I had to host a “Public Information Workshop (PIW) last night for property near East Linden Estates. After 32 minutes, I ended the meeting due to unruly, rude, ignorant to the rules, belihgerant, adults. I only call them adults due to their age, not because of their maturity. The presentation of the project was really never performed due to their rude interrupting nasty personalities. For those that know me, you must realize how difficult it was for me to maintain and accept this abuse. I hope some of them can view this and come to the realization of how terrible their behavior was. A room full of third graders would be easier to address.

I'm so sorry
Covid and Social media warriors, with 2 years of anti social lockdowns, turned many into arrogant, self centered monsters. And I do mean monsters. Sigh...
Some brought it from where they came from.

Many in our society have become so rude. Due to the media coverage of those acting out, some people think it's ok and they will be heard. It has the opposite effect on the rest of us that know better. Such a difficult society we live in. I'm so sorry you were the victim of that.

People were upset at this meeting because you and your client address the rezoning of this property in Dec and the county denied your request. This community went thru the proper channels and you lost your fight and just want to rehash it all over again apparently until you get the answer you want. Your name calling is as childish as your accusations. The meeting was cut short hopefully due to the fact you received the over whelming opinion that this project is not welcome here. And I recall you raising your voice before anyone else. you were very unprofessional as was your daughter, and to answer some previous comment, NO yankees there, all long time residents

You heard us the first time when we all went to the meeting at the courthouse that we are not interested in having a storage unit in our neighborhood. I believe we have enough storage units around and that are being built for all the newcomers to our area as long as they are on major roads not in neighborhood

Pamela Harris you are absolutely correct in that I did raise my voice by shouting enough. You people were talking over my ne another, much less me. Check your agenda gor property rights. My client has been paying commercial tax rates on this property long before most of you ever thought about moving to Hernando County. I sometimes rue the day I helped to develop East Linden Estates, Padron's West Linden Estates, Topics RV park

Alan Garman Alan Garman ...your client paying commercial taxes isn't relevant. I too own commercial property but I am aware of the zoning and what is permitted under it. Your client is asking to rezone something the residents are not approving of and that is their right. Maybe you should check their agenda of property rights. And just because you developed the area many years ago doesn't give you any rights to rule it.

Jesse Goodwin Thats the best you got? This is coming from a guy who accused these residents of being out of towners when you live in Brooksville, no where near this subdivision. So why don't you mind your own business.

Jesse Goodwin

I don't live in Brooksville, I purchased my land upon my return from my tour in Viet Nam in 1971 and spent 31 years working for Hernando county government. I just laugh at you people that move into this county and then complain about all the building. And I certainly know your neighborhood probably more than you do. Were you there when it was nothing but a dirt trail. Anything that happens in this county is my business. Enough wasted energy on you, have a great life.

Dale Jarvis I seriously doubt any of those mouthing off are long time residents. Those of us that have been here over 50 plus years or born and raised here would rather not have you out of towners here but that's what they call Progress. Your comment about " got your vagina hurt" shows your maturity, or lack of it. I'm sure you were one of those loud mouths that feels empowered by being in a large crowd. Perhaps you would be happier going back where you spent your previous life, I'll help you pack !!

I had to host a "Public Information Workshop (PIW) last night for property near East Linden Estates. After 32 minutes, I ended the meeting due to unruly, rude, ignorant to the rules, belihgerant, adults. I only call them adults due to their age, not because of their maturity. The presentation of the project was really never performed due to their rude interrupting nasty personalities. For those that know me, you must realize how difficult it was for me to maintain and accept this abuse. I hope some of them can view this and come to the realization of how terrible their behavior was. A room full of third graders would be easier to address.
