

M. Consideration of Unsolicited Offers for Certain Assets

1. First Interested Party

In August, 2020, the Debtors were contacted on an unsolicited basis by a party (the "First Interested Party") interested in discussing a proposed risk evaluation and mitigation strategy ("REMS") initiative and a potential acquisition of certain of the Debtors' assets. At the time of this initial contact, the First Interested Party did not have the financial resources to acquire any material portion of the Debtors' assets. Following several discussions between the Debtors' advisors and the First Interested Party, including a call with the Debtors' full management team regarding the proposed REMS initiative in October 2020, the First Interested Party provided in November 2020 an asset purchase indication of interest. Although the First Interested Party had still not demonstrated any ability to provide financing for any potential acquisition proposal, the Debtors determined that it was nevertheless in the best interests of its stakeholders to afford the First Interested Party an opportunity to develop a potential offer. As a result, the Debtors and the First Interested Party entered into a customary confidentiality agreement on November 16, 2020. Between late November 2020 and early January 2021, the Debtors executed additional confidentiality agreements with ten potential financing sources to the First Interested Party at the First Interested Party's request.

On December 3, 2020, the First Interested Party submitted a non-binding proposal to acquire substantially all of the operating assets of the Debtors. Of the aggregate consideration potentially payable to the Debtors under the proposal, approximately 70% was proposed to be paid in cash at closing of a transaction and the remainder was proposed to be payable in cash in the future, subject to material contingencies. The proposal lacked reasonable evidence of the First Interested Party's ability to obtain the funds required to pay the proposed acquisition consideration. Notwithstanding that the First Interested Party had not provided assurance that it had the ability to obtain the financing necessary to pay for its proposal, in the interest of providing the First Interested Party the opportunity to obtain such financing, the Debtors agreed to commence a process to provide substantial due diligence information regarding the Debtors and their businesses to the First Interested Party, the potential financing sources identified by the First Interested Party, and their respective representatives and advisors.

Beginning in early December 2020 and continuing until late February 2021, the Debtors and their advisors dedicated hundreds of hours of time to obtain, organize, review and process over 22,000 pages of requested due diligence information, at a significant cost to the Debtors in fees and expenses and time commitment of its management and employees. In addition, the Debtors and their advisors conducted numerous due diligence discussions with the First Interested Party and their respective representatives and advisors to allow the First Interested Party to propose an actionable transaction.

After a number of discussions, given the overall status and timeline of the Debtors' bankruptcy process, the Debtors requested that the First Interested Party submit a best and final binding bid with committed financing by January 8, 2021. At the request of the First Interested Party, the Debtors agreed to extend the bid date to January 11, 2021. On January 11, 2021, the First Interested Party submitted a revised proposal. Notwithstanding the bid requirements specified by the Debtors, the revised proposal was non-binding and subject to due diligence and was not supported by any financing commitments, which would have been required to pay the proposed acquisition consideration. Of the aggregate consideration potentially payable to the Debtors under the revised proposal, which was substantially the same as that in the December 3 proposal, only half would now be payable at closing of a transaction, with the remainder payable over a number of years and subject to significant contingencies. In addition, the non-binding proposal lacked material information necessary for the Debtors to evaluate the value of the proposed consideration. On January 14, 2021, the First Interested Party provided certain additional information; however, such information continued to lack significant information necessary for the Debtors to evaluate the proposal. On a number of occasions, the Debtors, together with the Creditors' Committee and the Ad Hoc Committee, sent follow-up questions to the First Interested Party and requested discussions with the First Interested Party. None of these discussions clarified all of the required information necessary to evaluate the proposal.

On January 18, 2021 and January 19, 2021, the First Interested Party submitted letters from several potential financing sources. Notwithstanding the bid requirements specified by the Debtors, the financing letters were non-binding, were subject to due diligence and were subject to further internal approvals of the applicable financing parties. The financing letters also stated that they would not become binding unless and until definitive transaction documents were executed, which the First Interested Party estimated would require an additional 60-day period, and also indicated that the financing sources could seek further syndication of their proposed financing commitments, which would also result in additional delay. Furthermore, certain financing letters described a transaction that would effectively result in parties other than the First Interested Party acquiring significant portions of the Debtors' assets. In addition, the financing letter relating to the proposed acquisition of assets by such other party required the Debtors to deliver certain material assets not owned by the Debtors.

In late January 2021, through ongoing discussions with the First Interested Party, the Debtors learned that the First Interested Party was in fact only intending to assume a fraction of the Debtors' ordinary course postpetition liabilities, leaving approximately $300 million dollars, and possibly more, of postpetition liabilities to be borne by the bankruptcy estate as administrative claims, effectively resulting in a significant reduction in any upfront consideration offered by the First Interested Party. Moreover, the Purdue Pharma L.P. Pension Plan, a single-employer defined benefit pension plan covered by Title IV of ERISA (the "Purdue Pension Plan"),[53] would not be transferred with the assets proposed to be acquired, and the Debtors estimated at the time that, if they became subject to unfunded benefit liabilities on account of the Purdue Pension Plan, such claims would likely total approximately $180 million. Moreover, the First Interested Party would not continue the Debtors' Public Health Initiatives or undertake any other initiatives that would have allowed the Debtors to emerge as a public benefit company or similar entity and therefore satisfy the conditions necessary to benefit from the Forfeiture Judgment Credit in the DOJ Resolution.

On February 7, 2021, the First Interested Party submitted a proposal that consisted of a completely revised and further degraded proposed transaction structure. The revised structure contemplated an essentially "seller-financed" transaction whereby the Debtors would effectively transfer substantially all of its assets to the First Interested Party in exchange for no consideration at consummation of such transaction, with the potential for the Debtors' Estates to receive payments over many years as repayment of the seller financing to the extent the First Interested Party was able to generate sufficient revenues and profits in the future. The revised proposed transaction structure continued to include the requirement that significant postpetition liabilities be borne by the bankruptcy estate as administrative claims and the Purdue Pension Plan remain with the bankruptcy estate as described above.

Notwithstanding that the First Interested Party's revised proposals had in each iteration significantly reduced the proceeds reasonably/potentially deliverable to the Debtors, including the reduction in proceeds payable at consummation of a transaction to zero, over the ensuing weeks, the Debtors continued to permit the First Interested Party to conduct further due diligence.

Based on a careful review of all of the materials submitted by, and the discussions that occurred with, the First Interested Party, its potential financing sources and their respective representatives and advisors over many months, the Debtors determined that the proposals submitted by the First Interested Party were not value maximizing for the Debtors and its stakeholders, provided significantly less cash to the estate than the Debtors' Plan, resulted in stakeholders continuing to be tied to the performance of the Debtors' opioids business for a significantly longer period of time than would the Plan, introduced risk of potentially significant negative tax consequences on stakeholders, and were likely not capable of being executed upon by the First Interested Party, and that further diversion of the Debtors' resources towards discussions with the First Interested Party would only result in significant costs to the Debtors with a high risk of no transaction being executed.

2. Second Interested Party

In March 2024, the Debtors were contacted on an unsolicited basis by a party (the "Second Interested Party") interested in discussing certain of the Debtors' assets. An introductory meeting between the Debtors' management team, the Debtors' advisors and the Second Interested Party was held on May 3, 2024, and the Debtors subsequently received a diligence list from the Second Interested Party on May 6, 2024. On August 15, 2024, the Debtors' advisors received a non-binding proposal from the Second Interested Party to acquire the Debtors' branded and generic prescription pharmaceutical businesses. The proposal contemplated (1) divesting the pipeline drugs then in development, and (2) with respect to the operating profits of the branded and generic prescription businesses, transferring 25% of such profits to fund the Debtors' Public Health Initiatives and allocating the remaining 75% of such profits to the Second Interested Party.[54] Upon an extensive review of the proposal and following multiple discussions with the Second Interested Party, the Debtors determined that this proposal was not value maximizing for the Debtors and their stakeholders.

On September 11, 2024, the Second Interested Party submitted a revised proposal to the Debtors, presenting several alternative transaction structures. The Debtors, in consultation with its advisors, determined that the revised structure failed to address certain key issues. The Debtors provided feedback to the Second Interested Party on September 18, 2024, outlining a series of non-negotiable terms, which included the Debtors' post-reorganization mission, compliance with the DOJ Settlement, and an obligation to acquire substantially all of the Debtors' assets. The Debtors received a second revised offer on November 1, 2024, which the Second Interested Party presented to the Debtors' management team on December 18, 2024. The Debtors, in consultation with their advisors seriously evaluated the updated proposal, but concluded it did not address all the Debtors' articulated terms and had other shortcomings. In connection with the second revised offer, the Second Interested Party also submitted an additional diligence request to the Debtors.

The Debtors have provided responses to substantially all of the diligence items requested by the Second Interested Party. The Debtors remain open to further enhanced offers from the Second Interested Party.

3. Other Interested Parties

In the course of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have received other unsolicited offers and/or indications of interest from other parties to acquire some or all of the Debtors' assets. The Debtors, in consultation with their advisors, have given due consideration to each such proposal, consistent with the applicable fiduciary duties to maximize the value of the Debtors' Estates for the benefit of creditors and other stakeholders. To date, the Debtors have not determined any of the foregoing proposals to be actionable.

[54] The Debtors' public health initiatives are described in more detail and defined in Section II(A)(iv).

N. Continuation of Certain Prepetition Employee Compensation Programs

In order to maintain business operations during the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors sought to continue certain preexisting employee compensation programs, which were critical to sustain employee morale and protect the value of the Debtors' business. On September 16, 2019, the Debtors filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing (I) Debtors to (A) Pay Pre-Petition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefits Programs and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, (II) Employees and Retirees to Proceed with Outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims and (III) Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers [D.I. 6] (the "Wages Motion"). As part of the relief requested in the Wages Motion, the Debtors sought to continue two long-standing compensation programs: their annual incentive program (the "AIP") and their long-term results plan (the "LTRP," and together with the AIP, the "Prepetition Incentive Plans"). The AIP designates payments on an annual basis to eligible employees based on a combination of employee performance and the performance of the Debtors. The LTRP is a long-term cash incentive program that provides an annual grant to employees based on a three-year performance period. The Debtors also sought, inter alia, to continue a non-executive retention plan.

Objections to the Wages Motion were filed by the U.S. Trustee, Nevada Counties and Municipalities, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the NCSG and the State of Arizona [D.I. 134, 190, 196, 197, 201]. The New York State Department of Financial Services also submitted an informal objection [D.I. 99]. The NCSG filed a statement maintaining its and certain of its members' objections insofar as such objections related to the Debtors' CEO [D.I. 557].

The Debtors agreed to multiple partial adjournments of the Wages Motion such that various elements of the relief sought in the Wages Motion were considered at different hearings. Following extensive negotiations with certain creditor groups, the Debtors agreed to certain modifications to the relief sought in the Wages Motion. The Debtors reached agreement on, or agreement not to object to, modified relief with all relevant creditor groups except with respect to the Debtors' CEO's incentive compensation, which was opposed only by the NCSG. The modified relief sought in the Wages Motion was granted in the Final Order Authorizing (I) Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefits Programs and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, (II) Employees and Retirees to Proceed with Outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims and (III) Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers [D.I. 309]; the Supplemental Final Order Authorizing (I) Debtors to (A) Pay Certain Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefits Programs and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, (II) Employees and Retirees to Proceed with Outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims and (III) Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers [D.I. 629] and the Second Supplemental Final Order Authorizing (I) Debtors to (A) Pay Certain Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefits Programs and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, (II) Employees and Retirees to Proceed with Outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims and (III) Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers [D.I. 783].

On February 4, 2025, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Authorization to (A) Commence "Standard Termination" Proceedings for the Debtors' Defined Benefit Pension Plan, (B) Execute Amendments in Connection Therewith and (C) Fund Such Plan and Annuitization of Benefits Thereunder [D.I. 7166] (the "Purdue Pension Plan Termination Motion"), pursuant to which, the Debtors sought authorization to effect a "standard termination" of the Purdue Pension Plan. On March 17, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Purdue Pension Plan Termination Motion [D.I. 7302].

In order to effectuate a standard termination of the Purdue Pension Plan, the Debtors must make contributions to the Purdue Pension Plan so that it will possess sufficient assets to satisfy all plan benefits and liabilities as of the date of distribution. The Debtors believe that, given the value of Plan assets and the favorable interest rate environment, terminating the Purdue Pension Plan at this time would reduce the risk of future liability and ensure that more funds would be available to creditors. The Debtors expect to contribute approximately $30 million in order to initiate the standard termination process and permit participants to elect lump-sum withdrawals, and the Debtors expect to contribute approximately $13 million of additional funds to be used to purchase annuities in approximately 12-24 months' time for participants who do not elect lump sums.

O. Key Employee Incentive Program and Key Employee Retention Program

The Debtors developed a Key Employee Incentive Program (the "KEIP") and the Key Employee Retention Program (the "KERP," and together with the KEIP, the "Compensation Plans"), in order to ensure the continued motivation, engagement and retention of the Debtors' workforce and the maximization of the value of the Debtors' Estates. On September 9, 2020, the Debtors filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing Implementation of a Key Employee Incentive Plan and a Key Employee Retention Plan [D.I. 1674] (the "Compensation Motion").

The KEIP, as initially designed, would have applied to the Debtors' eight then-current insider employees, consisting of the: (i) CEO; (ii) CFO; (iii) General Counsel; (iv) Senior Vice President, Intellectual Property Law & Public Health Initiatives; (v) Chief Technical Operations Officer; (vi) President, Imbrium Therapeutics; (vii) President, Rhodes Pharmaceuticals; and (viii) President, Rhodes Technologies. After filing the Compensation Motion, the President of Imbrium Therapeutics and the Debtors' Senior Vice President, Intellectual Property Law & Public Health Initiatives resigned and therefore became ineligible for the proposed KEIP. The KERP applies to virtually all incentive-eligible employees other than the employees covered under the KEIP.

After extensive discussions with creditor groups, the Debtors agreed to certain modifications to the proposed KEIP and KERP. The Debtors also agreed to multiple partial adjournments of the Compensation Motion such that various elements of the relief sought in the Compensation Motion were considered at different hearings. On October 1, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement a Key Employee Retention Plan [D.I. 1762]. On October 28, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement a Key Employee Incentive Plan [D.I. 1861] (the "2020 KEIP"), which granted the Debtors authority to implement the KEIP as modified with respect to (i) General Counsel; (ii) Chief Technical Operations Officer; (iii) President, Rhodes Pharmaceuticals; and (iv) President, Rhodes Technologies. On November 18, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Supplemental Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement a Key Employee Incentive Plan [D.I.

2002], which granted the Debtors authority to implement the KEIP as modified with respect to the CEO and CFO.

In the four years following implementation of the Compensation Plans in 2020, the Debtors have annually sought approval for successive Compensation Plans that have remained consistent both with the levels negotiated in 2020 with the Creditors' Committee and other critical stakeholders and generally below the compensation levels under the Debtors' longstanding prepetition compensation plans. Moreover, where the Debtors initially sought authority to pay eight participants under the 2020 KEIP, only three KEIP participants remain, dividing the same crucial leadership roles among a leaner executive team. Approval of the Compensation Plans have enabled the Debtors to provide their employees with appropriate, market-based compensation for the duration of the Chapter 11 Case. On September 15, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement 2021 Key Employee Incentive Plan [D.I. 3770], which granted the Debtors authority to implement the 2021 Compensations Plans, including with respect to the (i) Chief Executive Officer; (ii) Chief Financial Officer; (iii) General Counsel; (iv) Chief Technical Operations Officer and (v) President, Rhodes Pharmaceuticals. On May 20, 2022 and, subsequently, on June 27, 2022, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement 2022 Key Employee Retention Plan and 2022 Key Employee Incentive Plan [D.I. 4862] and the Supplemental Order Authorizing The Debtors To Implement 2022 Key Employee Incentive Plan [D.I. 4924], which granted the Debtors authority to implement the 2022 Compensations Plans, including with respect to the (i) Chief Executive Officer and (ii) General Counsel. On May 30, 2023, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement 2023 Key Employee Incentive Plan and 2023 Key Employee Retention Plan [D.I. 5646], which granted the Debtors authority to implement the 2023 Compensations Plans, including with respect to the (i) Chief Executive Officer; (ii) new Chief Financial Officer and (iii) General Counsel. On April 24, 2024, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement 2024 Key Employee Incentive Plan and 2024 Key Employee Retention Plan [D.I. 6322], which granted the Debtors authority to implement the 2024 Compensations Plans, including with respect to the (i) Chief Executive Officer; (ii) Chief Financial Officer and (iii) General Counsel.

P. Extension of Exclusive Periods

Section 1121(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for a period of one hundred twenty (120) days after the commencement of a chapter 11 case during which time a debtor has the exclusive right to file a plan of reorganization (the "Exclusive Filing Period"). In addition, section 1121(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that if the debtor files a plan within the Exclusive Filing Period, it shall have a period of one hundred eighty (180) days after commencement of the chapter 11 case to obtain acceptances of such plan (the "Exclusive Solicitation Period," and together with the Exclusive Filing Period, the "Exclusivity Periods"). Pursuant to section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Court may, upon a showing of cause, extend the Exclusivity Periods.

The Debtors' Exclusive Filing Period and Exclusive Solicitation Period were initially set to expire on January 13, 2020 and March 13, 2020, respectively. On January 28, 2020, the Court entered the Order Extending the Exclusive Periods Within Which to File a Chapter 11 Plan and Solicit Acceptances Thereof [D.I. 782] extending the Exclusive Filing Period and the Exclusive Solicitation Period through and including Monday, July 13, 2020 and Wednesday, September 9, 2020, respectively. On July 24, 2020, the Court entered the Second Order Extending the Exclusive Periods Within Which to File a Chapter 11 Plan and Solicit Acceptances Thereof [D.I. 1517] extending the Exclusive Filing Period and the Exclusive Solicitation Period through and including Thursday, December 10, 2020 and Monday, February 8, 2021, respectively. On December 16, 2020, the Court entered the Third Order Extending the Exclusive Periods Within Which to File a Chapter 11 Plan and Solicit Acceptances Thereof [D.I. 2143] extending the Exclusive Filing Period and Exclusive Solicitation Period through and including Monday, February 15, 2021 and Monday, May 17, 2021, respectively. On March 1, 2021, the Court entered the Fourth Order Extending the Exclusive Periods Within Which to File a Chapter 11 Plan [D.I. 2433] extending the Exclusive Filing Period through and including Monday, March 15, 2021.

Q. Information Sharing/Diligence

From the outset of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have been committed to transparency and robust information sharing, both of which the Debtors believe are critical in cases of this magnitude and public import. To that end, the Debtors have provided an extensive amount of diligence and discovery material—totaling over 90 million pages—on a wide range of topics, including in response to requests from the Debtors' major creditor groups, such as the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, the NCSG, the MSGE, the NAS Committee, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the Personal Injury Claimants, and the DOJ. A select summary of key aspects of the Debtors' information sharing follows:

In addition to the public reports prepared at the direction of the Debtors' Special Committee described in Article II.E above, the Debtors have provided extensive amounts of document discovery to key stakeholders. These materials include, for example, more than 10 million documents, totaling more than 70 million pages, which had been previously produced by the Debtors in the federal multidistrict litigation pending in the Ohio MDL and in similar non-MDL civil litigations, and more than 2.5 million documents, totaling 13.5 million pages, that had been previously produced to the DOJ in connection with its investigation of the Debtors.

These enormous productions, however, only represent a small fraction of the Debtors' information sharing efforts. Recognizing the Creditors' Committee's important role in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors also agreed to undertake review of substantial email and document collections from over 50 custodians, including from additional Sackler Families custodians and Directors, in most cases for time periods going back 25 years, and make corresponding productions. These productions have resulted in the provision of more than 680,000 documents, totaling more than 4.2 million pages, to the Creditors' Committee and NCSG.

The Debtors also reached an extraordinary agreement in connection with a negotiated resolution of two motions filed by the Creditors' Committee to share over 16,000 of the Debtors' privileged documents, which are ordinarily not subject to discovery, with the Creditors' Committee on a common interest basis. These productions included privileged documents related to distributions or transfers of assets from the Company to the Sackler Families or entities owned by or operated for the benefit of Sackler Families members; privileged documents that were contemporaneously sent to or by Sackler Families members or Purdue Board members during their time serving on the Debtors' Board; and privileged documents identified by the Debtors' Special Committee's counsel as important to its investigation—all of which go to the heart of the investigation of possible estate claims against the Sacklers.

Parallel to the foregoing efforts, the Debtors have separately provided almost a million pages of diligence materials (comprising both original analyses and historical documents) to the Creditors' Committee and other key stakeholders in response to dozens of requests. These include materials comprising original analyses and reams of historical documents on a wide variety of topics, including, for example, compilations of all settlements, lists of all personal injury claims ever filed against Purdue, compilations of licensing and royalty agreements, granular opioid sales data at the prescription level over a 22-year period, and much more.

Finally, the Debtors have worked closely with other parties to support and facilitate extensive discovery and information sharing from members of the Sackler Families and entities associated with them. As a result of the parties' efforts, the Sackler Families, certain financial institutions with which they have had relationships, and other non-Sackler Board members among others, have produced over 600,000 documents (totaling over 3.2 million pages) in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Sackler Families' IACs have also made productions totaling over 830,000 documents and over 8.3 million pages. Finally, another 180,000 documents, totaling over a 1.3 million pages, have been produced from the files of Norton Rose Fulbright LLP, a longtime advisor to the Debtors, the Sackler Families and Sackler-related entities. In addition to these document productions, the Creditors' Committee and NCSG took 16 depositions of members of the Sackler Families, current and former Board members, current employees of the Debtors, and other parties, which counsel for the Debtors' Special Committee attended.

R. Pre-Confirmation Mediation

On February 20, 2020, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Appointing Mediators [D.I. 855] (the "Mediation Motion"), seeking to appoint the Honorable Layn Phillips and Mr. Kenneth Feinberg as co-mediators (together, the "Mediators") to conduct mediation in the Chapter 11 Cases and mandating that the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and various ad hoc committees and groups in the Chapter 11 Cases participate in mediation (the "Pre-Confirmation Mediation"). After a telephonic hearing on March 2, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Mediation Motion. See Order Appointing Mediators [D.I. 895] (the "Pre-Confirmation Mediation Order"). The following parties (collectively, the "Mediation Parties") participated in the Pre-Confirmation Mediation: (i) the Debtors; (ii) the Creditors' Committee (including ex officio members); (iii) the Ad Hoc Committee;[55] (iv) the NCSG;[56] (v) the MSGE;[57] (vi) the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims[58] (the "Personal Injury Claimants"); (vii) the Ad Hoc Group of NAS Children [59] (the "NAS Committee"); [55] The Rule 2019 Statement for the Ad Hoc Committee is filed at D.I. 279.

[56] The Rule 2019 Statement for the NCSG is filed at D.I. 296.

[57] The Rule 2019 Statement for the MSGE is filed at D.I. 1794.

[58] The Rule 2019 Statement for the Personal Injury Claimants, as amended, is filed at D.I. 3939.

[59] The Rule 2019 Statement for the NAS Committee is filed at D.I. 1582.

(viii) representatives of a group of hospitals in the United States[60] (the "Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals"); (ix) counsel for the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association, various private third-party payors and health insurance carrier plaintiffs (the "Private Third-Party Payors"); and (x) counsel for a putative class of individual health insurance purchasers[61] (the "Ratepayers"). The following parties participated in the Pre-Confirmation Mediation process although they were not "Mediation Parties" as defined in the Pre-Confirmation Mediation Order: (a) the United States of America; (b) the Muscogee (Creek) Nation, a member of the Ad Hoc Committee, the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes, an ex officio member of the Creditors' Committee, and other federally recognized tribes represented by various counsel from the Tribal Leadership Committee and the Plaintiffs Executive Committee in MDL No. 2804 (the "Native American Tribes"); (c) proposed representatives of a putative class of independent public school districts (the "IPSDs"); (d) proposed representatives of a putative class of children born with NAS in the State of West Virginia (the "WV NAS"); (e) the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (the "NAACP"); and (f) a group of individual victim advocates which refer to themselves as the "Ad Hoc Committee on Accountability."

The Mediators' initial and exclusive objective pursuant to the Pre-Confirmation Mediation Order was to mediate the disputes between the Non-Federal Public Claimants (as defined in the Mediation Motion), on the one hand, and the Private Claimants (as defined in the Mediation Motion), on the other, as to the allocation of value/proceeds available from the Debtors' Estates, including, without limitation, from any settlements, to such claimants, in each case on an aggregate basis as between them. The Pre-Confirmation Mediation provided the least expensive means to achieve a consensual resolution of the Chapter 11 Cases and avoid the protracted, burdensome and costly process associated with testing the validity of each of the claims filed in the Chapter 11 Cases through a claims objection process. The Mediators engaged in numerous informal discussions with the Mediation Parties commencing February 28, 2020, and conducted a series of rigorous formal mediation sessions during the period from March 6, 2020 to September 11, 2020. Additional information regarding the results of the Pre-Confirmation Mediation can be found in the Mediators' Report [D.I. 1716] (the "Mediators' Report").

On September 30, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Expanding Scope of Mediation [D.I. 1756], which authorized the Mediators to continue the Pre-Confirmation Mediation to resolve certain open issues referenced in the Mediators' Report, as well as to mediate the estate causes of action and any potential claims or causes of action held by any of the Non-Federal Public Claimants against members of the Sackler Families.

S. [Protocols for the Resolution of Healthcare Liens[62]

1. The United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement is as follows:

(i) On the Effective Date of the Plan, the PI Trust shall be deemed, without further action of the Bankruptcy Court or the PI Trust, to have irrevocably assigned to the United States the PI Trust's right to receive $26 million from the Master Disbursement Trust, which amount shall be paid by the Debtors or the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable, to the United States in installments equal to 3.7143% of any amounts received and retained by the PI Trust under the Plan in the form of the Initial PI Trust Distribution and distributions made on account of the MDT PI Claim, and on the same distribution schedule as such distributions are received and retained by the PI Trust, until the United States has received payments aggregating to $26 million. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall (1) the stated amount of the Initial PI Trust Distribution or the stated amount of the MDT PI Claim be altered in a manner that would reduce the aggregate amount to be paid to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan, (2) the aggregate amount paid to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan exceed $26 million, or (3) the United States' claim against the Master Disbursement Trust arising from the assignment described in Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan be released until the United States has received payments thereof aggregating to $26 million. Should the PI Trust obtain recoveries under the Plan from a source other than the Master Disbursement Trust as a result of litigation following and resulting from either a modification of the MDT Insurer Injunction pursuant to Section 10.10 of the Plan or election by the Master Disbursement Trust of a Shareholder Release Remedy, the PI Trust shall pay over 3.7143% of any such recoveries to the United States until the United States shall have received payments aggregating to $26 million pursuant to the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement. The United States shall have the right to enforce the obligations set forth in Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan notwithstanding the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.

(ii) Notwithstanding Section 10.19 of the Plan, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, the PI Trust, each Holder of a PI Claim and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and each Holder of a PI Claim, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such, shall, without any further action by the Bankruptcy Court, be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim of all United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claims and all Causes of Action based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement (other than a Cause of Action to enforce the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the release set forth in Section 5.2(i)(iii) of the Plan) that each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim has asserted or could assert on its own behalf or on behalf of another Person or party, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), against the PI Trust, a Holder of a PI Claim, Distributions to Holders of PI Claims pursuant to the PI TDP or under the Plan and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and each Holder of a PI Claim, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such; provided, however, that, if a Holder of a PI Claim commences a legal action against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim challenging all or any portion of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, then, from and after the commencement of such legal action, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Release shall be void ab initio solely with respect to such Holder of a PI Claim, and the heirs, successors and assigns of such Holder of a PI Claim, in their capacities as such, and not with respect to any other Person or party, including, but not limited to, the PI Trust, counsel to such Holder of a PI Claim and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and such counsel, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such; provided further that no such legal action against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim shall impair or reduce the amount that the United States shall receive pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan. Nothing in Section 5.2(i)(ii) of the Plan creates any rights of a Holder of a PI Claim to sue the United States or any of its agencies, including a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim, and the United States and its agencies reserve all rights and defenses in that regard; and nothing in this paragraph is or shall be deemed a waiver of any applicable sovereign immunity with respect to any legal action against the United States or any of its agencies challenging all or any portion of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement brought by a Holder of a PI Claim or the heirs, successors or assigns of such Holder of a PI Claim, in their capacities as such.

If an agreement is reached, it will be reflected in subsequent versions of the Plan and Disclosure Statement. There can be no assurances that any such agreement will be reached. If no agreement is reached, the federal government reserves its rights to seek recoveries from appropriate parties (including PI claimants and/or their attorneys) under the Medicare Secondary Payer Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395y(b), section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid, and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (Pub. L. 110-173), or the Federal Medical Care Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2651-2653; and other parties (including the PI claimants each and their attorneys) reserve all rights and defenses to such claims and any attempts by the federal government to recover on such claims.

(iii) As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim shall, without any further action by the Bankruptcy Court, be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the PI Trust and its agents, representatives, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such, of all Causes of Action based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement (other than a Cause of Action to enforce the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, any United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Release) that the PI Trust has asserted or could assert on its own behalf or on behalf of another Person or party, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim and, in respect of each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim, its respective agents, representatives, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such.

(iv) The payments made to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan are a prepayment by the PI Trust of amounts that would otherwise be payable by certain Holders of PI Claims to Holders of United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claims upon receipt by such Holders of PI Claims of Distributions pursuant to the PI TDP and under the Plan. Such prepayment shall be borne equitably by such Holders of PI Claims in the form of a reduction in the Distributions otherwise payable to such Holders of PI Claims pursuant to the PI TDP.

(v) The United States Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency (in respect of the TRICARE Program) submits to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for purposes of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.

(vi) The United States Department of Health and Human Services, on its own behalf and on behalf of its component agencies, which are the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Indian Health Service on behalf of its federally-operated programs; the United States Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency (in respect of the TRICARE Program); and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for purposes of any proceeding in respect of the interpretation or enforcement of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.]

T. Post-Effective Date Structure and Governance[63]

NewCo's post-Effective Date ownership and governance structure fulfills the vision embodied in the initial Settlement Framework and the DOJ Resolution for the Debtors' businesses to be transferred to a new entity for the benefit of claimants and the U.S. public. Building upon the framework established in the originally confirmed Plan, the updated terms are the product of extensive negotiations among the Debtors, the States AG Negotiating Group, the AHC, the UCC, the DOJ and other stakeholders, during the Post-Supreme Court Decision Mediation. The diagram and descriptions below summarize key elements of the structure and the related mechanisms by which NewCo Distributable Cash will be distributed to the Foundation, the Governmental Remediation Trust and the [Tribe Trust].

1. NewCo

[NewCo will be a newly formed Delaware limited liability company that will be directly owned by the Foundation (which will own 100% of the voting and economic Interests in NewCo). NewCo's Purpose will be to responsibly, sustainably, and transparently balance (i) the interests of its stakeholders to abate the opioid crisis, (ii) the effective deployment of its assets to address the opioid crisis, and (iii) the interests of those materially affected by its conduct. To this end, on or prior to the Effective Date, NewCo will directly or indirectly receive NewCo Transferred Assets, which consist of approximately $135 million of the Effective Date Cash and all of the Debtors' non-Cash Assets (including the equity of the Transferred Debtors) other than the Excluded Assets.[64] In connection with any action of NewCo, all elements of NewCo's Purpose shall be taken into account, and NewCo shall not be required (and the NewCo Managers shall not be required to cause NewCo) to maximize NewCo's or NewCo's subsidiaries' sales or profits. Up to 5% of the NewCo Distributable Cash, which shall not exceed $5 million per annum, will be distributed annually to the Foundation, which the Foundation may utilize to make grants for evidence-based strategies to abate the opioid crisis. NewCo shall allocate any remaining NewCo Distributable Cash not distributed to the Foundation to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust.

NewCo will be governed by a board of five (5) disinterested and independent NewCo Managers who will each have experience in one or more of the following areas: pharmaceuticals, public policy (including public health policy), law enforcement, ethics and compliance, finance, audit, general business and/or corporate governance issues. The initial NewCo Managers will be selected by the Settling States, with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, and pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors; provided that the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The NewCo Board will (1) determine appropriate expenditure levels for commercial operations and the Public Health Initiatives; (2) make all decisions with respect to operations, taking into account NewCo's purpose; and (3) do so subject to oversight by the Foundation.

2. The Foundation

The Foundation will be a newly formed New York corporation to be created in accordance with the Plan and the Foundation Bylaws and is intended to be an exempt organization under IRC section 501(c)(4) for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Foundation will hold one hundred percent (100%) of the equity interests and voting rights in NewCo and will be entitled to collect cash distributions of up to 5% of NewCo Distributable Cash, which distributions shall not exceed in any year $5 million. NewCo shall allocate any remaining NewCo Distributable Cash not distributed to the Foundation to the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash.

The Foundation will be governed by a board of three (3) disinterested and independent Foundation Trustees, provided that one (but no more than one) Creditor Trustee of the [Master Disbursement Trust] may serve as a Foundation Trustee; provided further that any action taken by such individual in his or her capacity as Foundation Trustee shall not be subject to the fiduciary duties of such individual in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee of the Master Disbursement Trust." The initial Foundation Trustees will be selected by the Settling States, with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, and pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors; provided that the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process.

Additional information about the governance structure of the Foundation is set forth in Article IV.D.5.

3. Governmental Remediation Trust

The Governmental Remediation Trust will be a newly formed trust established in accordance with Section 5.8 of the Plan that will be administered by the Governmental Remediation Trust Administrator (as defined in the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement) and created pursuant to the Delaware Statutory Trust Act and the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement. The Governmental Remediation Trust will (i) receive all distributions on account of the Allowed Non-Federal Domestic Government Channeled Claims and (ii) make distributions to Allowed Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, which distributions shall be further allocated among States and Subdivisions in accordance with the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents. The Governmental Remediation Trust will also fund the Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserve. To the extent a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Class 4 becomes an Allowed Claim, the Governmental Remediation Trust shall make distributions from the Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserve to the holder of such Allowed Claim.

The funds distributed to the Governmental Remediation Trust under the Plan will be allocated to each State for use within that State based on a detailed methodology developed in Mediation for determining the estimated amount of abatement funds to be distributed to each State. The Governmental Entity Direct Shareholder Settlement Agreement allows for intrastate allocation to be addressed by a State-Subdivision Agreement or by statute, with a default process to be used if a State does not otherwise have an allocation agreement. The core abatement purposes for which each State may allocate abatement funds are described in the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents.

States (and their Subdivisions) are divided into different groupings that impact the timing of payment of their distributions. Additional detail regarding the timing of distributions within each State will be set forth in more detail in the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement, which will be included as part of the Plan Supplement.

The Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement will include provisions for distributing Estate Distributions in accordance with an estimated payment chart for each state (the "GRT Waterfall"). The GRT Waterfall will prioritize ensuring that each State receives its full amount of distributions on account of its settlement of direct claims and providing each state with its aggregate estimated total of Estate Distributions paid. The GRT Waterfall will also include certain provisions for disbursing funds to the extent the total amount received exceeds what is necessary to fully meet the aggregate distribution estimate for all 16 Payment Dates.

In addition to addressing intrastate allocation of abatement funds, the Governmental Entity Direct Shareholder Settlement Agreement sets forth the terms of the settlement between and among the Settling States, the Participating Subdivisions, and the Payment Parties. It includes various provisions outlining the solicitation process by which States and Subdivisions may opt into participating in the agreement, details base and incentive payments available to participating States and Subdivisions, and outlines mechanisms for the payment of certain attorneys' fees.

4. The Tribe Trust

The Tribe Trust will be one or more trusts, limited liability companies or other Persons to be established in accordance with Section 5.8 of the Plan to (i) assume all liability for the Tribe Channeled Claims, (ii) hold the MDT Tribe Interest and collect the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution and the other Public Creditor Trust Distributions received in accordance with the Public Entity Settlements, (iii) administer Tribe Channeled Claims, (iv) hold and administer the Class 5 Non-Participating Claims Reserve on and after the Effective Date, (v) hold the Class 5 Released Claims Reserve on and after the Effective Date and (vi) make Distributions in accordance with the Tribe TDP. Distributions to the Tribes will be required to be used exclusively for abatement purposes and permitted administrative costs, and will be made through one or more Tribe Trust entities that will abide by the Tribe Trust Distribution Procedures. The allocation of distributions among Tribes will be consistent with the Tribal Allocation Matrix set forth on Schedule E and the Tribal Allocation Percentages set forth on Schedule C to the Tribe Trust Distribution Procedures, which will be included as part of the Tribe Trust Documents filed with the Plan Supplement. The Tribes will use the tribal allocation of Abatement Funds for programs on the approved list of abatement strategies (see Schedule B to the Tribe Trust Distribution Procedures) and also for culturally appropriate activities, practices, teachings or ceremonies that are, in the judgment of a tribe or tribal health organization, aimed at or supportive of remediation and abatement of the opioid crisis within a tribal community. A list of representative examples of such culturally appropriate abatement strategies, practices, and programs is attached to the Tribe Trust Distribution Procedures as Schedule D (the "Tribal Abatement Strategies"). The separate allocation of abatement funding and illustrative list of Tribal Abatement Strategies recognizes that American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes and the communities they serve possess unique cultural histories, practices, wisdom, and needs that are highly relevant to the health and well-being of American Indian and Alaska Native people and that may play an important role in both individual and public health efforts and responses in Native communities.

5. The Master Disbursement Trust

The Master Disbursement Trust will be a newly formed Delaware trust that will (i) hold and administer the MDT Transferred Assets and the Special Operating Reserve, (ii) serve as administrative agent with respect to Released Claims Reserves, (iii) make payments in satisfaction of the MDT Claims in accordance with the Plan and the Private Entity Settlements and (iv) make Public Creditor Trust Distributions in respect of the MDT Interests from MDT Distributable Value in accordance with the Plan and the Public Entity Settlements. The beneficiaries of the MDT Trust initially shall include, subject to Section 5.6(f)(iv) of the Plan, each of (i) the Public Creditor Trusts, (ii) the Hospital Trust, (iii) the ERP Trust, (iv) the Public School Trust, (v) the PI Trust, (vi) the TPP Trust, and (vii) the United States. Holders of MDT Claims shall cease to be MDT Beneficiaries upon payment in full of such MDT Claim. The Master Disbursement Trust will be governed by a board of three (3) disinterested and independent MDT Trustees. The MDT Trustees will be selected by the Settling States with the consent of the Ad Hoc Committee in consultation with the Debtors and the MSGE Group, through a selection process observed by the DOJ (in its discretion). There will also be an MDT Advisory Council that will consist of a total of seven (7) members: (i) four to be nominated by the Settling States, (ii) one to be nominated by the Settling States' four nominees, (iii) one to be nominated by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, and (iv) one to be nominated by the MSGE Group, with each such nominee being appointed with the consent of the Ad Hoc Committee.

6. The Private Creditor Trusts

The Private Creditor Trusts consist of the PI Trust, the Hospital Trust, the TPP Trust, and the ERP Trust. The Private Creditor Trusts will hold beneficial interests in and collect payments from the Master Disbursement Trust of a specified amount in accordance with the Private Entity Settlements. Each of the Private Creditor Trusts will assume all liability for and administer Claims in the applicable Class and make distributions or award grants pursuant to their respective governing documents.

7. The Plan Administration Trust

The Plan Administration Trust will be established to (i) hold, manage, sell and invest the PAT Assets[65] for the benefit of holders of Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims), (ii) hold and maintain the PAT Reserves[66] and the PAT Distribution Account[67] and maintain the Professional Fee Escrow Account, (iii) administer, process, resolve and liquidate Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims), and (iv) make distributions to holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims).

The Plan Administration Trust will be administered by the Plan Administration Trustee, who will be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Plan Administration Trust and PAT Assets. The Plan Administration Trustee will be selected by the Debtors.

The Plan Administration Trust shall be dissolved after (a) all Disputed Claims against the Debtors have been resolved, (b) all PAT Assets have been liquidated, (c) the Plan Administration Trust has made all required distributions and (d) PPLP has been dissolved.

8. Effective Date Payments

On the Effective Date, all cash and cash equivalents of the Debtors will be used to: (i) fund reserves to be held by the Plan Administration Trust;[68] (ii) fund the MDT Operating Reserve for the operating expenses of the Master Disbursement Trust; (iii) fund the Initial NewCo Cash for post-Effective Date operations; (iv) make distributions under the Plan in respect of the Federal Government Unsecured Claims, Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Adlon General Unsecured Claims and Other General Unsecured Claims; (v) provide funding for the establishment of the public document repository; (vi) make Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions under the Private

[65] The PAT Assets consist of (i) the PAT Reserves, (ii) the PAT Distribution Accounts, (iii) the Retained Causes of Action relating solely to, and only to the extent necessary for, the administration of Claims against the Debtors (other than Channeled Claims), the enforcement of the Plan Administration Trust's rights and the other responsibilities of the Plan Administration Trust, provided that no Retained Causes of Action against Excluded Parties shall constitute PAT Assets, except as necessary to object to and resolve any Disputed Claims held by an Excluded Party, (iv) the Excluded Privileged Materials and (v) any other Excluded Assets that are not MDT Transferred Assets.

[66] The PAT Reserves consist of the Wind-Up Reserve, the PAT Disputed Claims Reserves, the Disputed Cure Claims Reserve and the Priority Claims Reserve. The Wind-Up Reserve will be established to pay all costs incurred from the administration of the Debtors' Estates after the Effective Date. The Disputed Claims Reserves will be established to make distributions to Disputed Claims that become Allowed Claims. The Disputed Cure Claims Reserves will be established to pay cure costs associated with contracts and leases assumed by NewCo and the Transferred Debtors. The Priority Claims Reserve will pay Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Secured Claims and Allowed Priority Claims.

[67] The PAT Distribution Accounts are one or more accounts to be established to make distributions on account of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims).

[68] Such reserves include: the Priority Claims Reserve to satisfy Administrative Claims, Secured Claims and Priority Claims, the Disputed Claims Reserve to pay Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims that are ultimately allowed and the Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves, the Disputed Cure Claims Reserve to pay Disputed Cure Claims that are ultimately allowed, the Professional Escrow Account to pay Professional Fee Claims, and the Wind-Up Reserve to pay for expenses of the Plan Administration Trust.

Entity Settlements and the Public Entity Settlements; (vii) make Initial Tribe Trust Distributions; (viii) make Initial Public Schools Distribution; and (ix) after the satisfaction of all amounts described above, make Initial Governmental Remediation Trust Distributions.

9. Dissolution of PPLP and PPI

Under the terms of the Plan, all Interests in PPLP and PPI will be terminated with no distribution. After the Effective Date, PPLP (and any other Debtor not transferred to NewCo) will continue to exist as Liquidating Debtors solely for the purposes of winding up their respective estates and liquidating such entities. To administer the wind-up and liquidation process, the PPLP Liquidator (which will be the Plan Administration Trustee) will assume governance and control of the Liquidating Debtors. The Plan Administration Trustee may dissolve all of the Liquidating Debtors after the Plan Administration Trust is established.

U. DOJ Resolution

On October 21, 2020, the Debtors filed a motion (the "DOJ 9019 Motion") seeking approval to enter into the DOJ Resolution (as described above in Article I.B). If the Plea Agreement is accepted by the New Jersey District Court, the DOJ Resolution will fully resolve the United States' civil and criminal investigations into the Debtors' past practices related to the production, sale, marketing and distribution of opioid Products and enable a value-maximizing restructuring. Pursuant to the DOJ Resolution (including the Plea Agreement, which remains subject to acceptance by the New Jersey District Court), the United States and the Debtors agreed as follows:

- Purdue Pharma agreed to the entry of the Forfeiture Judgment, which Forfeiture Judgment shall, (i) as of the later of (a) entry of the judgment of conviction in accordance with the Plea Agreement and (b) confirmation of the Debtors' Plan, have the status of an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against Purdue Pharma, and (ii) be satisfied by (A) an upfront payment of $225 million (the "Forfeiture Payment") by Purdue Pharma within three business days following the entry of a judgment of conviction following a sentencing hearing held pursuant to the Plea Agreement and (B) application of the Forfeiture Judgment Credit by the United States of up to $1.775 billion for value distributed or otherwise conferred by Purdue Pharma under the Plan in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities;

- The sentence imposed at the sentencing hearing (which shall occur no earlier than 75 days following confirmation of the Debtors' Plan) shall order a criminal fine in the amount of $3.544 billion. The United States shall, as of the later of (i) entry of the judgment of conviction in accordance with the Plea Agreement and (ii) confirmation of the Debtors' Plan, have an allowed, unsubordinated, undisputed, non-contingent, liquidated unsecured claim against Purdue Pharma in such amount (the "Criminal Fine Claim");

- The United States shall have an allowed, unsubordinated, undisputed, non-contingent, liquidated unsecured claim against Purdue Pharma in the amount of

$2.8 billion arising from the Department of Justice's civil investigation (the "Civil Claim");

- The United States and Purdue Pharma stipulated and agreed to the statements set forth in Schedule A to the Plea Agreement (the "Agreed Statement of Facts"), and the United States agreed to a resolution in exchange for guilty pleas from Purdue Pharma to a three-count information;

- After the order confirming the Plan has become final and non-appealable, and the Plan has become effective, the Debtors will create and host a public document repository containing non-privileged documents in their possession, custody, or control that they have produced to the United States and that the United States identifies as relating to the charges asserted in the information and the alleged civil violations, which will be publicly available at an easily identifiable and accessible website;

- The New Jersey District Court will determine whether to accept the Plea Agreement at the sentencing hearing, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C). Before the Plea Agreement is accepted by the New Jersey District Court at the sentencing hearing, Purdue Pharma may withdraw its pleas of guilty (i) if the Bankruptcy Court rejects, or otherwise declines to confirm, a Plan that provides for the emergence of a public benefit company (or other entity with a similar mission) or (ii) if the Office of Inspector General of the United States Department of Health and Human Services exercises, or states an intent to exercise, any available authority to exclude Purdue Pharma's successor public benefit company (or other entity with a similar mission) from participation in federal healthcare programs.

On November 17, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court held a hearing to consider approval of the DOJ 9019 Motion. On November 18, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the DOJ 9019 Motion. See Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019 Authorizing and Approving Settlements Between the Debtors and the United States [D.I. 2004] (the "DOJ 9019 Order").

On November 24, 2020, in accordance with the terms of the DOJ Resolution, PPLP pleaded guilty in the New Jersey District Court to an information charging it with three felony offenses: one count charging a dual-object conspiracy to defraud the United States and to violate the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, and two counts charging conspiracy to violate the federal Anti-Kickback Statute.

The DOJ Resolution preserves billions of dollars of value for creditors other than the federal government and maximizes the value available to address the opioid crisis. It favorably settles the risk of forfeiture or loss of all, or substantially all, of the Debtors' value flowing from the potential for criminal and civil forfeitures, fines, and penalties totaling billions of dollars, many of which are also alleged to be non-dischargeable. It also eliminates the prospect of extraordinarily expensive and value-destructive criminal prosecution and litigation by the federal government against the Debtors. While PPLP will be excluded from participation in federal healthcare programs if the Plea Agreement is accepted and PPLP is convicted, the DOJ Resolution anticipates the emergence of a public benefit company or entity with a similar mission that can continue to commercialize the Debtors' medications following PPLP's exclusion. Moreover, if the confirmed Plan provides for emergence of a public benefit company or entity with a similar mission, value distributed or otherwise conferred in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities will receive the benefit of the Forfeiture Judgment Credit up to the $1.775 billion cap. Accordingly, the DOJ Resolution enables distributions to various claimants under the Plan that are substantially larger than would likely be possible without such an agreement with the United States.

V. The Debtors' Acceptance of Responsibility and Apologies for Past Misconduct

The Debtors have publicly and unequivocally acknowledged and apologized for their past misconduct.

On October 21, 2020, the Debtors issued a press release announcing the DOJ Resolution, under which PPLP pled guilty to three felony offenses—one count charging a dual-object conspiracy to defraud the United States and to violate the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and two counts charging conspiracy to violate the federal Anti-Kickback Statute—and stipulated to an Agreed Statement of Facts describing the underlying conduct. In this release, Steve Miller, who joined Purdue's Board as Chairman in July 2018, stated that "Purdue deeply regrets and accepts responsibility for the misconduct detailed by the Department of Justice in the agreed statement of facts." Press Release, Purdue Pharma, Purdue Pharma Reaches Agreement With U.S. Department of Justice (Oct 21, 2020), https://www.purduepharma.com/news/2020/10/21/purdue-pharma-reaches-agreement-with-u-s-department-of-justice/. In the DOJ 9019 Motion, the Debtors also highlighted for the Court that the DOJ Resolution is "the Debtors' public admission of responsibility for their past misconduct." DOJ 9019 Motion ¶ 9.

At the hearing in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey at which PPLP (acting through its Chairman) pleaded guilty, PPLP again publicly acknowledged and took responsibility for its past misconduct, including acknowledging that Purdue "knowingly and intentionally conspire[d] with others to defraud the DEA by impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating the ability of the DEA to prevent the diversion of controlled substances," US v. Purdue Pharma L.P., Tr. 38:21-25 (Nov. 24, 2020), "fail[ed] to cease promoting its opioid products to healthcare providers after receiving information suggesting that those healthcare providers were prescribing opioid products without a legitimate medical purpose and outside the usual course of professional practice, in situations in which Purdue possessed sufficient information that a decision should have been made to cease detailing," Id. 39:10-17, and "knowingly and willfully offer[ed] payments to two healthcare providers through the speaker program, where at least one purpose of the payment was to induce those healthcare providers to write more prescriptions for Purdue opioid products." Id. 42:6-11.

Purdue's CEO also addressed the Company's past misconduct at a public hearing before the House Committee on Oversight and Reform that was broadcast in video, stating: "To everyone listening who's been impacted by the opioid crisis, I want to be clear and I want to speak directly to you. On behalf of Purdue as its current leader, I'm profoundly sorry. . . . The company accepts full responsibility for its wrongdoing." The Role of Purdue Pharma and the Sackler Family in the

W. Public Document Repository

As previously approved by this Court and the Creditors on September 1, 2021, pursuant to Section 5.13 of the Plan, the document disclosure program will lead to the public disclosure of the most significant documents about Purdue, the Sackler family and the opioid crisis, including video depositions and millions of documents that Purdue produced in investigations and litigation over the past two decades. In addition, it will lead to the public disclosure of millions of documents not previously available to the public, including documents not previously produced in any investigation or litigation and certain privileged documents from the years when Purdue developed and promoted OxyContin and other opioid medications, as identified below. The document disclosure program and Public Document Repository will be conducted in a way to maximize public confidence and public access and will set a new standard for transparency. The Debtors' responsibility for complying with the DOJ document repository obligation set forth in the Plea Agreement is not modified by the Plan.

[The disclosure program provided in the Plan shall be funded in an aggregate amount of $39 million plus an additional $5 million earmarked for review and processing of the documents available for inclusion on the PDR.] It will be overseen by the disclosure oversight board ("DOB"), made up of up to four representatives appointed by each of the Ad Hoc Committee, the Creditors' Committee, the States AG Negotiating Group and the MSGE Group and one representative appointed by the Native American Tribe Group created on the Confirmation Date. On the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, a Public Document Repository shall be established and hosted at an academic institution or library selected by the DOB, which will be responsible for hosting and maintaining the Public Document Repository in perpetuity.

Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust will provide the DOB with the following materials, among others, for potential inclusion in the Public Document Repository: (a) all transcripts and audio or video recordings of depositions taken in the Purdue Legal Matters, together with the exhibits to those depositions; (b) more than 13,000,000 documents (of more than 100,000,000 pages) produced by Debtors during the course of the Purdue legal matters, including the following: (i) documents from the Debtors' email system from present and former officers and senior current and former employees in marketing, sales, R&D, legal, compliance, and regulatory; (ii) documents that the Sackler Families sent or received on the Debtors' email system; (iii) documents that reflect clinical and pre-clinical research regarding opioids, including research related to safety and effectiveness of opioids; (iv) minutes and documents presented to the Board; (v) marketing and sales plans for opioid medications; (vi) sales call notes; (vii) standard operating procedures; (viii) suspicious order monitoring data and documents; and (ix) reports of concern and Purdue's Abuse & Diversion Detection program files pertaining to prescribers; (c) the non-privileged documents collected in the course of litigation, which are estimated to comprise more than twenty million additional documents; (d) all privilege logs regarding documents withheld by the Debtors in the Purdue Legal Matters; (e) documents obtained during the Chapter 11 Cases by the Ad Hoc Committee of NAS Children identified in the First Amended Verified Statement of the Ad Hoc Committee of NAS Children Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 regarding clinical and pre-clinical studies conducted by the Debtors or other companies associated with the Sackler Family Members; and (f) certain privileged documents for which Debtors agree to waive privilege, including relating to marketing, regulatory submissions, distributions to the Sackler Family Members, and the organization and function of the board of directors.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan, and with the exception of the documents over which Debtors waive privilege, the Public Document Repository shall not contain or disclose any documents or content of documents that are privileged, including privileged documents subject to a claw back by Debtors in the Purdue legal matters, documents that are subject to trade secret protection as defined in the Plan, or documents that are subject to protections against public disclosure by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or similar state or federal statute. Inadvertent production of non-waived privileged documents to the Public Document Repository does not operate as a waiver of the privilege and, upon discovery, any such privileged documents must be promptly removed from the Public Document Repository.

Shortly after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors shall file an appropriate motion asking the Bankruptcy Court or the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to select and appoint a disclosure oversight Special Master. The Special Master's qualifications shall include former service as a judicial officer, whether as a state or federal judge, and no current or former director, officer, employee or attorney of the Debtors, the Sackler Family Members, the Creditors' Committee, or the Governmental Consent Parties shall be eligible to be appointed as the Special Master, counsel or staff working under the Special Master, provided that prior work for a Governmental Consent Party that was completed prior to 2015 shall not preclude the appointment of a Special Master. The Special Master will adjudicate all privilege and related disputes. The Special Master's reasonable hourly fees and expenses shall be paid out of the Disclosure Program Budget except as the Special Master orders otherwise upon finding that a party advanced an argument that was frivolous, harassing or in bad faith.

X. Initial Shareholder Settlement

1. Initial Settlement Framework

Shortly before the Petition Date, after more than a year of intense negotiations, the Debtors, the Sackler Families, and a critical mass of plaintiff constituencies reached an agreement in principle on the structure of a global resolution of the Pending Actions (the "Initial Settlement Framework"). The Initial Settlement Framework had three basic components: (i) Purdue Pharma's existing shareholders would relinquish all of their equity interests in the Debtors and consent to the transfer of all of the Debtors' assets to a trust or similar post-emergence structure for the benefit of claimants and the U.S. public, "free and clear" of liabilities to the fullest extent permitted by law; (ii) Purdue Pharma's existing shareholders would engage in a sale process for their ex-U.S. pharmaceutical companies; and (iii) Purdue Pharma's existing shareholders would contribute an additional $3 billion over seven years (in addition to 100% of the value of all 24 Debtors), with the hope of substantial further contemplated contributions from the sales of their ex-U.S. pharmaceutical businesses. This Initial Settlement Framework served as the starting point for negotiating a settlement that could be finalized and effectuated only through chapter 11.

This Initial Settlement Framework, however, was far from a final settlement. Indeed, the Debtors made clear on multiple occasions that the Initial Settlement Framework left many items to be negotiated and resolved. The Debtors, together with the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee of Governmental and Other Contingent Litigation Claimants, the NCSG and the Multi-State Governmental Entity Group (together with the AHC and the NCSG, the "Non-Federal Public Claimants"), worked tirelessly for more than a year continuing to negotiate improved settlement terms that would maximize creditor support. As the Debtors explained early in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have long viewed the process of confirming a plan as requiring passing through four "gates." Gate one was reaching agreement with a critical mass of important plaintiff constituencies and the Sackler Families on the Initial Settlement Framework shortly before the Petition Date. Gate two was memorializing the Initial Settlement Framework in the term sheet agreed by and among the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the Sackler Families filed with the Court on October 8, 2019. See Notice of Filing of Term Sheet with Ad Hoc Committee [D.I. 257]. Gate three was proposing a comprehensive restructuring transaction based on the Initial Settlement Framework, which the Debtors had always recognized would require massive amounts of diligence, structuring and negotiation. See Nov. 19, 2019 Hr'g Tr. 70:8-71:14. The Debtors and their key stakeholders engaged in an extensive process leading up to filing the plan, including through the Court-ordered Pre-Confirmation Mediation, to develop, build upon and refine the Initial Settlement Framework. That process involved negotiating the proposed terms of the settlement of claims against the Debtors' shareholders, reaching agreement on the allocation of estate value among various classes of creditors and addressing a host of other issues expressly left open in the term sheet memorializing the Initial Settlement Framework. Gate four was the confirmation hearing where the Debtors sought approval of the substantially improved settlement embodied in the Twelfth Amended Plan.

2. The Special Committee's Investigation and Approval of Settlement of Claims Against the Sackler Families

Shortly after it was formed, the Special Committee, in consultation with Davis Polk, discussed certain areas of investigation, including a review of all transfers from Purdue Pharma to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities. This led the Special Committee, again in consultation with Davis Polk, to discuss the nature and scope of an investigation into potential estate claims against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities. The purpose of this investigation was to form the basis to determine whether to bring litigation against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities to recover on these potential Estate claims or to determine if, in the business judgment of the Special Committee, it was more prudent to seek a settlement with the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities and whether any proposed Initial Settlement Framework was fair and equitable and thus in the best interests of the estate.[69]

The Special Committee met on a regular basis and in special sessions as warranted by circumstances. In total, the Special Committee held no fewer than 56 meetings between May 21, 2019 and March 14, 2021. During its meetings, the Special Committee received many reports, briefings, and updates from Davis Polk, including reports, briefings and updates, prepared at the request of Davis Polk, from expert accounting and financial advisors at AlixPartners and Bates White regarding the investigation and analysis of potential estate claims against the Sackler

[69] See Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414 (1968).

Families and Sackler Entities. There were also hundreds of calls and emails among the members of the Special Committee and with its professionals.

Together with evaluating potential claims by the Debtors against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities, the Special Committee also considered, among other matters and pursuant to its mandate, (i) a review of all related party transactions that the Debtors maintained with the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities; (ii) the contribution of Rhodes Associates, including Rhodes Pharmaceuticals and Rhodes Technologies, to Purdue Pharma; (iii) the amendment, renegotiation, or termination of certain supply, licensing, and intercompany services agreements between Purdue and the IACs; (iv) a reevaluation of the lease for Purdue Pharma's headquarters with One Stamford Realty L.P. ("OSR"); and (v) all requests for advancement of legal fees for current and former officers, directors, and employees in connection with litigation or governmental investigations pending against the Debtors.

(i) Investigation of Potential Estate Causes of Action

Over the course of more than 22 months, the Special Committee conducted a comprehensive investigation into potential claims that the Debtors may have against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities. The investigation included an exhaustive review by legal counsel and forensic and financial experts to identify and assess transfers from the Debtors to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities and an in-depth legal and factual analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of various potential claims by the Debtors against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities.

The legal and factual investigation undertaken by Davis Polk on behalf of the Special Committee was conducted by a team of Davis Polk lawyers. The Davis Polk investigation team was led by partner Charles S. Duggan and counsel Margarita Clarens. Mr. Duggan has deep experience representing corporate boards of directors, audit committees and special board committees in conducting internal investigations. Ms. Clarens similarly has extensive experience in conducting internal investigations on behalf of corporations in a broad range of industries.

Beginning in April 2019, in anticipation of the formation of a Special Committee, and continuing through March 2021, the Davis Polk lawyers assisting with the Special Committee's investigation devoted more than 22,500 hours to the investigation and analysis of potential estate claims. Where necessary, the Davis Polk team was supplemented by a separate team of attorneys that performed initial screenings of electronic documents and escalated relevant documents for review by Davis Polk and other professionals, including AlixPartners and Bates White, as appropriate.

(A) Identification of Potential Claims

At the outset of its investigation, Davis Polk undertook a searching assessment to identify all facts and legal theories that might provide a basis for claims by the Debtors against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities. To this end, one of the first projects was to review the complaints filed against Purdue Pharma and members of the Sackler Families that asserted claims that in bankruptcy were capable of assertion by the Debtors, such as claims for fraudulent transfer, breach of fiduciary duty, unjust enrichment, veil piercing, and alter ego. In addition, to further ensure that the investigation on behalf of the Special Committee inquired into all facts and circumstances potentially relevant to such claims, Davis Polk also surveyed relevant news articles and media publications relating to Purdue Pharma and the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities for potentially relevant information. Based on this review of public-record materials, Davis Polk identified and evaluated potential subjects for further investigation.

For example, Davis Polk considered allegations made by the Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, and Oregon Attorneys General, among others, that in the face of mounting litigation risk arising from its sale and marketing of OxyContin, Purdue Pharma, at the direction of the Sackler Families, made hundreds of millions of dollars in shareholder distributions each year for no consideration and in bad faith, leaving behind insufficient assets to satisfy the claims of Purdue Pharma's creditors. Based on these and other similar allegations, as well as information available regarding Purdue Pharma's distributions, Davis Polk continued to investigate fraudulent transfers.

Based on allegations reported by the Financial Times that Rhodes Pharma was created in 2008 as part of a scheme to "siphon billions of dollars" out of Purdue Pharma following its guilty plea in 2007 to violations of federal drug marketing laws and $634.5 million settlement, the circumstances surrounding the formation of Rhodes Pharma was similarly identified as a topic for investigation.

In view of these allegations and reports, and supplemented primarily by their ongoing review, the Special Committee and Davis Polk focused the factual investigation and legal analysis on the following potential theories of claims and recoveries against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities:

- Intentional Fraudulent Transfer based on theories that members of the Sackler Families, acting based on fears that Purdue Pharma was subject to potentially overwhelming liabilities for harms caused by opioids or for violations of law relating to marketing or other sales practices, caused Purdue Pharma to transfer cash and other assets to the Sackler Families or Sackler Entities with the intent of keeping those assets out of the hands of possible Purdue Pharma creditors.

- Constructive Fraudulent Transfer based on theories that, while it was legally insolvent as a result of accrued but unliquidated liabilities, Purdue Pharma transferred cash and other assets to the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities without receiving reasonably equivalent value in exchange.

- Breach of Fiduciary Duty based on theories that members of the Board—including members of the Sackler Families—breached their fiduciary duties to Purdue Pharma by (i) entering into self-dealing transactions that injured Purdue Pharma, (ii) directly causing Purdue Pharma to engage in the misconduct underlying the DOJ settlements and other lawsuits, or (iii) consciously failing to monitor Purdue Pharma's compliance programs.

- Unjust Enrichment based on theories that members of the Sackler Families and the Sackler Entities had acted in bad faith and, therefore, were unjustly enriched by the transfers of cash and other assets from Purdue Pharma, as well as any additional profits realized as a result of such transfers, at the expense of Purdue Pharma and its creditors.

- Veil-Piercing, as a means of recovery for potential claims, based on theories that members of the Sackler Families controlled and dominated the Debtors and the IACs, that members of the Sackler Families operated the Debtors and IACs as a single enterprise, and that members of the Sackler Families used their control and domination to cause injury generalized to the estate as a whole by transferring value from the Debtors to trusts held for their benefit.

(B) Analysis of Key Legal Issues

Throughout the investigation, the Special Committee received briefings on and considered various legal matters bearing on the potential estate claims. Specifically, Davis Polk advised the Special Committee on choice of law analyses focused on determining which jurisdiction's laws would govern each of the claims. After canvassing the relevant statutes, case law, and secondary sources, Davis Polk also advised the Special Committee on the substantive elements of each claim including, among others, the "badges of fraud" considered intentional fraudulent transfer claims, the treatment of unliquidated legal claims in assessing insolvency in constructive fraudulent transfer claims, the fiduciary duties, including the duty of loyalty, owed by a board to a company and, potentially, the company's creditors, and conduct that could constitute a breach of such duties, how a party can recover for unjust enrichment, and when plaintiffs can pierce the corporate veil.

Other legal questions relevant to the potential estate claims were considered as well, including, but not limited to:

(ii) Statutes of Limitation / Lookback Periods

Davis Polk evaluated applicable statutes of limitations for each claim under review. Notably, Davis Polk evaluated whether the Company could extend the statute of limitations for a fraudulent transfer recovery action beyond the two-year lookback period provided by section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code. In particular, Davis Polk evaluated the applicability of state or federal law under section 544, as well as other legal principles and doctrines, that could form the basis of extending the limitations period.

(A) Prejudgment Interest

Davis Polk considered whether a court would award prejudgment interest in the context of potential estate claims, including an intentional fraudulent transfer recovery action, and, if so, the rate at which prejudgment interest would be set and the date from which prejudgment interest would accrue. In connection with this analysis, Bates White, at Davis Polk's direction, prepared an analysis of a range of prejudgment interest awards based on various rates and accrual dates.

(B) Tax Distributions

Davis Polk evaluated whether distributions made for the purpose of satisfying the tax obligations of Purdue Pharma's shareholders (the "Tax Distributions") were properly the subject of a constructive or intentional fraudulent transfer recovery action, including whether the Tax

Distributions could be considered reasonable equivalent consideration for Purdue Pharma's status as a pass-through entity.

(C) Collectability of Potential Judgments

Davis Polk also evaluated issues relating to the ability to collect judgments from the Sackler Families' trusts, both in the United States and abroad. Many of the trusts held for the benefit of the descendants of Mortimer D. Sackler ("Side A" of the Sackler Families) are organized in the Bailiwick of Jersey, Channel Isles, and are governed by Jersey law. For this reason, the Debtors, in conjunction with the Creditors' Committee, negotiated a standstill agreement and retained local counsel in Jersey to provide advice on matters pertaining to Jersey law.

(iii) Collection, Search and Review of Documents

With respect to the factual investigation conducted on behalf of the Special Committee, a key initial phase focused on identifying, collecting, and processing records—including electronic documents and emails—from Purdue Pharma and other entities that might be relevant to an assessment of potential claims by the Debtors against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities. In conducting this key initial phase of its review, Davis Polk collected over 21 million documents covering a period of almost 25 years from Purdue Pharma custodial files of 110 current and former Directors, officers, and employees of Purdue Pharma and affiliated entities. The individuals whose records Davis Polk collected for search and review included:

- All members of the Sackler Families who held any position with Purdue Pharma between 1995 and the Petition Date, including as a Director, officer, employee, consultant, or intern;
- Every member of the Board between 1995 and the Petition Date, excepting only the new independent Directors who serve on the Special Committee;
- Each individual who served as a CEO, CFO, or General Counsel of Purdue Pharma between 2006 and 2018;
- Notable advisors to Purdue Pharma or the Sackler Families who held positions at Purdue Pharma or affiliates and were assigned a Purdue Pharma email address, such as Stuart Baker, the longtime corporate secretary for and advisor to the Board, and Stephen Ives, an outside advisor and accountant to certain members of the Sackler Families; and
- Specified custodians, who based on their tenure and positions in Purdue Pharma's legal, government affairs, compliance, corporate security, R&D, sales and marketing, and corporate communications functions, were identified as likely to have information relevant to potential estate claims.

The Purdue Pharma documents collected by Davis Polk included, among other things, custodial records, such as emails and other correspondence, as well as shareholder and Board materials and minutes, organization charts, memoranda, presentations, transaction documents, corporate governance documents, financial statements and projections, legal advice, spreadsheets, and litigation-related documents.

The collection included documents produced by Purdue Pharma in certain prior litigations, such as the opioid-related multidistrict litigation pending in the Northern District of Ohio, and certain government investigations, including the then-pending investigation by the DOJ, as well as the electronic files and records collected for purposes of those productions.

Davis Polk searched this enormous database of electronic records innumerable times in the course of conducting its investigation on behalf of the Special Committee and, as part of its review, developed complex search strings containing hundreds of potentially relevant terms designed to identify documents relevant to potential estate claims. These searches initially identified more than 428,000 internal Purdue Pharma documents for higher-priority review. Utilizing a technology-assisted review algorithm to identify and prioritize documents most likely to be relevant to the investigation, Davis Polk and other attorneys reviewed 175,500 of these documents.

Davis Polk also conducted numerous individual targeted searches, as well as smaller and discrete targeted reviews, to probe key events, individuals, and relevant issues as they were identified over the course of the investigation. For example, in connection with the investigation into the circumstances surrounding the formation of Rhodes Pharma, Davis Polk reviewed and analyzed an additional 30,000 internal Purdue Pharma and Rhodes documents.

The topics and issues investigated by Davis Polk included, among other things:

- Purdue Pharma's exposure to civil or criminal liabilities relating to its sale and marketing of OxyContin, and the awareness by members of the Sackler Families of the same;

- Purdue Pharma's history of OxyContin-related litigation and government investigations, including its prior settlements with private plaintiffs and with various federal, state, and local government agencies;

- Purdue Pharma's history of litigation relating to its patents for OxyContin and related efforts to preserve patent exclusivity;

- Purdue Pharma's compliance with regulatory and other obligations concerning efforts to monitor potential abuse and diversion of OxyContin;

- Histories of and motivations behind various cash and non-cash transfers of value from Purdue Pharma to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities;

- Purdue Pharma's risk of potential insolvency and the consideration of restructuring;

- Purdue Pharma's stated business strategies and objectives, including its efforts relating to research and development, mergers and acquisitions, and other business development initiatives;

- Purdue Pharma's efforts to obtain third-party debt or other sources of capital;
- Purdue Pharma's motivations for pursuing an abuse-deterrent formulation of OxyContin;
- Reactions by senior Purdue Pharma executives and members of the Board to press articles reporting on the national opioid crisis; and
- The extent to which members of the Sackler Families controlled or dominated Purdue Pharma.

Davis Polk also reviewed approximately 760,500 additional internal Purdue Pharma documents in connection with responding to requests for discovery from the Creditors' Committee. Also considered and analyzed were documents identified by the Creditors' Committee and shared with Davis Polk on a common interest basis as relevant to the potential claims.

In addition to its collection and review of internal Purdue Pharma documents, Davis Polk also participated in efforts led primarily by the Creditors' Committee and NCSG to obtain discovery from parties and non-parties in these proceedings, including the Sackler Families, the law firm Norton Rose Fulbright LLP, the IACs, certain financial institutions, and others.[70] Specifically, on behalf of the Special Committee, Davis Polk participated in over 20 teleconferences between the creditors and Sackler Families and Sackler Entities regarding the scope of discovery, among other issues. Davis Polk also participated in over a dozen additional calls and other communications relating to discovery from Norton Rose Fulbright LLP.

Based on the results of these efforts, Davis Polk, on behalf of the Special Committee, conducted numerous individual targeted searches over custodial documents, electronic records, and financial records produced by the parties and non-parties to probe key events, individuals, and relevant issues, as listed above.

Finally, Davis Polk reviewed and analyzed documents relating to Purdue Pharma's long and complex history of opioid-related litigation and legal liability principally arising from its sale and promotion of OxyContin, as well as relevant documents bearing on its long history of patent litigation. Davis Polk considered and analyzed public and internal documents related to Purdue Pharma's history of litigation and government investigations, including complaints and other court filings, subpoenas, civil investigative demands, plea agreements, settlement documents, and court decisions spanning from early 2001 through the Petition Date.

In all, Davis Polk, and other attorneys working at its direction, reviewed over 960,670 documents, comprising over seven million pages, in connection with its investigation into potential estate claims.

(iv) Forensic Analysis of Transfers to or for the Benefit of Sackler Entities

[70] See supra, Article III.Q.

The Special Committee commissioned a sweeping review of transfers of value to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities, including to assess potential recoveries by the Debtors from the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities on a variety of legal theories. In furtherance of the Special Committee's investigation, Davis Polk engaged experts experienced in both forensic accounting and the valuation of pharmaceutical assets to assist Davis Polk by compiling and analyzing data at Purdue Pharma and obtained in discovery from third parties to identify transfers by Purdue Pharma to the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities or commercial dealings with Sackler Entities that might support claims of recoupment by the Debtors, on a variety of legal theories.

In April 2019, Davis Polk engaged AlixPartners to perform a comprehensive forensic review to identify (i) all material cash transfers of value to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities and (ii) all material dealings between Purdue Pharma and the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities, in both cases from 2008 through September 2019.

AlixPartners is a preeminent consulting firm that provides forensic accountings, financial analyses, and other professional services. The AlixPartners team was led by Richard Collura, a Managing Director who specializes in large-scale financial investigations and complex forensic accounting. Mr. Collura has worked with counsel in representing companies, boards of directors, audit committees, special committees, and creditors' committees in connection with bankruptcy cases and other distressed company situations. He is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Fraud Examiner, Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor, and is certified in financial forensics by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Mr. Collura was assisted in his work by an experienced team of professionals including Certified Public Accountants (CPAs), Certified Fraud Examiners (CFEs), CFA charterholders and Masters of Business Administration (MBAs), many of whom have been Certified in Financial Forensics by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

AlixPartners has extensive experience conducting large-scale, high-profile independent forensic accounting investigations. Its professionals assisting Davis Polk with the investigation on behalf of the Special Committee have a comprehensive understanding of how transactions are recorded in accounting systems and the technical capabilities to extract, manage, and analyze large sets of transactional data. They have performed complex cash tracing analyses and traced assets transferred around the world, and conducted investigations involving intercompany transactions as well as transactions with insiders and related/affiliated entities.

AlixPartners had full access to Purdue Pharma's internal accounting systems, documents and personnel, including individuals in Purdue Pharma's finance and legal functions, as well as access to personnel at OSR, an IAC that provides facilities and administrative services to Purdue Pharma and PPI, and TXP Services Inc. ("TXP"), an IAC that provides accounting and other administrative services to Purdue and PPI.[71]

[71] The various services agreements between Purdue Pharma and PPI, on the one hand, and TXP and OSR, on the other hand, have been renegotiated at the direction of the Special Committee, such that TXP and OSR no longer provide the accounting, facilities and administrative services to Purdue Pharma and PPI that were historically provided in years prior.

(A) Cash Transfers

At the request and working under the supervision of Davis Polk, AlixPartners generated a comprehensive 355-page report on behalf of the Special Committee of all cash transfers to the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities from January 1, 2008 through September 30, 2019 (the "1A Report"). The 1A Report details approximately $10.347 billion in total net cash distributions paid by Purdue Pharma and Rhodes to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities during this time period. These amounts include $4.120 billion in cash distributions to partners of Purdue Pharma, approximately $4.680 billion in Tax Distributions for the benefit of partners, and approximately $1.547 billion in distributions earmarked for other Sackler Entities.[72]

In preparing its report, AlixPartners reviewed, among other things, organizational charts of entities owned by the Sackler Families, Purdue Pharma's SAP accounting system, audited financial statements, internal financial and accounting statements and records, payroll records, pension benefit records, and travel and expense reimbursement reports and records. AlixPartners interviewed 19 employees of Purdue Pharma, OSR, and TXP in connection with the 1A Report. AlixPartners' investigation and the report required approximately 6,500 hours to complete over the course of seven months.

At Davis Polk's direction, AlixPartners presented its findings as reflected in the draft 1A Report to the Special Committee and furthered certain points of its analysis in response to the Special Committee's review. The Special Committee authorized the Debtors to make the contents of the report public, and on December 16, 2019, the Debtors filed the 1A Report with the Bankruptcy Court [D.I. 654].[73]

(B) Non-Cash Transfers and Intercompany Dealings

Also at the request and working under the direction of Davis Polk, AlixPartners produced a second comprehensive 400-page report on behalf of the Special Committee that detailed Purdue Pharma's non-cash distributions and transfers and other dealings with Sackler Entities between January 1, 2008 and September 15, 2019 (the "1B Report"). The forensic investigation and analysis required for the 1B Report similarly required an exhaustive review of, among other things, organizational charts of entities owned by the Sackler Families, Purdue Pharma's SAP accounting system, audited financial statements, internal accounting records and other documentation regarding intercompany transactions (e.g., invoices and wire instructions) maintained by Purdue Pharma. AlixPartners also interviewed numerous employees of Purdue Pharma and TXP in connection with the 1B Report. AlixPartners' work on the 1B Report required approximately 4,500 hours over a period of 12 months.

The 1B Report identified intercompany dealings between Purdue Pharma and the Sackler Entities, including royalty arrangements to sell OxyContin outside the United States, service agreements, and asset transfers; intercompany dealings between the Rhodes Debtors and Sackler Entities, including for active pharmaceutical ingredients; intercompany dealings between Purdue

[72] The figures identified in the 1A Report were essentially identical to those identified in the Company's earlier calculation.

[73] The 1A Report was redacted consistent with the operative protective order in the Chapter 11 Cases.

Pharma and the Rhodes Debtors, including for contract manufacturing services; and non-cash distributions from Purdue Pharma to its shareholders, including distributions of equity in related- and third-party entities and distributions of the rights to non-ADF OxyContin and other products.

At Davis Polk's direction, AlixPartners presented its findings as reflected in the draft 1B Report to the Special Committee and furthered certain points of its analysis in response to the Special Committee's review. The Special Committee authorized the Debtors to make the contents of the report public, and on May 29, 2020, the Debtors filed the 1B Report with the Bankruptcy Court [D.I. 1194].[74]

(C) Valuation of Non-Cash Transfers and Intercompany Dealings

As a complement to AlixPartners' work in detailing the transactions contained in the 1B Report, Davis Polk retained the financial advisory firm Bates White, a leading financial consulting firm with expertise in valuation, transfer pricing, econometrics and data analysis and significant experience in the pharmaceutical and life sciences industries, to perform an analysis to determine whether, for each of the material transfers or transactions identified by AlixPartners in the 1B Report, (i) Purdue Pharma received fair value and (ii) if Purdue Pharma did not receive fair value, an estimation of the excess value provided by Purdue Pharma over the value (if any) that it received in exchange. Among numerous other items, Bates White assessed whether, for example, Purdue Pharma granted licenses to various IACs to market and sell OxyContin at royalty rates that were lower than a true arm's-length royalty, or whether Purdue Pharma paid various IACs amounts for services or for supply of API at rates higher than true arm's-length service and supply rates. In addition to this valuation and transfer pricing analysis, Davis Polk also asked Bates White to analyze the Tax Distributions identified by AlixPartners in the 1A Report to assess amounts actually paid to taxing authorities, as well as the portions of such amounts attributable to profits earned by Purdue Pharma as opposed to other Sackler Entities.

The valuation and transfer pricing analysis performed by Bates White was led by Dr. David DeRamus, a partner and founding member of Bates White and an expert in transfer pricing and tax, antitrust and competition, and public policy and regulatory economics. He has provided expert analysis on a number of topics, including pricing analysis, damages analysis, quantitative modeling, and valuation. Dr. DeRamus received a doctorate and a master's degree in economics from the University of Massachusetts and a Bachelor's degree from Duke University.

To prepare its transfer pricing analysis, Bates White reviewed, among other things, numerous documents provided by Purdue Pharma and produced by various IACs, including, for example, audited financial statements, Board materials and presentations, intercompany licensing, servicing and manufacturing supply agreements, and other internal records. In addition, Bates White reviewed over 4,000 documents, as well as other data from third-party sources, including, for example, information from commercial databases regarding third-party licensing agreements, public regulatory filings from third parties in the pharmaceutical industry, and other documents in the public domain. Bates White's analysis required approximately 15,130 hours over a period of more than 18 months.

Based on this analysis, Bates White determined in its professional judgment that Purdue Pharma transferred significant value to the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities between January 1, 2008 and September 15, 2019. These value transfers included, among other things, the distribution by Purdue Pharma of non-Cash Assets on certain occasions between 2008 and 2019—such as, for example, equity interests in businesses distributed out of Purdue Pharma in 2013 and 2014 and the assignment by Purdue Pharma of the right to future royalties payable on non-ADF formulations of OxyContin in 2017. Bates White also determined that certain dealings between Purdue Pharma and the Sackler Families and various Sackler Entities were not conducted on arm's-length terms, including in particular that Purdue Pharma received below-market royalties from the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities on sales of OxyContin.

Davis Polk and Bates White presented Bates White's preliminary findings as to these matters to the Special Committee, including the different amounts of value that Bates White estimated in its professional judgment had been transferred from Purdue Pharma to the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities as a result of the activities identified in the 1B Report.

At Davis Polk's direction, Dr. DeRamus and his colleagues at Bates White also presented their preliminary assessments and analyses with respect to these issues on a common interest basis to the legal counsel and the financial advisors for the Creditors' Committee on May 21, 2020 and September 21, 2020, and members of the investigation teams at Davis Polk and Bates White had numerous follow-on video or telephonic conferences on a common interest basis with the Creditors' Committee and its advisors on Bates White's methodology, views, and the evidence relied upon in making its assessments.

(v) Insolvency Analysis

With respect to its evaluation of potential constructive fraudulent conveyance claims, Davis Polk, on behalf of the Special Committee, directed Bates White to also complete two complementary analyses: (a) a "foreseeability" analysis evaluating the impact that certain events may have had on the foreseeability of Purdue Pharma's default risk and (b) an "accrual analysis" of Purdue Pharma's liabilities to determine its potential insolvency over time.

In conducting these analyses, Bates White reviewed numerous documents including relevant financial statements and business plans, as well as documents reflecting behavior of Purdue Pharma's economic counterparties (e.g., joint ventures, insurers and lenders), market indicators (e.g., Purdue Pharma's indicative credit ratings, industry exclusions, event studies, case studies and competitor disclosures), documents related to the overall legal environment for opioid manufacturers and public awareness of the opioid epidemic, and the DOJ settlement documentation, including any factual admissions and allegations of misconduct.

The foreseeability analysis was led by Dr. Charles Mullin. Dr. Mullin is the Managing Partner of Bates White and is a recognized expert in statistical and data analysis, econometrics, economic and microsimulation modeling, insurance allocation, and asbestos-related matters. He has provided expert opinions and testimony in a wide range of matters, including the valuation of mass tort claims in the class action and bankruptcy contexts. Dr. Mullin has published numerous papers on applied and theoretical econometrics and labor economics in peer-reviewed journals. He received a doctorate in economics from the University of Chicago and a Bachelor's degree in mathematics and economics from the University of California, Berkeley.

Bates White presented the findings of the foreseeability analysis and the accrual analysis to the Special Committee.

(vi) Depositions and Interviews

Davis Polk attended all 16 discovery depositions conducted in these Chapter 11 Cases. The deponents included every living member of the Sackler Families who served on the Board, each of Purdue Pharma's current and former CEOs, and several advisors to Purdue Pharma and the Sackler Families. The examinations were conducted primarily by counsel for the Creditors' Committee and the NCSG, and in furtherance of cooperation with counsel for both groups, Davis Polk on repeated occasions provided select documents to the Creditors' Committee in advance for potential use during the depositions. In addition, prior to certain depositions, Davis Polk conferred with counsel for one or both groups regarding potential lines of examination.

In addition to participating in depositions, Davis Polk interviewed a number of key individuals in connection with various aspects of the investigation into potential estate claims. For example, in connection with its investigation into the circumstances surrounding the formation of Rhodes Pharma, Davis Polk interviewed six current and former Purdue Pharma and Rhodes Pharma officers and Directors. As noted, Bates White and Davis Polk also jointly interviewed 15 Purdue Pharma employees and advisors in connection with the investigation into various cash and non-cash transfers from Purdue Pharma. In addition, throughout the investigation, Davis Polk held numerous discussions with senior and longtime members of Purdue Pharma's in-house legal department with respect to Purdue Pharma's history of OxyContin-related litigation and government investigations, corporate governance issues, the Board's decision-making processes, including how decisions were made concerning the IACs, the purpose and functions of certain Sackler Entities, and various royalty and licensing arrangements, among other things.[75]

(vi) Information Presented on Behalf of the Sackler Families

To complement its review of large numbers of internal Purdue Pharma and third-party documents, Davis Polk and its advisors also received and evaluated a series of detailed presentations and supporting documentation provided by representatives of the Sackler Families on several key topics, including the Sackler Families' trust structures, the amount and location of assets held by the Sackler Families, and the Sackler Families' defenses to primary liability and estate claims. The Sackler Families had agreed to make these presentations, and to supply the required information, under the terms of a case management stipulation signed on November 5, 2019, and so-ordered by the Bankruptcy Court on November 20, 2019. See Amended and Restated

[75] In connection with the transfer pricing analysis, Davis Polk and Bates White jointly interviewed 13 Purdue Pharma employees, including select members of Purdue Pharma's legal, finance, operations, sales and marketing, R&D, and regulatory affairs functions, as well as two outside advisors associated with Norton Rose Fulbright LLP.

Case Stipulation Among the Debtors, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors and Certain Related Parties (the "Case Management Stipulation") [D.I. 431-1].

- On November 22, 2019, the Davis Polk investigation team attended an approximately four-hour oral presentation by Debevoise & Plimpton LLP ("Debevoise") on behalf of Side A and Milbank LLP ("Milbank") and Joseph Hage Aaronson LLC ("Joseph Hage") on behalf of the descendants of Raymond R. Sackler ("Side B" of the Sackler Families) regarding the general classes of assets held by the Initial Covered Sackler Persons ("ICSPs"), as defined in the Case Management Stipulation. The Davis Polk investigation team also received and reviewed an accompanying 130-page presentation from Side A regarding the general classes of assets for Side A ICSPs and a 108-page presentation and 21-page supplemental presentation regarding the general classes of assets for Side B ICSPs;

- On December 9, 2019, the Davis Polk investigation team attended an approximately seven-hour oral presentation by Debevoise on behalf of Side A and Milbank and Joseph Hage on behalf of Side B regarding the Sackler Families' defenses to primary liability and estate claims and arguments in favor of settlement. The Davis Polk investigation team also received and reviewed an accompanying 128-page presentation from Side A and a 580-page presentation from Side B;

- On January 29, 2020, the Special Committee received an approximately three-hour oral presentation from Debevoise on behalf of Side A and Milbank and Joseph Hage on behalf of Side B regarding their defenses to primary liability and estate claims and arguments in favor of settlement;

- On January 15, 2020, the Davis Polk investigation team attended an approximately four-and-one-half-hour oral presentation by Debevoise on behalf of Side A and Milbank and Joseph Hage on behalf of Side B covering the aggregate value of the assets and approximate liabilities of the Side B ICSPs. Davis Polk also received and reviewed an accompanying 168-page presentation from Side A and an accompanying 101-page presentation from Side B;

- On August 13, 2020, the Davis Polk investigation team attended an approximately one-hour oral presentation by Milbank, Joseph Hage, and Huron Consulting Group, financial advisors to Side B. Davis Polk also received and reviewed an accompanying 102-page presentation covering the flow of funds from Purdue Pharma to the so-called Top-Level Entities, transfers among the Top-Level Entities, and subsequent transfers to other parties;[76] and [76] For purposes of the presentation, the term "Top-Level Entities" was defined to include the Rosebay Medical Company L.P., Trust U/A 11/5/74 fbo Beverly Sackler (a/k/a the "74A Trust"), Rosebay Medical Company, Inc., 1974 Irrevocable Trust A fbo BS and RSS, 1974 Irrevocable Trust A fbo BS and JDS, Trust B U/A dtd 11/5/74 fbo Beverly Sackler, 1974 Irrevocable Investment Trust, Raymond R. Sackler Trust 1 dtd 12/23/89, Raymond R. Sackler Trust 2 dtd 12/23/89, Raymond R. Sackler Trust 1B dtd 12/23/89, Raymond R. Sackler Trust 2B dtd 12/23/89, AR Irrevocable Trust and AJ Irrevocable Trust.

- On September 17, 2020, the Davis Polk investigation team attended an approximately one-half-hour oral presentation by Debevoise and received and reviewed 16 accompanying spreadsheets detailing the flow of funds from Purdue Pharma to Beacon Company and related entities, including trusts held for the benefit of members of Side A.

(vii) Cooperation with the Creditors' Committee

In conjunction with and as part of the Special Committee's investigation, Davis Polk and the Special Committee's financial advisors cooperated on an ongoing basis since early November 2019 with the legal counsel and financial advisors to the Creditors' Committee as co-fiduciaries of the Debtors' estates, in evaluating potential claims by the Debtors against the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities.

In furtherance of that cooperation, and pursuant to a common interest understanding between counsel for the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee with respect to the assessment and prosecution of the claims of the Debtors' estates as to the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities, Davis Polk and the Special Committee's financial advisors participated in more than 25 substantive in-person meetings and teleconferences with the legal and financial advisors to the Creditors' Committee, as well as innumerable emails.

In these exchanges, the Creditors' Committee had direct access to the Special Committee's legal and financial advisors on matters concerning potential estate claims. Bates White, for example, participated in numerous hours-long meetings with the Creditors' Committee's counsel and financial advisors for common interest discussions of matters including but not limited to (a) methodological approaches to evaluating the value of non-cash transfers and intercompany transactions between Purdue Pharma and various Sackler Entities; and (b) interim conclusions by Bates White with respect to the values of various equity transfers, licenses granted with respect to OxyContin, and the 2017 assignment by PPLP of its royalty rights to non-ADF OxyContin. In the course of these discussions, Bates White explained its methodology and assessment of relevant factors with the Creditors' Committee's financial advisors, Province and Ocean Tomo. It also discussed its findings with the Ad Hoc Committee's professionals at FTI.

Throughout its investigation, Davis Polk shared with counsel to the Creditors' Committee, on a common interest basis, certain work product concerning potential estate claims, including among other things, preliminary legal analysis, document compilations relevant to specific deponents, and draft reports prepared by AlixPartners and Bates White.

Davis Polk also engaged in extensive discussions with counsel to the Creditors' Committee throughout the discovery period in the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases, in order to, among other things: (a) identify an appropriately scoped set of documents for the Debtors to produce to the Creditors' Committee and (b) assist with the Creditors' Committee and NCSG's depositions of the Sackler Families, current and former Board members, current employees of the Debtors, and other parties. With respect to the scope, Davis Polk engaged with the Creditors' Committee to best identify the materials relevant to potential estate claims and to produce an appropriate and extensive volume of documents and information.[77]

Davis Polk also ensured that non-privileged documents identified by the Special Committee team as relevant to potential estate claims were produced to the Creditors' Committee. And, pursuant to a stipulation between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee in connection with a negotiated resolution of two motions filed by the Creditors' Committee, Davis Polk also provided privileged Purdue Pharma documents that were deemed material to its analysis of potential estate claims to the Creditors' Committee on a common interest basis, representing an extraordinary level of cooperation with the Creditors' Committee on the part of the Debtors. Indeed, soon after the stipulation was reached, the Creditors' Committee itself informed the Bankruptcy Court that it was "aware of no other debtor agreeing to supply privileged documents to its creditors, certainly not on this scale." See Creditors' Committee Reply in Support of Its Motion to Compel Production of Purportedly Privileged Documents [D.I. 2014].

(viii) Evaluation of Potential Claims by Special Committee

As the work of the Special Committee's advisors was ongoing, the Special Committee received regular briefings and a series of in-depth presentations from Davis Polk, AlixPartners, and Bates White on relevant factual findings and legal analysis concerning potential estate claims, including on, among other topics, the value of the distributions to or for the benefit of the Sackler Families and Sackler Entities; the factual investigation into the cash and non-cash transfers made from Purdue Pharma; the transfer pricing analysis to determine whether Purdue Pharma received fair value for each of the material transfers or transactions made from Purdue Pharma; the legal framework for evaluating potential estate claims; the availability and range of prejudgment interest on potential estate claims; and the standards used by courts to decide whether to approve settlements in the bankruptcy context.

Davis Polk also periodically provided the Special Committee with a chronology of select documents identified as relevant to potential estate claims, as well as portfolios of the underlying documents. Over time, the chronology was expanded to include pertinent documents from productions by parties and non-parties in the Chapter 11 Cases, such as the Sackler Families and Norton Rose Fulbright LLP, and documents highlighted by the Creditors' Committee as relevant to estate claims.

Based on the investigation and analysis of its advisors, the Special Committee assessed the strength of the estate claims and any issues of fact and law that might be disputed in a potential litigation. The Special Committee considered the strength of the evidence, as well as the legal and expert analyses presented by its advisors. The Special Committee considered a number of issues of fact and law that could affect the value of the claims including, but not limited to:

[77] Davis Polk also devised technical solutions with the Debtors' discovery vendor to help remove duplicative documents to ensure efficiency; proposed numerous refinements to improve the Creditors' Committee's search terms; and participated in multiple teleconferences with the Creditors' Committee related to potential custodians of electronic documents for collection and review.

- The substance and strength of the evidence supporting the estate causes of action, including the substance and strength of any evidence of intent to transfer assets in order to frustrate creditors;

- The legal and factual basis for concluding that Purdue Pharma was insolvent prior to the Petition Date based on unliquidated and, often, unasserted claims;

- The applicable statute of limitations relevant to the fraudulent transfer claims;

- Whether all transfers of value may be avoidable based on fraudulent transfer claims, with a particular focus on Tax Distributions and the below-market royalty arrangements;

- The ability to recover and potential value of prejudgment interest; and

- The collectability of any judgments against individuals, trusts, and other affiliated entities, including in connection with assets located outside the United States.

(ix) Negotiation and Approval of the Proposed Settlement and Release

On September 30, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Supplemental Mediation Order, which authorized the Mediators to continue the Pre-Confirmation Mediation to resolve certain open issues referenced in the Mediators' Report, as well as to mediate the estate causes of action. See Order Expanding Scope of Mediation (the "Supplemental Mediation Order") [D.I. 1756].

On November 13, 2020, in the context of the parties' then-ongoing Mediation, Davis Polk attended an oral presentation by the Creditors' Committee on its provisional views and findings with respect to its investigation of potential estate causes of action. With the consent of the Creditors' Committee, on November 24, 2020, Davis Polk reviewed aspects of the Creditors' Committee's presentation with the Special Committee, and provided the Special Committee with a redacted version of the presentation consistent with the operative protective order in the Chapter 11 Cases.

In December 2020 and January 2021, as the Pre-Confirmation Mediation advanced, the Special Committee formally met on no fewer than eight occasions. Moreover, counsel had numerous additional calls with the Chair of the Special Committee and other members of the Special Committee. The Special Committee was provided regular updates on the Pre-Confirmation Mediation, including offers and counteroffers that had been communicated through the Mediators by the NCSG, on the one hand, and the Sackler Families, on the other hand. The Special Committee also discussed with its advisors the Debtors' strategic objectives in the Pre-Confirmation Mediation and potential alternative plans of reorganization, including such alternatives that both included and excluded contributions from a potential settlement with the Sackler Families. Among other things, financial advisors provided critical information on the feasibility of the Company to operate post-emergence in light of potential mediation outcomes. Counsel also continued to update the Special Committee on the ongoing investigation.

On January 19, 2021, Davis Polk received additional information from the Creditors' Committee regarding documents considered by its advisors to be relevant to the estate causes of action, which were subsequently provided to the Special Committee. At the same time, on January 19, 2021, the Special Committee authorized the Special Committee's advisors to continue negotiations at the direction of the Special Committee Chair in between meetings of the Special Committee. In addition to this authorization, the Special Committee resolved to continue to meet regularly to ensure that, among other things, all members of the Special Committee were apprised of developments in the Pre-Confirmation Mediation and ongoing negotiations.

On January 22, 2021, the Special Committee was advised that the Mediators had made a joint Mediators' proposal. During a nearly two-hour meeting of the Special Committee on January 22, advisors provided the Special Committee with a comprehensive update on the investigation, including analysis of the estate causes of action and potential recoveries. The presentation also discussed the possible methodologies developed by economic advisors at Bates White for calculating the present value of the settlement proposal based on assumptions regarding the payment schedule. Following the presentation, the Special Committee authorized the Debtors to convey to the other parties to the Pre-Confirmation Mediation that the Special Committee supported ongoing negotiations subject to the satisfactory resolution of all economic terms.

With the Special Committee's authorization, the Debtors began to take an active role in the negotiations and at all times kept the Special Committee informed through contemporaneous email, calls and meetings of the status. During a Special Committee meeting on January 28, 2021, the Special Committee was advised that the Debtors, together with the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the MSGE had written to the representatives of the Sackler Families and the Mediators to convey their willingness to continue negotiations with the Sackler Families based on the terms of the Mediators' proposal of January 21, 2021.

On January 29, 2021, the Sackler Families expressed their willingness to engage in such negotiations, accepting a payment amount and proposing a payment schedule. On January 31, 2021, the Pre-Confirmation Mediation formally concluded pursuant to court order, but settlement negotiations continued among the Sackler Families, the Debtors, the NCSG, the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the MSGE. From January 29, 2021 to February 18, 2021, the Sackler Families and the Debtors, together with the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the MSGE, exchanged eight offers and counteroffers. Each of the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the MSGE supported each of the counteroffers. In addition to the Special Committee's discussion of the negotiations during meetings on February 2 and 16, 2021, the Special Committee Chair, as authorized by the Special Committee, subsequently approved all counteroffers proposed jointly by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the MSGE to the Sackler Families. Economic advisors from Bates White provided constant financial analysis of the present value of the settlement proposals.

On February 21, 2021, all members of the Special Committee approved a best and final offer to the Sackler Families regarding the payment schedule. The offer, also supported by the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, and the MSGE, as every counteroffer, was accepted by the Sackler Families on February 22. During a meeting on February 24, the Special Committee was provided an update on negotiations regarding all other terms, including payment guarantees, that the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, the MSGE, and the Sackler Families were continuing to negotiate. The Special Committee was also provided an update on any additional investigatory work performed on its behalf.

On March 2, March 8 and March 11, the Special Committee was again provided updates on the ongoing negotiation of the additional settlement terms, including terms relating to credit support, remedies, terms of releases and other terms. At a meeting of the Special Committee held on Sunday, March 14, in advance of a full board meeting, the Special Committee authorized the filing of the Twelfth Amended Plan, including the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets (defined below).

3. The Initial Terms of Settlement of Claims Against the Sackler Families

The initial terms of the settlement with certain Sackler Entities (excluding the IACs but including certain direct and indirect owners of the IACs) (the "Sackler Parties") were set forth in the term sheets (the "Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets") attached to the Disclosure Statement for Fifth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Purdue Pharma L.P. and its Affiliated Debtors (the "Original Disclosure Statement") as Appendix G, which document the principal terms of an initial settlement agreement (the "Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement") that was included in the plan supplement for the Twelfth Amended Plan.

The settlement with the Sackler Parties required payments from the Sackler Parties totaling $4.275 billion over nine years (or ten years if certain amounts were paid ahead of schedule in the first five years), up from $3 billion over seven years under the Initial Settlement Framework. The expected schedule of payments, which allowed adjustment based on the actual effective date of the Twelfth Amended Plan, (the "Initial Required Settlement Payments") is set forth below.

Date	Initial Required Settlement Payments
Effective Date	$300 million
June 30, 2022	$350 million
June 30, 2023	$350 million
June 30, 2024	$350 million
June 30, 2025	$350 million
June 30, 2026	$300 million
June 30, 2027	$1 billion
June 30, 2028	$475 million
June 30, 2029	$425 million, subject to deferral of up to $25 million
June 30, 2030	$375 million, subject to deferral of up to $175 million
June 30, 2031	Up to $200 million, consisting of any deferred amounts

The potential deferral of certain Initial Required Settlement Payments would have been applicable as follows: each dollar in excess of $2.5 billion up to and including $2.675 billion in the aggregate that the Master Disbursement Trust actually receives pursuant to the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement on or prior to June 30, 2026 would have been deferred one dollar, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $175 million, of Initial Required Settlement

Payments otherwise payable on June 30, 2030 to instead become payable on June 30, 2031. Furthermore, each dollar in excess of $2.675 billion that the Master Disbursement Trust actually receives pursuant to the Settlement Agreement on or prior to June 30, 2026 would have been deferred one dollar, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $25 million, of Initial Required Settlement Payments otherwise payable on June 30, 2029 to instead become payable on June 30, 2031. Deferrals would have only been made if the aggregate amount available for deferral exceeded $25 million.

As described in more detail in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets, Initial Required Settlement Payments payable on June 30, 2023 or later, as well as certain other payments to be made by the Sackler Parties to the Master Distribution Trust pursuant to the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement, would have been made into escrow, paused or terminated (and amounts held in escrow would have been returned to the Sackler Parties), depending on whether the Confirmation Order had been appealed and the status or outcome of such appeal.

The Sackler Parties and certain other persons and/or individuals would have received the benefit of Releases and injunctions described in the Twelfth Amended Plan, as consideration for such payments under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

As described in more detail in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets, the Sackler Parties would have been required to use their best efforts to sell the IACs within seven years. All cash proceeds received by the Sackler Parties from the IACs, in connection with a sale or otherwise, would have been deposited and maintained in pledged and perfected deposit accounts or escrow accounts for the benefit of the Master Distribution Trust, with certain withdrawals permitted from such accounts as described in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets. Certain of such proceeds would have been used to satisfy the next due Initial Required Settlement Payment(s), after accounting for a deduction consistent with the initial Settlement Framework based on the amount of previously funded Initial Required Settlement Payments, as well as other deductions that were agreed in connection with the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

As collateral for the Initial Required Settlement Payments and other obligations of the Sackler Parties under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement, all equity interests in certain holding companies of the IACs owned by the Sackler Parties (subject to exclusions) were to be pledged for the benefit of the Master Disbursement Trust. Moreover, certain Sackler Parties would have provided additional collateral under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement of certain of the Sackler Parties that are trusts and in the case of the Raymond Sackler family collateral in the form of equity interests in investment holding companies that directly or indirectly own investment assets.

The Debtors and other parties were provided substantial information regarding the quantum of the Sackler Families' wealth, its location, the holdings and risk profile of various individual members of the Sackler Families and their trusts, and other factors relevant to collectability in connection with the extensive discovery conducted during these cases. Further detailed information regarding the net asset values of the proposed obligors under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement was provided to the Debtors and other parties in response to diligence requests in connection with the settlement negotiations.

Under the terms of the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement, the obligation of the Sackler Parties to pay the $4.275 billion settlement amount was to be allocated between Side A and Side B of the Sackler Families on a 50/50 basis between the Side A and Side B Sackler Families, and then further allocated on a 50/50 basis within the Side B Sackler Families and on a 1/8 basis within the Side A Sackler Families, subject in each case to a financial adjustment mechanism based on the gross proceeds from the sale of the IACs (which would shift settlement obligations from Side A to Side B in the event IAC proceeds were in the lower end of the expected range and from Side B to Side A if IAC proceeds exceeded certain thresholds) and in the case of the A-Side Payment Group 8, subject to further adjustments, as set forth in more detail in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets. Within the Side A and Side B families, there were also significant disparities between the financial positions and holdings of the various individuals and family groups. These differences between the separate family groups were taken into account within each of the 10 family groups in order to tailor an overall credit support package that would maximize the likelihood of recovery of the overall obligations under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement, as set out in greater detail in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets.

The settlement obligations of Side A of the Sackler Families were further allocated, largely on a pro rata basis, among eight different groups consisting of certain trusts, individuals and/or other entities that were obligors under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement. The information received from Side A of the Sackler Family as of September 30, 2020 for trusts and for individuals (which, depending on the individual, may be as of September 30, 2020 or September/October 2019), which information was based on a methodology developed by the Sackler Families and subject to change since such respective dates, indicated that for each Side A group, the combined net asset value of the obligors in such Side A group represented an approximate multiple of more than 1.4x of the potential settlement obligations of the Side A group, on average across all of the Side A groups (including working assumptions for the IACs, per discussions between financial advisors to the Debtors and other parties). In addition, and as part of such net asset value, as detailed in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets, certain obligors within each of the Side A groups were to provide additional collateral to support the settlement obligations, consisting of deposit accounts funded with cash and cash equivalents, equity interests in holding companies that directly or indirectly own investment assets, real estate and/or other assets and security interests over substantially all of the assets of certain trusts.

Side B of the Sackler Families was divided into only two separate groups consisting of trusts, individuals and/or other entities that would be obligors under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement, with settlement obligations allocated on a pro rata basis between the two Side B groups. The information received from Side B of the Sackler Family as of September 30, 2020 and October 2019 for individuals, trusts, and entities, which information was based on a methodology developed by the Sackler Families and was subject to change since such respective dates, indicated that for each Side B group, the combined net asset value of the obligors in such Side B groups represented an approximate multiple, on average across both of the Side B Groups, of more than 2.0x of the potential settlement obligations of the Side B group (including working assumptions for the IACs, per discussions between financial advisors to the Debtors and other parties). As collateral to support the settlement obligations, the Side B groups also pledged equity interests in certain holding companies that indirectly owned investment assets, which, across both Side B groups, were valued at over $1 billion.

The net asset values described above referred to the proposed obligors under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement and did not represent the total net asset value of all individuals, entities and trusts associated with the Sackler Families.

In addition, certain Sackler Entities were prohibited from engaging in the manufacturing or sale of opioids, subject to exceptions to be agreed. Certain of the Sackler Parties agreed to additional affirmative and restrictive covenants, including with respect to the collateral provided, as more fully described in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets.

Remedies for breach of the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement included, without limitation, acceleration of the unpaid and unfunded obligations of the defaulting Sackler Parties, voiding the releases applicable to the Sackler Parties in breach and certain other members of the Sackler Entities related to the breaching Sackler Parties, foreclosure by the Master Disbursement Trust on the collateral provided, and enforcement of confessions of judgment by the applicable Sackler Parties admitting the obligations that had come due and certain other remedies to be mutually agreed. For additional detail regarding such terms, see the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets attached to the Original Disclosure Statement as Appendix F.

The Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement also resolved certain other matters between certain Sackler Entities and the Debtors, including that it would be a condition precedent to the effectiveness of the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement that the matters related to the ongoing contractual and intellectual property relationships among the Debtors, the Specified Parties (as defined in the Initial Shareholder Settlement Term Sheets) and the IACs had been mutually agreed, and that certain agreements related to such matters had been executed, including, but not limited to, an agreement between Avrio and PRA, pursuant to which (i) certain existing licenses from PRA to Avrio for the exploitation of Senokot-branded and Betadine-branded over-the-counter products would be terminated and (ii) all of the intellectual property licensed from PRA to Avrio under such existing licenses would be assigned to Avrio.

Y. Subsequent Shareholder Settlement

1. The Terms of Settlement of Claims Against the Sackler Parties

The principal terms of the Shareholder Settlements with the Sackler Payment Parties will be documented in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Confirmation Order, the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, and the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements. The rights and obligations of all parties under the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements remain subject to the finalization of such agreements.

Certain key terms of the Shareholder Settlements, including the terms of the settlement among the Shareholder Payment Parties and Holders of both Third-Party Payor Claims and PI Claims and the Debtors' releases of the Shareholder Released Estate Claims against the Shareholder Released Parties, are set forth in the Plan.

The Debtors, the Sackler Payment Parties and certain other parties will also enter into the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, which will govern the Sackler Payment Parties' settlement payment obligations on an aggregate basis, the terms, conditions and details with respect to such payments and general implementation of the Shareholder Settlements (e.g., provisions relating to the sale of the IACs and snapback litigation in the event of a default), the establishment of certain reserves (as described below), and certain other Sackler Payment Party covenants in connection with the Shareholder Settlements. An initial draft of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement is filed at D.I. [●] and is part of the Plan Supplement.

In addition to the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, certain Settling Creditors will enter into Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements pursuant to which such Settling Creditors will provide releases of claims against the Shareholder Released Parties and the Released Parties. The Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements will provide specific terms governing the terms and enforcement of payment obligations of the Sackler Payment Parties to such Settling Creditors.[78]

In aggregate, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements require payments from the Sackler Parties of up to $6.5 billion over fifteen years,[79] which represents an increase in the Sackler Parties' payment obligations from the $4.325 billion over nine years required under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement. Additionally, if the net proceeds from the sale of Sackler Parties' IACs exceed $4.3 billion, the IAC Payment Parties (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) will contribute to the Master Disbursement Trust 90% of such excess net proceeds, up to a maximum of a further $500 million.[80]

The Sackler Payment Parties' payments under the Plan and Shareholder Settlement Agreements will be allocated between the Estate Claims Settlement and the Direct Claims Settlements, the two separate but related components of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements. Of the payments made by the Sackler Parties, approximately one-third (i.e. ~$2.17 billion) will be allocated to the Estate Claims Settlement payments and approximately two-thirds (i.e., ~4.33 billion) will be allocated to Direct Claims Settlements payments. Settling Creditors will receive Distributions on account of both the Estate Claim Settlement and the Direct Claims Settlements. Non-Settling Creditors who do not provide releases to the Sackler Parties will not receive Distributions on account of the Direct Claims Settlements but will be eligible to receive their share (as calculated pursuant to the Plan and Creditor Trust Documents) of Estate Distributions from the Estate Claim Settlement payments and other estate consideration if and when their claims are allowed.

The Sacklers' payments are front-loaded, with approximately 44% of the payments payable in the first three years after the Effective Date. The expected schedule of payments, which may [78] For example, certain holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Sackler Payment Parties will enter into the Governmental Entity Settlement Agreement which will govern direct settlement payment determinations, enforcement, and release terms for Settling Creditors holding Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims. A draft of the Governmental Entity Settlement Agreement is filed at D.I. [●] for informational purposes only (the Debtors are not a party to any Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements).

[79] The Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Sackler Parties' $7 billion maximum contribution will be subject to reduction based upon the number and category of claimants who choose not to provide releases to the Shareholder Released Parties and Released Parties.

[80] Under the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, the IAC Payment Parties must use commercially reasonable efforts to sell IACs within seven years. If they fail to do so, the Master Disbursement Trust will have the option to seek a forced sale for a price in excess of a certain appraised amount.

Effective Date + 15 Years	$191.25 million	$258.75 million	$450 million
Total	$2,762.5 million	$3,737.5 million	$6.5 billion

The Sackler Payment Parties, and certain other persons will receive the benefit of releases and injunctions, as described in Article I.E-F., as consideration for such payments and other agreements under the Shareholder Settlements. The Thirteenth Amended Plan will not contain non-consensual third-party releases. Consistent with the Harrington Decision, public and private claimants who choose not to provide releases to the Shareholder Released Parties and the Released Parties will have the opportunity to pursue litigation against the Shareholder Released Parties and the Released Parties, subject to certain terms and conditions described more fully in the Plan.

The Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement establishes certain "reserves" that will be available to fund "Litigation Costs" (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) comprised of Shareholder Released Parties' litigation and settlement costs relating to, among other things, certain Causes of Action that would have been released pursuant to the 12th Amended Plan (if such Plan were in effect), subject to certain limitations and conditions set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

The Sackler Payment Parties will provide collateral and other forms of credit support to secure the Required Settlement Payments and other obligations of the Sackler Parties under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, as more fully set forth in the Credit Support Annexes to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

As discussed in Article III.Q, supra, the Debtors and other parties were provided substantial information regarding the quantum of the Sackler Families' wealth, its location, the holdings and risk profile of various individual members of the Sackler Families and their trusts, and other factors relevant to collectability in connection with the extensive discovery conducted during these cases. Further detailed information regarding the net asset values of the proposed obligors under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements was provided to the Debtors and other parties in response to diligence requests in connection with the settlement negotiations.

Under the terms of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, the obligation of the Sackler Parties to pay the $6.5 billion Required Settlement Amount will be allocated between the A-Side and B-Side of the Sackler Families as set forth above and in further detail in the Shareholder Settlement Agreements. Within the A-Side and B-Side of the Sackler Families, there are also significant disparities between the financial positions and holdings of the various individuals and family groups. These differences between the separate family groups will be taken into account within each of the 10 family groups in order to tailor an overall credit support package that will maximize the likelihood of recovery of the overall obligations under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

Finally, consistent with the Debtors' obligations under the DOJ Resolution, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements contemplate the creation of the Public Document Repository, which is described in Article III.W. herein.

Overall, when combined with what the Debtors expect will be approximately $927 million[81] of Effective Date Cash of the Debtors available for distribution on the Effective Date, the total cash consideration available to the creditors under the Plan is anticipated to be up to $7.9 billion. In addition, public claimants may also receive recoveries from insurance and causes of action against third parties.

[81] The $927 million figure is based on current projections and subject to variability based on the Debtors' Effective Date, the cost of the Debtors' bankruptcy cases, and any legal, contractual or other restrictions on such cash.

2. Evaluation of the Settlement with the Sackler Parties

The Shareholder Settlements with the Sackler Parties are key elements of the Plan. Pursuant to these interrelated settlements, the Sackler Parties will pay up to $7 billion in cash over 15 years (subject to certain pre-payment discounts) in exchange for (1) release of civil claims against the Sackler Families and certain other persons by the Debtors under the Plan and (2) releases of direct civil claims against the Sackler Families and certain other persons by only those claimants who elect to settle those claims.[82]

The Sackler Parties' settlement with the Estates and the Direct Claims Settlements are interrelated and mutually conditioned on one another, and together provide substantial value to creditors. The Debtors seek the Court's approval of only the Sackler Parties' settlement with the Estates, which is the only Shareholder Settlement subject to such approval under the Bankruptcy Code. However, the Debtors evaluated—and in the Debtors' view the Court should evaluate—the benefits of the comprehensive resolution provided by the Shareholder Settlements.

As described in Article III.X.2, supra, after an extensive investigation and careful consideration by the Special Committee of potential claims against the Sackler Parties held by the Debtors, and months of engagement with and the involvement of key creditor constituencies including the Creditors' Committee, the AHC, the MSGE Group, the Native American Tribes Group, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the ER Physicians, the Third-Party Payor Group, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants, the NAS Committee, and the Public School District Claimants, the Debtors[83] have determined the Estates' settlement with the Sackler Parties is fair, equitable, and in the best interest of the Debtors' Estates. In light of the enormous value to the Estates provided by the global resolution of the Estate Causes of Action and interrelated opportunity for creditors to resolve (i) Direct Claims and (ii) disputes concerning the validity of claims and allocation of estate proceeds among claimants of the estate, the consideration contemplated by the Shareholder Settlements is well above "the lowest point in the range of reasonableness." In re Telignet Services, Inc., 2010 WL 2034509 at *9 (S.D.N.Y. May 13, 2010) (citing In re W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d 599, 613 (2d Cir. 1983)). Accordingly, the Debtors support the Shareholder Settlements as elements of the Plan, subject to satisfactory resolution of certain terms that continue to be negotiated.

(i) Factors Relevant to Evaluating the Settlements

[82] As described in Article III.CC.3. the Direct Claims Settlements provide individual creditors with the opportunity to settle their Direct Claims in exchange for additional consideration. Creditors who elect to release their Direct Claims against the Sackler Parties will receive their pro rata share of (i) consideration from the Estates and (ii) consideration from the Sackler Parties. Creditors who do not elect to release their Direct Claims will retain such Claims and will be entitled to pursue litigation against the Sackler Parties after the Effective Date.

[83] As discussed in Art. II.E.2., supra, Purdue Pharma's governance documents irrevocably granted an independent Special Committee of the Board of Directors exclusive authority over the prosecution, defense, and settlement of any causes of action Purdue Pharma may assert against its shareholders as well as members of the Sackler Families and their affiliates. As such, all references in this Section to considerations and determinations of the Debtors, as they relate to its evaluation of claims against the Sackler Families and Sackler Parties, reflect considerations and determinations of the Special Committee pursuant to this exclusive delegated authority.

Under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019, any settlement of claims of or against the Debtors is subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court. Further, because the Sackler Parties' settlement with the Estates is an essential element of the Plan, approval of that settlement by the Bankruptcy Court is a necessary precondition to confirmation and consummation of the Plan.

In TMT Trailer Ferry, the U.S. Supreme Court outlined the standards for courts to use in evaluating proposed settlements by debtors in bankruptcy. The key function of courts in that circumstance, the Court explained, is "to compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation." Protective Committee for Independent Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 425 (1968). Following the Supreme Court's decision in TMT Trailer Ferry, courts in the Second Circuit have outlined certain factors to be considered by courts evaluating whether to approve settlements proposed by a debtor in bankruptcy proceedings:

- The balance between the litigation's possibility of success and the settlement's future benefits;
- The likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, "with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay," including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment;
- "[T]he paramount interests of the creditors," including each affected class's relative benefits "and the degree to which creditors either do not object to or affirmatively support the proposed settlement";
- Whether other parties in interest support the settlement;
- The "competency and experience of counsel" supporting, and "[t]he experience and knowledge of the bankruptcy court judge" reviewing, the settlement;
- "[T]he nature and breadth of releases to be obtained by officers and directors"; and
- "[T]he extent to which the settlement is the product of arm's length bargaining."

In re Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d 452, 462 (2d Cir. 2007).

In the following pages, the Debtors summarize their evaluation of the Shareholder Settlements under the foregoing factors to be considered by the Bankruptcy Court in evaluating the settlements and the reasons for the Debtors' belief that, under those factors, the settlements should be approved by the Bankruptcy Court as fair, reasonable and in the best interest of the Debtors' Estates. The Debtors understand that the Bankruptcy Court will have to rule on whether the TMT Trailer factors are satisfied. For purposes of this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors are providing this analysis for the more limited purpose of assisting creditors in understanding the Debtors' rationale for putting forward the Plan. The Debtors are aware that the claims against the Sackler Parties discussed herein may be litigated in the future, either because the settlement is not finally approved or because of a future default event. The analysis balances the need for disclosure regarding the Debtors' support for the Plan with the need to avoid any potential prejudice in future litigation.

(ii) Balancing Possible Litigation Recoveries Against the Benefits of the Settlements

In the Debtors' estimation, the first Iridium factor—the balance between the litigation's likelihood of success and the settlements' future benefits—weighs in favor of approval of the Sackler Parties' settlement with the Estates. As explained in more detail below, success in litigating and collecting on the Debtors' claims against the Sackler Parties cannot be guaranteed, whereas the Shareholder Settlements promise very significant benefits for the Debtors' Estates and stakeholders.

The settlements reflect a reasoned judgment as to the trade-off between a possible but uncertain recovery of a larger amount through years of continued litigation versus an agreed recovery of settlement payments that are certain, but may be less than what the Debtors potentially could obtain in litigation.

The following section discusses the expected benefits of the settlements and then weighs them against the likelihood of success in litigation.

(1) The Benefits of the Settlements

There are many benefits of the Shareholder Settlements to weigh against the uncertain results of litigation. These include, among other things, the very material up to $[7.0] billion in payments to be made by the Sackler Parties, which are a critical element of the Plan. Among other things, these payments make possible the agreed distribution of funds in satisfaction of the Private-Side Resolutions, secure the benefits of the DOJ Resolution for Purdue Pharma and its creditors, and still provide for billions of dollars in cash that will fund the state, local and tribal trusts. The settlements' benefits also include the avoidance of the potentially ruinous disintegration of Purdue Pharma's valuable assets that would result if it were left to participate in years of further litigation.

(A) The Shareholder Settlement Payments

The proposed settlements provide enormous financial value for the benefit of Purdue Pharma's creditors, and improve upon the settlement terms embodied in the Twelfth Amended Plan and on the Initial Settlement Framework announced in September 2019. As described in detail in Article III.Y.1., the settlements with the Sackler Parties require payments from the Sackler Parties totaling a maximum of $7 billion over fifteen years. These funds will be deposited in trusts established for the benefit of states and localities, as well as other creditor groups such as Native American Tribes, hospitals, and children with a history of Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome and their guardians. There will be transparency to ensure that the purpose of the trusts will be effected.

These payments by the Sackler Parties under the proposed Shareholder Settlements improve upon the Sackler Parties' prior payment obligations of $4.325 billion over nine years contemplated under the Initial Shareholder Settlement Agreement. The payments by the Sackler Parties also exceed the benefits contemplated by the Initial Settlement Framework that was under consideration at the time these Chapter 11 Cases commenced in September 2019. Under the proposed Shareholder Settlements, the Sackler Parties will pay up to $4 billion over and above the $3 billion they had offered as of September 2019 (and in addition to the $225 million they have already paid to the DOJ), a material additional recovery of funds that will be directed towards to Public Creditor Trusts and Private Creditor Trusts pursuant to the Plan.

The principal consideration to be granted to the Sackler Parties in exchange for such payments are the civil release and injunction provisions with respect to specified parties associated with the Sackler Parties provided for under the Plan and the various Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements. See Article III.CC below and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement for a more detailed description of the terms of these settlements. The release and injunction provisions are described in detail in Articles I.E-F. herein.

The Shareholder Settlements call for the Sackler Parties to make payments totaling up to $7.0 billion over a period of fifteen years. This time period was heavily negotiated by the Special Committee, the Creditors Committee, the AHC, the MSGE Group and the Sackler Parties, and takes into account the potential sale of the IACs, providing necessary assurance that the Sackler Parties would be able to satisfy the payment requirements and other considerations. The Debtors and other parties evaluated both the face value of the payments as well as their present value. The present value of future payments is a function of the applied discount rate.

The Debtors considered a number of approaches to determine the appropriate discount rate that, from an economic perspective, may reflect the creditworthiness of the payor and risk of nonpayment, or the cost to the payee of the delay in obtaining the funds. The Debtors considered various approaches, including: (i) the time value of money over the payment horizon; (ii) relevant historical AA municipal bond rates as a reasonable proxy for state and municipal borrowing costs over the future payment horizon; (iii) lower medium grade or even Ba1/BB+ corporate bond yields as a potential proxy for the Sackler Parties' credit risk under the terms contemplated for the settlements under the Plan; and (iv) other higher rates driven by the Debtors' own cost of capital and other potential factors.

(B) Other Benefits of the Settlements

The Shareholder Settlements also provide the critical benefit of enabling the Debtors to avoid potential negative consequences that would occur absent the additional value recovered through the settlements from the Sackler Parties. These include the potentially devastating consequences of being unable to secure the full benefits of the DOJ Resolution and to satisfy the Private-Side Resolutions. Absent the settlements, the Debtors would also continue to incur the very significant expenses of remaining in bankruptcy for an additional period of unknown length and would need to expend material further resources to litigate the estate claims against the Sackler Parties. Absent a resolution in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Preliminary Injunction could expire and tens of thousands of creditors would be competing with each other to obtain judgments. Moreover, in these circumstances, the Debtors would, themselves, be competing with creditors for whom the Debtors are a fiduciary, diminishing the value of the Debtors' Estates. The ensuing litigation of claims against the Sackler Parties, which could very well continue for years post-emergence, would diminish the value of the assets available to satisfy claimants and, if successful, would certainly result in delayed and inequitable recoveries among potential claimants.

These negative circumstances that the Shareholder Settlements enable the Debtor to avoid are discussed in turn below.

(A) DOJ Resolution

Absent the Shareholder Settlements and approval of the Plan, the Debtors would face the possible unwinding of the DOJ Resolution, which could put at risk the entire value of the Debtors' Estates. Under the terms of the DOJ Resolution, Purdue Pharma pled guilty to certain criminal acts, and the Debtors agreed to a $2 billion Forfeiture Judgment.[84] The Forfeiture Judgment will have the status of an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim against Purdue Pharma.

Under the terms of the DOJ Resolution, the United States agreed to provide a Forfeiture Judgment Credit of up to $1.775 billion for value distributed or otherwise conferred by Purdue Pharma under the Plan in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities, provided that the Plan provides for the emergence of a public benefit company (or entity with a similar mission) and certain other terms and conditions as described in more detail in the Plea Agreement.

As discussed in Article I.D, if the Shareholder Settlements with the Sackler Parties are not approved, there is considerable risk that the Debtors will not have sufficient value to satisfy both the Private-Side Resolutions, discussed below, and the distributions to the state, tribal and local government entities required to receive the Forfeiture Judgment Credit. In such a case, the United States will not provide the Forfeiture Judgment Credit, and Purdue Pharma will be forced to pay the full Forfeiture Judgment, $2 billion. Such funds, if paid to the United States, will be unavailable for distribution to other creditors.

Absent the DOJ Resolution, the United States could resume its criminal prosecution of the Defendant Debtors, potentially subjecting the Defendant Debtors to a $6.2 billion fine and a $3.5 billion forfeiture judgment. These exposures, together with the DOJ's $2.8 billion asserted claim for civil liability (which could be trebled to $8.4 billion), would exceed and could potentially consume the entire value of the Debtors' Estates, including litigation recoveries.

(B) Private-Side Resolutions

Without the financial contribution from the Shareholder Settlements, the Debtors would not be able to satisfy their obligations under the Private-Side Resolutions, and the agreements that major stakeholders, including the Non-Federal Public Claimants and the Private Claimants, reached following months of mediation would likely fail, with very negative potential consequences.

Absent the Private-Side Resolutions, the various Private Claimant groups would dispute the claims of the Non-Federal Public Claimants, the United States and other Private Claimant groups, and each of those groups would likely respond in kind against each of the other groups. Litigation over the claims of the Non-Federal Public Claimants and the Private Claimant groups would be protracted and extremely costly. There would be no assurance that the claims of any particular claimant would ultimately be allowed in any particular amount, or at all. And as noted above, if the ultimate resolution failed to provide at least $1.775 billion in respect of claims asserted by state, tribal, or local government entities and for the emergence of a public benefit company or entity with a similar mission, the DOJ could reduce or retract the Forfeiture Judgment Credit and the Debtors would need to satisfy the $2 billion Forfeiture Judgment in cash (and would be at risk of further criminal prosecution and yet higher claims and fines). In such circumstances, other creditors could receive little to no recovery.

(C) Sackler Parties' Estates

When these Chapter 11 Cases began, the Sackler Parties were named in approximately 400 civil suits throughout the United States. At that time, additional new suits against them were being filed every week. At the same time, Purdue Pharma had been named as a defendant in more than 2,600 civil actions pending in various state and federal courts and other fora across the United States and its territories, and was also subject to several governmental investigations. Purdue Pharma's defense of these many matters was causing it to incur professionals' fees at an average rate of over $2 million per week, amounts attributable solely to pretrial defense costs, because none of these civil actions had yet proceeded to trial. In the event that thousands of cases are restarted or filed upon any expiration of the stay of litigation against Purdue Pharma or the Sackler Parties and move toward trial, run rate expenses would likely be multiples of those historical figures. These costs provide a potential basis for gauging the magnitude of the expenses that the Sackler Parties would incur in continuing to defend the pending and future lawsuits against them in the event the claims against them were not resolved as provided in the proposed settlements. Absent the proposed settlements, the Sackler Parties would likely need to incur such expenses, depleting the funds which they would potentially regard as available for compromising the claims against them and Purdue Pharma.

Moreover, in the event that any of the claims asserted in litigation against the Sackler Parties by parties other than the Debtors were to succeed, their assets would be depleted by the amounts of the costs incurred and judgments paid to successful litigants by the particular Sackler Parties in such actions. For this reason, upon the expiration of the stay of litigation against the Sackler Parties, there would be a race to the courthouse among their tens or hundreds of thousands of potential creditors, including both the Debtors and third parties. The recoveries in these individually prosecuted cases, were they to succeed, would not be equitably distributed among the claimants in Purdue Pharma's bankruptcy or to those asserting claims against the Sackler Parties. Rather, the assets would be recovered by perhaps just the handful of the successful plaintiffs that were the first to obtain and enforce court judgments, until the weight of liabilities or expected liabilities of the Sackler Parties exceeded the value of their estates. The litigation against the Sackler Parties would, if successful, likely force certain Sackler Parties into multiple separate bankruptcies. In other words, the process that, prior to and in this bankruptcy proceeding, after years of costly discovery and negotiations, eventually resulted in the proposed settlements with the Sackler Parties would likely have to be recommenced, in effect, in fragmented separate bankruptcy proceedings. Any possible recoveries that might be obtained by claimants or third parties as a result of those proceedings would very likely be delayed and, potentially, materially lower than their expected recoveries under the Plan.

Even were the Debtors able to secure judgments against the Sackler Parties in the U.S. courts, they would face several obstacles in collecting on those judgments. The Sackler Families comprise many distinct individuals and family units and the Sackler Parties comprise various businesses around the world. Many individual Sackler Parties live abroad, and many are not U.S. citizens. Not all of their very considerable assets may be readily accessible by Purdue Pharma or other claimants seeking to hold the Sackler Parties personally liable for the costs of the opioid epidemic. Accordingly, while the U.S. House Committee on Oversight and Reform publicly reported on April 20, 2021 that the "Sackler family's total net assets equal approximately $11 billion" based on information from early 2020, that figure does not necessarily identify the total assets capable of being recovered by claimants at any specific point in time.

As of 2021, documents released by the Committee on Oversight and Reform indicate that the Sackler Families' wealth is divided between the A- and B-sides of the Sackler Families (the descendants of Mortimer and Raymond Sackler, respectively), with the A-Side individuals, companies and trusts holding collectively approximately $4.8 billion in assets and the B-Side individuals, companies and trusts holding collectively approximately $6.2 billion in assets. The information that the Debtors and certain other parties were provided with, while substantially more detailed in some respects and in certain instances including information as of different dates than those reported in the materials released by the Committee on Oversight and Reform, did not indicate that the aggregate value of the Sackler Families' wealth is materially different from the amounts indicated by the documents released by the Committee on Oversight and Reform; provided that the information released by the Committee on Oversight and Reform reference a hypothetical IAC value of $4.5 billion and the Debtors have utilized a more conservative assumption for purposes of evaluating the Shareholder Settlements. Further, most of the wealth is concentrated in dozens of U.S. and foreign-based spendthrift trusts. The ability of the Debtors or other creditor groups to enforce judgments by collecting amounts held by these trusts, or by the Sackler Parties in multiple jurisdictions around the world, is uncertain and would be zealously litigated, likely over a multi-year period and in multiple jurisdictions. In addition, documents released by the B-Side members of the Sackler Families indicate that the collective net worth of the B-Side individuals, companies and trusts has not changed significantly in the intervening years.[85]

As discussed in Article III.Q, supra, the quantum of the Sackler Parties' wealth, its location, the holdings and risk profile of various individual Sackler Family Members and their trusts, and other factors relevant to collectability were the subject of extensive discovery and taken into consideration by the Special Committee in determining the reasonableness of the Shareholder Settlements. In particular, the Special Committee considered the wealth of both the A- and B-sides of the Sackler Parties. Then, within the A- and B-sides, there are also significant disparities between the financial positions and holdings of the various individuals and family groups. The Special Committee also took into account differences among "pods" within each of the two sides in order to maximize the likelihood of recovery of the overall promised settlement amounts. The Special Committee also considered the value of the IACs, which are owned equally by the A- and B-Side families, and how the value of those assets would affect the overall recoverable assets.

With respect to the B-Side of the Sackler Families, the Special Committee considered the value and location of the B-Side wealth, which is concentrated in a number of trusts, companies and individuals located in the United States, the beneficiaries of the trusts, and the personal wealth of certain B-Side members of the Sackler Families who sat on the Board or may face personal liability in connection with the estate and third-party claims. B-Side members of the Sackler Families include historical Board members Richard, Jonathan (now deceased) and David Sackler, among others.

With respect to the A-Side, the Special Committee considered the location of the family's wealth, which is overwhelmingly in foreign jurisdictions, and the dispersion of funds across a number of family units and companies, as well as dozens of trusts. While members of the A-Side family also participated in the governance of Purdue Pharma, including Theresa, Kathe, Mortimer D.A., Ilene Sackler, and Samantha Hunt, other members of the Sackler Families (including on A-Side) had no direct role in the management of the Debtors.

These considerations—including the uncertain prospects for enforcing potential U.S. court judgments against members of the Sackler Families and Sackler Parties, the differences between members of the Sackler Families, and the costs and delay that would be inherent in a multinational enforcement effort—make it difficult to conclude that continuing litigation outweighs the certain merits of the proposed Shareholder Settlements.

(2) Likelihood of Successful Litigation

The benefits of the Shareholder Settlements to the estate are to be weighed against an assessment of whether the Debtors' litigation would be successful—i.e., the amounts that the Debtors might expect to recover in litigated judgments against the Sackler Parties. The litigation involves various potential claims, with varying prospects of success and different potential recoveries.

(A) The Debtors' Fraudulent Transfer Claims

As explained in more detail above, see Article II.E, supra, the Debtors' advisors have determined that from 2008 through 2019, the Debtors distributed approximately $10.4 billion in cash to Sackler Parties for the benefit of the Sackler Parties. The amounts of these distributions, which include distributions classified for tax purposes, are as follows:

In addition to these cash distributions, the Debtors' advisors have also catalogued non-cash distributions made for the benefit of the Sackler Parties from 2008 through 2019, as well as various commercial transactions between the Debtors and Sackler Parties, such as supply agreements, service agreements and license-and-royalty arrangements, during the same period. In the opinion of the Debtors' advisors, some of these commercial transactions between the Debtors and Sackler Parties did not reflect reasonable terms of exchange. To the extent that the Sackler Parties or Sackler Parties benefitted from above-market or below-market terms of exchange that were not reasonable, the excess benefits they obtained constitute additional transfers of value for the benefit of the Sackler Parties. Non-cash transfers and excess benefits based on non-market terms may total in excess of an additional $1.4 billion in value to or for the benefit of the Sackler Parties from 2008 through 2019.

Absent the Shareholder Settlements, the Creditors' Committee and/or any successors to the Debtors would litigate to recover all or some of these potential transfers of value made for the benefit of the Sackler Parties for the benefit of the Debtors' estates.[86] The Creditors' Committee could pursue recovery of these transfers on a variety of legal theories, but the chief claims would be claims to recover fraudulent transfers, as provided under the Bankruptcy Code and applicable state law. The Bankruptcy Code authorizes debtors to assert two types of fraudulent transfer claims: constructive fraudulent transfers and intentional fraudulent transfers.

A constructive fraudulent transfer is one where the transferor (i.e., Purdue Pharma) received less than reasonably equivalent value for the transfer and was insolvent as of the date of the transfer or became insolvent as a result of the transfer. An intentional fraudulent transfer is one where the transfer was made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors. A debtor's ability to recover assets that were fraudulently transferred may be limited by the applicable statute of limitations. The amount of recovery if a claim is proven may be increased by prejudgment interest.

In assessing the likelihood of success in litigating the Debtors' fraudulent transfer claims against the Sackler Parties, the key factors considered include

1. whether Purdue Pharma was insolvent as of the time of a particular transfer made for the benefit of the Sackler Parties, such that the transfer was constructively fraudulent;
2. the strength of the evidence that a particular transfer was made with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors, such that the transfer was intentionally fraudulent;
3. whether distributions made for purposes of funding tax payments owed by the Sackler Parties can be recovered on a theory of fraudulent transfer;
4. whether, under the applicable statute of limitations, certain transfers occurred too long ago for the Debtors to seek to recover them;

[86] On December 2, 2024, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order granting leave and sole standing to the Creditors' Committee to commence and prosecute claims held or that may be asserted by the Debtors' estates on behalf of the Debtors' estates. Order Granting the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Purdue Pharma L.P., et al. Sole Standing to Commence and Prosecute Estate Causes of Action [D.I. 6979].

5. the time period and rate to be used in calculating prejudgment interest on a successful claim; and
6. the Debtors' ability to collect a judgment on a successful claim.

Each of these key factors relating to the likelihood of the Debtors' success in recovering transfers for the benefit of the Sackler Parties is discussed below.

(B) Evidence of Insolvency

To prevail on a claim of constructive fraudulent transfer, a debtor must show that the debtor received less than reasonably equivalent value for the transfer and that the debtor was insolvent at the time of the transfer or was rendered insolvent as a result of the transfer.

At all times prior to the Petition Date—and thus for each of the transfers identified between 2008 and 2019—Purdue Pharma's balance sheet as presented in its audited financial statements indicated that the value of Purdue Pharma's assets exceeded that of its liabilities. The balance sheet is not determinative, however. Although as a general matter unliquidated litigation claims are not counted as liabilities for accounting purposes, courts may consider them when evaluating a debtor's liabilities for purposes of a claim of constructive fraudulent transfer. Even claims that were not asserted as of the date of a particular transfer may be considered liabilities in this context, if the court determines that the claim had "accrued" by that date and could be timely asserted under the relevant statute of limitations. Whether a claim had accrued and could be timely filed can vary depending on the type of claim, the governing law, the facts regarding the parties' conduct, the nature of the relief sought and the nature of the harm. In determining a debtor's liability for accrued but unasserted claims, courts take varying approaches that, among others, have included considering the likelihood that the plaintiff would succeed, the foreseeability of future litigation of the claims or evidence as to the value of such claims through adjudications or settlements. A court evaluating whether Purdue Pharma was insolvent as of the date of a particular transfer would accordingly assess whether, as of that time, Purdue Pharma's liabilities for accrued claims (even if unasserted) exceeded the value of its assets.

On this basis, the Debtors would seek to establish that Purdue Pharma was insolvent as of a date well prior to the Petition Date. The likelihood of being able to demonstrate that Purdue Pharma was insolvent would likely vary over time, in keeping with the changing circumstances. For example, the facts relevant to evaluating whether Purdue Pharma was insolvent in 2008 differ from the facts relevant to evaluating whether Purdue Pharma was insolvent in 2015 or 2019. Many different considerations are relevant to the insolvency analysis. One factor deemed relevant by some courts is the number of asserted claims as of a particular date (e.g., the date of a transfer). As of the Petition Date, approximately 2,600 lawsuits against Purdue were pending in various federal and state courts. Following the Petition Date, many thousands of proofs of claims were filed with the Court. These claims include those seeking recovery on behalf of cities, counties and states, which given their breadth could result in very significant amounts. However, the Sackler Parties would point to the fact that between 2008 and 2015, there were relatively few tort claims asserted against Purdue Pharma, and very few governmental claims. Given this history, a court would have to make a judgment as to when it was foreseeable that additional claims by governmental entities and others would be filed against Purdue Pharma, that Purdue Pharma would be deemed to have liability on those claims by governmental entities and others, and that the aggregate liabilities of such claims exceeded Purdue Pharma's very significant enterprise value, so as to render it insolvent.

Even as of the Petition Date, after many such claims had been filed, none had proceeded to trial or resulted in a judgment against Purdue Pharma. Moreover, many of these claims rest on novel theories of liability. Unlike many other mass tort claims, such as asbestos claims, that have a more predictable value after many years of litigation, the claims against Purdue Pharma and other opioid manufacturers do not have a history of adjudicated values. The record of litigation against Purdue Pharma has been highly variable: Some cases have been dismissed as legally defective on the pleadings. In many others, courts have held that the complaints stated a valid claim for relief, and many of these were being litigated as of the time of the bankruptcy filing and stay of proceedings. Other cases asserting tort claims have been settled. In 2007, Purdue Pharma and three senior executives reached a settlement with the DOJ and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Western District of Virginia that resolved federal criminal claims and certain civil claims for $634.5 million, on top of a $19.5 million settlement Purdue Pharma reached that same month with the attorneys general of 26 states and the District of Columbia to resolve certain civil claims. Despite the size of that resolution, Purdue Pharma's enterprise value exceeded amounts that it paid in settlements prior to filing for bankruptcy. In the aggregate, Purdue Pharma paid approximately $342 million in settlements from 2008 through 2019, excluding matters involving patents and similar intellectual property disputes.

Liabilities based on the total claims asserted by the federal government and resolved through the DOJ Resolution, including those that were not admitted to by the Debtors, would exceed Purdue Pharma's enterprise value today. Courts would likely consider the DOJ Resolution in determining Purdue Pharma's insolvency over time. While there are arguments against the appropriateness of such consideration, the DOJ Resolution, if taken at face value, would support a claim of insolvency prior to the Petition Date. Courts would then have to determine how the liabilities accrued over time. In doing so, a court could consider the various public documents filed by the government. For example, based upon the Agreed Statement of Facts associated with the Plea Agreement, a court might consider the nature and length of the conspiracies alleged. The documents do not explain how liability accrued over time. Further, if a court concluded that significant liabilities accrued in earlier years, as noted above, the court would have to balance such accrued liabilities against Purdue Pharma's significant enterprise value in those years.

There is, accordingly, uncertainty as to whether and to what extent the Debtors would prevail in recovering all relevant distributions based on a constructive fraudulent transfer claim.

(C) Evidence of Intent to Hinder, Delay or Defraud Creditors

To prevail on a claim of intentional fraudulent transfer, a debtor must show that the transferor acted with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors. Such a showing would likely need to be proven by a standard of clear and convincing evidence, not merely a preponderance of the evidence, and it would need to be proven with respect to each individual transfer challenged as having been made with fraudulent intent, including where individuals acted based on multiple interests and motivations.

There is an extensive discovery record in this case. As is described more fully in Article III.Q. above, Purdue Pharma has produced more than 12.5 million documents it had previously produced in prior litigations and to the DOJ, as well as an additional 680,000 documents it produced in response to requests from the Creditors' Committee. For their part, the Sackler Parties have collectively produced over 1.5 million documents.

Within these materials are documents that could be used to argue that, as early as 2007, individual members of the Sackler Parties and members of the Board believed that Purdue Pharma faced substantial legal risks related to its sale and marketing of OxyContin and other opioid products, such as Hysingla ER and Butrans (collectively, the "Opioid Products"). In addition, some documents reflect concerns, at various times, about the concentration of the Sackler Parties' wealth in Purdue Pharma, including in respect of legal risks to the business, and discussions of ways to diversify the Sackler Parties' wealth beyond their investment in Purdue Pharma, including through strategies to distribute Purdue Pharma's assets. The Sackler Parties likely would argue in response that there are also contemporaneous indications throughout the period from 2007 through 2017 that certain individual members of the Sackler Parties and members of the Board did not consider those legal risks to present a threat of insolvency, but instead considered them to be manageable, just as Purdue Pharma had managed its liability exposures to the federal government, 26 states, and the District of Columbia in settling claims with those entities in May 2007 for approximately $650 million. It is uncertain how a court or jury might evaluate the full body of evidence in an ex post facto reconstruction of the intent of the PPI Board and members of the Sackler Parties as of the time of past transfers.

The record of Purdue Pharma's transfers for the benefit of the Sackler Parties reflect a large increase in the amount of cash distributions beginning in 2008, shortly after Purdue Pharma's large federal and state government settlements. At the same time, the Sackler Parties would likely argue that the increase in distributions coincided with a significant increase in Purdue Pharma's revenues, profits and cash position; and that documents show instances in which members of the Sackler Parties chose to reinvest in the business rather than take additional cash distributions. The Sackler Parties may also point to documents indicating that certain transfers of assets and certain off-market intercompany dealings were made based on rational business planning or the continuation of practices, such as distributions for tax purposes, that were consistently followed throughout Purdue Pharma's history going back well before 2008.

While the foregoing does not reflect the full record and considerations available in pursuing a claim of intentional fraudulent transfer, it demonstrates the uncertainty that would face the Debtors if they needed to establish that Purdue Pharma made transfers for the benefit of the Sackler Parties with the intention to defraud Purdue Pharma's creditors; or, significantly, that Debtors could succeed in establishing a right to recover amounts on such a claim in excess of the present value of the Shareholder Settlements.

(D) Tax Distributions

Since its formation on June 12, 1991 as a Delaware limited partnership, Purdue Pharma has been treated as a "pass-through" entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, which means that it was not itself subject to U.S. federal income tax. Purdue Pharma's taxable income instead "passed through" to, and was reportable by, its shareholders.

As set out in agreements entered into by certain of the Debtors' shareholders, the Debtors distributed amounts equal to the income tax liability at the highest tax rate of any shareholder. Approximately $4.7 billion of the $10.4 billion of cash distributions identified in the 1A Report were identified as tax distributions.

The Debtors would argue that, for any period in which Purdue Pharma was insolvent, tax distributions can be recovered as transfers for less than reasonably equivalent value, because they were paid for the benefit of the Sackler Parties without any corresponding benefit to Purdue Pharma. The Sackler Parties would argue in response that the tax distributions were made so Purdue Pharma itself could receive the benefit of being structured as a limited partnership, and thus, not have any entity-level tax obligations. If it had not been designated as a pass-through entity for tax purposes, Purdue Pharma would have been subject to the federal statutory corporate tax rate of 35% during most of the relevant period. Many comparable pharma companies had lower overall effective tax rates, and, accordingly, the amount of taxes that Purdue Pharma would have owed, had it been a taxpayer, is uncertain. It is difficult to predict how courts would resolve these tax issues. Courts have reached different conclusions, and the case law is sparse on whether tax distributions should be regarded as transfers "for reasonably equivalent value" in circumstances where the transferor is (like Purdue Pharma) organized as a pass-through entity for purposes of income tax liability and the income associated with its operations is instead assigned to its partners. In addition, a March 26, 2025 decision by the Supreme Court, United States v. Miller, 604 U.S. ___ (2025) placed certain limitations on the ability of estate representatives to avoid certain tax payments pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 544(b). Although the circumstances in that case were distinguishable, it presents another litigable issue in the event claims to recover certain tax distributions for the Sacklers were litigated.

Given the lack of uniformity in case law and the lack of controlling authority in the Second Circuit, it is uncertain whether a court would determine that the $4.7 billion in tax distributions made by Purdue Pharma from 2008 through 2017—a significant portion of the total distributions during this period—were transfers for less than "reasonably equivalent value" that could be voided as fraudulent transfers if Purdue Pharma had been insolvent at the time that each tax distribution was made.

(E) Statute of Limitations

A statute of limitations defines the period in which a debtor may recover transfers. Here, the first fraudulent transfer claims were brought by the New York Attorney General on March 28, 2019, which had the effect of stopping or "tolling" the limitations period.

Under Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors can recover any fraudulent transfers made up to two years before the Petition Date. As such, a claim pursuant to section 548 would only allow the Debtors to recover transfers made beginning in September 2017, after which there have been limited transfers from Purdue Pharma to or for the benefit of the Sackler Parties.

The Debtors could also proceed under Section 544, which allows the Debtors to bring fraudulent transfer claims under applicable state or federal laws. The Debtors could proceed pursuant to Connecticut's Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, which provides for a four-year statute of limitations, under the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act, which provides a six-year statute of limitations, or under other statutes. Because of the involvement of state creditors here, there are also colorable legal arguments that a ten-year statute of limitations could also be appropriate, or that statutes of limitations are inapplicable given the claims asserted by certain state creditors may not be subject to a limitation period under applicable state law. In addition, both Connecticut and Federal law apply a so-called "discovery rule," which tolls the statute of limitations in respect of intentional fraudulent transfer claims to the point when the plaintiff became aware of or should have been aware of the fraud. Such arguments are based on state statutes and case law specific to cases, as here, involving state claimants but have not been significantly developed in the context of bankruptcy proceedings. If the Debtors are not able to prevail on their ability to extend the statute of limitations to go back further in time, or to use an equitable argument to potentially stop the limitations clock from running for some period, the Debtors would be able to seek to recover transfers made from and after either 2015 or 2013, depending on whether the limitations period is determined to be four or six years, respectively. As discussed above, distributions from Purdue Pharma had largely ceased by 2017, thereby limiting the amount Debtors would likely be able to recover.

(F) Prejudgment Interest

The amount of a debtor's potential recovery in connection with transfers made at a time of insolvency or with an intent to defraud creditors can depend significantly on whether or not the recovery is augmented by an award of "prejudgment" interest. Awards of prejudgment interest are not mandated under the Bankruptcy Code. Whether and in what amount to award prejudgment interest are questions for the court's discretion.

A number of factors would affect a prejudgment interest award. First, while the decision whether to award any prejudgment interest is entirely up to the court's discretion, courts typically do award prejudgment interest in fraudulent transfer cases. Second, the rate at which prejudgment interest is awarded is also discretionary. Assuming Connecticut law applies, the maximum rate is 10% per annum, but courts can award prejudgment interest at a lower rate more in line with prevailing market rates. Third, courts have the discretion to award prejudgment interest from the date the transfer was made or from the date the fraudulent transfer lawsuit was filed. How a court might ultimately rule on these discretionary matters would materially affect the potential recovery here, where certain transfers were made in 2008, but the first fraudulent transfer complaint was not filed until eleven years later in 2019.

(G) Collectability of Potential Judgments

Fraudulent transfer claimants can recover from both the transferees, including trusts, and the parties for whose benefit a transfer is made. Importantly, this means that through a fraudulent transfer claim, a claimant may recover from a spendthrift trust, which could otherwise be considered "judgment proof" in connection with other types of claims. Here, depending on the resolution of the legal and factual issues discussed above, the Debtors and other claimants could potentially recover up to the total net worth of the Sackler Parties.

However, there are various obstacles to litigating, enforcing, and collecting against the Sackler Parties that create uncertainty with respect to the sums that may ultimately be recoverable. For one, while the Sackler Parties are frequently described as a monolithic entity, there are, in fact, dozens of members of the Sackler Parties spread out around the globe over a number of independent family units and ranging in ages from very small children to senior citizens. The vast majority of them never served on the Board or otherwise held employment by the Debtors, and because many members of the Sackler Parties are not U.S. citizens, they are potentially beyond the reach of U.S. jurisdiction. Therefore, in order to obtain any significant recovery, the Debtors and other claimants would not be able to simply file a lawsuit against "the Sackler Parties," but would instead have to separately sue, prevail, and collect against each of these individuals (and entities), and expend considerable resources in multiple jurisdictions without any guarantee of success.

Additionally, as has been documented, most of the Sackler Parties' wealth is concentrated in dozens of trusts—several of which were established before the invention of OxyContin—located both within and outside the United States. As disclosed in the 1A Report, while distributions from Purdue Pharma were initially made to two primary trusts, funds have subsequently been dispersed not only to individual members of the Sackler Parties around the world, but also to dozens of trusts created for their benefit, including many that are located in the Bailiwick of Jersey in the Channel Isles or other locations, which may not subject to the Bankruptcy Court's jurisdiction. Notably, in order to recover assets held in Jersey, the Debtors would likely have to commence a de novo fraudulent transfer action in Jersey and relitigate all of the claims against each of these individual trusts.

Thus, the Debtors and other claimants may not be able to recover the full amount of a fraudulent transfer judgment, and would likely spend years and significant legal fees attempting to do so. By contrast, the Sackler Parties have consented to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for settlement enforcement purposes, and, in considering the proposed Shareholder Settlements, the Debtors have taken into account these factors in contemplating the collectability of any judgments obtained in U.S. courts.

(H) Other Potential Claims of the Debtors' Estates

In addition to the fraudulent transfer claims, the Debtors' Estates could also pursue unjust enrichment and breach of fiduciary duty claims. Factors that affect the likelihood of a successful litigation of each of those claims are discussed in turn below.

(A) Unjust Enrichment

The Debtors could bring an unjust enrichment claim against the recipients of any of the assets wrongfully extracted from Purdue Pharma. The Debtors could argue that the various cash and undervalued non-cash transfers unjustly enriched the recipients thereof at the expense of the Debtors' Estates and, in turn, the creditors. Any unjust enrichment claim would likely be based on the same set of facts as the fraudulent claims; however, the Debtors would not have to prove actual or constructive fraud. They would instead have to prove that any funds transferred out of Purdue Pharma could have been used to satisfy its creditors and that equity and good conscience require the return of the funds to the Debtors for the benefit of all creditors. Even if the Debtors were to prevail in establishing a right to recover under a theory of unjust enrichment, they would likely not be able to seek double recovery under both unjust enrichment and fraudulent transfer theories.

Any unjust enrichment claim is limited to a six-year lookback period, which would only allow the Debtors to seek recovery of transfers dating back to 2013. If they were to succeed on an unjust enrichment claim, the Debtors' ability to collect any such claim would be subject to the same considerations that apply in the fraudulent transfer context.

(B) Breach of Fiduciary Duty

The Debtors could potentially assert claims for breach of fiduciary duty against the members of the Board. As a general matter, the general partner of a limited partnership (and, by extension, its board of directors) owes the fiduciary duty of loyalty to the limited partnership.[87] Directors may be liable for a breach of fiduciary duty where they engaged in self-dealing transactions, where they directly caused the partnership to violate the law, or where they failed to implement or adequately monitor internal compliance programs.

In the case of Purdue Pharma, claims of breach of fiduciary duty based on a theory of self-dealing transactions would largely overlap in terms of evidence and substance with the potential claims of fraudulent transfer discussed above. Such claims accordingly would be unlikely to add any significant recovery beyond what would already be available to the Debtors under a fraudulent transfer theory. Indeed, the prospects for recovery may be more limited on claims for breach of fiduciary duty, because recovery would have to be pursued against individual entities for breach of duty, rather than against a transferee of funds based on receipt of a transfer that was either constructively or intentionally fraudulent.

Generally, claims for breach of fiduciary duty by board members based on a failure of oversight face significant challenges of proof. The limitation period for asserting a claim of breach of fiduciary duty is likely to be three years, counted from the date of the Debtors' bankruptcy filing in September 2019. Thus, any actions from September 2016 forward that would give rise to liability could potentially support a claim. There may be grounds for asserting that Purdue Pharma itself engaged in misconduct after September 2016—particularly in light of facts accepted in connection with the recent guilty plea on federal criminal charges—yet there would also have to be evidence tying such conduct to individual members of the Board.

Members of the Sackler Parties will argue, as they have publicly stated, that the record shows that Purdue Pharma had a compliance program in place and that the Board received regular briefings with respect to it. In order for the Debtors to prevail, a court or a jury would need to conclude that members of the Board had reason to doubt such reassurances and failed in their capacities as members of the Board to adequately monitor the compliance program. It is therefore uncertain whether the Debtors will be able to recover on a breach of fiduciary duty claim premised on the theory that any particular director, or all directors, caused Purdue Pharma to engage in illegal conduct in the period after September 2016.[88]

[87] Partners may choose to disclaim the fiduciary duty of loyalty; however, Purdue Pharma's limited partnership agreement made no mention of the duty until March 7, 2018, when it was amended to disclaim the duty. Accordingly, Purdue Pharma would argue that PPI's directors owed Purdue Pharma a duty of loyalty up until March 7, 2018.

[88] Absent extensions, the statute of limitations on a breach of fiduciary duty claim is three years.

(C) Third-Party Claims

The Shareholder Settlements allow claimants to choose—but do not require them—to provide the Shareholder Direct Claims Releases pursuant to the Shareholder Release Consent Mechanism applicable to the applicable Class of such Claims. Any such Settling Creditor that elects to grant the Third-Party Releases will share in substantial additional distributions available under to the Direct Claims Settlements. Critically, each individual claimant will have the opportunity to make an independent election to grant the Third-Party Releases applicable to that claimants' own direct claims in exchange for additional incremental consideration, or to preserve any such claims should they wish to do so.

Third-party creditors of the Sackler Parties have brought a variety of claims arising from Purdue Pharma's and the Sackler Parties' roles in manufacturing and marketing the various Opioid Products, including OxyContin. These claims include, but are not limited to, product liability, wrongful death, negligence, including negligent misrepresentation, negligence per se and gross negligence, fraud, fraudulent concealment, deceit and other willful misconduct, unjust enrichment, public nuisance, and claims under state consumer protection and controlled substances laws.

While the Debtors recognize the tragic circumstances underlying these suits, third-party creditors nonetheless face various legal hurdles in proving the elements of their claims and collecting on any judgments. Notably, third-party creditors would need to specifically prove that individual members of the Sackler Parties engaged in conduct that would give rise to personal liability and that such conduct caused the harms allegedly sustained by such third parties. The Sackler Parties would expend significant resources in defending against any direct claims. Among other things, they would likely argue that while Purdue Pharma manufactured, distributed and marketed its Opioid Products, other parties contributed to the chain of events relating to prescriptions for, consumption of, and harm resulting from, the Opioid Products. Generally, these medications were prescribed for patients by licensed medical doctors, and the prescribing judgments by these "learned intermediaries" have been recognized in court decisions to provide a legal defense to manufacturers of drugs for harms they cause, including harms for opioid addiction allegedly caused by the Opioid Products.

Other potential defenses by members of the Sackler Parties would include possible misuse of prescription opioids or wrongful conduct by victims, which could potentially preclude or limit liability on the part of the Sackler Parties or other released parties. State and local nuisance claims face similar hurdles. As noted above, those claims are novel, and the law remains unsettled. In some cases, lawsuits against Purdue Pharma and members of the Sackler Parties have been dismissed on various legal grounds, including causation and standing. Many others have survived motions to dismiss, including those alleging claims against certain members of the Sackler Parties brought by Massachusetts and Rhode Island.[89] However, none had been tried to final judgment at the time of the bankruptcy filing and stay of litigation.

As a result, those third-party claims are uncertain and highly speculative. Even if a particular creditor were able to prevail in holding some individual members of the Sackler Parties liable and recover from those individuals, for the reasons discussed above, the vast majority of creditors who do not win the race to the courthouse would likely receive nothing.

The Sackler Parties have also submitted filings laying out their own views of the claims against them and their defenses: the Reply by the Side A Initial Covered Sackler Persons in Support of Disclosure Statement for Second Amended Plan [D.I. 2833] and the Submission by The Raymond Sackler Family of a Proposed Position Statement for Inclusion or Reference in the Debtors' Disclosure Statement [D.I. 2853].[90]

(3) Complexity, Expense and Delay of Litigation & Difficulties of Collecting Judgments

The second Iridium factor—the complexity of the litigation and the likelihood of attendant cost, inconvenience and delay, and likely difficulties in collecting judgments—weighs in favor of the Shareholder Settlements. As explained in detail above, the claims of the Debtors and other parties would require adjudications of many complex matters, including detailed evidence of conduct and events that occurred over many years. These complex matters would include, among others, litigation over evidence regarding the intent behind numerous distinct distributions of assets from Purdue Pharma at different times over a period of years, Purdue Pharma's own accrued liabilities to third parties, if any, at different times—and its solvency or insolvency at particular times in view of any such liabilities. There would also be complex questions of causation and statutes of limitations, as noted above. Many of these issues would likely be litigated, at least in part, through complex expert opinions. The expense of litigating these claims to conclusion would be material and would diminish the Debtors' Estates and the potential assets of the defendants that would be available to satisfy any judgments that the claimants might be capable of obtaining after years of litigation.

There is also a significant risk of difficulties in collecting judgments against the Sackler Parties. The damages that could potentially be recovered in litigation are necessarily limited by the assets that could be reached to satisfy a judgment. According to information reviewed by the Debtors' representatives, the assets of the Sackler Parties exceed the settlement payments by a meaningful amount, but there are potential legal impediments to enforcing possible future court judgments against all of those assets. Some assets, for example, are held in trusts or held personally by individuals in foreign jurisdictions. The ability of the Debtors or third parties to enforce possible future judgments, if obtained, against such assets is uncertain. Accordingly, there is significant risk that the litigation of claims against the Sackler Parties and affiliated entities could result in recoveries of amounts less than the payments to be made by the Sackler Parties under the Shareholder Settlements.

With respect to third-party claims against the Sackler Parties, even were a claimant to succeed in establishing its claim, the claimant would still face the challenge of collecting on a judgment against the liable party. As noted above, a significant portion of the wealth of the Sackler Parties is held in trusts, both inside and outside the United States. These family trusts are irrevocable, non-donor, spendthrift trusts, and as a result, a plaintiff would face significant challenges in collecting the trusts' assets to satisfy a judgment against an individual member of the Sackler Parties. Under Connecticut and Wyoming law, which govern most of the relevant trusts, a plaintiff seeking to enforce a judgment cannot recover a defendant's assets held in spendthrift trusts. A creditor can only garnish or attach trust assets after the assets are distributed to the beneficiaries.

(4) Interest and Support of Creditors & Expertise of Representatives

The third, fourth, and fifth factors from the Iridium case—the interest and support of the creditors, and the expertise of their representatives—similarly weigh heavily in favor of the settlements. [The vast majority of creditors, including the Creditors' Committee, AHC, MSGE Group, the Native American Tribes Group, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the ER Physicians, the Third-Party Payor Group, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants, the NAS Committee, and the Public School District Claimants support or have no objection to the Shareholder Settlements, subject to satisfactory resolution of certain terms that continue to be negotiated.][91] The Debtors and these committees and other creditors have been represented by experienced and reputable counsel and financial and economic advisors.

(5) Releases of Sackler Families and Other Specified Persons

The sixth Iridium factor—the nature and breadth of releases of officers and directors or other third parties—is relevant here because the Plan contains Debtor releases of claims against the Sackler Families and certain other persons. Under the Shareholder Settlements, the Sackler Parties will pay up to $7 billion to creditors—a very material sum that will enable the Debtors to satisfy the Plan, including the Private-Side Resolutions, and help to secure the DOJ Resolution. The agreement by the Sackler Parties to pay these very significant amounts is part of an integrated settlement agreement that includes claimants receiving material consideration on account of their claims against the Debtor estates plus claimants having the additional opportunity to receive additional value on account of Direct Claims if they elect to grant third-party releases for the benefit of the Sackler Families and related persons.

(6) Arm's Length Negotiation of Settlement Terms

The final Iridium factor—whether the Shareholder Settlements was achieved through arm's-length bargaining—is plainly present here. The Shareholder Settlements was reached in multiple stages after many years of vigorous arm's- length bargaining by the Special Committee, the Creditors' Committee, AHC and MSGE Group, and other key stakeholders and was facilitated by highly regarded professional (and indefatigable) mediators.

[91] [NTD: subject to ongoing review.]

3. The Special Committee's Investigation and Approval of the Subsequent Shareholders Settlement of Claims Against the Sackler Parties

With the Special Committee's authorization, the Debtors continued to play an active role in the Post-SCOTUS Decision Mediation. Throughout these negotiations, the Debtors' counsel and financial advisors provided regular updates to the Special Committee through emails, calls, and virtual and in-person meetings on the status of negotiations and the various proposals and counterproposals made by the mediation parties. The Special Committee met no fewer than 13 times during this period to discuss the Debtors' approach and position on various matters. The Special Committee approved or delegated authority with respect to the offers and counter-offers made by the Debtors during the course of these negotiations.

In early March 2025, the Special Committee received drafts of the Plan, this Disclosure Statement, the Shareholder Settlement Term Sheet and other key documents and information. On March 13, 2025, in advance of the full board meeting, the Special Committee approved the Shareholder Settlements as a component of the global settlement proposed through the Plan. Following this approval, the full Board considered and approved the remaining components and authorized the filing of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement.

Z. Prosecution of Claims and Causes of Action Related to the Debtors' Insurance Coverage

On January 20, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Stipulation and Agreed Order Granting Joint Standing to Prosecute Claims and Causes of Action Related to the Debtors' Insurance Coverage to (1) the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors and (2) the Ad Hoc Committee of Governmental and Other Contingent Litigation Claimants [D.I. 2305] (the "Insurance Stipulation"). On January 29, 2021, the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee and the Ad Hoc Committee commenced an adversary proceeding under the authority of the Insurance Stipulation by filing the Complaint for Declaratory Relief, Adv. Pro. No. 21-07005 (RDD) [D.I. 1] (the "Insurance Complaint"). The Insurance Complaint sought an order declaring the present and future rights, duties, and liabilities of the Debtors and the Defendant Insurers under the Debtors' Insurance Policies (each as defined in the Insurance Complaint) and directing the Defendant Insurers to indemnify the Debtors for, or pay on their behalf, damages suffered by the Debtors arising out of the Pending Actions. E.g., Insurance Complaint ¶ 9.

On September 15, 2023, the Bankruptcy Court issued an order approving the stipulation amongst the parties to stay the adversary proceeding until approximately thirty (30) days after the Harrington Decision [D.I. 283]. The Supreme Court issued a decision on June 27, 2024, a mediation among the Debtors and key stakeholders commenced on July 10, 2024, and on August 9, 2024 the Bankruptcy Court issued an order approving a stipulation amongst the parties to stay the adversary proceeding until approximately thirty (30) days after the mediation concludes [D.I. 289].

AA. Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures

On March 16, 2021, the Debtors filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of Order Approving (I) Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures, (II) Omnibus Claims Settlement Procedures and (III) Omnibus Claims Hearing Procedures [D.I. 2490] (the "Omnibus Claims Procedures Motion"). Pursuant to the Omnibus Claims Procedures Motion, the Debtors sought entry of an order approving certain procedures to (a) object to claims (the "Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures"), (b) settle disputed claims without further Bankruptcy Court approval (the "Omnibus Claims Settlement Procedures"), and (c) streamline hearings on contested claims (the "Omnibus Claims Hearing Procedures"). The Bankruptcy Court granted the relief requested in the Omnibus Claims Procedures Motion on April 22, 2021 [D.I. 2696].

BB. Disclosure Statement Hearing and Confirmation Hearing

The hearing to consider approval of the Disclosure Statement will take place on June 18, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time). The deadline to object to the approval of this Disclosure Statement is June 11, 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time). The Confirmation Hearing will be held on [October 27, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.] (Prevailing Eastern Time) to consider confirmation of the Plan.

CC. Post-Confirmation Developments

1. Post-Confirmation Mediation, Settlement and Appeals Process

On September 20, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court confirmed the Debtors' twelfth amended joint chapter 11 plan of reorganization (the "Twelfth Amended Plan"), which received the support of each of nine classes of creditors eligible to vote (the "Voting Classes") and over 95% of voting creditors, including 38 of 48 U.S. states. The Twelfth Amended Plan contemplated the release of the members of the Raymond Sackler family and Mortimer Sackler family (the "Sackler Families") from civil liability to Purdue and its creditors for any Purdue-related claims (the "Release") in exchange for their $4.275 billion contribution to the Debtors' estates. Despite nearly unanimous creditor support for the Twelfth Amended Plan, eight states and the District of Columbia (the "Nine"), the U.S. Trustee, the Canadian Municipality Creditors, the Canadian First Nation Creditors and a small number of pro se litigants appealed the Bankruptcy Court's order confirming the Twelfth Amended Plan (the "Plan Confirmation Order") to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "SDNY District Court"). The primary issue raised on appeal was whether creditors could be bound by the Release without their consent. In December 2021, the SDNY District Court overruled the Bankruptcy Court and vacated the Twelfth Amended Plan in the Decision and Order on Appeal [D.I. 279], as noted in In Purdue Pharma, L.P., 635 B.R. 26, 118 (S.D.N.Y. 2021), holding that the Bankruptcy Code did not permit binding third-parties to releases of their claims against the Sacklers without such creditors' consent (the "SDNY Ruling"). In January 2022, the SDNY District Court granted the Debtors' motion to certify the SDNY District Court's ruling for appeal to the Second Circuit. See Order Granting the Petition for Leave to Appeal and Motion to Expedite [D.I. 103].

Following the SDNY District Court's decision, in January 2022, the Bankruptcy Court re-appointed the Honorable Shelley C. Chapman to facilitate an additional round of mediation between the Sacklers and the Nine. See Order Appointing the Honorable Shelley C. Chapman as Mediator [D.I. 4260] (the "Post-Confirmation Mediation Order"). This fourth round of mediation culminated on March 2, 2022 with the filing of an agreed settlement term sheet. See Mediators' Fourth Interim Report [D.I. 4409] (the "Post-Confirmation Settlement Framework").

The Post-Confirmation Settlement Framework had three basic components: (i) the Sacklers' increased their total contribution to the Debtors' estates to $5.5 billion - $6 billion (depending upon the profits obtained from the sale of the Sackler Families' interest in certain non-U.S. pharmaceutical companies), of which approximately $277 million would be distributed through a supplemental fund for the benefit of the Nine (plus the State of New Hampshire), (ii) additional privileged materials of the Debtors' were included in the public document depository, and (iii) the Sackler Families and related foundations agreed to allow any U.S. institution to remove the Sackler name from its physical facilities and academic, medical, and cultural programs, scholarships, endowments, and the like. Judge Chapman also recommended that certain Sackler Family members, including former directors and officers of Purdue, participate in a special hearing before the Bankruptcy Court to provide a forum for opioid victims and their families to directly address those Sackler Family members. In exchange for these concessions (to be implemented through modification to the Twelfth Amended Plan), the Nine agreed to drop their opposition to the Twelfth Amended Plan, which left only the U.S. Trustee, the Canadian Municipality Creditors, the Canadian First Nation Creditors and a small number of pro se litigants in opposition to confirmation of the Twelfth Amended Plan. See Motion of Debtors Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) and 363(b) For Entry of an Order Authorizing and Approving Settlement Term Sheet [D.I. 4410].

In March 2022, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Post-Confirmation Settlement Framework. See Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 and 363(b) Authorizing and Approving Settlement Term Sheet [D.I. 4503].

In May 2023, the Second Circuit affirmed the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Release and the Twelfth Amended Plan and reversed the SDNY Ruling. Second Circuit Opinion [D.I. 978] In re Purdue Pharma L.P., 69 F.4th 45, 85 (2d. Cir. 2023).

The U.S. Trustee subsequently sought to stay the Second Circuit's decision while it petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court for review of the Second Circuit's ruling. While the Second Circuit denied this request, the U.S. Supreme Court granted certiorari to hear the appeal and recalled the case from the SDNY District Court. The U.S. Supreme Court issued the Harrington Decision on June 27, 2024. It held that, other than in asbestos cases, the Bankruptcy Code does not authorize a release and injunction that is granted under a plan of reorganization that effectively seeks to discharge claims against a non-debtor without the consent of affected claimants. Id at 207.

The court expressly limited its opinion to non-consensual third-party releases and made clear that its opinion "should not be construed to call into question consensual third-party releases offered in connection with a bankruptcy reorganization plan." Id. at 208. The court declined to express any view as to what constitutes a "consensual" third-party release.

2. Post-Harrington Decision Mediation

Following the Harrington Decision, the Debtors submitted a letter to the Bankruptcy Court requesting further mediation to facilitate negotiations among key stakeholders to reach modified settlement agreements and a modified Plan. See Request for Status Conference [D.I. 6498]. On July 10, 2024, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order directing the appointment Judge Chapman (Ret.) and Eric D. Green as co-mediators. See Order Appointing the Honorable Shelley C. Chapman and Eric D. Green as Co-Mediators and Establishing Terms and Conditions of Mediation [D.I. 6537]. Further orders were subsequently entered extending the appointment of the co-mediators.

Per the Bankruptcy Court's July 10 order, the key stakeholders in the bankruptcty proceeding re-initiated mediation negotiations (the "Post-SCOTUS Decision Mediation"). They included the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, the MSGE, the "Covered Parties" consisting of the Initial Covered Sackler Persons and the Additional Covered Sackler Persons (each as defined in the Amended and Restated Case Stipulation Among the Debtors, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors and Certain Related Parties [D.I. 518]), the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the NAS Committee, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Third-Party Payor Group, the Public School District Claimants, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants, (each as defined in the Thirteenth Amended Plan) and one or more negotiating committee(s) of State Attorneys General.

After nearly eight months of intense further mediation negotiations, including numerous in-person meetings, the Mediation Parties (as defined in the Mediation Orders) reached an improved global settlement (the "Shareholder Settlement Agreements") as set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, which is part of the Plan Supplement. The Shareholder Settlement Agreements will deliver up to $7 billion of value over fifteen years to claimants and communities across the country affected by the opioid crisis.

3. The Shareholder Settlements

The Shareholder Settlement Agreements are comprised of two separate but related components: the Estate Claims Settlement and the Direct Claims Settlements. Pursuant to the Estate Claims Settlement, for which approval is being sought from the Bankruptcy Court through the Plan, the Debtors will settle their claims against the Sackler Covered Parties, which claims are collectively called the Estate Causes of Action. The Plan includes both an Estate release of such claims and an allocation of the proceeds of such settlement among the creditors of the Debtors.

Pursuant to the Direct Claims Settlements, the Sackler Covered Parties will provide cash distributions to creditors who elect to participate in the settlement in exchange for releasing such creditors' direct claims against the Sackler Parties, other Related Parties, and certain non-debtor parties. Pursuant to an agreed allocation, all payments from the Shareholder Payment Parties will be split between the Estate Claims Settlement and the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements and further allocated among the creditors of the Debtors.

Under the terms of the Shareholder Settlement Agreement, billions of dollars will flow into trusts established for the benefit of States and Subdivisions (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement), as well as other creditor groups such as Hospitals, Public School Districts, ER Physicians, and qualified personal injury claimants. Funding for the various trusts comes primarily from two sources: (i) the Shareholder Payment Parties who have agreed make up to $7.0 billion of cash payments over fifteen years[92] and, on a contingent basis, up to $500 million of incremental cash realized from the sale of their IACs,[93] and (ii) the Estates, which the Debtors expect will have approximately $927 million of cash available for distribution on the Effective Date,[94] bringing the total anticipated cash consideration available to the creditors to approximately up to $7.4 billion.

Of the total available cash consideration, other than (i) the amounts being used to pay private claimants and (ii) any other costs necessary for consummation of the Plan and related to the Shareholder Settlement Agreement, all residual amounts will be available for distribution to the public claimants, subject to certain contingencies and reductions. Private claimant groups and the public schools in the Debtors' bankruptcy cases will receive, in the aggregate across all categories, up to $1.53 billion and $40.5 million, respectively, of the total available cash consideration (subject to reduction as noted above).

(i) Reserves for Non-Released Direct Claims

The Sackler Covered Parties' maximum contribution is designed to replicate a global settlement with consensual releases provided in exchange for payments, as litigation settlements typically do. In the event that creditors determine not to participate in the direct claims settlement, the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement establishes three levels of "reserves." These "reserves" are available to fund "Litigation Costs" (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) incident to opioid-related civil litigation against the Sackler Covered Parties, subject to certain limitations and conditions set forth in the Shareholder Settlement Term Sheet. To be clear, if every claimant provides the Sackler Release, there will be no reserves and the Sackler Covered Parties will fund the full $7.0 billion.

The "reserves" are: first, out of the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion, any amounts not paid by Sackler Parties for the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements based on the failure of public or private claimants to participate in the global proposed settlement that will be deemed as "Retained Payments" that the Sackler Covered Parties must look to first to fund Litigation Costs. Second, "Released Claims Reserves" that will be funded with certain amounts from Estate Distributions that otherwise would have been paid to claimants who both do not provide the Sackler Release and whose claims have been disallowed. These amounts may be used for [92] Specifically, with respect to the Sackler Covered Parties contribution and subject to certain contingencies, (a) $1.5 billion will be due on the Effective Date; (b) $500 million will be due on the first anniversary of the Effective Date; (c) $500 million will be due on the second anniversary of the Effective Date; (d) $400 million will be due on the third anniversary of the Effective Date; and (e) the remaining $3.6 billion will be due over the remaining payment years in annual installments.

[93] Under the Shareholder Settlement Term, the Sackler Covered Parties must use commercially reasonable efforts to sell IACs within seven years. If they fail to do so, the Master Disbursement Trust will have the option to seek a forced sale for a price in excess of a certain appraised amount.

[94] The $927 million figure is based on current projections and subject to variability based on the Debtors' Effective Date, the cost of the Debtors' bankruptcy cases, and any legal, contractual or other restrictions on such cash.

Litigation Costs relating to claims in such claimant's category, but only after the applicable Retained Payments have been fully utilized. Third, there will be a "Special Operating Reserve" (the "SOR"), which may only be used to fund Litigation Costs after the Retained Payments and Released Claims Reserves have all been exhausted (or unable to be used). On the Effective Date, the SOR will be funded with $200 million. To the extent necessary to fund Litigation Costs (and only to such extent and subject to the requirement to first use Retained Payments and the Released Claims Reserves), the SOR may be incrementally funded up to an aggregate of $800 million. Any unused amounts in the SOR and Released Claims Reserves will begin reverting to the States and Subdivisions in year five, so long as no "Material Litigation" (as such term is defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) is then pending.

(ii) Mechanisms for Consensual Releases and Impact on Reserves

Consistent with the Harrington Decision, the Plan does not contain non-consensual Third-Party Releases. Instead, the Plan will provide public and private claimants the choice of whether to elect to provide Third-Party Releases. A claimant that grants the Third-Party Releases will receive its pro rata share of both (a) the Estate Distributions and other estate cash allocated to its class and (b) the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion for its class, subject to the applicable Creditor Trust TDPs. A claimant that does not grant the Third-Party Releases will not receive a payment from the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion allocable to its class. Such claimant may be eligible to receive its pro rata share of the Estate Distributions and other estate consideration if and when its claim is allowed. A claimant that does not grant the Third-Party Releases will not be enjoined from bringing litigation against any of the Sackler Covered Parties on account of its direct claims, if any, subject to certain terms and conditions described more fully in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. The consent of States, other public entities and Tribes in Classes 4 and 5 will be sought through Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements. The consent of Public School Districts in Class 6, Hospitals in Class 7 and ER Physicians in Class 9 will be sought through Opt-Out Class Action Settlements, described in greater detail below. The consent of creditors in all other voting Classes will be sought through opt-in check boxes on the applicable form of Ballot.

The decision by a creditor in respect of the Third-Party Releases also impacts the processing of their Claim against the Debtors. A Channeled Claim held by a creditor that grants the Third-Party Releases (and thereby becomes a Settling Creditor) will be Allowed subject to any applicable Creditor Trust Documents and the holder of such Claim will be entitled to the pro rata share of the Shareholder Direct Claims Settlement and the Shareholder Estate Claims Settlement allocable to such Claim subject to the applicable Creditor Trust TDP. On the other hand, a Channeled Claim held by a Non-Settling Creditor will be treated as a Non-Participating Channeled Claim and may be subject to objection. If an objection is interposed, such Non-Settling Creditors may be required to prove the Debtors' liability for such Claim. If successful, such a Non-Settling Creditor will be entitled to their pro rata share of the Estate Distributions, but not the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion, allocable to the value assigned to such Claim subject to the applicable Creditor Trust TDP. For the avoidance of doubt, in both scenarios, Distributions, if any, to such Channeled Claim shall be subject to and determined in accordance with, among other things, the applicable Creditor Trust TDP. [If no objection is interposed within a designated span of time—

[one-year] for PI Claims, [two years] for all other claims)—such Non-Participating Channeled Claims will also be Allowed.][95]

(1) PI and Third-Party Payor Claims: Claims Administrator and Ballot Opt-In Mechanism

The Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amounts and the amounts held in the Released Claims Reserves depend not only on the relative numbers of claimants that opt-in to the Third Party Releases in each class, but also on the relative value of those claimants' Claims. The Plan provides that the value of each claim for purposes of performing these calculations will be determined by the TDP applicable to each such class. On April 15, 2025, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Joint Motion of the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for an Order (I) Appointing PI and TPP Claims Administrators; (II) Authorizing the Establishment of Claims Deadlines and Claims Objection Procedures and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 7310] (the "Claims Administrators Motion"), to appoint Claims Administrators to perform information-gathering and pre-processing in connection with PI Claims in Classes 10(a) and 10(b) and Third-Party Payor Claims in Class 8, concurrent with Plan voting and solicitation. Following this information-gathering process, the Debtors and Creditors' Committee anticipate filing omnibus objections to Claims for which sufficient substantiating information is not received by the Claims Administrators or otherwise had been provided as part of an applicable timely filed proof of claim. Any Claims that are disallowed by Final Order prior to the Effective Date pursuant to such process will not be included in the total amount of potential claims on the basis of which the various reserves are calculated, thus limiting the funds that must be held in reserve on account of Non-Participating Channeled Claims to value associated with potentially compensable claims. In the event that an objection filed pursuant to this process is not resolved as of the Effective Date, and the Holder of such Claim is a Settling Creditor, such Claim will be Allowed pursuant to the Plan, but any Distributions will be subject to the applicable TDP, and the TDP's calculation may not result in any Distributions on account of such Claim. These processes are described in greater detail in connection with the descriptions of such Classes' treatments below.

(2) Public Schools, Hospitals and ER Physicians – Opt-Out Class Action Process

The Shareholder Settlement provides Holders of Claims in Classes 6 (Public School Claims), 7 (Hospital Claims) and 9 (ER Physician Claims) the option to elect to grant consensual Third-Party Releases. The Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements applicable to such classes will be effectuated by means of Opt-Out Class Actions that will be filed in United States District Courts by plaintiffs for purposes of obtaining approval from such Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(b)(3). Notice of such Opt-Out Class Actions, including the opportunity to opt-out, will be governed by the applicable District Court overseeing such litigation.

The Plan provides that any Holder of a Claim in Class 7 or 9 bound by the Opt-Out Class Action settling its direct claims against the Shareholder Released Parties will be treated for purposes of allowance and distribution as a Settling Creditor. The consideration to be provided in each Opt-Out Class Action Settlement will consist solely of the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion allocable to the relevant classes.

Direct claims asserted by the Holders of Public School Claims in Class 6 are anticipated to be the subject of an Opt-Out Class Action filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia.

Direct claims asserted by the Holders of Hospital Claims in Class 7 are anticipated to be the subject of an Opt-Out Class Action filed in the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico.

Direct claims asserted by the Holders of ER Physician Claims in Class 9 are anticipated to be the subject of an Opt-Out Class Action filed in a venue to be determined.

(iii) Future Operations

As part of the Plan, Purdue Pharma will cease to exist. On the Effective Date, the Debtors' businesses will be transferred to NewCo, which will in turn be wholly owned by an independent and newly-created Foundation. NewCo will be a private company, will be required to operate in a responsible and sustainable manner, and will be subject to the same laws and regulations as any other pharmaceutical company. NewCo will, however, be historic and unique because its charter will require it to continue to develop opioid overdose reversal and addiction treatment medications and to distribute these life-saving medicines at or below cost. The terms of the post-Effective Date structure are set for in Article III.T.

Finally, consistent with the Debtors obligations under the DOJ Resolution, the Plan contemplates the creation of the Public Document Repository, which is described in Article III.W. herein.

(iv) Class Treatment

The relevant Classes and the treatment that such Classes will receive based on the agreements reached in the Post-SCOTUS Decision Mediation are described in more detail below.

(1) Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims

Forty-nine states, the District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories filed Proofs of Claim against the Debtors seeking damages for, without limitation, alleged violations of consumer protection laws, public nuisance, fraud, negligence, negligence per se, elder abuse, violations of racketeering and other statutes, lost revenue, past and future costs and expenses, unliquidated claims based on non-Medicaid population, abatement, fraudulent conveyances or transfers, taxes, fines, penalties, forfeitures, and other penal claims, statutory civil penalties, disgorgement, restitution, mandatory and prohibitory injunctive relief under their respective consumer protection laws, and violations or enforcement of police powers. Various cities, counties, municipalities, and other local governmental entities also filed Proofs of Claim against the Debtors seeking damages under similar theories. Pursuant to the Plan, Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims consist of any Claims against any Debtor held by a Domestic Governmental Entity other than the United States or a Tribe (including any Claim based on the subrogation rights of the Holder thereof that is not an Other Subordinated Claim), and not a Priority Tax Claim. All Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims and all Claims against Released Parties or Shareholder Released Parties that is held by a Domestic Governmental Entity (in the case of Shareholder Released Direct Claims, solely to the extent that such Domestic Governmental Entity is a Settling Creditor) other than the United States or a Tribe will be channeled to the Governmental Remediation Trust. The Governmental Remediation Trust will be funded in an initial amount of all Effective Date Cash remaining after the satisfaction of all amounts described in Section 5.14(a) of the Plan and the SOR Holdback. In addition, the Governmental Remediation Trust may be entitled to (i)(A) its share of distributions of MDT Distributable Value in accordance with Section 5.2(f)(i)(A) of the Plan and the MDT Priority Waterfall and (B) the reversion rights from the Special Operating Reserve as set forth in the Plan, the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, and the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, as applicable, and (ii) 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.

(A) Interstate Allocation of Governmental Remediation Trust Funds

The funds distributed to the Governmental Remediation Trust under the Plan will be allocated to each State for use within that State largely based on a formula and methodology developed through extensive negotiations among the Attorneys General of various States. This methodology is based on, among other things, prescription opioid sales, the prevalence of pain reliever use disorder, overdose deaths, and population. Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Allocation is shown in a chart attached hereto as Appendix F.

(2) Tribe Claims (Class 5)

Various federally recognized American Indian or Alaska Native Tribes, bands, nations, pueblos, villages or communities (each a "Tribe") filed Proofs of Claim against the Debtors seeking damages for a range of alleged harms arising from opioids, including, without limitation, costs related to addiction treatment, therapy, hospitalization, as well as other costs relating to members of the Tribes impacted by opioid use and dependency. Pursuant to the Plan, Tribe Claims consist of any Claim against any Debtor held by a Tribe (including any Claim based on the subrogation rights of a Tribe that is not an Other Subordinated Claim), in its capacity as such. For the avoidance of doubt, claims of Tribes against Holders of PI Claims or Distributions payable to Holders of PI Claims, to the extent such claims exist, are not claims against any Debtor and therefore are not included in this definition of "Tribe Claims." All Tribe Claims and all Claims against Released Parties or Shareholder Released Parties that is held by a Tribe (in the case of Shareholder Released Direct Claims, solely to the extent that such Tribe is a Settling Creditor) will be channeled to the Tribe Trust. The Tribe Trust shall receive, on the Effective Date, (i) the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Tribe Interest and (iii) the right to receive 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.

Tribal Allocation Distribution Percentages are shown in a chart attached hereto as Appendix E. David R. Cohen and Layn Phillips, in their capacity as court-appointed Tribal Allocation Appointees, conducted a process with regard to the Janssen Tribal Master Settlement Agreement by which Tribal Allocation Distribution Percentages were determined, and which shall also form the basis for the distributions to the Participating Tribes. For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures implemented by the Tribal Allocation Appointee included: (1) each Participating Tribe had the right to meaningfully participate in the Tribal Allocation Appointees' decision as to whether to approve or modify the Interim Tribal Allocation Matrix and a right to be heard prior to the Tribal Allocation Appointees' final decision; (2) the Directors provided notice of the proposed settlement allocation to the unrepresented Tribes, and the Directors coordinated with the Tribal Allocation Appointees to set forth the procedures by which notice was provided; and (3) Unrepresented Participating Tribes had the same rights as the represented Participating Tribes within the settlement allocation process.

(3) Public School Claims (Class 6)

Certain elementary, middle, or secondary public school districts in the United States assert Claims against the Debtors for past and future costs, including special education costs, associated with educating students harmed as a result of the opioid crisis. Pursuant to the Plan, a Public School Claim consists of any Claim against any Debtor held by a public school district in the United States, in its capacity as such, that (i) has filed one or more Proofs of Claim; (ii) has a student population greater than 5,000 students; or (iii) has filed one or more opioid-related cases against the opioid industry in MDL 2804 McKinsey or other courts (each such public school district, a "Public School District"). All Public School Claims and all Claims against Released Parties or Shareholder Released Parties held by a Public School District in its capacity as such (in the case of Shareholder Released Parties, solely to the extent that such Public School District is a Settling Creditor)[96] will be channeled to benefit the Public School Districts' Opioid Recovery Trust (the "Public School Trust").

The Public School Trust will be (i) funded with an initial amount of $25,500,000, less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount, on the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) consummation of the Public School District Shareholder Direct Settlement. In addition, the Public School Trust shall be entitled to funding from the Master Disbursement Trust in the amount of (i) $7,500,000 on the first anniversary of the Effective Date less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount and (ii) $7,500,000 on the second anniversary of the Effective Date less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount. If, as of the Effective Date, the Public School District Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Public Schools Distribution will be deposited into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

The Public School Trust is a grant making trust with Dr. Andrés Alonso serving as Special Trustee and Truist Bank serving as Trustee. The Public School Trust aims to help public school districts recover from the opioid crisis and develop responses to help educate students harmed by the opioid crisis. To date, the Public School Trust has been funded with distributions from the bankruptcy proceedings of Mallinckrodt plc and Endo International plc, as well as other litigation recoveries related to the opioid crisis. The Public School Trust is advised by the Committee of [96] "Settling Creditor" with respect to Public School Claims means those Public School Districts that have consented to the Third-Party Releases pursuant to the Public School District Shareholder Direct Settlement.

Public School Districts' Representatives (the "PSDR"), which is comprised of three to five individuals with experience in education or services for at-risk youth and is tasked with, among other things, facilitating communication between public school districts and the Special Trustee.

Public School Districts may apply for grants by submitting applications through the Public School Trust portal (https://www.schooldistrictopioidrecoverygrants.com). Applications are accepted on a cyclical basis, with the next round of awarded grants expected to be announced in May 2025. The grants will be awarded to independent public school districts who demonstrate, among other things, a clear need for opioid recovery and support services and a plan to integrate these services into their existing support frameworks. The grant program is designed to encourage eligible school districts to apply for funding where it can have the greatest impact, including for classroom services, school-based behavioral and mental health supports, instructional innovations, and other district and school-based supports that assist students harmed by the opioid crisis.

(4) Hospital Claims (Class 7)

Some providers of healthcare treatment services (excluding Domestic Governmental Entities) filed Proofs of Claim against the Debtors for, among other things, alleged increased or otherwise un- or under-reimbursed costs relating to the provision of services to or on account of persons who have, at some point, ingested opioids. Some of these Holders of Hospital Claims filed prepetition lawsuits, including some putative class actions, against the Debtors.[97] The Holders of Hospital Claims have asserted the following causes of action, without limitation, against the Debtors: (i) violations of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1961, et seq. ("RICO") and state law equivalents, (ii) nuisance, (iii) negligence, (iv) common law fraud, and (v) violations of state consumer protection statutes. Pursuant to the Plan, Hospital Claims consist of all Claims against any Debtor held by an acute care hospital subject to EMTALA which hospital is not a Domestic Governmental Entity or a Physician. All Hospital Claims and all Claims against Released Parties or Shareholder Released Parties held by providers of healthcare treatment services, in their capacity as such, (in the case of Shareholder Released Direct Claims, solely to the extent that such provider is a Settling Creditor) will be channeled to the Hospital Trust. The Hospital Trust will be funded in an initial amount of $[263,507,000] from the Debtors on the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) consummation of the Hospital Shareholder Direct Settlement, less the SOR Holdback in the amount of $[2,697,000]. In addition, the Hospital Trust may be entitled to the MDT Hospital Claim. If, as of the Effective Date, the Hospital Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Hospital Trust Distribution will be deposited by the Master Disbursement Trust into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

The Hospital Trust will make distributions (net of attorneys' fees and costs, including funding of the Common Benefit Fund) to those Holders of Hospital Claims that either (i) filed timely Proofs of Claim prior to the General Bar Date of July 30, 2020, or (ii) are listed on the national registry of hospitals maintained by the American Hospital Directory®, as in effect on the Effective Date, in each case to the extent that such Holders are either (x) Acute Care Hospitals in the United States that (i) are not owned or operated by a Domestic Governmental Entity; and (ii) treated patients diagnosed with opioid use disorder and/or other opioid-related conditions at any time from January 1, 2009, through (a) the Petition Date, for purposes of distributions from the Debtors themselves or (b) October 30, 2024 for purposes of distributions in respect of the Shareholder Released Direct Claims in the Opt-Out Class Action; or (y) Other Providers, subject to certain other eligibility criteria set forth in the Hospital Trust Distribution Procedures (those Holders of Hospital Claims that satisfy such criteria, the "Hospital Authorized Recipients"). In order to receive an abatement distribution from the Hospital Trust, Holders of Hospital Claims will be required to submit a Hospital Abatement Distribution Form (as defined with the Hospital Trust Documents) to the Hospital Trust accompanied by certain additional data. In particular, the Hospital Abatement Distribution Form includes, among other things, a requirement to (i) certify that such Holder adheres to the standard of care for the emergency department, hospital wards and outpatient clinics at the time of any prospective evaluation, diagnosis, and treatment of Opioid Use Disorder ("OUD"), including with respect to the applicable standard of care for the treatment of addiction, acute withdrawal and treatment for OUD with medication assisted treatment, and provides discharge planning and post-discharge care coordination for patients with OUD, including information for appropriate OUD treatment services and (ii) submit, to the extent not already submitted in connection with its Proof of Claim, Requisite Claims Data including, among other things, copies of all claims, complaints, proofs of claim, notices, settlement documents, releases, recoveries, compensation received, or similar documents that a Holder of a Hospital Claim submits or entered into in respect of claims asserted against or to be asserted against any other entity or person arising from or related to such Holder of a Hospital Claim's OUD program or related to any of the injuries that underlie such claim. The amount of the abatement distribution(s) made to each Hospital Authorized Recipient shall be subject to a calculation methodology set forth in the Hospital Trust Documents that is based on (i) the diagnostic codes associated with operational charges incurred by the Hospital Authorized Recipient in connection with the treatment of OUD, (ii) the portion of such charges that were not reimbursed, and (iii) certain other weighted determination factors, as set forth in further detail therein.

Any Acute Care Hospital whose Released Claims or Shareholder Released Direct Claims have been released by any other settlement is not eligible to participate in the Hospital Trust.

Hospital Authorized Recipients will be required to spend all distributions from the Hospital Trust for Hospital Authorized Abatement Purposes, as defined in the Plan, including (i) the Authorized Abatement Purposes set forth in the Hospital Trust Documents or (ii) the payment of attorneys' fees and costs of the Holders of Hospital Channeled Claims (including counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals) and funding of the Common Benefit Fund. Spending for a Hospital Authorized Abatement Purpose is designed to, among other things: provide transportation to treatment facilities for patients with OUD; provide continuing professional education in addiction medicine, including programs addressing stigma; allow participation in community efforts to provide OUD treatment to others in the community, such as those in jails, prisons, or other detention facilities; provide community education events on opioids and OUD; provide Naloxone kits and instruction to patients upon discharge; implement needle exchanges in hospitals or adjacent clinics and provide on-site Medication-Assisted Treatment ("MAT") services if possible; prospectively provide otherwise unreimbursed or under-reimbursed future medical services for patients with OUD or other opioid-related diagnoses; build or lease space to add half-way house beds; participate in research regarding development of innovating OUD treatment practices; direct moneys to any other public or private Authorized Recipient of funds concerning the treatment of persons with OUD or other opioid-related diagnoses; provided that such recipient's use of such funds would otherwise constitute an Authorized Abatement Purpose, and support MAT Programs. Each Hospital Authorized Recipient will have to submit to the Trustee on its Hospital Abatement Distribution Form a written statement that all funds will be spent only in the Hospital Authorized Recipient's Service Area.

The Hospital Trust's administrative expenses will be governed by the Hospital Trust Agreement. The Hospital Trust Agreement will provide that the Trustee shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the costs of administering the Hospital Trust are reasonable in all respects, but that the Trustee shall not be bound by any annual or cumulative "caps" on such expenditures.

Subject to the consent of the Debtors (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or denied), the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals will choose a Trustee. The Hospital Trust Agreement will provide that the Honorable Thomas L. Hogan (ret.) will serve as Trustee. In the event of a vacancy in the Trustee position, whether by term expiration, death, retirement, resignation, or removal, the vacancy shall be filled by the unanimous vote of the Trust Advisory Committee ("TAC"). In the event that the TAC cannot appoint a successor Trustee, for any reason, the Bankruptcy Court shall select the successor Trustee. Immediately upon the appointment of any successor Trustee, all rights, titles, duties, powers, and authority of the predecessor Trustee shall be vested in, and undertaken by, the successor Trustee without any further act. Each successor Trustee shall serve until the earliest of (i) the expiration of his or her term, (ii) his or her death, (iii) his or her resignation, (iv) his or her removal, or (v) the termination of the Hospital Trust.

The Hospital Trust Agreement will provide that the initial TAC shall consist of one member. The sole member of the TAC shall be Jeffrey James, CPA. The TAC shall consist of not less than one member, and shall never consist of more than three individuals.

The Hospital Trust Agreement shall provide that the Trustee shall have the power to appoint such officers, hire such employees, engage such legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, and other consultants, advisors, and agents as the business of the Hospital Trust requires, and delegate to such persons such powers and authorities as the fiduciary duties of the Trustee permit and as the Trustee, in its discretion, deem advisable or necessary in order to carry out the terms of the Hospital Trust, including without limitation the Delaware Trustee, and any third-party claims or noticing agent deemed necessary or convenient by the Trustee, and pay reasonable compensation to those employees, legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, and other consultants, advisors, and agents employed by the Trustee after the Effective Date (including those engaged by the Hospital Trust in connection with its alternative dispute resolution activities).

The Hospital Trust Agreement will further provide that the Trustee shall receive a retainer from the Hospital Trust for his or her service as a Trustee in the amount of $25,000 per annum, paid annually. Hourly time shall first be billed and applied to the annual retainer. Hourly time in excess of the annual retainer shall be paid by the Hospital Trust. For all time expended as a Trustee, including attending meetings, preparing for such meetings, and working on authorized special projects, the Trustee shall receive the sum of $600 per hour. For all non-working travel time in connection with Hospital Trust business, the Trustee shall receive the sum of $275 per hour. All time shall be computed on a decimal (1/10th) hour basis. The Hospital Trust Agreement shall also provide that the member(s) of the Trust Advisory Committee shall receive compensation from the Hospital Trust for services on the TAC at the same hourly rate as the Trustee (but with no annual retainer). Additionally, the Hospital Trust will promptly reimburse the member(s) of the TAC for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties as set forth in the Hospital Trust Documents.

The Hospital Trust Agreement will provide that neither the Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee shall be required to post any bond or other form of surety or security unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

(5) Third-Party Payor Claims (Class 8)

Numerous private health insurers, employer-sponsored health plans, union health and welfare funds and any other providers of healthcare benefits, including any third-party administrators or agent on behalf thereof, that is not a Domestic Governmental Entity; provided, however, that California health districts acting as third-party payors that filed Third-Party Payor Proofs of Claim in such capacity by the Bar Date established in the Bar Date Order are included in the defined term "Third-Party Payor," filed or were included in Proofs of Claim filed against the Debtors seeking damages for allegedly improper and fraudulent prescriptions of opioids and for the alleged increased healthcare costs caused by their members' opioid use and dependency. Some of the Third-Party Payors filed prepetition lawsuits against the Debtors asserting, without limitation, (i) violations of RICO and state law equivalents, (ii) nuisance, (iii) negligence, (iv) common law fraud, and (v) violations of state consumer protection statutes. The Third-Party Payors were represented in the Mediation by counsel for the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association and various Third-Party Payors and health insurance carrier plaintiffs.

Pursuant to the Plan, Third-Party Payor Claims consist of any Claim against any Debtor that is held by a Third-Party Payor (including any Claim based on the subrogation rights of the Holder thereof that is not an Other Subordinated Claim) that is not a Domestic Governmental Entity; provided that Claims in respect of self-funded government plans that were and are asserted through Third-Party Payors shall be included in this definition of "Third-Party Payor Claims." For the avoidance of doubt, (i) Federal Government Unsecured Claims are not Third-Party Payor Claims, and (ii) claims of Third-Party Payors against Holders of PI Claims or Distributions payable to Holders of PI Claims are not claims against any Debtor and therefore are not included in this definition of "Third-Party Payor Claims." All Third-Party Payor Claims and all Claims against Released Parties or Shareholder Released Parties that are held by a Third-Party Payor (in the case of Shareholder Released Direct Claims, solely to the extent that such Third-Party Payor is a Settling Creditor) that is not a Domestic Governmental Entity will be channeled to the TPP Trust.

The TPP Trust will be funded in an initial amount of $[394,929,850], less any amounts paid by the Debtors to the TPP Claims Administrator or his professionals as of the Effective Date and subject to (i) the SOR Holdback in the amount of $[5,989,850], and (ii) any applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount.[98] In addition, the TPP Trust may be entitled to further funding from the Master Disbursement Trust in connection with the SOR Holdback.

Background and Definitions

Pursuant to the Plan:

> "Third-Party Payor" means a private health insurer, an employer-sponsored health plan, a union health and welfare fund or any other provider of healthcare benefits, including any third-party administrator or agent on behalf thereof, that is not a Domestic Governmental Entity; provided, however, that California health districts acting as third-party payors that filed Third-Party Payor Proofs of Claim in such capacity by the Bar Date established by the Bar Date Order shall be included in this definition of "Third-Party Payor."
> "Third-Party Payor Claim" means any Claim against any Debtor that is held by a Third-Party Payor (including any Claim based on the subrogation rights of the Holder thereof that is not an Other Subordinated Claim) that is not a Domestic Governmental Entity; provided that Claims in respect of self-funded government plans that were and are asserted through private Third-Party Payors shall be included in this definition of "Third-Party Payor Claims." For the avoidance of doubt, (i) Federal Government Unsecured Claims are not Third-Party Payor Claims, and (ii) claims of Third-Party Payors against Holders of PI Claims or Distributions payable to Holders of PI Claims are not claims against any Debtor and therefore are not included in this definition of "Third-Party Payor Claims."

Any (i) Third-Party Payor Claim or (ii) Released Claim or Shareholder Released Claim that is held by a Third-Party Payor (in the case of Shareholder Released Direct Claims, solely to the extent that such Third-Party Payor is a Settling Creditor) that is not a Domestic Governmental Entity is a Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim, and all Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims are channeled to the TPP Trust in accordance with the Plan and Master TDP. However, any Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim as to which no Proof of Claim was timely filed by the Bar Date, or which was not included in a consolidated Proof of Claim that was filed by the Bar Date (it being understood that a self-funded health plan that is solely pursuing its Third-Party Payor Claim through its third-party administrator shall be deemed to have timely filed a Proof of Claim if its third-party administrator timely filed a consolidated Proof of Claim on behalf of self-funded health plans administered by that third-party administrator) will not be entitled to any Distribution from the TPP Trust, regardless of whether the claimant timely files a TPP Trust Claim Form.

Funding and Distributions

The TPP Trust will be funded in an initial amount of $[394,929,850], representing the combined Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of $[261,104,374.91, as the same may be reduced [98] In addition, the TPP Trust received $87,000, which shall be applied to the cost of the TPP Claims Administrator as authorized by the Order (I) Appointing PI and TPP Claims Administrators; (II) Authorizing the Establishment of Claims Deadlines and Claims Objection Procedures; and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 7382].

by the TPP Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount,[99] and the Estate Distribution of $[133,825,475.09][100] on the Effective Date, less the SOR Holdback. In addition, the TPP Trust may be entitled to further funding from the Master Disbursement Trust in connection with the SOR Holdback.

The TPP Trust will make distributions to eligible Third-Party Payors based on their Claim amount as calculated pursuant to the TPP TDP and Part 3 of the TPP Trust Claim Form. Both of those documents will be included in the Plan Supplement, and the TPP Trust Claim Form has previously been disseminated to entities that filed Third-Party Payor Claims by the Bar Date, pursuant to the Order granting the Claims Administrators Motion. The amount is calculated taking into consideration, (i) the number of plan members, subscribers or dependents covered under the Third-Party Payor's plan during some or all of the period from January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2019 (each, a "Unique Member") who were prescribed one or more of the drugs identified on the NDC List;[101] (ii) the number of unique prescriptions paid, all or in part, by that plan for the drugs identified on the NDC List; (iii) the total final dollars paid by that plan for the prescriptions for the drugs identified in (ii) above; (iv) the number of Unique Members identified in (i) above who were diagnosed with an Opioid Use Disorder, using one or more of the codes on the OUD ICD 10 List; and (v) for the Unique Members identified in (iv) above, the total dollar amount of medical claims with the ICD, CPT, or HCPS codes on the OUD Medical Claims Codes List, paid for those Unique Members.

In the event that a Holder of a Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim is a Non-Settling Creditor, funds will be reserved for such Non-Participating Claims from the Estate Distributions (the Non-Participating Claims Reserve) until the Non-Participating Claims Objection Deadline has passed without objection, or if an objection has been timely filed by the Shareholder Released Parties or any other party authorized to object, such objection has been determined by final order.[102] If the Non-Settling Creditor prevails on the issue of liability, the determination of the [101] The NDC List, OUD ICD 10 List, and OUD Medical Claims Codes List, as referenced herein, are appendices to the TPP Trust Claim Form, a draft of which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court as Exhibit C to the Joint Motion of the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for an Order (I) Appointing PI and TPP Claims Administrators; (II) Authorizing the Establishment of Claims Deadlines and Claims Objection Procedures; and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 7310] and which was subsequently distributed with a notice from the TPP Claims Administrator.

[102] The Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion paid to the TPP Trust will be reduced by (or the appropriate amount will be reimbursed to the Shareholder Released Parties) (a) the amount that such Non-Settling Creditor would have been entitled to pursuant to the Plan and the TPP Trust Distribution Procedures if that claimant had granted the shareholder releases, or (b) if the Non-Settling Creditor did not submit a TPP Trust Claim Form, an amount based upon a negotiated formula relating to that creditor's market share, and retained by the Shareholder Released Parties, as calculated by the TPP Trustee pursuant to applicable provisions of the TPP TDP.

If the Claim of a Non-Settling Creditor is not timely objected to by the Master Disbursement Trust and any other party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the applicable Creditor Trustee or any Shareholder Released Party or a timely objection is resolved in favor of the Non-Settling Creditor, the Non-Settling Creditor shall be entitled to a Distribution from the Non-Participating Claims Reserve. If a timely objection is decided in favor of the Shareholder

Allowed Claim amount shall be made by the TPP Claims Administrator or the TPP Trustee, as applicable, pursuant to the TPP TDP.[103]

The amount of the TPP Trust Assets available to make payments to Holders of Third-Party Payor Claims will be subject to certain deductions, including for the fees and expenses of administering the TPP Trust and the assessments to the Common Benefit Fund of 5% of each Distribution made by the TPP Trust, paid pursuant to Section 5.8 of the Plan. In addition, given that the Court has granted the Debtors' Claims Administrators Motion, which includes the appointment of a TPP Claims Administrator, the amount of TPP Trust Assets shall also be reduced as and to the extent authorized by the Court to reimburse the Debtors for their payment of certain TPP Claims Administrator expenses. The Claims Administrators Motion is discussed in Article III.CC.4.ii.1, supra.

TPP Trust Criteria for Evaluating Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims

In order to have their Third-Party Payor Claims considered for Distributions by the TPP Trust, the Holders of such Claims (the Third-Party Payors who satisfy such criteria being "TPP Authorized Recipients") must, among other things:

(i) Be Third-Party Payors, as that term is defined in the Plan;

(ii) Be Holders of Third-Party-Payor Claims and have (a) timely filed a Proof of Claim in the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases or (b) have been included in a timely filed Proof of Claim in the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases, it being understood that a self-funded health plan that is solely pursuing its Third-Party Payor Claims through its third-party administrator shall be deemed to have timely filed a Proof of Claim by the Bar Date if its third-party administrator timely filed a consolidated Proof of Claim on behalf of self-funded health plans administered by that third-party administrator;

(iii) Submit a completed TPP Trust Claim Form to (or be included in a consolidated TPP Trust Claim Form submitted to) the TPP Claims Administrator or the TPP Trust, as applicable, by the TPP Trust Claim Deadline, which shall be no later than the first Business Day that is four months after the date of the notice (the "TPP Trust Notice") to filers identified in the above subparagraph (i) by the TPP Claims Administrator appointed prior to the Effective Date of the Plan (the "TPP Trust Claim Deadline"), in accordance with the instructions provided with the TPP Trust Claim Form and subject to the terms of the TPP Trust Notice and the TPP TDP, as applicable; and Released Parties, the dollar amount attributable to that Claim in the Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be transferred to the Released Claim Reserve and available to pay the Litigation Costs of the Shareholder Released Parties.

(iv) Have provided in connection with such TPP Trust Claim Form, by or before the TPP Trust Claim Deadline, a calculation of its Purdue-related opioid spend (as described in the instructions that are a part of the TPP Trust Claim).[104]

The TPP Claims Administrator, or the TPP Trustee, as applicable[105], shall have the discretion but not the obligation to extend the TPP Trust Claims Deadline for some or all Holders of Third-Party Payor Claims or for some or all of those claimants that request an extension in writing that is received prior to the TPP Trust Claims Deadline. The TPP Claims Administrator's authority in this respect is set forth in the TPP Trust Notice, and the TPP Trustee's authority in this respect will be more fully set forth in the TPP TDP. After the TPP Trust Claim Deadline has passed, the TPP Trustee and the TPP Trustee's professionals, or if the Effective Date of the Plan has not yet occurred, the TPP Claims Administrator and the TPP Claims Administrator's professionals, shall determine whether, among other things, (i) all of the parties that submitted or were included in the TPP Trust Claim Forms are Third-Party Payors; (ii) such parties timely submitted Proofs of Claim or were included in timely submitted consolidated Proofs of Claim, as set forth above, (iii) the TPP Trust Claim Forms were timely submitted and properly completed, and the claims amounts were calculated pursuant to the instructions in the TPP Trust Claim Form; and (iv) the claimants and the Claims otherwise satisfy the requirements of the TPP Trust Documents.

Pursuant to the TPP TDP, the TPP Claims Administrator or the TPP Trustee, as applicable, shall make initial determinations of the Claim amount, if any, of each of the Third-Party Payor Claims and the allocations of Distributions to such TPP Authorized Recipients. The initial determinations shall be made by the later of eight months after the TPP Trust Claim Deadline or sixty days after the Effective Date, or such other deadline as may be authorized by the TPP TDP. Provided that the relevant Claim has not been Disallowed by Court order, Claimants will then have an opportunity to challenge the TPP Trustee's initial determinations, as set forth in the TPP TDP.[106]

Any Third-Party Payor that failed to timely file a Third-Party Payor Claim on or before the Bar Date set by the Bar Date Order or was not included in a timely filed Third-Party Payor Claim in the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases (it being understood that a self-funded health plan that is solely pursuing its Third-Party Payor Claims through its third-party administrator shall be deemed to have timely filed a Claim by the Bar Date if its third-party administrator timely filed a consolidated Proof of Claim on behalf of self-funded health plans administered by that third-party administrator), is barred from asserting or seeking to enforce its Third-Party Payor Claim, pursuant [104] The Maximum Eligible Amount Calculation Methodology is provided in the TPP Trust Claim Form and in the TPP Trust Distribution Procedures.

[105] The TPP Claims Administrator will be Alan D. Halperin, and he will become the TPP Trustee upon the Effective Date of the Plan.

[106] For avoidance of doubt, a Settling Creditor's Released Claims and Shareholder Released Claims will not be evaluated separately from such Holder's Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims against the Debtors; rather, all incremental value on account of such Claims being subject to the Third-Party Releases will be in the form of such Holder's access to the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion.

to the Bar Date Order, and shall not be a TPP Authorized Recipient or eligible to receive a Distribution from the TPP Trust. Likewise, any Third-Party Payor that does not timely submit a TPP Trust Claim Form or is not included in timely submitted consolidated TPP Trust Claim Form shall not qualify as a TPP Authorized Recipient, and any Third-Party Payor that submits a TPP Trust Claim Form after the TPP Trust Claim Deadline (including as extended by the TPP Claims Administrator or TPP Trustee, as applicable) shall not qualify as a TPP Authorized Recipient, and shall have no right to any distribution from the TPP Trust. (For avoidance of doubt, no claim of a Domestic Governmental Entity shall be a Third-Party Payor Claim or be entitled to any distribution from the TPP Trust, unless such Claim is in respect of a self-funded government plan and was and is asserted through a Third-Party Payor.)

Holders of Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims should be aware that, as previously stated, if they do not grant the Third-Party Releases in connection with Plan voting, the approval of their Claims by the TPP Claims Administrator or the TPP Trustee, as applicable, will not be treated as final, and no Distribution shall be made on account of such Claims, unless and until the objection period during which the Master Disbursement Trust and any other party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the applicable Creditor Trustee or any Shareholder Released Party, are permitted to object to such Claims has expired, without objection or, in the event that there is a timely objection, until there is a final order ruling in favor of the claimant on the issue of liability. Any Distribution on account of a Non-Participating Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim that is eventually Allowed pursuant to the previous sentence and pursuant to terms of the TPP TDP will be limited to the claimant's pro rata share of the Estate Distribution as determined by the TPP Trustee.

Third-Party Payors may also elect to participate in the LRP Agreement, described in Articles I through XII of the Plan. The LRP Agreement is the result of negotiations between representatives of the Third-Party Payors and representatives of the Holders of PI Claims, and provides a lien resolution program that addresses the reimbursement and lien claims that Third-Party Payors may hold against Holders of PI Claims and Distributions to Holders of PI Claims. The LRP Agreement is an exhibit to the PI Trust Agreement and is a Plan Document.

ALL HOLDERS OF THIRD-PARTY PAYOR CLAIMS ARE ENCOURAGED TO CAREFULLY READ THE PLAN, AS WELL AS THE TPP TDP, AND TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE TPP TRUST CLAIM FORM (INCLUDING THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE CALCULATION AND FILING OF SUCH TPP TRUST CLAIM FORM), THE TPP TRUST AGREEMENT AND THE LRP AGREEMENT. A COPY OF THE PLAN IS ATTACHED HERETO. ALL OF THE OTHER DOCUMENTS IDENTIFIED IN THIS SECTION HAVE EITHER BEEN FILED OR WILL BE FILED WITH THE BANKRUPTCY COURT WITH THE PLAN, THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, OR THE PLAN SUPPLEMENT.

Other TPP Trust Information

As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the TPP Trustee will send notice to persons or entities that have asserted Third-Party Payor Claims, advising such parties of (i) the establishment of the TPP Trust and relevant deadlines, (ii) the address of the TPP Trust website

(which has links to TPP Trust Documents) and (iii) any additional information the TPP Trustee deems appropriate.

The administration of the TPP Trust will be governed by the TPP Trust Documents. With the consent of the Debtors, the Third-Party Payor Group has selected Alan D. Halperin as the TPP Trustee. The TPP Trustee shall have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the TPP Trust, and shall undertake all administrative responsibilities of the TPP Trust (whether directly or through professionals and agents engaged by the TPP Trust, including a claims administrator) as are provided in the Plan and the TPP Trust Documents. The TPP Trustee shall be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the TPP Trust, as more fully set forth in the TPP Trust Agreement.

The TPP Trust Agreement will provide that the TPP Trustee shall have the authority to, in his/her discretion, consult with and retain attorneys, financial advisors, accountants, or other professionals and employees, including any third-party claims administrators or claims and noticing agent, as the TPP Trustee deems appropriate in the reasonable exercise of his/her discretion, and who the TPP Trustee reasonably determines to have qualifications necessary to assist the TPP Trustee in the proper administration of the TPP Trust. The TPP Trustee may pay the reasonable fees, costs and expenses of such persons (including to him/herself and his/her firm) out of the assets of the TPP Trust in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to the terms of the TPP Trust Agreement.

The TPP Trust Agreement will provide for the compensation of the TPP Trustee and shall provide that the TPP Trustee shall not be required to post any bond or other form of surety or security unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

(6) ER Physician Claims (Class 9)

The ERP Trust will administer ERP Claims, defined as any Claim against any Debtor that is held by an ER Physician, provided that such Claim arose when such ER Physician's billing and revenue collection were entirely separate from the billing and revenue collection practices of the medical facility at which such ER Physician practiced, and such ER Physician was not employed by such medical facility. All ERP Channeled Claims, including (i) the Claims of each ERP that filed a Proof of Claim and (ii) the Claims of any ERP that participates in the Direct Claims Settlement through an Opt-Out Class Action, will be channeled to the ERP Trust. To administer and provide Distributions on account of ERP Claims, the ERP Trust will be funded in an initial amount of $[5,811,440] million, representing the combined Estate Claims Settlement Value and Direct Claims Settlement Value, from the Debtors on the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) consummation of the ER Physician Shareholder Direct Settlement, less the SOR Holdback in the amount of $[141,440]. In addition, the ERP Trust may be entitled to further funding from the Master Disbursement Trust in connection with the SOR Holdback. If, as of the Effective Date, the ER Physician Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Initial ERP Trust Distribution will be deposited by the Master Disbursement Trust into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

The ERP Trust will prepare the necessary forms to be completed as part of the claims process by Holders of ERP Claims that have been channeled to the ERP Trust pursuant to the Plan (the "ERP Trust Forms"). As part of the claims process, the ERP Trust will verify that the ERP: (i) holds an ERP Claim and that he or she was an ERP for at least five years at any point between 1990 and 2022; (ii) has suffered financial losses from treating uninsured or under-insured[107] patients suffering from Opioid Use Disorder ("OUD"), opioid misuse, opioid dependency or opioid related co-morbidities, and (iii) has submitted all requested tax documents. Holders of ERP Claims will have 30 days from receipt of the ERP Trust Forms to submit such forms to the ERP Trust. If such Holder does not submit the ERP Trust Forms within 30 days, such Holder will not receive Distributions from the ERP Trust on account of their ERP Claim, and such Holder shall have no further recourse to any of the Debtors or the Post-Emergence Entities.

The ERP Trust will make distributions (net of attorneys' fees and costs, including funding of the Common Benefit Fund) to ERP Claim Holders who are deemed to be authorized pursuant to the ERP Trust Agreement. The amount of the ERP Trust Abatement Distribution that each verified and eligible ERP Trust Authorized Recipient will receive shall be based on (i) such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's damages calculated for the years between 1990 and 2022, (ii) the number of ERP Claims channeled to the ERP Trust and the availability of ERP Trust Assets, (iii) the sufficiency, viability, and appropriateness of the applicable ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's proposed Abatement Strategies and budget, and (iv) whether such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient elected to grant Third-Party Releases in connection with Plan voting. In order to be considered to be eligible to receive an ERP Trust Abatement Distribution, the ERP Trust Authorized Recipient must timely submit all required forms and evidentiary documentation.

In the event that a Holder of a ERP Channeled Claim is a Non-Settling Creditor, funds will be reserved for such Non-Participating Claims from the Estate Distributions (the Non-Participating Claims Reserve) until the Non-Participating Claims Objection Deadline has passed without objection, or if an objection has been timely filed by the Shareholder Released Parties, such objection has been determined by final order.[108] If the Non-Settling Creditor prevails on the issue of liability, the determination of the Allowed Claim amount shall be made by the ERP Trustee.

The amount of the ERP Trust Assets available to make payments to Holders of ERP Claims will be subject to certain deductions, including for the fees and expenses of administering the ERP [107] "Under-insured patients" refers to patients who have insurance but are still unable to pay for the medical treatment received in the emergency room as it relates to treating patients with opioid use disorder or any opioid-related diagnosis.

[108] The Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion paid to the ERP Trust will be reduced by the percentage of dollars attributable to the Claims of the Non-Settling Creditors (or the appropriate amount will be reimbursed to the Shareholder Released Parties) and retained by the Shareholder Payment Parties. The reduction shall be based on the ERP Trustee's determination of the amount of such Claim.

If the Claim of a Non-Settling Creditor is not timely objected to by the Shareholder Released Parties or a timely objection is resolved in favor of the Non-Settling Creditor, the Non-Settling Creditor shall be entitled to a Distribution from the Non-Participating Claims Reserve. If a timely objection is decided in favor of the Shareholder Released Parties, the dollar amount attributable to that Claim in the Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be transferred to the Released Claim Reserve and available to pay the Litigation Costs of the Shareholder Released Parties.

Trust and the assessments to the Common Benefit Fund of 5% of each Distribution made by the ERP Trust, paid pursuant to Section 5.8 of the Plan.

The ERP Trust will consider the estimated total revenue loss, the number of verified ERP Trust Authorized Recipients and availability of funds, and the accuracy, viability and appropriateness of the ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's submitted Abatement Strategies to be implemented when determining the ERP Trust Abatement Distribution amount for each ERP Trust Authorized Recipient.

ERP Trust Authorized Recipients eligible to receive ERP Trust Abatement Distributions will be sent a form of agreement (the "ERP Trust Abatement Distribution Form") containing the following conditions that such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient must agree to in order to receive an ERP Trust Abatement Distribution: (i) to only use the monies as provided in the ERP Trust Abatement Distribution Form; (ii) to be the sole person responsible for all applicable local, state, and federal taxes and any obligations to the IRS related to the receipt of any ERP Trust Abatement Distribution; (iii) to prepare and submit to the ERP Trustee (who will submit to the ERP TAC) an Annual Report regarding progress of implementing such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's Abatement Strategies, funds expended, for what purpose such funds were expended, and a description of the next phase of the Abatement Strategies; (iv) to make all payments made in furtherance of the implementation of such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's Abatement Strategies available for review by the Trustee and ERP TAC when requested; and (v) to provide to the ERP Trustee or ERP TAC, when requested, any information, forms, and documentation that may be required for tax purposes. Upon receipt of the signed ERP Trust Abatement Distribution Form, the ERP Trustee will distribute the applicable ERP Trust Abatement Distribution to the ERP Trust Authorized Recipient.

If the ERP Trust identifies a material misstatement made by the ERP Trust Authorized Recipient and contained in the ERP Trust Distribution Form or supporting documentation, the ERP Trust may, for good cause shown, allow the ERP Trust Authorized Recipient up to 30 days to resubmit a corrected ERP Trust Distribution Form with supporting documentation. Failure to timely correct misstatements in a manner acceptable to the ERP Trustee or ERP TAC may result in forfeiture of all or part of the ERP Claim Holder's qualification as an ERP Trust Authorized Recipient and of such Holder's right to receive ERP Trust Abatement Distributions. If the misstatement is discovered after an ERP Trust Abatement Distribution has been made, the Holder that received such ERP Trust Abatement Distribution may be required to return all funds received from the ERP Trust. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Third-Party Releases granted by such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient in accordance with the Plan and the efficacy, enforceability, scope and terms thereof shall be unaffected and remain in full force and effect regardless of (i) whether or not such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient has already received, becomes eligible to receive, or is required to return all or a portion of any ERP Trust Abatement Distribution and (ii) when the misstatement was discovered.

All available funds distributed to ERP Trust Authorized Recipients shall be used solely and exclusively for ERP Trust Authorized Opioid Abatement Purposes. ERP Trust Authorized Opioid Abatement Purposes are those that are intended to: (i) reduce the use of opioids and increase the use of alternatives to opioids by emergency room physicians when treating pain to reduce the chance of opioid misuse; (ii) increase the use of risk assessments prior to prescribing opioids to determine the likelihood of misuse on the part of the patient; (iii) increase the use of OUD screening practices for all patients presenting at the emergency room to identify patients who could benefit from MAT and/or referral to treatment programs; (iv) increase the number of emergency room physicians initiating MAT in the emergency room to reduce overdose deaths and increase enrollment and retention in treatment programs; (v) increase the distribution of NARCAN (or comparable medication) by emergency rooms via emergency room physicians, recovery support specialists or nurses; (vi) increase accessibility and availability of NARCAN (or comparable medication) through participation in health fairs, community events, and other public gatherings as well as placement of NARCAN vending machines in key locations; and/or (vii) increase utilization of recovery support specialists by emergency room physicians to link the patient to MAT outpatient or residential treatment to increase the number of persons with OUD who begin and remain in treatment. Any unused ERP Trust Assets (i.e., any funds remaining in the ERP Trust after all ERP Trust Abatement Distributions have been completed) shall be used by the ERP Trust to implement and evaluate Approved Abatement Programs. Any such Approved Abatement Programs shall be created from evidence-based data and must address ERP Trust Authorized Opioid Abatement Purposes, and expenditures for such Approved Abatement Programs must be approved by the ERP TAC prior to implementation. The proposed strategies for a Holder of an ERP Claim to accomplish the ERP Trust Authorized Abatement Purposes are referred to as "Abatement Strategies."

The administration of the ERP Trust will be governed by the ERP Trust Documents. The ERP Trust will be administered by the ERP Trustee, overseen by the ERP Trust Trust Advisory Committee (the "ERP TAC"). The ERP Trustee shall have the authority to perform all functions on behalf of the ERP Trust and shall undertake all administrative responsibilities as are provided in the ERP Trust Documents; provided that the ERP Trustee may not take any actions prohibited by the Plan or the Confirmation Order, or not authorized or without the consent of the ERP TAC. With the consent of the Debtors, the initial ERP Trustee will be Dr. Michael Masiowski. The initial ERP TAC shall consist of two members. The ERP TAC shall consist of no less than two members. The two initial members of the ERP TAC shall be Suzanne Colvin, PhD and Michelle Puggiari, Esq. Successive ERP TAC members shall be appointed by the ERP Trustee pursuant to the ERP Trust Agreement. The ERP Trust Agreement will provide that neither the ERP Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee shall be required to post any bond or other form of surety or security unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

In accordance with the ERP Trust Documents, the ERP Trustee, with approval by the ERP TAC, shall have the power to hire employees, engage legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, and other consultants, advisors, and agents as the business of the ERP Trust requires, and delegate to such persons such powers and authorities as the ERP Trustee, in his discretion, deems advisable or necessary in order to carry out the terms of the ERP Trust in accordance with the Governing Order and Filings and the ERP Trust Documents.

The ERP Trustee, with approval from the ERP TAC, shall have the authority to determine whether Holders of ERP Claims are ERP Trust Authorized Recipients and the amount of ERP Trust Abatement Distributions to be made by the ERP Trust. To qualify as an ERP Trust Authorized Recipient and be eligible to receive an ERP Trust Abatement Distribution, Holders of ERP Claims must comply with the terms, provisions and procedures set forth in the ERP Trust Documents and the Governing Order and Filings. The ERP Trustee and ERP TAC may investigate any ERP Claim and may request information from any Holder of an ERP Claim to ensure compliance with the terms set forth in the ERP Trust Documents.

Pursuant to the ERP Trust Agreement, the ERP Trustee shall administer the ERP Trust and ERP TDP in consultation with the ERP TAC, which represents the interests of Holders of ERP Claims and ensures fairness, efficiency and effectiveness of the ERP Trust. The duties of the ERP TAC with respect to the ERP Trust are set forth in the ERP Trust Agreement.

Any Claim channeled to the ERP Trust under the Plan that does not satisfy the requirements to qualify as an ERP Claim shall not be eligible to receive Distributions from the ERP Trust and the Holder thereof shall have no recourse to, or right of recovery from, or any other rights against, the ERP Trust, any other PPOC Sub-Trust, any of the Debtors, or any of the Post-Emergence Entities.

The ERP Trustee will, in consultation with the ERP TAC, determine whether the Holder of an ERP Claim qualifies as an ERP Trust Authorized Recipient and, if so, the amount of the ERP Trust Abatement Distribution to be made to each ERP Trust Authorized Recipient. The ERP Trustee can modify all deadlines indicated in the ERP Trust Abatement Distribution Procedures with ERP TAC approval.

The ERP Trustee will cause to be prepared reporting documents to be completed by ERP Trust Authorized Recipients quarterly in the first year of implementation and semi-annually thereafter. A report is to be submitted to the ERP Trustee, who will subsequently submit it to the ERP TAC, within 14 days of receipt. The report shall contain, at a minimum, the following: (i) dated expenditures for administration and implementation of each Abatement Strategy and evidence that such expenditures commenced within the required time period (i.e., 90 days from receipt of the applicable ERP Trust Abatement Distribution); (ii) expenditures made to date and descriptions of their purposes; (iii) a timeline of Abatement Strategy implementation; (iv) data or descriptive information indicating the effectiveness of each Abatement Strategy implemented to date; and (v) responses to any inquiries received from the ERP Trustee or ERP TAC. The ERP Trustee and ERP TAC shall have the right to audit or cause to be audited an ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's expenditures for ERP Trust Authorized Abatement Purposes to determine if such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient has met the requirements set forth in the ERP Trust Documents governing the use of ERP Trust Abatement Distributions. Each ERP Trust Authorized Recipient, when requested by the ERP Trustee (or its agents or representatives) or the ERP TAC shall provide supporting documentation demonstrating that such ERP Trust Authorized Recipient's expenditures for ERP Trust Authorized Abatement Purposes have met the requirements of the ERP Trust Documents. All Proofs of Claim, ERP Trust Abatement Distribution Forms and certifications filed or submitted by Holders of ERP Trust Claims are subject to audit by the ERP Trustee or the ERP TAC.

(7) PI Claims (Classes 10(a) and 10(b))[109]

Many individuals or their estates or guardians assert Claims against the Debtors for alleged opioid-related personal injury or similar opioid-related Claims. Approximately 140,000 opioid-related personal injury victims filed Claims in the Chapter 11 Cases, in addition to approximately 6,300 Claims filed against the Debtors for alleged opioid-related personal injury to or on behalf of an NAS Child. The PI TDPs[110] provide a process for evaluating those Claims and compensating Holders of Allowed PI Claims.

Except as provided below, pursuant to the Plan, PI Claims consist of Claims brought by individuals, or their loved ones, who suffer from addiction, overdose, death, or other related and similar injuries, as a result of the use of opioid products. Specifically, PI Claims consist of all Claims against any Debtor for alleged opioid-related personal injury or other similar opioid-related Causes of Action against any Debtor, in each case arising before the Petition Date, and that are not Third-Party Payor Claims, Hospital Claims or Claims held by a Domestic Governmental Entity.

PI Claims are comprised of "Non-NAS PI Claims" and "NAS PI Claims." Non-NAS PI Claims are Claims against any Debtor for alleged opioid-related personal injury or similar opioid-related Causes of Action against a Debtor that are not NAS PI Claims. That is, Non-NAS PI Claims do not include Claims brought on behalf of children who suffered from neonatal abstinence syndrome ("NAS") or similar injuries resulting from their perinatal exposure to opioid products, which are referred to as NAS PI Claims. More specifically, NAS PI Claims are Claims against any Debtor for alleged opioid-related personal injury to an NAS Child or similar opioid-related Causes of Action against a Debtor asserted by or on behalf of an NAS Child.

For purposes of the PI TDPs, PI Claims, including both Non-NAS PI Claims and NAS PI Claims, fall into two categories:

(i) Those PI Claims whose respective Holders consent to release the Shareholder Released Parties through electing to grant the Third-Party Release on their respective Ballot on or before the Voting Deadline. These are known as "PI Fully Channeled Claims."

- PI Fully Channeled Claims are subdivided into Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims and NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims, and in each case include two types of sub-claims:
  - (i) such PI Claims against any Debtor for alleged opioid-related personal injury or other similar opioid-related Causes of Action against any Debtor; and [110] The term "PI TDPs" refers to the Non-NAS PI TDP and the NAS PI TDP, each as described in greater detail below and in the PI Trust Documents, which will be included in the Plan Supplement. This section provides a summary of certain provisions of the PI Trust Documents, including the PI TDPs. This section is qualified in its entirety and is subject to the PI Trust Documents, including the exhibits thereto. The statements contained in this section do not purport to be precise or complete statements of all terms and provisions of the PI Trust Documents referred to therein. Reference is made to the PI Trust Documents for the full and complete statements of such terms and provisions thereof. In the event of any conflict between this summary, on the one hand, and the PI Trust Documents, on the other hand, the terms and provisions of the PI Trust Documents will control.

- (ii) Released Claims and Shareholder Released Claim, including but not limited to direct Claims against Shareholder Released Parties (including but not limited to the Sackler Family Members) for alleged opioid-related personal injury or other similar opioid-related Causes of Action, in each case arising before the Petition Date;

(ii) Those PI Claims whose respective Holders do not consent to release the Shareholder Released Parties through electing to grant the Third-Party Releases on their respective Ballot on or before the Voting Deadline. These are known as "PI Partially Channeled Claims."

- PI Partially Channeled Claims are subdivided into Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims. These Claims are referred to as "Partially Channeled" to account for:

  - (i) the portion of such Claims that are direct Claims against Shareholder Released Parties (including but not limited to the Sackler Family Members) for alleged opioid-related personal injury or other similar opioid-related Causes of Action that arose prior to the Petition Date that such Holders did not consent to release through electing to grant the Third-Party Releases on their respective Ballot, which are referred to as "Non-NAS PI Non-Channeled Direct Sub-Claims" or "NAS PI Non-Channeled Direct Sub-Claims," as applicable, and

  - (ii) the portion of such Claims that constitute Claims against any Debtor for alleged opioid-related personal injury or other similar opioid-related Causes of Action against any Debtor that arose prior to the Petition Date and are not Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims or Hospital Channeled Claims, or held by a Domestic Governmental Entity, which are referred to as "Non-NAS PI Channeled Estate Sub-Claims" or "NAS PI Channeled Estate Sub-Claims," as applicable.

The manner in which PI Claims become eligible for payment is set forth in the PI TDPs, which are trust distribution procedures included in the PI Trust Documents filed with the Plan Supplement. There are separate trust distribution procedures for Non-NAS PI Claims that are channeled to the PI Trust, known as the "Non-NAS PI TDP," and for NAS PI Claims that are channeled to the PI Trust, known as the "NAS PI TDP." The PI Trust will make distributions (net of attorneys' fees, costs, and other deductions as set forth in the applicable PI TDP, including funding of the Common Benefit Fund) to Holders of Allowed PI Channeled Claims, whose Distribution, if any, shall be subject to and determined in accordance with the Plan and the applicable PI TDP.

Except as otherwise provided in the PI TDPs, pursuant to the Plan and the Master TDP, the following PI Claims will be channeled to the PI Trust and, unless otherwise Disallowed pursuant to the claims objection process, liability therefor will be assumed by the PI Trust, as of the Effective Date: all Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims, Non-NAS PI Channeled Estate Sub-Claims, NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims, and NAS PI Channeled Estate Sub-Claims. Such Claims will be administered and resolved pursuant to the Non-NAS PI TDP and the NAS PI TDP, respectively.

Except as otherwise provided in the PI TDPs, pursuant to the Plan and the Master TDP, the following PI Claims will not be channeled to the PI Trust and liability therefor will not be assumed by the PI Trust, as of the Effective Date: Non-NAS PI Non-Channeled Direct Sub-Claims and NAS PI Non-Channeled Direct Sub-Claims.

Under the applicable PI TDP, Holders of Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims and NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims will either be Qualified or Deficient, and in either case will be liquidated to determine the respective gross distribution on account of such Claim (an "Award"). A Qualified Claim refers to a Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim that is Substantiated (i.e., it satisfies all of the requirements of the Non-NAS PI TDP) and entitled to receive an Award. Holders of Qualified Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims and Qualified NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims will be entitled to one hundred percent (100%) of their respective Awards, subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks in accordance with the applicable PI TDP. In other words, if Holders of PI Channeled Claims that elect to grant the Third-Party Releases satisfy the requirements set forth in the applicable PI TDP, such Holders will receive their respective Awards as described above and in the applicable PI TDP. A Deficient Claim refers to a PI Fully Channeled Claim (i) that does not satisfy the requirements of §§ 3-6 of the applicable PI TDP, or (ii) for which a Deficiency was not timely cured under the applicable PI TDP. Deficient PI Fully Channeled Claims will not become Allowed or Disallowed until entry of a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court allowing or disallowing such Claims, subject to the limitations in the PI TDPs and the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks; provided, that, to the extent a Deficient Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim has not been Allowed or Disallowed by a Final Order, the Holder of such Claim has a right to appeal the Claims Administrator's determination that such Claim is Deficient, and thus Allowed in the amount of $0, within twenty (20) days of receiving notice of the Claims Administrator's determination, which appeal would be handled by a special master. In the event the Bankruptcy Court overrules any objection to a Deficient PI Fully Channeled Claim, such Claim will be Allowed and the Holder of such Claim can receive its Award, subject to the Claim otherwise being Substantiated under the applicable PI TDP. Deficient PI Fully Channeled Claims that are not Substantiated under the applicable PI TDP or are Disallowed by the Bankruptcy Court will receive no Award.

Under the PI TDP, all Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims which are held by Holders that did not elect to grant the Third-Party Releases, will be Deficient and may be objected to by any party in interest, including the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Master Disbursement Trust, other applicable creditor representatives, or the Shareholder Released Parties in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Plan. Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims will be liquidated to determine what their respective Award would have been had such Claim been a Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim or a NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim, respectively. If such PI Partially Channeled Claims are Disallowed by a Final Order, such Claims will receive no Award on account of such Claims either against the Debtors or any Shareholder Released Parties. With respect to Deficient Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and Deficient NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims that are otherwise Substantiated (i.e., that satisfy all the requirements under the applicable PI TDP), [(i) 22.1% and 22.4%, respectively, of the respective Award as of the Effective Date (excluding the $50 million distribution due to the PI Trust pursuant to Section 5.2(e) of the Plan and the PI Trust's reversionary interest in the Special Operating Reserve) (i.e., the Individual Direct Claim Holdback Amount portion) will be withheld from funding the PI Trust by the Shareholder Released Parties pursuant to the Plan and (ii) 77.9% and 77.6%, respectively, of the respective Award as of the Effective Date (excluding the $50 million distribution due to the PI Trust pursuant to Section 5.2(e) of the Plan and the PI Trust's reversionary interest in the Special Operating Reserve) (i.e., the Individual Deficient Claim Holdback Amount portion) will be deposited into the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserve or the Class 10(a) Non-Participating Claims Reserve, as applicable, subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks described below. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) (a) the overall Individual Direct Claim Holdback Amount for Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and for NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims will ultimately equal 20.4% and 22.0%, respectively, and (b) the overall Individual Deficient Claim Holdback Amount for Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims will ultimately equal 79.6% and 78.0%, respectively, of what such Holder's Award will be upon the PI Trust's receiving (a) the $50 million distribution due to the PI Trust pursuant to Section 5.2(e) of the Plan and (b) the PI Trust's reversionary interest in the Special Operating Reserve.

ANY HOLDER OF A NON-NAS PI CHANNELED CLAIM OR NAS PI CHANNELED CLAIM WHO DOES NOT CONSENT TO VOLUNTARILY RELEASE THE SHAREHOLDER RELEASED PARTIES SHALL NOT RECEIVE ITS INDIVIDUAL DIRECT CLAIM HOLDBACK AMOUNT (I.E., 22.1% AND 22.4%, RESPECTIVELY, OF WHAT SUCH HOLDER'S AWARD WOULD HAVE BEEN ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE IF ITS NON-NAS PI CHANNELED CLAIM OR NAS PI CHANNELED CLAIM, RESPECTIVELY, WERE SUBSTANTIATED AND ALLOWED)

On the Effective Date, the PI Trust will be funded with $815,851,710 (less any amounts paid by the Debtors to the PI Claims Administrator), subject to (i) the SOR Holdback on account of the Initial NAS PI Distribution and the Initial Non-NAS Distribution in the total amount of $[11,171,710], [(ii) amounts distributed directly to the United States for federal lien reimbursement rights under the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, discussed on page __ above] and (iii) the Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback Amount. The Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback means the aggregate amount of Individual Direct Claims Holdback Amounts that are projected as of the Effective Date.

In addition, the PI Trust will be entitled to further funding from the Master Disbursement Trust from the first $50 million of proceeds, payments, and benefits received by the Master Disbursement Trust from third-party claims and causes of action assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust (including all amounts related to all types of insurance). For example, the Debtors have certain insurance rights that may cover some of the Claims in these Chapter 11 Cases. Should the Master Disbursement Trust recover any proceeds from those insurance policies, the PI Trust will receive the first such proceeds up to an amount of $50 million. However, to the extent the PI Trust does not receive the entire $50 million from such sources prior to the second anniversary of the Effective Date, the Master Disbursement Trust will pay to the PI Trust on the first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following such second anniversary of the Effective Date on a priority basis in accordance with Section 5.2(g) of the Plan any shortfall (up to an aggregate amount of $50 million) as of that date.

Moreover, the PI Trust will be entitled to any reversionary interest in the $[11,171,710] deposited into the Special Operating Reserve by the Debtors as follows: the reversion of (i) $11.06 million on the earlier of (x) the first Special Operating Reserve reversion date in accordance with Section 5.7(b) of the Plan and (y) the eighth anniversary of the Effective Date (minus any amounts that have been used for Litigation Costs solely relating to PI Claims) and (ii) $111,710 on the date the Special Operating Reserve ceases to exist.

The PI Trust will establish a fund to pay Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims, known as the "PI Trust Non-NAS Fund," and a fund to pay NAS PI Channeled Claims, known as the "PI Trust NAS Fund." These amounts may be held in the same account in order to maximize interest returns, but will be accounted for separately. Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims and Non-NAS PI Channeled Estate Sub-Claims will be satisfied solely from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund or the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserve, respectively, as described more fully below. NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims and NAS PI Channeled Estate Sub-Claims will be satisfied solely from the PI Trust NAS Fund or the PI Trust Class 10(a) Non-Participating Reserve Fund, respectively, as applicable and described more fully below.

Under the Plan, on the Effective Date the PI Trust will receive $815,851,710 of Effective Date Cash less any amounts paid by the Debtors to the PI Claims Administrator, subject to (i) the SOR Holdbacks on account of the Initial NAS PI Distribution and the Initial Non-NAS PI Distribution in the total amount of $11,171,710; [(ii) amounts distributed directly to the United States under the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, and (iii) the Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback Amount. The PI Trust will allocate the distributions it receives under the Plan as follows:

(i) $48,215,000[111] received by the PI Trust on the Effective Date to the PI Trust NAS Fund,

(ii) $65,851,710 to the PI Trust NAS Fund,

(iii) [16.2438%] of the PI Trust's reversionary interest in the Special Operating Reserve to the PI Trust NAS Fund, and in each case subject to applicable PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks. The Initial NAS PI Distribution will be subject to deductions for (i) the SOR Holdback in the amount of $1,814,710 as well as (ii) any Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback Amount, (iii) any amounts advanced to the NAS Monitoring Trust by the Debtors prior to the Effective Date, and (iv) [13.98%] of any amounts paid by the Debtors to the PI Claims Administrator and advanced to the PI Trust prior to the Effective Date. The Initial Non-NAS PI Distribution shall be subject to deductions for (i) the SOR Holdback in the amount of $9,357,000 as well as (ii) any Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback Amount, and (iii) [86.02%] of any amounts paid by the Debtors to the Claims Administrator and [111] $48,215,000 is the sum of (i) 6.43% of $700,000,000 of the Initial PI Trust Distribution Amount, up to an aggregate $45 million in accordance with the definition of "NAS PI Portion" in the Twelfth Amended Plan, and (ii) 6.43% of the $50,000,000 remaining Initial PI Trust Distribution Amount.

(iv) the remainder to the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund,

advanced to the PI Trust prior to the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the above, (i) one hundred percent (100%) of any Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback Amount with respect to Non-NAS PI Claims will be allocated to the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund and (ii) one hundred percent (100%) of any Aggregate Direct Claims Holdback Amount with respect to NAS PI Claims will be allocated to the PI Trust NAS Fund.

The Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims believes that the Non-NAS PI TDP is fair and expeditious and resolves Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims in a way that is equitable, consistent, transparent and reasonable given the finite amount of funds available to satisfy such Claims. The NAS Committee believes that the NAS PI TDP is fair and expeditious and resolves NAS PI Channeled Claims in a way that is equitable, consistent, transparent and reasonable given the finite amount of funds available to satisfy such Claims.

Procedures Under the Non-NAS TDP:

The Non-NAS TDP sets forth what forms and qualifying evidence each Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim must submit in order to be eligible to receive an Award. Non-NAS PI Claim Forms may be completed online, and evidence in support of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim can be uploaded online via the PI Trust Website, www.purduepitrust.com. Completed Non-NAS PI Claim Forms as well as evidence in support of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim also can be submitted to the PI Trust by sending such forms and evidence by (i) e-mail to purduepitrust@purduepitrust.com, (ii) mail to Purdue PI Trust, P.O. Box 361930, Hoover, Alabama 35236-1930, or (iii) facsimile to 205-716-2364. Law firm claim batches should be submitted via the Bulk Data and Document Submittal process outlined on the law firm tab of the PI Trust Website.

Classification of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims as Qualified, Substantiated, or Deficient. For a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim that is being liquidated pursuant to the streamlined procedures set forth in the Non-NAS PI TDP to be Qualified and Substantiated, the Holder of such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim must:

(a) Hold such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim against one or more Debtors;

(b) Provide proof demonstrating usage prior to the Petition Date of a qualifying prescribed opioid listed in Exhibit C of the Non-NAS PI TDP (a "Qualifying Opioid");[112]

(c) Have timely[113] filed an individual personal injury Proof of Claim against one or more Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases asserting his/her Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim against one or more Debtors;

[112] If the Holder of such Non-NAS PI Claim or the decedent of such Holder, as applicable, used only a non-prescribed (diverted) version of a Qualifying Opioid listed on Exhibit C of the Non-NAS PI TDP (OxyContin, MS Contin, Dilaudid, Hysingla ER, Butrans, DHC Plus, MSIR, OxyFast, OxyIR, Palladone, or Ryzolt), then such Non-NAS PI Claim will be Disputed.

[113] Subject to exceptions set forth in the Non-NAS PI TDP.

(d) Complete, sign[114] and submit the Non-NAS PI Claim Form (the form of which is attached to the Non-NAS PI TDP as Exhibit A), so that it is received on or before the PI Claims Deadline, which is sixty (60) days after notice of the PI Claims Deadline is distributed to Holders of PI Channeled Claims as set out in the Order (I) Appointing PI and TPP Claims Administrators; (II) Authorizing the Establishment of Claims Deadlines and Claims Objection Procedures; and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 7382] a Final Order by the Bankruptcy Court establishing the PI TDP Claims Deadline and approving the form of notice informing Holders of PI Channeled Claims of same;

(e) Complete, sign, and submit the applicable HIPAA consent form (the form of which is attached to the Non-NAS PI TDP as Exhibit B); and

(f) If the Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim concerns the injuries of a decedent of the Holder of such Claim, then complete, sign, and submit the Heirship Declaration attached to the Non-NAS PI TDP as Exhibit D, or provide valid estate documents (as described in Exhibit D to the Non-NAS PI TDP) authorizing the Holder of the Claim to act on behalf of the decedent's estate.

If the Holder of a Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim satisfies all these requirements, then such Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim will be Qualified and Substantiated. If the Holder of a Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim or a Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim does not satisfy all these requirements, then such Claim will be Deficient. If the Holder of a Non-NAS Partially Channeled Claim satisfies all these requirements, then such Claim will be a Deficient Claim that is also Substantiated (a "Substantiated Disputed Claim"). Each Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim must complete, sign, and submit a Non-NAS PI Claim Form so that it is received by the Claims Administrator on or before the PI Claims Deadline. Failure to do so will result in such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim being Deficient.[115]

[114] If the Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim is represented by counsel, then such Holder's Non-NAS PI Claim Form may be signed by such Holder's attorney instead of by such Holder; provided that such Non-NAS PI Claim Form contains substantially the following attestation "I, [Name of Attorney], hereby swear under penalty of perjury that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge made after conducting due diligence, and that this Non-NAS PI Claim Form is being filed with the consent of my client, or the authority to file on my client's behalf under applicable law and/or with appropriate power of attorney." The Claims Administrator will be entitled to rely on this attestation. However, in the event the Claims Administrator reasonably suspects that the Holder's counsel does not have such consent under applicable law or power of attorney, or is otherwise misrepresenting such consent or authority, the Claims Administrator may request backup documentation. If such backup documentation does not resolve the Claims Administrator's concerns regarding the attestation, the Claims Administrator may require the Holder of the Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim to sign the Non-NAS PI Claim Form in order to avoid such Claim being Deficient, or take other appropriate measures to prevent fraud. In the event of a large inventory doing bulk uploads, the PI Trustee will establish procedures for bulk attestations.

[115] If a Non-NAS PI Claim Form is received after the PI TDP Claims Deadline, such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim will be a Deficient Claim absent a showing of extraordinary cause, to the satisfaction of and in the sole discretion of the Claims Administrator; provided, however, that in no event will such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim be Qualified or Substantiated if such Non-NAS PI Claim Form is received more than fifteen (15) days after the PI Claims Deadline. Groups of Non-NAS PI Claim Forms represented by the same attorney received after the PI Claims Deadline will not

Qualifying Opioid. In order to demonstrate usage of a Qualifying Opioid as listed in Exhibit C of the Non-NAS PI TDP, the following should be taken into account to the extent applicable:

(i) A Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim who provides evidence of a prescription for brand name OxyContin, MS Contin, Dilaudid, Hysingla ER, Butrans, DHC Plus, MSIR, OxyFast, OxyIR, Palladone, or Ryzolt may rely on the name alone without the necessity of a corresponding NDC number.

(ii) In order for a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim to be Substantiated based on the use of one of the generic products listed in Exhibit C of the Non-NAS PI TDP (e.g., oxycodone, morphine sulfate, hydromorphone), the Holder of such Claim must present evidence that includes either:

(a) The product's corresponding NDC number, which is set forth on Exhibit C of the Non-NAS PI TDP, demonstrating that the product was manufactured or sold by any of the Debtors;[116] or

(b) A notation in the record submitted by the Holder that the product was manufactured or sold by any of the Debtors.

(iii) The Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim, or the decedent of such Holder, if applicable, who used a generic oxycodone prescription that does not contain evidence of (ii)(a) or (b) above may only have a Substantiated Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim if the prescription utilized one of the following:

(a) Oxycodone CR (Controlled Release); or

(b) Oxycodone ER (Extended Release).

Holders of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims whose Claims are based on the use of opioids that are only manufactured by companies other than the Debtors will not be eligible or Qualified to receive a settlement payment from the PI Trust on account of such Claims.

The Non-NAS PI TDP outlines several ways that Holders of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims can demonstrate their eligibility, including through prescription or pharmacy records or references in contemporaneous medical records. For a complete description of qualifying Purdue products and evidentiary requirements, Holders of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims should carefully review the Non-NAS PI TDP, which is included in the Plan Supplement filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

be considered timely, and thus such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims will not be Qualified or Substantiated, because the Claims Administrator only has the discretion to consider one Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim at a time.

[116] Subject to addition of further NDC numbers.

The Claims Administrator has the discretion to request additional documentation believed to be in the possession of the Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim or its authorized agent or counsel. It also has the sole discretion to classify a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim as Deficient, or to reduce or eliminate the amount of Awards for Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims or Substantiated Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims, as applicable, if the Claims Administrator concludes there has been a pattern to circumvent full or truthful disclosure under the Non-NAS PI TDP.

Within thirty (30) days of the PI Claims Deadline, the Claims Administrator will send a notice of Deficiency to any Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim that submitted a Non-NAS PI Claim Form that is incomplete or deficient because the Holder failed to meet the requirements or provide proof of meeting the requirements, of § 3(b)-(e) of the Non-NAS PI TDP. If the Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim receives a notice of Deficiency, the Holder must cure the Deficiency by no later than thirty (30) days after the date on which such notice has been sent to the Holder in order for such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim to avoid being Deficient. If a Deficiency is timely cured to the satisfaction of the Claims Administrator, the Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim will not be Deficient, but such cure does not guarantee that such Claim will otherwise be Qualified.

Award Determination. Substantiated Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims or Substantiated Deficient Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims will be categorized in one of two Tiers:

(i) Tier 1: Use of a Qualifying Opioid equal to or greater than six (6) months[117] for a period prior to September 15, 2019 (16,000 points)

(ii) Tier 2: Use of a Qualifying Opioid less than six (6) months for a period prior to September 15, 2019 (8,000 points)

The point values above resulted from the work of counsel and other professionals advising the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, statistical sampling and modeling performed by financial analysts and subject matter experts for the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and other Holders of PI Channeled Claims, and collaborative discussions with stakeholders.

At this time, it is not possible to state with certainty how the assigned points will translate into dollars or, as a result, how much money any particular Holder of an Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim will receive from the PI Trust. Prior to determining the cash value of assigned points, the Claims Administrator must review the evidence submitted by Holders of PI Channeled Claims to determine how many Qualified or Substantiated PI Channeled Claims fall in each "Tier." Based on an initial sample, the amount of the dollar award per point is estimated to be between $0.70 and $1.20. The dollar amount ultimately awarded per point will be determined with reference to the funds available in the PI Trust and the number and nature of Allowed PI

[117] The six months is calculated based on the sum of all days noted in the supply portion of the prescription or otherwise described in the records. If a prescription or reference to a Qualifying Opioid does not reference a time period of supply, it will not be counted towards the six months to qualify for Tier 1. However, a single reference to a Qualifying Opioid that does not contain a time period of supply would qualify for Tier 2.

Channeled Claims. The estimated amount per point will be updated periodically on the PI Trust Website.

If a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim has not been resolved through the claims resolution process as described in the Plan, after the Effective Date the Holder of such Claim has a right to appeal the Claims Administrator's determination that either (i) such Claim is not Substantiated or is otherwise Deficient, and thus Allowed in the amount of $0, or (ii) such Claim is Substantiated but designated as Tier 2 because of a deficiency in providing proof demonstrating use of a Qualified Opioid equal to or greater than six (6) months for a period prior to September 15, 2019. Any such appeal will be referred to a special master appointed by the PI Trustee (the "Appeals Special Master"). Specifically, within twenty (20) days of receiving notice of the Claims Administrator's determination, a Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim choosing to appeal that determination must submit an appeal to the Claims Administrator setting forth the Holder's position and explaining the reason the Holder believes the determination is incorrect. An appeal fee of $500 will be assessed regardless of the outcome of the appeal, and failure to provide the appeal fee within ten (10) days of submission of the appeal will result in the appeal's dismissal. Decisions of the Appeals Special Master will be final and binding, and Holders of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims will have no further appeal rights as to any determinations made by the Claims Administrator beyond those set forth in the Non-NAS PI TDP. Decisions of the Appeals Special Master must be made within sixty (60) days of receipt of the notice of appeal.

Additional Claim Factors and Valuation

(i) To the extent practicable, only objective factors will be taken into account, based upon the maxim that, in the context of mass torts, consistency is fairness.

(ii) The point values for the two Tiers described above is based in part on scoring grids developed in comparable cases with unique customization according to the claims and injuries encountered and reviewed in sampling individual PI Claims.

(iii) With respect to Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims, because of limited funds, economic damages are not compensable. Awards issued pursuant to the Non-NAS PI TDP provide compensation only for general pain and suffering.

(iv) In no circumstance will the Claims Administrator assign any claim value for any punitive damages, exemplary damages, statutory enhanced damages, or attorneys' fees or costs (including statutory attorneys' fees and costs).

An Award for a Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim will be a gross number subject to the following deductions and holdbacks: (A) a pro rata share of the operating expenses of the PI Trust, (B) amounts held back under the Lien Resolution Program (the "LRP Agreement") to settle liens held by private insurance companies against that Award, if any, (C) [amounts prepaid to the United States under the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement to settle liens of federal healthcare programs like Medicare, Tricare, or VA against that Award, if any,] (D) a pro rata share of the compensation, costs and fees of professionals that represented or advised the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, subject to Section 5.9(g) of the Plan, (E) the common benefit assessment required under Section 5.9(c) of the Plan, and (F) the fees and costs of counsel to the Holder of the Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, if any.[118] In addition to these deductions and holdbacks, an Award may be subject to claims by certain state or tribal healthcare programs that are not part of the LRP Agreement, including Medicaid.

An Award for a Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim will be a gross number subject to the following deductions and holdbacks: (A) a pro rata share of the operating expenses of the PI Trust; (B) amounts held back under the LRP Agreement to settle liens held or private insurance companies against that Award, if any; (C) [amounts prepaid to the United States under the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement to settle liens of federal healthcare programs like Medicare, Tricare, or VA against that Award, if any;] and (D) a pro rata share of the compensation, costs, and fees of professionals that represented or advised the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, subject to Section 5.9(g) of the Plan.[119] For clarity, while the Award for a Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim is a gross number, the actual calculation of the Individual Deficient Claim Holdback Amount and the Individual Direct Claim Holdback Amount will be net of the above deductions and holdbacks. For example, if the Award for a Substantiated Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim would be $100 and the deduction and holdback amounts pursuant to clauses (A)-(D) of this paragraph is $30, the Individual Deficient Claim Holdback Amount would be $54.53 (77.9% of $70 net Award) and the Individual Direct Claim Holdback Amount would be $15.47 (22.1% of $70 net Award).

Finally, distributions to minors are to be held in trust until the minor becomes a legal adult (unless a competent court orders otherwise). For all these reasons, it may take years before the Holder of such Allowed Claim receives its entire Award.

The PI Trust will hold any amounts owed to a Holder of an Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim that is a minor in trust until such minor becomes a legal adult under applicable state law, unless otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Caps for Claims Adjudicated in Bankruptcy Court or the Tort System:

(a) Any Deficient Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims that are adjudicated and Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court as part of the claims resolution process will be channeled to the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserve for payment pursuant to the Non-NAS PI TDP and the Plan. Each such Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims will be entitled to receive [118] If a Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim is represented by counsel, then such counsel, rather than the PI Trust, will be responsible for deducting its fees and expenses from the Holder's Award.

[119] While the common benefit assessment required under Section 5.9(c) of the Plan and the fees and costs of counsel to the Holder of a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, if any, are used to calculate the deduction and holdback amounts for Non-NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims, they are not used to calculate deduction and holdback amounts for Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims in the first instance. However, if a Non-NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim becomes Allowed, that Claim would be subject, at that time and from its recovery, to the common benefit assessment required under Section 5.9(c) of the Plan and the fees and costs of counsel to the Holder of the Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, if any.

from the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserve its respective Award consistent with § 6 of the Non-NAS PI TDP; provided, however, that if such Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim does not meet all the requirements of the Non-NAS PI TDP, then such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim will only be entitled to receive the lesser of (i) the Allowed liquidated amount fixed by the Bankruptcy Court and (ii) the lower recovery amount for Allowed Awards therein. Such amounts (if any) will be paid from the Class 10(b) Released Claims Reserve, and in no event will the PI Trust be responsible for paying Holders of such Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims out of the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund.

(b) If a Holder of a Deficient Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim satisfies § 3(a)-(c) of the Non-NAS PI TDP elects to have such Claim against the Debtors liquidated in a court other than the Bankruptcy Court in response to an objection to such Claim, and successfully obtains a final judgment against any of the Debtors in such other court, such Claim will be channeled to the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserve for payment pursuant to the Non-NAS PI TDP and the Plan. A Holder of such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim will only be entitled to receive from the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserve the lesser of (i) the liquidated amount of the final judgment so ordered by such court and (ii) three (3) times (x) what such Holder would have received under § 6 of the Non-NAS PI TDP, or (y) if such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim does not meet all of the requirements of the Non-NAS PI TDP, the lower recovery amount for Allowed Awards therein. Such amounts (if any) will be paid from the Class 10(b) Claims Reserve, and in no event will the PI Trust be responsible for paying Holders of such Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims out of the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund. In no event will a Person who did not satisfy § 3(a) and (c) of the Non-NAS PI TDP receive any distribution under the Non-NAS PI TDP, regardless of whether such Person obtained a judgment in a court other than the Bankruptcy Court.

Procedures Under the NAS PI TDP:

The NAS PI TDP sets forth what forms and qualifying evidence each Holder of an NAS PI Channeled Claim must submit in order to be eligible to receive an Award. NAS PI Claim Forms may be completed online, and evidence in support of an NAS PI Channeled Claim can be uploaded online via the PI Trust Website, www.purduepitrust.com. Completed NAS PI Claim Forms as well as evidence in support of an NAS PI Channeled Claim may also be submitted to the PI Trust by sending such forms and evidence by (i) e-mail to purduepitrust@purduepitrust.com, (ii) mail to Purdue PI Trust, P.O. Box 361930, Hoover, Alabama 35236-1930, or (iii) facsimile to 205-716-2364. Law firm claim batches should be submitted via the Bulk Data and Document Submittal process outlined on the law firm tab of the PI Trust Website.

Classification of NAS PI Channeled Claims as Qualified, Substantiated, or Deficient. For an NAS PI Channeled Claim that is being liquidated pursuant to the streamlined procedures set forth in the NAS PI TDP to be Qualified or Substantiated, as applicable, the Holder of such NAS PI Channeled Claim must:

(i) Hold such NAS PI Channeled Claim against one or more Debtors;

(ii) Demonstrate by Competent Evidence a diagnosis by a licensed medical provider of a medical, physical, cognitive or emotional condition resulting from the NAS Child's intrauterine exposure to opioids or opioid replacement or treatment medication, including but not limited to the condition known as neonatal abstinence syndrome or NAS. The diagnosis can be made by any licensed medical professional, specifically including physicians, nurses, physician assistants, mental health counselors or therapists, or professionals at a rehabilitation center. Only NAS PI Claims based on injuries or facts occurring prior to the filing of a NAS PI Claim Form are eligible for recovery. However, if the Holder of an NAS PI Channeled Claim provided the required documentation in connection with the chapter 11 bankruptcy case of Mallinckrodt plc, Case No. 20-12522 (Bankr. D. Del.) or the chapter 11 bankruptcy case of Endo International plc, Case No. 22-22549 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), or with their Proof of Claim that was filed in the Chapter 11 Cases, such Holder does not need to resubmit the required documentation referenced in this paragraph, but must provide the PI Trustee with a statement (or a list if filing in bulk by a law firm) confirming the previously filed Claim(s) for the PI Trustee to vet and verify;

(iii) Have already timely[120] filed an individual personal injury Proof of Claim against one or more Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases asserting his/her NAS PI Channeled Claim against one or more Debtors;

(iv) Complete, sign and submit the NAS PI Claim Form attached to the NAS PI TDP as Exhibit A so that it is received on or before the PI Claims Deadline (which is sixty (60) days after notice of the PI Claims Deadline is distributed to Holders of PI Channeled Claims as set out in the Order (I) Appointing PI and TPP Claims Administrators; (II) Authorizing the Establishment of Claims Deadlines and Claims Objection Procedures; and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 7382], a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court establishing the PI TDP Claims Deadline and approving the form of notice informing Holders of PI Channeled Claims of same);

(v) Complete, sign and submit the applicable HIPAA consent form attached as Exhibit B to the NAS PI TDP unless provided to the Claims Administrator in connection with the Mallinckrodt plc (Case No. 20-12522) (Bankr. Del.) bankruptcy, or the Endo International plc (Case No. 22-22549) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) bankruptcy; and

(vi) If the NAS PI Channeled Claim concerns the injuries of a decedent of the Holder of such Claim, then complete, sign, and submit the Heirship Declaration attached as Exhibit C to the NAS PI TDP or provide valid Estate Documents authorizing the Holder of the Claim to act on behalf of the decedent's estate unless provided to the Claims Administrator in connection with the Mallinckrodt plc (Case No. 20-12522) (Bankr. Del.) bankruptcy, or the Endo International plc (Case No. 22-22549) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) bankruptcy.

If a Holder of an NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim satisfies these requirements, then such NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim will be Qualified and Substantiated. If a Holder of an NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim or NAS Partially Channeled Claim does not satisfy these requirements, then such Claim will be Deficient. If the Holder of an NAS Partially Channeled Claim satisfies these requirements, then such Claim will be a Deficient Claim that is also Substantiated (a "Substantiated Deficient Claim").

Each Holder of an NAS PI Channeled Claim must complete, sign, and submit an NAS PI Claim Form so that it is received on or before the PI Claims Deadline, . Failure to do so will result in such NAS PI Channeled Claim being Deficient.[121]

Competent Evidence. To receive recovery on his/her NAS PI Channeled Claim, the Holder of such Claim must submit one of the following forms of "Competent Evidence":

(i) A document from a licensed medical provider diagnosing the NAS Child with a medical, physical, cognitive or emotional condition resulting from the NAS Child's intrauterine exposure to opioids or opioid replacement or treatment medication, including but not limited to the condition known as NAS;

(ii) A document from a licensed medical provider affirming that the NAS Child had Neonatal Opioid Withdrawal Syndrome ("NOWS"); or

(iii) Other medical records evidencing that the NAS Child had an NAS diagnosis, including post-natal treatment for symptoms caused by opioid exposure, symptoms of post-natal withdrawal from opioids, medical scoring for NAS or NOWS that is positive or indicates fetal opioid exposure, a positive toxicology screen of the birth mother or infant for opioids or opioid-weaning drugs, or a maternal diagnosis of opioid use disorder by the birth mother.

The Claims Administrator has the sole discretion to determine whether these evidentiary requirements have been met, including whether the forms of evidence submitted constitute [121] If an NAS PI Claim Form is received after the PI Claims Deadline, such NAS PI Channeled Claim will be a Deficient Claim absent a showing, to the satisfaction of and in the sole discretion of the Claims Administrator, of extraordinary cause, provided, however, that in no event will such NAS PI Channeled Claim be Qualified or Substantiated if such NAS PI Claim Form is received more than fifteen (15) days after the PI TDP Claims Deadline. Groups of NAS PI Claim Forms represented by the same lawyer received after the PI Claims Deadline will not be considered timely, and thus such NAS PI Channeled Claims will not be Qualified or Substantiated, because the Claims Administrator only has the discretion to consider one NAS PI Channeled Claim at a time.

Competent Evidence.[122] In addition, the Claims Administrator has the sole discretion to classify an NAS PI Channeled Claim as Deficient, or to reduce or eliminate the amount of Awards for Qualified NAS PI Channeled Claims or Substantiated NAS PI Channeled Claims, as applicable, if the Claims Administrator concludes there has been a pattern to circumvent full or truthful disclosure under the NAS PI TDP.

Within thirty (30) days of the NAS PI Claims Deadline, the Claims Administrator will send a notice of Deficiency to any Holders of NAS PI Channeled Claims who submitted a NAS PI Claim Form that is incomplete or deficient because the NAS PI Claim, failed to meet the requirements, or provide proof of the requirements, for § 3(b) through (f) of the NAS PI TDP, as applicable (an "NAS Deficiency"). If a Holder of an NAS PI Channeled Claim receives notice of an NAS Deficiency, such Holder must cure the NAS Deficiency no later than thirty (30) days after such notice has been sent to such Holder in order to avoid such Claim being Deficient. Failure to do so will result in such NAS PI Channeled Claim being deemed Deficient. If an NAS Deficiency is timely cured to the satisfaction of the Claims Administrator, such Claim will not be deemed Deficient on the basis of such NAS Deficiency, but does not guarantee such Claim will otherwise be Qualified.

Payment. The money available in the PI Trust NAS Fund for distribution to Substantiated NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims or Substantiated Disputed NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims will be allocated equally among the Substantiated NAS PI Fully Channeled Claims and Substantiated Disputed NAS PI Partially Channeled Claims and allocated as equal gross Awards to the Holders of such Claims.

Awards issued pursuant to the NAS PI TDP provide compensation only for general pain and suffering on account of a NAS Child's injuries. Because of limited funds, economic damages and punitive damages are not compensable. Only injuries occurring before the filing of a NAS PI Claim Form are compensable.

An Award for an NAS PI Fully Channeled Claim liquidated under the NAS PI TDP will be a gross number subject to the Fully Channeled PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks, which are as follows: (A) a pro rata share of the operating expenses of the PI Trust; (B) amounts held back under the LRP Agreement to settle liens held by private insurance companies against that Award, if any; (C) [amounts prepaid to the United States under the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement to settle liens of certain federal healthcare programs like Medicare, Tricare, and VA against such Award, if any]; (D) a pro rata share of the compensation, costs and fees of professionals that represented or advised the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, subject to Section 5.9(f) of the Plan; (E) the fees and costs of the attorney(s) of the Holder of the NAS PI Channeled Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, if any, reduced by the common benefit assessment in accordance with Section

[122] Competent Evidence necessary for Allowance of an NAS PI Claim is evidence, in the opinion of the Trustee, that establishes that the occurrence of a diagnosis of NAS with respect to an NAS PI Claimant is more likely true than not true, i.e., a probability standard. Competent Evidence requires more than a mere possibility or scintilla of truth, but such standard does not require proof that rises to the level of clear and convincing evidence. However, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the NAS PI TDP, proof of a prescription of an opioid product will not be required.

5.9(c) of the Plan.[123] In addition to the deductions and holdbacks described above, an Award may be subject to claims by certain state or tribal healthcare programs that are not part of the LRP Agreement, including Medicaid.

An Award for an NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim will be a gross number subject to the Partially Channeled PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks, which are as follows: (A) a pro rata share of the operating expenses of the PI Trust; (B) amounts held back under the LRP Agreement to settle liens held by private insurance companies against that Award, if any; [(C) amounts prepaid to the United States under the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement to settle liens of the federal healthcare programs like Medicare, Tricare, or VA against that Award, if any;] and (D) a pro rata share of the compensation, costs, and fees of professionals that represented or advised the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, subject to Section 5.9(g) of the Plan. For clarity, while the Award for an NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim is a gross number, the actual calculation of the Individual Disputed Claim Holdback Amount and the Individual Direct Claim Holdback Amount will be net of the above deductions. For example, if the Award for a Substantiated NAS PI Partially Channeled Claim would be $100 and the deductions and holdback amounts pursuant to clauses (A)-(D) of this paragraph is $30, the Individual Deficient Claim Holdback Amount would be $54.32 (77.6% of $70 net Award) and the Individual Direct Claim Holdback Amount would be $15.68 (22.4% of $70 net Award).

Finally, distributions to minors are to be held in trust until the minor becomes a legal adult (unless a competent court orders otherwise). For these reasons, it may take years before the Holder of an Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claim receives its entire Award.

The PI Trust will hold any amounts owed to a Holder of an Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claim who is a minor in trust until such minor becomes a legal adult under applicable state law, unless otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Caps for Claims Adjudicated in Bankruptcy Court or the Tort System

(a) Any Deficient NAS PI Channeled Claims that are adjudicated and Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court as part of the claims resolution process will be channeled to the Class 10(a) Non-Participating Claims Reserve for payment pursuant to the NAS PI TDP and the Plan. Each such NAS PI Channeled Claim will be entitled to receive from the Class 10(a) Non-Participating Claims Reserve its respective Award consistent with § 5 of the Non-NAS PI TDP; provided, however, that if such Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claim does not meet all of the requirements of the NAS PI TDP, then such NAS PI Channeled Claim will only be entitled to receive the lesser of (i) the Allowed liquidated amount fixed by the Bankruptcy Court and (ii) the lowest recovery of Allowed Awards therein. Such amounts (if any) will be paid from the Class 10(a) Release Claims Reserve, and in no event will the PI Trust be responsible for paying Holders of such Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims out of the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund.

[123] If the Holder of an NAS PI Channeled Claim is represented by an attorney, then such attorney, rather than the PI Trust, will be responsible for deducting its fees and expenses from such Holder's Award.

(b) If a Holder of a Deficient NAS PI Channeled Claim satisfies §3(a)-(c) of the NAS PI TDP, elects to have such Claim against the Debtors liquidated in a court other than the Bankruptcy Court in response to an objection to such Claim, and successfully obtains a final judgment against any of the Debtors in such other court, such Claim will be channeled to the Class 10(a) Non-Participating Claims Reserve for payment pursuant to the NAS PI TDP and the Plan. A Holder of such NAS PI Channeled Claim will only be entitled to receive from the Class 10(a) Non-Participating Claims Reserve the lesser of (i) the liquidated amount of the final judgment so ordered by such court and (ii) three (3) times (x) what such Holder would have received under § 5 of the NAS PI TDP, or (y) if such NAS PI Channeled Claim does not meet all of the requirements of the NAS PI TDP, the lowest recovery amount for Allowed Awards therein. Such amounts (if any) will be paid from the Class 10(a) Claims Reserve, and in no event will the PI Trust be responsible for paying Holders of such NAS PI Channeled Claims out of the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund. In no event shall a Person who did not satisfy §3(a) and (b) of the NAS PI TDP receive any distribution under the NAS PI TDP, regardless of whether such Person obtained a judgment in a court other than the Bankruptcy Court.

The PI Trust and the PI Trust Agreement

The expenses of the PI Trust will be governed by the PI Trust Agreement. The PI Trust Agreement provides that the PI Trustee will have the power to pay liabilities and expenses of the PI Trust (including indemnification obligations) and establish the Creditor Trust Operating Reserve for the PI Trust and such other funds, reserves, and accounts within the PI Trust estate as deemed by the PI Trustee necessary to facilitate carrying out the purposes of the PI Trust. The PI Trust Agreement provides that the amount of the PI Trust Assets available to make settlement payments to Holders of Allowed PI Channeled Claims will be subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks, which include the fees and expenses of PI Trust professionals and employees, including those professionals needed to administer the PI TDP and the LRP Agreement, and outside legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, expert, and other consultants, advisors, and agents. These deductions will also include amounts for the compensation, costs and fees of professionals that have represented and/or are representing (A) the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, and (B) the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 cases, subject to certain limitations. To the extent such compensation, costs, fees and expenses were incurred prior to the Effective Date and were not paid by the PI Trust, the PI Trustee is authorized to pay or reimburse such fees and expenses from the PI Trust Assets as Trust Expenses. Fees and expenses of the Appeals Special Master will be borne respectively by any Holder of a PI Channeled Claim who appeals the Tier Award ruling of the Claims Administrator regarding such Holder's respective PI Channeled Claim, and such fees and expenses will be deducted from any Holder's respective payment from the PI Trust. Additionally, Holders of PI Channeled Claims who incurred individual legal fees and expenses (including fees and expenses pursuant to retainer agreements) will have such individual legal fees and expenses deducted from their respective payments from the PI Trust.

Edgar C. Gentle III will serve as the PI Trustee.[124] In the event of a vacancy in the PI Trustee position, whether by term expiration, death, retirement, resignation, or removal, or because the PI Trustee is otherwise unable to perform his functions as trustee, the PI Trust Oversight Committee will choose a successor PI Trustee. In the event that the PI Trust Oversight Committee cannot agree on a successor trustee, the PI Trust Oversight Committee will ask the Bankruptcy Court to select the successor trustee.

The PI Trust Agreement provides that the PI Trust Oversight Committee will consist of three (3) members. Two members of the PI Trust Oversight Committee will be named by the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims. These two members will select the third member of the PI Trust Oversight Committee. The members of the PI Trust Oversight Committee will be compensated as provided in the Budget (as defined in the PI Trust Agreement). A description of the amounts paid to the PI Trust Oversight Committee members will be included in the annual report to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

For all time expended as the PI Trustee, including attending meetings, preparing for such meetings, and working on authorized special projects, the PI Trustee will receive the sum of $350 per hour.

The PI Trust Agreement will provide that the PI Trustee will have the power to appoint such officers and hire such employees and engage such legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, and other consultants, advisors, and agents as the business of the PI Trust requires, and delegate to such persons such powers and authorities as the fiduciary duties of the PI Trustee permit and as the PI Trustee, in his discretion, deems advisable or necessary in order to carry out the terms of the PI Trust Agreement, the PI TDP, and the LRP Agreement, and pay reasonable compensation to those employees, legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, and other consultants, advisors, and agents.

The PI Trust Agreement will provide that the PI Trustee will retain a Claims Administrator, which may be the same individual as the PI Trustee. The PI Trust has chosen Edgar C. Gentle III to be the Claims Administrator.

The PI Trust Agreement will provide that neither the PI Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee (as defined in the PI Trust Agreement) will be required to post any bond or other form of surety or security unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

(8) Ratepayers' Fees and Costs

Several Ratepayers filed Proofs of Claim against the Debtors under the theory that the opioid crisis caused increased healthcare costs that were, in turn, passed along to them by their insurance providers in the form of increased health insurance premiums, deductibles, and co-payments. Putative Ratepayer class action lawsuits were filed against the Debtors before the petition date, alleging, without limitation, (i) violations of RICO and state law equivalents, (ii) nuisance, (iii) negligence, (iv) common law fraud, and (v) violations of state consumer protection statutes. Pursuant to the Plan, in the event that the Ratepayer Mediation Participants Stipulation has been entered into on or prior to the Effective Date, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the attorneys' fees of the Ratepayer Mediation Participants shall be paid from Effective Date Cash in an amount not to exceed $1.4 million.

[124] In the event Mr. Gentle becomes unavailable to serve as the PI Trustee, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims will, subject to the Debtors' consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld) select a different person to serve as the PI Trustee in accordance with the Plan.

4. Sale of Avrio Health L.P.

In the summer of 2022, the Debtors made the decision to explore strategic alternatives with respect to the Debtors' consumer health business, which was conducted by Avrio Health L.P. The Debtors determined that a sale of substantially all of Avrio's assets would maximize the value of these significant non-core, non-opioid assets and make additional cash available in the Debtors' estates for distribution under a plan of reorganization. Following an extensive marketing and negotiation process, on April 4, 2023, Debtor Avrio, Atlantis Consumer Healthcare Inc. ("Atlantis"), and Arcadia Consumer Healthcare, Inc., as guarantor of Atlantis's obligations, executed an asset purchase agreement (the "Avrio APA") in contemplation of a sale of substantially all of Avrio's assets to Atlantis. On May 30, 2023, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Approving Sale of Debtors' Avrio Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Interests and Encumbrances, (II) Authorizing Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and (III) Granting Related Relief [D.I. 5644]. The sale of Avrio's assets closed on June 1, 2023.

ARTICLE IV

SUMMARY OF THE PLAN

The Debtors believe that the Plan provides the best and most prompt possible recovery to holders of Claims. The Debtors believe that (a) through the Plan, holders of Allowed Claims will obtain a recovery from the Debtors' estates equal to or greater than the recovery that they would receive if the Debtors' assets were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) consummation of the Plan will maximize the recovery of the holders of Allowed Claims.

The consummation of a plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. A plan sets forth the means for satisfying Claims against, and interests in, a debtor. Confirmation of a plan makes the plan binding upon the debtor and any creditor of, or equity holder in, the debtor, whether or not such creditor or equity holder (a) is impaired under or has accepted the plan or (b) receives or retains any property under the plan. Subject to certain limited exceptions and other than as provided in the plan itself or the confirmation order, a confirmation order discharges the debtor from any debt that arose prior to the effective date of the plan and substitutes therefor the obligations specified under the confirmed plan.

A chapter 11 plan may specify that the legal, contractual, and equitable rights of the holders of Claims or Interests in certain classes are to remain unaltered by the reorganization effectuated by the plan. Such classes are referred to as "unimpaired" and, because of such favorable treatment, are deemed to accept the plan. Accordingly, a debtor need not solicit votes from the holders of Claims or Interests in such classes. A chapter 11 plan may also specify that certain classes will not receive any distribution of property or retain any Claim against a debtor. Such classes are deemed not to accept the plan and, therefore, need not be solicited to vote to accept or reject the plan. Any classes that are receiving a distribution of property under the plan but are not unimpaired will be solicited to vote to accept or reject the plan.

Prior to soliciting acceptances of the proposed plan, section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor to prepare a disclosure statement containing adequate information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding the plan. To satisfy the requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are submitting this Disclosure Statement to holders of Claims against the Debtors who are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

THE REMAINDER OF THIS SECTION PROVIDES A SUMMARY OF THE STRUCTURE AND MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN AND THE CLASSIFICATION AND TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS UNDER THE PLAN. THIS SECTION IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY AND IS SUBJECT TO THE PLAN AS WELL AS THE EXHIBITS THERETO AND DEFINITIONS THEREIN.

THE STATEMENTS CONTAINED IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT INCLUDE SUMMARIES OF THE PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE PLAN AND IN DOCUMENTS REFERRED TO THEREIN. THE STATEMENTS CONTAINED IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT DO NOT PURPORT TO BE PRECISE OR COMPLETE STATEMENTS OF ALL THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS OF THE PLAN OR DOCUMENTS REFERRED TO THEREIN. REFERENCE IS MADE TO THE PLAN AND TO SUCH DOCUMENTS FOR THE FULL AND COMPLETE STATEMENTS OF SUCH TERMS AND PROVISIONS OF THE PLAN OR DOCUMENTS REFERRED TO THEREIN.

THE PLAN ITSELF AND THE DOCUMENTS REFERRED TO THEREIN CONTROL THE ACTUAL TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AGAINST AND INTERESTS IN THE DEBTORS UNDER THE PLAN. UPON OCCURRENCE OF THE EFFECTIVE DATE, THE PLAN AND ALL SUCH DOCUMENTS WILL BE BINDING UPON ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS AGAINST AND INTERESTS IN THE DEBTORS AND THEIR ESTATES AND ALL OTHER PARTIES IN INTEREST. IN THE EVENT OF ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, ON THE ONE HAND, AND THE PLAN OR ANY OTHER OPERATIVE DOCUMENT, ON THE OTHER HAND, THE TERMS OF THE PLAN AND SUCH OTHER OPERATIVE DOCUMENT SHALL CONTROL.

STATEMENTS AS TO THE RATIONALE UNDERLYING THE TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS UNDER THE PLAN ARE NOT INTENDED TO, AND SHALL NOT, WAIVE, COMPROMISE, OR LIMIT ANY RIGHTS, CLAIMS, OR CAUSES OF ACTION IN THE EVENT THE PLAN IS NOT CONFIRMED.

The Debtors will file with the Court before the Voting Deadline (as defined in the Solicitation Procedures Order) the supplement or supplements to the Plan (the "Plan Supplement") containing certain documents relevant to the implementation of the Plan, which shall include the MDT Documents, the NewCo Transfer Agreement, the NewCo Operating Agreement, the Foundation Bylaws, the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents, the PAT Agreement, the PI Trust Documents (including the LRP Agreement), the Hospital Trust Documents, the ERP Trust Documents, the TPP Trust Documents, Public School Trust Documents, the Tribe Trust

Documents, the identity of the MDT Trustees, the identity of the MDT Advisory Council Representatives, the identity of the NewCo Managers, the identity of the Foundation Trustees, the identity of the Plan Administration Trustee and PPLP Liquidator, the identity of the Creditor Trustees, identity of the Governmental Remediation Trust Trustees, the Schedule of Rejected Contracts, the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, the Schedule of Excluded Parties, each Shareholder Settlement Agreement [(and any amendments or modifications thereto)], and the Restructuring Steps Memorandum. Notice of filing of the Plan Supplement will be served in accordance with the Solicitation Procedures Order. Once filed, the Plan Supplement (and, at any time, the Disclosure Statement, including the Plan and the other exhibits thereto, Disclosure Statement Order, and all other materials in the Solicitation Package, except Ballots) may be obtained at no charge from the Solicitation Agent by (a) calling the Debtors' restructuring hotline at (844) 217-0912 (toll-free) or (347) 859-8093 (international); (b) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at https://restructuring.ra.kroll.com/purduepharma; (c) writing to Purdue Pharma Ballot Processing, c/o Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC, 50 Third Avenue, Suite 412, Brooklyn, NY 11232; and or (d) emailing purduepharmaballots@kroll.com. You may also obtain copies of any pleadings filed in these Chapter 11 Cases for a fee via PACER at http://www.nysb.uscourts.gov.

A. Administrative Expense Claims, Professional Fee Claims, Priority Tax Claims and DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim

1. Administrative Claims

(i) Generally. Except as provided for in the Plan or in any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and subject to section 503(b)(1)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code, Holders of Administrative Claims (other than Professional Fee Claims and the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim) must file and serve on the Debtors requests for the payment of such Administrative Claims not already Allowed by a Final Order. Any Holder of an Administrative Claim that is required to, but does not, file and serve a request for payment of such Administrative Claim pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting such Claims against the Debtors, the Liquidating Debtors, the Transferred Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust or their respective Assets or properties, and such Claims shall be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. An Administrative Claim, with respect to which a request for payment has been properly and timely filed pursuant to Section 2.1(a) of the Plan, shall become an Allowed Administrative Claim if no objection to such request is filed by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trustee with the Bankruptcy Court on or before the date that is one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Date, or such later date as may be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court. If an objection is timely filed, such Administrative Claim shall become an Allowed Administrative Claim only to the extent Allowed by Final Order or such Claim is settled, compromised or otherwise resolved pursuant to Section 7.6 of the Plan. Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Administrative Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, each Holder of an Allowed Administrative Claim (other than a Professional Fee Claim or the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim) shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, Cash in an amount equal to the Allowed amount of such Claim from the Priority Claims Reserve within thirty (30) days following the later to occur of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date on which such Administrative Claim shall become an Allowed Claim; provided that any Administrative Claim that is an Assumed Liability shall be paid by NewCo in the ordinary course of business.

(ii) Professional Fee Claims. All Professional Persons seeking awards by the Bankruptcy Court for compensation for services rendered or reimbursement of expenses incurred through and including the Effective Date under (x) section 327, 328, 330, 331, 503(b)(2), 503(b)(3), 503(b)(4), 503(b)(5) or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, (y) with respect to the Ad Hoc Committee, the AHC Reimbursement Agreement Assumption Order, or (z) with respect to the MSGE Group, the MSGE Group Reimbursement Order, shall (i) file, on or before the date that is forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, their respective applications for final allowances of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred and (ii) be paid in full in Cash, (A) first, from any existing amounts held by a Professional Person as a fee advance, retainer, or security that such Professional Person is authorized to use to satisfy Allowed Professional Fee Claims pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order or the order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the retention of such Professional Person (other than a reasonable retainer to cover post-Effective Date work), and (B) second, from the Professional Fee Escrow Account, in such aggregate amounts as are Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court or authorized to be paid in accordance with the order(s) relating to or allowing any such Professional Fee Claim. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish the Professional Fee Escrow Account and, on the Effective Date, fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account with Cash such that the total amount held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account is equal to the sum of each Professional Person's good-faith estimates of its Professional Fee Claims. The procedures for filing objections to Professional Persons' applications for final allowance of compensation for services rendered and expenses incurred shall be set forth in the Confirmation Order.

2. Priority Tax Claims

Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim, either Cash in an amount equal to the Allowed amount of such Claim from the Priority Claims Reserve or such other treatment as may satisfy section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim

(i) Allowance. Pursuant to the Plea Agreement and the DOJ 9019 Order, the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim shall be Allowed in the amount of $2.0 billion on the later of (i) the DOJ Conviction Judgment Date and (ii) the entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Confirmation Order.

(ii) Treatment. In full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim, the Debtors shall make the DOJ Forfeiture Payment within three (3) Business Days following the DOJ Conviction Judgment Date, which DOJ Forfeiture Payment, in combination with the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Credit, shall satisfy and discharge the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim in full.

B. Classification of Claims and Interests

1. Classification in General

A Claim or Interest is placed in a particular Class for all purposes, including voting, confirmation and Distributions under the Plan and under sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. A Claim or Interest is classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving Distributions pursuant to the Plan only to the extent such Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of that Class and is classified in other Classes to the extent any portion of the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of such other Classes; provided that, to the extent any Claim satisfies the definition of a Shareholder Claim, a Co-Defendant Claim or an Other Subordinated Claim, such Claim shall be classified as such, notwithstanding that such Claim may satisfy the definition of another type of Claim. A Claim or Interest is also classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving Distributions hereunder only to the extent such Claim or Interest is an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in that Class and such Claim or Interest has not been satisfied, released or otherwise settled prior to the Effective Date. In no event shall any Holder of an Allowed Claim be entitled to receive payments under the Plan that, in the aggregate, exceed the Allowed amount of such Holder's Claim.

2. Summary of Classification of Claims and Interests

The following table designates the Classes of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and specifies which Classes are (a) Impaired or Unimpaired under the Plan, (b) entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code or presumed to accept or deemed to reject the Plan:

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Impairment	Entitled to Vote
Class 1	Secured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)

Class 3	Federal Government Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 4	Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 5	Tribe Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 6	Public School Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 7	Hospital Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 8	Third-Party Payor Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 9	ER Physician Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 10(a)	NAS PI Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 10(b)	Non-NAS PI Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 11(a)	Avrio General Unsecured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 11(b)	Adlon General Unsecured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 11(c)	Other General Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 12	Intercompany Claims	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)
Class 13	Shareholder Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 14	Co-Defendant Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 15	Other Subordinated Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 16	PPLP Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 17	PPI Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 18	Intercompany Interests	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)

3. Voting Classes; Presumed Acceptance by Non-Voting Classes

With respect to each Debtor, if a Class contains Claims eligible to vote and no Holder of Claims eligible to vote in such Class votes to accept or reject the Plan by the Voting Deadline, the Plan shall be presumed accepted by the Holders of Claims in such Class.

4. Voting; Presumptions; Solicitation

(i) Acceptance by Certain Impaired Classes. Only Holders of Claims in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) and 11(c) are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. An Impaired Class of Claims shall have accepted the Plan if (i) the Holders, including Holders acting through a Voting Representative, of at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of Claims actually voting in such Class have voted to accept the Plan and (ii) the Holders, including Holders acting through a Voting Representative, of more than one-half (1/2) in number of Claims actually voting in such Class have voted to accept the Plan. Holders of Claims in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) and 11(c) (or, if applicable, the Voting Representatives of such Holders) shall receive ballots containing detailed voting instructions. For the avoidance of doubt, pursuant to and except as otherwise provided in the Solicitation Procedures Order, each Claim in Classes 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a) and 10(b) shall be accorded one (1) vote and valued at one dollar ($1.00) for voting purposes only, and not for purposes of Allowance or distribution, such that each of Classes 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a) and 10(b) shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan if the Holders, including Holders acting through a Voting Representative, of at least two-third (2/3) in number of Claims actually voting in such Class have voted to accept the Plan.

(ii) Deemed Acceptance by Unimpaired Classes. Holders of Claims in Classes 1, 2, 11(a) and 11(b) are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(iii) Deemed Rejection by Certain Impaired Classes. Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(iv) Deemed Acceptance or Rejection by Certain Classes. Holders of Interests in Classes 12 and 18 are either conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or are deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(v) Individual Creditor Voting Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the voting rights of Holders of Claims in any Class shall be governed in all respects by the Solicitation Procedures Order, including without limitation with respect to the amount of such Claims for voting purposes.

5. Cramdown

If any Class of Claims is deemed to reject the Plan or is entitled to vote on the Plan and does not vote to accept the Plan, the Debtors may (a) seek confirmation of the Plan under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and/or (b) amend or modify the Plan in accordance with the terms hereof and the Bankruptcy Code. If a controversy arises as to whether any Claim or Interest, or any Class of Claims or Interests, is Impaired, the Bankruptcy Court shall, after notice and a hearing, determine such controversy on or before the Confirmation Date.

6. No Waiver

Nothing contained in the Plan shall be construed to waive a Debtor's or other Person's right to object on any basis to any Claim.

C. Treatment of Claims and Interests

1. Secured Claims (Class 1)

(i) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Secured Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Secured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, (i) payment in full in Cash from the Priority Claims Reserve in accordance with section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) Reinstatement of such Allowed Claim pursuant to section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) such other treatment as may be necessary to render such Claim Unimpaired.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Secured Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Secured Claims are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Secured Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Secured Claims.

2. Other Priority Claims (Class 2)

(i) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, (i) payment in full in Cash from the Priority Claims Reserve or (ii) such other treatment consistent with the provisions of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Other Priority Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Other Priority Claims are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Other Priority Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Other Priority Claims.

3. Federal Government Unsecured Claims (Class 3)

(i) Allowance of the DOJ Civil Claim and DOJ Criminal Fine Claim: Pursuant to the DOJ 9019 Order, the DOJ Civil Claim is Allowed in the amount of $2.8 billion. The DOJ Criminal Fine Claim shall be Allowed in the amount of $3.544 billion on the later of (i) the DOJ Conviction Judgment Date and (ii) the entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Confirmation Order.

(ii) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Allowed Federal Government Unsecured Claims, the United States shall receive (i) the Initial Federal Government Distribution and (ii) the MDT Federal Government Claim. The MDT Federal Government Claim shall be payable by the Master Disbursement Trust in the following installments: (x) $10 million on the second Scheduled MDT Distribution Date, (y) $10 million on the third Scheduled MDT Distribution Date and (z) $5 million on the fourth Scheduled MDT Distribution Date. The Initial Federal Government Distribution and the amounts paid to the United States on account of the MDT Federal Government Claim shall be deemed applied 60% to the DOJ Unsecured Claims and 40% to the Other Federal Agency Claims.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: The Federal Government Unsecured Claims are Impaired. Holders of Federal Government Unsecured Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4. Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims (Class 4)

(i) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, the Governmental Remediation Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Governmental Remediation Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Governmental Remediation Trust Interest and (iii) the right to receive 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Governmental Remediation Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Governmental Remediation Trust. Each Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Governmental Remediation Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Governmental Remediation Trust as and to the extent provided in the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims exclusively against the Governmental Remediation Trust.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims are Impaired. Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

5. Tribe Claims (Class 5)

(i) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Tribe Claims, the Tribe Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Tribe Interest and (iii) the right to receive 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Tribe Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Tribe Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Tribe Trust. Each Tribe Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Tribe Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Tribe TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Tribe Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Tribe Trust as and to the extent provided in the Tribe TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of Tribe Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Tribe Channeled Claims exclusively against the Tribe Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Tribe TDP.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: Tribe Claims are Impaired. Holders of Tribe Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Hospital Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Hospital Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Hospital Trust. Each Hospital Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Hospital Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Hospital TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Hospital Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Hospital Trust as and to the extent provided in the Hospital TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of Hospital Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Hospital Channeled Claims exclusively against the Hospital Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Hospital TDP.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: Hospital Claims are Impaired. Holders of Hospital Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

8. Third-Party Payor Claims (Class 8)

(i) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Third-Party Payor Claims, the TPP Trust shall receive (i) the Initial TPP Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT TPP Claim. For the avoidance of doubt, any payments from the TPP LRP Escrow Account to which LRP Participating TPPs may be entitled under the LRP Agreement shall not be subject to Section 4.8 of the Plan.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the TPP Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the TPP Trust. Each Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the TPP Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the TPP TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the TPP Trust as and to the extent provided in the TPP TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims exclusively against the TPP Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the TPP TDP.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: Third-Party Payor Claims are Impaired. Holders of Third-Party Payor Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

9. ER Physician Claims (Class 9)

(i) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of ER Physician Claims, the ERP Trust shall receive (i) the Initial ERP Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT ERP Claim; provided that if, as of the Effective Date, the ER Physician Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Initial ERP Trust Distribution will be deposited into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all ER Physician Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the ERP Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the ERP Trust. Each ER Physician Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the ERP Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the ERP TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any ER Physician Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the ERP Trust as and to the extent provided in the ERP TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of ER Physician Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any ER Physician Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any ER Physician Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue ER Physician Channeled Claims exclusively against the ERP Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the ERP TDP.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: ER Physician Claims are Impaired. Holders of ER Physician Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

10. PI Claims (Classes 10(a) and 10(b))

(i) PI Trust: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of PI Claims, the PI Trust shall receive, subject to Section 5.2(i) of the Plan, (i) the Initial PI Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT PI Claim.

(ii) NAS PI Claims (Class 10(a))

(1) Treatment: The PI Trust shall deposit the NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust NAS Fund in periodic installments as funds are received by the PI Trust. Distributions in respect of NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims, in accordance with the NAS PI TDP, and shall be subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks.

(2) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all NAS PI Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the PI Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the PI Trust. Each NAS PI Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the PI Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the NAS PI TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any NAS PI Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the PI Trust NAS Fund as and to the extent provided in the NAS PI TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of NAS PI Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue NAS PI Channeled Claims exclusively against the PI Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the NAS PI TDP.

(3) Impairment and Voting: NAS PI Claims are Impaired. Holders of NAS PI Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(iii) Non-NAS PI Claims (Class 10(b))

(1) Treatment: The PI Trust shall deposit the Non-NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund in periodic installments as funds are received by the PI Trust. Distributions in respect of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims, in accordance with the Non-NAS PI TDP, and shall be subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks.

(2) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the PI Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the PI Trust. Each Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the PI Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Non-NAS PI TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund as and to the extent provided in the Non-NAS PI TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims exclusively against the PI Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Non-NAS PI TDP.

(3) Impairment and Voting: Non-NAS PI Claims are Impaired. Holders of Non-NAS PI Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(iv) Canadian Patient Settlement: Pursuant to the Canadian Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation, (i) no Holder of a Settled Canadian Patient Claim that filed a Proof of Claim shall receive a recovery in respect of such Settled Canadian Patient Claim from any source other than the Patient Settlement Payment (as defined in the Canadian Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation) made from the Canadian Patient Settlement Trust and (ii) in order to receive a recovery in respect of any other Claim for which a Proof of Claim was filed by a Holder of a Settled Canadian Patient Claim, such Holder shall have the burden of proving that such Proof of Claim is not in respect of a Settled Canadian Patient Claim that was released and discharged pursuant to the Canadian Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation and such Holder has not received any recovery from the Canadian Patient Settlement Trust on account of such Claim. No Distributions shall be made on account of any Claims that may constitute Settled Canadian Patient Claims unless and until (x) the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench approves the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement and all funds in the Canadian Patient Settlement Trust have been distributed to Holders of Settled Canadian Patient Claims in accordance with the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement or (y) the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench denies the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in Article X of the Plan shall affect the validity or enforceability of the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement.

11. Avrio General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(a))

(i) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Avrio General Unsecured Claim and Avrio Health L.P. agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Avrio General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, including interest, payment in full in Cash.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Avrio General Unsecured Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Avrio General Unsecured Claims are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Avrio General Unsecured Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited.

12. Adlon General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(b))

(i) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Adlon General Unsecured Claim and Adlon Therapeutics L.P. agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Adlon General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, including interest, payment in full in Cash.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Adlon General Unsecured Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Adlon General Unsecured Claims are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Adlon General Unsecured Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited.

13. Other General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(c))

(i) Treatment: All Other General Unsecured Claims are Disputed. Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, after the Effective Date upon the Allowance of such Claim in accordance with Article VII of the Plan, each Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, such Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash, up to payment in full of such Allowed Claim.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Other General Unsecured Claims are Impaired. Holders of Other General Unsecured Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

14. Intercompany Claims (Class 12)

(i) Treatment: Except as otherwise provided in the NewCo Transfer Agreement or the Restructuring Steps Memorandum, on or after the Effective Date, Intercompany Claims shall be (x) in the case of Intercompany Claims held by a Liquidating Debtor against another Liquidating Debtor, at the discretion of the Debtors (or the Plan Administration Trustee, as applicable), (y) in the case of Intercompany Claims held by a Transferred Debtor against another Transferred Debtor, at the discretion of NewCo and (z) otherwise, at the discretion of the Debtors (or the Plan Administration Trustee, as applicable) with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Governmental Consent Parties:

(1) Reinstated; or

(2) Compromised and settled or canceled and extinguished with no distribution on account thereof.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Intercompany Claims are either Unimpaired or Impaired with no distribution on account thereof. Holders of Intercompany Claims are either conclusively presumed to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Intercompany Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Intercompany Claims.

15. Shareholder Claims (Class 13)

(i) Treatment: Holders of Shareholder Claims shall not receive or retain any property on account of such Claims. As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the terms of and except as otherwise expressly provided in the Shareholder Settlements, all Shareholder Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be deemed to have been released without any distribution on account thereof, and such Claims shall be of no further force or effect.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Shareholder Claims are Impaired. Holders of Shareholder Claims are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Shareholder Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Shareholder Claims.[125]

16. Co-Defendant Claims (Class 14)

(i) Treatment: In full and final satisfaction and release of each Co-Defendant Claim, the Holder thereof shall (i) not receive or retain any property on account of such Co-Defendant Claim and not have any recourse to any Debtor or any Assets of any Debtor, any Estate or any Assets of any Estate, or any other Protected Party or any Assets of any Protected Party and (ii) retain its Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, which may be exercised solely in accordance with Section 10.18 of the Plan. As of the Effective Date, Co-Defendant Claims shall be deemed expunged, released and extinguished without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect. Notwithstanding the release, satisfaction, expungement and extinguishment of Co-Defendant Claims, a Co-Defendant retains its Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, which includes the ability to recover from Persons that are not Protected Parties or from any insurance policies that are not Purdue Insurance Policies or other insurance policies of Protected Parties.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Co-Defendant Claims are Impaired. Holders of Co-Defendant Claims are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Co-Defendant Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Co-Defendant Claims.

[125] Although Holders of Shareholder Claims are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Shareholder Payment Parties, in all capacities (including as Holders of Claims), have agreed to support the Plan pursuant to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

17. Other Subordinated Claims (Class 15)

(i) Treatment: Other Subordinated Claims are subordinated pursuant to the Plan and section 509(c) and/or 510 of the Bankruptcy Code and/or other applicable law. Holders of Other Subordinated Claims shall not receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such Claims. As of the Effective Date, Other Subordinated Claims shall be deemed expunged, released and extinguished without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Other Subordinated Claims are Impaired. Holders of Other Subordinated Claims are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Other Subordinated Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Other Subordinated Claims.

18. PPLP Interests (Class 16)

(i) Treatment: In accordance with the terms of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, Holders of PPLP Interests shall relinquish such Interests and shall not receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such Interests. As of the PPLP Dissolution Date, all PPLP Interests shall be deemed surrendered, canceled and/or redeemed without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: PPLP Interests are Impaired. Holders of PPLP Interests are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of PPLP Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such PPLP Interests.

19. PPI Interests (Class 17)

(i) Treatment: In accordance with the terms of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, Holders of PPI Interests shall relinquish such Interests and shall not receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such Interests. As of the Effective Date, PPI Interests shall be deemed surrendered, canceled and/or redeemed without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: PPI Interests are Impaired. Holders of PPI Interests are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of PPI Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such PPI Interests.

20. Intercompany Interests (Class 18)

(i) Treatment: Except as otherwise provided in the NewCo Transfer Agreement or the Restructuring Steps Memorandum, on the Effective Date, Intercompany Interests shall be:

(1) with respect to Intercompany Interests in any Transferred Debtor held by PPLP, Reinstated and transferred to NewCo (or one of its Subsidiaries) in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement;

(2) with respect to Intercompany Interests in any Transferred Debtor held by another Transferred Debtor, Reinstated or otherwise treated in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement; and

(3) with respect to Intercompany Interests in any Debtor that is not a Transferred Debtor, Reinstated solely for administrative convenience until canceled when such Debtor is dissolved or merged out of existence by the Plan Administration Trustee.

(ii) Impairment and Voting: Intercompany Interests are either Unimpaired or Impaired with no distribution on account thereof. Holders of Intercompany Interests are either conclusively presumed to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Intercompany Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Intercompany Interests.

21. Debtors' Rights with Respect to Unimpaired Claims

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, nothing under the Plan shall affect the rights of the Debtors with respect to an Unimpaired Claim, including all rights with respect to legal and equitable defenses to, or setoffs or recoupments against, any such Unimpaired Claims.

D. Means for Implementation

1. Restructuring Transactions

On or before the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors may take all actions consistent with the Plan as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by or necessary to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions under and in connection with the Plan, including (i) the execution and delivery of all appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, consolidation, sale, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, dissolution or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the Plan; (ii) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption or delegation of any Asset, property, interest, right, liability, debt or obligation on terms consistent with the Plan; (iii) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of organization, limited partnership, incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion or dissolution pursuant to applicable law; (iv) the execution, delivery, filing, recordation and issuance of any other documents, instruments or agreements in connection with the Restructuring Transactions and (v) any transactions described in the Restructuring Steps Memorandum.

2. Plan Settlements

(i) As further described in the Disclosure Statement, the provisions of the Plan (including the provisions contained in Section 5.9 of the Plan and the release and injunctive provisions contained in Article X of the Plan), the Shareholder Settlements and the other Plan Documents constitute a good faith compromise and settlement of Claims and controversies among the Debtors, the Supporting Claimants, the Settling Creditors, the Shareholder Payment Parties, certain other participants in the Mediation and other parties in interest reached in connection with the Mediation and otherwise, which such compromise and settlement is necessary and integral to the Plan and the Plan Documents and the success of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, the Supporting Claimants, the Settling Creditors and the Shareholder Payment Parties believe the treatment provided in respect of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and the treatment of competing Classes of Claims is fair and appropriate only when combined with the distribution scheme, including without limitation all Distributions to be made under the Plan, and the release, injunction and all other provisions contained in the Plan, all of which are material aspects of the Plan and the terms of the Shareholder Settlements. More than 614,000 Proofs of Claim alleging liability arising out of or in connection with Opioid-Related Activities were filed against the Debtors by the General Bar Date. Approximately 10% of the submitted Proofs of Claim allege a specific amount of liability. The aggregate alleged liability associated with these Proofs of Claim is more than $40 trillion (exclusive of one personal injury claim that asserted $100 trillion in alleged liability). Approximately 90% of Claims alleging liability arising out of or in connection with Opioid-Related Activities do not allege a specific amount of liability. The Debtors believe that any reasonable estimate, projection or valuation of their total liability and obligation to pay for Claims asserted against them, if they had the ability to pay those Claims outside of these Chapter 11 Cases, exceeds by many multiples the total value of all assets of their Estates, including but not limited to contributions from third parties and the full face value of all of Purdue's insurance. The Debtors have structured the Plan on the basis of this understanding, and the Confirmation Order shall include a finding consistent with this understanding.

(ii) The Plan, including the explanation set forth in the Disclosure Statement, and the Plan Documents shall be deemed a motion to approve the Plan Settlements, including the Shareholder Settlements, and the good faith full and final comprehensive compromise and settlement of all of the Claims, Interests and controversies described in Section 5.2(a) of the Plan pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Plan Settlements under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, as well as a finding by the Bankruptcy Court that the Plan Settlements are fair, equitable, reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors and their Estates.

(iii) The Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents (including the Creditor Trust Documents), the Shareholder Settlements and the Confirmation Order constitute a good faith full and final comprehensive compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests and controversies described in the Plan based upon the unique circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases (such as the total distributable value available, the unique facts and circumstances relating to these Debtors and the need for an accelerated resolution without additional avoidable litigation) such that (i) none of the foregoing documents (including the provisions contained in Section 5.9 of the Plan), nor any materials used in furtherance of Plan confirmation (including, but not limited to, the Disclosure Statement, and any notes related to, and drafts of, such documents and materials), may be offered into evidence, deemed an admission, used as precedent or used by any party or Person in any context whatsoever beyond the purposes of the Plan, in any other litigation or proceeding, except as necessary, and as admissible in such context, to enforce their terms and to evidence the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction and (ii) any obligation by any party, in furtherance of such compromise and settlement, to not exercise rights that might be otherwise available to such party shall be understood to be an obligation solely in connection with this specific compromise and settlement and to be inapplicable in the absence of such compromise and settlement. The Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents and the Confirmation Order will be binding as to the matters and issues described therein, but will not be binding with respect to similar matters or issues that might arise in any other litigation or proceeding in which none of the Debtors or any other Protected Party is a party; provided that such litigation or proceeding is not to enforce or evidence the terms of the Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents, the Shareholder Settlements or the Confirmation Order. Any Person's support of, or position or action taken in connection with, the Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents, the Shareholder Settlements and the Confirmation Order may differ from such Person's position or testimony in any other litigation or proceeding not in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases. Further, and, as all parties to the Mediation agreed, the Plan Settlement is not intended to serve as an example for, or represent the parties' respective positions or views concerning, any other chapter 11 cases relating to opioids, nor shall it be used as precedent by any Person or party in any other such chapter 11 cases or in any other proceeding, situation or litigation.

(iv) The "allocation" of dollars between the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of any Distribution and the Estate Distributions is part of an overall compromise and settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 between the Mediation Parties, including the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Shareholder Payment Parties, and all creditors and creditor groups that are Mediation Parties, and upon confirmation of the Plan will be deemed to be a settlement between the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Supporting Claimants and the Shareholder Payment Parties in which, among other things, the Shareholder Payment Parties are providing up to $6.5 billion in consideration over 15 years. The "allocation" is intended by the Shareholder Payment Parties and the other Mediation Parties to, among other things, facilitate the distribution of proceeds for opioid abatement, victim compensation, and other permitted uses under the Plan, and otherwise. All such parties, including but not limited to the Shareholder Payment Parties, Sackler Parties, the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Committee and the States AG Negotiating Group, including each member of such groups, has agreed that neither the settlement amount nor the "allocation" (including any allocation between the Shareholder Payment Party of payment responsibility) reflects any concession or agreement by any party as to the strength, validity, merits, collectability, amount, or otherwise of the Shareholder Released Estate Claims or of the Shareholder Released Direct Claims or any defenses to the Shareholder Released Estate Claims or the Shareholder Released Direct Claims, and if for whatever reason the agreement in principle is not consummated, neither the settlement amount nor the "allocation" shall be cited or used by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Supporting Claimants or the Shareholder Payment Parties (or the Released Parties) – or any party to the Shareholder Settlements or any other Mediation Party – for any purpose whatsoever in any pleading or proceeding wherever or whenever. Further, no party to the compromise and settlement will be bound by the Plan or the agreement set forth in this provision (other than as set forth in Section 5.2(d) of the Plan) with regard to what it may state in a pleading, court hearing, proceeding, or otherwise about the strength, validity, merits, collectability, amount, or otherwise of the Shareholder Released Estate Claims or of the Shareholder Released Direct Claims, or any defenses thereto, including, without limitation, in any pleading filed in connection with the Shareholder Settlements and the Plan. This paragraph shall be binding forever upon all parties from the earlier of (i) the time that this agreement in principle is reached and (ii) the time that Section 5.2(d) of the Plan is made publicly available (on the Bankruptcy Court docket or otherwise), regardless of whether a settlement including that represented in the Plan is consummated, and shall be specifically enforceable by the Bankruptcy Court (with no cap on damages that may be awarded).[126] Section 5.2(d) of the Plan is non-severable from the overall compromise and settlement, and is an integral part of the Plan. Section 5.2(d) of the Plan is specifically subject to Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and analogous state provisions barring the use of settlement offers and communications to prove the validity or amount of disputed claim.[127]

(v) Private Entity Settlements.

(1) On the Effective Date, the Private Creditor Trusts shall receive their respective Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions and their respective MDT Private Claims; provided that with respect to Private Creditor Trusts that are the subject of Opt-Out Class Action Settlements, if, as of the Effective Date, the applicable Opt-Out Class Action Settlement has not been consummated, the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distribution (exclusive of amounts that would constitute Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amounts under the applicable Opt-Out Class Action Settlement, to the extent known) for such Private Creditor Trust shall be placed by the Master Disbursement Trust into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (the "Class Action Escrow Accounts"). If any such Opt-Out Class Action Settlement is consummated on or prior to the ten (10) month anniversary of the Effective Date, amounts held in the applicable Class Action Escrow Account shall be distributed to the corresponding Private Creditor Trust, other than the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amounts, if any, which shall be released to the Shareholder Payment Parties. If any Opt-Out Class Action Settlement is not consummated by the (10) month anniversary of the Effective Date, amounts held in the applicable Class Action Escrow Account shall be promptly released to the Shareholder Payment Parties. If such Opt-Out Class Action Settlement is consummated after such release from the Class Action Escrow Account to the Shareholder Payment Parties, each Shareholder Payment Party shall pay to the Master Disbursement Trust such amounts due and payable by it within ten (10) Business Days of delivery to such Shareholder Payment Party of notice of such Opt-Out Class Action Settlement having been consummated, pending final payment from the Shareholder Released Parties, and the applicable Private Creditor Trust shall receive the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the applicable Initial Private Creditor Trust Distribution from the Master Disbursement Trust, which shall [126] This sentence shall not apply to the States.

[127] While all parties understand that the Plan is not enforceable until confirmation, all Mediation Parties have agreed to be bound by this provision as of March 18, 2025.

only be funded from amounts received by it from the Shareholder Payment Parties in accordance with the amounts set forth in the Plan and the applicable Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement or the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, the Master Disbursement Trust shall have an obligation under the Plan to distribute to the PI Trust, on account of the MDT PI Claim, (A) on a first priority basis, the first $50 million of proceeds, payments, and benefits (including, but not limited to, the MDT Insurance Proceeds) of (I) any MDT Causes of Action (other than those Retained Causes of Action relating to or necessary to enforce the MDT Shareholder Rights) and (II) the MDT Insurance Rights (assets described in clauses (I) and (II), collectively, the "Subject MDT Assets"), and (B) in the absence of payment in full of such $50 million prior to the second anniversary of the Effective Date from proceeds, payments, and benefits of the Subject MDT Assets, the remaining unpaid amount thereof (which may be the entire amount) in full in cash on the first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following such second anniversary of the Effective Date from MDT Transferred Assets or the proceeds thereof other than the Subject MDT Assets on a priority basis in accordance with Section 5.2(g) of the Plan (the payment obligations described in clauses (A) and (B), the "PI Trust Obligation").[128]

(3) Until such time as the PI Trust Obligation has been satisfied in full in accordance with Section 5.2 of the Plan:

(A) the Master Disbursement Trust shall not (I) permit a Lien or other encumbrance to attach to the Subject MDT Assets or (II) incur any Claim (including any Channeled Claim) or otherwise grant any right of payment in respect of the Subject MDT Assets, in each case, senior to the PI Trust Obligation;

(B) the Master Disbursement Trust shall afford the PI Trustee (or its designated representative) with periodic reporting as contemplated by Section 5.6(f)(v) of the Plan and subject to Section 5.6(f)(iv) of the Plan;

[128] For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent the PI Trust Obligation has not been paid in full by the second anniversary of the Effective Date in accordance with Section 5.2(e) of the Plan, the priority of the PI Trust Obligation shall only be second to the funding of the Replenishment Transfer with Cash and cash equivalents that are Shareholder Estate Settlement Distributions, but not, for the avoidance of doubt, second with respect to application of the Total Direct Settlement Amount under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.

(C) none of the protections with respect to the PI Trust Obligation in Section 5.2(e) of the Plan nor the priority afforded to the PI Trust Obligation in Section 5.2(g) of the Plan shall be modified or eliminated from the MDT Agreement, the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, or the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, solely to the extent applicable, without the written consent of the PI Trustee; and

(D) the PI Trustee reserves all legal and equitable rights under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and federal and common law with respect to the PI Trust Obligation.

(4) The Master Disbursement Trust shall reserve amounts from the Total Direct Settlement Amount under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, as needed, to satisfy the PI Trust Obligation, solely to the extent the PI Trust Obligation has not been paid in full by the [first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following the] second anniversary of the Effective Date in accordance with Section 5.2(e) of the Plan.

(5) In the event the PI Trust Obligation is not satisfied in full by the first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following the second anniversary of the Effective Date in accordance with Section 5.2 of the Plan, the PI Trustee shall be entitled to seek enforcement of the PI Trust Obligation by motion to enforce the Plan filed with the Bankruptcy Court, which shall be heard on an expedited basis subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, and the PI Trustee may seek legal and/or equitable remedies available under applicable law, including, but not limited to, specific performance, disgorgement, and/or damages against any successor of the Debtors or their Estates, including the Master Disbursement Trust.

(vi) Non-Federal Public Entity Settlements.[129]

(1) On the Effective Date, the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust shall receive their respective Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions, and the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust shall receive their respective MDT Interests. The MDT Interests shall entitle the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust to the payments from the Master Disbursement Trust and other benefits set forth below.

[129] Any characterization of the Public School Claims in this Plan as a "Private" claimant or "Public" claimant is for administrative convenience only, and is not intended to, nor may it be construed as, having any significant for any other purpose.

(A) Subject to Section 5.2(g) of the Plan, on each MDT Distribution Date, the Master Disbursement Trust shall make Public Creditor Trust Distributions from all MDT Distributable Value in accordance with Section 5.2(f)(i)(B) of the Plan.

(B) All Public Creditor Trust Distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust and/or the Tribe Trust shall be allocated between the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust as follows, in each case, as calculated before accounting for any amounts payable pursuant to Section 5.9 of the Plan: (I) with respect to the Estate Distributions, (X) 96.7% to the Governmental Remediation Trust and (Y) 3.3% to the Tribe Trust; and (II) with respect to the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion, (X) 96.7% of the Maximum Governmental Direct Settlement Amount on the payment dates indicated therein to the Governmental Remediation Trust, subject to, and payable in accordance with, the terms of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, and (Y) 3.3% of the Maximum Governmental Direct Settlement Amount on the payment dates indicated therein to the Tribe Trust, subject to, and payable in accordance with, the terms of the Tribe Trust Agreement.

(C) All Public Creditor Trust Distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust shall be further allocated between States and Subdivisions in accordance with the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents. The allocation of the applicable Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion to Subdivisions who become Initial Participating Subdivisions may be higher than Later Joining Subdivisions (each as defined in and as more fully described in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement). Subdivisions located in Oklahoma shall be entitled to participate in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement as though Oklahoma was a Settling State. Subdivisions in Non-Settling States and Subdivisions which previously litigated and resolved their claims against the Debtors and/or Shareholder Released Parties shall not be eligible to be Participating Subdivisions [unless and until, in the case of the Subdivisions located in Non-Settling States, a Subdivision's corresponding State becomes a Settling State]. For the avoidance of doubt, each Non-Settling Subdivision shall be entitled to receive Estate Distributions pursuant to Section 7.7 of the Plan upon Allowance of its Claim in accordance with Sections 7.6 or 7.9 of the Plan.

(D) Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions will receive Oklahoma's allocation, which allocation amount has already been reduced by $12.5 million that the State of Oklahoma set aside in accordance with the Oklahoma Political Subdivisions Opioid Abatement Grants Act (the "Act") for distribution to Oklahoma subdivisions pursuant to Oklahoma's settlement with the Shareholder Released Parties and the Debtors (the "Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement"). The Oklahoma subdivision allocation is set forth in Exhibit [●] of the Plan and will be administered as agreed between the State of Oklahoma and the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions. Any release requirements contained in the Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement that are a condition for a Subdivision to participate in the Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund shall be waived by the Debtors and Shareholder Payment Parties such that the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions may participate in both the Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund and receive distributions from the Governmental Remediation Trust. The Debtors and Shareholder Payment Parties also waive any requirement in the Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement that funds not distributed by the Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund within a certain amount of time will revert to the Foundation or the National Center for Addiction Studies and Treatment established pursuant to the Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement, and acknowledge that the entire Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund shall be distributed to Oklahoma subdivisions. Oklahoma's allocation shall be paid from the Governmental Remediation Trust to a settlement fund established for the benefit of the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions. Distributions from such settlement fund to the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions shall be made in accordance with the ratios set forth in Exhibit [●] of the Plan. The Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions shall either hire an administrator for the funds from the Remediation Trust Account or receive the funds directly from the Governmental Remediation Trust. The administrator may be reasonably compensated by the Governmental Remediation Trust to perform its administrative function, but not to exceed 5% of the money distributed to Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions by the Governmental Remediation Trust.

(2) On the Effective Date, the Public School Trust shall receive the Initial Public Schools Distribution (less any required payments to the Common Benefit Fund and/or in respect of attorneys' fees and expenses of the Public School District Claimants in accordance with Section 5.9(c) and (h) of the Plan) and the MDT Public School Districts Claim. On account of the MDT Public School Districts Claim, the Master Disbursement Trust shall pay to benefit the Public School Trust: (i) $7.5 million on the first anniversary of the Effective Date less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount (the "Second Public Schools Distribution"), and (ii) $7.5 million on the second anniversary of the Effective Date less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount (the "Third Public Schools Distribution").

(vii) MDT Priority Waterfall. On each MDT Distribution Date, all Cash and cash equivalents of the Master Disbursement Trust shall be applied as follows: (i) first, to fund any Replenishment Transfer solely to the extent such Cash and cash equivalents are Shareholder Estate Settlement Distributions; (ii) second, to fund the PI Trust Obligation in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(ii) of the Plan; (iii) third, to fund the MDT Operating Reserve in an amount determined by the MDT Trustees; (iv) fourth, to the extent there are outstanding amounts then due on account of the MDT Claims, to pay the MDT Claims; (v) fifth, to reimburse the applicable Public Creditor Trust for any Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion previously applied in respect of adjustments implemented in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(iv) of the Plan and (vi) sixth, as Public Creditor Trust Distributions in respect of the MDT Interests; provided, however, that, except to the extent expressly set forth in Exhibit M to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, payments received by the Master Disbursement Trust: (A) on account of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement shall be immediately transferred to the Governmental Remediation Trust and (B) on account of the Tribal Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement shall be immediately transferred to the Tribe Trust, and the amounts in (A) and (B) shall not be used to fund a Replenishment Transfer to fund the MDT Operating Reserve or pay the MDT Claims.

(viii) Shareholder Settlements. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Shareholder Payment Parties and the Settling Creditors shall enter into the Shareholder Settlement Agreements. Pursuant to the Public Entity Settlements, the Private Entity Settlements, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and the Plan, in exchange for, among other things, the Shareholder Settlement Releases and the Channeling Injunction, as set forth in Sections 10.6, 10.7 and 10.8 of the Plan, and the other agreements set forth in the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, (i) the Shareholder Payment Parties shall pay the applicable Shareholder Settlement Amount on the dates and pursuant to the terms set forth in the applicable Shareholder Settlement Agreements, (ii) the Shareholder Claims shall be deemed released on the Effective Date pursuant to Section 4.15 of the Plan, (iii) the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights shall be transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 5.6(j) of the Plan; (iv) the Shareholder Payment Parties have agreed to support the Plan and (v) the Shareholder Payment Parties have provided the other agreements and consideration set forth in the applicable Shareholder Settlement Agreement, in each case, as more fully set forth in, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the Shareholder Settlement Agreement. The Master Disbursement Trust shall distribute all proceeds of the MDT Shareholder Rights, including each applicable Shareholder Settlement Amount, in accordance with the Plan, including Section 5.2(e)-(g) of the Plan.

(ix) [Potential United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement. The United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement is as follows:

(1) On the Effective Date of the Plan, the PI Trust shall be deemed, without further action of the Bankruptcy Court or the PI Trust, to have irrevocably assigned to the United States the PI Trust's right to receive $26 million from the Master Disbursement Trust, which amount shall be paid by the Debtors or the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable, to the United States in installments equal to 3.7143% of any amounts received and retained by the PI Trust under the Plan in the form of the Initial PI Trust Distribution and distributions made on account of the MDT PI Claim, and on the same distribution schedule as such distributions are received and retained by the PI Trust, until the United States has received payments aggregating to $26 million. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall (1) the stated amount of the Initial PI Trust Distribution or the stated amount of the MDT PI Claim be altered in a manner that would reduce the aggregate amount to be paid to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan, (2) the aggregate amount paid to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan exceed $26 million, or (3) the United States' claim against the Master Disbursement Trust arising from the assignment described in Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan be released until the United States has received payments thereof aggregating to $26 million. Should the PI Trust obtain recoveries under the Plan from a source other than the Master Disbursement Trust as a result of litigation following and resulting from either a modification of the MDT Insurer Injunction pursuant to Section 10.10 of the Plan or election by the Master Disbursement Trust of a Shareholder Release Remedy, the PI Trust shall pay over 3.7143% of any such recoveries to the United States until the United States shall have received payments aggregating to $26 million pursuant to the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement. The United States shall have the right to enforce the obligations set forth in Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan notwithstanding the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 10.19 of the Plan, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, the PI Trust, each Holder of a PI Claim and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and each Holder of a PI Claim, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such, shall, without any further action by the Bankruptcy Court, be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim of all United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claims and all Causes of Action based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement (other than a Cause of Action to enforce the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the release set forth in Section 5.2 (i)(iii) of the Plan) that each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim has asserted or could assert on its own behalf or on behalf of another Person or party, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), against the PI Trust, a Holder of a PI Claim, Distributions to Holders of PI Claims pursuant to the PI TDP or under the Plan and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and each Holder of a PI Claim, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such; provided, however, that, if a Holder of a PI Claim commences a legal action against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim challenging all or any portion of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, then, from and after the commencement of such legal action, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Release shall be void ab initio solely with respect to such Holder of a PI Claim, and the heirs, successors and assigns of such Holder of a PI Claim, in their capacities as such, and not with respect to any other Person or party, including, but not limited to, the PI Trust, counsel to such Holder of a PI Claim and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and such counsel, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such; provided further that no such legal action against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim shall impair or reduce the amount that the United States shall receive pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan. Nothing in Section 5.2(i)(ii) of the Plan creates any rights of a Holder of a PI Claim to sue the United States or any of its agencies, including a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim, and the United States and its agencies reserve all rights and defenses in that regard; and nothing in this paragraph is or shall be deemed a waiver of any applicable sovereign immunity with respect to any legal action against the United States or any of its agencies challenging all or any portion of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement brought by a Holder of a PI Claim or the heirs, successors or assigns of such Holder of a PI Claim, in their capacities as such.

(3) As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim shall, without any further action by the Bankruptcy Court, be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the PI Trust and its agents, representatives, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such, of all Causes of Action based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement (other than a Cause of Action to enforce the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, any United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Release) that the PI Trust has asserted or could assert on its own behalf or on behalf of another Person or party, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim and, in respect of each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim, its respective agents, representatives, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such.

(4) The payments made to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan are a prepayment by the PI Trust of amounts that would otherwise be payable by certain Holders of PI Claims to Holders of United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claims upon receipt by such Holders of PI Claims of Distributions pursuant to the PI TDP and under the Plan. Such prepayment shall be borne equitably by such Holders of PI Claims in the form of a reduction in the Distributions otherwise payable to such Holders of PI Claims pursuant to the PI TDP.

(5) The United States Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency (in respect of the TRICARE Program) submits to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for purposes of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.

(6) The United States Department of Health and Human Services, on its own behalf and on behalf of its component agencies, which are the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Indian Health Service on behalf of its federally-operated programs; the United States Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency (in respect of the TRICARE Program); and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for purposes of any proceeding in respect of the interpretation or enforcement of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.][130]

(x) Individual Settlement Agreements. Each of the Settling States, Participating Subdivisions, the Master Disbursement Trust, and the Debtors shall not enter into any side letter or separate agreement with any Sackler Family Member that grants more favorable terms or benefits, when taken as a whole, to such Sackler Family Member's Shareholder Family Group than those set forth in the Plan and the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

3. The Plan Administration Trust

(i) Establishment and Purpose of Plan Administration Trust. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors shall take all necessary steps to form the Plan Administration Trust in accordance with the Plan and the PAT Agreement. The Plan Administration Trust shall be established for the purposes described in the Plan and any others more fully described in the PAT Agreement, shall have no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of trade or business and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. The Plan Administration Trust shall, in each case in accordance with the Plan and the PAT Agreement:

(1) hold, manage, sell and invest the PAT Assets for the benefit of Holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims);

(2) administer, process, resolve and liquidate Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims), including through the prosecution and resolution of objections to Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Disputed Adlon

[130] [NTD: Section 5.2(i) reflects terms that were agreed to in 2021 in connection with the 12th Amended Plan among PI claimants and the federal government. The parties do not currently have an agreement on any of these issues. If an agreement is reached, it will be reflected in subsequent versions of the Plan and Disclosure Statement. There can be no assurances that any such agreement will be reached. If no agreement is reached, the federal government reserves its rights to seek recoveries from appropriate parties (including PI claimants and/or their attorneys) under the Medicare Secondary Payer Act, 42 USC §§ 1395y(b), section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid, and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (Pub. L. 110-173), or the Federal Medical Care Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2651-2653; and other parties (including the PI claimants and their attorneys) reserve all rights and defenses to such claims and any attempts by the federal government to recover on such claims.]

General Unsecured Claims or Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims;

(3) hold and maintain the PAT Reserves and the PAT Distribution Account and maintain the Professional Fee Escrow Account and the account described in Section 5.3(e) of the Plan; and

(4) make Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims) and other payments from the Plan Administration Trust, the Professional Fee Escrow Account and the account described in Section 5.3(e) of the Plan.

(ii) Vesting of the PAT Assets in the Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust shall consist of the PAT Assets. On the Effective Date, the PAT Assets shall vest in the Plan Administration Trust, free and clear of all Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind.

(iii) Appointment and Role of the Plan Administration Trustee. The Plan Administration Trustee shall be an existing employee of the Debtors selected by the Debtors in their sole discretion or another individual selected by the Debtors with the consent of the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). The identity and compensation of the Plan Administration Trustee shall be disclosed in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the Plan Administration Trustee shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date. In accordance with the PAT Agreement, the Plan Administration Trustee shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (x) the date that the Plan Administration Trust is dissolved in accordance with the PAT Agreement and (y) the date the Plan Administration Trustee resigns, is terminated or is otherwise unable to serve for any reason. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Plan Administration Trust and the Plan, the Plan Administration Trustee shall:

(1) have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the Plan Administration Trust;

(2) undertake all administrative responsibilities as are provided in the Plan and the PAT Agreement, including filing the final monthly operating report (for the month in which the Effective Date occurs) and all subsequent quarterly operating reports and administering the closure of the Chapter 11 Cases, which reports shall be delivered to the Master Disbursement Trust;

(3) be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Plan Administration Trust and the PAT Assets; and

(4) take such other actions as the Plan Administration Trust determines to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan, provided that such authority shall be subject to Section 5.4 and Section 5.6 of this Plan, and nothing herein or in any Plan Supplement document shall grant the Plan Administration Trust any rights with respect to NewCo or its operations or the Master Disbursement Trust or its operations.

(iv) Funding of the Wind-Up Reserve; Costs and Expenses of the Plan Administration Trust. On the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the Wind-Up Reserve, which shall vest in the Plan Administration Trust and be held and maintained by the Plan Administration Trustee. In the event of any shortfall of funding in the Wind-Up Reserve, NewCo shall be obligated to satisfy any such deficiency, subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the NewCo Managers and the MDT Trustees (which obligation shall be assumed by NewCo and any successor to NewCo's business). The costs and expenses of the Plan Administration Trust, including the compensation, fees and expenses of the Plan Administration Trustee and its retained professionals, shall be paid out of the Wind-Up Reserve. The Plan Administration Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, in an amount to be determined by the Debtors, subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties, and to retain and reasonably compensate counsel and other professionals, including any professional who represented parties in interest, including the Debtors, in the Chapter 11 Cases, to assist in its duties as Plan Administration Trustee on such terms as the Plan Administration Trustee deems appropriate without Bankruptcy Court approval, subject to the provisions of the PAT Agreement.

(v) [Attorneys' Fees and Expenses of Directors, Officers, Employees and Agents. The Plan Administration Trust will promptly advance or reimburse as and when incurred the reasonable actual attorneys' fees and related expenses incurred by any current or former director, officer, employee or authorized agent of the Debtors (other than any Sackler Family Member) after the Effective Date and before the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with such individual's cooperation with, or in connection with the defense of such individual with respect to, any investigation, prosecution and/or litigation involving conduct relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property or any defense of the Releases or the Channeling Injunction. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors will establish and fund a segregated account in the amount of $[●] million, which shall be held and maintained by the Plan Administration Trustee to fund the foregoing advancement and reimbursement obligations. If, at any time, the balance in such segregated account is less than $[●] million, NewCo (or, at any time after a sale of all or substantially all Assets of or Interests in NewCo, the Master Disbursement Trust) shall replenish such account so that amounts in the account are not less than $[●] million, provided that (x) the aggregate amount deposited into the segregated account may not exceed $[●] million, and (y) on the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Date, any funds remaining in the segregated account will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and NewCo's and the Master Disbursement Trust's funding obligations with respect to such account will cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Plan Administration Trust will not advance or reimburse any such amounts incurred by any individual who (i) does not provide an appropriate undertaking consistent with the undertakings required for indemnification during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) has at any time prior to the Effective Date refused or does at any time after the Effective Date refuse to testify based on a claim of privilege against self-incrimination in any proceeding relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property, or (iii) is at any time indicted for a felony relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property (provided, however, that if such individual is found to be not guilty of such felony, then expenses shall be promptly reimbursed).][131]

(vi) Institution and Maintenance of Legal and Other Proceedings. As of the date upon which the Plan Administration Trust is established, the Plan Administration Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all legal actions and other proceedings related to any Asset, liability or responsibility of the Plan Administration Trust. Such legal actions and other proceedings shall be limited solely to those required for the purposes of reconciling, administering and defending against Claims (other than Channeled Claims) and the other responsibilities of the Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all such actions in the name of the Debtors or their Estates, in each case if deemed necessary or appropriate by the Plan Administration Trustee. The Plan Administration Trust shall be responsible for the payment of all damages, awards, judgments, settlements, expenses, costs, fees and other charges incurred subsequent to the date upon which the Plan Administration Trust is established arising from, or associated with, any legal action or other proceeding brought pursuant to the foregoing. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan Administration Trust, pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable state corporate law, is appointed as the successor-in-interest to, and representative of, the Debtors and their Estates for the retention, enforcement, settlement or adjustment of Claims against the Debtors (other than the Channeled Claims). For the further avoidance of doubt, neither the Plan Administration Trust nor the Plan Administration Trustee shall be vested with the rights to pursue any MDT Insurance Rights or MDT Insurance Collateral.

(vii) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust is intended to be treated as a trust described in IRC sections 661 through 664 and the regulations promulgated thereunder (a "complex trust"). The Plan Administration Trustee shall file (or cause to be filed) such statements, returns, or disclosures relating to the Plan Administration Trust as are required by any Governmental Unit, including IRS Form 1041, IRS Form 1041-ES, and IRS Schedule K-1. The Plan Administration Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the PAT Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Plan Administration Trust or the PAT Assets, including, without limitation, estimated and annual U.S. federal income taxes. The Plan Administration Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of the Plan Administration Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Plan Administration Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust. Nothing in Section 5.3(g) of the Plan shall be deemed to determine, expand or contract the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(viii) Dissolution, Release of Reserves and Residual Value. The Plan Administration Trust shall be dissolved and the Plan Administration Trustee shall be discharged from its duties with respect to the Plan Administration Trust upon completion of its duties as set forth in the Plan and satisfaction of the purposes of the Plan Administration Trust as set forth in the Plan and the PAT Agreement, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be no earlier than the later of (i) the PPLP Dissolution Date and (ii) the date on which (A) all Disputed Claims (other than Non-Participating Channeled Claims) have been resolved, (B) all PAT Assets have been liquidated and (C) all Distributions and other payments required to be made by the Plan Administration Trustee under the Plan and the PAT Agreement have been made, unless dissolution on an earlier date is authorized pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court. Any Cash or cash equivalents in the Plan Administration Trust remaining upon dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust, including any Surplus Reserve Cash remaining in the PAT Reserves, shall be distributed in accordance with Section 5.14(c) of the Plan.

(ix) Exculpation and Indemnification of the Plan Administration Trustee. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan Administration Trustee shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in its capacity as the Plan Administration Trustee, or on behalf of the Plan Administration Trust, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of its actions or inactions in its capacity as the Plan Administration Trustee, or on behalf of the Plan Administration Trust, and for any other liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses arising out of or due to the implementation or administration of the Plan or the PAT Agreement, in each case, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of the Plan Administration Trustee shall be satisfied from the Wind-Up Reserve.

4. NewCo[132]

(i) Establishment and Ownership of NewCo. On or before the Effective Date, NewCo and any Subsidiaries of NewCo shall be formed in accordance with the Plan and the NewCo Operating Agreement. Upon completion of the Restructuring Transactions, the Foundation shall hold the NewCo Interest, representing 100% of the voting and economic Interests in NewCo.

(ii) Purpose of NewCo. From and after the Effective Date, NewCo shall operate the NewCo Transferred Assets in accordance with the terms of the NewCo Operating Agreement, and subject to the NewCo Operating Injunction and the NewCo Governance Covenants set forth in the Confirmation Order. NewCo shall be operated in a responsible and sustainable manner, balancing (i) the interests of its stakeholders to fund and provide abatement of the opioid crisis, (ii) effective deployment of its assets to address the opioid crisis and (iii) the interests of those materially affected by its conduct. In connection with any action of NewCo, all elements of NewCo's purpose as set forth in Section 5.4(b) of the Plan shall be taken into account, and NewCo shall not be required (and the NewCo Managers shall not be required to cause NewCo) to maximize NewCo's or NewCo's subsidiaries' sales or profits.

(iii) Vesting of the NewCo Transferred Assets in NewCo. On or prior to the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan and in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement, the NewCo Transferred Assets, including the Initial NewCo Cash, shall be transferred to and vest in NewCo or one or more Subsidiaries of NewCo, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind; provided that NewCo shall comply with its obligations under the Plan, including NewCo's obligation to distribute directly to the Governmental Remediation Trust, the Tribe Trust and the Foundation the NewCo Distributable Cash in accordance with the Plan and to satisfy any deficiency of funding in the Wind-Up Reserve subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the NewCo Managers and the MDT Trustees (which obligation shall be assumed by NewCo and any successor to NewCo's business) and NewCo shall assume the Assumed Liabilities. Except as described in the foregoing sentence, NewCo shall have no liability for, and the NewCo Transferred Assets shall vest in NewCo free and clear of, any prepetition and postpetition Causes of Action of any kind, in each case that have been or could have been asserted against the Debtors, their Estates or their property (including, but not limited to, Claims based on successor liability) based on any acts or omissions prior to the Effective Date.

(iv) NewCo Managers.

(1) Appointment. The board of managers of NewCo will consist of five (5) NewCo Managers, each with experience in one or more of the following areas: pharmaceuticals, public policy (including public health policy), law enforcement, ethics and compliance, finance, audit, general business and/or corporate governance issues. The initial NewCo Managers shall be disinterested and independent, and shall be selected by the Settling States with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, and pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors; provided that the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The identity of the initial NewCo Managers shall be included in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the initial NewCo Managers shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date.

(2) Responsibilities. The NewCo Managers shall, among other things, (A) determine appropriate expenditure levels for commercial operations and the Public Health Initiatives of NewCo, and (B) make all decisions with respect to NewCo operations (including, for the avoidance of doubt, to effectuate a Disposition Event (as defined in the NewCo Operating Agreement)), taking into account the public interest and NewCo's purpose; provided, in each of clauses (A) and (B) above, any such actions of the NewCo Managers shall be subject to oversight by the Foundation.

(v) NewCo Distributable Cash. On an annual basis following the Effective Date, NewCo shall pay (i) 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash directly to the Governmental Remediation Trust, (ii) 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash directly to the Tribe Trust and (iii) the Foundation Distributable Cash directly to the Foundation. The obligation to pay the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash in accordance with this Section 5.4(e) shall be otherwise documented in an agreement to be negotiated between NewCo, the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust.

(vi) NewCo Insurance. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall fund an upfront premium payment from Effective Date Cash to purchase insurance required and appropriate for the business needs of NewCo, including liability and other insurance for NewCo, including, without limitation, product liability insurance and directors' and officers' liability insurance for the NewCo Managers, officers and other authorized agents, in an amount and on terms acceptable to the Debtors and the Governmental Consent Parties.

(vii) NewCo Operating Injunction and NewCo Governance Covenants. The Confirmation Order will provide for the issuance of the NewCo Operating Injunction and the NewCo Governance Covenants. Any purchaser of NewCo's opioid business shall remain subject to the NewCo Operating Injunction and the NewCo Governance Covenants.

(viii) NewCo Monitor. The Confirmation Order will provide for the appointment of the NewCo Monitor. The initial NewCo Monitor shall be the Purdue Monitor in place as of the Effective Date or otherwise selected by the Governmental Consent Parties with the consent of the Debtors, and in consultation with the Creditors' Committee. The identity of the NewCo Monitor shall be disclosed in the Plan Supplement. The NewCo Monitor shall be responsible for reviewing NewCo's compliance with the NewCo Operating Injunction. NewCo and its professionals and representatives, including the NewCo Managers, shall cooperate and reasonably respond to requests by the NewCo Monitor in the performance of its responsibilities, including reasonable requests for access to relevant books and records of NewCo. In furtherance of the responsibilities of the NewCo Monitor, the NewCo Monitor shall be authorized to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court to the extent necessary to carry out its obligations under the Plan. The NewCo Monitor shall prepare and publish [quarterly][133] reports regarding the matters for which the NewCo Monitor is responsible, including NewCo's compliance with the NewCo Operating Injunction. All compensation, costs and fees of the NewCo Monitor and any professionals retained by the NewCo Monitor shall be paid by NewCo.

(ix) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to NewCo. The NewCo Managers shall cause NewCo to make a timely election to be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes effective as of the date immediately succeeding the Effective Date by the deadline for making such election. NewCo shall be responsible for filing all tax returns of NewCo and the payment, out of the Assets of NewCo, of any taxes due by or imposed on NewCo or NewCo Transferred Assets, including, without limitation, estimated and annual U.S. federal income taxes.

[133] [NTD: subject to ongoing review.]

(x) Exculpation and Indemnification of the NewCo Managers. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no NewCo Manager shall have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a NewCo Manager, or on behalf of NewCo, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a NewCo Manager, or on behalf of NewCo, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any NewCo Manager shall be satisfied by NewCo.

5. Foundation.

(i) Establishment and Ownership of the Foundation. On or before the Effective Date, the Foundation shall be formed in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the Foundation Bylaws.

(ii) Appointment of the Foundation Trustees. The board of trustees of the Foundation will consist of three (3) Foundation Trustees, each of whom shall be disinterested and independent, provided that one (but no more than one) Creditor Trustee of the [Master Disbursement Trust] may serve as a Foundation Trustee; provided further that any action taken by such individual in his or her capacity as Foundation Trustee shall not be subject to the fiduciary duties of such individual in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee of the Master Disbursement Trust." [134] The initial Foundation Trustees shall be selected by the Settling States with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, and pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors; provided that the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The identity of the initial Foundation Trustees shall be included in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the initial Foundation Trustees shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date.

(iii) Foundation D&O Insurance and Indemnification. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall fund an upfront premium payment from Effective Date Cash to purchase directors' and officers' liability insurance for the Foundation Trustees in an amount and on terms acceptable to the Debtors and the Governmental Consent Parties.

(iv) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Foundation. The Foundation Trustees shall cause the Foundation to (A) be formed as a corporation and (B) be organized as a corporation that is intended to be treated as an exempt organization under IRC section 501(c)(4) for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes.

(v) Exculpation and Indemnification of the Foundation Trustees. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Foundation Trustee shall have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a Foundation Trustee, or on behalf of NewCo, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a Foundation Trustee, or on behalf of NewCo, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any Foundation Trustee shall be satisfied by the Foundation.

6. Master Disbursement Trust

(i) Establishment and Purpose of the Master Disbursement Trust. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors shall take all necessary steps to establish the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with the Plan and the MDT Agreement. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be established for the purposes described in the Plan and any other purposes more fully described in the MDT Agreement and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. The Master Disbursement Trust shall, in each case in accordance with the Plan and the MDT Agreement:

(1) hold, manage, sell, invest and distribute the MDT Transferred Assets for the benefit of the MDT Beneficiaries in accordance with the Private Entity Settlements and the Public Entity Settlements;

(2) enforce, pursue, prosecute, compromise and/or settle the MDT Causes of Action, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Shareholder Rights, including monitoring and enforcing the Shareholder Settlement Agreements;

(3) make payments in satisfaction of the MDT Claims;

(4) make Public Creditor Trust Distributions from MDT Distributable Value;

(5) hold and administer the Special Operating Reserve; and

(6) serve as administrative agent with respect to the Released Claims Reserves.

(ii) Vesting of the MDT Transferred Assets in the Master Disbursement Trust. The corpus of the Master Disbursement Trust shall consist of the MDT Transferred Assets. On the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan and in accordance with the MDT Agreement, the MDT Transferred Assets shall be irrevocably transferred to and vest in the Master Disbursement Trust free and clear of all Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind; provided that, to the extent certain Assets comprising the MDT Transferred Assets are not known or identified as of the Effective Date, such Assets shall automatically, and without further act or deed, be transferred to and vest in the Master Disbursement Trust upon the discovery or identification thereof, including, with respect to the Surplus Reserve Cash, in accordance with Section 5.14(c) of the Plan. The Master Disbursement Trust shall have no liability for any prepetition or postpetition Causes of Action of any kind, in each case that have been or could have been asserted against the Debtors, their Estates or their property (including, but not limited to, Claims based on successor liability) based on any acts or omissions prior to the Effective Date, except as expressly set forth in the Plan and the MDT Agreement; provided that the Master Disbursement Trust will assume the Channeled Claims solely for the purpose of effectuating the Master TDP in accordance with Section 5.6(g) of the Plan and issue the MDT Claims and MDT Interests in accordance with the Public Entity Settlements and the Private Entity Settlements. From and after the Effective Date, all proceeds of the MDT Transferred Assets, including without limitation, amounts paid by Insurance Companies under the MDT Insurance Policies and amounts paid under the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, shall be paid to the Master Disbursement Trust to be applied in accordance with the MDT Priority Waterfall and the MDT Agreement.

(iii) Funding of the Master Disbursement Trust. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be funded with the proceeds of the MDT Transferred Assets.

(iv) Appointment and Role of the MDT Trustees. The board of trustees of the Master Disbursement Trust will consist of three (3) MDT Trustees with relevant experience. The MDT Trustees shall be disinterested and independent; provided, however, that such requirements shall not preclude any professional who represented parties in interest from serving as MDT Trustee nor any firm in which an MDT Trustee holds a financial interest from serving as a professional for the Master Disbursement Trust based solely on such previous representations. At least one (1) initial MDT Trustee shall be selected by the Settling States that have attorneys general from the Democratic Party, and at least one (1) initial MDT Trustee shall be selected by the Settling States that have attorneys general from the Republican Party, and such MDT Trustees shall select the third MDT Trustee (the "Settling States MDT Trustees"); provided that notwithstanding the above, in each case, each MDT Trustee shall be appointed with the consent of the Ad Hoc Committee in consultation with the MSGE Group and the Debtors, and the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The identity of the initial MDT Trustees shall be disclosed in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the initial MDT Trustees shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date. Each Settling States MDT Trustee may be removed and replaced at any time by the unanimous vote of the MDT Advisory Council Representatives from the same political party as such Settling States that selected such Settling States MDT Trustee. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Master Disbursement Trust and the Plan, the MDT Trustees shall:

(1) have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust;

(2) have the power and authority to perform all functions necessary to operate the Master Disbursement Trust, including, but not limited to, hiring employees or financial, tax, legal, or other necessary professionals to achieve the Master Disbursement Trust's objectives;

(3) be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust and the MDT Transferred Assets; and

(4) in all circumstances and at all times, act in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit and in the best interests of the MDT Beneficiaries, in furtherance of the purpose of the Master Disbursement Trust, and in accordance with the Plan, including Section 5.6(f) of the Plan, and the MDT Agreement.

(v) Appointment and Role of the MDT Advisory Council. There shall be an MDT Advisory Council established under the MDT Agreement that will consist of a total of seven (7) representatives (the "MDT Advisory Council Representatives," and each an "MDT Advisory Council Representative"), selected in the following manner: (i) two (2) representatives shall be selected by the representatives of Settling States that have a state attorney general from the Democratic Party; (ii) two (2) representatives shall be selected by the representatives of Settling States that have a state attorney general from the Republican Party, and (iii) these four (4) MDT Advisory Council Representatives shall select the fifth MDT Advisory Council Representative. In addition, one (1) MDT Advisory Council Representative shall be selected by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee and one (1) MDT Advisory Council Representative shall be selected by the MSGE Group. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, in each case, each MDT Advisory Council Representative shall be appointed with the consent of the Ad Hoc Committee. The Master Disbursement Trust shall regularly report to the MDT Advisory Council with respect to the operations and activities of the Master Disbursement Trust and the handling of all payments and Distributions made from the Master Disbursement Trust to the extent set forth in the MDT Agreement.

(vi) Obligations of the MDT Trustees. The MDT Trustees shall take into account the interests of, and owe fiduciary duties to, each of the MDT Beneficiaries in making all decisions on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust. In furtherance thereof:

(1) in the event of a Specified Breach (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement), the MDT Trustees will take into account the remaining rights of the Holders of MDT Claims as well as the interests of the Holders of MDT Interests in formulating and exercising appropriate remedies as they relate to the Shareholder Payment Parties and the Shareholder Release Snapback Parties, but shall in all events, to the extent there are obligations remaining to the Private Creditor Trusts upon such default, seek to utilize all other available sources of assets (including by first utilizing commercially reasonable efforts to pursue a Payment Remedy (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) before electing to pursue a Shareholder Release Remedy) to pay all outstanding amounts owed to the Holders of MDT Claims then-due or to be paid in the future from amounts due from such Breaching Shareholder Family Group until such outstanding amounts have been paid in full;

(2) the Master Disbursement Trust shall provide no less than ten (10) Business Days' advance written notice (unless urgent circumstances require less notice) to each MDT Beneficiary of any material action proposed to be taken in respect of the MDT Shareholder Rights, including any exercise of remedies under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements or the commencement or settlement of any litigation against any Shareholder Payment Party or Shareholder Release Snapback Party;

(3) to the extent there are any disputes raised by any MDT Beneficiary regarding the operation of the Master Disbursement Trust or the actions of the MDT Trustees (including, without limitation, any action related to the MDT Shareholder Rights), (A) any MDT Beneficiary shall have the right to seek resolution by the Bankruptcy Court of such a dispute, including seeking to enjoin any disputed action by the Master Disbursement Trust, and all MDT Trustees and MDT Beneficiaries shall have the right to be heard with regard to any such dispute, including by filing objections, declarations, statements in support or other pleadings (including with supporting evidence) or providing witness testimony at any hearing and (B) the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and resolve any such disputes, and shall be authorized to order appropriate relief (subject to the provisions of Section 5.6(f) of the Plan) and make a determination in an expedited manner, and in all events, shall make such a decision within thirty (30) days from the request for relief;

(4) upon the payment in full in Cash of any MDT Claim, the holder of such MDT Claim shall immediately cease to be an MDT Beneficiary for all purposes under the MDT Agreement, and the MDT Trustees shall have no further fiduciary duties to such holder, and such holder shall have no further rights to commence or participate in any action relating to the operations of the Master Disbursement Trust or the actions of the MDT Trustees;

(5) the Master Disbursement Trust shall (A) provide reasonable reporting to each of the other Creditor Trusts that hold MDT Claims regarding the MDT Trustees' activities at least every four (4) months (both cumulatively and in the period just ended), including with regard to the MDT Shareholder Rights (or any reporting received), any insurance proceedings, assets (including the value thereof), expenditures, distributions and forward-looking projections (subject to appropriate limitations to be agreed by the Debtors, the Governmental Consent Parties and the Creditors' Committee), (B) make themselves reasonably available in addition to holding at least one (1) call every four (4) months for the other Creditor Trustees to answer questions of such other Creditor Trustees relating to the Master Disbursement Trust's activities, (C) provide each Private Creditor Trust and the Public School Trust with quarterly reporting regarding Litigation Costs (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) and other items relating to litigation claims pertaining to such Creditor Trusts' applicable Creditor category as well as all other Creditor categories, and (D) provide the PI Trust with the information, consultation rights and notice as required pursuant to Section 5.2(e) of the Plan. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, the Master Disbursement Trust shall not be required to provide any reporting to any Creditor Trust to which the Master Disbursement Trust's duties cease pursuant to Section 5.6(f)(iv) of the Plan);

(6) the MDT Trustees shall be obligated to comply with the terms of the Plan, including Section 5.6(f) of the Plan, and the MDT Agreement; and

(7) in the event of any inconsistency between the terms of Section 5.6(f) of the Plan and any other provision of the Plan or the MDT Agreement, the terms of Section 5.6(f) of the Plan shall govern unless the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trustees for each of the Creditor Trusts mutually agree.

(vii) Assumption of Channeled Claims and Master TDP. As of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by the Master Disbursement Trust solely for the purpose of effectuating the Master TDP, pursuant to which each Channeled Claim shall either be automatically channeled to and assumed exclusively by a Creditor Trust or otherwise Disallowed and released in full. All Channeled Claims channeled to a Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP shall be administered and resolved solely pursuant to, and solely to the extent provided in, the applicable Creditor Trust TDP for such Creditor Trust. Distributions, in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, from the Creditor Trust to which a Channeled Claim is channeled, in accordance with the Master TDP, shall be the sole source of recovery, if any, in respect of such Channeled Claim, and the Holder of such Channeled Claim shall have no other or further recourse to the Protected Parties, including the Master Disbursement Trust. All Channeled Claims that are Disallowed and released and not channeled to a Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP shall have no recourse to any Protected Party, including the Master Disbursement Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any Channeled Claim have any recourse to the Assets of the Master Disbursement Trust. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Master Disbursement Trust, subject to and only to the extent provided in the MDT Documents, shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding the Channeled Claims that the Debtors, the Released Parties and the Shareholder Released Parties, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law, but solely to the extent consistent with the MDT Documents and the Plan; provided that, subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, no such Claims, defenses or rights may be asserted against any Protected Party; and provided, further, that all such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding any Channeled Claim that is channeled to a Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP shall be transferred to such Creditor Trust with such Channeled Claim, at which point, the Master Disbursement Trust shall no longer have such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Channeled Claim. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in Section 5.6(g) of the Plan shall limit or affect the transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights.

(viii) MDT Operating Expenses. . On the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the MDT Operating Reserve, which shall vest in the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 5.6(b) of the Plan and be held and maintained by the MDT Trustees. Periodically, until the dissolution of the Master Disbursement Trust, the MDT Trustees will replenish the MDT Operating Reserve from Cash held or received by the Master Disbursement Trust to the extent deemed necessary by the MDT Trustees to satisfy and pay estimated future MDT Operating Expenses; provided, however, that subject only to Section 5.2(g) of this Plan, payments received by the Master Disbursement Trust on account of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement shall be immediately transferred to the Governmental Remediation Trust and shall not be used to fund a Replenishment Transfer or the MDT Operating Reserve, and shall not be used to pay the MDT Claims. The MDT Trustees shall create and maintain an annual budget of MDT Operating Expenses, which shall be reviewed by, and reasonably acceptable to, the MDT Advisory Council. All MDT Operating Expenses shall be satisfied and paid from the MDT Operating Reserve. The MDT Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation and to retain and reasonably compensate counsel and other professionals, including any professional who represented parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, to assist in the duties of the Master Disbursement Trust on such terms as the MDT Trustees deem appropriate without Bankruptcy Court approval, subject to the provisions of the MDT Agreement. The initial compensation of the MDT Trustees shall be reasonably acceptable to the Debtors and the Governmental Consent Parties, and thereafter shall be subject to the annual budgets prepared by the MDT Trustees.

(ix) Transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights. In furtherance of the transfer of the MDT Transferred Assets to the Master Disbursement Trust and in accordance with the MDT Agreement, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall irrevocably transfer, grant and assign to the Master Disbursement Trust, and the Master Disbursement Trust shall receive and accept, any and all of the MDT Causes of Action and MDT Insurance Rights. To the extent any Insurance Company would be obligated in respect of any MDT Insurance Policy to pay any Channeled Claim on behalf of one or more of the Debtors, the Debtors shall transfer and assign to the Master Disbursement Trust the right to enforce such Insurance Company's obligation. The foregoing transfer shall be (i) free and clear of all encumbrances and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, (ii) made to the maximum extent possible under applicable law, (iii) absolute and without requirement of any further action by the Debtors, the Liquidating Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person, and (iv) governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Bankruptcy Code and the other applicable laws governing the applicable MDT Insurance Policies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Master Disbursement Trust shall become and remain liable in full for and shall satisfy, to the extent required under applicable law, any prospective premiums, deductibles, self-insured retentions and any other amounts or obligations arising in any way out of the receipt of payment from an Insurance Company in respect of the MDT Insurance Rights; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Master Disbursement Trust will not be required to pay premiums or any other amounts for Purdue Insurance Policies that are not MDT Insurance Policies. The transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights contemplated in Section 5.6(i) of the Plan is not an assignment of any insurance policy itself. The Confirmation Order shall contain findings reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties related to or necessary to preserve all MDT Insurance Rights.

(x) Transfer of MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. On the Effective Date, in consideration of the Shareholder Releases, the Shareholder Released Parties shall irrevocably transfer, grant, and assign to the Master Disbursement Trust, and the Master Disbursement Trust shall receive and accept, any and all MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. Each Shareholder Released Party shall be deemed to have irrevocably transferred, granted, and assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust any and all MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights without further action and without further consideration to such Shareholder Released Party. Pursuant to the Plan, the foregoing transfer shall be (i) free and clear of all encumbrances and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, (ii) made to the maximum extent possible under applicable law, (iii) absolute and without requirement of any further action by the Shareholder Released Parties, the Debtors, the Liquidating Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person, and (iv) governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Bankruptcy Code and the other applicable laws governing the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. The transfer of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights is not an assignment of any insurance policy itself. For the avoidance of doubt, the transfer of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights is in addition to the other obligations of the Shareholder Released Parties set forth in the Plan. The Shareholder Released Parties will make best efforts to provide the Master Disbursement Trust access to information and copies of documents that are reasonably necessary to preserve, secure, or obtain the benefit of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights, and will comply in all respects with the Plan to preserve, secure, or obtain the benefit of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights, including but not limited to the obligations set forth in Section 8.8(b) of the Plan. The Confirmation Order shall contain findings reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties related to or necessary to preserve all MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. Notwithstanding the foregoing in this paragraph, to the extent that (y) a Shareholder Released Party has, prior to the Effective Date, provided notice of a Claim under a Reserved MDT Insurance Policy under which a Shareholder Released Party is covered and (z) such Claim is not one for which such Shareholder Released Party receives the benefit of the Shareholder Releases (a "Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim"), such Shareholder Released Party shall not be deemed to have irrevocably transferred, granted, and assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust the Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim, and such Shareholder Released Party shall be entitled to pursue any such Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim prior to and after the Effective Date; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to the Retained Shareholder Insurance Claims, each Shareholder Released Party, in consideration of the Shareholder Releases, (A) will confer and fully cooperate with the Master Disbursement Trust in connection with the settlement of all claims or rights under such MDT Insurance Policy, including the Retained Shareholder Insurance Claims, and including but not limited to as set forth in Section 8.8(b)(i) of the Plan, and (B) in the event the Master Disbursement Trust has obtained settlement terms that it deems acceptable in its sole discretion, and such settlement terms include a settlement of any Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim, each Shareholder Released Party with rights under such Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim shall be deemed to consent to the release of any claims or rights held by such Shareholder Released Party against and under such MDT Insurance Policy, with the same effect as if such Shareholder Released Party had executed such settlement agreement, and without further consideration to such Shareholder Released Party from the insurance settlement proceeds or otherwise in respect of such settlement. After the Effective Date, no Shareholder Released Party shall be entitled to submit a claim under any MDT Insurance Policy (with the exception of a current or former director, officer, manager, authorized agent or employee that is not a Sackler Family Member, but solely to the extent such individual has a right to submit a claim after the Effective Date pursuant to Section 8.8(b)(ii) of the Plan).

(xi) Shareholder Insurance Release. On the Effective Date, in consideration of the Shareholder Releases, all Sackler Family Members shall irrevocably, fully and forever release and discharge any obligation to indemnify and/or to defend the Sackler Family Members under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019 for any Claim or loss of any type or nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown. The Sackler Family Members hereby surrender all rights, interest in and Claim to any benefit under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019, and acknowledge that (i) all rights, interest in and Claim to any benefit they may have under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019 are fully terminated on the Effective Date; and (ii) after the Effective Date, the Sackler Family Members will not receive and cannot claim any further benefits under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019 for any time period and shall have no rights whatsoever under or relating to the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019.

(xii) Institution and Maintenance of Legal and Other Proceedings. As of the date upon which the Master Disbursement Trust is established, the Master Disbursement Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all legal actions and other proceedings related to any Asset, liability or responsibility of the Master Disbursement Trust, including in respect of the MDT Causes of Action, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Shareholder Rights. Such legal actions and other proceedings shall be limited solely to those required for the purposes of satisfying the responsibilities of the Master Disbursement Trust, including in respect of the MDT Causes of Action, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Shareholder Rights. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all such actions in the name of the Debtors or their Estates, in each case if deemed necessary or appropriate by the MDT Trustees. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be responsible for the payment of all damages, awards, judgments, settlements, expenses, costs, fees and other charges incurred subsequent to the date upon which the Master Disbursement Trust is established arising from, or associated with, any legal action or other proceeding brought pursuant to the foregoing.

(xiii) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Master Disbursement Trust. The Master Disbursement Trust is intended to be treated, and shall be reported, as a "qualified settlement fund," and the receipt of (i) any MDT Transferred Assets (and any other amounts received by the Master Disbursement Trust pursuant to the Plan) that are treated as amounts transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust for purposes of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(b)(1) and (ii) the proceeds received in respect of any MDT Transferred Assets (and any other amounts received by the Master Disbursement Trust pursuant to the Plan) that are not described in clause (i) above (including, without limitation, proceeds received in respect of the MDT Shareholder Rights) by the Master Disbursement Trust are intended to be treated as amounts transferred by, or on behalf of, a "transferor" to a "qualified settlement fund," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations sections 1.468B-1 and 1.468B-2 for U.S. federal income tax purposes and shall be treated consistently for state and local tax purposes, to the extent applicable. All parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) shall report consistently with the foregoing for all applicable tax reporting purposes. An MDT Trustee shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of the Master Disbursement Trust. The administrator of the Master Disbursement Trust shall be responsible for filing all tax returns required to be filed by or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust and the payment, out of the Assets of the Master Disbursement Trust, of any taxes due by or imposed on the Master Disbursement Trust. The MDT Trustees may request an expedited determination under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all tax returns filed by or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Master Disbursement Trust. Nothing in Section 5.6(m) of the Plan shall be deemed to determine, expand or contract the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(xiv) Distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust Free and Clear. All Distributions made by the Master Disbursement Trust to the MDT Beneficiaries shall be made in accordance with the notice provisions of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, as applicable, and in the absence of applicable notice provisions therein to the applicable Creditor Trust, as directed in writing by the corresponding trustees, on no less than ten (10) Business Days' notice to all MDT Beneficiaries; provided that such advance notice requirements shall not be required for the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions, Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions or the Initial Public Schools Distribution. Such Distributions thereafter shall become the property of such MDT Beneficiary, free and clear of all Claims, Liens or other recourse or encumbrances, and shall not be subject to attachment, disgorgement or recoupment by any Person. Such distributions to each Creditor Trust shall become the property of such Creditor Trust, and shall be used for the administration (including the payment of Creditor Trust Operating Expenses) of such Creditor Trust, to make Distributions on account of Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust TDP and for such other purposes as may be specifically set forth in the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

(xv) Dissolution, Release of Reserves and Residual Value. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be dissolved and the MDT Trustees shall be discharged from their respective duties with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust upon completion of their duties as set forth in the Plan and the MDT Agreement, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be no earlier than the date on which (i) all Assets held by the Master Disbursement Trust, including the MDT Transferred Assets, have been liquidated and (ii) all payments and other distributions required to be made from the Master Disbursement Trust under the Plan and the MDT Agreement have been made, including payment in full in Cash of all MDT Claims, unless dissolution on an earlier date is authorized pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court. Upon dissolution of the Master Disbursement Trust, any Cash remaining in the MDT Operating Reserve or otherwise held by the Master Disbursement Trust shall be distributed in accordance with the MDT Priority Waterfall and the MDT Agreement; provided that, in the event the Master Disbursement Trust is dissolved prior to the payment in full in Cash of all MDT Claims, all outstanding amounts under such MDT Claims shall be deemed due and payable for purposes of the distribution of such remaining Cash pursuant to the MDT Priority Waterfall. Subject to the foregoing sentences, the Master Disbursement Trust shall be dissolved at such time as the MDT Trustees determine that the administration of any remaining assets of the Master Disbursement Trust is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit.

(xvi) Exculpation and Indemnification of the MDT Trustee and the MDT Advisory Council Representatives. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each of the MDT Trustees, and MDT Advisory Council Representatives shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as an MDT Trustee or MDT Advisory Council Representative, or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of his or her actions or inactions in his or her capacity as an MDT Trustee or MDT Advisory Council Representative, or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust, and for any other liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses arising out of or due to the implementation or administration of the Plan or the MDT Agreement, in each case, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of the MDT Trustees or the MDT Advisory Council Representatives shall be satisfied from the MDT Operating Reserve.

*7. Special Operating Reserve; Released Claims Reserves.

(i) Establishment of Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves.

(1) On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish the Special Operating Reserve which shall vest in the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 5.6(b) of the Plan and be held and maintained by the Master Disbursement Trust. The Special Operating Reserve shall be funded initially in the aggregate amount of $200 million by withholding, in each case from Shareholder Estate Settlement Distributions, (a) $20 million from the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions and (b) $180 million from the Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions (the "SOR Holdback")[; provided, however, that neither the Initial Public Schools Distribution, nor any additional payments due under the MDT Public School District Claim, shall be subject to the SOR Holdback.][135] The Master Disbursement Trust, as administrative agent, shall facilitate the releases from the Special Operating Reserve in accordance with terms and consent procedures set forth in [Exhibit N] to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(2) On the Effective Date, each Creditor Trust and the Plan Administration Trust shall establish the Released Claims Reserves and, once amounts are funded from the corresponding Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserves or the Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims Reserve in accordance with Section 7.8(b) of the Plan or Section 7.8(c) of the Plan, as applicable, be otherwise held and maintained by such Creditor Trust or the Plan Administration Trust, in each case, with the Master Disbursement Trust serving as administrative agent with respect thereto. The Master Disbursement Trust, as administrative agent, shall facilitate the releases from the Released Claims Reserves in accordance with terms and consent procedures set forth in Exhibit N to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(ii) Reversion of Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves. Subject in all respects to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, on the First Reversion Date, (A) one third (1/3) of the balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve and each Released Claims Reserves will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, respectively, after completion of all requirements set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (B) Replenishment Transfers shall cease.

(1) Unless and until Material Litigation is commenced or continued prior to any of the times set forth below against any Shareholder Released Party after the First Reversion Date, then:

(A) Upon the first anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, fifty percent (50%) of each of the remaining balance of the Released Claims Reserves and Special Operating Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust, the Plan Administration Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust, respectively;

(B) Upon the second anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, fifty percent (50%) of each of the remaining balance of the Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust, the Plan Administration Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust, respectively; and

(C) Thereafter, upon the date when no litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, the remaining balance of each of the Released Claims Reserves and Special Operating Reserve will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust, the Plan Administration Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust, respectively.

(2) Upon a Suspension Event:

(A) All releases from the Released Claims Reserves and Special Operating Reserve described in Section 5.7(b)(i) of the Plan shall cease; and

(B) If the Material Litigation is of the type referenced in clause (1)(a) of the definition of "Material Litigation" in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (i.e., any litigation by a Material Litigant against Shareholder Released Parties regarding Covered Conduct) or clause (2) thereof (500 or more separate lawsuits (i.e., not aggregated and not in a class) pending against Shareholder Released Parties concerning Covered Conduct being pursued by non-Material Litigants), the Master Disbursement Trust shall resume Replenishment Transfers pursuant to Section 5.7(b)(i) of the Plan.

(C) Following a Suspension Event, a new First Reversion Date shall occur on the next date when no Material Litigation is or has been pending for thirty (30) days. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall report the occurrence of a new First Reversion Date to the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 7(b)(v)(B) of Exhibit N the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. On such new First Reversion Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, Replenishment Transfers shall cease and one third (1/3) of the balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust and/or Plan Administration Trust, respectively, in accordance with Section 5.7(b)(iii) of the Plan, after completion of all requirements set forth in Exhibit N to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

Thereafter:

(D) Upon the first anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, one half (1/2) of the remaining balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable; and

(E) Upon the second anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, one half (1/2) of the remaining balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable.

(F) Thereafter, upon the date when no litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, the remaining balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable;

provided, that if money remains in the Released Claims Reserves or the Special Operating Reserve after the twelfth (12th) SSA Payment Date, then:

(G) All remaining funds in the Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable, no later than thirty (30) days after the first date that no Material Litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is pending.

(H) All but $25 million of the remaining funds in the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust for the benefit of the applicable Creditor Trust(s) no later than six (6) months after the first date that no Material Litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is pending; and all funds remaining in the Special Operating Reserve from the $25 million described in clause (H) of this proviso will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust for distribution to the Creditor Trusts pursuant to Section 5.7(b)(iii) no later than six (6) months after the first date that no litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is pending.

(3) Master Disbursement Trust shall first allocate all reversion funds received from the Special Operating Reserve to the Private Creditor Trusts in proportion to their respective SOR Holdback until they have received a cumulative amount of such reversion funds equal to the Private Claimants' Priority Reversion.

(4) If by the ninth (9th) SSA Payment Date the Master Disbursement Trust has not made allocations to the Private Creditor Trusts pursuant to Section 5.7(b)(iii) of the Plan in an amount equal to the Private Claimants' Priority Reversion, then the Special Operating Reserve shall release funds to the Master Disbursement Trust for distribution to the Private Creditor Trusts on the ninth (9th) SSA Payment Date in an amount equal to the shortfall. Upon a release from the Special Operating Reserve to the Master Disbursement Trust pursuant to Sections 5.7(b)(i)(C) or 5.7(b)(ii)(C) of the Plan, the Master Disbursement Trust will allocate $200,000 immediately prior to such release to the Private Creditor Trusts.

(iii) [U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves. The Special Operating Reserve and each of the Released Claims Reserves is intended to be treated and shall be reported as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Pursuant to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, PRA L.P. will timely elect to treat the Special Operating Reserve and each of the Released Claims Reserves as a "grantor trust" pursuant to Section 1.468B-1(k) of the Treasury Regulations, for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, to the extent permitted under applicable law, for state and local tax purposes, for which PRA L.P. is the sole grantor, owner and transferor, and will not revoke such election. All parties (including the Shareholder Payment Parties, the Debtors, the Foundation, the Plan Administration Trustee, each applicable Creditor Trustee, the MDT Trustees and Holders of Non-Participating Claims and other Disputed Claims) shall be required to report for tax purposes in a manner consistent with the foregoing. An MDT Trustee shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of the Special Operating Reserve. The Creditor Trustee corresponding to the Creditor Trust that holds each Released Claims Reserve shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of each such Released Claims Reserve. PRA L.P. shall be responsible for payment of any taxes imposed on or collected from the Special Operating Reserve, any of the Released Claims Reserves or the assets or income of any of the foregoing.]

8. Creditor Trusts

(i) Establishment and Purpose of the Creditor Trusts. The Confirmation Order shall endorse and direct, to the extent not already established, the establishment of the Creditor Trusts on or prior to the Effective Date in accordance with the terms of the respective Creditor Trust Documents. The Creditor Trusts shall be independent from the Holders of Claims against the Debtors and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (other than as specifically set forth in the Creditor Trust Documents). The Creditor Trusts shall be established for the purposes described in the Plan and any other purposes more fully described in the Creditor Trust Documents. Each Creditor Trust shall, in each case, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents:

(1) hold, manage and invest all funds and other Assets received by such Creditor Trust from the Debtors and the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable (including, with respect to the Public Creditor Trusts, the MDT Interests), in each case, for the benefit of the beneficiaries of such Creditor Trust;

(2) hold and maintain the Creditor Trust Operating Reserve of such Creditor Trust;

(3) administer, process, resolve and liquidate Channeled Claims, including Non-Participating Channeled Claims, applicable to such Creditor Trust, in each case as provided in the applicable Creditor Trust Documents;

(4) establish and administer the applicable Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves;

(5) establish and administer the applicable Released Claims Reserves; and

(6) exercise rights over any proposed use of funds in the applicable Released Claims Reserve held in such Creditor Trust to the extent set forth in Exhibit N to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(ii) Role of the Creditor Trustees. In furtherance of and consistent with the purposes of the Creditor Trusts and the Plan, the Creditor Trustees shall have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the respective Creditor Trusts, subject to the Creditor Trust Documents for such Creditor Trusts. The Creditor Trustees shall undertake all administrative responsibilities as are provided in the Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. The Creditor Trustees shall be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the respective Creditor Trusts, subject to the Creditor Trust Documents for such Creditor Trusts. In all circumstances, each Creditor Trustee shall be independent and disinterested and, in its capacity as a Creditor Trustee, shall act in the best interests of the beneficiaries of such Creditor Trust, in furtherance of the purpose of such Creditor Trust and in accordance with the Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. In accordance with the Creditor Trust Documents, each Creditor Trustee shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (x) the date that the applicable Creditor Trust is dissolved in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and (y) the date such Creditor Trustee resigns, is terminated or is otherwise unable to serve for any reason.

(iii) Appointment of the Creditor Trustees and Creditor Trust Overseers. In furtherance of and consistent with the purposes of the Creditor Trusts and the Plan, the Creditor Trust Documents for each of the Creditor Trusts shall provide for the appointment of the Creditor Trustees and, if applicable, Creditor Trust Overseers for each of the Creditor Trusts. The identity of the initial Creditor Trustees and the initial Creditor Trust Overseers shall be as disclosed in the Plan Supplement as of the date hereof, or shall otherwise be:

(1) with respect to the Governmental Remediation Trust, selected in accordance with the terms of the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents;

(2) with respect to the Tribe Trust, selected by the Native American Tribe Group with the consent of the Debtors (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or denied);

(3) with respect to each of the following Private Creditor Trusts, selected as follows: (A) with respect to the TPP Trust, by the Third-Party Payor Group, (B) with respect to the Hospital Trust, by the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, (C) with respect to the ERP Trust, by the ERP Trustee (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Trustee and/or Creditor Trust Overseer for the ERP Trust may be the ERP Trustee) and (D) with respect to the PI Trust, by the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims; and

(4) with respect to the Public School Trust, by the Public School District Claimants.

(iv) PI Trust Distributions. The PI Trust shall, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and the PI Trust Documents, make Distributions on account of Allowed PI Channeled Claims to Holders of such Allowed PI Channeled Claims, subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks, which Distributions may be made directly to the Holder of the PI Claim (if pro se), to counsel for the Holder of the PI Claim by payment to the respective counsel's client trust account or by sending a check to the respective counsel's address that is payable jointly to such counsel and the Holder of the PI Claim. The PI Trust shall establish the PI Trust NAS Fund and the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund, and shall deposit (i) the NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust NAS Fund and (ii) the Non-NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund, in each case, periodically as funds are received by the PI Trust. The PI Trust shall make Distributions on account of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims solely from the PI Trust NAS Fund in accordance with the NAS PI TDP, and shall make Distributions on account of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims solely from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund in accordance with the Non-NAS PI TDP, in each case, subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks.

(v) Rights of the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust under the LRP Agreement. Pursuant to and in accordance with the LRP Agreement, the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust shall have the right (i) to inquire periodically with the Creditor Trustee for the PI Trust, the claims administrator appointed in respect of the PI Trust and the escrow agent for the TPP LRP Escrow Account as to whether the TPP LRP Escrow Account has been properly funded and payments therefrom are being made to the LRP Participating TPPs as required under the LRP Agreement, and to request evidence of the same and (ii) to seek entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the LRP Agreement, including the obligations to provide such information and evidence, in the event the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust reasonably believes that the TPP LRP Escrow Account has not been properly funded as required by the LRP Agreement, payments have not been made to LRP Participating TPPs as required by the LRP Agreement, and/or any of the Creditor Trustee for the PI Trust, the claims administrator appointed in respect of the PI Trust and the escrow agent for the TPP LRP Escrow Account is not responding to reasonable requests by the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust for such information and evidence.

(vi) Assumption of Obligations and Liabilities. In furtherance of the purposes of the Plan and the Creditor Trusts, pursuant to the Master TDP and subject to the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, each Creditor Trust shall (i) expressly assume sole and exclusive responsibility and liability for (A) the Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP and (B) all Creditor Trust Operating Expenses of such Creditor Trust and (ii) have (A) the rights provided to such Creditor Trust in accordance with the Private Entity Settlements and Public Entity Settlements and (B) all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Channeled Claims that the Debtors, the Released Parties and the Shareholder Released Parties, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law, but solely to the extent consistent with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and the Plan; provided that no such Claims, defenses or rights may be asserted against any Protected Party.

(vii) Administration of Channeled Claims and Creditor Trust TDPs. Pursuant to the Master TDP, (i) all Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims will be administered by the Governmental Remediation Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents, (ii) all Tribe Channeled Claims will be administered by the Tribe Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Tribe TDP, (iii) all Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims will be administered by the TPP Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the TPP TDP, (iv) all Hospital Channeled Claims will be administered by the Hospital Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Hospital TDP, (v) all Public School Channeled Claims will be administered by the Public School Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Public School TDP, (vi) all ER Physician Channeled Claims will be administered by the ERP Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the ERP TDP, and (vii) all PI Channeled Claims will be administered by the PI Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the PI TDP. Each of the Creditor Trusts shall be funded in accordance with the Public Entity Settlements and the Private Entity Settlements, as applicable. The Creditor Trust shall, in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and/or the Creditor Trust TDPs, (y) determine the eligibility, amount and Allowance (if applicable) of such Channeled Claims; and (z) make all determinations with respect to Distributions to be made by the respective Creditor Trusts. The foregoing determinations by the Creditor Trusts shall be final and binding, and shall not be subject to any challenge or review of any kind, by any court or other Person, except as set forth in the Creditor Trust TDPs. Distributions by the Creditor Trusts shall be the sole source of recovery, if any, in respect of Channeled Claims, and Holders of Channeled Claims shall have no other or further recourse to the Protected Parties; provided that the foregoing shall not diminish, or otherwise alter, the rights of LRP Participating TPPs under the LRP Agreement or the rights of non-LRP Participating TPPs at law.

(viii) Trust Reporting Obligations. Each of the Plan Administration Trust and the Creditor Trusts shall be required to provide (i) any periodic forwarding, not more frequently than every three months, of applicable bank statements with respect to the Released Claims Reserves and Claims Reserves, or, (ii) solely at the applicable trustee's election, such other reporting as provides the Master Disbursement Trust with substantially similar relevant information as appears in such bank statements, in each case, which the applicable trustee may redact (or cause to be redacted) to exclude information that it considers not reasonably necessary for the Master Disbursement Trust to provide information with respect to the Released Claims Reserves and Claims Reserves.

(ix) Institution and Maintenance of Legal and Other Proceedings. As of the date upon which each Creditor Trust is established, such Creditor Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all legal actions and other proceedings related to any Asset, liability or responsibility of such Creditor Trust. Such legal actions and other proceedings shall be limited solely to those required for purposes of reconciling, administering or defending against the Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust and for enforcing the rights of such Creditor Trust under the Plan and the Plan Documents (including the rights of the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust specifically enumerated in the LRP Agreement). Each Creditor Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all such actions in the name of the Debtors or their Estates, in each case if deemed necessary by the applicable Creditor Trustee to fulfill the purposes for which such Creditor Trust was created. Each Creditor Trust shall be responsible for the payment of all damages, awards, judgments, settlements, expenses, costs, fees and other charges incurred subsequent to the date upon which such Creditor Trust is established arising from, or associated with, any legal action or other proceeding brought pursuant to the foregoing. For the avoidance of doubt, each Creditor Trust, pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable state corporate law, is appointed as the successor-in-interest to, and representative of, the Debtors and their Estates for the retention, enforcement, settlement or adjustment of the applicable Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust.

(x) Creditor Trust Operating Expenses. The Creditor Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation and to retain and reasonably compensate counsel and other professionals to assist in their duties without Bankruptcy Court approval, subject to the provisions of the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. Creditor Trust Operating Expenses of each Creditor Trust shall be satisfied and paid from such Creditor Trust's Creditor Trust Operating Reserve in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. Periodically, until the dissolution of a Creditor Trust, the applicable Creditor Trustee will replenish the Creditor Trust Operating Reserve from Cash held or received by such Creditor Trust to the extent deemed necessary by such Creditor Trustee to satisfy and pay estimated future Creditor Trust Operating Expenses in accordance with the Creditor Trust Documents.

(xi) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Creditor Trusts. Each Creditor Trust (other than any Tribe Trust entity that is formed as a legal entity other than a trust) is intended to be treated, and shall be reported, as a "qualified settlement fund," and the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions, distributions on account of the MDT Private Claims, Public Creditor Trust Distributions, Initial Public Schools Distribution, distributions on account of the MDT Public School Districts Claim, the right to receive Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash, and any other amounts received pursuant to the Plan, as applicable, made to such Creditor Trust are intended to be treated as amounts transferred by, or on behalf of, a "transferor" to a "qualified settlement fund," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations sections 1.468B-1 and 1.468B-2 for U.S. federal income tax purposes and shall be treated consistently for state and local tax purposes to the extent applicable. All parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to report consistently with the foregoing for all applicable tax reporting purposes. A Creditor Trustee from each relevant Creditor Trust shall be the "administrator" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3) of the applicable Creditor Trust. The administrator of each such Creditor Trust shall be responsible for filing all tax returns required to be filed by or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trust and the payment, out of the assets of such Creditor Trust, of any taxes due by or imposed on such Creditor Trust. Each Creditor Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all tax returns filed by or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of such Creditor Trust. Nothing in Section 5.8(k) of the Plan shall be deemed to determine, expand or contract the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(xii) Exculpation and Indemnification of the Creditor Trustees and the Creditor Trust Overseers. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Creditor Trustees and Creditor Trust Overseers shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee or Creditor Trust Overseer, or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trust, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of his or her actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee or Creditor Trust Overseer, or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trusts, and for any other liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses arising out of or due to the implementation or administration of the Plan or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, in each case, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any of the Creditor Trustees or Creditor Trust Overseers shall be satisfied from the respective Creditor Trusts.

(xiii) Dissolution of the Creditor Trusts. Each Creditor Trust shall be dissolved and the applicable Creditor Trustee shall be discharged from its duties with respect to such Creditor Trust upon completion of its duties and the satisfaction of the purposes of the Creditor Trust as set forth in the Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

9. Attorneys' Fees and Costs[136]

(1) Local Government Costs and Expenses. On the Effective Date, the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be established for the payment of certain attorneys' fees and costs of Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims (other than States) subject to the terms set forth in the Plan, other than amounts paid pursuant to the AHC Reimbursement Agreement Assumption Order, the MSGE Group Reimbursement Order or any other Order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(A) The Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be funded beginning on the second MDT Distribution Date (the "Initial LG Costs Funding Date") and continuing on each Scheduled MDT Distribution Date thereafter, from periodic distributions in an amount equal to [8.5]% of the

Distributions made on account of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims, excluding (A) any Distributions relating to MDT Insurance Proceeds, and (B) any amounts distributed on account of such Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims on the Effective Date, but including any Distributions on account of amounts payable under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement (other than such Distributions on the Effective Date); provided that the amount to be distributed to the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall not exceed $[370] million in the aggregate (the "Aggregate LG Cost Cap"); provided, further that amounts funded pursuant to section 5.9(a) of the Plan shall be allocated and applied solely in accordance with Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement for the benefit of counsel to Subdivisions constituting Prior Litigating Subdivisions (as defined in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement) as of the Petition Date, in each case, as follows: (i) $4 million annually for a maximum of five (5) years (plus [4.25%] of any Distribution constituting a Settlement Prepayment (as defined under the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement)), to the "Cost Fund," as defined in Exhibit R, established in the MDL Proceeding, not to exceed $20 million in the aggregate, and (ii) for any additional amounts (A) [40%] to the "Contingency Fee Fund," as defined in Exhibit R, established in the MDL Proceeding (which fund is to be managed by the fee panel appointed in connection with the MDL Proceeding), not to exceed $140 million, and (iii) [60%] to the "Common Benefit [Fee] Fund," as defined in Exhibit R, established in the MDL Proceeding, not to exceed $210 million in the aggregate; provided further, as consideration for the settlement between holders of certain public and private Claims regarding Special Operating Reserves, timing of payment and allocation matters, the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall also be funded with, and allocated solely in accordance with Exhibit R, Distributions made on account of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims (as qualified in Section 5.9(a)(i) of the Plan) in an amount equal to [8.5]% of (i) the incremental $80 million of Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions (provided that funding of the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund with respect to such distributions shall not be made until the Initial LG Costs Funding Date); and (ii) up to $20 million of amounts payable in respect of (A) the Private Claimants' Priority Reversion and (B) the other amounts contemplated to be paid under [Section 5.05(e)] of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, in each case, that become payable to the Private Creditor Trusts in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, which amounts shall be subject in each case to the Aggregate LG Cost Cap.

(B) In addition to the amounts described in subsection (i) above, the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be funded, and allocated solely in accordance with Exhibit R, on or after the Initial LG Costs Funding Date with an additional amount equal to 12.4% of the MDT Insurance Proceeds which amounts, if any, shall be deposited into an account designated by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee for the benefit of the "Common Benefit [Fee] Fund" established in the MDL Proceeding, and as described in Exhibit R, and shall be incremental to, and not otherwise count against, the Aggregate LG Cost Cap; provided, for the avoidance of doubt, such funded amounts shall not be considered "Distributions" for the purpose of subsection (i) above; provided, further, such amounts shall be subject, to the prior payment in full of the MDT PI Claim pursuant to and in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(ii) of the Plan.

(C) Payments from the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be [administered in accordance with Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement and be][137] the exclusive means of payment from the Creditor Trusts for costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) of any Holder of a Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim (other than a State) or any attorney therefor, other than (i) amounts paid or to be paid from the Creditor Trusts in accordance with existing agreements, contracts or statutes setting forth the allocation and uses of abatement funds or backstop fee arrangements between States and their Subdivisions; and (ii) amounts paid in accordance with the order of the MDL Court establishing the Common Benefit Fund; provided, however, nothing in Section 5.9(a)(iii) of the Plan [or Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement] shall override the payment obligations contemplated by Section 5.9(a)(i) of the Plan.

(D) [Except as otherwise agreed in writing by the MSGE Group and the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, the MSGE Fee Allocation Agreement shall be and remain fully enforceable and shall apply to the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund]; provided that the costs associated with the arbitration process contemplated under the MSGE Fee Allocation Agreement shall not be paid by the Debtors, their Estates or any Creditor Trust.

(2) State Costs and Expenses. On the Effective Date, the State Expenses Fund shall be established for the payment of expenses (including attorneys' fees) of the States (including any ad hoc group thereof), other than amounts already paid, or any amounts paid or payable under the AHC Reimbursement Agreement Assumption Order, the MSGE Group Reimbursement Order or any other Order of the Bankruptcy Court; provided that the State Expenses Fund shall be funded beginning on the second MDT Distribution Date and continuing on each Scheduled MDT Distribution Date thereafter. The State Expenses Fund shall be funded from periodic distributions in an amount equal to [4.5]% of the Distributions made on account of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims, excluding any amounts distributed on account of such Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims on the Effective Date, but including (a) any Distributions on account of amounts payable under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement (other than such Distributions on the Effective Date), and (b) any Distributions relating to MDT Insurance Proceeds; provided that such amount shall not exceed $[200][138] million in the aggregate (the "Aggregate State Expenses Cap"). For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any of the provisions of Sections 5.9(a) or (b) of the Plan, [Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement] [or any order of the MDL Court (including the order establishing the Common Benefit Fund)] have any effect on the Distributions made to Holders of Claims in Classes [____] (or the rights of any of their attorneys to receive payment) other than the recognition of the priority of Section 5.2(e)(ii) of the Plan in such provisions.[139]

(3) Common Benefit Fund Assessments. On the Effective Date, the following assessments shall be made to the account directed in Exhibit [●], which is the Common Benefit Fund established by the MDL Court (the "Common Benefit Fund"): (i) 5% of each Distribution made by the Private Creditor Trusts, and (ii) 5% of the Initial Public Schools' Distribution. Assessments from the Private Creditor Trusts shall be paid [on periodic schedules for

[139] For the avoidance of doubt, no order of the MDL Court establishing the Common Benefit Fund will have any effect on any Private Claimant or its counsel, nor will the MDL Court have jurisdiction to interpret, decide, hear disputes, or enforce any provision of or regarding the Plan or the Confirmation Order [or any of the agreements or documents related thereto].

each Private Creditor Trust acceptable to the Governmental Consent Parties, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the Third-Party Payor Group, the NAS Committee and the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims,] as applicable. The assessments payable by the Public School Trust shall be deducted from and paid at the time of the fee award described in Section 5.9(h)(ii) of the Plan. All assessments of 5% of each Distribution made by the Private Creditor Trusts shall be transferred to and distributed in accordance with the order of the MDL Court establishing the Common Benefit Fund. To the extent a Holder of a Hospital Channeled Claim, a Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim, an NAS PI Channeled Claim or a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim (or any ad hoc group consisting of Holders of any of the foregoing) has retained counsel through a contingency fee arrangement, any contingency fees owed to such contingency counsel payable from Distributions under the Plan shall be reduced by the full amount payable under Section 5.9(a) of the Plan.[140] However, the applicable Holder and its counsel, in their sole discretion, may agree that an amount up to but not exceeding 40% of the amount payable under Section 5.9(a) of the Plan may be applied to the reimbursement of actual costs and expenses incurred by such Holder's counsel, in which case such agreed cost-reimbursement amount shall not reduce the contingency fee amounts payable to such counsel.

(4) Hospital Costs and Expenses. On the Effective Date, the Hospital Attorney Fee Fund shall be established for the payment of attorneys' fees and costs of the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals with respect to Hospital Channeled Claims. The Hospital Attorney Fee Fund shall be funded with (i) 20% of each Distribution made to the Hospital Trust less (ii) the amount of such Distributions payable to the Common Benefit Fund under Section 5.9(c) of the Plan. The Hospital Attorney Fee Fund shall be administered by the Hospital Trust on terms acceptable to the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals.

(5) Ratepayer Costs and Expenses. In the event that the Ratepayer Mediation Participants Stipulation has been entered into on or prior to the Effective Date, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the attorneys' fees of the Ratepayer Mediation Participants shall be paid from Effective Date Cash in an amount not to exceed $1.4 million.

(6) ERP Costs and Expenses. The ERP Trust shall pay or reimburse, as applicable, the compensation, costs and expenses of professionals that represented or advised the ERP Trustee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, to the extent provided for in the ERP Trust Documents.

[140] For the avoidance of doubt, any amount payable to counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims or the Ad Hoc Group of NAS Children on an hourly basis (including incremental amounts in consideration of deferring payment of hourly fees) shall not constitute a "contingency fee," and the agreement in respect thereof shall not constitute a "contingency fee arrangement," in each case for purposes of Section 5.9 of the Plan.

(7) Holder of the PI Claims Costs and Expenses

(A) Debtors shall pay the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims subject to the entry of a Final Order granting the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims' request for allowance of such fees and expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which request shall be supported by the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and considered at the Confirmation Hearing. In the event such a Final Order is (i) not entered or (ii) entered allowing fees and expenses in an amount less than reasonable and documented fees and expenses requested, then (A) the PI Trustee shall pay or reimburse, as applicable, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of professionals that represented or advised the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, as and to the extent provided in the PI Trust Agreement and subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such fees and expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order and (B) such fees and expenses paid or reimbursed, as applicable, by the PI Trust shall be deducted from Distributions from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims pursuant to the PI Trust Documents.

(B) The PI Trustee shall pay or reimburse, as applicable, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of professionals that represented or advised the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, as and to the extent provided in the PI Trust Agreement and subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such fees and expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order. Such compensation, costs and fees paid or reimbursed, as applicable, by the PI Trust shall be deducted from Distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims and pursuant to the PI Trust Documents. Nothing in Section 5.9 of the Plan shall impair or otherwise affect any fee contract that is not a contingency fee contract between the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and its professionals, or between the NAS Committee and its professionals.

(8) Public Schools' Costs and Expenses. From the Initial Public Schools Distribution, the Public School Trust shall:

(A) dedicate an amount of $500,000 for payment or reimbursement, as applicable, of the out-of-pocket litigation expenses, such as for special bankruptcy counsel and expert fees and expenses, of professionals that represented or advised the Public School District Claimants to be computed based upon reasonable hourly rates and costs incurred, and not to include any premium to reasonable hourly rates, and subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such litigation expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order; and

(B) pay or reimburse, as applicable, the reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs of the Public School District Claimants' putative class counsel in an amount determined by mediator Ken Feinberg (which amount is not to exceed such class counsel's contractual contingency fee of 25% of the Initial Public Schools Distribution) subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such litigation expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order, less the amount payable to the Common Benefit Fund under Section 5.9(c) of the Plan.

(9) No Impairment of Contingency Fee Contracts; No Further Assessment. Except as expressly set forth in Section 5.9 of the Plan, nothing in the Plan shall impair or otherwise affect any contingency fee contract between any Holder of a Claim (or any ad hoc group of Holders of Claims) and such Holder's (or ad hoc group's) counsel. In this regard, the payment of the assessments described in Section 5.9 of the Plan shall be the only payment that such Holders (or their counsel) shall ever have to make to the Common Benefit Fund with respect to amounts distributed under the Plan, and amounts distributed pursuant to the Plan to such Holders or payments to attorneys in respect thereof shall not be subject to any further or other common benefit or similar assessments.

10. Transferability of Distribution Rights

Any right to receive a Distribution or other payment from the Plan Administration Trust (including any PAT Distribution Account or PAT Reserve), a Creditor Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust shall not be evidenced by any certificate, security, receipt or in any other form or manner whatsoever, except on the books and records of the Plan Administration Trust (as maintained by the Plan Administration Trustee), the applicable Creditor Trust (as maintained by the applicable Creditor Trustees) or the Master Disbursement Trust (as maintained by the MDT Trustees), as applicable. Further, any right to receive a Distribution or other payment from the Plan Administration Trust (including any PAT Distribution Account or PAT Reserve), a Creditor Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust shall be nontransferable and nonassignable except by will, intestate, succession or operation of law or as otherwise provided in the Plan, the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement or the MDT Agreement. Any rights to receive a Distribution or other payment from the Plan Administration Trust (including any PAT Distribution Account or PAT Reserve), a Creditor Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust shall not constitute "securities" and shall not be registered pursuant to the Securities Act. If it is determined that such rights constitute "securities," the exemption provisions of section 1145(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code would be satisfied and such securities would be exempt from registration.

11. Insurance Neutrality

Nothing in the Plan, the Plan Documents or the Confirmation Order shall alter, supplement, change, decrease or modify the terms (including conditions, limitations and/or exclusions) of the Purdue Insurance Policies, including the MDT Insurance Policies; provided that, notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, the enforceability and applicability of the terms (including conditions, limitations and/or exclusions) of the Purdue Insurance Policies, including the MDT Insurance Policies, and thus the rights or obligations of any of the Insurance Companies, the Debtors and the applicable post-Effective Date Entities, including the Master Disbursement Trust, arising out of or under any Purdue Insurance Policy, including any MDT Insurance Policy, whether before or after the Effective Date, are subject to the Bankruptcy Code and applicable law (including any actions or obligations of the Debtors thereunder), the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order (including the findings contained therein or issued in conjunction therewith, including but not limited to any findings pursuant to Sections 5.2 and 5.6(i) of the Plan) and, to the extent the Insurance Companies have or had adequate notice from any source, any other ruling made or order entered by the Bankruptcy Court whether prior to or after the Confirmation Date. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in the Plan, the Plan Documents or the Confirmation Order shall operate to require any Insurance Company to pay under any Purdue Insurance Policy the liability of any Person that was not an insured prior to the Petition Date.

12. Transfer of Books and Records; Cooperation; Privilege

(i) Transfer of Books and Records to NewCo and the Plan Administration Trust. Except with respect to Excluded Assets, all documents, books and records of the Debtors shall be transferred and assigned to NewCo on or prior to the Effective Date pursuant to the NewCo Transfer Agreement; provided that, from and after the date of such transfer, the Plan Administration Trustee shall have the right to retain copies of all transferred documents, books and records and NewCo shall permit the Plan Administration Trustee and its counsel and representatives to have full access to such transferred documents, books and records. All documents, books and records of the Debtors that are Excluded Assets shall be transferred and assigned to the Plan Administration Trust; provided that, except for the Excluded Privileged Materials, NewCo shall receive copies of all documents, books and records of the Debtors that are Excluded Assets. Any documents transferred under Section 5.12(a) of the Plan that are documents that were produced to the Debtors by Shareholder Released Parties in connection with Purdue Legal Matters shall continue to remain subject to the terms of the Protective Order and any order of the Bankruptcy Court or provision of the Plan affording confidentiality protections to such documents, unless such documents are included in the Public Document Repository in accordance with the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(ii) Cooperation with the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts. On the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall transfer and assign, or cause to be transferred and assigned, (i) to the MDT Trustees, (A) copies of all MDT Insurance Policies, (B) information and copies of documents, including books and records of the Debtors that reasonably relate to (I) any Claims previously noticed, tendered or submitted or paid by any Insurance Company under the MDT Insurance Policies and (II) any MDT Causes of Action, and (C) other information and copies of all other documents, including books and records of the Debtors that are reasonably necessary to preserve, secure or obtain the benefit of the MDT Insurance Rights, pursue the MDT Causes of Action or liquidate any other MDT Transferred Assets and (ii) to each Creditor Trust, a copy of the Proofs of Claims for Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust. Subject to Section 5.12(c) of the Plan, the materials to be provided pursuant to Section 5.12(b) of the Plan include those in the possession of the Debtors' current and former insurance coverage counsel. On and after the Effective Date, the Plan Administration Trustee and NewCo may maintain their respective documents, books and records in accordance with their respective document retention policies set forth in the PAT Agreement and the NewCo Operating Agreement, respectively. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall use reasonable best efforts to provide the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties reasonable access to current employees and professionals of the Debtors (including insurance brokers) with knowledge concerning the information and documents to be provided to the Master Disbursement Trust under Section 5.12(b) of the Plan, and, after the Effective Date, NewCo shall use best efforts to provide the Master Disbursement Trust reasonable access to employees and professionals of NewCo with knowledge concerning such information and documents and to facilitate access to former employees and professionals of the Debtors (including insurance brokers). The Plan Administration Trustee and NewCo shall respond to reasonable requests of (x) the MDT Trustees for information and documents related to the MDT Insurance Rights, the MDT Causes of Action or otherwise, in each case to the extent reasonably necessary for the administration of the Master Disbursement Trust, and (y) each Creditor Trustee for information and documents relating to the applicable Channeled Claims or otherwise, in each case to the extent reasonably necessary for the administration of the applicable Creditor Trust. In the event of any dispute between the MDT Trustees and NewCo regarding the delivery of information or documents requested pursuant to clause (x) of the foregoing sentence, the MDT Trustees shall have the right to request intervention by the Foundation Trustees to resolve any such dispute.

(iii) Privilege. The transfer or assignment of information and copies of documents, including books and records, in accordance with Section 5.12 of the Plan, shall not result in the destruction or waiver of any applicable Privileges. On the Effective Date, all Privileges in connection with the information or documents transferred in accordance with Section 5.12 of the Plan shall be transferred to, and vest exclusively in, NewCo, the MDT Trustees, the Plan Administration Trustee and the Creditor Trustees in accordance herewith. Further, with respect to the transfer of Privileges to the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trustees, such Privileges shall (i) be transferred to such MDT Trustees and Creditor Trustees for the purpose of enabling such Persons to perform their respective duties as set forth in the Plan or in the MDT Agreement or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and for no other reason, (ii) vest solely in the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trustees and not in the Master Disbursement Trust or the Creditor Trusts, or any other committee or subcomponent of the Master Disbursement Trust or the Creditor Trusts, or any other Person (including counsel and other professionals) who is (or has been engaged by, represents or has represented) any Holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors or any Person that alleges or may allege a Claim, directly or indirectly, relating to or arising out of the Debtors' Products or operations and (iii) be preserved and not waived as a result of such transfer. For the avoidance of doubt, any such transfer shall have no effect on any right, Claim or Privilege of any Person other than the Debtors. No information subject to a Privilege shall be disclosed or communicated by the MDT Trustees or the Creditor Trustees (x) to any Person not entitled to receive such information, including for the avoidance of doubt any Person (including counsel and other professionals) who is (or has been engaged by, represents or has represented) any Holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors or any Person that alleges or may allege a Claim, directly or indirectly, relating to or arising out of the Debtors' Products or operations or (y) for any reason or in any manner other than as necessary for such Persons to perform their respective duties as set forth in the Plan or in the MDT Documents or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in the Plan shall preclude the MDT Trustees from providing information or documents received pursuant to Section 5.12 of the Plan to any Insurance Company as necessary to preserve, secure or obtain the benefit of the MDT Insurance Rights.

13. Public Document Repository

(i) Summary. The document disclosure program provided in the Plan will lead to the public disclosure of the most significant documents about Purdue, the Sackler family and the opioid crisis, including video depositions and millions of documents that Purdue produced in investigations and litigation over the past two decades. In addition, it will lead to the public disclosure of millions of documents not previously available to the public, including documents not previously produced in any investigation or litigation and certain privileged documents from the years when Purdue developed and promoted OxyContin, as identified below. The document disclosure program and Public Document Repository will be conducted in a way to maximize public confidence and public access and will set a new standard for transparency.

(ii) DOJ Repository Obligation. The Debtors bear sole responsibility for complying with the DOJ document repository obligation set forth in the Plea Agreement ("DOJ Repository Obligation"), and the DOJ Repository Obligation is not modified by the Plan. Similarly, the Debtors' satisfaction of the DOJ Repository Obligation shall not diminish the additional commitment to disclosure provided by the Plan. Instead, the public shall receive the full benefit of both, and the Public Document Repository shall contain the full set of documents that the Debtors have agreed to host under the DOJ Repository Obligation.

(iii) Disclosure Oversight Board. As described further below, the disclosure program provided in the Plan shall be overseen by the DOB created on the Confirmation Date, consisting of up to four (4) representatives appointed by each of the Ad Hoc Committee, the Creditors' Committee, the States AG Negotiating Group and the MSGE Group and one (1) representative appointed by the Native American Tribe Group. No current or former director, officer, employee or attorney of the Debtors shall serve on the DOB or oversee the disclosure program.

(iv) Purdue Legal Matters. As described further below, important material for the disclosure program is contained in documents that the Debtors preserved, collected, logged and produced in connection with investigations and litigation about Purdue's opioid business. Many non-privileged documents were produced in those matters, and many privileged documents were identified and logged. Section 5.13 of the Plan provides for the disclosure of many documents from the Purdue Legal Matters, which is a broad set of investigations and litigation defined in the Plan.

(v) Disclosure Program Budget. As described further in the Plan, the disclosure program is designed to avoid unnecessary expense, including by employing an unpaid volunteer oversight board and by using negotiated agreements to avoid the need for litigation. The disclosure program shall be funded in an aggregate amount of $39 million, which shall be paid in the following installments: (i) $2 million on the Effective Date, (ii) $10 million on the second Scheduled MDT Distribution Date, (iii) $10 million on the third Scheduled MDT Distribution Date, (iv) $8.5 million on the fourth Scheduled MDT Distribution Date and (v) $8.5 million on the fifth Scheduled MDT Distribution Date (collectively, the "Disclosure Program Budget"). The Disclosure Program Budget shall be spent at the direction of the DOB. In addition, as provided in the Plan, Domestic Governmental Entities may elect (but are not required) to direct portions of their distributions to the Public Document Repository under terms provided in the Plan. Moreover, the DOB shall be permitted, but not required, to coordinate its work on this disclosure program with the work of state Attorneys General on related disclosures in the opioid industry, in a manner that reduces the costs and increases the benefits of this disclosure program. Finally, to make efficient use of the knowledge and expertise of the Debtors and their professionals, the Plan provides for significant materials to be collected by the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as described further below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Public Document Repository shall not be owned, held, administered or operated by the DOB, the Master Disbursement Trust or any Creditor Trust; the role of the DOB is to develop and oversee a temporary program to set up the appropriate Public Document Repository and achieve the goals of the disclosure program.

(vi) Access Materials

(1) Subject to the Protected Information review, as described in Section 5.13(o) of the Plan, the Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, or any entity or law firm designated by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust to assist in that review, shall provide the DOB access to a set of non-privileged materials for the purpose of accomplishing the Public Document Repository (collectively, the "Access Materials") on a rolling basis following the Effective Date. These Access Materials shall include:

(A) all transcripts and audio or video recordings of depositions taken in the Purdue Legal Matters, together with the exhibits to those depositions;

(B) all documents produced by the Debtors in the Purdue Legal Matters (which comprise more than thirteen million documents and more than one hundred million pages);

(C) the non-privileged documents from the Relativity Database (as defined in the Plan) (which are estimated to comprise more than twenty million additional documents beyond those produced in the Purdue Legal Matters);

(D) all privilege logs regarding documents withheld by the Debtors in the Purdue Legal Matters; and

(E) documents obtained during the Chapter 11 Cases by the NAS Committee regarding clinical and pre-clinical studies conducted by the Debtors or other companies associated with the Sackler Family Members.

(2) The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, or any entity or law firm designated by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust, will use their best efforts to complete the review of Protected Information and production of the Access Materials no later than 12 months after the Effective Date. Following entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors shall pay Wiggin and Dana LLP $5 million as a retainer on account of Wiggin and Dana LLP's fees and expenses in connection with the review of Protected Information as contemplated pursuant to Section 5.13(o) of the Plan. Upon its completion of such review, Wiggin and Dana LLP shall refund any unused portion of the $5 million to the Master Disbursement Trust concurrent with the final release of Access Materials to the DOB.

(3) All documents containing information that is redacted as described in Section 5.13(o) of the Plan, and not included in the Access Materials provided to the DOB, will be provided to the Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust will retain these materials for the period described in Section 5.13(aa) of the Plan.

(vii) Debtors' Relativity Database. In the course of the Purdue Legal Matters, the Debtors collected a significant set of documents that are stored in a Relativity database (the "Relativity Database"). This collection includes files from more than two hundred custodians who played important roles at Purdue, including every Sackler Family Member who sat on the board or worked at the company. It also includes non-custodial documents, such as collections from electronic drives and paper archives. The custodial and non-custodial documents collected for the Relativity Database are from files that Purdue has preserved pursuant to broad document preservation policies in place for over twenty years, including from an email archive containing emails dating to the 1990s. Pursuant to the terms provided in Section 5.13 of the Plan, materials from the Relativity Database created before February 2018 will be available for the disclosure program as described in Section 5.13 of the Plan.

(viii) Additional Collections. On or before the Effective Date, the DOB will identify to the Debtors the additional custodians whose documents should be collected, to the extent possible, from the email archive and other preserved files, and the Debtors will load those files into the Relativity Database for inclusion as Access Materials or Sequestered Materials, as applicable.

(ix) Sequestered Materials. On the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall provide the Plan Administration Trust with certain Privileged documents, described below, collected by the Debtors during the course of the Purdue Legal Matters and stored in the Relativity Database ("Sequestered Materials"), to be preserved for access by the DOB. The provision of the Sequestered Materials to the Plan Administration Trust shall not constitute a waiver of any applicable privileges, and, for clarity, no waiver of any applicable Privilege shall occur prior to the Sequestration Date (as defined in the Plan). The Sequestered Materials are estimated to include hundreds of thousands of documents. To leverage efficiencies, the Debtors' current document review teams with experience reviewing Purdue's documents for privilege will screen and review, as necessary, all documents currently in the Relativity Database for Privilege, attorney work product, confidentiality, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or similar state or federal statute and critical business information before turning over documents as Access Materials or as Sequestered Materials. The DOB will aid the Debtors' document review team in setting parameters and search terms to effectuate accurate screening and review. The DOB may, confidentially and subject to privilege, request and be provided with information, and, as necessary, an appropriate, expert-aided statistically valid sampling of the relevant documents or other methodologies to aid in the foregoing review under an appropriate protective order and non-waiver agreement.

(1) Subject to the Sequestration Date, the Debtors agree to waive attorney client and work product privilege over documents created before May 1, 2014 ("Cutoff Date") that fall within the following categories:

(A) Marketing materials, promotional materials and sales strategies. This will include, for example, legal advice on: marketing and promotional materials as part of the medical, regulatory, legal review process and other reviews of statements in promotional and marketing materials to ensure consistency with a product's labeling and legal requirements; sales training materials (such as how to instruct the sales team on what they can and cannot say about the products); review of all call notes and whether statements on sales calls were appropriate; call planning; and sales bulletins. For the avoidance of doubt, "sales strategies" in this paragraph includes documents related to (I) medical liaisons, (II) continuing medical education, (III) the evolve to excellence program, (IV) Purdue's interactions with medical advocacy groups, and (V) legal advice regarding the performance, selection, retention, management and compensation of personnel in sales and marketing;

(B) Materials reflecting legal advice on submissions to the FDA and compliance with FDA regulations. This will include, for example, advice on the decision to reformulate OxyContin, advice on interactions and communications with FDA and advice on FDA requirements;

(C) Legal advice regarding distributions to or for the benefit of the Sackler Family Members;

(D) Legal advice regarding the organization or function of the board of directors;

(E) Legal advice regarding grants, gifts and other payments with respect to naming rights of Purdue and its shareholders;

(F) Legal advice regarding the performance, selection, retention, management and compensation of the CEO of Purdue Pharma;

(G) Legal advice regarding Purdue's interactions with state licensing boards and the federation of state medical boards;

(H) Legal advice regarding Purdue's interactions with key opinion leaders, advisory boards and treatment guidance;

(I) Legal advice regarding advocacy before the United States Congress or a state legislative branch with respect to (i) any opioid product sold by Purdue, including OxyContin, or (ii) any public policies regarding the availability and accessibility of opioid products;

(J) Employment records and files created before the Cutoff Date pertaining to employment terminations or disciplinary actions related to opioid sales and marketing, including documents created before the Cutoff Date pertaining to internal investigations of personnel related to marketing of opioids, in all cases subject to applicable federal and state privacy and similar laws with respect to employees and with any redactions necessary to comply therewith;

(K) To the extent provided during the time period while the corporate integrity agreement was in effect, legal advice regarding compliance with the corporate integrity agreement entered into between Purdue and the DOJ Office of the Inspector General of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services;

(L) Legal advice regarding compliance with the consent judgments entered into between Purdue, the Debtors and the State Attorneys General and other state representatives in 2007;

(M) Legal advice to Purdue's public relations department regarding the promotion, sales, or distribution of Purdue's opioid products, including but not limited to their safety, efficacy, addictive properties, or availability of opioid products; and

(N) Legal advice to Purdue's compliance department regarding the organizational structure of the compliance department, including its processes for implementing order monitoring systems, suspicious order monitoring programs, and abuse deterrence and detection programs.

(2) Subject to the Sequestration Date, below, the Debtors agree to waive attorney client and work product privilege over the following categories of documents:

(A) Documents reflecting law department reviews of, and decisions regarding, healthcare providers and pharmacies pursuant to Purdue's abuse and diversion detection, order monitoring system and suspicious order monitoring programs, which will have been or will be provided to the DOJ under a June 2019 non-waiver agreement;

(B) Documents created before February 2018 reflecting legal review, analysis and advice with respect to advice received from McKinsey & Company, Publicis Groupe S.A., Publicis Health, LLC, Razorfish Health, Publicis Health Media, LLC, Publicis Touchpoint Solutions, Inc., or Verilogue, Inc. related to the sale and marketing of opioids; and

(C) Documents created before June 30, 2017 reflecting legal review, analysis and advice with respect to Practice Fusion.

(3) To the extent documents subject to any of the foregoing waivers were previously logged on a privilege log in a Purdue Legal Matter, the Debtors shall provide the DOB with amended privilege logs that indicate the entries being produced pursuant to these waivers. For the avoidance of doubt, Privileged communications (during the applicable time periods set forth in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan) about interactions with the media with respect to subject matters that are otherwise waived in the Plan are included in such waivers.

(4) Nothing in the Plan shall waive any third-party privilege or other rights, whether arising from a joint defense agreement, common interest privilege or otherwise, to which any document described in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan is subject and which the Debtors do not have authority to waive. The Debtors will provide the DOB with privilege logs reflecting documents subject to such third-party privileges and rights that are identified in the course of identifying and compiling the Sequestered Materials. No documents subject to such third-party privileges and rights shall be included in the Public Document Repository, absent appropriate resolution of such third parties' rights and privileges. Further, no waiver of Privilege described in the Plan shall be construed as subject matter waiver. Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and the Governmental Consent Parties shall work together in good faith to ensure that all documents consistent with the Sequestered Material categories shall be available to the DOB for potential inclusion in the Public Document Repository in accordance with Section 5.13 of the Plan.

(x) Protection of the Privilege. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors do not waive any Privilege and do not agree to provide as Sequestered Materials for the Public Document Repository any Privileged documents or communications not otherwise identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan. Such Privileged documents and communications not otherwise identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan shall be removed from the Relativity Database and separately preserved, and shall not be eligible for the Public Document Repository at any time. All Privileged documents removed from the Relativity Database, and not included in the Sequestered Materials described above, will be provided to the Plan Administration Trust, separately from the Sequestered Materials. The Plan Administration Trust will retain these materials for the period described in Section 5.13(aa) of the Plan. For clarity, except for the Sequestered Materials identified in Sections 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan, the Debtors shall not intentionally provide the Master Disbursement Trust or the DOB with access to any documents or content of documents that are Privileged. In the event that the Debtors inadvertently provide the Master Disbursement Trust or the DOB with access to Privileged documents except for those documents identified in Sections 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan, that inadvertent provision shall not operate as a waiver of the Privilege, and, upon discovery, the DOB and/or the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable, must promptly take steps to return the documents to the Plan Administration Trust or destroy such documents.

(xi) Sequestration Date. On the date that is the earlier of (i) six years after the Effective Date and (ii) the date no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior six months, including the pendency of any appeals, the Plan Administration Trust shall deliver the Sequestered Materials to the Host Institution (the "Sequestration Date"). Those materials shall be made available for assessment by the DOB and disclosure in the Public Document Repository, subject to the other provisions of Section 5.13 of the Plan.

(xii) Responsibilities of the DOB. The DOB shall be responsible for:

(1) accomplishing prompt, broad, permanent, public disclosure of millions of the Debtors' documents via the Public Document Repository in accordance with Section 5.13 of the Plan to allow the public to examine the Debtors' role in the opioid crisis;

(2) engaging with survivors, advocates, journalists, scholars, policymakers and others to ensure that the disclosure program serves the public;

(3) directing the use of the Disclosure Program Budget;

(4) maintaining protections for Protected Information, as described in Section 5.13 of the Plan;

(5) establishing procedures for resolution of challenges to the redaction or disclosure of information, as described in Section 5.13 of the Plan;

(6) overseeing the Host Institution's implementation of the disclosure program;

(7) coordinating, as appropriate, the disclosure of documents from other producing parties or non-parties in opioid cases whose confidential information is included in the Access Materials, including by discussing inclusion of Access Materials containing such third-party confidential information;

(8) ensuring the long-term sustainability and success of the disclosure program; and

(9) retaining and overseeing staff, counsel, or such other resources as are necessary and appropriate to accomplish the DOB's responsibilities under Section 5.13 of the Plan.

(xiii) Host Institutions. The host institution(s) shall be selected by the Governmental Consent Parties and the Creditors' Committee (the "Host Institutions"). The Host Institution will be responsible for hosting and maintaining the Public Document Repository in perpetuity, including but not limited to: maintaining control and security over documents in the Public Document Repository; providing an accessible user interface; and providing clear and transparent explanations of its procedures to the public. Subject to restrictions and oversight imposed by the DOB, the Host Institution may employ appropriate resources to accomplish its responsibilities, including but not limited to the use of permanent university employees, temporary employees, contractors and vendor services. Commensurate with the large responsibilities assigned to the Host Institution, and subject to the decisions and oversight of the DOB and the requirements of the Plan, much of the Disclosure Program Budget may be directed to the Host Institution to fund the accomplishment of its responsibilities. As soon as practicable, the Debtors shall meet with the Host Institutions to agree upon the processes to be used by the Debtors to prepare the documents for delivery to DOB, including, for example, protocols, methodologies and technical specifications.

(xiv) Prompt Disclosure. In keeping with the importance of the matter, the DOB shall dedicate its best efforts to ensure prompt disclosure and shall seek to ensure that the public receives substantial disclosure at least every calendar quarter. The DOB shall prioritize prompt disclosure of the transcripts and audio and video recordings of depositions taken in the Purdue Legal Matters, together with the exhibits to those depositions. The Debtors will prioritize prompt production of the documents that Debtors have agreed to host pursuant to the DOJ Repository Obligation for immediate inclusion in the Public Document Repository for the sake of efficiency and cost savings.

(xv) Redaction of Protected Information

(1) The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, a successor entity to the Plan Administration Trust, or any entity or law firm designated by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust, shall implement appropriate procedures to protect the following information ("Protected Information") by redacting Protected Information in documents before they are provided to the DOB or disclosed to the public in the Public Document Repository and by promptly catching and correcting errors if Protected Information is disclosed. Protected Information is (i) any information protected from disclosure by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or similar state or federal statute; (ii) Social Security or tax identification numbers; (iii) personal financial account numbers; (iv) passport numbers and drivers' license numbers; (v) home addresses, personal email addresses, residential addresses, and personal phone numbers, including mobile phone numbers; (vi) information subject to confidentiality or trade secret rights of third parties that Debtors are without authority to abrogate; (vii) information subject to current Trade Secrets protection; (viii) information regarding individuals that is of a purely personal nature and does not pertain to the Debtors' opioid business or related practices; and (ix) other personally identifiable information otherwise protected by law. For the avoidance of doubt, Protected Information that should be redacted in a written document shall also be redacted in audio or video, such as deposition recordings.

(2) The Plan Administration Trust must provide to the DOB a redaction log identifying the basis for the redaction with sufficient detail to allow assessment of the redaction's merits. The States AG

Negotiating Group and Debtors will discuss and agree upon a robust audit process sufficient for the DOB to verify the Debtors' redactions are consistent with the final Plan, and the DOB's designee(s) and/or any auditors designated by the DOB will be given access to unredacted documents for this purpose subject to confidential safeguards to be agreed upon.

(3) The Debtors and the Plan Administration Trust will prioritize the review of certain documents and custodians at the DOB's request.

(4) Trade Secret. A 'trade secret' is information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique or process, that (i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to the public or to other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure and use; and (ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. Information reflecting opioid sales or promotional strategies, tactics, targeting, or data, or internal communications regarding sales or promotion of opioids will not be considered subject to trade secret protection unless the information is or contains specifically enumerated categories of Debtors' Information subject to trade secret protection set forth in Section 5.13(o)(v) of the Plan, and then only such information will be redacted.

(5) Debtors' Information Subject to Current Trade Secrets Protection. The following Debtor documents will be subject to trade secret protection: (i) documents that contain Debtors' trade secrets regarding (a) ANDA/NDA information that is not publicly available or is redacted in FDA filings, including development reports, batch records, and inspections, provided the redacted information contains trade secrets, and (b) Debtors' proprietary models, including the Rebate Return Model and the License & Supply Analysis Model; and (ii) documents dated less than ten (10) years before the disclosure that contain Debtors' trade secrets regarding: (a) Internal Cost of Goods Sold (COGS), including elements and calculations used to calculate COGS such as raw material sourcing, pricing, internal overhead, and capacity allocations, (b) Return on Rebate Model Data Output, and (c) License & Supply Analysis Model Data Output, including COGS, demand data, and gross-to-net information. Only the information subject to trade secrets protection will be redacted. Information reflecting opioid sales or promotional strategies, tactics, targeting, or data, or internal communications related to sales or promotion of opioids will not be considered subject to trade secret protection unless the information is or contains the narrow categories in this section, and then only the information subject to current trade secrets protection will be redacted.

(xvi) Limits on Redaction. There shall be no redaction of: (i) names of the Debtors' directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys or consultants or of prescribers or of officials or employees of a government agency, or (ii) email addresses at the "pharma.com" or "purduepharma.com" domain.

(xvii) Notice to Third Parties. Debtors shall provide notice to third parties, consistent with such third-party agreements, whose trade secrets or confidential information may appear in documents which are to be provided to the DOB.

(xviii) Inadvertent Release of Privileged or Protected Information. Notwithstanding anything else in the Plan, the Public Document Repository shall not contain or disclose any documents or content of documents that are Privileged, except for those documents identified in Sections 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) of the Plan that are eligible for the Public Document Repository, or any Protected Information. Inadvertent disclosure of Privileged documents in the Public Document Repository does not operate as a waiver of Privilege, and, upon discovery, any Privileged documents shall be promptly removed from the Public Document Repository. The DOB will establish a procedure that permits any party or member of the public to identify or challenge the disclosure of any potentially Protected Information placed in the Public Document Repository. The DOB will cause any document identified through this process to be immediately removed from the Public Document Repository pending review. Any disagreements regarding whether such material is Protected Information shall be resolved by the Special Master.

(xix) Special Master. Shortly after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors shall file an appropriate motion asking the Bankruptcy Court or the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to select and appoint a disclosure oversight Special Master. The Special Master's qualifications shall include former service as a judicial officer, whether as a state or federal judge, and no current or former director, officer, employee or attorney of the Debtors, the Sackler Family Members, the Creditors' Committee, or the Governmental Consent Parties shall be eligible to be appointed as the Special Master, counsel or staff working under the Special Master, provided that prior work for a Governmental Consent Party that was completed prior to 2015 shall not preclude the appointment of a Special Master. The Special Master will adjudicate all privilege and related disputes. The Special Master's reasonable hourly fees and expenses shall be paid out of the Disclosure Program Budget except as the Special Master orders otherwise upon finding that a party advanced an argument that was frivolous, harassing or in bad faith.

(1) Selection of Special Master. The selection of the Special Master shall be made by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that the Bankruptcy Court may consider a recommendation made jointly by the Debtors, the Sackler Family Members, the Creditors Committee, and the Governmental Consent Parties. For the purposes of determining if there is to be a joint recommendation, five (5) Business Days after the Confirmation Date, the parties ((x) the Debtors, (y) the Creditors' Committee, the Governmental Consent Parties and (z) the Sackler Family Members) each shall exchange a list of up to five (5) names as recommendations for the role of Special Master. The Debtors thereafter shall make a motion to the Bankruptcy Court to select a Special Master. If there are names in common on the exchanged lists, the Debtors' motion shall be limited to any name or names that are common to all such parties' lists. If there is no name common to each of the three lists, the Debtors' motion will ask the Bankruptcy Court, in its discretion, to select a Special Master.

(2) Disclosure Challenges: To the extent that the DOB seeks to (A) challenge the Debtors' assertion of Privilege with respect to any documents withheld or redacted from production in the Purdue Legal Matters, or excluded by the Debtors from the Access Materials, or (B) disclose any Protected Information in the Public Document Repository, such efforts shall be subject to review by the Special Master, who shall have final say regarding whether (y) the DOB should be provided with such materials, and (z) such materials shall be protected from public disclosure.

(3) Timing of Challenges: All challenges to the redaction or withholding of documents from the Public Document Repository, including with regard to the Privilege and to Protected Information, including challenges brought by either the DOB or members of the public, shall be brought within the later of (A) one (1) year of the Effective Date and (B) one (1) year from when the document or information at issue is first withheld from the Public Document Repository by redaction or logging.

(4) Counsel for Challenges: On or shortly after the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Governmental Consent Parties, and the Creditors' Committee shall agree to appoint a law firm to defend Privilege and Protected Information assertions against challenges ("Defense Counsel"); provided, however, that if the Debtors, the Governmental Consent Parties, and the Creditors' Committee are unable to reach an agreement regarding the identity of Defense Counsel, the Bankruptcy Court shall appoint the Defense Counsel. Third parties shall represent themselves before the Special Master and shall bear their own costs.

(5) Procedure for Challenges: Any party seeking to initiate a challenge to the Privilege or Protected Information designation of a document or information in a document or any other challenge to the inclusion or exclusion of documents in the Public Document Repository (the "Petitioner") must first, as a condition precedent to any such challenge, meet and confer with the relevant defense counsel by serving a written statement of the specific material being disputed and the reasons for disputing each such material. If the meet and confer does not resolve the dispute, then the Petitioner shall submit a brief to the Special Master arguing why each individual document at issue should not be considered Privileged or Protected Information or should otherwise be included or excluded. Once a challenge has been submitted, the Special Master shall set a briefing schedule, permitting defense counsel no fewer than twenty-one (21) days to respond to the challenge, which may include in camera submissions in response. At the discretion of the Special Master, the briefing schedule may also include supplemental submissions, oral argument or other procedures the Special Master deems necessary to reach a determination. The Special Master shall then evaluate and decide the challenge based upon existing legal precedent of federal law within the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and shall be empowered to determine whether such materials are subject to a valid claim of Privilege or otherwise constitute Protected Information or should have otherwise been included or excluded, but shall not be empowered to waive any Privilege ever asserted by the Debtors with respect to the Purdue Legal Matters or with respect to the Access Materials or the Sequestered Materials. If the Petitioner does not prevail, then the Special Master shall have the discretion to shift to the Petitioner some or all of the reasonable legal expense of Defense Counsel, whose reasonable fees and expenses shall otherwise be paid for by the Disclosure Program Budget. If the Special Master determines that the challenge was frivolous, harassing, needlessly increasing costs or expenses, or otherwise brought for an improper purpose, then the Special Master shall shift to the Petitioner some or all of the reasonable legal expense of Defense Counsel. For avoidance of doubt, any materials determined by the Special Master to be Privileged or to contain Protected Information shall not be included in the Public Document Repository.

(6) Pending resolution of a challenge asserting a document was improperly disclosed, the Host Institution shall remove or redact each identified, challenged document.

(xx) Materials Produced by Shareholder Released Parties. The Public Document Repository shall include all Sackler Family Members' documents that were produced in the Chapter 11 Cases and that relate to the manufacturing, sale or marketing of opioids in the United States, the Debtors' alleged role or liability in connection with the opioid crisis or the regulatory approval of any opioid product sold in the United States by the Debtors, but subject to appropriate exclusions for documents covered by the attorney-client and work product privileges and certain confidential information (including exclusions for information and documents related to the finances, financing activities, taxes and tax filings, investments and third party business and advisory relationships of the Shareholder Released Parties).

(1) The Special Master appointed in accordance with Section 5.13(s) of the Plan shall resolve disputes regarding whether certain documents or information is required to be included in the document repository by the Sackler Family Members.

(2) The Sackler Family Members shall have the right to claw back documents that they were entitled to exclude in accordance with this provision but inadvertently produced to the Public Document Repository, and such inadvertent production shall not operate as a waiver of rights. The Special Master shall resolve any disputes between Sackler Family Members, the Governmental Consent Parties, and the DOB concerning the exercise of clawback rights.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, "Sackler Family Members' documents" refer only to documents in the Sackler Family Members' possession, custody or control. Section 5.13(t) of the Plan does not refer to documents including or involving Sackler Family Members that are in the Debtors' possession, custody or control.

(xxi) Release of Confidentiality Rights by Parties Receiving Releases. With regard to the disclosure of information in the Public Document Repository as authorized by Section 5.13 of the Plan, the protections provided to Released Parties and Shareholder Released Parties shall be limited to the protections provided by the Plan. To the extent that Released Parties and Shareholder Released Parties possess rights to confidentiality beyond those provided in the Plan (for example, a contractual confidentiality provision) or the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, those rights are waived to facilitate this disclosure program in exchange for the benefit of the releases provided to the Released Parties and Shareholder Released Parties by the Plan.

(xxii) DOJ Settlement Communications. Communications between the Debtors and DOJ regarding settlement or cooperation between 2015 and the final, non-appealable conclusion of U.S. v. Purdue Pharma L.P., Case 2:20-cr-01028-MCA (D.N.J.) shall be protected from disclosure to the Master Disbursement Trust and the DOB and shall not be included in the Public Document Repository, nor shall any internal Debtor documents reflecting such communications or the strategy for such communications. The Debtors shall implement this exclusion when creating the set of Sequestered Materials.

(xxiii) Documents Produced By Certain Financial Institutions. The disclosure program shall not include the documents produced by financial institutions pursuant to the examination authorized by the Bankruptcy Court at D.I. 1143. For the avoidance of doubt, if the same information also appears in a second source that is subject to disclosure (e.g., a deposition exhibit), then the information in that second source is subject to disclosure.

(xxiv) Active Vendor Contracts. The Public Document Repository shall not disclose the NewCo's active vendor contracts or expired contracts that would reveal the sum and substance of active contracts.

(xxv) Exculpation and Indemnification of DOB members and Host Institution. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the DOB members, whenever appointed, and the Host Institution shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a DOB member, or on behalf of the DOB, except those acts found to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of his or her actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a DOB member, except for any actions or inactions found to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any of the DOB members shall be satisfied from the Disclosure Program Budget.

(xxvi) Reports. On each of the first five anniversaries of the Effective Date, the DOB shall publish a public report describing the activities of the disclosure program, the use of any funds expended, and any funds committed for future use.

(xxvii) Wind Down. In or after one year following the Sequestration Date, the DOB shall wind itself down. If appropriate to facilitate the long-term success of the Public Document Repository, the DOB may arrange for another long-lived institution, such as one or more Attorneys General Offices, to interact with the Host Institution after the DOB is wound down (e.g., by receiving reports). Upon the wind down of the DOB, (i) the Host Institution shall be responsible for the permanent maintenance of the Public Document Repository; provided that, for avoidance of doubt, the access to the Access Materials and the Sequestered Materials granted to the DOB herein shall not be transferred to any successor institution other than the Host Institution and (ii) any Access Materials or Sequestered Materials in the possession of the DOB but not included in the Public Document Repository, for any reason, shall be, at NewCo's election, delivered to NewCo or destroyed or, if all or substantially all of the Assets of or Interests in NewCo have been sold, destroyed or delivered to Defense Counsel. Within ninety (90) days of the announcement of the dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust, the Plan Administration Trust shall use commercially reasonable efforts to return Privileged and Protected Information materials to Defense Counsel who shall retain the materials in a segregated client file.

(xxviii) Master Disbursement Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in Section 5.13 of the Plan limits the rights of the Master Disbursement Trust, subject to and in accordance with Section 5.12 of the Plan, to access or use Privileged documents, including Excluded Privileged Materials, in connection with any potential or actual Causes of Action, including, among other things, any potential or actual Causes of Action contemplated by or that may result from, the Shareholder Settlement Agreement, including, without limitation, with respect to a Cause of Action against a Shareholder Release Snapback Party upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback.

14. Effective Date Cash; Surplus Reserved Cash

(i) Effective Date Fixed Payments. On the Effective Date, Effective Date Cash shall be used to fund (i) the Professional Fee Escrow Account in an amount necessary to satisfy Professional Fee Claims in accordance with Section 2.1(b) of the Plan, (ii) the Priority Claims Reserve in an amount necessary to satisfy estimated Allowed Administrative Claims (other than Professional Fee Claims and the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim), Allowed Secured Claims and Allowed Priority Claims, (iii) the Claims Reserves in accordance with Section 7.2 of the Plan, (iv) the Disputed Cure Claims Reserve in accordance with Section 8.2(d) of the Plan, (v) the Wind-Up Reserve in accordance with Section 5.3(d) of the Plan, (vi) the MDT Operating Reserve in accordance with Section 5.6(f) of the Plan, (vii) the Special Operating Reserve in accordance with Section 5.7(a) of the Plan, (viii) the Initial NewCo Cash in accordance with Section 5.4(c) of the Plan, (ix) the applicable PAT Distribution Account in the amounts necessary to make Distributions required in accordance with Article IV of the Plan in respect of Allowed Adlon General Unsecured Claims, Allowed Avrio General Unsecured Claims, and Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims, each to the extent Allowed as of the Effective Date, (x) the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions, (xi) the Initial Federal Government Distribution, (xii) the Initial Public Schools Distribution, (xiii) amounts required to establish the Public Document Repository in accordance with Section 5.13 of the Plan, (xiv) the upfront insurance premium payments and other amounts in accordance with Sections 5.3(e), 5.4(f) and 5.5(c) of the Plan and (xv) any other amounts required to be paid on the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan. No later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall provide notice to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties of the then-current estimated amount of Effective Date Cash and all amounts described in Section 5.14(a) of the Plan, and shall promptly notify the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties of any changes to such estimations prior to the Effective Date. Any objection by the Creditors' Committee or the Governmental Consent Parties with respect to the Debtors' proposed amount of funding of any PAT Reserve shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court.

(ii) Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions. On the Effective Date, all Effective Date Cash remaining after the satisfaction of all amounts described in the foregoing paragraph (a) shall be used to make the Initial Governmental Remediation Trust Distribution and the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution.

(iii) Surplus Reserved Cash. Prior to the dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust, the Plan Administration Trustee shall determine, on each six (6)-month anniversary of the Effective Date, whether the amounts available in any PAT Reserve exceed the amounts necessary to satisfy the purpose for which such reserves were established. If the Plan Administration Trustee determines that a surplus exists in any PAT Reserve as of the date of such determination, such Surplus Reserve Cash shall be (i) first, used to satisfy any funding deficiency in any other PAT Reserve and (ii) second, with respect to any amounts not used to satisfy any such funding deficiency in another PAT Reserve, transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with the MDT Agreement. All Cash and cash equivalents of the Plan Administration Trust remaining upon the dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust, including any remaining Surplus Reserve Cash in the PAT Reserves, shall be transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with the MDT Agreement.

15. Corporate Action

(i) Dissolution of Boards of the Debtors. As of the Effective Date, the respective boards of directors and managers, as applicable, of each of the Debtors shall be terminated and dissolved and the members of each of the boards of directors and managers, as applicable, of the Debtors shall be deemed to have resigned.

(ii) Continued Existence of the Liquidating Debtors. Each of the Debtors, other than the Transferred Debtors, shall continue to exist as a Liquidating Debtor after the Effective Date in accordance with the laws of the state under which such Debtor was formed and pursuant to its certificate of incorporation, bylaws, articles of formation, operating agreement, and other organizational documents, as applicable, in effect prior to the Effective Date, except to the extent such organizational documents are amended under the Plan, for the limited purposes of liquidating all of the Assets of such Debtor's Estate and making distributions in accordance with the Plan. From and after the Effective Date, except as set forth in the Plan, the Liquidating Debtors (i) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Liquidating Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal, (ii) shall be deemed to have canceled pursuant to the Plan all PPI Interests and, as of the PPLP Dissolution Date, all PPLP Interests, and (iii) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date.

(iii) Appointment of the PPLP Liquidator as the Sole Representative for the Liquidating Debtors. On the Effective Date, the PPLP Liquidator shall be appointed as the sole director and sole officer of the Liquidating Debtors, and shall succeed to the powers of the Liquidating Debtors' general partners, directors and officers. From and after the Effective Date, the PPLP Liquidator shall be the sole representative of, and shall act for, the Liquidating Debtors and administer the winding up and dissolution of the Liquidating Debtors. The PPLP Liquidator shall act for the Liquidating Debtors in the same fiduciary capacity as applicable to a board of directors and officers, subject to the provisions hereof (and all certificates of formation, partnership agreements, operating agreements, membership agreements and related documents are deemed amended by the Plan to permit and authorize the same). Any fees and expenses incurred by the PPLP Liquidator shall be paid by the Plan Administration Trustee from the Wind-Up Reserve.

(iv) Merger; Dissolution; Consolidation of the Liquidating Debtors. On or after the date(s) upon which the Plan Administration Trust is established, the Liquidating Debtors or the PPLP Liquidator may, subject to the terms of the Plan, cause any or all of the Liquidating Debtors to be merged into one or more of the Liquidating Debtors, dissolved or otherwise consolidated and engage in any other transaction in furtherance of the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the dissolution of each Liquidating Debtor by the PPLP Liquidator after the completion of the acts required of such Liquidating Debtor pursuant to the Plan, such Liquidating Debtor shall be deemed dissolved for all purposes without the necessity for any other or further actions to be taken by or on behalf of such Liquidating Debtor; provided, however, that each Liquidating Debtor or the PPLP Liquidator, as applicable, shall file with the office of the Secretary of State, or other appropriate office for the state of its organization, a certificate of cancellation or dissolution.

(v) Charter and Bylaws. To the extent necessary or appropriate, the charters, by-laws and other organizational documents of the Debtors shall be amended, or amended and restated as necessary, in a manner consistent with section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code, if applicable, and the terms of the Plan.

(vi) No Further Action. Each of the matters provided for under the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust, or corporate action to be taken by or required of the Debtors, shall, as of the Effective Date, be deemed to have occurred (unless contemplated under the Plan to occur before or after the Effective Date) and be effective as provided in the Plan, and shall be authorized and approved in all respects without any requirement of further action by any Person, including, but not limited to, the Plan Administration Trustee, the PPLP Liquidator, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or directors or officers of the Debtors.

(vii) Effectuating Documents. Prior to or after the Effective Date, any appropriate officer of the Debtors or the PPLP Liquidator, as applicable, shall be authorized to execute, deliver, file or record such contracts, instruments, releases, indentures and other agreements or documents, and to take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan.

(viii) Exculpation and Indemnification of the PPLP Liquidator. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the PPLP Liquidator shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in its capacity as the PPLP Liquidator, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence, or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of its actions or inactions in its capacity as the PPLP Liquidator, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of the PPLP Liquidator shall be satisfied from the Wind-Up Reserve.

16. Cancellation of Notes, Interests, Instruments, Certificates and Other Documents

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on and after the Effective Date, all PPLP Interests and PPI Interests and all notes, instruments, certificates, agreements, indentures, mortgages, security documents and other documents evidencing Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or obligations of the Debtors or the Liquidating Debtors, as applicable, thereunder or in any way related to the foregoing shall be deemed canceled, satisfied in full and of no further force or effect without any need for further action or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

17. Closing of Chapter 11 Cases

After a Debtor's Estate has been fully administered, the Plan Administration Trustee shall seek authority from the Bankruptcy Court to close the applicable Chapter 11 Case in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules.

E. Distributions

1. Distributions Generally

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or the PAT Agreement, all Distributions in respect of Allowed Claims, other than Channeled Claims, shall be made by the Disbursing Agent, or such other Persons designated by the Plan, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, including Article VI of the Plan. Except with respect to Sections 6.17, 6.20, and 6.21 of the Plan, Article VI of the Plan shall not apply to Channeled Claims.

2. Distributions on the Effective Date

On the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Disbursing Agent shall make Distributions (a) from the Priority Claims Reserve in respect of Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Secured Claims and Allowed Priority Claims, each in an amount and to the extent Allowed as of the Effective Date, and (b) from the PAT Distribution Account in respect of Allowed Avrio General Unsecured Claims and Allowed Adlon General Unsecured Claims, each in an amount required in accordance with Article VI of the Plan and solely to the extent Allowed as of the Effective Date.

3. Date of Distributions

In the event that any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date.

4. Disbursing Agent

The Disbursing Agent shall be deemed to hold all property to be distributed under the Plan in trust for the Persons entitled to receive the same. The Disbursing Agent shall not hold an economic or beneficial interest in the property to be distributed under the Plan. The Disbursing Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties.

5. Rights and Powers of Disbursing Agent

The Disbursing Agent shall be empowered to (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan, (b) make all Distributions contemplated by the Plan, (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Disbursing Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan or as deemed by the Disbursing Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan.

The Disbursing Agent shall only be required to act and make Distributions in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the PAT Agreement, and shall have no (x) liability for actions taken in accordance with the Plan and the PAT Agreement or in reliance upon information provided to it in accordance with the Plan or (y) obligation or liability in respect of any Channeled Claims or for Distributions under the Plan to any party who does not hold an Allowed Claim administered by the Plan Administration Trust at the time of Distribution or who does not otherwise comply with the terms of the Plan; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not affect the liability that otherwise would result from any such act or omission to the extent such act or omission is determined by a Final Order to have constituted willful misconduct, gross negligence, intentional fraud or criminal conduct of any such Person.

6. Expenses of Disbursement Agent

Any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Disbursing Agent on or after the Effective Date shall be paid in Cash by the Plan Administration Trustee from the Wind-Up Reserve.

7. Delivery of Distributions

Subject to Bankruptcy Rule 9010, the Disbursing Agent shall make all Distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim at the address of such Holder (a) as set forth on the Schedules filed with the Bankruptcy Court or (b) on the books and records of the Debtors or their agents, unless the Disbursing Agent has been notified in writing of a change of address, including, without limitation, by filing of a Proof of Claim by such Holder that contains an address for such Holder that is different than the address of such Holder as set forth in the Schedules or on such books and records of the Debtors.

8. Undeliverable and Unclaimed Distributions

In the event that any Distribution to any Holder of an Allowed Claim is returned as undeliverable, no Distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Disbursing Agent has been notified of the then-current address of such Holder, at which time or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter such Distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest; provided, however, that all Distributions made by the Disbursing Agent that are unclaimed for a period of six (6) months after the Distribution thereof shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall revest in the Plan Administration Trust, and any entitlement of any Holder of any Claims to such Distributions shall be extinguished and forever barred.

9. Distribution Record Date

As of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the Claims register shall be closed. The Disbursing Agent shall have no obligation to recognize any transfer of any such Claims occurring after the close of business on the Distribution Record Date and shall instead be entitled to recognize and deal, for all purposes under the Plan, with only those Holders of record as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date.

10. Manner of Payment under Plan

At the option of the Disbursing Agent, any Cash payment to be made pursuant to the Plan may be made by a check or wire transfer or as otherwise required or provided in the PAT Agreement.

11. Minimum Cash Distributions

The Disbursing Agent shall not be required to make any Distributions of Cash in an amount less than $100, or such lower amount as determined by the Disbursing Agent in accordance with the PAT Agreement, to any Holder of an Allowed Claim; provided, however, that if any Distribution is not made pursuant to Section 6.11 of the Plan, such Distribution shall be added to any subsequent Distribution to be made on behalf of such Holder's Allowed Claims. The Disbursing Agent shall not be required to make any final Distribution of Cash in an amount less than $25 to any Holder of an Allowed Claim. If the amount of any final Distribution to any Holder of Allowed Claims would be $25 or less, then such Distribution shall be made available for Distribution to all Holders of Allowed Claims in the same Class receiving final Distributions of at least $25.

12. Setoffs and Recoupment

Subject to Section 2.1 and Sections 10.5 through 10.13 of the Plan, the Disbursing Agent may, but shall not be required to, set off against or recoup from any Claim against the Debtors, and from any payments to be made pursuant to the Plan with respect to such Claim, any Claims of any nature whatsoever (to the extent permitted by applicable law) that the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust, as applicable, may have against the Holder of such Claim, but neither the failure to do so nor the allowance of any Claim under the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust of any such Claim it may have against such Holder.

13. Claims Paid or Payable by Third Parties

The Plan Administration Trustee shall reduce in full a Claim against the Debtors, and such Claim shall be Disallowed without a Claims objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the Holder of such Claim receives payment in full on account of such Claim from any Person that is not a Debtor. Subject to the last sentence of this paragraph, to the extent a Holder of a Claim against the Debtors receives a Distribution on account of such Claim and receives payment from a Person that is not a Debtor on account of such Claim, such Holder shall, within fourteen (14) days of receipt thereof, repay or return the Distribution to the Plan Administration Trust to the extent the Holder's total recovery on account of such Claim from the third party and under the Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim as of the date of any such Distribution under the Plan. The failure of such Holder to timely repay or return such Distribution shall result in the Holder owing the Debtors annualized interest at the federal judgment rate on such amount owed for each Business Day after the fourteen (14)-day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

14. Distributions after Effective Date

Distributions made after the Effective Date to Holders of Non-Participating Channeled Claims and other Disputed Claims that are not Allowed Claims as of the Effective Date, but which later become Allowed Claims, shall be deemed to have been made on the Effective Date (except for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

15. No Postpetition Interest and Penalties on Claims

Unless otherwise provided for in the Plan or the Confirmation Order or required by the Bankruptcy Code, no Holder of a Claim shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date or to penalties on any Claim. Any such interest or penalty component of any such Claims, if Allowed, shall be paid only in accordance with section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Allocation of Distributions between Principal and Interest

To the extent that any Allowed Claim is based upon any obligation or instrument that is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as indebtedness of any Debtor or any other Person and is entitled to accrued but unpaid interest thereon, it is intended, subject to applicable law, that such Distribution shall be allocated first to the principal amount of the Allowed Claim (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claim, to accrued but unpaid interest.

17. No Constructive Receipt

No Holder of Claims shall be treated as receiving a Distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes except to the extent such Holder is entitled to receive such Distribution directly under the Plan (or such Distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder). All parties (including, without limitation, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Master Disbursement Trust, the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trusts) shall report consistently with the foregoing for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

18. No Distribution in Excess of Amount of Allowed Claim

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, Distributions in excess of the Allowed amount of such Claim when combined with amounts received by such Holder from other sources.

19. Satisfaction of Claims

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, the Distributions and deliveries to be made on account of Allowed Claims under the Plan shall, in the aggregate, be in complete and final satisfaction, settlement and discharge of, and exchange for, such Allowed Claims. The Distributions and deliveries to be made on account of Claims under the Plan shall additionally be in consideration of the release and discharge of any and all Released Claims and Shareholder Released Claims related to or arising from such Claims.

20. Withholding and Reporting Requirements

(i) Withholding Rights. In connection with the Plan, and all instruments or Interests issued in connection therewith and in consideration thereof, any party issuing any instrument or Interest or making any Distribution or other payment described in the Plan shall comply with all applicable withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any U.S. federal, state or local or foreign taxing authority, and all Distributions pursuant to the Plan and all related agreements shall be subject to any such withholding or reporting requirements to the extent required under applicable law. In the case of a non-Cash Distribution that is subject to withholding, the distributing party may withhold a portion of such distributed property equal in value to the tax to the extent required to be withheld, and either (i) sell such withheld property to generate Cash necessary to pay over the withholding tax (or reimburse the distributing party for any advance payment of the withholding tax), or (ii) pay the withholding tax using its own funds and retain such withheld property. Any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 6.20(a) of the Plan and properly remitted to the applicable Governmental Unit shall be deemed to have been distributed to, and received by, the applicable recipient for all purposes of the Plan. In the event that any Person issues any instrument or Interest or makes any non-Cash Distribution pursuant to the Plan that is subject to withholding tax and such issuing or distributing party has not sold such withheld property to generate Cash to pay the withholding tax, or paid the withholding tax using its own funds and retained such withheld property as described above, such issuing or distributing party has the right, but not the obligation, to not make a Distribution until such Holder has made arrangements reasonably satisfactory to such issuing or disbursing party for payment of any such tax obligations, after which such issuing or disbursing party shall return to such Holder the portion of the property previously withheld.

(ii) Forms. Any party entitled to receive any Cash or other property under the Plan shall, upon request, deliver to the Disbursing Agent, the Master Disbursement Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust, NewCo, the Foundation or such other Person designated by the Plan Administration Trustee (which Person shall subsequently deliver to the Disbursing Agent any applicable IRS Form W-8 or Form W-9 or other forms or documents received), as applicable, a properly executed IRS Form W-9 or Form W-8, as applicable, and any other forms or documents reasonably requested by such party, to reduce or eliminate any withholding required by any U.S. federal, state, local or foreign taxing authority. Except as otherwise provided in the Creditor Trust Documents, as applicable, if any such request is made by such party in accordance with the foregoing, and the Holder fails to comply before the date that is three hundred sixty-five (365) calendar days after the request is made, the amount of such Distribution shall irrevocably revert to the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust, NewCo or the Foundation, as applicable, and any Claim with respect to such Distribution shall be discharged and forever barred from assertion against such party or its property.

(iii) Tax Liability. Notwithstanding Section 6.20(a) of the Plan, each Holder of a Claim or other Person that receives or is to receive a Distribution pursuant to the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment (to the extent not withheld from such Distribution pursuant to Section 6.20(a) of the Plan) of any tax obligations imposed on such Holder by any Governmental Unit, including income, withholding and other tax obligations, on account of such Distribution.

21. Post-Confirmation Claims

Except as otherwise provided in the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, in the event a Person seeks payment at any time on account of a Channeled Claim as to which no Proof of Claim was filed before the Bar Date and/or for which no motion seeking leave or order granting leave to file a late Proof of Claim was filed or entered before the Confirmation Date, or as to which no Proof of Claim was required to be filed, such Person shall not be entitled to any payment or distribution on account of such Channeled Claim unless such Channeled Claim is held by a Settling Creditor. If such Channeled Claim is held by a Settling Creditor, such Person shall be entitled to seek to recover on such Channeled Claim solely from the Creditor Trust to which such Channeled Claim is or was channeled pursuant to the Master TDP, as determined by the Bankruptcy Court, and any such recovery shall be solely in accordance with and to the extent provided in the Creditor Trust TDP for such Creditor Trust. After the Effective Date, in addition to the Person seeking to assert such Channeled Claim and any Person against which such Channeled Claim is purportedly asserted, only the MDT Trustees, the Creditor Trustees and NewCo shall have standing to participate in any action before the Bankruptcy Court [(or, in the event that such actions are heard before another tribunal, before such tribunal)] in respect of the foregoing. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph is intended or shall be construed to enlarge, amend or modify the provisions of the Bar Date Order, nor is anything in this paragraph intended to derogate from, modify or amend the terms and conditions of any Creditor Trust TDP or the Master TDP or the rights of any MDT Trustee, Creditor Trustee or claims administrator for any Creditor Trust.

F. Procedures for Non-Participating Channeled Claims and Other Disputed Claims

1. Procedures for Non-Participating Channeled Claims and other Disputed Claims Generally

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the PAT Agreement, or the Creditor Trust Documents, all Claims against the Debtors that are Non-Participating Channeled Claims or otherwise Disputed as of the Effective Date shall be subject to the claims resolution procedures set forth in the Plan, including Article VII of the Plan. Any Distributions on account of Non-Participating Channeled Claims or other Disputed Claims shall be reserved pending the completion of the Claims resolution process in Article VII of the Plan.

2. Non-Participating Claims Reserves; PAT Disputed Claims Reserves

(i) Establishment. On the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Plan Administration Trustee and each applicable Creditor Trustee shall, consistent with and subject to section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, with respect to each applicable Class of Claims against the Debtors, establish the PAT Disputed Claims Reserves or the applicable Non-Participating Claims Reserve(s) for such Class.

(ii) Funding of PAT Disputed Claims Reserves. The PAT Disputed Claims Reserves shall be (i) funded on the Effective Date with Effective Date Cash in an amount determined by the Debtors and reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee, the Governmental Consent Parties and, solely with respect to amounts funded on account of Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims, the Sackler Parties' Representative. Following establishment of the PAT Disputed Claims Reserves, the Plan Administration Trustee shall administer the applicable PAT Disputed Claims Reserve, in each case taking into account any changes in the projected distributions to Holders of the applicable Disputed Claims.

(iii) Funding of Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves. With respect to the Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves other than the Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves, (i) each Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and each Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve will be funded on the Effective Date, and from time to time on or after the Effective Date, by the PRA Estate Distributions to which the Holders of the Non-Participating Channeled Claims in such Class would be entitled should their Claims be Allowed Claims pursuant to the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, and (ii) each Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve will be funded from time to time after the Effective Date, in an amount equal to the Non-PRA Estate Distributions to which the Holders of the Non-Participating Channeled Claims in such Class would be entitled should their Claims be Allowed Claims pursuant to the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, in each case as determined by the applicable Creditor Trustee and reasonably acceptable to the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Governmental Consent Parties [and the Sackler Parties' Representative], and (i) with respect to the Class 5 Non-Participating Claims Reserves, the Native American Tribe Group, (ii) with respect to the Class 6 Non-Participating Claims Reserve, the Public School District Claimants, (iii) with respect to the Class 7 Non-Participating Claims Reserve, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, (iv) with respect to the Class 8 Non-Participating Claims Reserve, the Third-Party Payor Group, (v) with respect to the Class 9 Non-Participating Claims Reserve, the ERP Trustee, (vi) with respect to the Class 10(a) Non-Participating Claims Reserve, the NAS Committee, and (vii) with respect to the Class 10(b) Non-Participating Claims Reserves, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims.

(iv) Funding of Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves. The Class 4 PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and Class 4 Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be funded by the Governmental Remediation Trust with the Non-Settling States Holdback Distributions and the Non-Settling Subdivisions Holdback Distributions as Distributions are made by the Master Disbursement Trust to the Governmental Remediation Trust, in each case, in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) In the event that a State is a Non-Settling State on the Effective Date, then such State and each Subdivision of such State that has filed a Proof of Claim will be deemed to hold a Non-Participating Channeled Claim, and (A) a Non-Settling States Holdback Distribution on account of such State and each such Subdivision, that is a PRA Estate Distribution shall be deposited in the Class 4 Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and (B) a Non-Settling States Holdback Distribution on account of such State and each such Subdivision, that is a Non-PRA Estate Distribution shall be deposited in the Class 4 Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve. The Non-Settling States Holdback Distribution for the benefit of such Non-Settling State shall be equal to such State's share of Estate Distributions based on the interstate allocation as further described in Governmental Remediation Trust Documents. Any Non-Settling State's share shall be subdivided generally in accordance with the default state-subdivision allocation set forth in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement as if there was no applicable state-subdivision agreement. The portion of a Non-Settling State's share allocated to its Subdivisions who filed Proofs of Claim shall be further subdivided based on the applicable subdivision metrics developed by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee.

(2) Subject to Section 7.2(d)(iii) of the Plan, in the event that a State is a Settling State, but one or more of its Subdivisions that filed Proofs of Claim are not Participating Subdivisions, then the amount of the total PRA Estate Distributions and Non-PRA Estate Distributions allocated to such State shall be reduced by an amount equal to the share that a Non-Settling Subdivision would have received under (A) the intrastate allocation agreement that exists between that Settling State and its Subdivisions (if an intrastate allocation agreement exists), (B) the intrastate allocation statute (if an intrastate allocation statute exists), or (C) the default state-subdivision allocation set forth in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement (if no intrastate allocation agreement or statute exists), with the Non-Settling Subdivision's share calculated based on the applicable subdivision metrics developed by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, with the amounts of such reductions deposited, (X) in the case of PRA Estate Distributions, in the Class 4 PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and (Y) in the case of Non-PRA Estate Distributions, in the Class 4 Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve. Non-Settling Subdivisions that have filed Proofs of Claim and whose Claims are or may be Allowed may be entitled to different allocations of Estate Distributions upon such Subdivision becoming a Participating Subdivision.

(3) In the event a Non-Settling Subdivision is located in a Settling State that has a statutory bar against such Non-Settling Subdivision pursuing a Released Claim, such Creditor Trust shall not be required to reserve any amount on account of the Non-Participating Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claim held by such Non-Settling Subdivision.

(4) The Class 4 PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be funded over time from each PRA Estate Distribution and the Class 4 Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be funded over time from each Non-PRA Estate Distribution, in each case, on account of each such Class 4 Non-Participating Channeled Claim, as applicable, including such amount(s) payable on account of Attorneys' Fees under Section 5.9 of the Plan.

(v) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserves [and PAT Disputed Claims Reserves]. [Each Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve is intended to be treated and shall be reported as an account of the corresponding Creditor Trust, and not as an entity separate from the corresponding Creditor Trust, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and shall be treated consistently for state and local tax purposes, to the extent applicable. All parties (including the Shareholder Payment Parties, the Debtors, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees, the Plan Administration Trustee, each applicable Creditor Trustee, and Holders of Non-Participating Claims and other Disputed Claims) shall be required to report for tax purposes in a manner consistent with the foregoing. Each applicable Creditor Trustee shall each be responsible for payment, out of the assets of the applicable Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve, of any taxes imposed on the applicable Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve or its assets.][141]

(vi) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and the Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves. Each Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and each Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve is intended to be treated and shall be reported as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Pursuant to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, PRA L.P. will timely elect to treat each Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and each Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve as a "grantor trust," pursuant to Section 1.468B-1(k) of the Treasury Regulations, for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, to the extent permitted under applicable law, for state and local tax purposes, for which PRA L.P. is the sole grantor, owner and transferor, and will not revoke such election. All parties (including the Shareholder Payment Parties, the Debtors, the Foundation, the Plan Administration Trustee, each applicable Creditor Trustee, and Holders of Non-Participating Claims and other Disputed Claims) shall be required to report for tax purposes in a manner consistent with the foregoing. The applicable Creditor Trustee shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of each Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve and each Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve. PRA L.P. shall be responsible for payment of any taxes imposed on or collected from a Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve or a Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve or its respective assets or income.

3. Claim Objections

(i) Prior to Effective Date. Prior to the Effective Date, objections to Claims against the Debtors may be interposed and prosecuted by the Debtors and any other party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Shareholder Released Party; provided, that no Shareholder Released Party shall interpose any objection to a Claim held by a Settling Creditor.

(ii) PAT Disputed Claims Reserves. On or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or the PAT Agreement, objections to Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Adlon General Unsecured Claims, and Other General Unsecured Claims against the Debtors may be interposed and prosecuted only by the Plan Administration Trustee, provided that with respect to Disputed Other GUC Litigation Claims, such objections may be interposed and prosecuted by any other party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Shareholder Released Party. Any objections to Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Adlon General Unsecured Claims, and [Other General Unsecured Claims][142] shall be served on the applicable Holders of such Claims and filed with the Bankruptcy Court (A) on or before one hundred eighty (180) days following the later of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date that a Proof of Claim is filed or amended or a Claim is otherwise asserted or amended in writing by or on behalf of the Holder of such Claim or (B) on such later date as may be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court (including upon request by a party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Shareholder Released Party).

(iii) Objections to Non-Participating Channeled Claims. On or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, objections to Non-Participating Channeled Claims may be interposed and prosecuted by the Master Disbursement Trust and any other party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the applicable Creditor Trustee or any Shareholder Released Party, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to the greatest extent permitted by applicable law to hear and determine such objections.

(iv) Proceedings on Objections to Creditor Trust Channeled Claims other than in Class 4. In connection with any objection to a Non-Participating Channeled Claim other than a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Class 4, any judgment entered (i) as to the validity of such Claim shall constitute a binding determination that such Claim is either Allowed or Disallowed; and (ii) as to the amount of such Claim shall not be binding for purposes of Distribution, which shall instead be determined in accordance with Section 7.7(b) of the Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. The Bankruptcy Court (or any other court of competent jurisdiction in connection with such an objection) may, at its discretion, decline to enter any judgment as to the amount of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim.

(v) Proceedings on Objections to Creditor Trust Channeled Claims in Class 4. In connection with any objection to a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Class 4, any judgment entered (i) as to the validity of such Claim shall constitute a binding determination that such claim is either Allowed or Disallowed; and (ii) shall not determine the amount of such Claim for purposes of Distribution, which shall instead be determined in accordance with Section 7.7(c) of the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court (or any other court of competent jurisdiction in connection with such an objection) may, at its discretion, decline to enter any judgment as to the amount of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim.

(vi) Omnibus Objections to Non-Participating Channeled Claims. On or after the Effective Date, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Bankruptcy Rule 3007, any party in interest, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Trustee for the applicable Creditor Trust or any Shareholder Released Party, may object to more than one Non-Participating Channeled Claim consistent with the Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures Approved in the Bankruptcy Court's Corrected Order Approving (I) Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures, (II) Omnibus Claims Settlement Procedures and (III) Omnibus Claims Hearing Procedures [D.I. 2878] (the "Omnibus Claims Objection Order") as if (solely for purposes of such procedures) such party in interest were the Debtors. Any such omnibus objection shall be governed by the Omnibus Claims Hearing Procedures set forth in the Omnibus Claims Objection Order.

(vii) Joint Hearings on Common Issues of Law or Fact. To the extent that multiple pending objections to Non-Participating Channeled Claims in the same Class (including when brought as an omnibus objection pursuant to Section 7.3(f) of the Plan) raise common issues of law or fact, including for the avoidance of doubt issues of fact as to the Debtors' or other parties' alleged conduct, the Bankruptcy Court may, to the extent practicable and consistent with applicable law, schedule joint hearings in respect of such common issues, including joint evidentiary hearings as to issues of fact. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 7.3(g) of the Plan shall apply notwithstanding differences in the law governing Non-Participating Channeled Claims to which this Section applies.

4. No Distribution Pending Allowance.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or the PAT Agreement, if any portion of any Claim in any Class in the Plan, including any Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Adlon General Unsecured Claims, or Other General Unsecured Claims is Disputed or Non-Participating, no payment or Distribution provided under the Plan shall be made on account of such Claim unless and until such Disputed Claim or Non-Participating Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

5. Estimation of Claims.

Subject in all respects to Section 7.12 of the Plan, the Debtors (before the Effective Date), and the Plan Administration Trustee (on or after the Effective Date), or any party in interest (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Shareholder Released Party) may, at any time, request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate, pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Disputed Adlon General Unsecured Claims or Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims that the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction to estimate in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, regardless of whether an objection was previously filed with the Bankruptcy Court with respect to such Claim, or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to estimate any such Claim at any time during litigation concerning any objection to any such Claim, including during the pendency of any appeal relating to any such objection. If the Bankruptcy Court estimates such a Disputed Claim, such estimated amount shall constitute either the Allowed amount of such Claim, the amount used to determine the PAT Disputed Claims Reserves or a maximum limitation on such Claim, as determined by the Bankruptcy Court. If such estimated amount constitutes a maximum limitation on such Claim, the Plan Administration Trustee or any party in interest (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Shareholder Released Party) may elect to pursue any supplemental proceeding to object to any ultimate Distribution on account of such Claim.

6. Resolution of Claims.

Subject in all respects to Section 7.12 of the Plan, and except as expressly provided in the Plan, the PAT Agreement, the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, or any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court before the Effective Date, including the Confirmation Order, the MDT Trustees, the Plan Administration Trustee and each applicable Creditor Trustee shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses held by the Debtors with respect to any Claim against the Debtors as of the Petition Date, and, subject in all respects to Section 7.12 of the Plan, shall have the authority to compromise, settle, otherwise resolve or withdraw any objections to such Claims and to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve any Non-Participating Channeled Claims and other Disputed Claims without approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that no Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim may be resolved as contemplated in Section 7.6 of the Plan without the consent of the corresponding Creditor Trustee or Plan Administration Trustee, as applicable. Subject to the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, if the Master Disbursement Trust, the Plan Administration Trustee or the applicable Creditor Trustee, as applicable, and a Holder of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim are unable to reach a settlement on the Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim within [●] of the Effective Date, such Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim shall be submitted to the Bankruptcy Court for resolution consistent with Article VII of the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in Section 7.6 of the Plan shall (i) alter the processes for determining Distributions to the Holders of Allowed Channeled Claims set forth in the Plan, any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents or (ii) limit the rights and obligations of the Creditor Trustees in connection with such processes.

*7. Distribution After Allowance.

(i) PAT Disputed Claims Reserves. In accordance with the PAT Agreement, on the first PAT Distribution Date following the date on which a Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claim, Disputed Adlon General Unsecured Claim or Disputed Other General Unsecured Claim becomes an Allowed Claim, the Disbursing Agent shall remit to the respective PAT Distribution Account, for Distribution to the Holder of such Allowed Claim, the Cash or cash equivalents retained in the applicable PAT Disputed Claims Reserve in an amount equal to any amount that would have been distributed to the Holder of such Claim from the Effective Date through and including the PAT Distribution Date if such Claim had been Allowed as of the Effective Date, net of any costs and expenses, including taxes (if any), of or related to the applicable PAT Disputed Claims Reserve. Each Holder of a Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claim, Disputed Adlon General Unsecured Claim and Disputed Other General Unsecured Claim that ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim shall have recourse only to the undistributed Cash held in the applicable PAT Disputed Claims Reserve for satisfaction of such Holders' Allowed Claim and shall have no recourse against any Protected Party or any Assets previously distributed on account of any Allowed Claim. No distribution from a PAT Disputed Claims Reserve or otherwise shall be made on account of any Disputed Claim unless such Disputed Claim is Allowed by a Final Order.

(ii) Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves. With respect to the Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves other than the Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves, in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, following the date on which a Non-Participating Channeled Claim becomes an Allowed Claim, each applicable Creditor Trust shall distribute to the Holder of such Allowed Claim the Cash or cash equivalents retained in the applicable Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve(s) in an amount equal to any Estate Distribution amount that would have been distributed to the Holder of such Claim from the Effective Date through and including the applicable distribution date if such Claim had been Allowed as of the Effective Date pursuant to the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, net of any costs and expenses, including taxes (if any), of or related to the applicable Non-Participating Claims Reserve, and shall be entitled to receive its pro rata share of Estate Distributions as a Holder of an Allowed Claim in its applicable Class if and when such distribution is made, pursuant to the applicable Creditor Trust TDP. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall entitle the Holder of a Non-Participating Claim, regardless of Allowance, to any share of the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion. Each Holder of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim that ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim shall have no recourse against any Protected Party or any Assets previously distributed on account of any Allowed Claim.

(iii) Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves. Upon the Allowance of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Class 4, (i) the Governmental Remediation Trust shall distribute from the Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves to the holder of such Allowed Claim an amount equal to the Estate Distribution the Holder of such Claim would have received if such Claim was an Allowed Class 4 Claim on the Effective Date, less (A) any costs, expenses, and fees (including taxes, if any) of or related to the Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves and (B) any costs, expenses, and fees incurred by the Governmental Remediation Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Debtors, or any Released Party (to the extent not already claimed or paid to or on behalf of any Released Party out of the Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amounts or the Special Operating Reserve) arising out of, in relation to, or in connection with litigating or in any way resolving any objection to that Class 4 Claim, and (ii) the Holders of such Claim shall be entitled to receive further Estate Distributions pursuant to Article VI of the Plan.

8. Disallowance of Non-Participating Channeled Claims and Other Disputed Claims.

(i) PAT Disputed Claims Reserves

(1) Upon Disallowance of a Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claim, Disputed Adlon General Unsecured Claim or Disputed Other General Unsecured Claim other than Disputed Other GUC Litigation Claims, in whole or in part, the Plan Administration Trustee shall (i) first, reallocate all amounts reserved for distribution on account of such Disallowed Claim or the Disallowed portion thereof (the "Disallowed Claim Distribution") to Holders of then Allowed and Disputed Claims in the applicable Class and (ii) second, distribute the Disallowed Claim Distribution that has been so reallocated to each Holder of an Allowed Claim in such Class and allocate to the PAT Disputed Claims Reserve for such Class, pro rata, in accordance with clause (i) of this sentence.

(2) Upon Disallowance of a Disputed Other GUC Litigation Claim, any amounts held on account of such Disputed Other GUC Litigation Claim shall be transferred by the Plan Administration Trustee to the PAT Released Claims Reserve and any future distribution that would have been made to the Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims Reserve on account of such Disputed Other GUC Litigation Claim shall be funded directly to the PAT Released Claims Reserve.

(ii) Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserves. Upon Disallowance of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim other than with respect to any Non-Participating Channeled Claims in Class 4: (i) any amounts held in the applicable Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve or the applicable Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve on account of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim shall be transferred by the applicable Creditor Trustee from the applicable Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve or the applicable Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve directly to the corresponding Released Claims Reserve and any future Distribution that would have been funded to the applicable Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve or the applicable Select Private Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve on account of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim shall be funded directly to the applicable Released Claims Reserve, and (ii) any amounts held in the applicable Creditor Trust Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve on account of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim shall be released to the applicable Creditor Trust for distribution pursuant to the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

(iii) Class 4 Non-Participating Claims Reserves. In the event a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Class 4 is Disallowed: (i) the amount reserved on account of such Claim in the Class 4 PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be released to the corresponding Released Claims Reserve, and any future Distribution that would have been funded to the Class 4 PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve on account of such Non-Participating Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim shall be funded directly to the Released Claim Reserve established in the Governmental Remediation Trust, and (ii) the amount reserved on account of such Claim in the Class 4 Non-PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserve shall be released to the Governmental Remediation Trust for distribution pursuant to the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents.

(iv) Released Claims Reserves. All amounts funded to the Released Claims Reserves in accordance with Section 7.8 of the Plan shall be administered in accordance with the terms of Article 5 and Exhibit N of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

9. Allowance of Non-Participating Channeled Claims

(i) If no objection is affirmatively raised to the Allowance of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim (other than a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Classes 10(a) or 10(b)) within two (2) years of the Effective Date, such claim shall be deemed Allowed and the holder thereof shall be entitled to the Estate Distribution allocated to such Channeled Claim under the applicable TDP. If no objection is affirmatively raised to the Allowance of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim in Classes 10(a) or 10(b) within [one (1) year][143] of the Effective Date, such claim shall be deemed Allowed and the holder thereof shall be entitled to the Estate Distribution allocated to such Channeled Claim (if any) under the applicable TDP. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) any Allowance pursuant to Section 7.9(a) of the Plan shall not constitute a determination as to the merits of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim and shall not be used as a basis to assert the merits of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim in any forum, and (ii) any Non-Participating Channeled Claim that is Allowed (pursuant to Section 7.9 of the Plan or otherwise) shall still be subject to, and shall only receive a distribution pursuant to, the applicable TDP.

(ii) For the purposes of Allowance of any Non-Participating Channeled Claim that is not otherwise Disallowed in accordance with the Plan, such Channeled Claim shall be deemed an Allowed Claim (i) pursuant to a settlement or other resolution in accordance with Section 7.6 of the Plan, (ii) pursuant to Section 7.9(a) of the Plan, or (iii) upon entry of a Final Order finding that such Holder has a valid, compensable Channeled Claim, regardless of the allowed amount of such Channeled Claim (and, for the avoidance of doubt, such Holder shall not be required to litigate the allowed amount of its Allowed Claim). Other than as expressly contemplated by the applicable trust distribution procedures, any judgment entered as to the amount of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim shall not be binding for purposes of Distribution, which shall instead be determined in accordance with Sections 7.7(b) and (c) of the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court (or any other court of competent jurisdiction in connection with such an objection) may, at its discretion, decline to enter any judgment as to the amount of a Non-Participating Channeled Claim.

10. Claims Resolution Procedures Cumulative

All of the objection, estimation, settlement and resolution procedures set forth in the Plan with respect to Claims against the Debtors are intended to be cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims against the Debtors may be established and subsequently settled, compromised, withdrawn or resolved in accordance with the Plan by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

[143] [NTD: subject to ongoing review.]

11. No Postpetition Interest or Penalties on Non-Participating Channeled Claims and other Disputed Claims

Unless otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan or the Confirmation Order or required by applicable bankruptcy law, no Holder of a Claim shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date or to any penalties on any Claim. Interest and penalties shall not accrue or be paid upon any Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim with respect to the period from the Effective Date to the date a Distribution is made thereon, or on and after such Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

12. Shareholder Rights Regarding Settlement and Estimation of Claims

[In consideration of certain compromises made under the Shareholder Settlements, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or the other Plan Documents, neither the Debtors, the reorganized Debtors, the Estates, the Plan Administration Trust, the Plan Administration Trustee, any of the Creditor Trusts, any of the Creditor Trustees, nor any representative or successor of any of the foregoing shall be permitted to settle or seek to estimate any Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim absent the express written consent of the Sackler Parties' Representative, not to be unreasonably withheld, solely to the extent that such settlement or estimation of any such Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim could be reasonably expected to adversely impact any Shareholder Released Party's defense against or resolution of any claims or Causes of Action asserted or potentially asserted against any Shareholder Released Party [for Covered Conduct] that would have been released pursuant to the Shareholder Direct Claims Release had the Persons asserting or potentially asserting such claims or Causes of Action been Settling Creditors (including because admissions of fact or showings of evidentiary support requisite to effectuation of such settlement or estimation could adversely impact the legal defenses of any Shareholder Released Party); provided that no such consent shall be required to the extent that (a) such settlement or estimation of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim is sought in an amount not exceeding $[1,000,000], (b) such settlement or estimation of such Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim would include no non-monetary conditions on the part of any Debtor, any reorganized Debtor, any Estate, the Plan Administration Trust, the Plan Administration Trustee, any Creditor Trust, any Creditor Trustee, or any representative or successor of any of the foregoing, and (c) the total aggregate amount of Non-Participating Channeled Claims or other Disputed Claims or formerly Non-Participating Channeled Claims or other Disputed Claims that have been settled or estimated do not exceed $[10,000,000]. Whether or not the Debtors, the reorganized Debtors, the Estates, the Plan Administration Trust, the Plan Administration Trustee, any of the Creditor Trusts, any of the Creditor Trustees, or any representative or successor of any of the foregoing settles or estimates (or seeks to settle or estimate) any Non-Participating Channeled Claim or other Disputed Claim, in no event shall any Shareholder Released Parties be considered the privies of any of the foregoing for purposes of preclusion principles or otherwise.][144]

G. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

1. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

(i) As of and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, all executory contracts and unexpired leases to which any Debtor is a party, subject to the terms of Section 8.4 of the Plan, shall be deemed assumed by the applicable Debtor and, except with respect to any contract or lease held by a Transferred Debtor, assigned to NewCo or its designee, except for any executory contract or unexpired lease that (i) has previously been assumed or rejected pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) is specifically identified on the Schedule of Rejected Contracts, (iii) is the subject of a separate assumption or rejection motion filed by the Debtors under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code pending on the Confirmation Date, (iv) is the subject of a pending Contract Dispute or (v) is being otherwise treated pursuant to the Plan. The Debtors reserve the right to modify the treatment of any particular executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to the Plan [with the reasonable consent to the Governmental Consent Parties]. Furthermore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Debtors may alter, amend, modify or supplement the Schedule of Rejected Contracts and assume, assume and assign or reject executory contracts and unexpired leases at any time prior to the Effective Date or, with respect to any executory contract or unexpired lease subject to a Contract Dispute that is resolved after the Effective Date, within thirty (30) days following entry of a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court resolving such Contract Dispute.

(ii) Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, the payment of any applicable Cure Amount and the resolution of any Contract Dispute, the entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute approval of the rejections, assumptions and assumptions and assignments provided for in the Plan pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Unless otherwise indicated in the Plan or provided in a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, rejections, assumptions and assumptions and assignments of executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to the Solicitation Procedures Order and the Plan are effective as of the Effective Date. Each executory contract and unexpired lease assumed pursuant to the Plan or by order of the Bankruptcy Court shall vest in and be fully enforceable by the applicable Debtor or NewCo, in each case in accordance with its terms, except as modified by the provisions of the Plan, any order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing and providing for its assumption, or applicable law.

(iii) Unless otherwise provided in the Plan (including Section 8.4 of the Plan) or by separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, each executory contract or unexpired lease that is assumed or assumed and assigned shall include any and all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument or other document that in any manner affects such executory contract or unexpired lease, without regard to whether such agreement, instrument or other document is listed in an Assumption Notice.

(iv) Except as otherwise expressly set forth on an Assumption Notice, any contracts, engagement letters, retention agreements, and similar arrangements, in each case between the Debtors and any attorneys, accountants, financial advisors, investment bankers or similar professionals, representatives or advisors, shall not be treated under the Plan as executory contracts subject to assumption, assumption and assignment, or rejection. Counterparties to any such contracts, engagement letters, retention agreements and similar arrangements were required to file Proofs of Claim by the General Bar Date, and any Allowed Claims relating thereto shall be treated as Other General Unsecured Claims or Co-Defendant Claims, as applicable.

2. Determination of Contract Disputes and Deemed Consent

(i) The Debtors shall serve Assumption Notices in accordance with the Solicitation Procedures Order. If a counterparty to an executory contract or unexpired lease receives an Assumption Notice, but such executory contract or unexpired lease is not listed therein, the proposed Cure Amount for such executory contract or unexpired lease shall be deemed to be zero dollars ($0).

(ii) Any counterparty to an executory contract or unexpired lease shall have the time prescribed in the Solicitation Procedures Order to object to (i) the Cure Amount identified on the Assumption Notice, (ii) adequate assurance of future performance by the applicable Debtor, NewCo or its assignee (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) and (iii) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assumption and assignment of such executory contract or unexpired lease on the terms set forth in the Plan and such Assumption Notice.

(iii) To the extent a Contract Dispute is asserted in an objection filed in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Assumption Notice, such Contract Dispute shall be heard by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing. Following resolution of a Contract Dispute by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, the applicable executory contract or unexpired lease shall be deemed assumed or assumed and assigned effective as of the Effective Date, subject to the Debtors' right to reject such executory contract or unexpired lease at any time prior to the Effective Date or, if any Contract Dispute is resolved after the Effective Date, within thirty (30) days following entry of such Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court resolving the applicable Contract Dispute.

(iv) To the extent a Contract Dispute has not been resolved prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish the Disputed Cure Claims Reserve. Any amounts in the Disputed Cure Claims Reserve remaining after the resolution of all Disputed Cure Claims and the payment of all Cure Amounts with respect to Allowed Cure Claims for contracts and leases to be assumed or assumed and assigned shall be applied in accordance with Section 5.14(c) of the Plan.

(v) To the extent an objection is not timely filed and properly served on the Debtors with respect to a Contract Dispute, then the counterparty to the applicable contract or lease shall be deemed to have assented to (i) the Cure Amount proposed by the Debtors and (ii) the assumption or assumption and assignment of such contract or lease on the terms set forth in the Plan and the Assumption Notice, notwithstanding any provision of the applicable contract or lease that (A) prohibits, restricts or conditions the transfer or assignment of such contract or lease or (B) terminates or permits the termination of such contract or lease as a result of any direct or indirect transfer or assignment of the rights of the Debtors under such contract or lease or a change in the ownership or control as contemplated by the Plan, and shall forever be barred and enjoined from asserting such objection against the Debtors or terminating or modifying such contract or lease on account of transactions contemplated by the Plan.

(vi) With respect to payment of any Cure Amounts or resolution of Contract Disputes, none of the Debtors, the Plan Administration Trustee, NewCo or any Transferred Debtor shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable executory contract or unexpired lease, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned or otherwise transferred its Cure Claim.

3. Payments Related to Assumption of Contracts and Leases

(i) Subject to resolution of any Contract Dispute, any Cure Claim shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Plan Administration Trust from the Priority Claims Reserve or the Disputed Cure Claims Reserve, as applicable, or NewCo in the ordinary course of business upon assumption thereof.

(ii) Assumption or assumption and assignment of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to the Plan, or otherwise, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, subject to satisfaction of the Cure Amount, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed executory contract or unexpired lease at any time before the effective date of assumption or assumption and assignment. Any Proofs of Claim filed with respect to an executory contract or unexpired lease that has been assumed shall be deemed Disallowed and expunged, without further notice, or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person.

4. Co-Defendant Contracts

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or agreed by any counterparty and the Debtors (with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Governmental Consent Parties, and after consultation with the Creditors' Committee), the assumption of any contract or lease under the Plan shall (a) release any Causes of Action on account of any and all terms or provisions of such contract or lease solely to the extent such terms or provisions create an obligation of any party thereto (or any assignee thereof), or give rise to a right in favor of any non-Debtor under any MDT Insurance Policy or any other insurance policy of any Protected Party, for the indemnification or reimbursement of any Person for costs, losses, damages, fees, expenses or any other amounts whatsoever relating to or arising from any actual or potential opioid-related litigation or dispute, whether accrued or unaccrued, asserted or unasserted, existing or hereinafter arising, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, Opioid-Related Activities or other conduct occurring prior to the Effective Date; and (b) constitute a release by each party of each other counterparty (and any assignee thereof or successor thereto) and by each non-Debtor party of all Insurance Companies, in each case, from any and all Causes of Action and other rights of recovery arising under or relating to such indemnification and reimbursement rights to the extent relating to any conduct occurring prior to the Effective Date, and an agreement by each non-Debtor counterparty to release any and all Co-Defendant Claims held by such party and to channel, in accordance with the Channeling Injunction, all Channeled Claims arising under or relating to such contract, including any such Claims that might otherwise be elevated to administrative status through assumption of such contract or lease. On the Effective Date, (x) all Co-Defendant Claims arising under or related to any such assumed or assumed and assigned contract or lease shall be released and discharged with no consideration on account thereof, and all Proofs of Claim in respect thereof shall be deemed expunged, without further notice, or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person and (y) all Channeled Claims arising under or related to any such assumed or assumed and assigned contract or lease shall be channeled in accordance with the Channeling Injunction. For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise agreed by the counterparty to any assumed or assumed and assigned contract or lease, the foregoing shall not release or otherwise modify any term or provision of such contract or lease to the extent of any indemnification or reimbursement rights (i) accruing after the Effective Date for conduct occurring after the Effective Date, (ii) for any amounts, if any, due to a Co-Defendant as a result of the New York Opioid Stewardship Act (2018 N.Y. Sess. Laws, ch. 57, pt. NN 7 (codified at N.Y. Pub. Health Law § 3323 and N.Y. State Fin. Law § 97-aaaaa)) or (iii) for any Co-Defendant Surviving Pre-Effective Date Claim. Notwithstanding the release, satisfaction, expungement and extinguishment of Co-Defendant Claims, a Co-Defendant retains its Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, which include the ability to recover from Persons that are not Protected Parties or from any insurance policies that are not Purdue Insurance Policies or other insurance policies of Protected Parties. The counterparty to such contract or lease and all other applicable Persons shall be bound by the terms set forth in Section 8.4 of the Plan.

5. Rejection Claims

In the event that the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease by any of the Debtors in the Plan results in damages to the other party or parties to such contract or lease, any Claim for such damages shall be forever barred and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors or their Estates, properties or interests in property, unless a Proof of Claim is filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served upon the Debtors no later than thirty (30) days after the entry of the order of the Bankruptcy Court (including the Confirmation Order) authorizing the rejection of such executory contract or unexpired lease. Any such Claim shall be classified in accordance with the classification of Claims set forth in Article III of the Plan, including that any such Claims that constitute Co-Defendant Claims shall be classified as such. The Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's authorization of the rejection of all the leases and contracts identified in the Schedule of Rejected Contracts.

6. Compensation and Benefit Plans

Except with respect to any Benefit Plans for which the Debtors have received approval of the Bankruptcy Court to reject or terminate on or before the Effective Date or that are subject to a pending motion to reject or terminate as of the Confirmation Hearing, all Benefit Plans shall be deemed to be, and shall be treated as, executory contracts under the Plan pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be assumed by applicable Debtors and, unless held by a Transferred Debtor, assigned to NewCo (or one of its Subsidiaries).

7. Purdue Pension Plan

The Purdue Pension Plan has approximately 3,200 participants. PPLP is the contributing sponsor of the Purdue Pension Plan. The Debtors that are members of the contributing sponsor's controlled-group within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. §§ 1301(a)(13), (14) are jointly and severally liable with respect to the Purdue Pension Plan. Further, any non-debtor members of the contributing sponsor's controlled-group are also jointly and severally liable with respect to the Purdue Pension Plan.

On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall have commenced a standard termination of the Purdue Pension Plan pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1341 and any standard termination costs, other liabilities, or obligations remaining thereunder as of the Effective Date shall be assumed and payable by NewCo.

NewCo or its wholly owned subsidiary will assume the Purdue Pension Plan to the extent the standard termination and PBGC audit, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1303, has not been completed for the Purdue Pension Plan prior to the Effective Date. Specifically, upon the Effective Date, NewCo or its wholly owned subsidiary shall be deemed to have assumed the Purdue Pension Plan (to the extent the standard termination and PBGC audit has not been completed prior to the Effective Date) and all liabilities and assets thereunder and shall comply with all applicable statutory provisions of ERISA and the IRC, including, but not limited to, satisfying the minimum funding standards pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §§ 412, 430, and 29 U.S.C. §§1082, 1083; paying the PBGC premiums in accordance with 29 U.S.C. §§ 1306 and 1307; administering the Purdue Pension Plan in accordance with its terms and the provisions of ERISA and the IRC, and completing the standard termination under 29 U.S.C. § 1341 (and NewCo reserves all rights thereunder).

Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, no provision contained in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Bankruptcy Code (including section 1141 thereof), or any other document filed in the Debtors' bankruptcy cases shall be construed as discharging, releasing, exculpating or relieving any Person (other than the Liquidating Debtors) from any fiduciary duties or liabilities under Title I of ERISA with respect to the Purdue Pension Plan. PBGC and the Purdue Pension Plan shall not be enjoined or precluded from enforcing such fiduciary duties or liabilities under Title I of ERISA as a result of any of the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Bankruptcy Code or any other document filed in the Debtors' bankruptcy cases. The PBGC and the Debtors agree that all Proofs of Claim filed by the PBGC shall be deemed to be withdrawn, with prejudice, as of the Effective Date.

8. Insurance Policies

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order:

(i) nothing in the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Disclosure Statement or the Confirmation Order shall terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Insurance Policy with respect to conduct occurring on or prior to the Effective Date, and, after the Effective Date, all directors, officers, managers, authorized agents and employees of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time prior to the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any applicable D&O Insurance Policy for the full term of such policy, including but not limited to any extension of coverage after the end of such policy period if an extended reporting period has been purchased, in accordance with the terms thereof, subject to (i) any release or assignment of rights by certain Shareholder Released Parties pursuant to the Shareholder Settlements and (ii) with respect to D&O Insurance Policies that are MDT Insurance Policies, the provisions of paragraph (b) of Section 8.8 of the Plan.

(ii) after the Effective Date, in consideration of the Estate Releases and Shareholder Releases in favor of each Released Party and Shareholder Released Party that is an individual insured under any MDT Insurance Policy:

(1) each such Released Party or Shareholder Released Party (A) will fully cooperate with the Master Disbursement Trust in connection with the settlement of claims or rights under such MDT Insurance Policy, including but not limited to as set forth in Section 8.8(b)(i) of the Plan, and (B) shall be deemed to consent to the release of any claims or rights held by such Released Party or Shareholder Released Party against and under such MDT Insurance Policy in the event that the Master Disbursement Trust has otherwise obtained settlement terms that it deems acceptable in its sole discretion with the same effect as if such Released Party or Shareholder Released Party had executed such settlement agreement, and without further consideration to such Released Party or Shareholder Released Party from the insurance settlement proceeds or otherwise in respect of such settlement;

(2) no such Released Party or Shareholder Released Party (other than a Sackler Family Member) that was a director, officer, manager, authorized agent or employee of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time prior to the Petition Date shall be entitled to submit a claim under any MDT Insurance Policy for anything other than reimbursement of attorneys' fees and related expenses incurred in connection with such individual's cooperation with, or in connection with the defense of such individual with respect to, any investigation, prosecution and/or litigation involving conduct relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property or any defense of the Releases or the Channeling Injunction; and

(3) no such Shareholder Released Party (other than a current or former director, officer, manager, authorized agent or employee that is not a Sackler Family Member, each of whom is subject to paragraph (ii) of Section 8.8(b) of the Plan) shall be entitled to submit a claim under any MDT Insurance Policy other than in accordance with the Shareholder Settlements.

(iii) on and after the Effective Date, all Purdue Insurance Policies (other than the MDT Insurance Policies) shall be deemed to be, and shall be treated as, executory contracts under the Plan, and shall be assumed pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code by the applicable Debtor, and such Purdue Insurance Policies shall vest, and/or the Purdue Insurance Rights (other than the MDT Insurance Rights) associated therewith shall vest, as applicable, in NewCo, the applicable Transferred Debtor or the Plan Administration Trust, as applicable, in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement and the PAT Agreement and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their respective terms such that the applicable recipients of the Purdue Insurance Policies (other than the MDT Insurance Policies) and the Purdue Insurance Rights (other than the MDT Insurance Rights) shall become and remain liable in full for and shall satisfy, to the extent required under applicable law, any prospective premiums, deductibles, self-insured retentions and any other amounts or obligations arising in any way out of the receipt of payment from an Insurance Company in respect of the Purdue Insurance Policies (other than the MDT Insurance Policies); and

(iv) solely with respect to Purdue Insurance Policies that are not MDT Insurance Policies, the automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the injunctions set forth in the Plan, if and to the extent applicable, shall be deemed lifted without further order of this Bankruptcy Court, solely to permit (i) claimants with valid workers' compensation claims or direct action claims against Insurance Companies under applicable non-bankruptcy law to proceed with their claims; and (ii) Insurance Companies to administer, handle, defend, settle and/or pay, in the ordinary course of business and without further order of this Bankruptcy Court, (A) workers' compensation claims, (B) claims where a claimant asserts a direct claim against an Insurance Company under applicable non-bankruptcy law, or an order has been entered by this Bankruptcy Court granting a claimant relief from the automatic stay or the injunctions set forth in the Plan to proceed with its claim, and (C) all costs in relation to each of the foregoing.

9. Reservation of Rights

(i) Neither the exclusion nor the inclusion by the Debtors of any contract or lease on any exhibit, schedule or other annex to the Plan or in the Plan Supplement, nor anything contained in the Plan, shall constitute an admission by the Debtors that any such contract or lease is or is not an executory contract or unexpired lease or that the Debtors have any liability thereunder.

(ii) Except as explicitly provided in the Plan, nothing in the Plan shall waive, excuse, limit, diminish or otherwise alter any of the Estate Causes of Action under any executory or non-executory contract or unexpired lease.

(iii) Nothing in the Plan shall increase, augment or add to any of the duties, obligations, responsibilities or liabilities of the Debtors under any executory or non-executory contract or unexpired or expired lease, including the Purdue Insurance Policies.

(iv) If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory or unexpired at the time of its assumption under the Plan, the Debtors shall have thirty (30) days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract or lease.

H. Conditions Precedent to the Occurrence of the Effective Date

1. Conditions Precedent to Effective Date

The Effective Date shall not occur unless all of the following conditions precedent have been satisfied:

(i) the Confirmation Order shall have been entered by the Bankruptcy Court, and shall not be subject to any stay and shall not have been modified or vacated on appeal;

(ii) the Plan Documents shall have been approved of or accepted by all applicable Persons in accordance with the respective consent rights under the Plan, and shall have been filed, executed and delivered, as applicable, and the conditions precedent contained therein shall have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms thereof, except with respect to such conditions that by their terms shall be satisfied substantially simultaneously with or after consummation of the Plan;

(iii) the DOJ Resolution (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the entry of a judgment of conviction in strict accordance with the Plea Agreement and the payment in full of the DOJ Forfeiture Payment) shall have been consummated or will be consummated substantially simultaneously with consummation of the Plan;

(iv) the NewCo Operating Agreement shall have been executed and shall be in compliance with the DOJ Resolution, the NewCo Transferred Assets shall have vested in NewCo (or one or more of its Subsidiaries) in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement and the NewCo Managers shall have been appointed;

(v) the MDT Agreement shall have been executed, the MDT Transferred Assets shall have vested, or will vest simultaneously with the consummation of the Plan, in the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance therewith and the MDT Trustees shall have been appointed;

(vi) the Creditor Trust Documents shall have been executed and the Creditor Trustees shall have been appointed;

(vii) the Public Entity Settlements other than the Public School District Shareholder Direct Settlement shall have been consummated or will be consummated substantially simultaneously with consummation of the Plan, including (i) the payment in full of the Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions and (ii) the issuance of the MDT Interests to the Public Creditor Trusts;

(viii) the Foundation Bylaws shall have been adopted, the Foundation Trustees shall have been appointed and the NewCo Interest shall have been issued, or will be issued simultaneously with consummation of the Plan to the Foundation;

(ix) the Private Entity Settlements other than the Opt-Out Class Action Settlements shall have been consummated or will be consummated substantially simultaneously with consummation of the Plan, including: (i) with respect to the Creditor Trusts that are not the subject of Opt-Out Class Actions, the payment in full of the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions to such Creditor Trusts, (ii) the issuance of the MDT Claims (in the case of Creditor Trusts that are the subject of Opt-Out Class Actions, to the extent that the applicable Opt-Out Class Action Settlement has been consummated) and (iii) the execution of any Plan Documents required to be executed in connection with the foregoing;

(x) with respect to the Creditor Trusts that are the subject of Opt-Out Class Actions, payment in full of the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions to such Creditor Trusts, or, to the extent that the applicable Opt-Out Class Action Settlement has not been consummated, the placement of the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions for such Creditor Trusts into the applicable Class Action Escrow Account;

(xi) each Shareholder Settlement Agreement other than the Opt-Out Class Action Settlements shall have been executed and all amounts required to be paid thereunder on the Effective Date shall have been received, and all of the conditions precedent to the effectiveness of each Shareholder Settlement Agreement other than the Opt-Out Class Action Settlements shall have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms of such Shareholder Settlement Agreement;

(xii) the Ratepayer Mediation Participants Stipulation shall have been approved by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court;

(xiii) the PAT Agreement shall have been executed, the PAT Assets shall have vested, or will vest simultaneously with the consummation of the Plan, in the Plan Administration Trust in accordance therewith and the Plan Administration Trustee shall have been appointed;

(xiv) each of the PAT Reserves, the Claims Reserves, the Professional Fee Escrow Account the Special Operating Reserve and the PAT Distribution Accounts shall have been fully funded, or will be funded simultaneously with the consummation of the Plan, and each of the other payments and Distributions of Effective Date Cash described in Sections 5.14(a) and (b) of the Plan shall have been made or will be made substantially simultaneously with consummation of the Plan;

(xv) the Debtors shall have obtained all authorizations, consents, regulatory approvals, rulings and documents that are necessary to implement and effectuate the Plan;

(xvi) all Professional Fee Claims shall have been paid in full or amounts sufficient to pay such Claims after the Effective Date shall have been placed in the Professional Fee Escrow Account, or shall be otherwise contained in a professional fee retainer, pending approval by the Bankruptcy Court;

(xvii) the Debtors shall have implemented the Restructuring Transactions, or shall implement the Restructuring Transactions simultaneously with the consummation of the Plan, in a manner consistent in all material respects with the Plan;

(xviii) the Bankruptcy Court shall have confirmed that the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the transfer and vesting of the MDT Transferred Assets, notwithstanding any terms of the Purdue Insurance Policies or provisions of non-bankruptcy law that any Insurance Company may otherwise argue prohibits such transfer and vesting;

(xix) the DOB shall have been appointed in accordance with Section 5.13(c) of the Plan;

(xx) all Liens granted as contemplated by the Plan and any documents included in the Plan Supplement shall have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court;

(xxi) the Debtors shall have Effective Date Cash sufficient to pay the effective date fixed payments as provided in Section 5.14(a) of the Plan in full in cash; and (xxii) all other actions, documents and agreements necessary to implement and effectuate the Plan shall have been effected or executed.

2. Waiver of Conditions Precedent

Each of the conditions precedent to the occurrence of the Effective Date (other than the condition precedent set forth in Section 9.1(i) of the Plan) may be waived by the Debtors; provided that (a) with respect to any condition precedent, the waiver of which would materially and adversely affect the entitlements of any Class of Claims (or any Creditor Trust to which such Claims shall be channeled) represented by any of the Supporting Claimants, the waiver of such condition precedent shall also require the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the applicable Supporting Claimants representing such materially and adversely affected Class of Claims, it being understood that the waiver of the condition precedent set forth in Section 9.1(i) of the Plan materially and adversely affects the Class of Claims and the Creditor Trust entitled to the applicable Initial Private Creditor Trust Distribution and/or MDT Claim, (b) the waiver of the conditions precedent set forth in Sections 9.1(a), (b) (solely with respect to any Plan Document over which the Creditors' Committee has a consent right set forth in the Plan), (e), (f), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (p) (solely with respect to Professional Fee Claims by Professional Persons retained by the Creditors' Committee), (q), (r), (s), and (u) of the Plan shall also require the consent of the Creditors' Committee (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), (c) the waiver of the conditions precedent set forth in Sections 9.1(a), (b) (solely with respect to any Plan Document over which the Governmental Consent Parties have a consent right set forth in the Plan), (d), (e), (f), (g), (i), (n), (q), (r), (s), and (u) of the Plan shall also require the consent of the Governmental Consent Parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) and (d) the waiver of the conditions precedent set forth in Sections 9.1(a), (b) (solely with respect to any Plan Document over which the Sackler Parties' Representative has a consent right set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement), (e), (g), (i), (j), (k), (m), (n) and (q) of the Plan shall also require the consent of the Sackler Parties' Representative (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

3. Frustration of Conditions Precedent

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, if the failure to satisfy any condition precedent to the Effective Date set forth in Section 9.1 of the Plan was primarily caused by the action of any party (or such party's failure to act), then (i) such party's consent shall not be required for the Debtors' waiver of such condition and (ii) such party shall not be entitled to prevent or delay the Effective Date by asserting that such condition has not been satisfied.

I. Effect of Confirmation

1. Binding Effect

Except as otherwise provided in section 1141(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, on and after the entry of the Confirmation Order, the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Documents shall bind every Holder of a Claim against or Interest in any Debtor and every Holder of a Channeled Claim and inure to the benefit of, and be binding on, any such Holder's respective successors and assigns, regardless of whether any Claim or Interest of such Holder is Impaired under the Plan or whether such Holder has accepted the Plan.

2. Discharge of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors

Upon the Effective Date and in consideration of the Distributions to be made under the Plan, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, each Holder (as well as any trustee or agent on behalf of such Holder) of a Claim or Interest and any successor, assign and affiliate of such Holder shall be deemed to have forever waived, released and discharged the Debtors (other than the Liquidating Debtors), to the fullest extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, of and from any and all Claims, Interests, rights and liabilities that arose prior to the Effective Date. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, upon the Effective Date, all such Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, and their successors, assigns and affiliates, shall be forever precluded and enjoined, pursuant to sections 105, 524 and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, from prosecuting or asserting any such discharged Claim against, or terminated Interest in, any Debtor. Pursuant to section 1141(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, confirmation of the Plan will not discharge the Liquidating Debtors; provided that, upon confirmation of the Plan and the occurrence of the Effective Date, Holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors may not seek or receive any payment or other Distribution from, or seek recourse against, the Debtors or their Estates or, to the extent set forth in the Plan, any other Protected Party, except as expressly provided in the Plan. The Co-Defendant Defensive Rights shall not be waived, released or discharged and all Co-Defendant Defensive Rights are preserved, as provided in Section 10.18 of the Plan.

3. Pre-Confirmation Injunctions, Stays, Stipulations and Discovery Orders

(i) Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, all injunctions and stays arising under or entered during the Chapter 11 Cases, whether under section 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

(ii) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of Section 10.3 of the Plan, on the Effective Date, without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court:

(1) any and all obligations of the Shareholder Released Parties arising under the Case Stipulation shall terminate and the Case Stipulation shall be withdrawn, vacated and superseded by the Confirmation Order solely with respect to paragraphs 15, 17, 19, 22 and 25 of the Case Stipulation, and solely as such paragraphs apply to any Shareholder Released Party; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the terms of such paragraphs shall continue in full force and effect with respect to all other parties (if applicable), and all other provisions of the Case Stipulation shall remain in full force and effect, in each case, unless otherwise provided by the Plan;

(2) any and all obligations of any Shareholder Released Party arising under paragraph I of the voluntary injunction set forth in Appendix I to the Preliminary Injunction (and any predecessors or successors of the Preliminary Injunction) shall terminate, and the Preliminary Injunction shall be withdrawn, vacated and superseded by the Confirmation Order solely with respect to paragraph I of the voluntary injunction set forth in Appendix I; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, all other provisions of the Preliminary Injunction shall remain in full force and effect, unless otherwise provided by the Plan; and

(3) any and all obligations of any Person arising under any subpoenas issued pursuant to any of Order Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and 9016 Authorizing Examination of Third Parties [D.I. 992] (as amended by the Amended Order Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and 9016 Authorizing Examination of Third Parties [D.I. 1008]), the Order Pursuant to Rules 2004 and 9016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Authorizing Examinations of Certain Financial Institutions [D.I. 1143], the Order Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and 9016 Authorizing Examinations of and Document Production by Third Parties [D.I. 1340] and the Order Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and 9016 Authorizing Examination of Certain Former Debtor Executives, Separately Represented Debtor Personnel, and Norton Rose Fulbright Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and 9006 [D.I. 1788] shall terminate.

(iii) Any and all information shared or produced by any Shareholder Released Party pursuant to the agreements or orders referenced in the foregoing paragraph (b) of Section 10.3 of the Plan, including any such information also shared with Persons not party to the Case Stipulation shall remain subject to the confidentiality terms under which it was shared, including any information that was designated under the Protective Order (or confidentiality agreement that was superseded by the Protective Order), which such information shall remain confidential under the terms of the Protective Order unless such information, materials or documents are included in the Public Document Repository in accordance with the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. Names or other identifying information of investments or specific third-party counterparties or advisors with whom or with which a Shareholder Released Party has or had a third-party investment, advisory or business relationship that was disclosed in documents or information produced by a Shareholder Released Party and designated Outside Professional Eyes Only Information under the Protective Order shall retain such designation and be protected accordingly.

(iv) Except as provided in the PI TDP, nothing in the Plan shall either (i) excuse any Person from compliance with any legislative, judicial or administrative subpoena, any civil investigative demand or any request for information made in the course of a government investigation; or (ii) limit any right of any Person with respect to compliance with any legislative, judicial or administrative subpoena, any civil investigative demand or any request for information made in the course of a government investigation.

4. Injunction against Interference with Plan

Subject to Section 12.4 of the Plan, upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, Holders of Channeled Claims, Releasing Parties, Released Parties, Shareholder Released Parties and other parties in interests shall be enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan and the Plan Documents. Section 10.4 of the Plan shall be included in the Confirmation Order.

5. Plan Injunction

(i) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, as of the entry of the Confirmation Order but subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, all Persons who have held, hold or may hold Claims against or Interests in the Debtors are, with respect to any such Claim or Interest, permanently enjoined after the entry of the Confirmation Order from: (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting, directly or indirectly, a Debtor or an Estate or the property of any of the foregoing, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this clause (i) or any property of any such transferee or successor; (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting or otherwise recovering in any manner or by any means, whether directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order against a Debtor or an Estate or its property, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this clause (ii) or any property of any such transferee or successor; (iii) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against a Debtor or an Estate or any of its property, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this clause (iv) or any property of any such transferee or successor; (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to, or comply with, the provisions of the Plan; and (vi) commencing or continuing, in any manner or in any place, any action that does not comply, or is inconsistent, with the provisions of the Plan; provided, however, that nothing contained in the Plan shall preclude such Persons who have held, hold or may hold Claims against or Interests in a Debtor or an Estate from exercising their rights, or obtaining benefits, pursuant to, and consistent with, the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents.

(ii) All Persons, including all governmental, tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, trade creditors, dealers, customers, employees, litigation claimants and other creditors holding Claims, Liens, Interests, charges, encumbrances and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including rights or Claims based on any successor or transferee liability, against or in a Debtor, the NewCo Transferred Assets, the MDT Transferred Assets or the PAT Assets (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or noncontingent, known or unknown), arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the Debtors, the NewCo Transferred Assets, the MDT Transferred Assets, the PAT Assets, the operation of the NewCo Transferred Assets prior to the Effective Date or the Restructuring Transactions are forever barred, estopped and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Released Parties, their respective successors and assigns, their property, the NewCo Transferred Assets, the MDT Transferred Assets or the PAT Assets, any Released Claim or any other Cause of Action the assertion of which does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, including, without limitation, by: (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting, directly or indirectly, a Released Party, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this clause (i) or any property of any such transferee or successor; (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting or otherwise recovering in any manner or by any means, whether directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or order against a Released Party, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor-in-interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this clause (ii) or any property of any such transferee or successor; (iii) creating, perfecting or otherwise enforcing any encumbrance of any kind or asserting any Released Claims in any manner, directly or indirectly, against a Released Party or any of its property, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this clause (iii) or any property of any such transferee or successor; (iv) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan; and (v) commencing or continuing, in any manner or in any place, any action that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan.

6. Releases

(i) Releases by Debtors.

As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, including, without limitation, the service of the Released Parties before and during the Chapter 11 Cases to facilitate the reorganization of the Debtors and the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted or assertible by or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates and including any claims that any Debtor or any of their Estates, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Debtor or any of their Estates, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts, NewCo, the Foundation and any other newly-formed Persons that shall be continuing the Debtors' businesses after the Effective Date shall be bound, to the same extent the Debtors are bound, by the Releases set forth in Section 10.6(a) of the Plan.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim and (y) nothing in Section 10.6(a) of the Plan shall (A) release any contractual Estate Cause of Action or any Estate Cause of Action that is commercial in nature and, in each case, unrelated to either the Chapter 11 Cases or the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions; provided that, with respect to the Settling Co-Defendants, only Estate Surviving Pre-Effective Date Claims shall be retained and not released, (B) release any Estate Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim against a Debtor, to the extent such Estate Cause of Action is necessary for the administration and resolution of such Claim solely in accordance with the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim solely with respect to such Co-Defendant Claim, (C) be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, or (D) release any Claim or right to disgorge, recoup or recover compensation under the orders authorizing the Key Employee Plans or the orders with respect to the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing (I) Debtors to (A) Pay Pre-Petition Wages, Salaries, Employee Benefits and Other Compensation and (B) Maintain Employee Benefits Programs and Pay Related Administrative Obligations, (II) Employees and Retirees to Proceed with Outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims and (III) Financial Institutions to Honor and Process Related Checks and Transfers [D.I. 6].

(ii) Releases by Releasing Parties.

As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, including, without limitation, the service of the Released Parties before and during the Chapter 11 Cases to facilitate the reorganization of the Debtors and the implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the Releasing Parties from any and all Causes of Action, including, without limitation, any Estate Cause of Action and any claims that any Releasing Party, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Releasing Party, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Releasing Party or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, (A) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (ii) the Estates, (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (iv) Covered Conduct and (B) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor.

Without limiting the foregoing: (A) the foregoing releases include any Cause of Action of a Releasing Party that has been or may be asserted against any Released Party, by such Releasing Party (whether or not such party has brought such action or proceeding) in any federal, state, or local action or proceeding (whether judicial, arbitral, or administrative) (x) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (I) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (II) the Estates, (III) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (IV) Covered Conduct and (y) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor; and (B) the parties intend that these releases (including the term "Released Claims") be broad and interpreted so as to give the Released Parties the broadest possible release of any liability relating in any way to the Released Claims.

For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the releases set forth in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan, and all references to "Releasing Parties" as used in the Plan, of the Plan shall not apply to (i) Holders of Claims who do not opt-in to the releases through their applicable ballots, (ii) Holders of Claims whose releases will be governed solely and exclusively by a Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (iii) Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, whose releases shall be governed solely and exclusively by the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.[145] For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, none of the releases, injunctions, or other terms contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall expand, limit, alter, or otherwise affect any releases, waivers, or disclaimers of liability or other terms contained in any of the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

[To the extent that, on or after the Effective Date, any Releasing Party negotiates and enters into a Non-Party Settlement, including in any bankruptcy case or through any plan of reorganization (whether individually or as a class of creditors), the Releasing Party will include (or in the case of a Non-Party Settlement made in connection with a bankruptcy case, will cause the debtor to include), unless prohibited from doing so under applicable law, in the Non-Party Settlement a prohibition on contribution or indemnity of any kind against the Released Parties substantially equivalent to that required from the Shareholder Released Parties in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(A) of the Plan, or a release from such Non-Released Party in favor of the Released Parties (in a form equivalent to Section 10.6(b)) of the Plan of any Claim-Over. Each Releasing Party acknowledges and agrees that it shall take reasonable steps to enforce such agreement related to indemnification and contribution, and any other agreement related to indemnification and contribution from a prior opioid settlement, in each case as applicable, for the benefit of the and the Released Parties.][146]

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim; (y) Co-Defendants (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Settling Co-Defendants) shall not be Released Parties for purposes of Section 10.6(b) of the Plan; and (z) nothing in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan shall (A) release any Non-Opioid Excluded Claims, (B) release any Estate Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim against a Debtor, to the extent such Estate Cause of Action is necessary for the administration and resolution of such Claim solely in accordance with the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim solely with respect to such Co-Defendant Claim, or (C) be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

[145] The Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, remain subject to ongoing negotiations. The releases in the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, may differ from those provided for in Section 10.6(b) of the Plan. The rights of all parties to the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, are fully reserved.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, but subject to the MDT Insurer Injunction and the Settling MDT Insurer Injunction, the Debtors shall not be released from liability for any Claim (other than any Co-Defendant Claim) that is or may be covered by any Purdue Insurance Policy; provided that recovery for any such Claim, including by way of settlement or judgment, shall be limited to the available proceeds of such Purdue Insurance Policy (and any extra-contractual liability of the Insurance Companies with respect to the Purdue Insurance Policies), and no Person or party shall execute, garnish or otherwise attempt to collect any such recovery from any assets other than the available proceeds of the Purdue Insurance Policies. The Debtors shall be released automatically from a Claim described in this paragraph upon the earlier of (x) the abandonment of such Claim and (y) such a release being given as part of a settlement or resolution of such Claim, and shall be released automatically from all Claims described in this paragraph upon the exhaustion of the available proceeds of the Purdue Insurance Policies (notwithstanding the nonoccurrence of either event described in the foregoing clauses (x) and (y)).

(iii) Releases by Debtors of Holders of Claims.

As of the Effective Date, all Holders of Channeled Claims (excluding, in all respects, any Excluded Party, Shareholder Release Snapback Party or MDT Insurer) are hereby released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action for any Claim in connection with, or arising out of, (i) the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the Restructuring Transactions, the Plan, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts (including the trust distribution procedures and the other Creditor Trust Documents) and the solicitation of votes with respect to, and confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration of the Plan and the property to be distributed under the Plan; and the wind-up and dissolution of the Liquidating Debtors and the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing or (ii) such Holder's participation in the Pending Opioid Actions. The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts, NewCo, the Foundation and any other newly-formed Persons that shall be continuing the Debtors' businesses after the Effective Date shall be bound, to the same extent the Debtors are bound, by the Releases set forth in Section 10.6(c) of the Plan.

As of the Effective Date, all Holders of PI Channeled Claims (excluding, in all respects, any Excluded Party, Shareholder Release Snapback Party or MDT Insurer) are hereby released by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action for any Claim in connection with, or arising out of, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases, including, in each case, without limitation, any act, conduct, omission, event, transaction, occurrence, injury, damage, or continuing condition in any way relating to the foregoing.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim and (y) nothing in Section 10.6(c) of the Plan shall (A) release any contractual Estate Cause of Action or any Estate Cause of Action that is commercial in nature and, in each case, unrelated to either the Chapter 11 Cases or the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, provided that, with respect to the Settling Co-Defendants, only Estate Surviving Pre-Effective Date Claims shall be retained and not released, (B) release any Estate Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim against a Debtor, to the extent such Estate Cause of Action is necessary for the administration and resolution of such Claim solely in accordance with the Plan, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim solely with respect to such Co-Defendant Claim, (C) release any claim or right arising in the ordinary course of the Debtors' or NewCo's business, including, without limitation, any such claim with respect to taxes or (D) be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

7. Shareholder Releases

(i) Releases by Debtors.

As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released, subject to clause (z) of the last paragraph of Section 10.7(a) of the Plan, by the Debtors and their Estates from any and all Causes of Action, including any Estate Causes of Action asserted or assertible by or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates and including any claims that any Debtor or any of their Estates, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Debtor or any of their Estates, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Debtor or any of their Estates or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Creditor Trusts, NewCo, the Foundation and any other newly-formed Persons that shall be continuing the Debtors' businesses after the Effective Date shall be bound, to the same extent the Debtors are bound, by the Shareholder Releases set forth in Section 10.7(a) of the Plan.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim; (y) nothing in Section 10.7(a) of the Plan shall be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and the Separation Agreements; and (z) upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, (A) the Shareholder Releases set forth in Section 10.7(a) of the Plan shall be entirely null and void, revoked and invalidated, as of the Effective Date, with respect to all members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties, (B) the status quo ante shall be restored in all respects for the Debtors and the Master Disbursement Trust with respect to the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties, and (C) the Master Disbursement Trust shall be deemed to have received and accepted all of the rights with respect to any member of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties, in each case, that the Debtors and their Estates had prior to the Effective Date and that the Master Disbursement Trust would have pursuant to the transfer of the MDT Shareholder Rights to the Master Disbursement Trust if the Shareholder Releases of Section 10.7(a) of the Plan had never been granted, which rights the Debtors and their Estates shall be deemed to have irrevocably transferred, granted and assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the nullification, voiding, revocation and invalidation pursuant to the foregoing clause (A), the Shareholder Releases shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Shareholder Released Parties other than the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties.

(ii) Releases by Releasing Parties.

(i) As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Released Parties shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released, subject to clause (y) of the last paragraph of Section 10.7(b) of the Plan, by the Releasing Parties from any and all Causes of Action, including, without limitation, any Estate Cause of Action and any claims that any Releasing Party, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Releasing Party, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Releasing Party or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, (A) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (ii) the Estates, (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (iv) Covered Conduct and (B) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor.

Without limiting the foregoing: (A) the foregoing releases include any Cause of Action of a Releasing Party that has been or may be asserted against any Shareholder Released Party, by such Releasing Party (whether or not such party has brought such action or proceeding) in any federal, state, or local action or proceeding (whether judicial, arbitral, or administrative) (x) directly or indirectly based on, arising out of, or in any way relating to or concerning, in whole or in part, (I) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date, and their Affiliates, (II) the Estates, (III) the Chapter 11 Cases, or (IV) Covered Conduct and (y) as to which any conduct, omission or liability of any Debtor or any Estate is the legal cause or is otherwise a legally relevant factor; and (B) the parties intend that these releases (including the term "Shareholder Released Claims") be broad and interpreted so as to give the Shareholder Released Parties the broadest possible release of any liability relating in any way to the Shareholder Released Claims.

For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, the releases set forth in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan , and all referenced to "Releasing Parties" as used in the Plan, shall not apply to (i) Holders of Claims who do not opt-in to the releases through their applicable ballots, (ii) Holders of Claims whose releases will be governed solely and exclusively by a Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (iii) Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, whose releases shall be governed solely and exclusively by the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.[147] For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, none of the releases, injunctions, or other terms contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall expand, limit, alter, or otherwise affect any releases, waivers, or disclaimers of liability or other terms contained in any of the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

[147] The Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, remain subject to ongoing negotiations. The releases in the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement

(ii) [In addition to granting the foregoing release, any Releasing Party represented by counsel agrees not to waive any conflict of interest that may arise for any such counsel by virtue of the clients of such counsel participating in any Shareholder Settlement.][148]

[(iii) (A) No Shareholder Released Party shall seek to recover for amounts paid under Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and the Plan based on indemnification, contribution, or any other theory from a manufacturer, pharmacy, hospital, pharmacy benefit manager, health insurer, third-party vendor, trade association, distributor, health care practitioner; provided that a Shareholder Released Party shall be relieved of this prohibition with respect to any entity that asserts a Claim-Over against it.

(B) To the extent that, on or after the Effective Date, any Releasing Party negotiates and enters into a Non-Party Settlement, including in any bankruptcy case or through any plan of reorganization (whether individually or as a class of creditors), the Releasing Party will include (or in the case of a Non-Party Settlement made in connection with a bankruptcy case, will cause the debtor to include), unless prohibited from doing so under applicable law, in the Non-Party Settlement a prohibition on contribution or indemnity of any kind against the Shareholder Released Parties substantially equivalent to that required from the Shareholder Released Parties in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(A) of the Plan, or a release from such Non-Released Party in favor of the Shareholder Released Parties (in a form equivalent to Section 10.7(b) of the Plan) of any Claim-Over. Each Releasing Party acknowledges and agrees that it shall take reasonable steps to enforce such agreement related to indemnification and contribution, and any other agreement related to indemnification and contribution from a prior opioid settlement, in each case as applicable, for the benefit of the Shareholder Released Parties.

(C) In the event that any Releasing Party obtains a judgment with respect to Non-Party Covered Conduct against a Non-Released Party that does not contain a prohibition like that described in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(B) of the Plan or any Releasing Party files a Non-Party Covered Conduct Claim against a Non-Released Party in bankruptcy or a Releasing Party is prevented for any reason from obtaining a prohibition/release in a Non-Party Settlement as provided in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(B) of the Plan, and such Non-Released Party asserts a Claim-Over against a Shareholder Released Party, the Shareholder Released Party shall be relieved of the prohibition in Section 10.7(b)(iii)(B) of the Plan with respect to that Non-Released Party and that Releasing Party and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall take the following actions to ensure that the Shareholder Released Parties do not pay more with respect to Covered Conduct to Releasing Parties or to Non-Released Parties than the amounts owed under the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement by Shareholder Payment Groups:

Agreement, may differ from those provided for in Section 10.7 of the Plan . The rights of all parties to the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements, including the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, are fully reserved.

[148] [NTD: subject to ongoing review.]

(i) The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify that Releasing Party of the Claim-Over within sixty (60) calendar days of when it becomes aware of the assertion of the Claim-Over or sixty (60) calendar days of the Effective Date, whichever is later;

(ii) The Sackler Parties' Representative and that Releasing Party shall meet and confer concerning the means to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless and ensure that they are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by the Shareholder Payment Groups under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement;

(iii) That Releasing Party and the Sackler Parties' Representative shall take steps sufficient and permissible under the law of the state of the Releasing Party to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over and ensure Shareholder Released Parties are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by the Shareholder Payment Groups under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. Such steps may include, where permissible:

Filing of motions to dismiss or such other appropriate motion by the Sackler Parties' Representative or Shareholder Released Parties and supported by that Releasing Party, in response to any claim filed in litigation or arbitration;

(1) Reduction of that Releasing Party's Claim and any judgment it has obtained or may obtain against such Non-Released Party by whatever amount or percentage is necessary to extinguish such Claim-Over under applicable law, up to the amount that Releasing Party has obtained, may obtain, or has authority to control from such Non-Released Party;

(2) Placement into escrow of funds paid by the Non-Released Parties such that those funds are available to satisfy the Claim-Over;

(3) Return of monies paid by Shareholder Payment Groups to that Releasing Party under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement to permit satisfaction of a judgment against or settlement with the Non-Released Party to satisfy the Claim-Over;

(4) Payment of monies to Shareholder Released Parties by that Releasing Party to ensure they are held harmless from such Claim-Over, up to the amount that Releasing Party has obtained, may obtain, or has authority to control from such Non-Released Party;

(5) Credits to Shareholder Payment Groups under the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement to reduce the overall amounts to be paid under Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement such that they are held harmless from the Claim-Over; and

(6) Such other actions as that Releasing Party and Shareholder Payment Parties, the Sackler Parties' Representative may devise to hold Shareholder Released Parties harmless from the Claim-Over.

(iv) The actions taken pursuant to paragraph (III) must, in combination, ensure that Shareholder Payment Groups are not required to pay more with respect to Covered Conduct than the amounts owed by them to such Releasing Party under the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(D) To the extent that the Claim-Over is based on a contractual indemnity, the obligations under Section 10.7(b)(iii)(C) of the Plan shall extend solely to a Non-Party Covered Conduct Claim against a clinic, hospital or other purchaser, distributor or dispenser of Products, a manufacturer that sold Products, a consultant, and/or a pharmacy benefit manager or other third-party payor. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall notify the Settling States, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the event that any of these types of Non-Released Party asserts a Claim-Over arising out of contractual indemnity against it.][149]

(iv) Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan shall (A) release any Excluded Claims or (B) be construed to impair in any way the rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and (y) upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, (A) the Shareholder Releases set forth in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan shall be entirely null and void, revoked and invalidated, as of the Effective Date, with respect to all members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties and (B) the status quo ante shall be restored in all respects for the Releasing Parties with respect to the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the nullification, voiding, revocation and invalidation pursuant to the foregoing clause (A), the Shareholder Releases shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Shareholder Released Parties other than the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties.

(iii) Releases by Shareholder Released Parties.

As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, and except as otherwise explicitly provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, the Reciprocal Releasees shall be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released, subject to clause (z) of the last paragraph of Section 10.7(c) of the Plan, by the Shareholder Released Parties from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims asserted or assertible by or on behalf of the Debtors or their Estates and including any claims that any Shareholder Released Party, or that any other Person or party claiming under or through any Shareholder Released Party, would have presently or in the future been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of any Shareholder Released Party or any other Person, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), whether existing or hereinafter arising, in each case, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, (i) the Debtors, as such Entities existed prior to or after the Petition Date (including the Debtors' Opioid-Related Activities, manufacture, marketing and sale of Products, interaction with regulators concerning Opioid-Related Activities or Products, and involvement in the subject matter of the Pending Opioid Actions, and the past, present or future use or misuse of any opioid by a Releasing Party), (ii) the Estates or (iii) the Chapter 11 Cases.

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, (x) nothing in the Plan shall release any Excluded Claim; (y) nothing in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan shall be construed to impair in any way the Effective Date or post-Effective Date rights and obligations of any Person under the Plan, the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order or the Restructuring Transactions, including the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, and the Separation Agreement, and including the rights of any Shareholder Released Party that is a current or former director, officer or employee of the Debtors but is not a Sackler Family Member relating to plan treatment of any Claims held by such party; and (z) upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback and the commencement or continuation of any action or proceeding against a member of a Breaching Shareholder Family Group or a Designated Shareholder Released Party by any Reciprocal Releasee, (A) the releases set forth in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan of any Reciprocal Releasee that has commenced or continued any such action shall be entirely null and void, revoked and invalidated, as of the Effective Date, with respect to the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties and (B) the status quo ante shall be restored in all respects for the members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties with respect to any Reciprocal Releasee that has commenced or continued any such litigation; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the nullification, voiding, revocation and invalidation pursuant to the foregoing clause (A), the releases set forth in Section 10.7(c) of the Plan shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Reciprocal Releasees, and shall be binding on, and enforceable against, all other Shareholder Released Parties, including any members of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group with respect to any Reciprocal Releasee that has not commenced any such litigation.

8. Channeling Injunction

In order to supplement the injunctive effect of the Plan Injunction, the Estate Releases and the Shareholder Releases set forth in Sections 10.5, 10.6 and 10.7 of the Plan, the Confirmation Order shall provide for the following permanent injunction to take effect as of the Effective Date:

(i) Terms. In order to preserve and promote the settlements contemplated by and provided for in the Plan and to supplement, where necessary, the injunctive effect of the Plan Injunction, the Estate Releases and the Shareholder Releases described in Sections 10.5, 10.6 and 10.7 of the Plan, and pursuant to the exercise of the equitable jurisdiction and power of the Bankruptcy Court under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, all Persons that have held or asserted, that hold or assert or that may in the future hold or assert any Channeled Claim shall be permanently and forever stayed, restrained and enjoined from taking any action for the purpose of directly or indirectly collecting, recovering or receiving payments, satisfaction, recovery or judgment of any form from or against any Protected Party with respect to any Channeled Claim, including:

(1) commencing, conducting or continuing, in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, any suit, action or other proceeding, in each case, of any kind, character or nature, in any forum in any jurisdiction with respect to any Channeled Claims, against or affecting any Protected Party, or any property or interests in property of any Protected Party with respect to any Channeled Claims;

(2) enforcing, levying, attaching, collecting or otherwise recovering, by any means or in any manner, either directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree or other order against any Protected Party or against the property of any Protected Party with respect to any Channeled Claims;

(3) creating, perfecting or enforcing, by any means or in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, any Lien of any kind against any Protected Party or the property of any Protected Party with respect to any Channeled Claims;

(4) asserting or accomplishing any setoff, right of subrogation, indemnity, contribution or recoupment of any kind, whether directly or indirectly, in respect of any obligation due to any Protected Party or against the property of any Protected Party with respect to any Channeled Claims; and

(5) taking any act, by any means or in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to, or comply with, the provisions of the Plan Documents, with respect to any Channeled Claims.

(ii) Reservations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 10.8 of the Plan or the Confirmation Order, this Channeling Injunction shall not stay, restrain, bar or enjoin:

(1) the rights of Holders of Channeled Claims to the treatment afforded them under the Plan and the Plan Documents, including the rights of Holders of Channeled Claims to assert such Channeled Claims solely in accordance with Section 6.21 of the Plan, the Master TDP and the Creditor Trust TDPs, in each case whether or not there are funds to make Distributions in respect of such Channeled Claims and whether or not such rights entitle such Holders to any Distributions;

(2) the rights of Persons to assert any claim, debt, litigation or liability for payment of Creditor Trust Operating Expenses solely against the applicable Creditor Trust;

(3) the rights of Persons to assert any claim, debt or litigation against any Excluded Party;

(4) the rights of the Master Disbursement Trust to pursue and enforce the MDT Shareholder Rights, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Causes of Action;

(5) the rights of the parties to the LRP Agreement to enforce the terms thereof in accordance with the Plan;

(6) the Creditor Trusts from enforcing their respective rights against the Master Disbursement Trust under the Plan and the MDT Documents; or

(7) the Master Disbursement Trust and the Plan Administration Trust from enforcing its rights against NewCo under the Plan.

(iii) Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback. Upon the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, the Channeling Injunction shall terminate, be rescinded and have no application, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, to any suit, action or other proceeding, in each case, of any kind, character or nature, brought against any member of the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and any Designated Shareholder Released Party; provided, however, that the extension of time provided by Section 10.9(a) of the Plan shall continue in effect in accordance with its terms; provided further that, for the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the termination and rescission pursuant to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, the Channeling Injunction shall continue in effect for, and shall be fully enforceable by and for the benefit of, all other Protected Parties, including all other Shareholder Released Parties, other than the Breaching Shareholder Family Group and the Designated Shareholder Released Parties; and provided further that, in the event of the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback, any determination made in the claims resolution process in accordance with Section 7.6 of the Plan will not be binding against any party.

(iv) Modifications. Except as expressly set forth in paragraph (c) of Section 10.8 of the Plan, there can be no modification, dissolution or termination of the Channeling Injunction, which shall be a permanent injunction.

(v) Non-Limitation of Channeling Injunction. Except as expressly set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of Section 10.8 of the Plan, nothing in the Plan, the MDT Documents or the Creditor Trust Documents shall be construed in any way to limit the scope, enforceability or effectiveness of the Channeling Injunction issued in connection with the Plan.

(vi) Bankruptcy Rule 3016 Compliance. The Debtors' compliance with the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3016 shall not constitute an admission that the Plan provides for an injunction against conduct not otherwise enjoined under the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Tolling of Shareholder Released Claims; Violations of Shareholder Releases and Channeling Injunction.

(i) Tolling of Shareholder Released Claims. If applicable law, an order in any proceeding or an agreement fixes a period for commencing or continuing an action or proceeding based on a Shareholder Released Claim and such Shareholder Released Claim is released pursuant to the Shareholder Releases or such action or proceeding is enjoined by the Channeling Injunction, then such period does not expire with respect to such Shareholder Released Claim with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (or the MDT Trustees) or the Releasing Parties until the latest of (i) the end of such period; (ii) with respect to the applicable Shareholder Family Group and any Designated Shareholder Released Party, two hundred twenty-five (225) days after the filing of a Notice of Shareholder Release Snapback with respect to such Shareholder Family Group; (iii) with respect to the applicable Shareholder Family Group and any Designated Shareholder Released Party, when such Shareholder Family Group fulfills its payment obligations under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements; and (iv) with respect to the applicable Shareholder Released Party that is a Subsidiary (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) of a Shareholder Payment Party, two hundred twenty-five (225) days after the reinstatement of any Estate Cause of Action against such Shareholder Released Party pursuant to Section 10.19 of the Plan.

(ii) Violations of Shareholder Releases and Channeling Injunction. In the event that any Person takes any action that a Shareholder Released Party believes violates the Shareholder Releases or Channeling Injunction as it applies to any Shareholder Released Party, such Shareholder Released Party shall be entitled to make an emergency application to the Bankruptcy Court for relief, and may proceed by contested matter rather than by adversary proceeding. The Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction and authority to enter final orders in connection with any dispute over whether an action violates the Shareholder Releases or Channeling Injunction. Upon determining that a violation of the Shareholder Releases or Channeling Injunction has occurred, the Bankruptcy Court, in its discretion, may award any appropriate relief against such violating Person, including, but not limited to, (i) disgorgement from the violating Person of any funds, assets or other value received, directly or indirectly, pursuant to the Plan or Plan Documents (including fees and expenses paid pursuant to the Plan or Plan Documents on account of legal or other advisory services rendered to or for the benefit of the violating Person); (ii) the termination of any rights of the violating Person to receive any funds, assets or other value pursuant to the Plan or Plan Documents; (iii) the reduction of any payments owed by any Shareholder Released Parties under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements to the violating Person in an amount equal to the amount of disgorgement ordered from, or the reduction of future payments ordered to be made to, or on account of, the violating Person (subject to the right of the violating Person to request that any amounts actually disgorged from such violating Person offset any reduction of future payments ordered to be made to, or on account of, such violating Person); (iv) an admonition, reprimand or censure of, or citation of contempt by, the violating Person and its counsel; (v) a fine or penalty paid into the Bankruptcy Court; (vi) a bond or other security in an amount equal to any financial obligation ordered by the Bankruptcy Court in respect of the violation; (vii) an appropriate sanction on any attorney or law firm responsible for the violation; (viii) injunctive relief to prevent future violations by the Person or its counsel; and (ix) attorney and other professional fees incurred by any Shareholder Released Party arising from the violation. The provision of any one form of relief shall not preclude the provision of any other form of relief.

10. MDT Insurer Injunction.

(i) Terms. In accordance with section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, all Persons that have held or asserted, that hold or assert or that may in the future hold or assert any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy shall be, and hereby are, permanently stayed, restrained and enjoined from taking any action for the purpose of directly or indirectly collecting, recovering or receiving payment or recovery on account of any such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy from or against any MDT Insurer, including:

(1) commencing, conducting or continuing, in any manner, any action or other proceeding of any kind (including an arbitration or other form of alternate dispute resolution) against any MDT Insurer, or against the property of any MDT Insurer, on account of any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy;

(2) enforcing, attaching, levying, collecting or otherwise recovering, by any manner or means, any judgment, award, decree or other order against any MDT Insurer, or against the property of any MDT Insurer, on account of any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy;

(3) creating, perfecting or enforcing in any manner any Lien of any kind against any MDT Insurer, or against the property of any MDT Insurer, on account of any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy;

(4) asserting or accomplishing any setoff, right of subrogation, indemnity, contribution or recoupment of any kind, whether directly or indirectly, against any obligation due to any MDT Insurer, or against the property of any MDT Insurer, on account of any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy; and

(5) taking any act, in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to, or comply with, the provisions of the Plan applicable to any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy.

(ii) Reservations. The provisions of this MDT Insurer Injunction shall not preclude the Master Disbursement Trust from pursuing any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy, or any other claim that may exist under any MDT Insurance Policy against any MDT Insurer, or enjoin the rights of the Master Disbursement Trust to prosecute any action based on or arising from the MDT Insurance Policies or the rights of the Master Disbursement Trust to assert any claim, debt, obligation, cause of action or liability for payment against an MDT Insurer based on or arising from the MDT Insurance Policies. The provisions of this MDT Insurer Injunction are not issued for the benefit of any MDT Insurer, and no such insurer is a third-party beneficiary of this MDT Insurer Injunction. This MDT Insurer Injunction shall not enjoin, impair or affect (i) any claims between or among MDT Insurers that are not Settling MDT Insurers; (ii) the rights of current and former directors, officers, employees and authorized agents of the Debtors that are not Sackler Family Members that are preserved under the Plan; or (iii) the terms of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement with respect to the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to a Person that purports to be insured under any MDT Insurance Policy, the MDT Insurer Injunction shall enjoin only derivative claims and rights. Nothing in the Plan shall determine whether any Claim or right under any MDT Insurance Policy is either derivative or direct, or otherwise would be disallowed or subordinated under the Bankruptcy Code, which determination shall be made, as necessary, to the extent such Claim or right is not otherwise released under the Plan, in accordance with applicable law.

(iii) Modifications. To the extent the MDT Trustees make a good faith determination that some or all of the MDT Insurance Proceeds are substantially unrecoverable by the Master Disbursement Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust shall have the sole and exclusive authority at any time, upon written notice to any affected MDT Insurer, to terminate, reduce or limit the scope of this MDT Insurer Injunction with respect to any MDT Insurer; provided that any termination, reduction, or limitation of the MDT Insurer Injunction (A) shall apply in the same manner to all beneficiaries of the Creditor Trusts that are MDT Beneficiaries and (B) shall comply with any procedures set forth in the MDT Agreement.

(iv) Non-Limitation of MDT Insurer Injunction. Except as set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of Section 10.10 of the Plan, nothing in the Plan, the MDT Documents or the Creditor Trust Documents shall be construed in any way to limit the scope, enforceability or effectiveness of the MDT Insurer Injunction issued in connection with the Plan.

11. Settling MDT Insurer Injunction.

(i) Terms. In accordance with section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, all Persons that have held or asserted, that hold or assert or that may in the future hold or assert any Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy shall be, and hereby are, permanently stayed, restrained and enjoined from taking any action for the purpose of directly or indirectly collecting, recovering or receiving payment or recovery on account of any such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to an MDT Insurance Policy from or against any Settling MDT Insurer, solely to the extent that such Settling MDT Insurer has been released from such Claim under such MDT Insurance Policy pursuant to an MDT Insurance Settlement, including:

(1) commencing, conducting or continuing, in any manner any action or other proceeding of any kind (including an arbitration or other form of alternate dispute resolution) against any such Settling MDT Insurer, or against the property of such Settling MDT Insurer, on account of such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to such MDT Insurance Policy;

(2) enforcing, attaching, levying, collecting or otherwise recovering, by any manner or means, any judgment, award, decree or other order against any such Settling MDT Insurer, or against the property of such Settling MDT Insurer, on account of such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to such MDT Insurance Policy;

(3) creating, perfecting or enforcing in any manner any Lien of any kind against any such Settling MDT Insurer, or against the property of such Settling MDT Insurer, on account of such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to such MDT Insurance Policy;

(4) asserting or accomplishing any setoff, right of subrogation, indemnity, contribution or recoupment of any kind, whether directly or indirectly, against any obligation due to any such Settling MDT Insurer, or against the property of such Settling MDT Insurer, on account of such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to such MDT Insurance Policy; and

(5) taking any act, in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to, or comply with, the provisions of the Plan applicable to such Claim based on, arising under or attributable to such MDT Insurance Policy.

(ii) Reduction of Insurance Judgments. Any right, Claim or cause of action that an Insurance Company may have been entitled to assert against any Settling MDT Insurer but for the Settling MDT Insurer Injunction, if any such right, Claim or cause of action exists under applicable non-bankruptcy law, shall become a right, Claim or cause of action solely as a setoff claim against the Master Disbursement Trust and not against or in the name of the Settling MDT Insurer in question. Any such right, Claim or cause of action to which an Insurance Company may be entitled shall be solely in the form of a setoff against any recovery of the Master Disbursement Trust from that Insurance Company, and under no circumstances shall that Insurance Company receive an affirmative recovery of funds from the Master Disbursement Trust or any Settling MDT Insurer for such right, Claim or cause of action. In determining the amount of any setoff, the Master Disbursement Trust may assert any legal or equitable rights the Settling MDT Insurer would have had with respect to any right, Claim or cause of action.

(iii) Modifications. There can be no modification, dissolution or termination of the Settling MDT Insurer Injunction, which shall be a permanent injunction.

(iv) Non-Limitation of Settling MDT Insurer Injunction. Except as set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of Section 10.11 of the Plan, nothing in the Plan, the MDT Documents or the Creditor Trust Documents shall be construed in any way to limit the scope, enforceability or effectiveness of the Settling MDT Insurer Injunction issued in connection with the Plan.

12. Exculpation

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated from: any Cause of Action for any Claim in connection with, or arising out of, the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement (including any information provided, or statements made, in the Disclosure Statement or omitted therefrom), the Restructuring Transactions, the Plan, the Master Disbursement Trust (including the Master TDP and the MDT Agreement), the Creditor Trusts (including the Creditor Trust TDPs and the other Creditor Trust Documents) and the solicitation of votes for, and confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration of the Plan and the property to be distributed under the Plan; and the wind-up and dissolution of the Liquidating Debtors and the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing, in each case other than Causes of Action arising out of, or related to, any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is a criminal act or constitutes fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other Releases, indemnities, exculpations and any other applicable law or rules protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 10.12 of the Plan shall not exculpate or release any Exculpated Party with respect to any act or omission of such Exculpated Party prior to the Effective Date that is later found to be a criminal act or to constitute fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct, including findings after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, nothing in the Plan shall release any Causes of Action that may be asserted against any Excluded Party.

13. Injunction Related to Releases and Exculpation

To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, the Confirmation Order shall permanently enjoin the commencement or prosecution by any Person, whether directly, derivatively or otherwise, of any Causes of Action released pursuant to the Plan, including, without limitation, the Causes of Action released or exculpated in the Plan and with respect to any Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances or liabilities that are subject to Sections 5.3(b), 5.4(c) or 5.6(b) of the Plan (but, for the avoidance of doubt, excluding any Excluded Claims).

14. Subordinated Claims

The allowance, classification and treatment of all Claims and Interests and the respective Distributions and treatments in respect thereof under the Plan take into account and conform to the relative priority and rights of the Claims and Interests in each Class in connection with contractual, legal and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, sections 509(c), 510(a), 510(b) or 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. Pursuant to sections 509(c) and 510 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, the Debtors reserve the right to reclassify any Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal or equitable subordination relating thereto.

15. Preservation of Causes of Action and Reservation of Rights

As of the Effective Date, (a) the Master Disbursement Trust shall have the right to prosecute any and all MDT Causes of Action, (b) the Plan Administration Trust shall have the right to prosecute any and all Retained Causes of Action relating to and necessary for the administration of Claims against the Debtors (other than Channeled Claims) or the other responsibilities of the Plan Administration Trustee in accordance with the PAT Agreement, (c) each Creditor Trust shall have the right to prosecute any and all Retained Causes of Action relating to and necessary for the administration of the applicable Channeled Claims in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust TDP and (d) NewCo shall have the right to prosecute any and all Retained Causes of Action constituting NewCo Transferred Assets. Pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, except as expressly provided in Sections 10.5 through 10.13 of the Plan, nothing contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of any Causes of Action that the Debtors had immediately before the Effective Date on behalf of the Estates or of themselves in accordance with any provision of the Bankruptcy

Code or any applicable nonbankruptcy law, including but not limited to any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action. Subject to Sections 10.5 through 10.13 of the Plan, all such Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust, the Plan Administration Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust or NewCo, as applicable, which shall have, retain, reserve and be entitled to assert all such Causes of Action in accordance with the Plan as fully as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced, and all of the Debtors' legal and equitable rights with respect to any Claim or Interest may be asserted after the Effective Date to the same extent as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced.

16. Ipso Facto and Similar Provisions Ineffective

Any term of any policy, contract or other obligation applicable to a Debtor shall be void and of no further force or effect with respect to any Debtor to the extent such policy, contract, or other obligation is conditioned on, creates an obligation of any Debtor as a result of, or gives rise to a right of any Person based on any of the following: (a) the insolvency or financial condition of a Debtor; (b) the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases; (c) the confirmation or consummation of the Plan, including any change of control that shall occur as a result of such consummation; or (d) the Restructuring Transactions.

17. No Successor Liability

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan and the Confirmation Order, each of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Plan Administration Trust and the Creditor Trusts (a) is not, and shall not be deemed to assume, agree to perform, pay or otherwise have any responsibilities for any liabilities or obligations of the Debtors or any other Person relating to or arising out of the operations or the Assets of the Debtors on or prior to the Effective Date, (b) is not, and shall not be, a successor to the Debtors by reason of any theory of law or equity or responsible for the knowledge or conduct of any Debtor prior to the Effective Date and (c) shall not have any successor or transferee liability of any kind or character.

18. Co-Defendant Defensive Rights.

Except as provided in the MDT Insurer Injunction, the Settling MDT Insurer Injunction or clause (ii) of the penultimate sentence of Section 10.18 of the Plan, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Article X of the Plan or in the Plan as it currently exists or as it might be further amended, the Confirmation Order or any order entered in connection with the Plan (or the Plan as amended) (or any such order, as amended, modified or supplemented), or any supplement to the Plan (or the Plan as amended), nothing contained in the Plan or any of the foregoing documents or orders (including, without limitation, the classification, treatment, allowance, disallowance, release, bar, injunction, Channeling Injunction or any other provision of the Plan or the Plan as amended with respect to, impacting, affecting, modifying, limiting, subordinating, impairing, in any respect, a Co-Defendant Claim), will release, bar, enjoin, impair, alter, modify, amend, limit, prohibit, restrict, reduce, improve or enhance any Co-Defendant Defensive Rights of any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim or Excluded Party as such rights exist or might in the future exist under applicable non-bankruptcy law. Nothing in the Plan, any of the Plan Documents or in the Confirmation Order shall preclude, operate to or have the effect of, impairing any Holder of a Co-Defendant Claim or Excluded Party from asserting in any proceeding any and all Co-Defendant Defensive Rights that it has or may have under applicable law. Nothing in the Plan, any of the Plan Documents or the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to waive any Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, and nothing in the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, any of the Plan Documents or the Confirmation Order may be used as evidence of any determination regarding any Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, and under no circumstances shall any Person be permitted to assert issue preclusion or claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel or consent in response to the assertion of any Co-Defendant Defensive Rights. Section 10.18 of the Plan shall be included in the Confirmation Order. Co-Defendant Defensive Rights (i) may be used to offset, set-off, recoup, allocate or apportion fault, liability, or damages, or seek judgment reduction or otherwise defend against any Cause of Action brought by any Person against the Holder of any Co-Defendant Claim or the Excluded Party based in whole or in part on Opioid-Related Activities and (ii) shall in no case be used to seek or obtain any affirmative monetary recovery from any Protected Party or any Asset of any Protected Party (including from any Purdue Insurance Policy or any other insurance policy of a Protected Party) on account of any Released Claim or Shareholder Released Claim. The foregoing does not constitute a release of any Co-Defendant's Class 14 Claim or any other Excluded Party's Class 11(c) Claim.

19. Reinstatement of Certain Shareholder Released Claims

As set forth in the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, if any Shareholder Released Party that is a Subsidiary (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) of a Shareholder Payment Party voluntarily or involuntarily becomes subject to an insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization, winding-up, administration, dissolution, composition or similar proceeding, upon election by notice from the Sackler Parties' Representative, with the consent of the Master Disbursement Trust, any Estate Causes of Action against such Shareholder Released Party that were previously held by the Debtors and that were released pursuant to Section 10.7(a) of the Plan shall be reinstated in full (and the Shareholder Release provided under Section 10.7(a) of the Plan shall be deemed null and void with respect thereto, and the Channeling Injunction shall terminate, be rescinded and have no application with respect thereto) and the Master Disbursement Trust, in its sole discretion and upon receipt of an advance for fees and expenses provided by the Shareholder Released Parties in an amount determined by the Master Disbursement Trust in its sole discretion (which advance shall be repaid to the extent not used), shall utilize commercially reasonable efforts to maximize the value of any such Estate Causes of Action in such insolvency or liquidation proceeding, and any recovery shall be treated in accordance with the terms as set forth in the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

20. Special Provisions for United States

(i) As to the United States, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan or Confirmation Order to the contrary [(except Section 5.2(i) of the Plan and in respect of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement]), including but not limited to Article X of the Plan, nothing in the Plan or Confirmation Order [(except Section 5.2(i) of the Plan and in respect of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement)] shall:

(1) limit or expand the scope of discharge, release or injunction permitted to debtors under the Bankruptcy Code. The discharge, release, and injunction provisions contained in the Plan and Confirmation Order are not intended and shall not be construed to bar the United States from, subsequent to the Confirmation Order, pursuing any police or regulatory action, or any criminal action;

(2) discharge, release, exculpate, impair or otherwise preclude: (A) any liability to the United States that is not a "claim" within the meaning of section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code; (B) any Claim of the United States arising on or after the Effective Date; (C) any liability of the Debtors under police or regulatory statutes or regulations to the United States as the owner, lessor, lessee or operator of property that such Entity owns, operates or leases after the Effective Date; or (D) any liability to the United States, including but not limited to any liabilities arising under the IRC, the environmental laws, the criminal laws, the civil laws or common law, of any Person, including any Released Parties, Shareholder Released Parties or any Exculpated Parties, in each case, other than the Debtors; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not (x) limit the scope of discharge granted to the Debtors under sections 524 and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, (y) diminish the scope of any exculpation to which any Person is entitled under section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code or (z) change the treatment of the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim pursuant to Section 2.3 of the Plan or the treatment of the Federal Government Unsecured Claims pursuant to Section 4.3 of the Plan;

(3) enjoin or otherwise bar the United States from asserting or enforcing, outside the Bankruptcy Court, any liability described in the preceding clause (2); provided, however, that the non-bankruptcy rights and defenses of all Persons with respect to (A)-(D) in clause (2) are likewise fully preserved;

(4) affect any valid right of setoff or recoupment of the United States against any of the Debtors; provided, however, that the rights and defenses of the Debtors with respect thereto are fully preserved (other than any rights or defenses based on language in the Plan or the Confirmation Order that may extinguish setoff or recoupment rights);

(5) divest any court, commission or tribunal of jurisdiction to determine whether any liabilities asserted by the United States are discharged or otherwise barred by the Confirmation Order, the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction as set forth in and pursuant to the terms of the Plan to the extent permitted by law; or

(6) be deemed to (A) determine the tax liability of any Person, including but not limited to the Debtors, (B) have determined the federal tax treatment of any item, distribution or Entity, including the federal tax consequences of the Plan or Confirmation Order, or (C) expressly expand or diminish the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court to make determinations as to federal tax liability and federal tax treatment under the Bankruptcy Code and 28 U.S.C. §§ 157, 1334.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Channeling Injunction set forth in Section 10.8 of the Plan does not apply to the rights and causes of action protected by Section 10.20 of the Plan.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, nothing in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements or any other document filed in connection with the Plan shall release claims held by the United States of America against the Shareholder Released Parties; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the Plan, Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements or any other document filed in connection with the Plan shall limit the releases contained in the Settlement Agreement between the United States of America and Purdue Pharma L.P., executed on October 21, 2020, or the Settlement Agreement between the United States of America and Dr. Richard Sackler, David Sackler, Mortimer D.A. Sackler, Kathe Sackler, and the Estate of Jonathan Sackler, executed on October 21, 2020.

(iii) Several of the Debtors are parties to the various following agreements with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services under which the Debtors owe rebates to third parties:

(1) The Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreement is established under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395w-l14A, 1395w-153 and is required should manufacturers wish to have coverage for their products under Medicare Part D. Under the Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreement, manufacturers agree to reimburse Medicare Part D plan sponsors for certain Coverage Gap discounts the plans provide to Medicare beneficiaries in the Part D coverage gap. The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services require that a new entity that seeks to assume a Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreement enter into a novation agreement with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services with respect to the transfer of such agreement. The Debtors that have entered into Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreements with the Secretary are: Purdue Pharma L.P. (P1180) and Rhodes Pharmaceuticals L.P. (P1281);

(2) The Medicaid Drug Rebate Program, established under section 1927 of the Social Security Act, requires manufacturers to enter into National Drug Rebate Agreements with the Secretary for the coverage and payment of a manufacturer's covered outpatient drugs. Under the Medicaid Drug Rebate Program, if a manufacturer has entered into and has in effect a National Drug Rebate Agreement, Medicaid covers and pays for all of the drugs of that manufacturer dispensed and paid for under the state plan, and in return manufacturers pay applicable rebates to the states. The Debtors that have National Drug Rebate Agreements and the labeler codes associated with the National Drug Rebate Agreements are as follows: Rhodes Pharmaceuticals L.P. (42858), Purdue Pharma L.P. (59011), and Adlon Therapeutics L.P. (72912);

(3) Manufacturers with National Drug Rebate Agreements must also comply with the Drug Pricing Program under section 340B of the Public Health Service Act, 42 U.S.C. § 256b, and have Pharmaceutical Pricing Agreements with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. Under the Pharmaceutical Pricing Agreements, manufacturers agree to charge a price for covered outpatient drugs that will not exceed the average manufacturer price decreased by a rebate percentage. The Debtors that have Pharmaceutical Pricing Agreements and the labeler codes associated with such agreements are as follows: Rhodes Pharmaceuticals L.P. (42858), Purdue Pharma L.P. (59011), and Adlon Therapeutics L.P. (72912); and

(4) The Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreements, the Medicaid National Drug Rebate Agreements and the Pharmaceutical Pricing Agreements identified above provide that, in the event of a transfer of ownership, such agreements are automatically assigned to the new owner and all terms and conditions of such agreements remain in effect as to the new owner. Accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order which may be to the contrary, the Debtors shall assume such agreements pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and upon the Effective Date, the Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreements, the Medicaid National Drug Rebate Agreements and the Pharmaceutical Pricing Agreements identified above shall be assigned to NewCo. NewCo, as the new owner, will assume the obligations of the Debtors who are parties under such agreements from and after the Effective Date, and to fully perform all the duties and responsibilities that exist under such agreements in accordance with their terms, including the payment of discounts owed to Part D Plan sponsors or payment of rebates owed to states and wholesalers for quarters prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, NewCo shall be liable for any outstanding rebates or discounts owed to third parties (and any applicable interest thereon) arising prior to the Effective Date, as well as any penalties associated with noncompliance by the Debtors with the Medicare Coverage Gap Discount Program Agreements, the Medicaid National Drug Rebate Agreements and the Pharmaceutical Pricing Agreements identified above prior to the Effective Date.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, nothing in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements or any other document filed in connection with the Plan shall bind the United States in any application of statutory, or associated regulatory, authority grounded in Title 19 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1396-1 et seq. (the "Medicaid Program") or in section 1115 of Title 11 of the Social Security Act. The United States is neither enjoined nor in any way prejudiced in seeking recovery of any funds owed to the United States under the Medicaid Program.

J. Retention of Jurisdiction

1. Retention of Jurisdiction

(i) The Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction of all matters arising under, arising out of or related to the Chapter 11 Cases and the Plan pursuant to, and for the purposes of, sections 105(a) and 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code and for, among other things, the following purposes:

(1) to hear and determine applications for the assumption or rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases and any Disputed Cure Claims or Disputed Claims in respect of rejection damages resulting therefrom;

(2) to hear and determine any motions, adversary proceedings, applications, contested matters and other litigated matters pending on, or commenced after, entry of the Confirmation Order;

(3) to hear and resolve any disputes arising from or related to (A) any orders of the Bankruptcy Court still in effect granting relief under Bankruptcy Rule 2004 or (B) any protective orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with the foregoing (including the Protective Order);

(4) to ensure that Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims are accomplished as provided in the Plan and the Confirmation Order;

(5) to consider Claims or the allowance, classification, priority, compromise, estimation or payment of any Claim, including any Administrative Claim or, solely to the extent provided in the Master TDP and/or the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, any Channeled Claim;

(6) to enter, implement or enforce such orders as may be appropriate in the event that the Confirmation Order is, for any reason, stayed, reversed, revoked, modified or vacated;

(7) to issue and enforce injunctions, enter and implement other orders and take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to restrain interference by any Person with the consummation, implementation or enforcement of the Plan, the Confirmation Order or any other order of the Bankruptcy Court;

(8) to hear and determine any application to modify the Plan in accordance with section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code to remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, including the Confirmation Order, in such a manner as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and effects thereof;

(9) to hear and determine all Professional Fee Claims;

(10) to resolve disputes concerning any reserves with respect to Non-Participating Channeled Claims and other Disputed Claims or the administration thereof;

(11) to hear and determine disputes arising in connection with the interpretation, implementation or enforcement of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, any transactions or payments in furtherance of the Plan or the Confirmation Order or any agreement, instrument or other document governing, or related to, any of the foregoing, including the Plan Documents;

(12) to take any action and issue such orders, including any such action or orders as may be necessary after entry of the Confirmation Order or the occurrence of the Effective Date, as may be necessary to construe, enforce, implement, execute and consummate the Plan, including any release (including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases), exculpation or injunction provisions set forth in the Plan, or to maintain the integrity of the Plan following the occurrence of the Effective Date;

(13) to hear and determine any other matters related to the Chapter 11 Cases and not inconsistent with the Bankruptcy Code or title 28 of the United States Code;

(14) to hear, determine and resolve disputes arising in connection with the interpretation, implementation or enforcement of the Plan or Confirmation Order;

(15) to resolve any disputes concerning whether a Person had sufficient notice of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Disclosure Statement, any solicitation conducted in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, any Bar Date established in the Chapter 11 Cases or any deadline for responding or objecting to a Cure Amount, in each case, for the purpose of determining whether a Claim or Interest is discharged under the Plan or for any other purpose;

(16) to hear and determine disputes arising in connection with the interpretation, implementation or enforcement of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, the Public Entity Settlements and the Private Entity Settlements;

(17) to hear and determine disputes arising in connection with the MDT Claims or operations of the Master Disbursement Trust or the actions of the MDT Trustees;

(18) to hear and determine disputes arising in connection with the interpretation, implementation or enforcement of the Creditor Trust Documents, and to hear and determine disputes concerning violations of the Confirmation Order or the use of funds from the Creditor Trusts in a manner inconsistent with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents; provided that, with respect to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust, such jurisdiction shall be concurrent and not exclusive to the extent set forth in the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents and the Tribe Trust Documents, respectively, as in effect on the Effective Date;

(19) to hear and resolve any disputes arising from or related to (A) Liens, collateral, or other forms of credit protections that are granted or otherwise effected pursuant to the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, the Public Entity Settlements and the Private Entity Settlements or (B) any other attempt by any Person to seek orders of attachment, Liens, or collateral involving any Assets, in full or in part, of the Shareholder Released Parties;

(20) to determine such other matters, and for such other purposes, as may be provided in the Confirmation Order;

(21) to hear and determine all matters relating to the Plan Settlements, to the extent permitted under applicable law; and

(22) to enter a final decree closing each of the Chapter 11 Cases.

(ii) The Bankruptcy Court shall retain concurrent, rather than exclusive, jurisdiction of all matters arising under, arising out of or related to the Chapter 11 Cases and the Plan to, among other things, hear and determine matters concerning state, local and federal taxes in accordance with sections 346, 505 and 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the expedited determination of taxes under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code), and to hear and resolve or recommend resolution of disputes related to the MDT Insurance Rights.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in Article XI of the Plan to the contrary, the resolution of Channeled Claims against the Debtors and the forum in which such resolution shall be determined shall be governed by, and in accordance with, Section 6.21 of the Plan, the Master TDP and the Creditor Trust TDPs, if applicable.

(iv) By consenting to the treatment provided by the Plan or otherwise supporting the Plan, no State or Tribe shall be construed to have waived any claim of Sovereign Immunity that it may have in any other action or proceeding, including any action or proceeding occurring after the Effective Date.

(v) Nothing in Article XI of the Plan shall be construed to alter the jurisdiction of a court in which an Opt-Out Class Action is pending or was adjudicated in respect of such Opt-Out Class Action.

(vi) As of the earlier of the Effective Date or the expiration of the Preliminary Injunction, all Persons are permanently enjoined from commencing, conducting, or continuing, directly or indirectly, any litigation or prosecution of an Estate Cause of Action (including in any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative, or other forum). Any Person seeking to commence, conduct, or continue litigation or prosecution of a Cause of Action against a Shareholder Released Party or a Released Party may, but is not required to, seek a prior determination in the Bankruptcy Court that a Cause of Action is not an Estate Cause of Action. If any Person commences, conducts or continues litigation or prosecution of such Cause of Action without a prior determination by the Bankruptcy Court, the Person against which such Cause of Action was asserted, and the Master Disbursement Trust or NewCo, shall be entitled to make an emergency application to the Bankruptcy Court for a determination that such Cause of Action is an Estate Cause of Action and that the injunction in Section 11.1(f) of the Plan has been violated. In either event, the determination whether or not a Cause of Action is an Estate Cause of Action shall be based on an appropriate evidentiary record, and the only Persons with standing to be heard shall be: (i) the Person seeking to bring such Cause of Action; (ii) the Person or entity against which such Cause of Action would be or has been brought; or (iii) the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the PAT, each Governmental Consent Party, the Master Disbursement Trust or NewCo. Upon determining that a violation of the injunction has occurred, damages may be awarded in the amount of attorneys' fees and other litigation costs and expenses incurred by the Person against which the Estate Cause of Action was brought or who is otherwise seeking to enforce the injunction, including in connection with litigation or prosecution of the Estate Cause of Action and in connection with enforcing the injunction in Section 11.1(f) of the Plan subject to the discretion of the Bankruptcy Court. Without limiting the foregoing, the Bankruptcy Court, in its discretion, also may award any additional appropriate relief against a violating Person and may award any sanctions against any other Person engaging in otherwise sanctionable conduct in connection with the enforcement of the injunction in Section 11.1(f) of the Plan.

K. Miscellaneous Provisions

1. Exemption from Certain Transfer Taxes

To the maximum extent permitted pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers of property under the Plan pursuant to (a) the issuance, distribution, transfer or exchange of any debt, equity security or other interest in the Debtors, (b) the Restructuring Transactions, (c) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means, or (d) the making, assignment, recording or surrender of any lease or sublease, or the making, delivery or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of or in connection with the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale or other assignments or instruments of transfer, or assignments executed in connection with any disposition of Assets contemplated by the Plan (including transfers of Assets to and by the Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts) shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles tax, transfer tax (including real estate transfer tax), mortgage tax or mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee or other similar tax or governmental assessment, and the appropriate federal, state, provincial or local government officials or agents shall forego collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

2. Dates of Actions to Implement Plan

In the event that any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the next succeeding Business Day but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date.

3. Amendments

(i) Plan Modifications. This Plan may be amended, modified or supplemented by the Debtors in the manner provided for by section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code or as otherwise permitted by law, without additional disclosure pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that (i) any such amendment, modification or supplement shall be reasonably acceptable to the Governmental Consent Parties; provided further that any such amendment, modification or supplement that expands the scope of the Releases or modifies any provision relating to the MDT Insurance Policies (including the scope thereof) or the transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights shall be acceptable to the Governmental Consent Parties, (ii) any such amendment, modification or supplement shall be reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee to the extent that it (A) relates to the MDT Insurance Rights, (B) modifies Section 5.9 of the Plan as it relates to payment of the attorneys' fees and costs of Holders of Hospital Claims, Third-Party Payor Claims, or PI Claims, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants or the NAS Committee, (C) modifies the Creditors' Committee's consent rights under the Plan, (D) expands the scope of the Releases or (E) materially and adversely affects the treatment of Holders of Hospital Claims, Third-Party Payor Claims, PI Claims, ER Physician Claims or Other General Unsecured Claims (it being understood that (x) any reduction in the amount of any Initial Private Creditor Trust Distribution, the PI Trust Obligation or any Private Creditor Trust's MDT Claim, (y) any elimination of any consent rights in favor of such Holders or (z) any modification to Section 5.2, 5.6 or 5.7 of the Plan to the extent such modification relates to the Master Disbursement Trust or a Private Creditor Trust shall constitute such a material and adverse effect), and (iii) any such amendment, modification or supplement shall be acceptable to the Sackler Parties' Representative with respect to the Specified Shareholder Provisions and, to the extent set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, reasonably acceptable to the Sackler Parties' Representative with respect to modification of terms relating to the rights, obligations, or interests of the Shareholder Released Parties; provided that solely with respect to the Creditor Trust Documents, such consent shall only apply to the extent set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. In addition, after the Confirmation Date, as long as such action does not materially and adversely affect the treatment of Holders of Allowed Claims pursuant to this Plan, the Debtors may remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistencies in this Plan or the Confirmation Order with respect to such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes or effects of this Plan, and any Holder of a Claim or Interest that has accepted this Plan shall be deemed to have accepted this Plan as amended, modified or supplemented.

(iii) Certain Technical Amendments. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors may make appropriate technical adjustments and modifications to the Plan without further order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that such technical adjustments and modifications do not adversely affect in a material way the treatment of Holders of Claims and Interests under the Plan.

4. Revocation or Withdrawal of Plan

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw the Plan prior to the Effective Date as to any or all of the Debtors; provided that each Debtor shall be entitled to revoke the Plan only in full and not in part. If, with respect to a Debtor, the Plan has been revoked or withdrawn prior to the Effective Date, or if confirmation or the occurrence of the Effective Date as to such Debtor does not occur on the Effective Date, then, with respect to such Debtor: (a) the Plan and the Plan Documents shall be null and void in all respects; (b) any settlement or compromise embodied in the Plan (including the fixing or limiting to an amount any Claim or Interest or Class of Claims or Interests), assumption or rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases effected by the Plan and any document or agreement executed pursuant to the Plan (including the Plan Documents) shall be deemed null and void; and (c) nothing contained in the Plan shall (i) constitute a waiver or release of any Claim by or against, or any Interest in, such Debtor or any other Person, (ii) prejudice in any manner the rights of such Debtor or any other Person, or (iii) constitute an admission of any sort by any Debtor or any other Person; provided that any provisions under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements that are expressly contemplated to survive revocation or reversal of the Plan shall survive.

5. Payment of Statutory Fees

All fees payable under section 1930 of chapter 123 of title 28 of the United States Code shall be paid on or before the Effective Date by the Debtors. After the Effective Date, the Plan Administration Trust shall assume liability for and shall pay, or cause to be paid, any and all quarterly fees owed to the U.S. Trustee when due in accordance with applicable law, and shall continue to file, or cause to be filed, with the Bankruptcy Court quarterly reports to show the calculation of such fees for the Debtors' Estates. Each of the Debtors shall remain obligated to pay quarterly fees to the U.S. Trustee until such Debtor's Chapter 11 Case is closed, dismissed or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Severability

(i) Notwithstanding anything else contained in the Plan, (i) the Plan provisions effectuating the Releases provided by the Debtors, their Estates, and the Releasing Parties and the Channeling Injunction (A) are integrated with and integral to all other provisions of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, the Plan and the Plan Documents, (B) are not and shall not be severable from the remainder of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, the Plan or the Plan Documents and (C) shall not be excised or modified other than in accordance with the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (ii) if the Plan provisions effectuating the Releases provided by the Debtors, their Estates, and the Releasing Parties and the Channeling Injunction are deemed null, void, illegal or unenforceable, then the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and the Plan shall be void and shall not remain in force or effect, except as specifically and expressly stated otherwise in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement or the Plan, or as specifically and expressly agreed in writing by all parties to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(ii) If, prior to entry of the Confirmation Order, any term or provision of the Plan that is not related to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement or the Releases provided by the Debtors, their Estates, and the Releasing Parties and the Channeling Injunction is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, at the request of the Debtors, shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation by the Bankruptcy Court, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated by such holding, alteration or interpretation. The Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with Section 12.6 of the Plan, is valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms.

(iii) The impact of any modification, reversal, or vacatur of the Confirmation Order, the Plan, or the Shareholder Settlements following the Effective Date will be governed by the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

7. Governing Law

Except to the extent that the Bankruptcy Code or other federal law is applicable, or to the extent that a Plan Document provides otherwise, the rights, duties and obligations arising under the Plan and the Plan Documents shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof (other than section 5-1401 and section 5-1402 of the New York General Obligations Law).

8. Immediate Binding Effect

Subject only to Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h) and 7062, as applicable, upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents shall be immediately effective and enforceable and deemed binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Debtors, the other Protected Parties, all Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, all Holders of Channeled Claims, all Releasing Parties and each of their respective successors and assigns.

9. Successors and Assigns

The rights, benefits and obligations of any Person named or referred to in the Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of, any heir, executor, administrator, successor or permitted assign, if any, of each such Person.

10. Entire Agreement

On the Effective Date, the Plan, the Plan Supplement and the Confirmation Order shall supersede all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings and representations concerning such documents, all of which have become merged and integrated into the Plan.

11. Computing Time

In computing any period of time prescribed or permitted by the Plan, unless otherwise set forth in the Plan or determined by the Bankruptcy Court, the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 9006 shall apply.

12. Exhibits to Plan

All exhibits, schedules, supplements and appendices to the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) are incorporated into and are part of the Plan as if set forth in full in the Plan.

13. Notices

All notices, requests and demands to or upon the Debtors shall be in writing (including by facsimile transmission) and, unless otherwise provided the Plan, shall be deemed to have been duly given or made only when actually delivered or, in the case of notice by facsimile transmission, when received and telephonically confirmed, addressed as follows:

DAVIS POLK & WARDWELL LLP
450 Lexington Avenue
New York, New York 10017
Attn: Marshall S. Huebner, Benjamin S. Kaminetzky, Eli J. Vonnegut, Christopher S. Robertson, Joshua Y. Sturm and Abraham Bane.

Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession

After the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Plan Administration Trustee shall have authority to send a notice to Entities providing that, to continue to receive documents pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002, such Entities must file a renewed request to receive documents pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; provided, however, that the U.S. Trustee need not file such a renewed request and shall continue to receive documents without any further action being necessary. After the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Plan Administration Trustee are authorized to limit the list of Entities receiving documents pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 to the U.S. Trustee and those Entities that have filed such renewed requests.

14. Dissolution of the Creditors' Committee

On the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee will dissolve; provided, however, that following the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee shall continue in existence and have standing and a right to be heard for the following limited purposes: (a) applications, and any relief related thereto, for compensation by Professional Persons and requests for allowance of fees and/or expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) any appeals of, or related to, the Confirmation Order or (c) any other appeal to which the Creditors' Committee is a party. Upon the dissolution of the Creditors' Committee, the Creditors' Committee, each of its members (including each officer, director, employee or agent thereof) and its respective Professional Persons will cease to have any duty, obligation or responsibility arising from, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases and shall be released and discharged from all rights and duties from, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases.

15. Reservation of Rights

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Plan shall be of no force or effect unless the Bankruptcy Court enters the Confirmation Order. None of the filing of the Plan, any statement or provisions of the Plan or the taking of any action by the Debtors with respect to the Plan shall be, or deemed to be, an admission or waiver of any rights of the Debtors with respect to any Claim or Interest prior to the Effective Date.

ARTICLE V

VOTING REQUIREMENTS; ACCEPTANCE AND CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. General

The following is a brief summary of the confirmation process for the Plan. Individuals, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures, trusts, governmental units and Native American Tribes holding a prepetition Claim or interest (an "Interest") as defined in section 101(16) of the Bankruptcy Code against the Debtors (such holders of Claims or Interests, "Holders of Claims or Interests") are encouraged to review the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and/or consult their own attorneys.

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court, after notice, to hold a confirmation hearing. Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to confirmation of the Plan.

Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code requires that, in order to confirm the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court must make a series of findings concerning the Plan and the Debtors, including that (i) the Plan has classified Claims in a permissible manner; (ii) the Plan complies with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) the Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law; (iv) the disclosure required by section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code has been made; (v) the Plan has been accepted by the requisite votes of holders of Claims (except to the extent that cramdown is available under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code); (vi) the Plan is feasible and confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtors unless such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the Plan; (vii) the Plan is in the "best interests" of all holders of Claims in an impaired Class by providing to such holders on account of their Claims property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the amount that such holders would receive or retain in a chapter 7 liquidation, unless each holder of a Claim in such Class has accepted the Plan; and (viii)

all fees payable under section 1930 of chapter 123 of title 28 of the United States Code shall be paid on or before the Effective Date by the Debtors. After the Effective Date, the Plan Administration Trust shall assume liability for and shall pay, or cause to be paid, any and all quarterly fees owed to the U.S. Trustee when due in accordance with applicable law, and shall continue to file, or cause to be filed, with the Bankruptcy Court quarterly reports to show the calculation of such fees for the Debtors' Estates. Each of the Debtors shall remain obligated to pay quarterly fees to the U.S. Trustee until such Debtor's Chapter 11 Case is closed, dismissed or converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors believe that the Plan satisfies section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Parties in Interest Entitled to Vote

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, only Classes of Claims that are "impaired" (as defined in section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Plan are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. A Class is impaired if the legal, equitable, or contractual rights to which the Claims of that Class entitled the holders of such Claims are modified, other than by curing defaults and reinstating the Claims. Classes that are not impaired are not entitled to vote on the Plan and are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan. In addition, Classes that receive no distributions under the Plan are not entitled to vote on the Plan and are deemed to have rejected the Plan.

C. Classes Impaired and Entitled to Vote Under the Plan

The following table designates the Classes of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and specifies which Classes are (i) Impaired and Unimpaired under the Plan, (ii) entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) deemed to accept or reject the Plan:

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Impairment	Entitled to Vote
Class 1	Secured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 3	Federal Government Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 4	Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 5	Tribe Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 6	Public School Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 7	Hospital Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 8	Third-Party Payor Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 9	ER Physician Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 10(a)	NAS PI Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 10(b)	Non-NAS PI Claims	Impaired	Yes
Class 11(a)	Avrio General Unsecured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 11(b)	Adlon General Unsecured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 11(c)	Other General Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Yes

Class 12	Intercompany Claims	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)
Class 13	Shareholder Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 14	Co-Defendant Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 15	Other Subordinated Claims	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 16	PPLP Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 17	PPI Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 18	Intercompany Interests	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)

In general, if a Claim or Interest is unimpaired under a plan, section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code deems the holder of such Claim or Interest to have accepted the plan, and thus, the holders of Claims in such unimpaired Classes are not entitled to vote on the plan. Because Classes 1, 2, 11(a) and 11(b) are unimpaired under the Plan, the holders of Claims and Interests in these Classes are not entitled to vote.

In general, if the holder of an impaired Claim or impaired Interest will not receive any distribution under a plan in respect of such Claim or Interest, section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code deems the holder of such Claim or Interest to have rejected the plan, and thus the holders of Claims in such Classes are not entitled to vote on the plan. The holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are conclusively presumed to have rejected the Plan and are therefore not entitled to vote.

Holders of Interests in Classes 12 and 18 are either conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or are deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

D. Voting Procedures and Requirements

The Bankruptcy Court can confirm the Plan only if it determines that the Plan complies with the technical requirements of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. One of these technical requirements is that the Bankruptcy Court find, among other things, that the Plan has been accepted by the requisite votes of all Classes of impaired Claims and Interests unless approval will be sought under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in spite of the nonacceptance by one or more such Classes.

If you have any questions about (i) the procedures for voting your Claim or with respect to the packet of materials that you have received or (ii) the amount of your Claim, please contact the Debtors' Solicitation Agent at (844) 217-0912 (domestic toll-free) or (347) 859-8093 (if calling from outside the United States or Canada). If you wish to obtain (at no charge) an additional copy of the Plan, this Disclosure Statement, or other solicitation documents, you can obtain them from the Debtors' Solicitation Agent by: (a.) calling (844) 217-0912 (U.S./Canada, toll-free) or +1 (347) 859-8093 (international, toll); (b.) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at: https://restructuring.ra.kroll.com/purduepharma/;

(c.) writing to Purdue Pharma Ballot Processing, c/o Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC, 850 Third Avenue, Suite 412, Brooklyn, NY 11232; and/or (d.) emailing purduepharmainfo@kroll.com (with a reference to "Purdue Pharma Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line) and request paper copies of the corresponding materials.

1. Ballots

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3017(c), [May 12, 2025] shall be the record date for purposes of determining which holders of Claims are entitled to receive solicitation packages and, where applicable, vote on the Plan (the "Voting Record Date"). Accordingly, only holders of record as of the Initial Voting Record Date that are otherwise entitled to vote under the Plan.

In voting for or against the Plan, please use (i) only the Ballot sent to you with this Disclosure Statement or (ii) the online electronic ballot portal. If you are a holder of a Claim in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) and 11(c) and did not receive a Ballot, if your Ballot is damaged or lost or if you have any questions concerning voting procedures, please contact your attorney or the Solicitation Agent at (844) 217-0912 (U.S./Canada, toll-free) or +1 (347) 859-8093 (international, toll) or by email at purduepharmaballots@kroll.com (with a reference to "Purdue Pharma Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line), as applicable.

In addition, the Debtors intend to seek approval for an attorney representing four or more holders of Claims in certain Classes to submit the votes of such clients through a single master ballot (a "Master Ballot") so long as such attorney follows specified procedures associated therewith. An attorney electing to utilize such procedure will be required to collect and record the votes of such clients through customary and accepted practices, or obtain authority to procedurally cast such clients' votes. If your attorney has indicated that your vote will be submitted by Master Ballot, but you prefer to vote by means of an individual Ballot, you may contact the Solicitation Agent at (844) 217-0912 (U.S./Canada, toll-free) or +1 (347) 859-8093 (international, toll) or by email at purduepharmaballots@kroll.com (with a reference to "Purdue Pharma Solicitation Inquiry" in the subject line).

2. Submitting Ballots

If you are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, you should read carefully, complete and submit your Ballot in accordance with the instructions below.

For your vote to be counted, your Ballot (or the Master Ballot including your vote) must be properly completed, signed, and returned so that it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent, Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC, by no later than the Voting Deadline (as defined in the Solicitation Order), unless such time is extended in writing by the Debtors. If your Ballot (or the Master Ballot including your vote) is not received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline, and such Voting Deadline is not extended by the Debtors as noted above, your vote will not be counted. Ballots must be delivered to the Solicitation Agent at the appropriate address listed below:

If by E-Ballot:	If by standard mail, overnight courier or hand delivery:

Visit https://restructuring.ra.kroll.com/purduepharma and click on the "Submit E-Ballot" link. For your E-Ballot log-in credentials and further detail, please see your Ballot.	Purdue Pharma Ballot Processing c/o Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC 850 Third Avenue, Suite 412 Brooklyn, NY 11232 If you plan to hand deliver your Ballot to Kroll's office, please email purduepharmaballots@kroll.com at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance to arrange delivery.

Ballots will not be accepted by telecopy, facsimile, email, or other electronic means of transmission (other than by E-Ballot). Furthermore, Master Ballots may only be submitted to the Solicitation through the E-Ballot portal referenced above.

The method of delivery of Ballots to the Solicitation Agent is at the risk of each holder of a Claim, and such delivery will be deemed made only when the original Ballot (or Master Ballot including your vote) is actually received by the Solicitation Agent. In all cases, sufficient time should be allowed to assure timely delivery. Any unsigned Ballot will not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan; provided that a Ballot or Master Ballot cast via the Solicitation Agent's online "E-Balloting" portal or pursuant to the solicitation procedures will be deemed signed. No Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Solicitation Agent), or the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, and if so sent, and not otherwise properly and timely delivered to the Solicitation Agent, will not be counted. If no holders of Claims in a particular Class that is entitled to vote on the Plan vote to accept or reject the Plan, then such Class shall be deemed to accept the Plan.

If you are a holder of a Claim in Classes 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 and are represented by an attorney who represents four or more clients that may hold Claims in Classes 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10, you may be eligible to have your attorney vote to accept or reject the Plan on your behalf via Master Ballot. In such case, your attorney will be required to collect and record your vote through customary and accepted practices, or obtain authority to procedurally cast your vote. In the event that your attorney votes to accept or reject the Plan on your behalf via Master Ballot and you also submit an individual ballot to accept or reject the Plan, your individual ballot will control over any duplicate vote on the Master Ballot.

3. Voting of Disputed Claims

The Plan shall provide that if any party in interest with appropriate standing has filed an objection to a Claim (such claim, a "Disputed Claim"), such Disputed Claim is temporarily disallowed, except as otherwise provided in a stipulation, settlement, or other agreement filed by the Debtors or as ordered by the Court prior to or concurrent with entry of an order confirming the Plan, including pursuant to an order on any motion with the Court for an order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) temporarily allowing such claim for voting purposes filed regarding such Claim that is timely filed pursuant to procedures established by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that if the objection seeks to reclassify or reduce the allowed amount of such Claim, then such Claim is temporarily allowed for voting purposes in the reduced amount and/or as reclassified, except as otherwise provided in a stipulation, settlement, or other agreement filed by the Debtors or as may be otherwise ordered by the Court prior to or concurrent with entry of an order confirming the Plan.

E. Acceptance of the Plan

As a condition to confirmation of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Code requires that each class of impaired claims vote to accept a plan, except under certain circumstances. See "Confirmation Without Necessary Acceptances; Cramdown" below. A class of claims or interests that is unimpaired under a plan is deemed to have accepted the plan and, therefore, solicitation of acceptances with respect to such class is not required. A class is impaired unless the plan (i) leaves unaltered the legal, equitable, and contractual rights to which the claim or interest entitles the holder of such claim or interest or (ii) cures any default, reinstates the original terms of the obligation, and does not otherwise alter the legal, equitable, or contractual rights to which the claim or interest entitles the holder of such claim or interest.

Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code defines acceptance of a plan by an impaired class as acceptance by holders of at least two-thirds in dollar amount and more than one-half in number of claims in that class. Only those holders that are eligible to vote and that actually vote to accept or reject the plan are counted for purposes of determining whether these dollar and number thresholds are met. Thus, a class of claims will have voted to accept a plan only if two-thirds in amount and a majority in number that actually vote cast their ballots in favor of acceptance. Under section 1126(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, a class of interests has accepted a plan if holders of such interests holding at least two-thirds in amount that actually vote have voted to accept the plan. Holders of claims or interests who fail to vote are not counted as either accepting or rejecting a plan.

In addition to this voting requirement, section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a plan be accepted by each holder of a claim or interest in an impaired class or that the plan otherwise be found by a court to be in the best interests of each holder of a claim or interest in such class. See "Best Interests Test" below. Moreover, each impaired class must accept the plan for the plan to be confirmed without application of the "fair and equitable" and "unfair discrimination" tests set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code discussed below. See "Confirmation Without Necessary Acceptances; Cramdown" below.

F. Confirmation Without Necessary Acceptances; Cramdown

In the event that any impaired class of claims or interests does not accept a plan, a debtor nevertheless may move for confirmation of the plan. A plan may be confirmed, even if it is not accepted by all impaired classes, if the plan has been accepted by at least one impaired class of claims and the plan meets the "cramdown" requirements set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a court find that a plan (i) "does not discriminate unfairly" and (ii) is "fair and equitable," with respect to each non-accepting impaired class of claims or interests. Here, because holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are deemed to reject the Plan, the Debtors will seek confirmation of the Plan from the Bankruptcy Court by satisfying the "cramdown" requirements set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors believe that such requirements are satisfied, as no holder of a Claim or Interest junior to those in Classes 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 will receive any property under the Plan.

A plan "does not discriminate unfairly" if (i) the legal rights of a non-accepting class are treated in a manner that is consistent with the treatment of other classes whose legal rights are similar to those of the non-accepting class and (ii) no class receives payments in excess of that which it is legally entitled to receive for its claims or interests. The Debtors believe that, under the Plan, all impaired Classes of Claims and Interests are treated in a manner that is consistent with the treatment of other Classes of Claims and Interests that are similarly situated, if any, and no class of Claims or Interests will receive payments or property with an aggregate value greater than the aggregate value of the Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests in such Class. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that the Plan does not discriminate unfairly as to any impaired Class of Claims or Interests.

The Bankruptcy Code provides a non-exclusive definition of the phrase "fair and equitable." In order to determine whether a plan is "fair and equitable," the Bankruptcy Code establishes "cramdown" tests for secured creditors, unsecured creditors, and equity holders, as follows:

1. Secured Creditors. Either (i) each impaired secured creditor retains its liens securing its secured claim and receives on account of its secured claim deferred Cash payments having a present value equal to the amount of its allowed secured claim, (ii) each impaired secured creditor realizes the "indubitable equivalent" of its allowed secured claim, or (iii) subject to section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, the property securing the claim is sold free and clear of liens, with such liens to attach to the proceeds of the sale and the treatment of such liens on proceeds to be as provided in clause (i) or (ii) above.

2. Unsecured Creditors. Either (i) each impaired unsecured creditor receives or retains under the plan property of a value equal to the amount of its allowed claim or (ii) the holders of claims and interests that are junior to the claims of the dissenting class will not receive any property under the plan.

3. Equity Interests. Either (i) each holder of an equity interest will receive or retain under the plan property of a value equal to the greatest of the fixed liquidation preference to which such holder is entitled, the fixed redemption price to which such holder is entitled or the value of the interest or (ii) the holder of an interest that is junior to the non-accepting class will not receive or retain any property under the plan.

As discussed above, the Debtors believe that the distributions provided under the Plan satisfy the "fair and equitable" standard, where required.

AS EXPLAINED ABOVE, THE BANKRUPTCY CODE CONTAINS PROVISIONS FOR CONFIRMATION OF A PLAN EVEN IF IT IS NOT ACCEPTED BY ALL CLASSES. THESE SO-CALLED "CRAMDOWN" PROVISIONS ARE SET FORTH IN SECTION 1129(B) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, WHICH PROVIDES THAT A PLAN CAN BE CONFIRMED EVEN IF IT HAS NOT BEEN ACCEPTED BY ALL IMPAIRED CLASSES OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS AS LONG AS, AMONG OTHER THINGS, AT LEAST ONE IMPAIRED CLASS OF NON-INSIDER CLAIMS HAS VOTED TO ACCEPT THE PLAN.

G. Classification

The Bankruptcy Code requires that, for purposes of treatment and voting, a chapter 11 plan divide the different claims (excluding administrative claims) against, and equity interests in, a debtor into separate classes based upon their legal nature. Pursuant to section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class. The Debtors believe that the Plan classifies all Claims and Interests in compliance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code because valid business, factual and legal reasons exist for separately classifying the various Classes of Claims and Interests created under the Plan. Accordingly, the classification of Claims and Interests in the Plan complies with section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code.

ARTICLE VI

FEASIBILITY AND BEST INTERESTS OF CREDITORS

A. Best Interests Test

As noted above, even if a plan is accepted by the holders of each class of claims and interests, the Bankruptcy Code requires a court to determine that such plan is in the best interests of all holders of claims or interests that are impaired by that plan and that have not accepted the plan. The "best interests" test (the "Best Interests Test"), as set forth in section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code, requires a court to find either that all members of an impaired class of claims or interests have accepted the plan or that the plan will provide a member who has not accepted the plan with a recovery of property of a value, as of the effective date of the Plan, that is not less than the amount that such holder would recover if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

To calculate the probable distribution to holders of each impaired class of claims and interests if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7, a court must first determine the aggregate dollar amount that would be generated from a debtor's assets if its chapter 11 cases were converted to chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code. To determine if a plan is in the best interests of each impaired class, the present value of the distributions from the proceeds of a liquidation of the debtor's unencumbered assets and properties, after subtracting the amounts attributable to the costs, expenses and administrative claims associated with a chapter 7 liquidation, must be compared with the value offered to such impaired classes under the plan. If the hypothetical liquidation distribution to holders of claims or interests in any impaired class is greater than the distributions to be received by such parties under the plan, then such plan is not in the best interests of the holders of claims or interests in such impaired class.[150]

[150] To the extent relevant for purposes of the Best Interest Test, the Liquidation Analysis assumes that, in a chapter 7 scenario, Holders of Claims and Interests and other non-Debtor Persons would retain their direct claims, if any, against the Shareholder Released Parties. Section III.AA(2)(ii)(c) above contains a discussion of the value of such claims in a chapter 7 scenario.

B. Liquidation Analysis

Amounts that a holder of Claims or Interests in an impaired class would receive in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation are discussed in the liquidation analysis of the Debtors prepared by the Debtors' management with the assistance of its advisors (the "Liquidation Analysis"), which is attached hereto as Appendix C.

As described in the Liquidation Analysis, underlying the analysis are a number of estimates and assumptions that, although developed and considered reasonable by the Debtors' management and advisors, are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies beyond the control of the Debtors and their management. The Liquidation Analysis is based on assumptions with regard to liquidation decisions and circumstances that are subject to change. Accordingly, the values reflected in the Liquidation Analysis might not be realized if the Debtors were, in fact, to undergo a liquidation.

This Liquidation Analysis is solely for the purposes of (i) providing "adequate information" under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code to enable the holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote under the Plan to make an informed judgment about the Plan and (ii) providing the Bankruptcy Court with appropriate support for the satisfaction of the "Best Interests Test" pursuant to section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code, and should not be used or relied upon for any other purpose, including the purchase or sale of securities of, or Claims or Interests in, the Debtors or any of their affiliates.

The Debtors do not intend to and do not undertake any obligation to update or otherwise revise the Liquidation Analysis to reflect events or circumstances existing or arising after the date the Liquidation Analysis is initially filed or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. Therefore, the Liquidation Analysis may not be relied upon as a guarantee or other assurance of the actual results that will occur.

In deciding whether to vote to accept or reject the Plan, holders of Claims must make their own determinations as to the reasonableness of any assumptions underlying the Liquidation Analysis and the reliability of the Liquidation Analysis.

C. Application of the Best Interests Test

The Debtors believe that, based on the Liquidation Analysis, the Plan satisfies the Best Interests Test. As the Plan and the Liquidation Analysis attached hereto as Appendix C indicate, Confirmation of the Plan will provide each holder of an Allowed Claim in an impaired class with an equal or greater recovery than the value of any distributions if the Chapter 11 Cases were converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. Feasibility

Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code requires, as a condition to the confirmation of the Plan ("Confirmation"), that the Bankruptcy Court finds that Confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation of the Debtors or the need for further financial reorganization, unless such liquidation is contemplated by the Plan. For purposes of demonstrating that the Plan meets this "feasibility" standard, the Debtors' management has prepared the financial projections, as set forth in Appendix D (the "Financial Projections").

The Debtors have prepared the Financial Projections solely for the purpose of providing "adequate information" under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code to enable the holders of Claims entitled to vote under the Plan to make an informed judgment about the Plan and should not be used or relied upon for any other purpose, including the purchase or sale of securities of, or Claims or Interests in, the Debtors.

In addition to the cautionary notes contained elsewhere in this Disclosure Statement and in the Financial Projections, it is underscored that the Debtors make no representation as to the accuracy of the Financial Projections or their or NewCo's ability to achieve the projected results. Many of the assumptions on which the Financial Projections are based are subject to significant uncertainties. Inevitably, some assumptions will not materialize, and unanticipated events and circumstances may affect the financial results. Therefore, the actual results achieved throughout the Projection Period (as defined in the Financial Projections) may vary from the Financial Projections, and the variations may be material. All holders of Claims in the impaired classes are urged to examine carefully all of the assumptions on which the Financial Projections are based in connection with their evaluation of, and voting on, the Plan.

Based upon the Financial Projections, the Debtors believe that they will be able to make all distributions and payments under the Plan and that confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation of NewCo or the need for further restructuring.

ARTICLE VII

SECURITIES LAW MATTERS

This Disclosure Statement was not approved by the SEC or any state regulatory authority. Neither the SEC nor any state regulatory authority has passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this Disclosure Statement, or the exhibits or statements contained herein, and any representation to the contrary is unlawful.

The Plan provides for the offer, issuance, and distribution of interests in the Creditor Trusts and the Master Disbursement Trust (collectively, the "Trust Interests"). The Debtors believe any and all Trust Interests and the right to receive distributions on account of the Trust Interests will not constitute "securities" as defined in section 2(a)(1) of the Securities Act, section 101(49) of the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable state and local securities laws, and will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act, all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and any applicable state or local securities laws and regulations. The Trust Interests will not be evidenced by any certificate, security, receipt, or in any other form or manner whatsoever, except as maintained on the books and records of the applicable trust. Further, the Trust Interests shall not be listed for trading on any national securities exchange.

If it is determined that the Trust Interests, the right to receive distributions on account of Trust Interests constitute "securities," the Debtors believe that the issuance and distribution of the Trust Interests satisfies the requirements of section 1145(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and are, therefore, exempt from registration under the Securities Act and state and local securities laws.

To the extent the Trust Interests, the right to receive distributions on account of Trust Interests are determined to be "securities" that do not satisfy the requirements of section 1145(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors believe that such interests are issuable without registration under the Securities Act under section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act provides that the issuance of securities by an issuer in transactions not involving any public offering are exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

ARTICLE VIII

CERTAIN RISK FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED PRIOR TO VOTING

THE PLAN AND ITS IMPLEMENTATION ARE SUBJECT TO CERTAIN RISKS, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE RISK FACTORS SET FORTH BELOW. HOLDERS OF CLAIMS WHO ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN SHOULD READ AND CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE RISK FACTORS, AS WELL AS THE OTHER INFORMATION SET FORTH IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND THE DOCUMENTS DELIVERED TOGETHER HEREWITH REFERRED TO OR INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE HEREIN, BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO VOTE TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN. THESE FACTORS SHOULD NOT, HOWEVER, BE REGARDED AS CONSTITUTING THE ONLY RISKS INVOLVED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PLAN AND ITS IMPLEMENTATION.

A. Risks Associated with the Bankruptcy Process

1. Plan Confirmation

The Debtors can make no assurances that the conditions to confirmation of the Plan will be satisfied or waived or that they will receive the requisite acceptances to confirm the Plan. Further, if the requisite acceptances are not received, the Debtors may seek to accomplish an alternative chapter 11 plan and obtain acceptances to an alternative plan for the Debtors, or otherwise, that may not have the support of the holders of Claims and/or may be required to liquidate these Estates under chapter 7 or 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. There can be no assurance that the terms of any such alternative restructuring arrangement or plan would be similar to or as favorable to Creditors as those proposed in the Plan.

Even if the Debtors receive the requisite acceptances, there is no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan. Even if the Bankruptcy Court determined that the Disclosure Statement and the balloting procedures and results were appropriate, the Bankruptcy Court could still decline to confirm the Plan if it found that any of the statutory requirements for confirmation had not been met. Moreover, there can be no assurance that modifications to the Plan will not be required for confirmation or that such modifications would not necessitate the resolicitation of votes. If the Plan is not confirmed, it is unclear what distributions holders of Claims ultimately would receive with respect to their Claims in a subsequent plan.

2. Potential Appeals of Confirmation Order

If the Confirmation Order is entered, certain parties may appeal such Order. Any appealing party may seek a stay of judgment with respect to the Confirmation Order, which, if granted by the Bankruptcy Court or the district court with appellate jurisdiction with respect to the Confirmation Order, would maintain the status quo that has existed during the Chapter 11 Cases while an appeal remains pending. Absent the grant of a stay pending appeal (or if applicable conditions to the grant of such a stay, which could include a requirement to post a supersedeas bond, are not satisfied), the Debtors and other parties will have the authority to execute upon and enforce the Confirmation Order so long as the Confirmation Order has not been reversed on appeal. Accordingly, absent a stay pending appeal, the Effective Date may occur, subject to the terms and conditions precedent in the Plan, and the Plan may be substantially consummated during the pendency of the appeal. Upon substantial consummation of the Plan, any appeal of the Confirmation Order may become equitably moot. See, e.g., In re Chateaugay Corp., 10 F.3d 944 (2d Cir. 1993). If any appeal is found not to be equitably moot in its entirety and confirmation of the Plan is reversed on appeal, the form of available relief and the impact of such relief on the post-Effective Date structure contemplated by the Plan is difficult to predict, but such relief could potentially have a materially adverse impact on the timing or amount of distributions contemplated under the Plan.

3. Objections to Classification of Claims

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Plan classify Claims against, and Interests in, the Debtors. The Bankruptcy Code also provides that the Plan may place a Claim or Interest in a particular Class only if such Claim or Interest is substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests of such Class. The Debtors believe that all Claims and Interests have been appropriately classified in the Plan.

To the extent that the Bankruptcy Court finds that a different classification is required for the Plan to be confirmed, the Debtors would seek (i) to modify the Plan to provide for whatever classification might be required for confirmation and (ii) to use the acceptances received from any holder of Claims pursuant to this solicitation for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the Class or Classes of which such holder ultimately is deemed to be a member. Any such reclassification of Claims, although subject to the notice and hearing requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, could adversely affect the Class in which such holder was initially a member, or any other Class under the Plan, by changing the composition of such Class and the vote required for approval of the Plan. There can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court, after finding that a classification was inappropriate and requiring a reclassification, would approve the Plan based upon such reclassification. Except to the extent that modification of classification in the Plan requires resolicitation, the Debtors will, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, seek a determination by the Bankruptcy Court that acceptance of the Plan by any holder of Claims pursuant to this solicitation will constitute a consent to the Plan's treatment of such holder, regardless of the Class as to which such holder is ultimately deemed to be a member.

4. Failure to Consummate the Plan

As of the date of this Disclosure Statement, there can be no assurance that the conditions to consummation of the Plan will be satisfied or waived. Accordingly, even if the Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that the Plan will be consummated and the restructuring completed.

5. The Chapter 11 Cases May Be Converted to Cases under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code

If the Bankruptcy Court finds that it would be in the best interest of creditors and/or the debtor in a chapter 11 case, the Bankruptcy Court may convert a chapter 11 bankruptcy case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. In such event, a chapter 7 trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the debtor's assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors believe that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in significantly smaller distributions being made to creditors than those provided for in a chapter 11 plan because of (i) the likelihood that the assets would have to be sold or otherwise disposed of in a disorderly fashion over a short period of time, rather than reorganizing or selling the business as a going concern at a later time in a controlled manner, (ii) additional administrative expenses involved in the appointment of a chapter 7 trustee, and (iii) additional expenses and Claims, some of which would be entitled to priority, that would be generated during the liquidation, including Claims resulting from the rejection of unexpired leases and other executory contracts in connection with cessation of operations.

6. Risk of Delayed Confirmation or Effective Date

Although the Debtors expect that the Plan will be confirmed on or shortly after the Confirmation Hearing scheduled for [October 27, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time)], there is a risk that confirmation of the Plan will be delayed. The occurrence of the Effective Date is subject to the receipt of all authorizations, consents, regulatory approvals, rulings and documents that are necessary to implement and effectuate the Plan. The governmental approval process could take substantial time after confirmation of the Plan. Any delay in the governmental approval processes, or the failure to obtain such approvals, could prolong the Chapter 11 Cases (or result in a liquidation of the Debtors), and reduce recoveries available to creditors.

7. Plan Releases, Injunctions and Exculpations May Not Be Approved

There can be no assurance that the Plan releases, injunctions and exculpations as provided in Article X of the Plan, will be granted. Failure of the Bankruptcy Court to grant such relief may result in a plan of reorganization that differs from the Plan or the Plan not being confirmed.

8. Channeling Injunction

The Channeling Injunction, which, among other things, bars all persons that have held or asserted, or that hold or assert Channeled Claims or any Released Claims arising out of or related thereto against the Released Parties, is a necessary element of the Plan. There is no guarantee that the validity and enforceability of the Channeling Injunction or the application of the Channeling Injunction to the Channeled Claims and Released Claims arising out of or related thereto will not be challenged, either before or after Confirmation of the Plan.

9. Insurance Neutrality Provisions

Certain of Debtors' insurers assert that the language in Section 5.11 of the Plan, titled "Insurance Neutrality," does not adequately protect their rights. They have proposed alternative insurance neutrality language to the Debtors, which is filed at Docket No. 2710, Exhibit A, in Case No. 19-23649. Those insurers contend that the language they have proposed is consistent with language in other plans of reorganization that have been confirmed, and confirmation orders that have been entered, in this district, and they further contend that this Court, or a court on appeal, may require that such language be included within the Plan as a condition to confirmation.

10. Credit Risk Attendant to Settlement of Claims Against the Sackler Parties

The Shareholder Settlement Agreements will provide for the Sackler Parties to remit up to $7.0 billion over fifteen years to the Master Disbursement Trust. The Sackler Payment Parties will provide collateral and other forms of credit support to secure the Required Settlement Payments and other obligations of the Sackler Parties under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, as more fully set forth in the Credit Support Annexes to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. Remedies for breach of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements may include, without limitation, acceleration of the unpaid and unfunded obligations of the defaulting Sackler Parties, voiding the Shareholder Releases provided pursuant to the Plan and Shareholder Settlement Agreements, foreclosure by the Master Disbursement Trust on the collateral provided under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, enforcement of confessions of judgment by the applicable Sackler Parties admitting the obligations that have come due, and certain other remedies to be mutually agreed. However, some or all of the Sackler Parties may fail to make such payments in whole or in part (or fail to make timely payments) notwithstanding the satisfaction of all conditions to payment in the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and the covenants contained therein. Such an event presents a credit risk to the Master Disbursement Trust and, to the extent the Master Disbursement Trust is not able to collect such unpaid amounts through the enforcement of remedies under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, could prevent the Master Disbursement Trust from making required or anticipated payments to the Creditor Trusts. Moreover, Required Settlement Payments may be made into escrow or paused, depending on whether the Confirmation Order is modified, reversed or vacated in a manner that materially and adversely affects the rights, interests, or obligations of certain key stakeholders. As such, to the extent the Confirmation Order is modified, reversed or vacated, payments to the Master Disbursement Trust under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements may be deferred and, to the extent the Confirmation Order is not reinstated, the Master Disbursement Trust may not receive payments and previously received amounts may be credited (or amounts held in escrow may be returned) to the Sackler Parties under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

11. Recovery on Account of Other General Unsecured Claims Depends on the Aggregate Amount of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims

The Debtors estimate that, following completion of Claims litigation and related matters, the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash will exceed the aggregate amount of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims. This estimate is based on certain assumptions based on a variety of factors. Should these underlying assumptions prove incorrect, the actual Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims may differ from the Debtors' estimates, and such differences could be material. Because distributions to Holders of Other General Unsecured Claims are linked to the value of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims, any material increase in the amount of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims in excess of the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash would materially reduce the recovery to Holders of Other General Unsecured Claims under the Plan.

12. Recoveries on Account of Federal Government Unsecured Claims May Impact the Amount of Distributions Made to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust

Under the terms of the Plan, residual value after satisfying other obligations under the Plan will effectively ultimately be distributed to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust, in the proportions determined pursuant to the Plan. As a result, the amount of distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust are linked to, inter alia, the amount of distributions on account of the Allowed Federal Government Unsecured Claims. The amount of distributions on account of the Allowed Federal Government Unsecured Claims remains to be agreed with the Holders of such Claims or to be determined pursuant to the Plan. The amount of such distribution that is ultimately made will reduce the amount of distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust.

B. Risks Associated with the Debtors' and NewCo's Business Operations and Financial Condition

1. NewCo May Not Be Able to Achieve Its Projected Financial Results

Actual financial results may differ materially from the Financial Projections. If the Debtors and/or NewCo do not achieve projected revenue or cash flow levels, NewCo may lack sufficient liquidity to continue operating its business consistent with the Financial Projections after the Effective Date. The Financial Projections represent management's view based on currently known facts and hypothetical assumptions about their future operations; they do not guarantee NewCo's future financial performance.

2. NewCo's Effective Tax Rate May Vary From Projections

The Financial Projections include assumptions as to NewCo's effective tax rate in future years. This assumed tax rate may be higher or lower than NewCo's actual tax rate, which will vary depending upon available tax deductions and changes in statutory tax rates.

3. The Financial Projections Are Subject to Inherent Uncertainty Due to the Numerous Assumptions upon Which They Are Based

The Financial Projections are based on numerous assumptions including, without limitation, the timing, confirmation and consummation of the Plan in accordance with its terms, the anticipated future performance of the Debtors and NewCo, general business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of the Debtors and some or all of which may not materialize. Particular uncertainties with respect to the Debtors' operations and financial results arise from the risks and uncertainties relating to, among other things, the following: changes in the demand for the Debtors' pharmaceutical products; legislation and regulations relating to the pharmaceutical industry; operational, permit, and labor factors; fluctuations in the amount of cash the Debtors generate from operations; and numerous other matters of national, regional and global scale, including those of a political, economic, business, competitive, or regulatory nature. Because the actual results achieved throughout the periods covered by the Financial Projections may vary from the projected results, the Financial Projections should not be relied upon as an assurance of the actual results that will occur.

Except with respect to the Financial Projections and except as otherwise specifically and expressly stated herein, this Disclosure Statement does not reflect any events that might occur subsequent to the date hereof. Such events could have a material impact on the information contained in this Disclosure Statement. Neither the Debtors nor NewCo intend to update the Financial Projections. The Financial Projections, therefore, may not reflect the impact of any subsequent events not already accounted for in the assumptions underlying the Financial Projections.

4. The Debtors Will Be Subject to the Risks and Uncertainties Associated with the Chapter 11 Cases

For the duration of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors' ability to operate, develop and execute a business plan, and continue as a going concern, will be subject to the risks and uncertainties associated with bankruptcy. These risks include the following: (i) the ability to develop, confirm and consummate the Plan and transactions contemplated thereunder; (ii) the ability to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval with respect to motions filed in the Chapter 11 Cases from time to time; (iii) the ability to maintain relationships with suppliers, vendors, service providers, customers, employees and other third parties; (iv) the ability to maintain contracts that are critical to the Debtors' operations; (v) the ability of third parties to seek and obtain Bankruptcy Court approval to terminate contracts and other agreements with the Debtors; (vi) the ability of third parties to seek and obtain Bankruptcy Court approval to terminate or shorten the exclusivity period for the Debtors to propose and confirm a chapter 11 plan, to appoint a chapter 11 trustee, or to convert the Chapter 11 Cases to chapter 7 proceedings; and (vii) the actions and decisions of the Debtors' creditors and other third parties who have interests in the Chapter 11 Cases that may be inconsistent with the Debtors' plans.

These risks and uncertainties could affect the Debtors' businesses and operations in various ways. For example, negative events associated with the Chapter 11 Cases could adversely affect the Debtors' relationships with suppliers, service providers, customers, employees and other third parties, which in turn could adversely affect the Debtors' operations and financial condition. Also, the Debtors will need the prior approval of the Bankruptcy Court for transactions outside the ordinary course of businesses, which may limit the Debtors' ability to respond timely to certain events or take advantage of certain opportunities. Because of the risks and uncertainties associated with the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors cannot accurately predict or quantify the ultimate impact of events that occur during the Chapter 11 Cases that may be inconsistent with the Debtors' plans.

5. Certain Claims May Not Be Discharged and May Have a Material Adverse Effect on the Debtors' Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The Bankruptcy Code provides that the confirmation of a plan of reorganization discharges a debtor from substantially all debts arising prior to confirmation. With few exceptions, all Claims that arise prior to the Debtors' filing of their petitions or before confirmation of the plan of reorganization (i) would be subject to compromise and/or treatment under the plan of reorganization, and/or (ii) would be discharged and/or released in accordance with the terms of the plan of reorganization. Any Claims not ultimately discharged or released through a plan of reorganization could be asserted against NewCo and may have an adverse effect on NewCo's financial condition and results of operations.

6. Regulatory Risk

As a manufacturer of controlled substances and prescription products, the Debtors are subject to regulatory oversight by numerous governmental entities. For example, the Debtors must comply with laws, regulations, guidance documents and standards promulgated by the FDA, the DEA, the Department of Health and Human Services (including its Office of Inspector General), the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS"), the Environmental Protection Agency, state boards of pharmacy, and state controlled substance authorities. In particular, the Debtors interact with the FDA on a regular basis in connection with, among other things, new drug applications, abbreviated new drug applications and monitoring of production facilities. The Debtors regularly interact with the DEA in connection with controlled substance facility registrations and obtaining quota to manufacture controlled substances. The Debtors also interact with state agencies regarding their manufacturing and selling of controlled substances and pharmaceutical products and the licenses required to engage in these activities. The Debtors are also subject to healthcare fraud and abuse laws, such as the Federal Anti-Kickback Statute, the Federal False Claims Act, and state equivalents thereof.

- If the Debtors fail to comply with applicable federal and state laws and regulations, the Debtors could face substantial enforcement actions, including civil, criminal and administrative penalties including product seizures or injunctions, damages, fines and exclusion from federal or state healthcare programs, and their financial condition and operations could be adversely affected. Although compliance programs can mitigate the risk of investigation and prosecution for violations of these laws, the risks cannot be entirely eliminated. In addition, in order to operate their businesses, the Debtors are required to maintain licenses under the laws of various states, which may be impacted by the DOJ Resolution.

Moreover, continued compliance with prevailing laws and regulations imposes significant financial and operational costs on the Debtors, including because these laws and regulations are subject to ongoing government review and interpretation, which can result in shifts in review protocol, government interpretation, and government implementation. Additionally, governments and regulators may modify existing laws or regulations or impose new ones, which may increase the Debtors' costs of compliance significantly. All of these factors can have material impacts on the Debtors' businesses.

7. The Debtors' Revenues Are Highly Dependent on Medicare, Medicaid, and Commercial Payor Payment Rates

The Debtors' ability to generate revenue relies on the prescribing of their medicines which are reimbursed by commercial managed care and government managed Medicare and Medicaid programs. The Debtors provide discounts and rebates to participating managed care organizations and federal and/or state governments to maintain patient access to their medications. The future revenue of the debtors is highly dependent on the continued formulary coverage from these entities.

Payment rates for Medicaid reimbursable products are set by law and regulation and are therefore beyond the Debtors' ability to control. Prevailing reimbursement for the Debtors' products could be significantly reduced in the future, materially impairing the Debtors' revenue. For example, pursuant to the Debtors' national rebate agreement with the Department of Health and Human Services, Medicaid covers a number of the Debtors' products under a designated rebate program. In accordance with this program, the Debtors are also required to comply with the United States Department of Health and Human Services' 340B Drug Pricing Program (the "340B Program"). Moreover, certain products sold by the Debtors could cease to be reimbursed by Medicaid at all. More generally, ongoing healthcare reform efforts, including efforts to curb the costs of prescription medications, also may impact the Debtors' revenues in the future.

The Debtors business also critically relies on contractual agreements with private third party payors, such as insurance companies or pharmacy benefit managers and with the federal government. The Debtors have entered into several contracts with private insurers with commercial and/or Medicare Part D business lines and with the CMS to cover certain of their products, pursuant to which the Debtors agreed to pay the private insurers or their representatives which administer the program or CMS certain rebates related to these programs. Rebate rates required by these payors could change materially depending on a variety of factors, including regulatory changes and cost pressures affecting the commercial payors' own businesses. In particular, commercial payors are highly cost sensitive as a result of the rising cost of healthcare and other macroeconomic factors and may pressure the Debtors to accept higher rebate rates as a result. The future revenues of the debtors is highly dependent on the private commercial payers maintaining the Debtors products on their list of drugs that are given formulary coverage. If formulary coverage is lost it is unlikely to be regained in the future by the debtors.

Additionally, based on its agreement with CMS for Medicaid and relevant statutes, the Debtors must also comply with the Department of Veterans Affairs Federal Supply Schedule, which requires the Debtors to make their products available to federal agencies such as, but not limited to, the Department of Veterans Affairs, Department of Defense, the Coast Guard, Federal Bureau of Prisons and the Public Health Service at deeply discounted prices (collectively, the "Federal Supply Schedule Programs"). Because the price the Debtors charge under the Federal Supply Schedule is lower than the wholesale acquisition cost (a base price set by the Debtors in their sole discretion and adjusted from time to time), wholesalers charge back the Debtors for the difference ("FSS Chargebacks"). The deeply discounted prices at which the Debtors make their products available under the Federal Supply Schedule Programs (and the resulting FSS Chargebacks owed by the Debtors) are subject to change materially based on the FSS set by the Department of Veterans Affairs, which may adjust such prices based on the rising cost of healthcare and other macroeconomic factors. Failure to comply with the Federal Supply Schedule

Programs may result in substantial fines and penalties and exclusion from other federal programs, which would diminish the Debtors' customer base as well as harm the Debtors' relationship with wholesalers.

All of the foregoing may materially impact the Debtors' performance in ways that may be difficult to predict or mitigate.

8. The Debtors' Revenues Are Highly Dependent on Wholesale Distribution Channels

The Debtors' primary channel for sale of prescription products is through wholesalers (collectively, the "Distributors") who distribute these products to retail drugstores, pharmacies, hospitals, long-term care and other mail, retail and non-retail institutions in the United States. These buyers, in turn, dispense these products to patients. If the Distributors refuse to do business with NewCo due to the rejection of their contracts or otherwise, NewCo would lose access to its primary channel for sale of prescription products, which would likely have a material adverse impact on its operations and revenues and make sale of NewCo at a future date more difficult. Although Purdue Pharma and Rhodes together have 40 different customer/distributors for their products, Cardinal, McKesson, and Cencora (formerly Amerisource Bergen) generally account for over 90 percent of their gross sales.

9. The Debtors' Intellectual Property May Be Misappropriated or the Debtors May Be Subject to Infringement Claims

The Debtors rely on intellectual property rights, including licensing arrangements and third-party nondisclosure and assignment agreements, to conduct their businesses. The Debtors' failure to adequately maintain and protect its intellectual property could materially affect the Debtors' intellectual property rights. The Debtors' intellectual property rights could be challenged, invalidated or circumvented by others and may be insufficient in scope and strength to meaningfully protect the Debtors. While the Debtors attempt to protect their intellectual property rights, the Debtors cannot guarantee that they will be successful in defending such rights against third parties who may infringe upon them. Similarly, it is possible that third parties will make claims of infringement against the Debtors, and there is no guarantee that the Debtors will successfully defend or otherwise resolve such claims. Any such claims, even if meritless, could disrupt or impose significant costs on the Debtors' businesses.

C. Miscellaneous Risk Factors and Disclaimers

1. The Financial Information Is Based on the Debtors' Books and Records and, Unless Otherwise Stated, No Audit Was Performed

In preparing this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors relied on financial data derived from their books and records that was available at the time of such preparation. Although the Debtors have used their reasonable business judgment to assure the accuracy of the financial information provided in this Disclosure Statement, and while the Debtors believe that such financial information fairly reflects their financial condition, the Debtors are unable to warrant or represent that the financial information contained in this Disclosure Statement (or any information in any of the exhibits to the Disclosure Statement) is without inaccuracies.

2. Certain Tax Considerations

There are a number of material income tax considerations, risks and uncertainties associated with the consummation of the Plan. Holders of Claims and other interested parties should read carefully the discussion in "Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Plan" below.

3. No Legal or Tax Advice Is Provided by This Disclosure Statement

This Disclosure Statement is not legal advice to any person or Entity. The contents of this Disclosure Statement should not be construed as legal, business or tax advice. Each reader should consult its own legal counsel and accountant with regard to any legal, tax and other matters concerning its Claim. This Disclosure Statement may not be relied upon for any purpose other than to determine how to vote to accept or reject the Plan or whether to object to Confirmation.

4. No Admissions Made

The information and statements contained in this Disclosure Statement will neither (i) constitute an admission of any fact or liability by any Entity (including the Debtors) nor (ii) be deemed evidence of the tax or other legal effects of the Plan on the Debtors, NewCo, Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests, or any other parties in interest.

5. Failure to Identify Litigation Claims or Projected Objections

No reliance should be placed on the fact that a particular litigation claim or projected objection to a particular Claim is, or is not, identified in this Disclosure Statement. The Debtors may seek to investigate, file, and prosecute Claims and may object to Claims after Confirmation and Consummation of the Plan, irrespective of whether this Disclosure Statement identifies such Claims or objections to Claims.

6. Information Was Provided by the Debtors and Was Relied Upon by the Debtors' Advisors

Counsel to and other advisors retained by the Debtors have relied upon information provided by the Debtors in connection with the preparation of this Disclosure Statement. Although counsel to and other advisors retained by the Debtors have performed certain limited due diligence in connection with the preparation of this Disclosure Statement and the exhibits to the Disclosure Statement, they have not independently verified the information contained in this Disclosure Statement or the information in the exhibits to the Disclosure Statement.

7. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update

The statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made by the Debtors as of the date hereof, unless otherwise specified herein, and the delivery of this Disclosure Statement after that date does not imply that there has not been a change in the information set forth herein since that date. While the Debtors have used their reasonable business judgment so that the information provided in this Disclosure Statement and in the Plan is as accurate as possible, the Debtors nonetheless cannot, and do not, confirm the current accuracy of all statements appearing in this Disclosure Statement. Further, although the Debtors may subsequently update the information in this Disclosure Statement, the Debtors have no affirmative duty to do so unless ordered to do so by the Bankruptcy Court.

8. No Representations Outside This Disclosure Statement Are Authorized

No representations concerning or relating to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or the Plan are authorized by the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any representations or inducements made to secure voting Holders' acceptance or rejection of the Plan that are other than as contained in, or included with, this Disclosure Statement, should not be relied upon by voting Holders in arriving at their decision. Voting Holders should promptly report unauthorized representations or inducements to counsel to the Debtors and the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York.

ARTICLE IX

[CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN[151]

A. General

The following discussion summarizes certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Plan to the Debtors and to certain U.S. Holders of Claims. This summary does not address the federal income tax consequences to: (i) Holders of Claims who are deemed to have rejected the Plan in accordance with the provisions of section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) Holders whose Claims are Unimpaired; (iii) Holders of Federal Government Unsecured Claims; or (iv) purchasers of Claims following the Effective Date. This summary does not discuss the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Direct Claims Shareholder Settlements or the receipt of any payments in respect thereof.

This summary is based on the IRC, existing and proposed Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions, and published administrative rules and pronouncements of the IRS as in effect on the date of this Disclosure Statement, all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. Any such change could significantly affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences described below. Many of the tax consequences described herein are uncertain. As of the date of this Disclosure Statement, no opinion of counsel or ruling from the IRS has been requested with respect to any of the tax aspects of the Plan. The Plan is not conditioned upon the request for or receipt of a private letter ruling from the IRS. There is no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position as to the federal income tax consequences described herein and that a court would not uphold such a position.

This discussion does not address non-U.S., state, local, or territorial tax consequences of the Plan, nor does it purport to address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan that may be relevant to special classes of taxpayers (e.g., small business investment companies, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, banks and certain other financial institutions, insurance companies, retirement plans, individual retirement accounts and other tax-deferred accounts, persons that are, or hold Claims through, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes, persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons who are residents of or otherwise subject to taxation by a U.S. territory or persons who use the accrual method of accounting and report income on an "applicable financial statement" within the meaning of IRC section 451). In addition, this discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax, the "Medicare" tax on unearned income, the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or U.S. federal taxes other than income taxes. This discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to non-U.S. Holders. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the Plan applicable to them.

As used herein, the term "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of a Claim that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; (iv) a trust, if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all of its substantial decisions, or if the trust has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; (v) the government of the United States, any state, political subdivision or territory thereof or the District of Columbia; or (vi) any Tribe. As used herein, the term "non-U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of a Claim that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

If a partnership or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Claims, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner in such a partnership holding any Claims, you should consult your own tax advisor.

THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR TAX PLANNING OR FOR ADVICE BASED UPON THE PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES PERTAINING TO A HOLDER OF A CLAIM. EACH HOLDER OF A CLAIM IS URGED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISORS FOR THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. INCOME AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES APPLICABLE TO IT UNDER THE PLAN.

B. Consequences to the Debtors

PPLP and most of its subsidiaries are entities that are disregarded as separate from their owners for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, the U.S. federal income tax consequences arising under the Plan in respect of PPLP and most of its subsidiaries generally will not be recognized by a Debtor, but will instead be recognized by PPLP's parent, PRA L.P., which is not a Debtor. Because PRA L.P. is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the tax consequences arising under the Plan in respect of PPLP and most of its subsidiaries generally are expected to be borne by the beneficial owners of PRA L.P. In addition, certain Debtors are direct or indirect subsidiaries of PPLP and are treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The U.S. federal income tax consequences of consummating the Plan with respect to such Debtors generally are expected to be recognized by PRA L.P. and generally borne by the beneficial owners of PRA L.P. Finally, certain Debtors (including PPI) are subject to tax as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes and may recognize tax consequences resulting from the consummation of the Plan, as discussed below.

The Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, the Debtors will enter into the Restructuring Transactions. Additional information regarding these transactions will be provided in the Restructuring Steps Memorandum. The tax consequences of the Restructuring Transactions to PPLP and any of its subsidiaries that are disregarded from PRA L.P. are expected to be recognized by PRA L.P. and generally borne by the beneficial owners of PRA L.P. The tax consequences of the Restructuring Transactions to a Debtor that is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes will depend on whether the Debtor is a Transferred Debtor. If a corporate Debtor is a Transferred Debtor, it is generally not expected to transfer its assets that are NewCo Transferred Assets in the Restructuring Transactions and therefore is not expected to recognize any gain or loss with respect to those assets. The transfer by a corporate Debtor that is a Transferred Debtor of any NewCo Transferred Assets or any other assets that is recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes is expected to generally be taxable, and such Debtor may recognize gain or loss with respect to those assets, if any. If a corporate Debtor is not a Transferred Debtor, the transfer of any of its assets that is recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes is expected to generally be taxable, and such Debtor may recognize gain or loss with respect to those assets. Any gain or loss upon a taxable transfer by a Debtor of an asset is equal to the difference between the fair market value of the transferred asset and the Debtor's tax basis in such asset. Tax on the resulting gain, if any, may be reduced by the Debtor's available tax attributes or deductions, if any.

C. [Consequences to Holders of Certain Claims[152]

1. Holders of Allowed Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims and Allowed Tribe Channeled Claims (Classes 4 and 5)

The Plan provides that: (i) on the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the Debtors' obligations in respect of the Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims and Tribe Claims, (a) with respect to the Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, the Governmental Remediation Trust shall receive the Initial Governmental Remediation Trust Distribution, the MDT Governmental Remediation Trust Interest and the right to receive 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan, and (b) with respect to the Tribe Claims, the Tribe Trust shall receive the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution, the MDT Tribe Interest, and the right to receive 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan; and (ii) as of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims and Tribe Channeled Claims shall be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust, respectively, without further act, deed or court order. For discussion of the tax treatment of the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust, see "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—4. Governmental Remediation Trust" and "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—5. Tribe Trust."

The Debtors understand that each U.S. Holder of an Allowed Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim or an Allowed Tribe Channeled Claim is either (i) the government of a U.S. state, territory, the District of Columbia or political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or (ii) a Tribe. The Debtors expect that such holders will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax in respect of the Restructuring Transactions or any subsequent Distributions from the Governmental Remediation Trust or the Tribe Trust.

2. Holders of Allowed Public School Claims (Class 6)

The Plan provides that: (i) on the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the Debtors' obligations in respect of the Public School Claims, the Public School Trust shall receive (a) the Initial Public Schools Distribution and (b) the MDT Public School Districts Claim; and (ii) as of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Public School Channeled Claims shall be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Public School Trust without further act, deed or court order and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Public School Trust. The Plan further provides that a portion of the Initial Public Schools Distribution will be paid to the Common Benefit Fund. The Plan further provides that the Public School Trust is intended to be treated as a "qualified settlement fund" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that no Holder of Claims shall be treated as receiving a distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes except to the extent such Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly under the Plan or such distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder.

The Debtors understand that each U.S. Holder of an Allowed Public School Claim is a political subdivision of the government of a U.S. state, territory, or the District of Columbia. The Debtors expect that such Holders will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax in respect of the Restructuring Transactions or any subsequent Distributions from the Public School Trust or any required payments to the Common Benefit Fund.

For a discussion of the tax treatment of the Public School Trust, see "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—6. Public School Trust," below.

3. Holders of Allowed Hospital Channeled Claims (Class 7)

The Plan provides that: (i) on the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the Debtors' obligations in respect of the Hospital Claims, the Hospital Trust shall receive (a) the Initial Hospital Trust Distribution and (b) the MDT Hospital Claim; and (ii) as of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Hospital Channeled Claims shall be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Hospital Trust without further act, deed or court order and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Hospital Trust. The Plan further provides that a portion of each Distribution from the Hospital Trust will be paid to the Common Benefit Fund. The Plan further provides that the Hospital Trust is intended to be treated as a "qualified settlement fund" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that no Holder of a Claim shall be treated as receiving a distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes except to the extent such Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly under the Plan or such distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder.

Accordingly, assuming this treatment is respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Hospital Channeled Claim generally is not expected to be treated as receiving a distribution from the Hospital Trust unless and until the Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly (or a distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder, including the portion of the distribution to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund), and any amounts received or treated as received by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Hospital Channeled Claim from the Hospital Trust generally are expected to be treated by such Holder as if received directly from PRA L.P. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Hospital Channeled Claim—including whether such Holder may have income or loss on account of distributions it receives in respect of the Claim or payments made in satisfaction of obligations of such Holder (including obligations to pay attorney fees and the portion of the distributions to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund) or whether such Holder may be entitled to claim a deduction on account of a distribution that satisfied an obligation of such Holder—generally will depend upon the nature and origin of the Claim and the particular circumstances applicable to such Holder, including whether the Holder has previously claimed deductions or losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to such Claim. Because the tax consequences under the Plan relevant to U.S. Holders of Allowed Hospital Channeled Claims will depend on facts particular to each Holder, all U.S. Holders of Allowed Hospital Channeled Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to their proper tax treatment under the Plan in light of their particular facts and circumstances.

For a discussion of the tax treatment of the Hospital Trust, see "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—7. Hospital Trust," below.

4. Holders of Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims (Class 8)

The Plan provides that: (i) on the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the Debtors' obligations in respect of the Third-Party Payor Claims, the TPP Trust shall receive (a) the Initial TPP Distribution and (b) the MDT TPP Claim; and (ii) as of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims shall be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the TPP Trust without further act, deed or court order and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the TPP Trust. The Plan further provides that a portion of each Distribution from the TPP Trust will be paid to the Common Benefit Fund. The Plan further provides that the TPP Trust is intended to be treated as a "qualified settlement fund" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that no Holder of a Claim shall be treated as receiving a distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes except to the extent such Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly under the Plan or such Distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder. The Plan further provides that certain Holders of Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims will be eligible to receive payments from the TPP LRP Escrow Account pursuant to the LRP Agreement.

Accordingly, assuming this treatment is respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes, with respect to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim's distribution from the TPP Trust, such Holder generally is not expected to be treated as receiving a distribution from the TPP Trust unless and until the Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly (or a distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder, including the portion of the distribution to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund), and any amounts received or treated as received by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim from the TPP Trust generally are expected to be treated by such Holder as if received directly from PRA L.P. or another Sackler Party. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim for such Holder's distribution from the TPP Trust—including whether such Holder may have income or loss on account of distributions it receives in respect of the Claim or payments made in satisfaction of obligations of such Holder (including obligations to pay attorney fees and the portion of the distributions to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund) or may be entitled to claim a deduction on account of a distribution that satisfied an obligation of such Holder—generally will depend upon the nature and origin of the Claim and the particular circumstances applicable to such Holder, including whether the Holder has previously claimed deductions or losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to such Claim. The tax treatment of amounts paid to U.S. Holders of an Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim pursuant to the LRP Agreement will depend in part on circumstances relevant to the nature of such Holder's underlying lien. Because the tax consequences under the Plan relevant to U.S. Holders of Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims will depend on facts particular to each Holder, all U.S. Holders of Allowed Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to their proper tax treatment under the Plan in light of their particular facts and circumstances.

For discussion of the tax treatment of the TPP Trust, see "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—8. TPP Trust," below.

5. Holders of Allowed ER Physician Channeled Claims (Class 9)

The Plan provides that: (i) on the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the Debtors' obligations in respect of the ER Physician Claims, the ERP Trust shall receive (a) the Initial ERP Trust Distribution and (b) the MDT ERP Claim; and (ii) as of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all ER Physician Channeled Claims shall be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the ERP Trust without further act, deed or court order and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the ERP Trust. The Plan further provides that a portion of each Distribution from the ERP Trust will be paid to the Common Benefit Fund. The Plan further provides that the ERP Trust is intended to be treated as a "qualified settlement fund" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that no Holder of Claims shall be treated as receiving a distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes except to the extent such Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly under the Plan or such distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder.

Accordingly, assuming this treatment is respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed ER Physician Channeled Claim generally is not expected to be treated as receiving a distribution from the ERP Trust unless and until the Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly (or a distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder, including the portion of the distribution to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund), and any amounts treated as received by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed ER Physician Channeled Claim from the ERP Trust generally are expected to be treated by such Holder as if received directly from PRA L.P. or another Sackler Party. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed ER Physician Channeled Claim—including whether such Holder may have income or loss on account of distributions it receives in respect of the Claim or payments made in satisfaction of obligations of such Holder (including obligations to pay attorney fees and the portion of the distributions to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund) or whether such Holder may be entitled to claim a deduction on account of a distribution that satisfied an obligation of such Holder—generally will depend upon the nature and origin of the Claim and the particular circumstances applicable to such Holder, including whether the Holder has previously claimed deductions or losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to such Claim. Because the tax consequences under the Plan relevant to U.S. Holders of Allowed ER Physician Channeled Claims will depend on facts particular to each Holder, all U.S. Holders of Allowed ER Physician Channeled Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to their proper tax treatment under the Plan in light of their particular facts and circumstances.

For a discussion of the tax treatment of the ERP Trust, see "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—9. ERP Trust," below.

6. Holders of Allowed PI Channeled Claims (Classes 10(a) and 10(b))

The Plan provides that: (i) on the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the Debtors' obligations in respect of the PI Claims, the PI Trust shall receive (a) the Initial PI Trust Distribution, and (b) the MDT PI Claim; (ii) as of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all PI Channeled Claims shall be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the PI Trust without further act, deed or court order and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the PI Trust; and (iii) (a) distributions in respect of NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims and (b) distributions in respect of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims. The Plan further provides that the PI Trust is intended to be treated as a "qualified settlement fund" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that no Holder of a Claim shall be treated as receiving a distribution for U.S. federal income tax purposes except to the extent such Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly under the Plan or such distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder. The Plan further provides that LRP Participating TPPs will be eligible to receive payments from the TPP LRP Escrow Account pursuant to the LRP Agreement in respect of certain claims they may hold against Holders of PI Claims and Distributions to Holders of PI Claims. The Plan further provides that a portion of each Distribution from the PI Trust will be paid to the Common Benefit Fund.

Accordingly, assuming this treatment is respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed PI Channeled Claim generally is not expected to be treated as receiving a distribution from the PI Trust unless and until the Holder is entitled to receive that distribution directly (or a distribution is made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder, including the portion of the distribution to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund). In the case of a U.S. Holder of an Allowed PI Channeled Claim who is a minor under applicable law for whom the PI Trust places funds in an account, whether the Holder is treated as receiving a distribution from the PI Trust at the time the funds are placed in such account, and whether the Holder (or an eligible parent of the Holder that elects to recognize the income in lieu of the Holder) will be required to recognize income in respect of any interest or other amounts earned by the account, will depend on the terms of that account. Any amounts received or treated as received by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed PI Channeled Claim from the PI Trust generally are expected to be treated by such Holder as if received directly from PRA L.P. or another Sackler Party. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed PI Channeled Claim—including (i) whether such Holder may have income or loss on account of distributions it receives in respect of the Claim or payments made in satisfaction of obligations of such Holder (including any obligation to pay attorney fees, the portion of the distributions to such Holder that is paid to the Common Benefit Fund, any obligation relating to payments to Participating Third-Party Payors pursuant to the LRP Agreement, (ii) for a U.S. Holder of a PI Channeled Claim who is a minor, the consequences to the Holder if the PI Trust places funds in an account for the Holder, or (iii) whether such Holder may be entitled to claim a deduction on account of a distribution that satisfied an obligation of such Holder—generally will depend upon the nature and origin of the Claim and the particular circumstances applicable to such Holder. Amounts received or treated as received by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed PI Channeled Claim generally are not expected to be taxable to such Holder for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent they represent payment for damages (other than punitive damages) received on account of personal physical injuries or physical sickness, within the meaning of IRC section 104. However, to the extent such payments are attributable to medical expense deductions allowed under IRC section 213 for a prior taxable year, such payments are expected to be taxable as ordinary income to the U.S. Holder. To the extent a payment from the PI Trust is treated as a payment on account of damages in respect of a Claim other than for personal physical injury or physical sickness, whether the payment will be includable in the gross income of the Holder will depend upon the nature and origin of the Claim and the particular circumstances applicable to the Holder, including whether the Holder has previously claimed deductions or losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to such Claim. Because the tax consequences under the Plan relevant to U.S. Holders of Allowed PI Channeled Claims will depend on facts particular to each Holder, all U.S. Holders of Allowed PI Channeled Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to their proper tax treatment under their particular facts and circumstances.

For a discussion of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the PI Trust, see "—D. Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts—10. PI Trust" below.

7. Holders of Allowed Other General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(c))

All Other General Unsecured Claims are Disputed. The Plan provides that, except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, after the Effective Date upon the Allowance of such Claim in accordance with Article VII of the Plan, each Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, such Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash, up to payment in full of such Allowed Claim. The receipt of Cash (or a distribution made in satisfaction of an obligation of such Holder) by a U.S.

Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim is expected to be treated as a taxable exchange of such Holder's Claim for Cash. Accordingly, such Holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the Cash received (or deemed received) in exchange for the Claim and (ii) the Holder's adjusted tax basis, if any, in the Claim. The character of such gain or loss as capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss will be determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the Holder, whether the Claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the Holder, whether the Claim was purchased at a discount, whether and to what extent the Claim became worthless in a prior tax year and whether and to what extent the Holder has previously claimed a bad debt deduction with respect to its Claim. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

If any portion of the Cash received (or deemed received) by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim is treated as being received in satisfaction of accrued interest, such amount is expected to be taxable to the U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income (if not previously included in the U.S. Holder's gross income under the Holder's normal method of accounting). Conversely, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize a deductible loss to the extent any accrued interest was previously included in its gross income and is not paid in full. Such loss may be ordinary, but the tax law is unclear on this point.

The Plan provides that it is intended, subject to applicable law, that distributions with respect to an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim that is treated as a debt instrument for U.S. federal income tax purposes will be allocated first to the principal portion of such Claim (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) and, thereafter, to the remaining portion of such Claim, if any. However, there is no assurance that such allocation would be respected by the IRS for U.S. federal income tax purposes. U.S. Holders of such Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the allocation of consideration received (or deemed received) under the Plan, as well as the deductibility of any accrued but unpaid interest and the character of any loss claimed with respect to accrued but unpaid interest previously included in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

D. [Tax Treatment of NewCo, the Foundation, the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts[153]

1. NewCo

The Plan provides that the NewCo Managers shall cause NewCo to timely elect to be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes effective as of the date immediately succeeding the Effective Date. Consequently, NewCo will be subject to corporate-level federal income tax (currently at a rate of 21%) on its net income (including any income earned by an entity disregarded as separate from NewCo).

As discussed above at "—B. Consequences to the Debtors," the Restructuring Transactions are expected to be treated as taxable asset transfers. As a result, NewCo is expected to have an initial tax basis in the assets it acquires from the Debtors (including any such assets acquired by any entity disregarded as separate from NewCo) equal to their respective fair market values as of the Effective Date and will generally be entitled to deductions for amortization and depreciation with respect to its tax basis in certain of its assets, including patents and other intangible property.

Any Transferred Debtors that are treated as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes will generally be subject to tax in the same manner as NewCo except they generally will have the same tax basis in their assets as they had before the Effective Date.

2. Foundation

The Plan provides that the Foundation is intended to be formed as a corporation and treated as an exempt organization under IRC section 501(c)(4) for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected.

The Foundation generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its net income. However, the Foundation may be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any unrelated business taxable income ("UBTI") it realizes, depending on how it is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes. UBTI is equal to the gross income derived from any unrelated trade or business regularly carried on by an exempt organization, less certain allowable deductions that are directly connected with the carrying on of such trade or business. However, UBTI generally excludes certain specified types of income, including interest, dividends or gains from the sale, exchange or other disposition of property other than inventory or property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business. The Foundation is not expected to realize any UBTI as a result of holding the NewCo Interest or receiving Foundation Distributable Cash, but it is possible that the Foundation could recognize UBTI as a result of other activities or certain types of investments that it may enter into after the Effective Date. To the extent that the Foundation is subject to tax on UBTI, any UBTI derived by the Foundation would be subject to corporate-level federal income tax (currently at a rate of 21%).

3. Master Disbursement Trust

The Plan provides that the Master Disbursement Trust is intended to be treated as a "qualified settlement fund" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the Master Disbursement Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

A qualified settlement fund is subject to entity-level tax under generally applicable U.S. federal income tax principles at the maximum federal income tax rate applicable to trusts and estates (currently 37%, increasing to 39.6% beginning in 2026). The determination of taxable income of qualified settlement funds for U.S. federal income tax purposes is subject to certain exceptions, including: (i) any amounts transferred by or on behalf of the transferors to the qualified settlement fund to resolve or satisfy a liability for which the transferor is liable and the qualified settlement fund is established will generally be excluded from the qualified settlement fund's income, other than dividends on stock of a transferor (or a related person of the transferor), interest on debt of a transferor (or a related person of the transferor) or payments in compensation for late or delayed transfers, (ii) any distribution of property by the qualified settlement fund generally will result in the recognition of gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the property on the date of disposition and the qualified settlement fund's adjusted tax basis in such property, and (iii) only limited, specified deductions will be permitted, including deductions for administrative costs and state and local taxes incurred by the qualified settlement fund, and excluding any deductions that would generally be allowable to a corporation or partnership for expenses incurred in the course of a taxpayer's trade or business. In general, the adjusted tax basis of property received (or treated as received for U.S. federal income tax purposes) by a qualified settlement fund from a transferor will be the fair market value of such property at the time of receipt.

While it is not free from doubt, the Master Disbursement Trust is not expected to recognize income in respect of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements other than in respect of any payments in compensation for late or delayed transfers due thereunder.

The Master Disbursement Trust's administrator will be required to file tax returns on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust and will be responsible for causing the Master Disbursement Trust to pay any taxes imposed upon the Master Disbursement Trust.

4. Governmental Remediation Trust

The Plan provides that the Governmental Remediation Trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the Governmental Remediation Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

The Governmental Remediation Trust may seek guidance upon which it may rely from the IRS that all or a portion of its income is exempt from U.S. federal income tax. The Plan is not conditioned on the receipt of such guidance, and it is possible that no such guidance will be sought or obtained.

Regardless of whether the Governmental Remediation Trust's income qualifies for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax, the Governmental Remediation Trust is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its receipt of distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust. The receipt of Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash by the Governmental Remediation Trust may be subject to tax to the extent not treated as a return of capital for U.S. federal income tax purposes, unless the Governmental Remediation Trust's income qualifies for exemption from tax. If the Governmental Remediation Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status, its income may generally be exempt from U.S. federal income tax; however, depending on the exemption for which it qualifies, it may be subject to tax on UBTI and may be subject to certain excise taxes. To the extent that Governmental Remediation Trust's income does not qualify for exemption from U.S. federal income tax, Governmental Remediation Trust would be subject to tax on such income in a manner substantially similar to that described above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust").

The Governmental Remediation Trust Administrator will be required to file any required tax returns on behalf of the Governmental Remediation Trust and will be responsible for causing the Governmental Remediation Trust to pay any taxes imposed upon the Governmental Remediation Trust.

5. Tribe Trust

The Plan provides that any Tribe Trust entity that is formed as a trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat such an entity as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes. Accordingly, such an entity generally is expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax in a manner substantially similar to that discussed above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust"). However, the receipt of Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash by such a Tribe Trust may be subject to tax to the extent not treated as a return of capital for U.S. federal income tax purposes, unless such a Tribe Trust's income qualifies for exemption from tax.

Such an entity's administrator will be required to file tax returns on behalf of such trust and will be responsible for causing such trust to pay any taxes imposed upon it. Such an entity should consult its own tax advisors regarding its treatment for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including whether such a Tribe Trust may qualify for tax-exempt status based on facts particular to such a Tribe Trust and its Tribe TDP.

This discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a Tribe Trust entity that is not formed as a trust, if any. The tax treatment of such an entity will depend upon the terms of the relevant Tribe Trust Documents, which shall be consistent with Articles I through XII of the Plan and otherwise acceptable to the Debtors and the Native American Tribe Group and reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties, and which shall be filed by the Debtors with the Plan Supplement.

6. Public School Trust

The Plan provides that the Public School Trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the Public School Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

Whether the Public School Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status will depend on facts particular to the Public School Trust and the Public School TDP. Regardless of whether the Public School Trust's income qualifies for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax, the Public School Trust is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its receipt of distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust. If the Public School Trust does not qualify for such an exemption, it generally is otherwise expected to be subject to tax in a manner substantially similar to the treatment described above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust"). If the Public School Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status, all income it realizes may be exempt from U.S. federal income tax, except for potentially UBTI (which may be subject to tax as described above under "—2. Foundation"); however, depending on the exemption for which it qualifies, it may be subject to tax on UBTI and may be subject to certain excise taxes.. The Public School Trust's administrator will be required to file any required tax returns on behalf of the Public School Trust and will be responsible for causing the Public School Trust to pay all taxes, if any, imposed upon the Public School Trust. The Public School Trust should consult its tax advisor regarding whether it may qualify for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax and the tax consequences to it under the Plan.

7. Hospital Trust

The Plan provides that the Hospital Trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the Hospital Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

Whether the Hospital Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status will depend on facts particular to the Hospital Trust and the Hospital TDP. Regardless of whether the Hospital Trust's income qualifies for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax, the Hospital Trust is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its receipt of distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust. If the Hospital Trust does not qualify for such an exemption, it generally is otherwise expected to be taxed in a manner substantially similar to the treatment described above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust"). If the Hospital Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status, all income it realizes may be exempt from U.S. federal income tax, except for UBTI (which would be subject to tax as described above under "—2. Foundation"), but the Hospital Trust may be subject to certain excise taxes. The Hospital Trust's administrator will be required to file tax returns on behalf of the Hospital Trust and will be responsible for causing the Hospital Trust to pay all taxes, if any, imposed upon the Hospital Trust. The Hospital Trust should consult its tax advisor regarding whether it may qualify for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax and the tax consequences to it under the Plan.

8. TPP Trust

The Plan provides that the TPP Trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the TPP Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

Whether the TPP Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status will depend on facts particular to the TPP Trust and the TPP TDP. Regardless of whether the TPP Trust's income qualifies for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax, the TPP Trust is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its receipt of distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust. If the TPP Trust does not qualify for such an exemption, it generally is otherwise expected to be taxed in a manner substantially similar to the treatment described above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust"). If the TPP Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status, all income it realizes may be exempt from U.S. federal income tax, except for UBTI (which would be subject to tax as described above under "—2. Foundation"), but the TPP Trust may be subject to certain excise taxes. The TPP Trust's administrator will be required to file tax returns on behalf of the TPP Trust and will be responsible for causing the TPP Trust to pay all taxes, if any, imposed upon the TPP Trust. The TPP Trust should consult its tax advisor regarding whether it may qualify for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax and the tax consequences to it under the Plan.

9. ERP Trust

The Plan provides that the ERP Trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the ERP Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

Whether the ERP Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status will depend on facts particular to the ERP Trust and the ERP TDP. Regardless of whether the ERP Trust's income qualifies for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax, the ERP Trust is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its receipt of distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust. If the ERP Trust does not qualify for such an exemption, it generally is otherwise expected to be taxed in a manner substantially similar to the treatment described above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust"). If the ERP Trust qualifies for tax-exempt status, all income it realizes may be exempt from U.S. federal income tax, except for UBTI (as described above under "—2. Foundation"), but the ERP Trust may be subject to certain excise taxes. The ERP Trust's administrator will be required to file tax returns on behalf of the ERP Trust and will be responsible for causing the ERP Trust to pay all taxes, if any, imposed upon the ERP Trust. The ERP Trust should consult its tax advisor regarding whether it may qualify for an exemption from U.S. federal income tax and the tax consequences to it under the Plan.

10. PI Trust

The Plan provides that the PI Trust is intended to be treated as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected. The Plan further provides that all parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to treat the PI Trust as a qualified settlement fund for all applicable tax reporting purposes.

The PI Trust is not expected to be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the receipt of distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust. The PI Trust generally is otherwise expected to be subject to tax in a manner substantially similar to the treatment described above with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust (see "—3. Master Disbursement Trust"). The PI Trust is expected to be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the owner of the TPP LRP Escrow Account, and, accordingly, the PI Trust is expected to recognize as taxable income any income earned by the TPP LRP Escrow Account. The PI Trust's administrator will be required to file tax returns on behalf of the PI Trust and will be responsible for causing the PI Trust to pay all taxes, if any, imposed upon the PI Trust.

11. Plan Administration Trust

[The Plan provides that the Plan Administration Trust will be established for purposes described in the Plan and PAT Agreement, including to: (i) hold, manage, sell, invest and distribute the PAT Assets for the benefit of Holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims); (ii) administer, process, resolve and liquidate Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims), including through the prosecution and resolution of objections to Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Disputed Adlon General Unsecured Claims or Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims; (iii) hold and maintain the PAT Reserves and the PAT Distribution Account and maintain the Professional Fee Escrow Account and the account described in Section 5.3(e) of the Plan; and (iv) make Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims) and other payments from the Plan Administration Trust, the Professional Fee Escrow Account and the account described in Section 5.3(e) of the Plan. The Plan provides that the Plan Administration Trust is intended to be treated as a trust described in IRC sections 661 through 664 and the applicable Treasury Regulations (a "complex trust"), and the following discussion assumes that this treatment is respected.

A complex trust is treated as a separate entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes that is taxable in accordance with Subchapter J of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the IRC, including sections 661 through 664. Any net income earned by a complex trust is generally subject to tax (currently at a top marginal tax rate of 37%, increasing to 39.6% beginning in 2026). In computing its net income, a complex trust is generally allowed a deduction equal to the lesser of (i) the trust's distributable net income (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) for the taxable year and (ii) the sum of the amounts of income required to be distributed to beneficiaries for the taxable year and other amounts properly paid or credited (or deemed paid or credited) for the taxable year. A distribution is includible in the beneficiary's gross income in the year of receipt or deemed distribution by the trust, unless previously included in the beneficiary's income under such beneficiary's applicable method of accounting. It is expected that the Master Disbursement Trust will be treated as the only beneficiary of the Plan Administration Trust and thus distributions to the Master Disbursement Trust may be subject to these rules. The Plan Administration Trustee will file all tax returns of the Plan Administration Trust and will be responsible for causing the Plan Administration trust to pay all taxes imposed upon the Plan Administration Trust.

No opinion of counsel or ruling from the IRS has been requested by the Debtors or Plan Administration Trustee concerning the tax status of Plan Administration Trust. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not take a contrary position. The Plan Administration Trust should consult its tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to it under the Plan.][154]

[To come.]

F. Withholding on Distributions and Information Reporting

Information reporting requirements may apply to distributions or payments, including payments of interest, if any, pursuant to the Plan and the Shareholder Settlement Agreements. All distributions to Holders of Claims under the Plan and the Shareholder Settlement Agreements are subject to any applicable tax withholding. Under U.S. federal income tax law, interest, dividends and other reportable payments to U.S. Holders may, under certain circumstances, be subject to "backup withholding" at the then-applicable withholding rate (currently 24%). Backup withholding generally applies if the holder: (i) fails to furnish its social security number or other taxpayer identification number; (ii) furnishes an incorrect taxpayer identification number; (iii) fails to properly report interest or dividends; or (iv) under certain circumstances, fails to provide a certified statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that the tax identification number provided is its correct number and that it is not subject to backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax but merely an advance payment, which may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS (generally, a U.S. federal income tax return). Certain persons are exempt from backup withholding and information reporting, including governments of U.S. states or political subdivisions thereof and non-U.S. governments and, in certain circumstances, corporations and financial institutions. Holders of Claims are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential for and applicable law governing backup and other tax withholding and information reporting in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Plan.

In addition, Treasury Regulations generally require disclosure by a taxpayer on its U.S. federal income tax return of certain types of transactions in which the taxpayer participated, including, among other types of transactions, certain transactions that result in the taxpayer's claiming a loss in excess of specified thresholds. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding these regulations and whether the transactions contemplated by the Plan would be subject to these regulations and require disclosure on the U.S. Holders' tax returns.

G. Importance of Obtaining Professional Advice

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS

NOT TAX ADVICE. HOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE CONSUMMATION OF THE PLAN DESCRIBED HEREIN, AS WELL AS OTHER APPLICABLE TAX CONSEQUENCES, INCLUDING ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAX LAWS. NEITHER THE DEBTORS NOR THEIR PROFESSIONALS WILL HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO ANY PERSON ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, NON-U.S. OR ANY OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN OR THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION.]

RECOMMENDATION

[The Debtors believe that confirmation and consummation of the Plan are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates and their creditors. The Plan provides for an equitable distribution to holders of Claims. The Debtors believe that any alternative to confirmation of the Plan, such as liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, could result in significant delay, litigation and additional costs, as well as a reduction in the distributions to holders of Claims in certain Classes. Consequently, the Debtors, the States AG Negotiating Group, the Ad Hoc Committee, the MSGE Group, the Native American Tribes Group, the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the ER Physicians, the Third-Party Payor Group, the Ratepayer Mediation Participants, the NAS Committee, and the Public School District Claimants urge all eligible holders of impaired Claims to: (i) vote to ACCEPT the Plan; (ii) grant the Third-Party Releases; and (iii) complete and submit their Ballots so that they will be RECEIVED by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.]

"Tribe" means any American Indian or Alaska Native Tribe, band, nation, pueblo, village or community, that the U.S. Secretary of the Interior acknowledges as an Indian Tribe, as provided in the Federally Recognized Tribe List Act of 1994, 25 U.S.C. § 5130, and as periodically listed by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior in the Federal Register pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 5131; and any "Tribal Organization" as provided in the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act of 1975, as amended, 25 U.S.C. § 5304(l).

"Tribe Channeled Claim" means (i) any Tribe Claim or (ii) any Claim held by a Tribe that is released pursuant to the Tribal Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement. Tribe Channeled Claims shall be channeled to the Tribe Trust in accordance with the Plan and Master TDP.

"Tribe Claim" means any Claim against any Debtor that is held by a Tribe (including any Claim based on the subrogation rights of a Tribe that is not an Other Subordinated Claim), in its capacity as such. For the avoidance of doubt, claims of Tribes against Holders of PI Claims or Distributions payable to Holders of PI Claims, to the extent such claims exist, are not claims against any Debtor and therefore are not included in this definition of "Tribe Claims."

"Tribe TDP" means the trust distribution procedures to be implemented by the Tribe Trust setting forth the procedures for Distributions from the Tribe Trust, the terms of which shall be consistent with Articles I through XII of the Plan and otherwise acceptable to the Debtors and the Native American Tribe Group, and reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties, and which shall be filed by the Debtors with the Plan Supplement.

"Tribe Trust" means one or more trusts, limited liability companies or other Persons to be established in accordance with Section 5.8 of the Plan to (i) assume all liability for the Tribe Channeled Claims, (ii) hold the MDT Tribe Interest and collect the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution and the other Public Creditor Trust Distributions received in accordance with the Public Entity Settlements, (iii) administer Tribe Channeled Claims, (iv) hold and administer the Class 5 Non-Participating Claims Reserves on and after the Effective Date, (v) hold the Class 5 Released Claims Reserve on and after the Effective Date and (vi) make Distributions in accordance with the Tribe TDP.

"Tribe Trust Agreement" means the trust agreement and any limited liability company agreement or similar governing document establishing and delineating the terms and conditions for the creation and operation of the Tribe Trust, the terms of which shall be consistent with Articles I through XII of the Plan and otherwise acceptable to the Debtors and the Native American Tribe Group, and reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties, and which shall be filed by the Debtors with the Plan Supplement.

"Tribe Trust Documents" means the Tribe Trust Agreement and the Tribe TDP.

"Twelfth Amended Plan" means the Twelfth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Purdue Pharma L.P. and Its Affiliated Debtors [D.I. 3726].

"U.S. Trustee" means the United States Trustee for Region 2.

"Unimpaired" means, with respect to any Claim, Interest, or Class of Claims or Interests, not "impaired" within the meaning of such term in section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code.

"United States" means the United States of America, its agencies, departments or agents.

["United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim" means any healthcare-related claim, Cause of Action or Lien (including a subrogation claim or reimbursement claim), whether liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, matured or unmatured, known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, asserted or unasserted, accrued or unaccrued, existing or hereinafter arising, choate or inchoate, (i) against a Holder of a PI Claim or the recoveries of a Holder of a PI Claim pursuant to the PI TDP or under the Plan, (ii) held by any of the following federal governmental agencies or federal health insurance programs: the United States Department of Health and Human Services, on its own behalf and on behalf of its component agencies, which are the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Indian Health Service on behalf of its federally-operated programs; the TRICARE Program; and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, and (iii) on account of opioid injury-related conditional payments made by such programs or agencies to, on behalf of, or in respect of, such Holders of PI Claims. [The United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement does not apply to any claims brought by programs operated by tribes or tribal organizations under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, 25 U.S.C. §§ 5301–5423, or programs operated by urban Indian organizations that have a grant or contract with the Indian Health Service under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, 25 U.S.C. §§ 1601–1685.]

["United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases" means the releases provided for in Section 5.2(i)(ii) of the Plan.]

["United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement" means the settlement provided for in Section 5.2(i) of the Plan.]

"Voting Deadline" means the last day for Holders of Claims and Interests entitled to vote on the Plan to cast their votes to accept or reject the Plan as may be set by the Bankruptcy Court.

"Voting Representative" means a Firm representing Holders of Claims in any of the Master Ballot Classes who has returned a properly completed Solicitation Directive (as such terms are defined in the Solicitation Procedures Order).

"Wind-Up Reserve" means a reserve to be established to pay any and all costs, expenses, fees, taxes, debts, or obligations incurred from the operation and administration of the Debtors' Estates after the Effective Date (including professional fees and expenses). The Wind-Up Reserve shall be (i) funded with Effective Date Cash in an amount determined by the Debtors but not to exceed $10 million, or such greater amount subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the NewCo Managers and the MDT Trustees; provided further that if the NewCo Managers or the MDT Trustees withhold such consent, the Plan Administration Trustee shall have the right to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court, which shall be granted upon the Bankruptcy Court's determination that such budgeted expenditures are appropriate and otherwise within the scope for which the Wind-Up Reserve was established pursuant to the Plan; and (ii) held by the Plan Administration Trust in a segregated account and administered by the Plan Administration Trustee on and after the Effective Date.

1.2 Interpretation; Application of Definitions; Rules of Construction.

Unless otherwise specified, all section or exhibit references in the Plan are to the respective section in, or exhibit to, this Plan, as the same may be amended, waived, or modified from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof. The words "herein," "hereof," or "hereunder," and other words of similar import refer to this Plan as a whole and not to any particular section, subsection, or clause contained therein and have the same meaning as "in the Plan," "of the Plan," and "under the Plan," respectively. The words "includes" and "including" are not limiting. The headings in the Plan are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. For purposes herein: (a) in the appropriate context, each term, whether stated in the singular or plural, shall include both the singular and plural, and pronouns stated in the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender shall include the masculine, feminine, and the neuter gender; (b) any reference herein to a contract, lease, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document being in a particular form or on particular terms and conditions means that the reference document shall be substantially in that form or substantially on those terms and conditions; (c) the rules of construction set forth in section 102 of the Bankruptcy Code shall apply; and (d) any term used in capitalized form herein that is not otherwise defined but that is used in the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules shall have the meaning assigned to that term in the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules, as the case may be.

1.3 Reference to Monetary Figures.

All references in this Plan to monetary figures shall refer to the legal tender of the United States of America unless otherwise expressly provided.

1.4 Controlling Document.

(a) Plan Supplements. In the event of an inconsistency between Articles I through XII of the Plan and the Plan Supplement, the terms of Articles I through XII of the Plan shall control, except that in the event of an inconsistency between Articles I through XII of the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (or any agreements ancillary to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (other than any Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement)), the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (or such ancillary agreement) shall control.

(b) Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreements. In the event of an inconsistency between Articles I through XII of the Plan and any Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement (or any agreement ancillary to such Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement (other than the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement)), (i) the terms of Articles I through XII of the Plan shall control with respect to any matter affecting, or a dispute involving, a party that is not a Party to or otherwise bound by the applicable Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement, and (ii) such Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement (or such ancillary agreement) shall control with respect to all other matters. No Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement may be enforced against any Person not party to or otherwise bound by such Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement; provided, that in no event will any Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement (or any agreement ancillary to such Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement) release or otherwise impact any Released Claim or Shareholder Released Claim of a type contemplated under the Plan pursuant to the applicable Shareholder Release Consent Mechanism to be governed by any other Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement or the Plan.

(c) Other Documents. Subject to Section 1.4(a) and 1.4(b), in the event of an inconsistency between this Plan and any other instrument or document created or executed pursuant to this Plan, or between this Plan and the Disclosure Statement, this Plan shall control.

(d) Plan and Confirmation Order. The provisions of this Plan and of the Confirmation Order shall be construed in a manner consistent with each other so as to effectuate the purposes of each; provided, however, that, if there is determined to be any inconsistency between any provision of this Plan and any provision of the Confirmation Order that cannot be reconciled, then, the provisions of the Confirmation Order shall govern, and any such provisions of the Confirmation Order shall be deemed a modification of this Plan solely to the extent of such inconsistency.

(e) Determinations. The determination of whether there is any inconsistency between any of the documents referred to in the foregoing Sections 1.4(a)-(d) will be made by the Bankruptcy Court in all instances.

1.5 Consent Rights.

For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing in this Plan shall in any way eliminate, impair, or limit any consent or similar rights provided in favor of the Sackler Parties' Representative or any Shareholder Released Party in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement or any Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, including any such rights in respect of Definitive Documents (notwithstanding whether any such rights are provided in favor of the Sackler Parties' Representative or any Shareholder Released Party in this Plan).

ARTICLE II ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIMS, PROFESSIONAL FEE CLAIMS, PRIORITY TAX CLAIMS AND DOJ FORFEITURE JUDGMENT CLAIM.

2.1 Administrative Claims.

(a) Generally. Except as provided for herein or in any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and subject to section 503(b)(1)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code, Holders of Administrative Claims (other than Professional Fee Claims and the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim) must file and serve on the Debtors requests for the payment of such Administrative Claims not already Allowed by a Final Order. Any Holder of an Administrative Claim that is required to, but does not, file and serve a request for payment of such Administrative Claim pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting such Claims against the Debtors, the Liquidating Debtors, the Transferred Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust or their respective Assets or properties, and such Claims shall be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. An Administrative Claim, with respect to which a request for payment has been properly and timely filed pursuant to this Section 2.1(a), shall become an Allowed Administrative Claim if no objection to such request is filed by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trustee with the Bankruptcy Court on or before the date that is one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Date, or such later date as may be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court. If an objection is timely filed, such Administrative Claim shall become an Allowed Administrative Claim only to the extent Allowed by Final Order or such Claim is settled, compromised or otherwise resolved pursuant to Section 7.6 of the Plan. Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Administrative Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, each Holder of an Allowed Administrative Claim (other than a Professional Fee Claim or the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim) shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, Cash in an amount equal to the Allowed amount of such Claim from the Priority Claims Reserve within thirty (30) days following the later to occur of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date on which such Administrative Claim shall become an Allowed Claim; provided that any Administrative Claim that is an Assumed Liability shall be paid by NewCo in the ordinary course of business.

(b) Professional Fee Claims. All Professional Persons seeking awards by the Bankruptcy Court for compensation for services rendered or reimbursement of expenses incurred through and including the Effective Date under (x) section 327, 328, 330, 331, 503(b)(2), 503(b)(3), 503(b)(4), 503(b)(5) or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, (y) with respect to the Ad Hoc Committee, the AHC Reimbursement Agreement Assumption Order, or (z) with respect to the MSGE Group, the MSGE Group Reimbursement Order, shall (i) file, on or before the date that is forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, their respective applications for final allowances of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred and (ii) be paid in full in Cash, (A) first, from any existing amounts held by a Professional Person as a fee advance, retainer, or security that such Professional Person is authorized to use to satisfy Allowed Professional Fee Claims pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order or the order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the retention of such Professional Person (other than a reasonable retainer to cover post-Effective Date work), and (B) second, from the Professional Fee Escrow Account, in such aggregate amounts as are Allowed by the Bankruptcy Court or authorized to be paid in accordance with the order(s) relating to or allowing any such Professional Fee Claim. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish the Professional Fee Escrow Account and, on the Effective Date, fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account with Cash such that the total amount held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account is equal to the sum of each Professional Person's good-faith estimates of its Professional Fee Claims. The procedures for filing objections to Professional Persons' applications for final allowance of compensation for services rendered and expenses incurred shall be set forth in the Confirmation Order.

2.2 Priority Tax Claims.

Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Priority Tax Claim, either Cash in an amount equal to the Allowed amount of such Claim from the Priority Claims Reserve or such other treatment as may satisfy section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2.3 DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim.

(a) Allowance: Pursuant to the Plea Agreement and the DOJ 9019 Order, the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim shall be Allowed in the amount of $2.0 billion on the later of (i) the DOJ Conviction Judgment Date and (ii) the entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Confirmation Order.

(b) Treatment: In full and final satisfaction, settlement, release and discharge of the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim, the Debtors shall make the DOJ Forfeiture Payment within three (3) Business Days following the DOJ Conviction Judgment Date, which DOJ Forfeiture Payment, in combination with the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Credit, shall satisfy and discharge the DOJ Forfeiture Judgment Claim in full.

ARTICLE III CLASSIFICATION OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS.

3.1 Classification in General.

A Claim or Interest is placed in a particular Class for all purposes, including voting, confirmation and Distributions under this Plan and under sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. A Claim or Interest is classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving Distributions pursuant to this Plan only to the extent such Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of that Class and is classified in other Classes to the extent any portion of the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of such other Classes; provided that, to the extent any Claim satisfies the definition of a Shareholder Claim, a Co-Defendant Claim or an Other Subordinated Claim, such Claim shall be classified as such, notwithstanding that such Claim may satisfy the definition of another type of Claim. A Claim or Interest is also classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving Distributions hereunder only to the extent such Claim or Interest is an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in that Class and such Claim or Interest has not been satisfied, released or otherwise settled prior to the Effective Date. In no event shall any Holder of an Allowed Claim be entitled to receive payments under this Plan that, in the aggregate, exceed the Allowed amount of such Holder's Claim.

3.2 Summary of Classification of Claims and Interests.

The following table designates the Classes of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and specifies which Classes are (a) Impaired or Unimpaired under this Plan, (b) entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code or presumed to accept or deemed to reject this Plan:

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Impairment	Entitled to Vote
Class 1	Secured Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)
Class 2	Other Priority Claims	Unimpaired	No (Presumed to Accept)

Class 17	PPI Interests	Impaired	No (Deemed to Reject)
Class 18	Intercompany Interests	Unimpaired or Impaired	No (Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject)

3.3 Voting Classes; Presumed Acceptance by Non-Voting Classes.

With respect to each Debtor, if a Class contains Claims eligible to vote and no Holder of Claims eligible to vote in such Class votes to accept or reject this Plan by the Voting Deadline, this Plan shall be presumed accepted by the Holders of Claims in such Class.

3.4 Voting; Presumptions; Solicitation.

(a) Acceptance by Certain Impaired Classes. Only Holders of Claims in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) and 11(c) are entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan. An Impaired Class of Claims shall have accepted this Plan if (i) the Holders, including Holders acting through a Voting Representative, of at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount of Claims actually voting in such Class have voted to accept this Plan and (ii) the Holders, including Holders acting through a Voting Representative, of more than one-half (1/2) in number of Claims actually voting in such Class have voted to accept this Plan. Holders of Claims in Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a), 10(b) and 11(c) (or, if applicable, the Voting Representatives of such Holders) shall receive ballots containing detailed voting instructions. For the avoidance of doubt, pursuant to and except as otherwise provided in the Solicitation Procedures Order, each Claim in Classes 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a) and 10(b) shall be accorded one (1) vote and valued at one dollar ($1.00) for voting purposes only, and not for purposes of Allowance or distribution, such that each of Classes 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(a) and 10(b) shall be deemed to have accepted this Plan if the Holders, including Holders acting through a Voting Representative, of at least two-third (2/3) in number of Claims actually voting in such Class have voted to accept the Plan.

(b) Deemed Acceptance by Unimpaired Classes. Holders of Claims in Classes 1, 2, 11(a) and 11(b) are conclusively presumed to have accepted this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan.

(c) Deemed Rejection by Certain Impaired Classes. Holders of Claims and Interests in Classes 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are deemed to have rejected this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject this Plan.

(d) Deemed Acceptance or Rejection by Certain Classes. Holders of Interests in Classes 12 and 18 are either conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or are deemed to have rejected the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such Holders are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(e) Individual Creditor Voting Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, the voting rights of Holders of Claims in any Class shall be governed in all respects by the Solicitation Procedures Order, including without limitation with respect to the amount of such Claims for voting purposes.

3.5 Cramdown.

If any Class of Claims is deemed to reject this Plan or is entitled to vote on this Plan and does not vote to accept this Plan, the Debtors may (a) seek confirmation of this Plan under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and/or (b) amend or modify this Plan in accordance with the terms hereof and the Bankruptcy Code. If a controversy arises as to whether any Claim or Interest, or any Class of Claims or Interests, is Impaired, the Bankruptcy Court shall, after notice and a hearing, determine such controversy on or before the Confirmation Date.

3.6 No Waiver.

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be construed to waive a Debtor's or other Person's right to object on any basis to any Claim.

ARTICLE IV TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS.

4.1 Secured Claims (Class 1).

(a) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Secured Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Secured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, (i) payment in full in Cash from the Priority Claims Reserve in accordance with section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) Reinstatement of such Allowed Claim pursuant to section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) such other treatment as may be necessary to render such Claim Unimpaired.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Secured Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Secured Claims are conclusively presumed to accept this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Secured Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Secured Claims.

4.2 Other Priority Claims (Class 2).

(a) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Other Priority Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, (i) payment in full in Cash from the Priority Claims Reserve or (ii) such other treatment consistent with the provisions of section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Other Priority Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Other Priority Claims are conclusively presumed to accept this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Other Priority Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Other Priority Claims.

4.3 Federal Government Unsecured Claims (Class 3).

(a) Allowance of the DOJ Civil Claim and DOJ Criminal Fine Claim: Pursuant to the DOJ 9019 Order, the DOJ Civil Claim is Allowed in the amount of $2.8 billion. The DOJ Criminal Fine Claim shall be Allowed in the amount of $3.544 billion on the later of (i) the DOJ Conviction Judgment Date and (ii) the entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Confirmation Order.

(b) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Allowed Federal Government Unsecured Claims, the United States shall receive (i) the Initial Federal Government Distribution and (ii) the MDT Federal Government Claim. The MDT Federal Government Claim shall be payable by the Master Disbursement Trust in the following installments: (x) $10 million on the second Scheduled MDT Distribution Date, (y) $10 million on the third Scheduled MDT Distribution Date and (z) $5 million on the fourth Scheduled MDT Distribution Date. The Initial Federal Government Distribution and the amounts paid to the United States on account of the MDT Federal Government Claim shall be deemed applied 60% to the DOJ Unsecured Claims and 40% to the Other Federal Agency Claims.

(c) Impairment and Voting: The Federal Government Unsecured Claims are Impaired. Holders of Federal Government Unsecured Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.4 Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims (Class 4).

(a) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims, the Governmental Remediation Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Governmental Remediation Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Governmental Remediation Trust Interest and (iii) the right to receive 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.

(b) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Governmental Remediation Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Governmental Remediation Trust. Each Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Governmental Remediation Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Governmental Remediation Trust as and to the extent provided in the Governmental Remediation Trust Agreement.

Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims exclusively against the Governmental Remediation Trust.

(c) Impairment and Voting: Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims are Impaired. Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.5 Tribe Claims (Class 5).

(a) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Tribe Claims, the Tribe Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Tribe Trust Distribution, (ii) the MDT Tribe Interest and (iii) the right to receive 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash pursuant to Section 5.4(e) of the Plan.

(b) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Tribe Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Tribe Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Tribe Trust. Each Tribe Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Tribe Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Tribe TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Tribe Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Tribe Trust as and to the extent provided in the Tribe TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of Tribe Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Tribe Channeled Claims exclusively against the Tribe Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Tribe TDP.

(c) Impairment and Voting: Tribe Claims are Impaired. Holders of Tribe Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.6 Public School Claims (Class 6).

(a) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Public School Claims, the Public School Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Public Schools Distribution (less any required payments to the Common Benefit Fund and/or in respect of attorneys' fees and expenses of the Public School District Claimants in accordance with Section 5.9(c) and (h) of the Plan) and (ii) the MDT Public School Districts Claim; provided that if, as of the Effective Date, the Public School District Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Public Schools Distribution will be deposited into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

(b) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Public School Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Public School Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Public School Trust. Each Public School Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Public School Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Public School TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Public School Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Public School Trust as and to the extent provided in the Public School TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of Public School Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Public School Channeled Claims exclusively against the Public School Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Public School TDP.

(c) Impairment and Voting: Public School Claims are Impaired. Holders of Public School Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.7 Hospital Claims (Class 7).

(a) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Hospital Claims, the Hospital Trust shall receive (i) the Initial Hospital Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT Hospital Claim; provided that if, as of the Effective Date, the Hospital Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Hospital Trust Distribution will be deposited into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

(b) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Hospital Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the Hospital Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the Hospital Trust. Each Hospital Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the Hospital Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Hospital TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Hospital Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the Hospital Trust as and to the extent provided in the Hospital TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of Hospital Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Hospital Channeled Claims exclusively against the Hospital Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Hospital TDP.

(c) Impairment and Voting: Hospital Claims are Impaired. Holders of Hospital Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.8 Third-Party Payor Claims (Class 8).

(a) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of Third-Party Payor Claims, the TPP Trust shall receive (i) the Initial TPP Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT TPP Claim. For the avoidance of doubt, any payments from the TPP LRP Escrow Account to which LRP Participating TPPs may be entitled under the LRP Agreement shall not be subject to this Section 4.8.

(b) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the TPP Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the TPP Trust. Each Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the TPP Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the TPP TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the TPP Trust as and to the extent provided in the TPP TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims exclusively against the TPP Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the TPP TDP.

(c) Impairment and Voting: Third-Party Payor Claims are Impaired. Holders of Third-Party Payor Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.9 ER Physician Claims (Class 9).

(a) Treatment: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of ER Physician Claims, the ERP Trust shall receive (i) the Initial ERP Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT ERP Claim; provided that if, as of the Effective Date, the ER Physician Shareholder Direct Settlement has not been consummated, the Initial ERP Trust Distribution will be deposited into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement on the Effective Date and distributed in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(i) of the Plan.

(b) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all ER Physician Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the ERP Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the ERP Trust. Each ER Physician Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the ERP Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the ERP TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any ER Physician Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the ERP Trust as and to the extent provided in the ERP TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of ER Physician Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any ER Physician Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any ER Physician Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue ER Physician Channeled Claims exclusively against the ERP Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the ERP TDP.

(c) Impairment and Voting: ER Physician Claims are Impaired. Holders of ER Physician Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.10 PI Claims (Classes 10(a) and 10(b)).

(a) PI Trust: On the Effective Date, in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of the Debtors' obligations in respect of PI Claims, the PI Trust shall receive, subject to Section 5.2(i) of the Plan, (i) the Initial PI Trust Distribution and (ii) the MDT PI Claim.

(b) NAS PI Claims (Class 10(a)):

(i) Treatment: The PI Trust shall deposit the NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust NAS Fund in periodic installments as funds are received by the PI Trust. Distributions in respect of NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims, in accordance with the NAS PI TDP, and shall be subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all NAS PI Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the PI Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the PI Trust. Each NAS PI Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the PI Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the NAS PI TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any NAS PI Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the PI Trust NAS Fund as and to the extent provided in the NAS PI TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c), Holders of NAS PI Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue NAS PI Channeled Claims exclusively against the PI Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the NAS PI TDP.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: NAS PI Claims are Impaired. Holders of NAS PI Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(c) Non-NAS PI Claims (Class 10(b)).Treatment: The PI Trust shall deposit the Non-NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund in periodic installments as funds are received by the PI Trust. Distributions in respect of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims shall be exclusively in the form of Distributions from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims, in accordance with the Non-NAS PI TDP, and shall be subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks.

(ii) Channeling: As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan and the Master TDP, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled exclusively to and assumed by the PI Trust and shall be exclusively satisfied by payments from the PI Trust. Each Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim shall be asserted exclusively against the PI Trust and resolved solely in accordance with the terms, provisions and procedures of the Non-NAS PI TDP. The sole recourse of any Person on account of any Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim, whether or not the Holder thereof participated in the Chapter 11 Cases and whether or not such Holder filed a Proof of Claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, shall be to the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund as and to the extent provided in the Non-NAS PI TDP. Subject to Section 10.8(c) of the Plan, Holders of Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims are enjoined from asserting against any Debtor or other Protected Party any Channeled Claim, and may not proceed in any manner against any Debtor or other Protected Party on account of any Channeled Claim in any forum whatsoever, including any state, federal or non-U.S. court or administrative or arbitral forum, and are required to pursue Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims exclusively against the PI Trust, solely as and to the extent provided in the Non-NAS PI TDP.

(iii) Impairment and Voting: Non-NAS PI Claims are Impaired. Holders of Non-NAS PI Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

(d) Canadian Patient Settlement. Pursuant to the Canadian Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation, (i) no Holder of a Settled Canadian Patient Claim that filed a Proof of Claim shall receive a recovery in respect of such Settled Canadian Patient Claim from any source other than the Patient Settlement Payment (as defined in the Canadian Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation) made from the Canadian Patient Settlement Trust and (ii) in order to receive a recovery in respect of any other Claim for which a Proof of Claim was filed by a Holder of a Settled Canadian Patient Claim, such Holder shall have the burden of proving that such Proof of Claim is not in respect of a Settled Canadian Patient Claim that was released and discharged pursuant to the Canadian Patient Claim Settlement Stipulation and such Holder has not received any recovery from the Canadian Patient Settlement Trust on account of such Claim. No Distributions shall be made on account of any Claims that may constitute Settled Canadian Patient Claims unless and until (x) the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench approves the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement and all funds in the Canadian Patient Settlement Trust have been distributed to Holders of Settled Canadian Patient Claims in accordance with the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement or (y) the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench denies the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in Article X of the Plan shall affect the validity or enforceability of the Canadian Patient Settlement Agreement.

4.11 Avrio General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(a)).

(a) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Avrio General Unsecured Claim and Avrio Health L.P. agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Avrio General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, including interest, payment in full in Cash.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Avrio General Unsecured Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Avrio General Unsecured Claims are conclusively presumed to accept this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Avrio General Unsecured Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited.

4.12 Adlon General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(b)).

(a) Treatment: Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Adlon General Unsecured Claim and Adlon Therapeutics L.P. agree to different treatment, on the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, each Holder of an Allowed Adlon General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, including interest, payment in full in Cash.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Adlon General Unsecured Claims are Unimpaired. Holders of Adlon General Unsecured Claims are conclusively presumed to accept this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Adlon General Unsecured Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited.

4.13 Other General Unsecured Claims (Class 11(c)).

(a) Treatment: All Other General Unsecured Claims are Disputed. Except to the extent a Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim and the Debtor against which such Claim is asserted agree to different treatment, after the Effective Date upon the Allowance of such Claim in accordance with Article VII of the Plan, each Holder of an Allowed Other General Unsecured Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, such Holder's Pro Rata Share of the Other General Unsecured Claim Cash, up to payment in full of such Allowed Claim.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Other General Unsecured Claims are Impaired. Holders of Other General Unsecured Claims are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

4.14 Intercompany Claims (Class 12).

(a) Treatment: Except as otherwise provided in the NewCo Transfer Agreement or the Restructuring Steps Memorandum, on or after the Effective Date, Intercompany Claims shall be (x) in the case of Intercompany Claims held by a Liquidating Debtor against another Liquidating Debtor, at the discretion of the Debtors (or the Plan Administration Trustee, as applicable), (y) in the case of Intercompany Claims held by a Transferred Debtor against another Transferred Debtor, at the discretion of NewCo and (z) otherwise, at the discretion of the Debtors (or the Plan Administration Trustee, as applicable) with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Governmental Consent Parties:

(i) Reinstated; or

(ii) Compromised and settled or canceled and extinguished with no distribution on account thereof.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Intercompany Claims are either Unimpaired or Impaired with no distribution on account thereof. Holders of Intercompany Claims are either conclusively presumed to accept this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Intercompany Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Intercompany Claims.

4.15 Shareholder Claims (Class 13).

(a) Treatment: Holders of Shareholder Claims shall not receive or retain any property on account of such Claims. As of the Effective Date, in accordance with the terms of and except as otherwise expressly provided in the Shareholder Settlements, all Shareholder Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be deemed to have been released without any distribution on account thereof, and such Claims shall be of no further force or effect.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Shareholder Claims are Impaired. Holders of Shareholder Claims are deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Shareholder Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Shareholder Claims.[5]

4.16 Co-Defendant Claims (Class 14).

(a) Treatment: In full and final satisfaction and release of each Co-Defendant Claim, the Holder thereof shall (i) not receive or retain any property on account of such Co-Defendant Claim and not have any recourse to any Debtor or any Assets of any Debtor, any Estate or any Assets of any Estate, or any other Protected Party or any Assets of any Protected Party and (ii) retain its Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, which may be exercised solely in accordance with Section 10.18. As of the Effective Date, Co-Defendant Claims shall be deemed expunged, released and extinguished without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect. Notwithstanding the release, satisfaction, expungement and extinguishment of Co-Defendant Claims, a Co-Defendant retains its Co-Defendant Defensive Rights, which includes the ability to recover from Persons that are not Protected Parties or from any insurance policies that are not Purdue Insurance Policies or other insurance policies of Protected Parties.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Co-Defendant Claims are Impaired. Holders of Co-Defendant Claims are deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Co-Defendant Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Co-Defendant Claims.

4.17 Other Subordinated Claims (Class 15).

(a) Treatment: Other Subordinated Claims are subordinated pursuant to the Plan and section 509(c) and/or 510 of the Bankruptcy Code and/or other applicable law. Holders of Other Subordinated Claims shall not receive or retain any property under this Plan on account of such Claims. As of the Effective Date, Other Subordinated Claims shall be deemed expunged, released and extinguished without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Other Subordinated Claims are Impaired. Holders of Other Subordinated Claims are deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Other Subordinated Claims are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Other Subordinated Claims.

4.18 PPLP Interests (Class 16).

(a) Treatment: In accordance with the terms of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, Holders of PPLP Interests shall relinquish such Interests and shall not receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such Interests. As of the PPLP Dissolution Date, all PPLP Interests shall be deemed surrendered, canceled and/or redeemed without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect.

(b) Impairment and Voting: PPLP Interests are Impaired. Holders of PPLP Interests are deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore,

[5] Although Holders of Shareholder Claims are deemed to reject the Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Shareholder Payment Parties, in all capacities (including as Holders of Claims), have agreed to support the Plan pursuant to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

Holders of PPLP Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such PPLP Interests.

4.19 PPI Interests (Class 17).

(a) Treatment: In accordance with the terms of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, Holders of PPI Interests shall relinquish such Interests and shall not receive or retain any property under this Plan on account of such Interests. As of the Effective Date, PPI Interests shall be deemed surrendered, canceled and/or redeemed without further action by or order of the Bankruptcy Court, and shall be of no further force or effect.

(b) Impairment and Voting: PPI Interests are Impaired. Holders of PPI Interests are deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of PPI Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such PPI Interests.

4.20 Intercompany Interests (Class 18).

(a) Treatment: Except as otherwise provided in the NewCo Transfer Agreement or the Restructuring Steps Memorandum, on the Effective Date, Intercompany Interests shall be:

(i) with respect to Intercompany Interests in any Transferred Debtor held by PPLP, Reinstated and transferred to NewCo (or one of its Subsidiaries) in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement;

(ii) with respect to Intercompany Interests in any Transferred Debtor held by another Transferred Debtor, Reinstated or otherwise treated in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement; and

(iii) with respect to Intercompany Interests in any Debtor that is not a Transferred Debtor, Reinstated solely for administrative convenience until canceled when such Debtor is dissolved or merged out of existence by the Plan Administration Trustee.

(b) Impairment and Voting: Intercompany Interests are either Unimpaired or Impaired with no distribution on account thereof. Holders of Intercompany Interests are either conclusively presumed to accept this Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code or deemed to reject this Plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, Holders of Intercompany Interests are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan, and the votes of such Holders will not be solicited with respect to such Intercompany Interests.

4.21 Debtors' Rights with Respect to Unimpaired Claims.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, nothing under the Plan shall affect the rights of the Debtors with respect to an Unimpaired Claim, including all rights with respect to legal and equitable defenses to, or setoffs or recoupments against, any such Unimpaired Claims.

ARTICLE V MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION.

5.1 Restructuring Transactions.

On or before the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors may take all actions consistent with this Plan as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by or necessary to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions under and in connection with this Plan, including (a) the execution and delivery of all appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, consolidation, sale, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, dissolution or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the Plan; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption or delegation of any Asset, property, interest, right, liability, debt or obligation on terms consistent with the Plan; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of organization, limited partnership, incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion or dissolution pursuant to applicable law; (d) the execution, delivery, filing, recordation and issuance of any other documents, instruments or agreements in connection with the Restructuring Transactions; and (e) any transactions described in the Restructuring Steps Memorandum.

5.2 Plan Settlements.

(a) As further described in the Disclosure Statement, the provisions of this Plan (including the provisions contained in Section 5.9 of the Plan and the release and injunctive provisions contained in Article X of the Plan), the Shareholder Settlements and the other Plan Documents constitute a good faith compromise and settlement of Claims and controversies among the Debtors, the Supporting Claimants, the Settling Creditors, the Shareholder Payment Parties, certain other participants in the Mediation and other parties in interest reached in connection with the Mediation and otherwise, which such compromise and settlement is necessary and integral to the Plan and the Plan Documents and the success of these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, the Supporting Claimants, the Settling Creditors and the Shareholder Payment Parties believe the treatment provided in respect of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and the treatment of competing Classes of Claims is fair and appropriate only when combined with the distribution scheme, including without limitation all Distributions to be made under the Plan, and the release, injunction and all other provisions contained in the Plan, all of which are material aspects of the Plan and the terms of the Shareholder Settlements. More than 614,000 Proofs of Claim alleging liability arising out of or in connection with Opioid-Related Activities were filed against the Debtors by the General Bar Date. Approximately 10% of the submitted Proofs of Claim allege a specific amount of liability. The aggregate alleged liability associated with these Proofs of Claim is more than $40 trillion (exclusive of one personal injury claim that asserted $100 trillion in alleged liability). Approximately 90% of Claims alleging liability arising out of or in connection with Opioid-Related Activities do not allege a specific amount of liability. The Debtors believe that any reasonable estimate, projection or valuation of their total liability and obligation to pay for Claims asserted against them, if they had the ability to pay those Claims outside of these Chapter 11 Cases, exceeds by many multiples the total value of all assets of their Estates, including but not limited to contributions from third parties and the full face value of all of Purdue's insurance. The Debtors have structured the Plan on the basis of this understanding, and the Confirmation Order shall include a finding consistent with this understanding.

(b) The Plan, including the explanation set forth in the Disclosure Statement, and the Plan Documents shall be deemed a motion to approve the Plan Settlements, including the Shareholder Settlements, and the good faith full and final comprehensive compromise and settlement of all of the Claims, Interests and controversies described in the foregoing Section 5.2(a) pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Plan Settlements under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, as well as a finding by the Bankruptcy Court that the Plan Settlements are fair, equitable, reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors and their Estates.

(c) The Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents (including the Creditor Trust Documents), the Shareholder Settlements and the Confirmation Order constitute a good faith full and final comprehensive compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests and controversies described in the Plan based upon the unique circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases (such as the total distributable value available, the unique facts and circumstances relating to these Debtors and the need for an accelerated resolution without additional avoidable litigation) such that (i) none of the foregoing documents (including the provisions contained in Section 5.9 of the Plan), nor any materials used in furtherance of Plan confirmation (including, but not limited to, the Disclosure Statement, and any notes related to, and drafts of, such documents and materials), may be offered into evidence, deemed an admission, used as precedent or used by any party or Person in any context whatsoever beyond the purposes of this Plan, in any other litigation or proceeding, except as necessary, and as admissible in such context, to enforce their terms and to evidence the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction and (ii) any obligation by any party, in furtherance of such compromise and settlement, to not exercise rights that might be otherwise available to such party shall be understood to be an obligation solely in connection with this specific compromise and settlement and to be inapplicable in the absence of such compromise and settlement. The Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents and the Confirmation Order will be binding as to the matters and issues described therein, but will not be binding with respect to similar matters or issues that might arise in any other litigation or proceeding in which none of the Debtors or any other Protected Party is a party; provided that such litigation or proceeding is not to enforce or evidence the terms of the Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents, the Shareholder Settlements or the Confirmation Order. Any Person's support of, or position or action taken in connection with, this Plan, the Plan Settlement, the Plan Documents, the Shareholder Settlements and the Confirmation Order may differ from such Person's position or testimony in any other litigation or proceeding not in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases. Further, and, as all parties to the Mediation agreed, this Plan Settlement is not intended to serve as an example for, or represent the parties' respective positions or views concerning, any other chapter 11 cases relating to opioids, nor shall it be used as precedent by any Person or party in any other such chapter 11 cases or in any other proceeding, situation or litigation.

(d) The "allocation" of dollars between the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of any Distribution and the Estate Distributions is part of an overall compromise and settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 between the Mediation Parties, including the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Shareholder Payment Parties, and all creditors and creditor groups that are Mediation Parties, and upon confirmation of this Plan will be deemed to be a settlement between the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Supporting Claimants and the Shareholder Payment Parties in which, among other things, the Shareholder Payment Parties are providing up to $6.5 billion in consideration over 15 years. The "allocation" is intended by the Shareholder Payment Parties and the other Mediation Parties to, among other things, facilitate the distribution of proceeds for opioid abatement, victim compensation, and other permitted uses under the Plan, and otherwise. All such parties, including but not limited to the Shareholder Payment Parties, Sackler Parties, the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Committee and the States AG Negotiating Group, including each member of such groups, has agreed that neither the settlement amount nor the "allocation" (including any allocation between the Shareholder Payment Party of payment responsibility) reflects any concession or agreement by any party as to the strength, validity, merits, collectability, amount, or otherwise of the Shareholder Released Estate Claims or of the Shareholder Released Direct Claims or any defenses to the Shareholder Released Estate Claims or the Shareholder Released Direct Claims, and if for whatever reason the agreement in principle is not consummated, neither the settlement amount nor the "allocation" shall be cited or used by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the Supporting Claimants or the Shareholder Payment Parties (or the Released Parties) – or any party to the Shareholder Settlements or any other Mediation Party – for any purpose whatsoever in any pleading or proceeding wherever or whenever. Further, no party to the compromise and settlement will be bound by this Plan or the agreement set forth in this provision (other than as set forth in this Section 5.2(d)) with regard to what it may state in a pleading, court hearing, proceeding, or otherwise about the strength, validity, merits, collectability, amount, or otherwise of the Shareholder Released Estate Claims or of the Shareholder Released Direct Claims, or any defenses thereto, including, without limitation, in any pleading filed in connection with the Shareholder Settlements and this Plan. This paragraph shall be binding forever upon all parties from the earlier of (i) the time that this agreement in principle is reached and (ii) the time that this Section 5.2(d) is made publicly available (on the Bankruptcy Court docket or otherwise), regardless of whether a settlement including that represented in the Plan is consummated, and shall be specifically enforceable by the Bankruptcy Court (with no cap on damages that may be awarded).[6] This Section 5.2(d) is non-severable from the overall compromise and settlement, and is an integral part of the Plan. This Section 5.2(d) is specifically subject to Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and analogous state provisions barring the use of settlement offers and communications to prove the validity or amount of disputed claim.[7]

(e) Private Entity Settlements.

(i) On the Effective Date, the Private Creditor Trusts shall receive their respective Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions and their respective MDT Private Claims; provided that with respect to Private Creditor Trusts that are the subject of Opt-Out Class Action Settlements, if, as of the Effective Date, the applicable Opt-Out Class Action Settlement has not been consummated, the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distribution (exclusive of amounts that would constitute Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amounts under the applicable Opt-Out Class Action Settlement, to the extent known) for such Private Creditor Trust shall be placed by the Master Disbursement Trust into a third-party interest bearing escrow in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (the "Class Action Escrow Accounts"). If any such Opt-Out Class Action Settlement is consummated on or prior to the ten (10) month anniversary of the Effective Date, amounts held in the applicable Class Action Escrow Account shall be distributed to the corresponding Private Creditor Trust, other than the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amounts, if any, which shall be released to the Shareholder Payment Parties. If any Opt-Out Class Action Settlement is not consummated by the (10) month anniversary of the Effective Date, amounts held in the applicable Class Action Escrow Account shall be promptly released to the Shareholder Payment Parties. If such Opt-Out Class Action Settlement is consummated after such release from the Class Action Escrow Account to the Shareholder Payment Parties, each Shareholder Payment Party shall pay to the Master Disbursement Trust such amounts due and payable by it within ten (10) Business Days of delivery to such Shareholder Payment

[6] This sentence shall not apply to the States.

[7] While all parties understand that the Plan is not enforceable until confirmation, all Mediation Parties have agreed to be bound by this provision as of March 18, 2025.

Party of notice of such Opt-Out Class Action Settlement having been consummated, pending final payment from the Shareholder Released Parties, and the applicable Private Creditor Trust shall receive the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion of the applicable Initial Private Creditor Trust Distribution from the Master Disbursement Trust, which shall only be funded from amounts received by it from the Shareholder Payment Parties in accordance with the amounts set forth in the Plan and the applicable Direct Claims Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement or the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, the Master Disbursement Trust shall have an obligation under this Plan to distribute to the PI Trust, on account of the MDT PI Claim, (A) on a first priority basis, the first $50 million of proceeds, payments, and benefits (including, but not limited to, the MDT Insurance Proceeds) of (I) any MDT Causes of Action (other than those Retained Causes of Action relating to or necessary to enforce the MDT Shareholder Rights) and (II) the MDT Insurance Rights (assets described in clauses (I) and (II), collectively, the "Subject MDT Assets"), and (B) in the absence of payment in full of such $50 million prior to the second anniversary of the Effective Date from proceeds, payments, and benefits of the Subject MDT Assets, the remaining unpaid amount thereof (which may be the entire amount) in full in cash on the first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following such second anniversary of the Effective Date from MDT Transferred Assets or the proceeds thereof other than the Subject MDT Assets on a priority basis in accordance with Section 5.2(g) hereof (the payment obligations described in clauses (A) and (B), the "PI Trust Obligation").[8]

(iii) Until such time as the PI Trust Obligation has been satisfied in full in accordance with Section 5.2 of the Plan

(A) the Master Disbursement Trust shall not (I) permit a Lien or other encumbrance to attach to the Subject MDT Assets or (II) incur any Claim (including any Channeled Claim) or otherwise grant any right of payment in respect of the Subject MDT Assets, in each case, senior to the PI Trust Obligation;

(B) the Master Disbursement Trust shall afford the PI Trustee (or its designated representative) with periodic reporting

[8] For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent the PI Trust Obligation has not been paid in full by the second anniversary of the Effective Date in accordance with this Section 5.2(e) of the Plan, the priority of the PI Trust Obligation shall only be second to the funding of the Replenishment Transfer with Cash and cash equivalents that are Shareholder Estate Settlement Distributions, but not, for the avoidance of doubt, second with respect to application of the Total Direct Settlement Amount under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement.

as contemplated by Section 5.6(f)(v) of the Plan and subject to Section 5.6(f)(iv);

(C) none of the protections with respect to the PI Trust Obligation in this Section 5.2(e) of the Plan nor the priority afforded to the PI Trust Obligation in Section 5.2(g) of the Plan shall be modified or eliminated from the MDT Agreement, the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, or the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, solely to the extent applicable, without the written consent of the PI Trustee; and

(D) the PI Trustee reserves all legal and equitable rights under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and federal and common law with respect to the PI Trust Obligation.

(iv) The Master Disbursement Trust shall reserve amounts from the Total Direct Settlement Amount under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, as needed, to satisfy the PI Trust Obligation, solely to the extent the PI Trust Obligation has not been paid in full by the [first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following the] second anniversary of the Effective Date in accordance with this Section 5.2(e) of the Plan.

(v) In the event the PI Trust Obligation is not satisfied in full by the first Scheduled MDT Distribution Date following the second anniversary of the Effective Date in accordance with Section 5.2 of the Plan, the PI Trustee shall be entitled to seek enforcement of the PI Trust Obligation by motion to enforce the Plan filed with the Bankruptcy Court, which shall be heard on an expedited basis subject to the Bankruptcy Court's availability, and the PI Trustee may seek legal and/or equitable remedies available under applicable law, including, but not limited to, specific performance, disgorgement, and/or damages against any successor of the Debtors or their Estates, including the Master Disbursement Trust.

(f) Non-Federal Public Entity Settlements.[9]

(i) On the Effective Date, the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust shall receive their respective Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions, and the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust shall receive their respective MDT Interests. The MDT Interests shall entitle the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust to the payments from the Master Disbursement Trust and other benefits set forth below.

(A) Subject to Section 5.2(g), on each MDT Distribution Date, the Master Disbursement Trust shall make Public Creditor Trust Distributions from all MDT Distributable Value in accordance with Section 5.2(f)(i)(B) of the Plan.

(B) All Public Creditor Trust Distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust and/or the Tribe Trust shall be allocated between the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust as follows, in each case, as calculated before accounting for any amounts payable pursuant to Section 5.9 of this Plan: (I) with respect to the Estate Distributions, (X) 96.7% to the Governmental Remediation Trust and (Y) 3.3% to the Tribe Trust; and (II) with respect to the Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion, (X) 96.7% of the Maximum Governmental Direct Settlement Amount on the payment dates indicated therein to the Governmental Remediation Trust, subject to, and payable in accordance with, the terms of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, and (Y) 3.3% of the Maximum Governmental Direct Settlement Amount on the payment dates indicated therein to the Tribe Trust, subject to, and payable in accordance with, the terms of the Tribe Trust Agreement.

(C) All Public Creditor Trust Distributions to the Governmental Remediation Trust shall be further allocated between States and Subdivisions in accordance with the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents. The allocation of the applicable Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion to Subdivisions who become Initial Participating Subdivisions may be higher than Later Joining Subdivisions (each as defined in and as more fully described in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement). Subdivisions located in Oklahoma shall be entitled to participate in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement as though Oklahoma was a Settling State. Subdivisions in Non-Settling States and Subdivisions which previously litigated and resolved their claims against the Debtors and/or Shareholder Released Parties shall not be eligible to be Participating Subdivisions unless and until, in the case of the Subdivisions located in Non-Settling States, a Subdivision's corresponding State becomes a Settling State. For the avoidance of doubt, each Non-Settling Subdivision shall be entitled to receive Estate Distributions pursuant to Section 7.7 of the Plan upon Allowance of its Claim in accordance with Sections 7.6 or 7.9 of the Plan.

(D) Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions will receive Oklahoma's allocation, which allocation amount has already been reduced by $12.5 million that the State of Oklahoma set aside in accordance with the Oklahoma Political Subdivisions Opioid Abatement Grants Act (the "Act") for distribution to Oklahoma subdivisions pursuant to Oklahoma's settlement with the Shareholder Released Parties and the Debtors (the "Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement"). The Oklahoma subdivision allocation is set forth in Exhibit [●] of the Plan and will be administered as agreed between the State of Oklahoma and the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions. Any release requirements contained in the Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement that are a condition for a Subdivision to participate in the Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund shall be waived by the Debtors and Shareholder Payment Parties such that the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions may participate in both the Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund and receive distributions from the Governmental Remediation Trust. The Debtors and Shareholder Payment Parties also waive any requirement in the Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement that funds not distributed by the Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund within a certain amount of time will revert to the Foundation or the National Center for Addiction Studies and Treatment established pursuant to the Prepetition Oklahoma Settlement, and acknowledge that the entire Purdue Oklahoma Subdivision Fund shall be distributed to Oklahoma subdivisions. Oklahoma's allocation shall be paid from the Governmental Remediation Trust to a settlement fund established for the benefit of the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions. Distributions from such settlement fund to the Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions shall be made in accordance with the ratios set forth in Exhibit [●] of the Plan. The Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions shall either hire an administrator for the funds from the Remediation Trust Account or receive the funds directly from the Governmental Remediation Trust. The administrator may be reasonably compensated by the Governmental Remediation Trust to perform its administrative function, but not to exceed 5% of the money distributed to Oklahoma Litigating Political Subdivisions by the Governmental Remediation Trust.

(ii) On the Effective Date, the Public School Trust shall receive the Initial Public Schools Distribution (less any required payments to the Common Benefit Fund and/or in respect of attorneys' fees and expenses of the Public School District Claimants in accordance with Section 5.9(c) and (h) of the Plan) and the MDT Public School Districts Claim. On account of the MDT Public School Districts Claim, the Master Disbursement Trust shall pay to benefit the Public School Trust: (i) $7.5 million on the first anniversary of the Effective Date less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount (the "Second Public Schools Distribution"), and (ii) $7.5 million on the second anniversary of the Effective Date less the applicable Direct Claim Settlement Retained Payment Amount (the "Third Public Schools Distribution").

(g) MDT Priority Waterfall. On each MDT Distribution Date, all Cash and cash equivalents of the Master Disbursement Trust shall be applied as follows: (i) first, to fund any Replenishment Transfer solely to the extent such Cash and cash equivalents are Shareholder Estate Settlement Distributions; (ii) second, to fund the PI Trust Obligation in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(ii) of the Plan; (iii) third, to fund the MDT Operating Reserve in an amount determined by the MDT Trustees; (iv) fourth, to the extent there are outstanding amounts then due on account of the MDT Claims, to pay the MDT Claims; (v) fifth, to reimburse the applicable Public Creditor Trust for any Shareholder Direct Settlement Portion previously applied in respect of adjustments implemented in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(iv); and (vi) sixth, as Public Creditor Trust Distributions in respect of the MDT Interests; provided, however, that, except to the extent expressly set forth in Exhibit M to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement, payments received by the Master Disbursement Trust: (A) on account of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement shall be immediately transferred to the Governmental Remediation Trust and (B) on account of the Tribal Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement shall be immediately transferred to the Tribe Trust, and the amounts in (A) and (B) shall not be used to fund a Replenishment Transfer to fund the MDT Operating Reserve or pay the MDT Claims.

(h) Shareholder Settlements. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Shareholder Payment Parties and the Settling Creditors shall enter into the Shareholder Settlement Agreements. Pursuant to the Public Entity Settlements, the Private Entity Settlements, the Shareholder Settlement Agreements and the Plan, in exchange for among other things, the Shareholder Settlement Releases and the Channeling Injunction, as set forth in Sections 10.6, 10.7 and 10.8 of the Plan, and the other agreements set forth in the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, (i) the Shareholder Payment Parties shall pay the applicable Shareholder Settlement Amount on the dates and pursuant to the terms set forth in the applicable Shareholder Settlement Agreements, (ii) the Shareholder Claims shall be deemed released on the Effective Date pursuant to Section 4.15 of the Plan, (iii) the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights shall be transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 5.6(j) of the Plan, (iv) the Shareholder Payment Parties have agreed to support the Plan and (v) the Shareholder Payment Parties have provided the other agreements and consideration set forth in the applicable Shareholder Settlement Agreement, in each case, as more fully set forth in, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the Shareholder Settlement Agreement. The Master Disbursement Trust shall distribute all proceeds of the MDT Shareholder Rights, including each applicable Shareholder Settlement Amount, in accordance with the Plan, including Section 5.2(e)–(g) of the Plan.

(i) [Potential United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement. The United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement is as follows:

(i) On the Effective Date of the Plan, the PI Trust shall be deemed, without further action of the Bankruptcy Court or the PI Trust, to have irrevocably assigned to the United States the PI Trust's right to receive $26 million from the Master Disbursement Trust, which amount shall be paid by the Debtors or the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable, to the United States in installments equal to 3.7143% of any amounts received and retained by the PI Trust under the Plan in the form of the Initial PI Trust Distribution and distributions made on account of the MDT PI Claim, and on the same distribution schedule as such distributions are received and retained by the PI Trust, until the United States has received payments aggregating to $26 million. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall (A) the stated amount of the Initial PI Trust Distribution or the stated amount of the MDT PI Claim be altered in a manner that would reduce the aggregate amount to be paid to the United States pursuant to this Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan, (B) the aggregate amount paid to the United States pursuant to this Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan exceed $26 million, or (C) the United States' claim against the Master Disbursement Trust arising from the assignment described in this Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan be released until the United States has received payments thereof aggregating to $26 million. Should the PI Trust obtain recoveries under the Plan from a source other than the Master Disbursement Trust as a result of litigation following and resulting from either a modification of the MDT Insurer Injunction pursuant to Section 10.10 of the Plan or election by the Master Disbursement Trust of a Shareholder Release Remedy, the PI Trust shall pay over 3.7143% of any such recoveries to the United States until the United States shall have received payments aggregating to $26 million pursuant to the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement. The United States shall have the right to enforce the obligations set forth in this Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan notwithstanding the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.

(ii) Notwithstanding Section 10.19 of the Plan, as of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, the PI Trust, each Holder of a PI Claim and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and each Holder of a PI Claim, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such, shall, without any further action by the Bankruptcy Court, be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim of all United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claims and all Causes of Action based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement (other than a Cause of Action to enforce the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the release set forth in Section 5.2 (i)(iii) of the Plan) that each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim has asserted or could assert on its own behalf or on behalf of another Person or party, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), against the PI Trust, a Holder of a PI Claim, Distributions to Holders of PI Claims pursuant to the PI TDP or under the Plan and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and each Holder of a PI Claim, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such; provided, however, that, if a Holder of a PI Claim commences a legal action against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim challenging all or any portion of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, then, from and after the commencement of such legal action, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Release shall be void ab initio solely with respect to such Holder of a PI Claim, and the heirs, successors and assigns of such Holder of a PI Claim, in their capacities as such, and not with respect to any other Person or party, including, but not limited to, the PI Trust, counsel to such Holder of a PI Claim and, in respect of each of the PI Trust and such counsel, its respective agents, representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such; provided further that no such legal action against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim shall impair or reduce the amount that the United States shall receive pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i). Nothing in this Section 5.2(i)(ii) creates any rights of a Holder of a PI Claim to sue the United States or any of its agencies, including a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim, and the United States and its agencies reserve all rights and defenses in that regard; and nothing in this paragraph is or shall be deemed a waiver of any applicable sovereign immunity with respect to any legal action against the United States or any of its agencies challenging all or any portion of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement brought by a Holder of a PI Claim or the heirs, successors or assigns of such Holder of a PI Claim, in their capacities as such.

(iii) As of the Effective Date, for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim shall, without any further action by the Bankruptcy Court, be conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, fully, finally, forever and permanently released by the PI Trust and its agents, representatives, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such, of all Causes of Action based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement (other than a Cause of Action to enforce the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, any United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Release) that the PI Trust has asserted or could assert on its own behalf or on behalf of another Person or party, notwithstanding section 1542 of the California Civil Code or any law of any jurisdiction that is similar, comparable or equivalent thereto (which shall conclusively be deemed waived), against a Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim and, in respect of each Holder of a United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim, its respective agents, representatives, successors and assigns, in their respective capacities as such.

(iv) The payments made to the United States pursuant to Section 5.2(i)(i) of the Plan are a prepayment by the PI Trust of amounts that would otherwise be payable by certain Holders of PI Claims to Holders of United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claims upon receipt by such Holders of PI Claims of Distributions pursuant to the PI TDP and under the Plan. Such prepayment shall be borne equitably by such Holders of PI Claims in the form of a reduction in the Distributions otherwise payable to such Holders of PI Claims pursuant to the PI TDP.

(v) The United States Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency (in respect of the TRICARE Program) submits to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for purposes of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.

(vi) The United States Department of Health and Human Services, on its own behalf and on behalf of its component agencies, which are the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Indian Health Service on behalf of its federally-operated programs; the United States Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency (in respect of the TRICARE Program); and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for purposes of any proceeding in respect of the interpretation or enforcement of the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Settlement, including, but not limited to, the United States-PI Claimant Medical Expense Claim Releases.][10]

(j) Individual Settlement Agreements: Each of the Settling States, Participating Subdivisions, the Master Disbursement Trust, and the Debtors shall not enter into any side letter or separate agreement with any Sackler Family Member that grants more favorable terms or benefits,

[10] [NTD: Section 5.2(i) reflects terms that were agreed to in 2021 in connection with the 12th Amended Plan among PI claimants and the federal government. The parties do not currently have an agreement on any of these issues. If an agreement is reached, it will be reflected in subsequent versions of the Plan and Disclosure Statement. There can be no assurances that any such agreement will be reached. If no agreement is reached, the federal government reserves its rights to seek recoveries from appropriate parties (including PI claimants and/or their attorneys) under the Medicare Secondary Payer Act, 42 USC §§ 1395y(b), section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid, and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (Pub. L. 110-173), or the Federal Medical Care Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2651-2653; and other parties (including the PI claimants and their attorneys) reserve all rights and defenses to such claims and any attempts by the federal government to recover on such claims.]

when taken as a whole, to such Sackler Family Member's Shareholder Family Group than those set forth in the Plan and the Shareholder Settlement Agreements.

5.3 The Plan Administration Trust.

(a) Establishment and Purpose of Plan Administration Trust. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors shall take all necessary steps to form the Plan Administration Trust in accordance with the Plan and the PAT Agreement. The Plan Administration Trust shall be established for the purposes described in this Plan and any others more fully described in the PAT Agreement, shall have no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of trade or business and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. The Plan Administration Trust shall, in each case in accordance with the Plan and the PAT Agreement:

(i) hold, manage, sell and invest the PAT Assets for the benefit of Holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims);

(ii) administer, process, resolve and liquidate Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims), including through the prosecution and resolution of objections to Disputed Avrio General Unsecured Claims, Disputed Adlon General Unsecured Claims or Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims;

(iii) hold and maintain the PAT Reserves and the PAT Distribution Account and maintain the Professional Fee Escrow Account and the account described in Section 5.3(e) of the Plan; and

(iv) make Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims (other than Channeled Claims and Federal Government Unsecured Claims) and other payments from the Plan Administration Trust, the Professional Fee Escrow Account and the account described in Section 5.3(e) of the Plan.

(b) Vesting of the PAT Assets in the Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust shall consist of the PAT Assets. On the Effective Date, the PAT Assets shall vest in the Plan Administration Trust, free and clear of all Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind.

(c) Appointment and Role of the Plan Administration Trustee. The Plan Administration Trustee shall be an existing employee of the Debtors selected by the Debtors in their sole discretion or another individual selected by the Debtors with the consent of the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). The identity and compensation of the Plan Administration Trustee shall be disclosed in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the Plan Administration Trustee shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date. In accordance with the PAT Agreement, the Plan Administration Trustee shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (x) the date that the Plan Administration Trust is dissolved in accordance with the PAT Agreement and (y) the date the Plan Administration Trustee resigns, is terminated or is otherwise unable to serve for any reason. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Plan Administration Trust and the Plan, the Plan Administration Trustee shall:

(i) have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the Plan Administration Trust;

(ii) undertake all administrative responsibilities as are provided in the Plan and the PAT Agreement, including filing the final monthly operating report (for the month in which the Effective Date occurs) and all subsequent quarterly operating reports and administering the closure of the Chapter 11 Cases, which reports shall be delivered to the Master Disbursement Trust;

(iii) be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Plan Administration Trust and the PAT Assets; and

(iv) take such other actions as the Plan Administration Trust determines to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan, provided that such authority shall be subject to Section 5.4 and Section 5.6 of this Plan, and nothing herein or in any Plan Supplement document shall grant the Plan Administration Trust any rights with respect to NewCo or its operations or the Master Disbursement Trust or its operations.

(d) Funding of the Wind-Up Reserve; Costs and Expenses of the Plan Administration Trust. On the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the Wind-Up Reserve, which shall vest in the Plan Administration Trust and be held and maintained by the Plan Administration Trustee. In the event of any shortfall of funding in the Wind-Up Reserve, NewCo shall be obligated to satisfy any such deficiency, subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the NewCo Managers and the MDT Trustees (which obligation shall be assumed by NewCo and any successor to NewCo's business). The costs and expenses of the Plan Administration Trust, including the compensation, fees and expenses of the Plan Administration Trustee and its retained professionals, shall be paid out of the Wind-Up Reserve. The Plan Administration Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, in an amount to be determined by the Debtors, subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties, and to retain and reasonably compensate counsel and other professionals, including any professional who represented parties in interest, including the Debtors, in the Chapter 11 Cases, to assist in its duties as Plan Administration Trustee on such terms as the Plan Administration Trustee deems appropriate without Bankruptcy Court approval, subject to the provisions of the PAT Agreement.

(e) [Attorneys' Fees and Expenses of Directors, Officers, Employees and Agents. The Plan Administration Trust will promptly advance or reimburse as and when incurred the reasonable actual attorneys' fees and related expenses incurred by any current or former director, officer, employee or authorized agent of the Debtors (other than any Sackler Family Member) after the Effective Date and before the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with such individual's cooperation with, or in connection with the defense of such individual with respect to, any investigation, prosecution and/or litigation involving conduct relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property or any defense of the Releases or the Channeling Injunction. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors will establish and fund a segregated account in the amount of $[●] million, which shall be held and maintained by the Plan Administration Trustee to fund the foregoing advancement and reimbursement obligations. If, at any time, the balance in such segregated account is less than $[●] million, NewCo (or, at any time after a sale of all or substantially all Assets of or Interests in NewCo, the Master Disbursement Trust) shall replenish such account so that amounts in the account are not less than $[●] million, provided that (x) the aggregate amount deposited into the segregated account may not exceed $[●] million, and (y) on the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Date, any funds remaining in the segregated account will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and NewCo's and the Master Disbursement Trust's funding obligations with respect to such account will cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Plan Administration Trust will not advance or reimburse any such amounts incurred by any individual who (i) does not provide an appropriate undertaking consistent with the undertakings required for indemnification during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, (ii) has at any time prior to the Effective Date refused or does at any time after the Effective Date refuse to testify based on a claim of privilege against self-incrimination in any proceeding relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property, or (iii) is at any time indicted for a felony relating to the Debtors or the Debtors' business or property (provided, however, that if such individual is found to be not guilty of such felony, then expenses shall be promptly reimbursed).][11]

(f) Institution and Maintenance of Legal and Other Proceedings. As of the date upon which the Plan Administration Trust is established, the Plan Administration Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all legal actions and other proceedings related to any Asset, liability or responsibility of the Plan Administration Trust. Such legal actions and other proceedings shall be limited solely to those required for the purposes of reconciling, administering and defending against Claims (other than Channeled Claims) and the other responsibilities of the Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all such actions in the name of the Debtors or their Estates, in each case if deemed necessary or appropriate by the Plan Administration Trustee. The Plan Administration Trust shall be responsible for the payment of all damages, awards, judgments, settlements, expenses, costs, fees and other charges incurred subsequent to the date upon which the Plan Administration Trust is established arising from, or associated with, any legal action or other proceeding brought pursuant to the foregoing. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan Administration Trust, pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable state corporate law, is appointed as the successor-in-interest to, and representative of, the Debtors and their Estates for the retention, enforcement, settlement or adjustment of Claims against the Debtors (other than the Channeled Claims). For the further avoidance of doubt, neither the Plan Administration Trust nor the Plan Administration Trustee shall be vested with the rights to pursue any MDT Insurance Rights or MDT Insurance Collateral.

(g) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust is intended to be treated as a trust described in IRC sections 661 through 664 and the regulations promulgated thereunder (a "complex trust"). The Plan Administration Trustee shall file (or cause to be filed) such statements, returns, or disclosures relating to the Plan Administration Trust as are required by any Governmental Unit, including IRS Form 1041, IRS Form 1041-ES, and IRS Schedule K-1. The Plan Administration Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the PAT Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Plan Administration Trust or the PAT Assets, including, without limitation, estimated and annual U.S. federal income taxes. The Plan Administration Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of the Plan Administration Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Plan Administration Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust. Nothing in this Section 5.3(g) shall be deemed to determine, expand or contract the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(h) Dissolution, Release of Reserves and Residual Value. The Plan Administration Trust shall be dissolved and the Plan Administration Trustee shall be discharged from its duties with respect to the Plan Administration Trust upon completion of its duties as set forth in the Plan and satisfaction of the purposes of the Plan Administration Trust as set forth in the Plan and the PAT

[11] [NTD: Subject to ongoing review]

Agreement, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be no earlier than the later of (i) the PPLP Dissolution Date and (ii) the date on which (A) all Disputed Claims (other than Non-Participating Channeled Claims) have been resolved, (B) all PAT Assets have been liquidated and (C) all Distributions and other payments required to be made by the Plan Administration Trustee under the Plan and the PAT Agreement have been made, unless dissolution on an earlier date is authorized pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court. Any Cash or cash equivalents in the Plan Administration Trust remaining upon dissolution of the Plan Administration Trust, including any Surplus Reserve Cash remaining in the PAT Reserves, shall be distributed in accordance with Section 5.14(c) of the Plan.

(i) Exculpation and Indemnification of the Plan Administration Trustee. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan Administration Trustee shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in its capacity as the Plan Administration Trustee, or on behalf of the Plan Administration Trust, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of its actions or inactions in its capacity as the Plan Administration Trustee, or on behalf of the Plan Administration Trust, and for any other liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses arising out of or due to the implementation or administration of the Plan or the PAT Agreement, in each case, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of the Plan Administration Trustee shall be satisfied from the Wind-Up Reserve.

5.4 NewCo.[12]

(a) Establishment and Ownership of NewCo. On or before the Effective Date, NewCo and any Subsidiaries of NewCo shall be formed in accordance with the Plan and the NewCo Operating Agreement. Upon completion of the Restructuring Transactions, the Foundation shall hold the NewCo Interest, representing 100% of the voting and economic Interests in NewCo.

(b) Purpose of NewCo. From and after the Effective Date, NewCo shall operate the NewCo Transferred Assets in accordance with the terms of the NewCo Operating Agreement, and subject to the NewCo Operating Injunction and the NewCo Governance Covenants set forth in the Confirmation Order. NewCo shall be operated in a responsible and sustainable manner, balancing (i) the interests of its stakeholders to fund and provide abatement of the opioid crisis, (ii) effective deployment of its assets to address the opioid crisis and (iii) the interests of those materially affected by its conduct. In connection with any action of NewCo, all elements of NewCo's purpose as set forth in this Section 5.4(b) shall be taken into account, and NewCo shall not be required (and the NewCo Managers shall not be required to cause NewCo) to maximize NewCo's or NewCo's subsidiaries' sales or profits.

(c) Vesting of the NewCo Transferred Assets in NewCo. On or prior to the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan and in accordance with the NewCo Transfer Agreement, the NewCo Transferred Assets, including the Initial NewCo Cash, shall be transferred to and vest in NewCo or one or more Subsidiaries of NewCo, in each case free and clear of all Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind; provided that NewCo shall comply with its obligations under the Plan, including NewCo's obligation to distribute directly to the Governmental Remediation Trust, the Tribe Trust and the Foundation the NewCo Distributable Cash in accordance with the Plan and to satisfy any deficiency of funding in the Wind-Up Reserve subject to the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the NewCo Managers and the MDT Trustees (which obligation shall be assumed by NewCo and any successor to

[12] [NTD: Section remains subject to ongoing discussion]

NewCo's business) and NewCo shall assume the Assumed Liabilities. Except as described in the foregoing sentence, NewCo shall have no liability for, and the NewCo Transferred Assets shall vest in NewCo free and clear of, any prepetition and postpetition Causes of Action of any kind, in each case that have been or could have been asserted against the Debtors, their Estates or their property (including, but not limited to, Claims based on successor liability) based on any acts or omissions prior to the Effective Date.

(d) NewCo Managers.

(i) Appointment. The board of managers of NewCo will consist of five (5) NewCo Managers, each with experience in one or more of the following areas: pharmaceuticals, public policy (including public health policy), law enforcement, ethics and compliance, finance, audit, general business and/or corporate governance issues. The initial NewCo Managers shall be disinterested and independent, and shall be selected by the Settling States with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, and pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors; provided that the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The identity of the initial NewCo Managers shall be included in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the initial NewCo Managers shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date.

(ii) Responsibilities. The NewCo Managers shall, among other things, (A) determine appropriate expenditure levels for commercial operations and the Public Health Initiatives of NewCo, and (B) make all decisions with respect to NewCo operations (including, for the avoidance of doubt, to effectuate a Disposition Event (as defined in the NewCo Operating Agreement)), taking into account the public interest and NewCo's purpose; provided, in each of clauses (A) and (B) above, any such actions of the NewCo Managers shall be subject to oversight by the Foundation.

(e) NewCo Distributable Cash. On an annual basis following the Effective Date, NewCo shall pay (i) 96.7% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash directly to the Governmental Remediation Trust, (ii) 3.3% of the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash directly to the Tribe Trust and (iii) the Foundation Distributable Cash directly to the Foundation. The obligation to pay the Governmental NewCo Distributable Cash in accordance with this Section 5.4(e) shall be otherwise documented in an agreement to be negotiated between NewCo, the Governmental Remediation Trust and the Tribe Trust.

(f) NewCo Insurance. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall fund an upfront premium payment from Effective Date Cash to purchase insurance required and appropriate for the business needs of NewCo, including liability and other insurance for NewCo, including, without limitation, product liability insurance and directors' and officers' liability insurance for the NewCo Managers, officers and other authorized agents, in an amount and on terms acceptable to the Debtors and the Governmental Consent Parties.

(g) NewCo Operating Injunction and NewCo Governance Covenants. The Confirmation Order will provide for the issuance of the NewCo Operating Injunction and the NewCo Governance Covenants. Any purchaser of NewCo's opioid business shall remain subject to the NewCo Operating Injunction and the NewCo Governance Covenants.

(h) NewCo Monitor. The Confirmation Order will provide for the appointment of the NewCo Monitor. The initial NewCo Monitor shall be the Purdue Monitor in place as of the Effective Date or otherwise selected by the Governmental Consent Parties with the consent of the Debtors, and in consultation with the Creditors' Committee. The identity of the NewCo Monitor shall be disclosed in the Plan Supplement. The NewCo Monitor shall be responsible for reviewing NewCo's compliance with the NewCo Operating Injunction. NewCo and its professionals and representatives, including the NewCo Managers, shall cooperate and reasonably respond to requests by the NewCo Monitor in the performance of its responsibilities, including reasonable requests for access to relevant books and records of NewCo. In furtherance of the responsibilities of the NewCo Monitor, the NewCo Monitor shall be authorized to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court to the extent necessary to carry out its obligations hereunder. The NewCo Monitor shall prepare and publish [quarterly][13] reports regarding the matters for which the NewCo Monitor is responsible, including NewCo's compliance with the NewCo Operating Injunction. All compensation, costs and fees of the NewCo Monitor and any professionals retained by the NewCo Monitor shall be paid by NewCo.

(i) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to NewCo. The NewCo Managers shall cause NewCo to make a timely election to be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes effective as of the date immediately succeeding the Effective Date by the deadline for making such election. NewCo shall be responsible for filing all tax returns of NewCo and the payment, out of the Assets of NewCo, of any taxes due by or imposed on NewCo or NewCo Transferred Assets, including, without limitation, estimated and annual U.S. federal income taxes.

(j) Exculpation and Indemnification of the NewCo Managers. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no NewCo Manager shall have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a NewCo Manager, or on behalf of NewCo, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a NewCo Manager, or on behalf of NewCo, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any NewCo Manager shall be satisfied by NewCo.

5.5 Foundation.

(a) Establishment and Ownership of the Foundation. On or before the Effective Date, the Foundation shall be formed in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the Foundation Bylaws.

(b) Appointment of the Foundation Trustees. The board of trustees of the Foundation will consist of three (3) Foundation Trustees, each of whom shall be disinterested and independent, provided that one (but no more than one) Creditor Trustee of the [Master Disbursement Trust] may serve as a Foundation Trustee; provided further that any action taken by such individual in his or her capacity as Foundation Trustee shall not be subject to the fiduciary duties of such individual in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee of the Master Disbursement Trust.[14] The initial Foundation Trustees shall be selected by the Settling States with the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Ad Hoc Committee

[13] [NTD: Subject to ongoing review]

[14] [NTD: Subject to ongoing discussion] and in consultation with the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee, and pursuant to a selection process that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors; provided that the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The identity of the initial Foundation Trustees shall be included in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the initial Foundation Trustees shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date.

(c) Foundation D&O Insurance and Indemnification. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall fund an upfront premium payment from Effective Date Cash to purchase directors' and officers' liability insurance for the Foundation Trustees in an amount and on terms acceptable to the Debtors and the Governmental Consent Parties.

(d) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Foundation. The Foundation Trustees shall cause the Foundation to (A) be formed as a non-stock corporation and (B) be organized as a corporation that is intended to be treated as an exempt organization for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes. Neither the Foundation nor any Foundation Trustee shall make an election for the Foundation to be classified as other than a corporation pursuant to Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-3.

(e) Exculpation and Indemnification of the Foundation Trustees. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Foundation Trustee shall have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a Foundation Trustee, or on behalf of NewCo, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a Foundation Trustee, or on behalf of NewCo, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any Foundation Trustee shall be satisfied by the Foundation.

5.6 Master Disbursement Trust.

(a) Establishment and Purpose of the Master Disbursement Trust. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors shall take all necessary steps to establish the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with the Plan and the MDT Agreement. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be established for the purposes described in this Plan and any other purposes more fully described in the MDT Agreement and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. The Master Disbursement Trust shall, in each case in accordance with the Plan and the MDT Agreement:

(i) hold, manage, sell, invest and distribute the MDT Transferred Assets for the benefit of the MDT Beneficiaries in accordance with the Private Entity Settlements and the Public Entity Settlements;

(ii) enforce, pursue, prosecute, compromise and/or settle the MDT Causes of Action, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Shareholder Rights, including monitoring and enforcing the Shareholder Settlement Agreements;

(iii) make payments in satisfaction of the MDT Claims;

(iv) make Public Creditor Trust Distributions from MDT Distributable Value;

(v) administer the Special Operating Reserve; and

(vi) serve as administrative agent with respect to the Released Claims Reserves.

(b) Vesting of the MDT Transferred Assets in the Master Disbursement Trust. The corpus of the Master Disbursement Trust shall consist of the MDT Transferred Assets. On the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan and in accordance with the MDT Agreement, the MDT Transferred Assets shall be irrevocably transferred to and vest in the Master Disbursement Trust free and clear of all Claims, Interests, Liens, other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind; provided that, to the extent certain Assets comprising the MDT Transferred Assets are not known or identified as of the Effective Date, such Assets shall automatically, and without further act or deed, be transferred to and vest in the Master Disbursement Trust upon the discovery or identification thereof, including, with respect to the Surplus Reserve Cash, in accordance with Section 5.14(c) of the Plan. The Master Disbursement Trust shall have no liability for any prepetition or postpetition Causes of Action of any kind, in each case that have been or could have been asserted against the Debtors, their Estates or their property (including, but not limited to, Claims based on successor liability) based on any acts or omissions prior to the Effective Date, except as expressly set forth in the Plan and the MDT Agreement; provided that the Master Disbursement Trust will assume the Channeled Claims solely for the purpose of effectuating the Master TDP in accordance with Section 5.6(g) of the Plan and issue the MDT Claims and MDT Interests in accordance with the Public Entity Settlements and the Private Entity Settlements. From and after the Effective Date, all proceeds of the MDT Transferred Assets, including, without limitation, amounts paid by Insurance Companies under the MDT Insurance Policies and amounts paid under the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, shall be paid to the Master Disbursement Trust to be applied in accordance with the MDT Priority Waterfall and the MDT Agreement.

(c) Funding of the Master Disbursement Trust. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be funded with the proceeds of the MDT Transferred Assets.

(d) Appointment and Role of the MDT Trustees. The board of trustees of the Master Disbursement Trust will consist of three (3) MDT Trustees with relevant experience. The MDT Trustees shall be disinterested and independent; provided, however, that such requirements shall not preclude any professional who represented parties in interest from serving as MDT Trustee nor any firm in which an MDT Trustee holds a financial interest from serving as a professional for the Master Disbursement Trust based solely on such previous representations. At least one (1) initial MDT Trustee shall be selected by the Settling States that have attorneys general from the Democratic Party, and at least one (1) initial MDT Trustee shall be selected by the Settling States that have attorneys general from the Republican Party, and such MDT Trustees shall select the third MDT Trustee (the "Settling States MDT Trustees"); provided that notwithstanding the above, in each case, each MDT Trustee shall be appointed with the consent of the Ad Hoc Committee in consultation with the MSGE Group and the Debtors, and the DOJ shall have the right, in its discretion, to observe such selection process. The identity of the initial MDT Trustees shall be disclosed in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the initial MDT Trustees shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and such appointment shall be effective as of the Effective Date. Each Settling States MDT Trustee may be removed and replaced at any time by the unanimous vote of the MDT Advisory Council Representatives from the same political party as such Settling States that selected such Settling States MDT Trustee. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Master Disbursement Trust and the Plan, the MDT Trustees shall:

(i) have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust;

(ii) have the power and authority to perform all functions necessary to operate the Master Disbursement Trust, including, but not limited to, hiring employees or financial, tax, legal, or other necessary professionals to achieve the Master Disbursement Trust's objectives;

(iii) be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust and the MDT Transferred Assets; and

(iv) in all circumstances and at all times, act in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit and in the best interests of the MDT Beneficiaries, in furtherance of the purpose of the Master Disbursement Trust, and in accordance with the Plan, including Section 5.6(f) of the Plan, and the MDT Agreement.

(e) Appointment and Role of the MDT Advisory Council. There shall be an MDT Advisory Council established under the MDT Agreement that will consist of a total of seven (7) representatives (the "MDT Advisory Council Representatives," and each an "MDT Advisory Council Representative"), selected in the following manner: (i) two (2) representatives shall be selected by the representatives of Settling States that have a state attorney general from the Democratic Party; (ii) two (2) representatives shall be selected by the representatives of Settling States that have a state attorney general from the Republican Party, and (iii) these four (4) MDT Advisory Council Representatives shall select the fifth MDT Advisory Council Representative. In addition, one (1) MDT Advisory Council Representative shall be selected by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee and one (1) MDT Advisory Council Representative shall be selected by the MSGE Group. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, in each case, each MDT Advisory Council Representative shall be appointed with the consent of the Ad Hoc Committee. The Master Disbursement Trust shall regularly report to the MDT Advisory Council with respect to the operations and activities of the Master Disbursement Trust and the handling of all payments and Distributions made from the Master Disbursement Trust to the extent set forth in the MDT Agreement.

(f) Obligations of the MDT Trustees. The MDT Trustees shall take into account the interests of, and owe fiduciary duties to, each of the MDT Beneficiaries in making all decisions on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust. In furtherance thereof:

(i) in the event of a Specified Breach (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement), the MDT Trustees will take into account the remaining rights of the Holders of MDT Claims as well as the interests of the Holders of MDT Interests in formulating and exercising appropriate remedies as they relate to the Shareholder Payment Parties and the Shareholder Release Snapback Parties, but shall in all events, to the extent there are obligations remaining to the Private Creditor Trusts upon such default, seek to utilize all other available sources of assets (including by first utilizing commercially reasonable efforts to pursue a Payment Remedy (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) before electing to pursue a Shareholder Release Remedy) to pay all outstanding amounts owed to the Holders of MDT Claims then-due or to be paid in the future from amounts due from such Breaching Shareholder Family Group until such outstanding amounts have been paid in full;

(ii) the Master Disbursement Trust shall provide no less than ten (10) Business Days' advance written notice (unless urgent circumstances require less notice) to each MDT Beneficiary of any material action proposed to be taken in respect of the MDT Shareholder Rights, including any exercise of remedies under the Shareholder Settlement Agreements or the commencement or settlement of any litigation against any Shareholder Payment Party or Shareholder Release Snapback Party;

(iii) to the extent there are any disputes raised by any MDT Beneficiary regarding the operation of the Master Disbursement Trust or the actions of the MDT Trustees (including, without limitation, any action related to the MDT Shareholder Rights), (A) any MDT Beneficiary shall have the right to seek resolution by the Bankruptcy Court of such a dispute, including seeking to enjoin any disputed action by the Master Disbursement Trust, and all MDT Trustees and MDT Beneficiaries shall have the right to be heard with regard to any such dispute, including by filing objections, declarations, statements in support or other pleadings (including with supporting evidence) or providing witness testimony at any hearing and (B) the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and resolve any such disputes, and shall be authorized to order appropriate relief (subject to the provisions of this Section 5.6(f)) and make a determination in an expedited manner, and in all events, shall make such a decision within thirty (30) days from the request for relief;

(iv) upon the payment in full in Cash of any MDT Claim, the holder of such MDT Claim shall immediately cease to be an MDT Beneficiary for all purposes under the MDT Agreement, and the MDT Trustees shall have no further fiduciary duties to such holder, and such holder shall have no further rights to commence or participate in any action relating to the operations of the Master Disbursement Trust or the actions of the MDT Trustees;

(v) the Master Disbursement Trust shall (A) provide reasonable reporting to each of the other Creditor Trusts that hold MDT Claims regarding the MDT Trustees' activities at least every four (4) months (both cumulatively and in the period just ended), including with regard to the MDT Shareholder Rights (or any reporting received), any insurance proceedings, assets (including the value thereof), expenditures, distributions and forward-looking projections (subject to appropriate limitations to be agreed by the Debtors, the Governmental Consent Parties and the Creditors' Committee), (B) make themselves reasonably available in addition to holding at least one (1) call every four (4) months for the other Creditor Trustees to answer questions of such other Creditor Trustees relating to the Master Disbursement Trust's activities, (C) provide each Private Creditor Trust and the Public School Trust with quarterly reporting regarding Litigation Costs (as defined in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement) and other items relating to litigation claims pertaining to such Creditor Trusts' applicable Creditor category as well as all other Creditor categories, and (D) provide the PI Trust with the information, consultation rights and notice as required pursuant to Section 5.2(e) of the Plan. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, the Master Disbursement Trust shall not be required to provide any reporting to any Creditor Trust to which the Master Disbursement Trust's duties cease pursuant to Section 5.6(f)(iv).

(vi) the MDT Trustees shall be obligated to comply with the terms of the Plan, including this Section 5.6(f), and the MDT Agreement; and

(vii) in the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this Section 5.6(f) and any other provision of this Plan or the MDT Agreement, the terms of this Section 5.6(f) shall govern unless the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trustees for each of the Creditor Trusts mutually agree.

(g) Assumption of Channeled Claims and Master TDP. As of the Effective Date, any and all liability of the Debtors and the other Protected Parties for any and all Channeled Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by the Master Disbursement Trust solely for the purpose of effectuating the Master TDP, pursuant to which each Channeled Claim shall either be automatically channeled to and assumed exclusively by a Creditor Trust or otherwise Disallowed and released in full. All Channeled Claims channeled to a Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP shall be administered and resolved solely pursuant to, and solely to the extent provided in, the applicable Creditor Trust TDP for such Creditor Trust. Distributions, in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust TDP, from the Creditor Trust to which a Channeled Claim is channeled, in accordance with the Master TDP, shall be the sole source of recovery, if any, in respect of such Channeled Claim, and the Holder of such Channeled Claim shall have no other or further recourse to the Protected Parties, including the Master Disbursement Trust. All Channeled Claims that are Disallowed and released and not channeled to a Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP shall have no recourse to any Protected Party, including the Master Disbursement Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any Channeled Claim have any recourse to the Assets of the Master Disbursement Trust. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Master Disbursement Trust, subject to and only to the extent provided in the MDT Documents, shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding the Channeled Claims that the Debtors, the Released Parties and the Shareholder Released Parties, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law, but solely to the extent consistent with the MDT Documents and the Plan; provided that, subject to Section 10.8(c), no such Claims, defenses or rights may be asserted against any Protected Party; and provided, further, that all such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding any Channeled Claim that is channeled to a Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP shall be transferred to such Creditor Trust with such Channeled Claim, at which point, the Master Disbursement Trust shall no longer have such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Channeled Claim. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section 5.6(g) shall limit or affect the transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights.

(h) MDT Operating Expenses. On the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the MDT Operating Reserve, which shall vest in the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 5.6(b) of the Plan and be held and maintained by the MDT Trustees. Periodically, until the dissolution of the Master Disbursement Trust, the MDT Trustees will replenish the MDT Operating Reserve from Cash held or received by the Master Disbursement Trust to the extent deemed necessary by the MDT Trustees to satisfy and pay estimated future MDT Operating Expenses; provided, however, that subject only to Section 5.2(g) of this Plan, payments received by the Master Disbursement Trust on account of the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement shall be immediately transferred to the Governmental Remediation Trust and shall not be used to fund a Replenishment Transfer or the MDT Operating Reserve, and shall not be used to pay the MDT Claims. The MDT Trustees shall create and maintain an annual budget of MDT Operating Expenses, which shall be reviewed by, and reasonably acceptable to, the MDT Advisory Council. All MDT Operating Expenses shall be satisfied and paid from the MDT Operating Reserve. The MDT Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation and to retain and reasonably compensate counsel and other professionals, including any professional who represented parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, to assist in the duties of the Master Disbursement Trust on such terms as the MDT Trustees deem appropriate without Bankruptcy Court approval, subject to the provisions of the MDT Agreement. The initial compensation of the MDT Trustees shall be reasonably acceptable to the Debtors and the Governmental Consent Parties, and thereafter shall be subject to the annual budgets prepared by the MDT Trustees.

(i) Transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights. In furtherance of the transfer of the MDT Transferred Assets to the Master Disbursement Trust and in accordance with the MDT Agreement, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall irrevocably transfer, grant and assign to the Master Disbursement Trust, and the Master Disbursement Trust shall receive and accept, any and all of the MDT Causes of Action and MDT Insurance Rights. To the extent any Insurance Company would be obligated in respect of any MDT Insurance Policy to pay any Channeled Claim on behalf of one or more of the Debtors, the Debtors shall transfer and assign to the Master Disbursement Trust the right to enforce such Insurance Company's obligation. The foregoing transfer shall be (i) free and clear of all encumbrances and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, (ii) made to the maximum extent possible under applicable law, (iii) absolute and without requirement of any further action by the Debtors, the Liquidating Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person, and (iv) governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Bankruptcy Code and the other applicable laws governing the applicable MDT Insurance Policies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Master Disbursement Trust shall become and remain liable in full for and shall satisfy, to the extent required under applicable law, any prospective premiums, deductibles, self-insured retentions and any other amounts or obligations arising in any way out of the receipt of payment from an Insurance Company in respect of the MDT Insurance Rights; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Master Disbursement Trust will not be required to pay premiums or any other amounts for Purdue Insurance Policies that are not MDT Insurance Policies. The transfer of the MDT Insurance Rights contemplated in this Section 5.6(i) is not an assignment of any insurance policy itself. The Confirmation Order shall contain findings reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties related to or necessary to preserve all MDT Insurance Rights.

(j) Transfer of MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. On the Effective Date, in consideration of the Shareholder Releases, the Shareholder Released Parties shall irrevocably transfer, grant, and assign to the Master Disbursement Trust, and the Master Disbursement Trust shall receive and accept, any and all MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. Each Shareholder Released Party shall be deemed to have irrevocably transferred, granted, and assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust any and all MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights without further action and without further consideration to such Shareholder Released Party. Pursuant to the Plan, the foregoing transfer shall be (i) free and clear of all encumbrances and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, (ii) made to the maximum extent possible under applicable law, (iii) absolute and without requirement of any further action by the Shareholder Released Parties, the Debtors, the Liquidating Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, the Master Disbursement Trust, the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person, and (iv) governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Bankruptcy Code and the other applicable laws governing the MDT Shareholder

Insurance Rights. The transfer of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights is not an assignment of any insurance policy itself. For the avoidance of doubt, the transfer of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights is in addition to the other obligations of the Shareholder Released Parties set forth herein. The Shareholder Released Parties will make best efforts to provide the Master Disbursement Trust access to information and copies of documents that are reasonably necessary to preserve, secure, or obtain the benefit of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights, and will comply in all respects with the Plan to preserve, secure, or obtain the benefit of the MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights, including but not limited to the obligations set forth in Section 8.8(b). The Confirmation Order shall contain findings reasonably acceptable to the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties related to or necessary to preserve all MDT Shareholder Insurance Rights. Notwithstanding the foregoing in this paragraph, to the extent that (y) a Shareholder Released Party has, prior to the Effective Date, provided notice of a Claim under a Reserved MDT Insurance Policy under which a Shareholder Released Party is covered and (z) such Claim is not one for which such Shareholder Released Party receives the benefit of the Shareholder Releases (a "Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim"), such Shareholder Released Party shall not be deemed to have irrevocably transferred, granted, and assigned to the Master Disbursement Trust the Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim, and such Shareholder Released Party shall be entitled to pursue any such Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim prior to and after the Effective Date; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to the Retained Shareholder Insurance Claims, each Shareholder Released Party, in consideration of the Shareholder Releases, (A) will confer and fully cooperate with the Master Disbursement Trust in connection with the settlement of all claims or rights under such MDT Insurance Policy, including the Retained Shareholder Insurance Claims, and including but not limited to as set forth in Section 8.8(b)(i) of the Plan, and (B) in the event the Master Disbursement Trust has obtained settlement terms that it deems acceptable in its sole discretion, and such settlement terms include a settlement of any Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim, each Shareholder Released Party with rights under such Retained Shareholder Insurance Claim shall be deemed to consent to the release of any claims or rights held by such Shareholder Released Party against and under such MDT Insurance Policy, with the same effect as if such Shareholder Released Party had executed such settlement agreement, and without further consideration to such Shareholder Released Party from the insurance settlement proceeds or otherwise in respect of such settlement. After the Effective Date, no Shareholder Released Party shall be entitled to submit a claim under any MDT Insurance Policy (with the exception of a current or former director, officer, manager, authorized agent or employee that is not a Sackler Family Member, but solely to the extent such individual has a right to submit a claim after the Effective Date pursuant to Section 8.8(b)(ii) of the Plan).

(k) Shareholder Insurance Release. On the Effective Date, in consideration of the Shareholder Releases, all Sackler Family Members shall irrevocably, fully and forever release and discharge any obligation to indemnify and/or to defend the Sackler Family Members under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019 for any Claim or loss of any type or nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown. The Sackler Family Members hereby surrender all rights, interest in and Claim to any benefit under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019, and acknowledge that (i) all rights, interest in and Claim to any benefit they may have under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019 are fully terminated on the Effective Date; and (ii) after the Effective Date, the Sackler Family Members will not receive and cannot claim any further benefits under the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019 for any time period and shall have no rights whatsoever under or relating to the Isosceles Insurance Ltd. policy number PPLP-01/2019.

(l) Institution and Maintenance of Legal and Other Proceedings. As of the date upon which the Master Disbursement Trust is established, the Master Disbursement Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all legal actions and other proceedings related to any Asset, liability or responsibility of the Master Disbursement Trust, including in respect of the MDT Causes of Action, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Shareholder Rights. Such legal actions and other proceedings shall be limited solely to those required for the purposes of satisfying the responsibilities of the Master Disbursement Trust, including in respect of the MDT Causes of Action, the MDT Insurance Rights and the MDT Shareholder Rights. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all such actions in the name of the Debtors or their Estates, in each case if deemed necessary or appropriate by the MDT Trustees. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be responsible for the payment of all damages, awards, judgments, settlements, expenses, costs, fees and other charges incurred subsequent to the date upon which the Master Disbursement Trust is established arising from, or associated with, any legal action or other proceeding brought pursuant to the foregoing.

(m) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Master Disbursement Trust. The Master Disbursement Trust is intended to be treated, and shall be reported, as a "qualified settlement fund," and the receipt of (i) any MDT Transferred Assets (and any other amounts received by the Master Disbursement Trust pursuant to the Plan) that are treated as amounts transferred to the Master Disbursement Trust for purposes of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(b)(1) and (ii) the proceeds received in respect of any MDT Transferred Assets (and any other amounts received by the Master Disbursement Trust pursuant to the Plan) that are not described in clause (i) above (including, without limitation, proceeds received in respect of the MDT Shareholder Rights) by the Master Disbursement Trust are intended to be treated as amounts transferred by, or on behalf of, a "transferor" to a "qualified settlement fund," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations sections 1.468B-1 and 1.468B-2 for U.S. federal income tax purposes and shall be treated consistently for state and local tax purposes, to the extent applicable. All parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) shall report consistently with the foregoing for all applicable tax reporting purposes. An MDT Trustee shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of the Master Disbursement Trust. The administrator of the Master Disbursement Trust shall be responsible for filing all tax returns required to be filed by or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust and the payment, out of the Assets of the Master Disbursement Trust, of any taxes due by or imposed on the Master Disbursement Trust. The MDT Trustees may request an expedited determination under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all tax returns filed by or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the Master Disbursement Trust. Nothing in this Section 5.6(m) shall be deemed to determine, expand or contract the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(n) Distributions from the Master Disbursement Trust Free and Clear. All Distributions made by the Master Disbursement Trust to the MDT Beneficiaries shall be made in accordance with the notice provisions of the Shareholder Settlement Agreements, as applicable, and in the absence of applicable notice provisions therein to the applicable Creditor Trust, as directed in writing by the corresponding trustees, on no less than ten (10) Business Days' notice to all MDT Beneficiaries; provided that such advance notice requirements shall not be required for the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions, Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions or the Initial Public Schools Distribution. Such Distributions thereafter shall become the property of such MDT Beneficiary, free and clear of all Claims, Liens or other recourse or encumbrances, and shall not be subject to attachment, disgorgement or recoupment by any Person. Such distributions to each Creditor Trust shall become the property of such Creditor Trust, and shall be used for the administration (including the payment of Creditor Trust Operating Expenses) of such Creditor Trust, to make Distributions on account of Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust TDP and for such other purposes as may be specifically set forth in the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

(o) Dissolution, Release of Reserves and Residual Value. The Master Disbursement Trust shall be dissolved and the MDT Trustees shall be discharged from their respective duties with respect to the Master Disbursement Trust upon completion of their duties as set forth in this Plan and the MDT Agreement, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be no earlier than the date on which

(i) all Assets held by the Master Disbursement Trust, including the MDT Transferred Assets, have been liquidated and (ii) all payments and other distributions required to be made from the Master Disbursement Trust under the Plan and the MDT Agreement have been made, including payment in full in Cash of all MDT Claims, unless dissolution on an earlier date is authorized pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court. Upon dissolution of the Master Disbursement Trust, any Cash remaining in the MDT Operating Reserve or otherwise held by the Master Disbursement Trust shall be distributed in accordance with the MDT Priority Waterfall and the MDT Agreement; provided that, in the event the Master Disbursement Trust is dissolved prior to the payment in full in Cash of all MDT Claims, all outstanding amounts under such MDT Claims shall be deemed due and payable for purposes of the distribution of such remaining Cash pursuant to the MDT Priority Waterfall. Subject to the foregoing sentences, the Master Disbursement Trust shall be dissolved at such time as the MDT Trustees determine that the administration of any remaining assets of the Master Disbursement Trust is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit.

(p) Exculpation and Indemnification of the MDT Trustee and the MDT Advisory Council Representatives. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each of the MDT Trustees and MDT Advisory Council Representatives shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as an MDT Trustee or MDT Advisory Council Representative, or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of his or her actions or inactions in his or her capacity as an MDT Trustee or MDT Advisory Council Representative, or on behalf of the Master Disbursement Trust, and for any other liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses arising out of or due to the implementation or administration of the Plan or the MDT Agreement, in each case, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of the MDT Trustees or the MDT Advisory Council Representatives shall be satisfied from the MDT Operating Reserve.

5.7 Special Operating Reserve; Released Claims Reserves.

(a) Establishment of Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves.

(i) On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish the Special Operating Reserve which shall vest in the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 5.6(b) of the Plan and be held and maintained by the Master Disbursement Trust. The Special Operating Reserve shall be funded initially in the aggregate amount of $200 million by withholding, in each case from Shareholder Estate Settlement Distributions, (a) $20 million from the Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions and (b) $180 million from the Initial Public Creditor Trust Distributions (the "SOR Holdback")[; provided, however, that neither the Initial Public Schools Distribution, nor any additional payments due under the MDT Public School District Claim, shall be subject to the SOR Holdback].[15] The Master Disbursement Trust, as administrative agent, shall facilitate the releases from the Special Operating Reserve in accordance with terms and consent procedures set forth in [Exhibit N] to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

[15] [NTD: Public Schools' SOR Holdback subject to ongoing discussions.]

(ii) On the Effective Date, each Creditor Trust and the Plan Administration Trust shall establish the Released Claims Reserves and, once amounts are funded from the corresponding Creditor Trust PRA Non-Participating Claims Reserves or the Disputed Other General Unsecured Claims Reserve in accordance with Section 7.8(b) or Section 7.8(c), as applicable, be otherwise held and maintained by such Creditor Trust or the Plan Administration Trust, in each case, with the Master Disbursement Trust serving as administrative agent with respect thereto. The Master Disbursement Trust, as administrative agent, shall facilitate the releases from the Released Claims Reserves in accordance with terms and consent procedures set forth in Exhibit N to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(b) Reversion of Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves. Subject in all respects to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, on the First Reversion Date, (A) one third (1/3) of the balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve and each Released Claims Reserves will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, respectively, after completion of all requirements set forth in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement and (B) Replenishment Transfers shall cease.

(i) Unless and until Material Litigation is commenced or continued prior to any of the times set forth below against any Shareholder Released Party after the First Reversion Date, then:

(A) Upon the first anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, fifty percent (50%) of each of the remaining balance of the Released Claims Reserves and Special Operating Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust, the Plan Administration Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust, respectively;

(B) Upon the second anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, fifty percent (50%) of each of the remaining balance of the Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust, the Plan Administration Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust, respectively; and

(C) Thereafter, upon the date when no litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, the remaining balance of each of the Released Claims Reserves and Special Operating Reserve will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust, the Plan Administration Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust, respectively.

(ii) Upon a Suspension Event:

(A) All releases from the Released Claims Reserves and Special Operating Reserve described in Section 5.7(b)(i) of the Plan shall cease; and

(B) If the Material Litigation is of the type referenced in clause (1)(a) of the definition of "Material Litigation" in the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement (i.e., any litigation by a Material Litigant against Shareholder Released Parties regarding Covered Conduct) or clause (2) thereof (500 or more separate lawsuits (i.e., not aggregated and not in a class) pending against Shareholder Released Parties concerning Covered Conduct being pursued by non-Material Litigants), the Master Disbursement Trust shall resume Replenishment Transfers pursuant to Section 5.7(b)(i) of the Plan.

(C) Following a Suspension Event, a new First Reversion Date shall occur on the next date when no Material Litigation is or has been pending for thirty (30) days. The Sackler Parties' Representative shall report the occurrence of a new First Reversion Date to the Master Disbursement Trust in accordance with Section 7(b)(v)(B) of Exhibit N the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement. On such new First Reversion Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, Replenishment Transfers shall cease and one third (1/3) of the balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust, the applicable Creditor Trust and/or Plan Administration Trust, respectively, in accordance with Section 5.7(b)(iii) of the Plan, after completion of all requirements set forth in Exhibit N to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

Thereafter:

(D) Upon the first anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, one half (1/2) of the remaining balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable; and

(E) Upon the second anniversary of the First Reversion Date, if and only if no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, one half (1/2) of the remaining balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable.

(F) Thereafter, upon the date when no litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is or has been pending for the prior thirty (30) days, the remaining balance of each of the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust and Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable;

provided, that if money remains in the Released Claims Reserves or the Special Operating Reserve after the twelfth (12th) SSA Payment Date, then:

(G) All remaining funds in the Released Claims Reserves will be released to the applicable Creditor Trust or Plan Administration Trust, as applicable, no later than thirty (30) days after the first date that no Material Litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is pending.

(H) All but $25 million of the remaining funds in the Special Operating Reserve will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust for the benefit of the applicable Creditor Trust(s) no later than six (6) months after the first date that no Material Litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is pending; and all funds remaining in the Special Operating Reserve from the $25 million described in clause (H) of this proviso will be released to the Master Disbursement Trust for distribution to the Creditor Trusts pursuant to Section 5.7(b)(iii) no later than six (6) months after the first date that no litigation against any of the Shareholder Released Parties with respect to Covered Conduct is pending

(iii) Master Disbursement Trust shall first allocate all reversion funds received from the Special Operating Reserve to the Private Creditor Trusts in proportion to their respective SOR Holdback until they have received a cumulative amount of such reversion funds equal to the Private Claimants' Priority Reversion.

(iv) If by the ninth (9th) SSA Payment Date the Master Disbursement Trust has not made allocations to the Private Creditor Trusts pursuant to Section 5.7(b)(iii) of the Plan in an amount equal to the Private Claimants' Priority Reversion, then the Special Operating Reserve shall release funds to the Master Disbursement Trust for distribution to the Private Creditor Trusts on the ninth (9th) SSA Payment Date in an amount equal to the shortfall. Upon a release from the Special Operating Reserve to the Master Disbursement Trust pursuant to Sections 5.7(b)(i)(C) or 5.7(b)(ii)(C)5.7(b)(ii)(F) of the Plan, the Master Disbursement Trust will allocate $200,000 immediately prior to such release to the Private Creditor Trusts.

(c) [U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Special Operating Reserve and Released Claims Reserves. The Special Operating Reserve and each of the Released Claims Reserves is intended to be treated and shall be reported as a qualified settlement fund for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Pursuant to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, PRA L.P. will timely elect to treat the Special Operating Reserve and each of the Released Claims Reserves as a "grantor trust" pursuant to Section 1.468B-1(k) of the Treasury Regulations, for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, to the extent permitted under applicable law, for state and local tax purposes, for which PRA L.P. is the sole grantor, owner and transferor, and will not revoke such election. All parties (including the Shareholder Payment Parties, the Debtors, the Foundation, the Plan Administration Trustee, each applicable Creditor Trustee, the MDT Trustees and Holders of Non-Participating Claims and other Disputed Claims) shall be required to report for tax purposes in a manner consistent with the foregoing. An MDT Trustee shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of the Special Operating Reserve. The Creditor Trustee corresponding to the Creditor Trust that holds each Released Claims Reserve shall be the "administrator," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3), of each such Released Claims Reserve. PRA L.P. shall be responsible for payment of any taxes imposed on or collected from the Special Operating Reserve, any of the Released Claims Reserves or the assets or income of any of the foregoing.

5.8 Creditor Trusts.

(a) Establishment and Purpose of the Creditor Trusts. The Confirmation Order shall endorse and direct, to the extent not already established, the establishment of the Creditor Trusts on or prior to the Effective Date in accordance with the terms of the respective Creditor Trust Documents. The Creditor Trusts shall be independent from the Holders of Claims against the Debtors and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (other than as specifically set forth in the Creditor Trust Documents). The Creditor Trusts shall be established for the purposes described in this Plan and any other purposes more fully described in the Creditor Trust Documents. Each Creditor Trust shall, in each case, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents:

(i) hold, manage and invest all funds and other Assets received by such Creditor Trust from the Debtors and the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable (including, with respect to the Public Creditor Trusts, the MDT Interests), in each case, for the benefit of the beneficiaries of such Creditor Trust;

(ii) hold and maintain the Creditor Trust Operating Reserve of such Creditor Trust;

(iii) administer, process, resolve and liquidate Channeled Claims, including Non-Participating Channeled Claims, applicable to such Creditor Trust, in each case as provided in the applicable Creditor Trust Documents;

(iv) establish and administer the applicable Creditor Trust Non-Participating Claims Reserve;

(v) establish and administer the applicable Released Claims Reserves; and

(vi) exercise rights over any proposed use of funds in the applicable Released Claims Reserve held in such Creditor Trust to the extent set forth in Exhibit N to the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(b) Role of the Creditor Trustees. In furtherance of and consistent with the purposes of the Creditor Trusts and the Plan, the Creditor Trustees shall have the power and authority to perform all functions on behalf of the respective Creditor Trusts, subject to the Creditor Trust Documents for such Creditor Trusts. The Creditor Trustees shall undertake all administrative responsibilities as are provided in the Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. The Creditor Trustees shall be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the respective Creditor Trusts, subject to the Creditor Trust Documents for such Creditor Trusts. In all circumstances, each Creditor Trustee shall be independent and disinterested and, in its capacity as a Creditor Trustee, shall act in the best interests of the beneficiaries of such Creditor Trust, in furtherance of the purpose of such Creditor Trust and in accordance with this Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. In accordance with the Creditor Trust Documents, each Creditor Trustee shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (x) the date that the applicable Creditor Trust is dissolved in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and (y) the date such Creditor Trustee resigns, is terminated or is otherwise unable to serve for any reason.

(c) Appointment of the Creditor Trustees and Creditor Trust Overseers. In furtherance of and consistent with the purposes of the Creditor Trusts and the Plan, the Creditor Trust Documents for each of the Creditor Trusts shall provide for the appointment of the Creditor Trustees and, if applicable, Creditor Trust Overseers for each of the Creditor Trusts. The identity of the initial Creditor Trustees and the initial Creditor Trust Overseers shall be as disclosed in the Plan Supplement as of the date hereof, or shall otherwise be:

(i) with respect to the Governmental Remediation Trust, selected in accordance with the terms of the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents;

(ii) with respect to the Tribe Trust, selected by the Native American Tribe Group with the consent of the Debtors (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or denied);

(iii) with respect to each of the following Private Creditor Trusts, selected as follows: (A) with respect to the TPP Trust, by the Third-Party Payor Group, (B) with respect to the Hospital Trust, by the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, (C) with respect to the ERP Trust, by the ERP Trustee (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Creditor Trustee and/or Creditor Trust Overseer for the ERP Trust may be the ERP Trustee) and (D) with respect to the PI Trust, by the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims; and

(iv) with respect to the Public School Trust, by the Public School District Claimants.

(d) PI Trust Distributions. The PI Trust shall, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and the PI Trust Documents, make Distributions on account of Allowed PI Channeled Claims to Holders of such Allowed PI Channeled Claims, subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks, which Distributions may be made directly to the Holder of the PI Claim (if pro se), to counsel for the Holder of the PI Claim by payment to the respective counsel's client trust account or by sending a check to the respective counsel's address that is payable jointly to such counsel and the Holder of the PI Claim. The PI Trust shall establish the PI Trust NAS Fund and the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund, and shall deposit (i) the NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust NAS Fund and (ii) the Non-NAS PI Portion into the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund, in each case, periodically as funds are received by the PI Trust. The PI Trust shall make Distributions on account of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims solely from the PI Trust NAS Fund in accordance with the NAS PI TDP, and shall make Distributions on account of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims solely from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund in accordance with the Non-NAS PI TDP, in each case, subject to the PI Trust Deductions and Holdbacks.

(e) Rights of the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust under the LRP Agreement. Pursuant to and in accordance with the LRP Agreement, the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust shall have the right (i) to inquire periodically with the Creditor Trustee for the PI Trust, the claims administrator appointed in respect of the PI Trust and the escrow agent for the TPP LRP Escrow Account as to whether the TPP LRP Escrow Account has been properly funded and payments therefrom are being made to the LRP Participating TPPs as required under the LRP Agreement, and to request evidence of the same, and (ii) to seek entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the LRP Agreement, including the obligations to provide such information and evidence, in the event the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust reasonably believes that the TPP LRP Escrow Account has not been properly funded as required by the LRP Agreement, payments have not been made to LRP Participating TPPs as required by the LRP Agreement, and/or any of the Creditor Trustee for the PI Trust, the claims administrator appointed in respect of the PI Trust and the escrow agent for the TPP LRP Escrow Account is not responding to reasonable requests by the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust for such information and evidence.

(f) Assumption of Obligations and Liabilities. In furtherance of the purposes of the Plan and the Creditor Trusts, pursuant to the Master TDP and subject to the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, each Creditor Trust shall (i) expressly assume sole and exclusive responsibility and liability for (A) the Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust in accordance with the Master TDP and (B) all Creditor Trust Operating Expenses of such Creditor Trust and (ii) have (A) the rights provided to such Creditor Trust in accordance with the Private Entity Settlements and Public Entity Settlements and (B) all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Channeled Claims that the Debtors, the Released Parties and the Shareholder Released Parties, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law, but solely to the extent consistent with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and this Plan; provided that no such Claims, defenses or rights may be asserted against any Protected Party.

(g) Administration of Channeled Claims and Creditor Trust TDPs. Pursuant to the Master TDP, (i) all Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims will be administered by the Governmental Remediation Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Governmental Remediation Trust Documents, (ii) all Tribe Channeled Claims will be administered by the Tribe Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Tribe TDP, (iii) all Third-Party Payor Channeled Claims will be administered by the TPP Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the TPP TDP, (iv) all Hospital Channeled Claims will be administered by the Hospital Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Hospital TDP, (v) all Public School Channeled Claims will be administered by the Public School Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the Public School TDP, (vi) all ER Physician Channeled Claims will be administered by the ERP Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the ERP TDP, and (vii) all PI Channeled Claims will be administered by the PI Trust and resolved in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the PI TDP. Each of the Creditor Trusts shall be funded in accordance with the Public Entity Settlements and the Private Entity Settlements, as applicable.

The Creditor Trust shall, in accordance with, and to the extent provided in, the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and/or the Creditor Trust TDPs, (y) determine the eligibility, amount and Allowance (if applicable) of such Channeled Claims; and (z) make all determinations with respect to Distributions to be made by the respective Creditor Trusts. The foregoing determinations by the Creditor Trusts shall be final and binding, and shall not be subject to any challenge or review of any kind, by any court or other Person, except as set forth in the Creditor Trust TDPs. Distributions by the Creditor Trusts shall be the sole source of recovery, if any, in respect of Channeled Claims, and Holders of Channeled Claims shall have no other or further recourse to the Protected Parties; provided that the foregoing shall not diminish, or otherwise alter, the rights of LRP Participating TPPs under the LRP Agreement or the rights of non-LRP Participating TPPs at law.

(h) Trust Reporting Obligations. Each of the Plan Administration Trust and the Creditor Trusts shall be required to provide (i) any periodic forwarding, not more frequently than every three months, of applicable bank statements with respect to the Released Claims Reserves and Claims Reserves, or, (ii) solely at the applicable trustee's election, such other reporting as provides the Master Disbursement Trust with substantially similar relevant information as appears in such bank statements, in each case, which the applicable trustee may redact (or cause to be redacted) to exclude information that it considers not reasonably necessary for the Master Disbursement Trust to provide information with respect to the Released Claims Reserves and Claims Reserves

(i) Institution and Maintenance of Legal and Other Proceedings. As of the date upon which each Creditor Trust is established, such Creditor Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all legal actions and other proceedings related to any Asset, liability or responsibility of such Creditor Trust. Such legal actions and other proceedings shall be limited solely to those required for purposes of reconciling, administering or defending against the Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust and for enforcing the rights of such Creditor Trust under the Plan and the Plan Documents (including the rights of the Creditor Trustee for the TPP Trust specifically enumerated in the LRP Agreement). Each Creditor Trust shall be empowered to initiate, prosecute, defend and resolve all such actions in the name of the Debtors or their Estates, in each case if deemed necessary by the applicable Creditor Trustee to fulfill the purposes for which such Creditor Trust was created. Each Creditor Trust shall be responsible for the payment of all damages, awards, judgments, settlements, expenses, costs, fees and other charges incurred subsequent to the date upon which such Creditor Trust is established arising from, or associated with, any legal action or other proceeding brought pursuant to the foregoing. For the avoidance of doubt, each Creditor Trust, pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable state corporate law, is appointed as the successor-in-interest to, and representative of, the Debtors and their Estates for the retention, enforcement, settlement or adjustment of the applicable Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust.

(j) Creditor Trust Operating Expenses. The Creditor Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation and to retain and reasonably compensate counsel and other professionals to assist in their duties without Bankruptcy Court approval, subject to the provisions of the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. Creditor Trust Operating Expenses of each Creditor Trust shall be satisfied and paid from such Creditor Trust's Creditor Trust Operating Reserve in accordance with the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. Periodically, until the dissolution of a Creditor Trust, the applicable Creditor Trustee will replenish the Creditor Trust Operating Reserve from Cash held or received by such Creditor Trust to the extent deemed necessary by such Creditor Trustee to satisfy and pay estimated future Creditor Trust Operating Expenses in accordance with the Creditor Trust Documents.

(k) U.S. Federal Income Tax Matters Relating to the Creditor Trusts. Each Creditor Trust (other than any Tribe Trust entity that is formed as a legal entity other than a trust) is intended to be treated, and shall be reported, as a "qualified settlement fund," and the Initial Private Creditor

Trust Distributions, distributions on account of the MDT Private Claims, Public Creditor Trust Distributions, Initial Public Schools Distribution, distributions on account of the MDT Public School Districts Claim, the right to receive Governmental Remediation Trust and Tribe Trust NewCo Distributable Cash, and any other amounts received pursuant to the Plan, as applicable, made to such Creditor Trust are intended to be treated as amounts transferred by, or on behalf of, a "transferor" to a "qualified settlement fund," within the meaning of Treasury Regulations sections 1.468B-1 and 1.468B-2 for U.S. federal income tax purposes and shall be treated consistently for state and local tax purposes to the extent applicable. All parties (including, without limitation, the Shareholder Payment Parties, Holders of Claims against or Interests in the Debtors, the Related Parties of such Holders, the Debtors, the Creditor Trusts, the Creditor Trustees, the Foundation, the MDT Trustees and the Master Disbursement Trust) will be required to report consistently with the foregoing for all applicable tax reporting purposes. A Creditor Trustee from each relevant Creditor Trust shall be the "administrator" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.468B-2(k)(3) of the applicable Creditor Trust. The administrator of each such Creditor Trust shall be responsible for filing all tax returns required to be filed by or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trust and the payment, out of the assets of such Creditor Trust, of any taxes due by or imposed on such Creditor Trust. Each Creditor Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all tax returns filed by or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of such Creditor Trust. Nothing in this Section 5.8(k) shall be deemed to determine, expand or contract the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court under section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(l) Exculpation and Indemnification of the Creditor Trustees and the Creditor Trust Overseers. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Creditor Trustees and Creditor Trust Overseers shall not have or incur any liability for actions taken or omitted in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee or Creditor Trust Overseer, or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trust, except those acts found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud, and shall be entitled to indemnification, advancement and reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses in defending any and all of his or her actions or inactions in his or her capacity as a Creditor Trustee or Creditor Trust Overseer, or on behalf of the applicable Creditor Trusts, and for any other liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses arising out of or due to the implementation or administration of the Plan or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, in each case, except for any actions or inactions found by Final Order to be arising out of his or her willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any of the Creditor Trustees or Creditor Trust Overseers shall be satisfied from the respective Creditor Trusts.

(m) Dissolution of the Creditor Trusts. Each Creditor Trust shall be dissolved and the applicable Creditor Trustee shall be discharged from its duties with respect to such Creditor Trust upon completion of its duties and the satisfaction of the purposes of the Creditor Trust as set forth in this Plan and the applicable Creditor Trust Documents.

5.9 Attorneys' Fees and Costs.[16]

(a) Local Government Costs and Expenses. On the Effective Date, the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be established for the payment of certain attorneys' fees and costs of Holders of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims (other than States) subject to the terms set forth herein, other than amounts paid pursuant to the AHC Reimbursement Agreement Assumption Order, the MSGE Group Reimbursement Order or any other Order of the Bankruptcy Court.

[16] [NTD: Section 5.9 under discussion by relevant parties]

(i) The Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be funded beginning on the second MDT Distribution Date (the "Initial LG Costs Funding Date") and continuing on each Scheduled MDT Distribution Date thereafter, from periodic distributions in an amount equal to [8.5]% of the Distributions made on account of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims, excluding (A) any Distributions relating to MDT Insurance Proceeds, and (B) any amounts distributed on account of such Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims on the Effective Date, but including any Distributions on account of amounts payable under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement (other than such Distributions on the Effective Date); provided that the amount to be distributed to the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall not exceed $[370] million in the aggregate (the "Aggregate LG Cost Cap"); provided, further that amounts funded pursuant to this section 5.9(a) shall be allocated and applied solely in accordance with Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement for the benefit of counsel to Subdivisions constituting Prior Litigating Subdivisions (as defined in the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement) as of the Petition Date, in each case, as follows: (i) $4 million annually for a maximum of five (5) years (plus [4.25%] of any Distribution constituting a Settlement Prepayment (as defined under the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement)), to the "Cost Fund," as defined in Exhibit R, established in the MDL Proceeding, not to exceed $20 million in the aggregate, and (ii) for any additional amounts (A) [40%] to the "Contingency Fee Fund," as defined in Exhibit R, established in the MDL Proceeding (which fund is to be managed by the fee panel appointed in connection with the MDL Proceeding), not to exceed $140 million, and (iii) [60%] to the "Common Benefit [Fee] Fund," as defined in Exhibit R, established in the MDL Proceeding, not to exceed $210 million in the aggregate; provided further, as consideration for the settlement between holders of certain public and private Claims regarding Special Operating Reserves, timing of payment and allocation matters, the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall also be funded with, and allocated solely in accordance with Exhibit R, Distributions made on account of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims (as qualified in this Section 5.9(a)(i) above) in an amount equal to [8.5]% of (i) the incremental $80 million of Initial Private Creditor Trust Distributions (provided that funding of the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund with respect to such distributions shall not be made until the Initial LG Costs Funding Date); and (ii) up to $20 million of amounts payable in respect of (A) the Private Claimants' Priority Reversion and (B) the other amounts contemplated to be paid under [Section 5.05(e)] of the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, in each case, that become payable to the Private Creditor Trusts in accordance with the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement, which amounts shall be subject in each case to the Aggregate LG Cost Cap;

(ii) In addition to the amounts described in subsection (i) above, the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be funded, and allocated solely in accordance with Exhibit R, on or after the Initial LG Costs Funding Date with an additional amount equal to 12.4% of the MDT Insurance Proceeds which amounts, if any, shall be deposited into an account designated by the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee for the benefit of the "Common Benefit [Fee] Fund" established in the MDL Proceeding, and as described in Exhibit R, and shall be incremental to, and not otherwise count against, the Aggregate LG Cost Cap; provided, for the avoidance of doubt, such funded amounts shall not be considered "Distributions" for the purpose of subsection (i) above; provided, further, such amounts shall be subject, to the prior payment in full of the MDT PI Claim pursuant to and in accordance with Section 5.2(e)(ii).

(iii) Payments from the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund shall be [administered in accordance with Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement and be][17] the exclusive means of payment from the Creditor Trusts for costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) of any Holder of a Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claim (other than a State) or any attorney therefor, other than (i) amounts paid or to be paid from the Creditor Trusts in accordance with existing agreements, contracts or statutes setting forth the allocation and uses of abatement funds or backstop fee arrangements between States and their Subdivisions; and (ii) amounts paid in accordance with the order of the MDL Court establishing the Common Benefit Fund; provided, however, nothing in this section 5.9(a)(iii) [or Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement] shall override the payment obligations contemplated by Section 5.9(a)(i).

(iv) [Except as otherwise agreed in writing by the MSGE Group and the MDL Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, the MSGE Fee Allocation Agreement shall be and remain fully enforceable and shall apply to the Local Government Costs and Expenses Fund]; provided that the costs associated with the arbitration process contemplated under the MSGE Fee Allocation Agreement shall not be paid by the Debtors, their Estates or any Creditor Trust.

(b) State Costs and Expenses. On the Effective Date, the State Expenses Fund shall be established for the payment of expenses (including attorneys' fees) of the States (including any ad hoc group thereof), other than amounts already paid, or any amounts paid or payable under the AHC

[17] [NTD: Exhibit R remains under negotiation among the parties, and all parties rights with respect to the terms of Exhibit R and any related plan terms are expressly reserved.]

Reimbursement Agreement Assumption Order, the MSGE Group Reimbursement Order or any other Order of the Bankruptcy Court; provided that the State Expenses Fund shall be funded beginning on the second MDT Distribution Date and continuing on each Scheduled MDT Distribution Date thereafter. The State Expenses Fund shall be funded from periodic distributions in an amount equal to [4.5]% of the Distributions made on account of Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims, excluding any amounts distributed on account of such Non-Federal Domestic Governmental Channeled Claims on the Effective Date, but including (a) any Distributions on account of amounts payable under the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement (other than such Distributions on the Effective Date), and (b) any Distributions relating to MDT Insurance Proceeds; provided that such amount shall not exceed $[200][18] million in the aggregate (the "Aggregate State Expenses Cap").

For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any of the provisions of Section 5.9(a) or (b), [Exhibit R to the Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement] [or any order of the MDL Court (including the order establishing the Common Benefit Fund)] have any effect on the Distributions made to Holders of Claims in Classes [____] (or the rights of any of their attorneys to receive payment) other than the recognition of the priority of section 5.2(e)(ii) in such provisions.[19]

(c) Common Benefit Fund Assessments. On the Effective Date, the following assessments shall be made to the account directed in Exhibit [●], which is the Common Benefit Fund established by the MDL Court (the "Common Benefit Fund"): (i) 5% of each Distribution made by the Private Creditor Trusts, and (i) 5% of the Initial Public Schools' Distribution. Assessments from the Private Creditor Trusts shall be paid [on periodic schedules for each Private Creditor Trust acceptable to the Governmental Consent Parties, the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals, the Third-Party Payor Group, the NAS Committee and the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims,] as applicable. The assessments payable by the Public School Trust shall be deducted from and paid at the time of the fee award described in Section 5.9(h)(ii). All assessments of 5% of each Distribution made by the Private Creditor Trusts shall be transferred to and distributed in accordance with the order of the MDL Court establishing the Common Benefit Fund. To the extent a Holder of a Hospital Channeled Claim, a Third-Party Payor Channeled Claim, an NAS PI Channeled Claim or a Non-NAS PI Channeled Claim (or any ad hoc group consisting of Holders of any of the foregoing) has retained counsel through a contingency fee arrangement, any contingency fees owed to such contingency counsel payable from Distributions under the Plan shall be reduced by the full amount payable under this Section 5.9(c).[20] However, the applicable Holder and its counsel, in their sole discretion, may agree that an amount up to but not exceeding 40% of the amount payable under this Section 5.9(a) may be applied to the reimbursement of actual costs and expenses incurred by such Holder's counsel, in which case such agreed cost-reimbursement amount shall not reduce the contingency fee amounts payable to such counsel.

(d) Hospital Costs and Expenses. On the Effective Date, the Hospital Attorney Fee Fund shall be established for the payment of attorneys' fees and costs of the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals with respect to Hospital Channeled Claims. The Hospital Attorney Fee Fund shall be funded with (i) 20% of each Distribution made to the Hospital Trust less (ii) the amount of such Distributions

[18] [NTD: Amount subject to ongoing review]

[19] For the avoidance of doubt, no order of the MDL Court establishing the Common Benefit Fund will have any effect on any Private Claimant or its counsel, nor will the MDL Court have jurisdiction to interpret, decide, hear disputes, or enforce any provision of or regarding this Plan or the Confirmation Order [[or any of the agreements or documents related thereto]].

[20] For the avoidance of doubt, any amount payable to counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims or the Ad Hoc Group of NAS Children on an hourly basis (including incremental amounts in consideration of deferring payment of hourly fees) shall not constitute a "contingency fee," and the agreement in respect thereof shall not constitute a "contingency fee arrangement," in each case for purposes of Section 5.9 of the Plan.

payable to the Common Benefit Fund under Section 5.9(c). The Hospital Attorney Fee Fund shall be administered by the Hospital Trust on terms acceptable to the Ad Hoc Group of Hospitals.

(e) Ratepayer Costs and Expenses. In the event that the Ratepayer Mediation Participants Stipulation has been entered into on or prior to the Effective Date, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the attorneys' fees of the Ratepayer Mediation Participants shall be paid from Effective Date Cash in an amount not to exceed $1.4 million.

(f) ERP Costs and Expenses. The ERP Trust shall pay or reimburse, as applicable, the compensation, costs and expenses of professionals that represented or advised the ERP Trustee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, to the extent provided for in the ERP Trust Documents.

(g) Holder of the PI Claims Costs and Expenses.

(i) Debtors shall pay the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims subject to the entry of a Final Order granting the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims' request for allowance of such fees and expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which request shall be supported by the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and considered at the Confirmation Hearing. In the event such a Final Order is (i) not entered or (ii) entered allowing fees and expenses in an amount less than reasonable and documented fees and expenses requested, then (A) the PI Trustee shall pay or reimburse, as applicable, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of professionals that represented or advised the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, as and to the extent provided in the PI Trust Agreement and subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such fees and expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order and (B) such fees and expenses paid or reimbursed, as applicable, by the PI Trust shall be deducted from Distributions from the PI Trust Non-NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed Non-NAS PI Channeled Claims pursuant to the PI Trust Documents.

(ii) The PI Trustee shall pay or reimburse, as applicable, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of professionals that represented or advised the NAS Committee in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, as and to the extent provided in the PI Trust Agreement and subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such fees and expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order. Such compensation, costs and fees paid or reimbursed, as applicable, by the PI Trust shall be deducted from Distributions from the PI Trust NAS Fund to Holders of Allowed NAS PI Channeled Claims and pursuant to the PI Trust Documents. Nothing in this Section 5.9 shall impair or otherwise affect any fee contract that is not a contingency fee contract between the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims and its professionals, or between the NAS Committee and its professionals.

(h) Public Schools' Costs and Expenses. From the Initial Public Schools Distribution, the Public School Trust shall:

(i) dedicate an amount of $500,000 for payment or reimbursement, as applicable, of the out-of-pocket litigation expenses, such as for special bankruptcy counsel and expert fees and expenses, of professionals that represented or advised the Public School District Claimants to be computed based upon reasonable hourly rates and costs incurred, and not to include any premium to reasonable hourly rates, and subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such litigation expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order; and

(ii) pay or reimburse, as applicable, the reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs of the Public School District Claimants' putative class counsel in an amount determined by mediator Ken Feinberg (which amount is not to exceed such class counsel's contractual contingency fee of 25% of the Initial Public Schools Distribution) subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of such litigation expenses as provided in the Confirmation Order, less the amount payable to the Common Benefit Fund under Section 5.9(c).

(i) No Impairment of Contingency Fee Contracts; No Further Assessment. Except as expressly set forth in this Section 5.9, nothing in the Plan shall impair or otherwise affect any contingency fee contract between any Holder of a Claim (or any ad hoc group of Holders of Claims) and such Holder's (or ad hoc group's) counsel. In this regard, the payment of the assessments described in this Section 5.9 shall be the only payment that such Holders (or their counsel) shall ever have to make to the Common Benefit Fund with respect to amounts distributed under this Plan, and amounts distributed pursuant to the Plan to such Holders or payments to attorneys in respect thereof shall not be subject to any further or other common benefit or similar assessments.

5.10 Transferability of Distribution Rights.

Any right to receive a Distribution or other payment from the Plan Administration Trust (including any PAT Distribution Account or PAT Reserve), a Creditor Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust shall not be evidenced by any certificate, security, receipt or in any other form or manner whatsoever, except on the books and records of the Plan Administration Trust (as maintained by the Plan Administration Trustee), the applicable Creditor Trust (as maintained by the applicable Creditor Trustees) or the Master Disbursement Trust (as maintained by the MDT Trustees), as applicable. Further, any right to receive a Distribution or other payment from the Plan Administration Trust (including any PAT Distribution Account or PAT Reserve), a Creditor Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust shall be nontransferable and nonassignable except by will, intestate, succession or operation of law or as otherwise provided in the Plan, the applicable Creditor Trust Documents, Governmental Entity Shareholder Direct Settlement Agreement or the MDT Agreement. Any rights to receive a Distribution or other payment from the Plan Administration Trust (including any PAT Distribution Account or PAT Reserve), a Creditor Trust or the Master Disbursement Trust shall not constitute "securities" and shall not be registered pursuant to the Securities Act. If it is determined that such rights constitute "securities," the exemption provisions of section 1145(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code would be satisfied and such securities would be exempt from registration.

5.11 Insurance Neutrality.

Nothing in the Plan, the Plan Documents or the Confirmation Order shall alter, supplement, change, decrease or modify the terms (including conditions, limitations and/or exclusions) of the Purdue Insurance Policies, including the MDT Insurance Policies; provided that, notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, the enforceability and applicability of the terms (including conditions, limitations and/or exclusions) of the Purdue Insurance Policies, including the MDT Insurance Policies, and thus the rights or obligations of any of the Insurance Companies, the Debtors and the applicable post-Effective Date Entities, including the Master Disbursement Trust, arising out of or under any Purdue Insurance Policy, including any MDT Insurance Policy, whether before or after the Effective Date, are subject to the Bankruptcy Code and applicable law (including any actions or obligations of the Debtors thereunder), the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents, the Confirmation Order (including the findings contained therein or issued in conjunction therewith, including but not limited to any findings pursuant to Sections 5.2 and 5.6(i) of the Plan) and, to the extent the Insurance Companies have or had adequate notice from any source, any other ruling made or order entered by the Bankruptcy Court whether prior to or after the Confirmation Date. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in the Plan, the Plan Documents or the Confirmation Order shall operate to require any Insurance Company to pay under any Purdue Insurance Policy the liability of any Person that was not an insured prior to the Petition Date.

5.12 Transfer of Books and Records; Cooperation; Privilege.

(a) Transfer of Books and Records to NewCo and the Plan Administration Trust. Except with respect to Excluded Assets, all documents, books and records of the Debtors shall be transferred and assigned to NewCo on or prior to the Effective Date pursuant to the NewCo Transfer Agreement; provided that, from and after the date of such transfer, the Plan Administration Trustee shall have the right to retain copies of all transferred documents, books and records and NewCo shall permit the Plan Administration Trustee and its counsel and representatives to have full access to such transferred documents, books and records. All documents, books and records of the Debtors that are Excluded Assets shall be transferred and assigned to the Plan Administration Trust; provided that, except for the Excluded Privileged Materials, NewCo shall receive copies of all documents, books and records of the Debtors that are Excluded Assets. Any documents transferred under this Section 5.12(a) that are documents that were produced to the Debtors by Shareholder Released Parties in connection with Purdue Legal Matters shall continue to remain subject to the terms of the Protective Order and any order of the Bankruptcy Court or provision of this Plan affording confidentiality protections to such documents, unless such documents are included in the Public Document Repository in accordance with the Plan and the Master Shareholder Settlement Agreement.

(b) Cooperation with the Master Disbursement Trust and the Creditor Trusts. On the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall transfer and assign, or cause to be transferred and assigned, (i) to the MDT Trustees, (A) copies of all MDT Insurance Policies, (B) information and copies of documents, including books and records of the Debtors that reasonably relate to (I) any Claims previously noticed, tendered or submitted or paid by any Insurance Company under the MDT Insurance Policies and (II) any MDT Causes of Action, and (C) other information and copies of all other documents, including books and records of the Debtors that are reasonably necessary to preserve, secure or obtain the benefit of the MDT Insurance Rights, pursue the MDT Causes of Action or liquidate any other MDT Transferred Assets and (ii) to each Creditor Trust, a copy of the Proofs of Claims for Channeled Claims channeled to such Creditor Trust. Subject to Section 5.12(c) of the Plan, the materials to be provided pursuant to this Section 5.12(b) include those in the possession of the Debtors' current and former insurance coverage counsel. On and after the Effective Date, the Plan Administration Trustee and NewCo may maintain their respective documents, books and records in accordance with their respective document retention policies set forth in the PAT Agreement and the NewCo Operating Agreement, respectively. Prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall use reasonable best efforts to provide the Creditors' Committee and the Governmental Consent Parties reasonable access to current employees and professionals of the Debtors (including insurance brokers) with knowledge concerning the information and documents to be provided to the Master Disbursement Trust under this Section 5.12(b), and, after the Effective Date, NewCo shall use best efforts to provide the Master Disbursement Trust reasonable access to employees and professionals of NewCo with knowledge concerning such information and documents and to facilitate access to former employees and professionals of the Debtors (including insurance brokers). The Plan Administration Trustee and NewCo shall respond to reasonable requests of (x) the MDT Trustees for information and documents related to the MDT Insurance Rights, the MDT Causes of Action or otherwise, in each case to the extent reasonably necessary for the administration of the Master Disbursement Trust, and (y) each Creditor Trustee for information and documents relating to the applicable Channeled Claims or otherwise, in each case to the extent reasonably necessary for the administration of the applicable Creditor Trust. In the event of any dispute between the MDT Trustees and NewCo regarding the delivery of information or documents requested pursuant to clause (x) of the foregoing sentence, the MDT Trustees shall have the right to request intervention by the Foundation Trustees to resolve any such dispute.

(c) Privilege. The transfer or assignment of information and copies of documents, including books and records, in accordance with this Section 5.12, shall not result in the destruction or waiver of any applicable Privileges. On the Effective Date, all Privileges in connection with the information or documents transferred in accordance with this Section 5.12 shall be transferred to, and vest exclusively in, NewCo, the MDT Trustees, the Plan Administration Trustee and the Creditor Trustees in accordance herewith. Further, with respect to the transfer of Privileges to the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trustees, such Privileges shall (i) be transferred to such MDT Trustees and Creditor Trustees for the purpose of enabling such Persons to perform their respective duties as set forth in the Plan or in the MDT Agreement or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents and for no other reason, (ii) vest solely in the MDT Trustees and the Creditor Trustees and not in the Master Disbursement Trust or the Creditor Trusts, or any other committee or subcomponent of the Master Disbursement Trust or the Creditor Trusts, or any other Person (including counsel and other professionals) who is (or has been engaged by, represents or has represented) any Holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors or any Person that alleges or may allege a Claim, directly or indirectly, relating to or arising out of the Debtors' Products or operations and (iii) be preserved and not waived as a result of such transfer. For the avoidance of doubt, any such transfer shall have no effect on any right, Claim or Privilege of any Person other than the Debtors. No information subject to a Privilege shall be disclosed or communicated by the MDT Trustees or the Creditor Trustees (x) to any Person not entitled to receive such information, including for the avoidance of doubt any Person (including counsel and other professionals) who is (or has been engaged by, represents or has represented) any Holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors or any Person that alleges or may allege a Claim, directly or indirectly, relating to or arising out of the Debtors' Products or operations or (y) for any reason or in any manner other than as necessary for such Persons to perform their respective duties as set forth in the Plan or in the MDT Documents or the applicable Creditor Trust Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall preclude the MDT Trustees from providing information or documents received pursuant to this Section 5.12 to any Insurance Company as necessary to preserve, secure or obtain the benefit of the MDT Insurance Rights.

5.13 Public Document Repository.

(a) Summary. The document disclosure program provided in this Plan will lead to the public disclosure of the most significant documents about Purdue, the Sackler family and the opioid crisis, including video depositions and millions of documents that Purdue produced in investigations and litigation over the past two decades. In addition, it will lead to the public disclosure of millions of documents not previously available to the public, including documents not previously produced in any investigation or litigation and certain privileged documents from the years when Purdue developed and promoted OxyContin, as identified below. The document disclosure program and Public Document Repository will be conducted in a way to maximize public confidence and public access and will set a new standard for transparency.

(b) DOJ Repository Obligation. The Debtors bear sole responsibility for complying with the DOJ document repository obligation set forth in the Plea Agreement ("DOJ Repository Obligation"), and the DOJ Repository Obligation is not modified by this Plan. Similarly, the Debtors' satisfaction of the DOJ Repository Obligation shall not diminish the additional commitment to disclosure provided by this Plan. Instead, the public shall receive the full benefit of both, and the Public Document Repository shall contain the full set of documents that the Debtors have agreed to host under the DOJ Repository Obligation.

(c) Disclosure Oversight Board. As described further below, the disclosure program provided in this Plan shall be overseen by the DOB created on the Confirmation Date, consisting of up to four (4) representatives appointed by each of the Ad Hoc Committee, the Creditors' Committee, the States AG Negotiating Group and the MSGE Group and one (1) representative appointed by the Native American Tribe Group. No current or former director, officer, employee or attorney of the Debtors shall serve on the DOB or oversee the disclosure program.

(d) Purdue Legal Matters. As described further below, important material for the disclosure program is contained in documents that the Debtors preserved, collected, logged and produced in connection with investigations and litigation about Purdue's opioid business. Many non-privileged documents were produced in those matters, and many privileged documents were identified and logged. This Section 5.13 provides for the disclosure of many documents from the Purdue Legal Matters, which is a broad set of investigations and litigation defined in the Plan.

(e) Disclosure Program Budget. As described further below, the disclosure program is designed to avoid unnecessary expense, including by employing an unpaid volunteer oversight board and by using negotiated agreements to avoid the need for litigation. The disclosure program shall be funded in an aggregate amount of $39 million, which shall be paid in the following installments: (i) $2 million on the Effective Date, (ii) $10 million on the second Scheduled MDT Distribution Date, (iii) $10 million on the third Scheduled MDT Distribution Date, (iv) $8.5 million on the fourth Scheduled MDT Distribution Date and (v) $8.5 million on the fifth Scheduled MDT Distribution Date (collectively, the "Disclosure Program Budget"). The Disclosure Program Budget shall be spent at the direction of the DOB. In addition, as provided in the Plan, Domestic Governmental Entities may elect (but are not required) to direct portions of their distributions to the Public Document Repository under terms provided in the Plan. Moreover, the DOB shall be permitted, but not required, to coordinate its work on this disclosure program with the work of state Attorneys General on related disclosures in the opioid industry, in a manner that reduces the costs and increases the benefits of this disclosure program. Finally, to make efficient use of the knowledge and expertise of the Debtors and their professionals, the Plan provides for significant materials to be collected by the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, as described further below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Public Document Repository shall not be owned, held, administered or operated by the DOB, the Master Disbursement Trust or any Creditor Trust; the role of the DOB is to develop and oversee a temporary program to set up the appropriate Public Document Repository and achieve the goals of the disclosure program.

(f) Access Materials.

(i) Subject to the Protected Information review, as described in Section 5.13(o) of the Plan, the Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, or any entity or law firm designated by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust to assist in that review, shall provide the DOB access to a set of non-privileged materials for the purpose of accomplishing the Public Document Repository

(collectively, the "Access Materials") on a rolling basis following the Effective Date. These Access Materials shall include:

(A) all transcripts and audio or video recordings of depositions taken in the Purdue Legal Matters, together with the exhibits to those depositions;

(B) all documents produced by the Debtors in the Purdue Legal Matters (which comprise more than thirteen million documents and more than one hundred million pages);

(C) the non-privileged documents from the Relativity Database (as defined below) (which are estimated to comprise more than twenty million additional documents beyond those produced in the Purdue Legal Matters);

(D) all privilege logs regarding documents withheld by the Debtors in the Purdue Legal Matters; and

(E) documents obtained during the Chapter 11 Cases by the NAS Committee regarding clinical and pre-clinical studies conducted by the Debtors or other companies associated with the Sackler Family Members.

(ii) The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, or any entity or law firm designated by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust, will use their best efforts to complete the review of Protected Information and production of the Access Materials no later than 12 months after the Effective Date. Following entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors shall pay Wiggin and Dana LLP $5 million as a retainer on account of Wiggin and Dana LLP's fees and expenses in connection with the review of Protected Information as contemplated pursuant to Section 5.13(o) of the Plan. Upon its completion of such review, Wiggin and Dana LLP shall refund any unused portion of the $5 million to the Master Disbursement Trust concurrent with the final release of Access Materials to the DOB.

(iii) All documents containing information that is redacted as described in Section 5.13(o) of the Plan, and not included in the Access Materials provided to the DOB, will be provided to the Plan Administration Trust. The Plan Administration Trust will retain these materials for the period described in Section 5.13(aa).

(g) Debtors' Relativity Database. In the course of the Purdue Legal Matters, the Debtors collected a significant set of documents that are stored in a Relativity database (the "Relativity Database"). This collection includes files from more than two hundred custodians who played important roles at Purdue, including every Sackler Family Member who sat on the board or worked at the company. It also includes non-custodial documents, such as collections from electronic drives and paper archives. The custodial and non-custodial documents collected for the Relativity Database are from files that Purdue has preserved pursuant to broad document preservation policies in place for over twenty years, including from an email archive containing emails dating to the 1990s. Pursuant to the terms provided in this Section 5.13, materials from the Relativity Database created before February 2018 will be available for the disclosure program as described in this Section 5.13.

(h) Additional Collections. On or before the Effective Date, the DOB will identify to the Debtors the additional custodians whose documents should be collected, to the extent possible, from the email archive and other preserved files, and the Debtors will load those files into the Relativity Database for inclusion as Access Materials or Sequestered Materials, as applicable.

(i) Sequestered Materials. On the Effective Date, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall provide the Plan Administration Trust with certain Privileged documents, described below, collected by the Debtors during the course of the Purdue Legal Matters and stored in the Relativity Database ("Sequestered Materials"), to be preserved for access by the DOB. The provision of the Sequestered Materials to the Plan Administration Trust shall not constitute a waiver of any applicable privileges, and, for clarity, no waiver of any applicable Privilege shall occur prior to the Sequestration Date (as defined below). The Sequestered Materials are estimated to include hundreds of thousands of documents. To leverage efficiencies, the Debtors' current document review teams with experience reviewing Purdue's documents for privilege will screen and review, as necessary, all documents currently in the Relativity Database for Privilege, attorney work product, confidentiality, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or similar state or federal statute and critical business information before turning over documents as Access Materials or as Sequestered Materials. The DOB will aid the Debtors' document review team in setting parameters and search terms to effectuate accurate screening and review. The DOB may, confidentially and subject to privilege, request and be provided with information, and, as necessary, an appropriate, expert-aided statistically valid sampling of the relevant documents or other methodologies to aid in the foregoing review under an appropriate protective order and non-waiver agreement.

(i) Subject to the Sequestration Date, the Debtors agree to waive attorney client and work product privilege over documents created before May 1, 2014 ("Cutoff Date") that fall within the following categories:

(A) Marketing materials, promotional materials and sales strategies. This will include, for example, legal advice on: marketing and promotional materials as part of the medical, regulatory, legal review process and other reviews of statements in promotional and marketing materials to ensure consistency with a product's labeling and legal requirements; sales training materials (such as how to instruct the sales team on what they can and cannot say about the products); review of all call notes and whether statements on sales calls were appropriate; call planning; and sales bulletins. For the avoidance of doubt, "sales strategies" in this paragraph includes documents related to (I) medical liaisons, (II) continuing medical education, (III) the evolve to excellence program, (IV) Purdue's interactions with medical advocacy groups, and (V) legal advice regarding the performance, selection, retention, management and compensation of personnel in sales and marketing;

(B) Materials reflecting legal advice on submissions to the FDA and compliance with FDA regulations. This will include, for example, advice on the decision to reformulate OxyContin, advice on interactions and communications with FDA and advice on FDA requirements;

(C) Legal advice regarding distributions to or for the benefit of the Sackler Family Members;

(D) Legal advice regarding the organization or function of the board of directors;

(E) Legal advice regarding grants, gifts and other payments with respect to naming rights of Purdue and its shareholders;

(F) Legal advice regarding the performance, selection, retention, management and compensation of the CEO of Purdue Pharma;

(G) Legal advice regarding Purdue's interactions with state licensing boards and the federation of state medical boards;

(H) Legal advice regarding Purdue's interactions with key opinion leaders, advisory boards and treatment guidance;

(I) Legal advice regarding advocacy before the United States Congress or a state legislative branch with respect to (i) any opioid product sold by Purdue, including OxyContin, or (ii) any public policies regarding the availability and accessibility of opioid products;

(J) Employment records and files created before the Cutoff Date pertaining to employment terminations or disciplinary actions related to opioid sales and marketing, including documents created before the Cutoff Date pertaining to internal investigations of personnel related to marketing of opioids, in all cases subject to applicable federal and state privacy and similar laws with respect to employees and with any redactions necessary to comply therewith; and

(K) To the extent provided during the time period while the corporate integrity agreement was in effect, legal advice regarding compliance with the corporate integrity agreement entered into between Purdue and the DOJ Office of the Inspector General of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services;

(L) Legal advice regarding compliance with the consent judgments entered into between Purdue, the Debtors and the State Attorneys General and other state representatives in 2007;

(M) Legal advice to Purdue's public relations department regarding the promotion, sales, or distribution of Purdue's opioid products, including but not limited to their safety, efficacy, addictive properties, or availability of opioid products; and

(N) Legal advice to Purdue's compliance department regarding the organizational structure of the compliance department, including its processes for implementing order monitoring systems, suspicious order monitoring programs, and abuse deterrence and detection programs.

(ii) Subject to the Sequestration Date, below, the Debtors agree to waive attorney client and work product privilege over the following categories of documents:

(A) Documents reflecting law department reviews of, and decisions regarding, health care providers and pharmacies pursuant to Purdue's abuse and diversion detection, order monitoring system and suspicious order monitoring programs, which will have been or will be provided to the DOJ under a June 2019 non-waiver agreement;

(B) Documents created before February 2018 reflecting legal review, analysis and advice with respect to advice received from McKinsey & Company, Publicis Groupe S.A., Publicis Health, LLC, Razorfish Health, Publicis Health Media, LLC, Publicis Touchpoint Solutions, Inc., or Verilogue, Inc. related to the sale and marketing of opioids; and

(C) Documents created before June 30, 2017 reflecting legal review, analysis and advice with respect to Practice Fusion.

(iii) To the extent documents subject to any of the foregoing waivers were previously logged on a privilege log in a Purdue Legal Matter, the Debtors shall provide the DOB with amended privilege logs that indicate the entries being produced pursuant to these waivers. For the avoidance of doubt, Privileged communications (during the applicable time periods set forth in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii)) about interactions with the media with respect to subject matters that are otherwise waived herein are included in such waivers.

(iv) Nothing herein shall waive any third-party privilege or other rights, whether arising from a joint defense agreement, common interest privilege or otherwise, to which any document described in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) is subject and which the Debtors do not have authority to waive. The Debtors will provide the DOB with privilege logs reflecting documents subject to such third-party privileges and rights that are identified in the course of identifying and compiling the Sequestered Materials. No documents subject to such third-party privileges and rights shall be included in the Public Document Repository, absent appropriate resolution of such third parties' rights and privileges. Further, no waiver of Privilege described herein shall be construed as subject matter waiver. Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors, and the Creditors' Committee, and the Governmental Consent Parties shall work together in good faith to ensure that all documents consistent with the Sequestered Material categories shall be available to the DOB for potential inclusion in the Public Document Repository in accordance with this Section 5.13.

(j) Protection of the Privilege. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors do not waive any Privilege and do not agree to provide as Sequestered Materials for the Public Document Repository any Privileged documents or communications not otherwise identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii). Such Privileged documents and communications not otherwise identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) shall be removed from the Relativity Database and separately preserved, and shall not be eligible for the Public Document Repository at any time. All Privileged documents removed from the Relativity Database, and not included in the Sequestered Materials described above, will be provided to the Plan Administration Trust, separately from the Sequestered Materials. The Plan Administration Trust will retain these materials for the period described in Section 5.13(aa). For clarity, except for the Sequestered Materials identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii), the Debtors shall not intentionally provide the Master Disbursement Trust or the DOB with access to any documents or content of documents that are Privileged. In the event that the Debtors inadvertently provide the Master Disbursement Trust or the DOB with access to Privileged documents except for those documents identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii), that inadvertent provision shall not operate as a waiver of the Privilege, and, upon discovery, the DOB and/or the Master Disbursement Trust, as applicable, must promptly take steps to return the documents to the Plan Administration Trust or destroy such documents.

(k) Sequestration Date. On the date that is the earlier of (i) six years after the Effective Date and (ii) the date no Material Litigation is or has been pending for the prior six months, including the pendency of any appeals, the Plan Administration Trust shall deliver the Sequestered Materials to the Host Institution (the "Sequestration Date"). Those materials shall be made available for assessment by the DOB and disclosure in the Public Document Repository, subject to the other provisions of this Section 5.13.

(l) Responsibilities of the DOB. The DOB shall be responsible for:

(i) accomplishing prompt, broad, permanent, public disclosure of millions of the Debtors' documents via the Public Document Repository in accordance with this Section 5.13 to allow the public to examine the Debtors' role in the opioid crisis;

(ii) engaging with survivors, advocates, journalists, scholars, policymakers and others to ensure that the disclosure program serves the public;

(iii) directing the use of the Disclosure Program Budget;

(iv) maintaining protections for Protected Information, as described below;

(v) establishing procedures for resolution of challenges to the redaction or disclosure of information, as described below;

(vi) overseeing the Host Institution's implementation of the disclosure program;

(vii) coordinating, as appropriate, the disclosure of documents from other producing parties or non-parties in opioid cases whose confidential information is included in the Access Materials, including by discussing inclusion of Access Materials containing such third-party confidential information;

(viii) ensuring the long-term sustainability and success of the disclosure program; and

(ix) retaining and overseeing staff, counsel, or such other resources as are necessary and appropriate to accomplish the DOB's responsibilities under this Section 5.13.

(m) Host Institutions. The host institution(s) shall be selected by the Governmental Consent Parties and the Creditors' Committee (the "Host Institutions"). The Host Institution will be responsible for hosting and maintaining the Public Document Repository in perpetuity, including but not limited to: maintaining control and security over documents in the Public Document Repository; providing an accessible user interface; and providing clear and transparent explanations of its procedures to the public. Subject to restrictions and oversight imposed by the DOB, the Host Institution may employ appropriate resources to accomplish its responsibilities, including but not limited to the use of permanent university employees, temporary employees, contractors and vendor services. Commensurate with the large responsibilities assigned to the Host Institution, and subject to the decisions and oversight of the DOB and the requirements of this Plan, much of the Disclosure Program Budget may be directed to the Host Institution to fund the accomplishment of its responsibilities. As soon as practicable, the Debtors shall meet with the Host Institutions to agree upon the processes to be used by the Debtors to prepare the documents for delivery to DOB, including, for example, protocols, methodologies and technical specifications.

(n) Prompt Disclosure. In keeping with the importance of the matter, the DOB shall dedicate its best efforts to ensure prompt disclosure and shall seek to ensure that the public receives substantial disclosure at least every calendar quarter. The DOB shall prioritize prompt disclosure of the transcripts and audio and video recordings of depositions taken in the Purdue Legal Matters, together with the exhibits to those depositions. The Debtors will prioritize prompt production of the documents that Debtors have agreed to host pursuant to the DOJ Repository Obligation for immediate inclusion in the Public Document Repository for the sake of efficiency and cost savings.

(o) Redaction of Protected Information.

(i) The Debtors, the Plan Administration Trust, a successor entity to the Plan Administration Trust, or any entity or law firm designated by the Debtors or the Plan Administration Trust, shall implement appropriate procedures to protect the following information

("Protected Information") by redacting Protected Information in documents before they are provided to the DOB or disclosed to the public in the Public Document Repository and by promptly catching and correcting errors if Protected Information is disclosed. Protected Information is (i) any information protected from disclosure by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or similar state or federal statute; (ii) Social Security or tax identification numbers; (iii) personal financial account numbers; (iv) passport numbers and drivers' license numbers; (v) home addresses, personal email addresses, residential addresses, and personal phone numbers, including mobile phone numbers; (vi) information subject to confidentiality or trade secret rights of third parties that Debtors are without authority to abrogate; (vii) information subject to current Trade Secrets protection; (viii) information regarding individuals that is of a purely personal nature and does not pertain to the Debtors' opioid business or related practices; and (ix) other personally identifiable information otherwise protected by law. For the avoidance of doubt, Protected Information that should be redacted in a written document shall also be redacted in audio or video, such as deposition recordings.

(ii) The Plan Administration Trust must provide to the DOB a redaction log identifying the basis for the redaction with sufficient detail to allow assessment of the redaction's merits. The States AG Negotiating Group and Debtors will discuss and agree upon a robust audit process sufficient for the DOB to verify the Debtors' redactions are consistent with the final Plan, and the DOB's designee(s) and/or any auditors designated by the DOB will be given access to unredacted documents for this purpose subject to confidential safeguards to be agreed upon.

(iii) The Debtors and the Plan Administration Trust will prioritize the review of certain documents and custodians at the DOB's request.

(iv) Trade Secret. A 'trade secret' is information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique or process, that (i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to the public or to other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure and use; and (ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. Information reflecting opioid sales or promotional strategies, tactics, targeting, or data, or internal communications regarding sales or promotion of opioids will not be considered subject to trade secret protection unless the information is or contains specifically enumerated categories of Debtors' Information subject to trade secret protection set forth in Section 5.13(o)(v) of the Plan, and then only such information will be redacted.

(v) Debtors' Information Subject to Current Trade Secrets Protection. The following Debtor documents will be subject to trade secret protection: (i) documents that contain Debtors' trade secrets regarding (a) ANDA/NDA information that is not publicly available or is redacted in FDA filings, including development reports, batch records, and inspections, provided the redacted information contains trade secrets, and (b) Debtors' proprietary models, including the Rebate Return Model and the License & Supply Analysis Model; and (ii) documents dated less than ten (10) years before the disclosure that contain Debtors' trade secrets regarding: (a) Internal Cost of Goods Sold (COGS), including elements and calculations used to calculate COGS such as raw material sourcing, pricing, internal overhead, and capacity allocations, (b) Return on Rebate Model Data Output, and (c) License & Supply Analysis Model Data Output, including COGS, demand data, and gross-to-net information. Only the information subject to trade secrets protection will be redacted. Information reflecting opioid sales or promotional strategies, tactics, targeting, or data, or internal communications related to sales or promotion of opioids will not be considered subject to trade secret protection unless the information is or contains the narrow categories in this section, and then only the information subject to current trade secrets protection will be redacted.

(p) Limits on Redaction. There shall be no redaction of: (i) names of the Debtors' directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys or consultants or of prescribers or of officials or employees of a government agency, or (ii) email addresses at the "pharma.com" or "purduepharma.com" domain.

(q) Notice to Third Parties. Debtors shall provide notice to third parties, consistent with such third-party agreements, whose trade secrets or confidential information may appear in documents which are to be provided to the DOB.

(r) Inadvertent Release of Privileged or Protected Information. Notwithstanding anything else in the Plan, the Public Document Repository shall not contain or disclose any documents or content of documents that are Privileged, except for those documents identified in Section 5.13(i)(i) and (ii) above that are eligible for the Public Document Repository, or any Protected Information. Inadvertent disclosure of Privileged documents in the Public Document Repository does not operate as a waiver of Privilege, and, upon discovery, any Privileged documents shall be promptly removed from the Public Document Repository. The DOB will establish a procedure that permits any party or member of the public to identify or challenge the disclosure of any potentially Protected Information placed in the Public Document Repository. The DOB will cause any document identified through this process to be immediately removed from the Public Document Repository pending review. Any disagreements regarding whether such material is Protected Information shall be resolved by the Special Master.

(s) Special Master.

(i) Shortly after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors shall file an appropriate motion asking the Bankruptcy Court or the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to select and appoint a disclosure oversight Special Master. The
